GENERAL GAS & ELECTRIC CORPORATION

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 12th day of March, A. D. 1943.

A declaration having been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by General Gas & Electric Corporation, a registered holding company, and notice having been given of the filing thereof by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER and otherwise as provided by Rule U-23 under said Act; and

This declaration proposing to pay out of capital or unearned surplus a quarterly dividend on the $5 Prior Preferred Stock of General Gas & Electric Corporation for the quarterly period ended March 15, 1942, excepting that as to the 27,889.1 shares held by the Trustees of Associated Gas and Electric Corporation, a registered holding company, the right to receipt of the dividend having been waived by them until further order of the Commission; and

A request that a hearing be held with respect to the said matter having been received;

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter under the applicable provisions of said Act and the rules of the Commission promulgated thereunder be held on March 20, 1943, at 10:00 a. m., at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On such date the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will advise as to the room in which such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Robert P. Reeder or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

It is further ordered, That, without limiting the scope of the issues presented by said declaration, particular attention will be directed at said hearing to the following matters and questions:

(1) Whether the proposed declaration of a quarterly dividend out of the capital or unearned surplus of General Gas & Electric Corporation is appropriate and in the public interest and the interest of investors;

(2) Whether the proposed action to be taken complies with the provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and all rules and regulations promulgated thereunder and is not detrimental to the public interest or the interest of investors or consumers.

By the Commission.

THE NORTH AMERICAN COMPANY AND ITS SUBSIDIARY COMPANIES

ORDER POSTPONING HEARING AND DESIGNATING NEW TRIAL EXAMINER

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its offices in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 11th day of March 1943.

The Commission having on February 8, 1943 pursuant to section 11 (b) (1) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ordered a hearing to be held on March 16, 1943 in the above entitled matter for the purpose of receiving evidence bearing on the retainability of The St. Louis County Gas Company by The North American Company; and

Counsel for The North American Company, The St. Louis County Gas Company and Union Electric Company of Missouri having requested that said hearing be postponed for a period of sixty days to permit the complete preparation of such evidence and having submitted affidavits in support of such request; and

It appearing to the Commission, after due consideration of such affidavits, that a postponement of said hearing until April 19, 1943 will afford said companies a reasonable time to prepare for such hearing; and

It further appearing that the Trial Examiner heretofore designated to preside at such hearing on March 16, 1943 will be unable to so preside at the postponed hearing;

It is ordered, That the hearing in this matter previously scheduled for March 16, 1943, be, and hereby is, postponed to April 19, 1943, at the same time and place as heretofore designated.

It is further ordered, That William W. Swift, an officer of the Commission, be, and he is, hereby designated to preside at such postponed hearing in the place and stead of and with the same powers and duties as the Trial Examiner heretofore designated.

By the Commission.

COLUMBIA ENGINEERING CORP. AND COLUMBIA GAS & ELECTRIC CORP.

ORDER PERMITTING CHANGES IN OPERATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 11th day of March, A. D. 1943.

The Commission having, by its order of April 16, 1938, tentatively approved, pursuant to section 13 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, the organization and conduct of business of Columbia Engineering Corporation as a subsidiary service company rendering services to the holding company system of Columbia Gas & Electric Corporation, a registered holding company;

The Commission having subsequently, on October 21, 1940, instituted proceedings under section 13 to determine whether certain changes should be made in the operations and conduct of business of Columbia Engineering Corporation for the purpose of requiring Columbia Engineering Corporation to cease paying compensation to certain persons who were officers, directors, or employees of, or who rendered or performed services for Columbia Gas & Electric Corporation;

The respondents having filed, on November 14, 1942 and February 25, 1943, amendments to the original declaration regarding the organization and conduct of business of Columbia Engineering Corporation, which amendments set forth certain changes to be made in its operation and conduct of business for the purpose, among others, of reorganizing system servicing arrangements to meet the requirements of section 13 of the Act;

Public hearings having been held after appropriate notice, and the Commission having examined the record and having made and filed its findings and opinion herein;

It is ordered, That the changes in the operation and conduct of business of Columbia Engineering Corporation proposed in the said amendments be carried into effect forthwith and that Columbia Engineering Corporation be permitted to continue its operations and conduct of business in the manner set forth in said declaration, as amended, subject, however, to any rules of the Commission now or hereafter in effect having general applicability to the activities of subsidiary service companies and to the following conditions:

1. No change in the organization of the declarant, the type and character of the companies to be serviced, or the method of allocating costs to associate companies, and in the scope of services to be rendered, shall be made without first obtaining the approval of this Commission of such change.

2. The Commission reserves the right to require, after notice and opportunity for hearing, prospective adjustments, and, to the extent that it appears feasible and equitable, retroactive adjustments of such cost allocations, in the event that the operation of the declarant's cost-allocation method does not result in a fair and equitable allocation of its cost among the serviced associate companies.

3. This order is not to be construed as a ruling that the declarant may not be required to effect such other changes in its organization or operations as may become necessary in order to conform with the Act or the present or future rules, regulations or orders of the Commission. Jurisdiction is reserved to reconsider the servicing activities of the declarant at an appropriate future time, and, after notice and opportunity for hearing, by order to revoke, suspend, or modify the permission granted to the declarant to continue its operations and conduct of business.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

ORDER CONTINUING DATE FOR RECONVENED HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 12th day of March, A. D. 1943.

In the matter of Cities Service Company, Cities Service Power & Light Company, Federal Light & Traction Company, Central Arkansas Public Service Corporation, Public Service Company of Colorado, The Ohio Public Service Company, The Toledo Edison Company, and The Empire District Electric Company, respondents.

Counsel for the respondents in the above entitled matter having requested that the hearing therein now set for March 22, 1943 be continued for the reason that a hearing on such date would not allow sufficient time for preparation for such hearing and preparation for oral argument by such counsel in another matter concerning Cities Service Company now scheduled for March 17, 1943; and

The Commission finding that a continuance of such hearing until March 29, 1943 is appropriate and not detrimental to the public interest or the interest of investors or consumers:

It is ordered, That the hearing in this matter now set for March 22, 1943 be and the same is continued until March 29, 1943 at the same hour and place.

By the Commission.

UNITED STATES EMPLOYEES' COMPENSATION COMMISSION.

[Administrative Order 1]

AUSTRALIA

LOCAL PAYMENTS OF BENEFITS

By virtue of the authority vested in the United States Employees' Compensation Commission by the Employees' Compensation Act of September 7, 1916, as amended, (sec. 42, 56 Stat. 725; 5 U.S.C. Sup. 793), the Foreign Claims Commission of the War Department is authorized to process claims, to make initial payments of compensation, and to furnish other benefits initially, as provided by such Act of September 7, 1916, as amended, and pursuant to the regulations of the Commission promulgated thereunder (20 C. F. R., Chapt. I, Subchapter A) and such supplementary instructions as may from time to time be issued by the Commission, in cases of civilian employees of the United States who are injured while in the performance of their duties for the United States in employment in the Commonwealth of Australia.

As used herein the phrase "to process claims" means (1) to receive, assemble, and file reports of injury, medical reports, reports of investigation, and other papers relating to cases of injury; (2) to make investigations and to secure necessary supplementary information in connection with cases or claims; (3) to obtain medical examinations; (4) to arrange for medical, surgical, and hospital services and supplies in the treatment and care of employees in disability cases; (5) to examine and adjudicate claims for compensation in injury cases, including making of findings of fact and award; (6) to prepare vouchers for local disbursement of benefits and local payment of medical and other expenses; (7) to review cases for readjustment of compensation.

The revocation of preference rating
(4) Neither the builder nor any sup-hereby revoked as to construction begun

As used herein the phrases "to make initial payments of compensation" and "to furnish other benefits initially" means the payment of compensation in cases of injury, and the furnishing of any other benefits provided for by such Act, except compensation for death, for a period not to exceed 180 days.

The action of the Foreign Claims Commission in any case, and the payments made under this authority, are subject to final review by the Commission and readjustment if found necessary.

Order approved by the Commission March 5, 1943.

PROJECT AT MULBERRY GROVE, ILL.

AMENDMENT TO REVOCATION OF PREFERENCE RATING ORDER

Amendment No. 1 to revocation of Preference Rating Order P-19-e, Serial No. 12340-e. Builder: Illinois Dept. of Public Works and Bldgs., Div. of Hwys., Springfield, Illinois. Project: Illinois SN-FA 9-Y (3) FA Route 12. Section Y-2A, Mulberry Grove.

It is ordered that paragraph (1), (3) and (4) of the revocation of Preference Rating Order P-19-e, Serial No. 12340-e, dated January 12, 1943, are hereby amended to read as follows:

(1) Revocation of ratings. Preference Rating Order P-19-e, Serial No. 12340-e, heretofore issued and assigned under date of June 23, 1942 to deliveries to the above-named builder and to deliveries to his suppliers, is hereby revoked. All preference rating certificates of any character heretofore issued to the builder or to any of his suppliers are hereby revoked, insofar as they apply to purchase orders or contracts for materials to be incorporated in or used upon the above described project in said order (hereinafter referred to as "the project"). Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph, such preference ratings issued under the above serially numbered preference rating order as may be required to complete the construction permitted under paragraph (3), are hereby restored.

(3) Prohibition of construction. The builder shall neither perform nor permit the performance of any further construction or installation on the project, except that for a period of three days after the issuance of this revocation, and thereafter if expressly permitted by the Director General for Operations, construction may be continued solely for purposes of safety or health or to avoid undue damage to or deterioration of materials already incorporated. Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph, the builder may complete construction of one concrete arch culvert at a cost not to exceed $14,000.00, identified as a portion of Illinois State Road project No. Y-2A.

(4) Prohibition of deliveries of material. Neither the builder nor any supplier, shall deliver or accept delivery of any further materials to be used in connection with the construction of or any installation on the project. This paragraph shall not, however, prohibit the delivery to their immediate destination of any materials which are now in transit, or the acceptance of any such delivery. Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph, the builder and supplier are authorized to accept and deliver materials required in such further construction as permitted under paragraph (3) as amended.

Issued March 11, 1943.

Chapter XI—Food Distribution Administration

PART 1415—IMPORTED FOODS

TEA QUOTAS FOR PACKERS AND WHOLESALERS

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 9280, dated December 5, 1942, and in order to assure an adequate supply and efficient distribution of tea to meet war and essential civilian needs, It is hereby ordered, That Food Distribution Order No. 18 (8 F. R. 1778) is amended by deleting § 1415.2 (g) of said Food Distribution Order No. 18 and inserting, in lieu thereof, the following:

(g) Limitation on size of packages. (1) No packer shall pack tea for sale at retail in more than two sizes, and such sizes shall contain either 4 ounces or $1\frac{3}{8}$ ounces net weight.

(2) No packer shall pack tea bags or tea balls for sale at retail except at the rate of 200 bags or balls per net pound of tea; and no packer shall pack tea bags or tea balls for sale at retail in more than 3 sizes, and such sizes shall contain either 48 bags, 16 bags, or 8 bags each.

(3) No packer shall pack tea bags for, or sell tea bags to, any hotel, club, restaurant, cafe, cafeteria, caterer, inn, railroad diner, lunch room, sandwich stand, or other public eating place, including any institution, in sizes other than the following: (i) for individual service, at the rate of 200 bags or balls per net pound of tea and in containers of only 100 bags each; or (ii) for iced tea service, each bag shall contain only one ounce of tea, and such bags shall be packed in containers which are in multiples of 16.

(4) Any packer may, however, continue to pack, until August 1, 1943, such other sizes of packaged tea, tea bags, or tea balls as may be necessary to utilize any containers in his inventory on the 17th day of March 1943, which were specifically printed for such other sizes.

With respect to any violation of Food Distribution Order No. 18 prior to the effective time of the provisions of this amendment, Food Distribution Order No. 18 shall be deemed to be in full force and effect for the purpose of sustaining any proper suit, action, or other proceeding with respect to any such violation.

The provisions of this amendment shall take effect at 12:01 a. m., e. w. t., 31st day of March 1943.

Issued this 15th day of March 1943.

TITLE 8—ALIENS AND NATIONALITY

Chapter I—Immigration and Naturalization Service

[General Order No. C-38]

PART 168—ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICERS AND DISTRICTS

CHANGES IN BOUNDARIES OF CERTAIN DISTRICTS

MARCH 11, 1943.

Pursuant to the authority contained in section 23 of the Act of February 5, 1917 (39 Stat. 892; 8 U.S.C. 102); section 24 of the Act of May 26, 1924 (43 Stat. 166; 8 U.S.C. 212); section 1 of Reorganization Plan No. V (5 F.R. 2223); section 37 (a) of the Act of June 28, 1940 (54 Stat. 675; 8 U.S.C. 458), § 90.1, Title 8, Chapter I, Code of Federal Regulations (7 F.R. 6753) and all other authority conferred by law, § 168.21 of Title 8, Code of Federal Regulations, is hereby amended, effective April 1, 1943, as follows:

§ 168.21 Districts numbered and defined; headquarters fixed. The territory within which officials of the Immigration and Naturalization Service are located is divided into districts, under the jurisdiction of district directors, numbered, defined, and with headquarters fixed as follows:

1 St. Albans, Vermont. Includes the State of Vermont; that part of the State of Maine lying north and east of the counties of York, Cumberland, Androscoggin, Kennebec, Lincoln, and Knox; the counties of Grafton and Coos in the State of New Hampshire; and that part of the State of New York lying north of the counties of Oswego, Oneida, Herkimer, Fulton, and Warren; also jurisdiction over the ports of Quebec and Halifax and United States immigration stations in contiguous Canadian territory.

2. Boston, Massachusetts. Includes that part of the State of Maine lying south and west of the counties of Oxford, Franklin, Somerset, and Waldo; that part of the State of New Hampshire lying south of the counties of Grafton and Coos; and the States of Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and Connecticut; also jurisdiction over the port of Yarmouth, Nova Scotia.

3. Ellis Island, New York Harbor. Includes that part of the State of New York lying south of the counties of Essex, Hamilton, and St. Lawrence, and east of the counties of Lewis, Oneida, Madison, Chenango, and Broome; and that part of the State of New Jersey lying north of the counties of Ocean, Burlington, and Mercer.

* * * * *

The number, definition, and headquarters of Districts No. 4 to 22, inclusive, remain unchanged except that, effective immediately, the description of District No. 16 is changed to show the headquarters as Denver, Colorado, instead of Salt Lake City, Utah.

EARL G. HARRISON, Commissioner.

Approved:

FRANCIS BIDDLE,
Attorney General.

[General Order No. 21]

PART 503—GENERAL ORDERS

EXTENSION OF TIME FOR FILING NOTICES OF CLAIM UNDER VESTING ORDERS

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, determining that it is in the national interest to extend the time for filing notices of claim under vesting orders as hereinafter set forth, and that adherence to a period of limitation expiring prior to September 1, 1943 may cause undue hardship or inequity to claimants, hereby issues the following regulation:

§ 503.21 General Order No. 21. (a) Without limitation by reason of any provision as to a specified claim period in any vesting order heretofore issued, any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of a vesting order, may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, at any time up to and including September 1, 1943, or within such further time as may be provided in any such order or on application or otherwise.

(b) The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive Order No. 9095, as amended.

Chapter V—Military Reservations and National Cemeteries

PART 52—REGULATIONS AFFECTING MILITARY RESERVATIONS

CLAIMS FOR REAL ESTATE DAMAGES

In § 52.16a[1] paragraphs (c), (d) (1) and (2), and (e) are amended as follows:

§ 52.16a Real estate; claims for damages. * * *

(c) Claims; where referred. All claims will be referred to the division engineer, or his authorized representative.

(d) Investigating board. (1) Division engineers are authorized to:

(i) Appoint a board or boards composed of members selected from their military or civilian personnel qualified in real estate and repairs and utilities matters to investigate and report upon each claim;

(ii) Request the commanding officer of the post, camp, station, or other military establishment at or most adjacent to which the claim originated to convene a board to investigate and report upon the claim; or

(iii) Dispense with the proceedings of a board where the evidence submitted by a claimant is not controverted and the amount of the claim does not exceed $500, and in such cases the commanding officer of the post, camp, station, or other military establishment concerned will furnish all available data pertaining to the claim.

(2) The report will include:

* * * * * *

(e) Disposition of reports. Reports will contain all essential facts and evidence with complete findings clearly stated and will be forwarded by the division engineer with his remarks and recommendations to the Real Estate Claims Board in the Office of the Chief of Engineers for examination, recommendation, and reference to the Office of the Under Secretary of War for review. Upon completion of this review, such claims will be returned to the Office of the Chief of Engineers for necessary administrative action, including reference to the General Accounting Office, Claims Division, for settlement. PART 73—APPOINTMENT OF COMMISSIONED OFFICERS, WARRANT OFFICERS, AND CHAPLAINS

OFFICERS APPOINTED IN ARMY OF UNITED STATES

Section 73.205 [1] (j) is hereby amended as follows:

§ 73.205 Appointments not made from certain classes. No person will be initially appointed in the Army of the United States from the following classes:

* * * * *

(j) Any civilian without prior commissioned service (see § 73.206 (c)) who has not attained his 35th birthday unless classified by Selective Service as class IV–D, or IV–F on account of physical disability, or who has attained his 35th but not his 38th birthday at the date of appointment if classified by Selective Service (or if as yet unclassified, but apparently classifiable) as class I–A. Exception may be made in the case of doctors of medicine, dentistry, and veterinary medicine, and in other cases where there is a critical need for the services of a particular individual, or where the individual is within a scarce category of specialized skill in which not enough men trained to fill the requirements of the armed forces are available at the time required. No civilian, of any age, except a doctor of medicine, dentistry, or veterinary medicine cleared by the Procurement and Assignment Service, War Manpower Commission, will be appointed if classified as II–A, II–B, or III–B unless released from such classification by his local board.

(k) See also § 73.207. (55 Stat. 728; 10 U.S.C. Sup. 484) [Par. 7j, AR 605–10, December 30, 1942, as amended by C 3, March 1, 1943]

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 10th day of March, A. D. 1943.

In the Matter of Jacob Moss, an Individual, Trading as London Tobacco Company

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission, the answer of respondent, testimony and other evidence in support of and in opposition to the allegations of the complaint taken before trial examiners of the Commission theretofore duly designated by it, report of the trial examiners upon the evidence, and brief in support of the complaint (no brief having been filed by respondent and oral argument not having been requested); and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that the respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act:

It is ordered, That the respondent, Jacob Moss, individually and trading as London Tobacco Company, or trading under any other name, and his agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of respondent's cigarettes, tobacco and other smoking supplies in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Using the word "London," or any other word or words indicative of England, as a part of respondent's trade name; or otherwise representing, directly or by implication, that respondent's business is a British concern or that it has any connection with any British concern.

2. Using the word "London," or any other word or words indicative of England, to designate or describe any product which is not manufactured in England or manufactured from materials imported from England.

3. Representing, directly or by implication, that any domestic product is imported from England or any other foreign country.

4. Using on respondent's products or in respondent's advertising any pictorial representation of the British Royal Coat of Arms or any simulation thereof; or otherwise representing, directly or by implication, that respondent is the holder of a Royal Warrant authorizing him to display the British Royal Coat of Arms on his products or in his advertising.

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon him of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which he has complied with this order.

By the Commission.

(Sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended by sec. 3, 52 Stat. 112; 15 U.S.C., sec. 45b) [Cease and desist order, Parfum L'Orle, Inc., Docket 4511, March 11, 1943]

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 11th day of March, A. D. 1943.

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission, the answer of the respondent, and a stipulation as to the facts read into the record at a hearing held in New York, New York, on January 25, 1943, which stipulation provides, among other things, that without further evidence or other intervening procedure the Commission may issue and serve upon the respondent herein findings as to the facts and conclusion based thereon and an order disposing of the proceeding; and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that said respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act:

It is ordered, That the respondent, Parfum L'Orle, Inc., a corporation, and its officers, representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of respondent's perfumes and perfume products in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Representing, through the use of the terms "Paris," "Paris, France," "London," or "London, England," or in any other manner, that respondent maintains branches or business establishments in those cities, unless and until respondent does in fact actually maintain such branches; or otherwise representing that respondent maintains branches in any city in which it does not maintain an actual bona fide branch.

2. Representing, through the use of the terms "Parfum L'Odorante," "L'Orle Odeurs," "Princess De Conde," "Madame D'Epinay," "Madame Adelaide," "Madame De Maintenon," "Madame De Pompadour," or any other terms, words, symbols, or picturizations indicative of French or other foreign origin of such products, or in any other manner, that perfumes which are made or compounded in the United States are made or compounded in France or in any other foreign country: Provided, however, That the country of origin of the various ingredients thereof may be stated when immediately accompanied by a statement that such products are made or compounded in the United States.

3. Using respondent's corporate name, "Parfum L'Orle, Inc.," or the brand name "Parfum Lodorante," to describe or refer to its products, without clearly and conspicuously stating in immediate connection and conjunction therewith that such products are made or compounded in the United States.

4. Using or furnishing to others for their use, printed or other advertising matter which contains the name of any of the well-known perfumes of respondent's competitors in connection with the listing or other offering of its own products, so as to import or imply, or the effect of which tends or may tend to convey the implication, that the products of respondent are identical with or are the same as the named perfumes of such competitors.

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with this order.

By the Commission.

PART 3—DIGEST OF CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS

F. A. STUART COMPANY, ET AL.

§ 3.6 (y) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Safety: § 3.71 (e) Neglecting, unfairly or deceptively, to make material disclosure—Safety. In connection with offer, etc., of respondents' medicinal preparation designated "Stuart's Laxative Compound Tablets," or any other similar preparation, disseminating, etc., any advertisements by means of the United States mails, or in commerce, or by any means, to induce, etc., directly or indirectly, purchase in commerce, etc., of respondents' said preparation, which advertisements (1) represent, directly or by implication, that said preparation is safe or harmless and may be used without danger of ill effects upon the health of the user; or (2) fail to reveal that said preparation should not be used in cases of nausea, vomiting, abdominal pains, or other symptoms of appendicitis; prohibited, subject to provision, however, that such advertisements need contain only the statement, "Caution: Use Only as Directed," if and when the directions for use, wherever they appear, on the label, in the labeling, or both on the label and in the labeling, contain a warning to the above effect. (Sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended by sec. 3, 52 Stat. 112; 15 U.S.C., sec. 45b) [Cease and desist order, F. A. Stuart Company, et al., Docket 4753, March 11, 1943]

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 11th day of March, A. D. 1943.

In the Matter of F. A. Stuart Company, a Corporation, and Benson & Dall, Inc., a Corporation.

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission and the answer of the respondents, in which answer respondents admit all the material allegations of fact set forth in said complaint and state that they waive all intervening procedure and further hearing as to said facts, and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that said respondents have violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act;

It is ordered, That the respondents F. A. Stuart Company, a corporation, and Benson & Dall, Inc., a corporation, their officers, representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale or distribution of a certain medicinal preparation designated "Stuart's Laxative Compound Tablets", or any other preparation of substantially similar composition or possessing substantially similar properties, whether sold under the same name or under any other name, do forthwith cease and desist from directly or indirectly:

1. Disseminating, or causing to be disseminated any advertisement by means of the United States mails, or by any means in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, which advertisement—

(a) represents, directly or by implication, that said preparation is safe or harmless and may be used without danger of ill effects upon the health of the user, or

(b) fails to reveal that said preparation should not be used in cases of nausea, vomiting, abdominal pains, or other symptoms of appendicitis: Provided, however, That such advertisement need contain only the statement, "Caution: Use Only as Directed," if and when the directions for use, wherever they appear, on the label, in the labeling, or both on the label and in the labeling, contain a warning to the above effect.

2. Disseminating, or causing to be disseminated, any advertisement by any means for the purpose of inducing, or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, of said preparation, which advertisement contains any representation prohibited in paragraph 1 (a) hereof, or which fails to comply with the affirmative requirements set forth in paragraph 1 (b) hereof.

It is further ordered, That the respondents shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with this order.

By the Commission.

PART 3—DIGEST OF CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS

GREENING NURSERY COMPANY

§ 3.6 (a) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Business status, advantages or connections of advertiser—Unique status or advantages: § 3.6 (ff 10) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Unique nature or advantages: § 3.80 (b) Securing agents or representatives falsely or misleadingly—Demand or business opportunities. In connection with offer, etc., in commerce, of fruit trees and other nursery products, representing, directly or by implication, (1) that the respondent is the only nursery which uses the bud selection method of grafting in the propagation of fruit trees; (2) that fruit trees propagated by the bud selection method of grafting can only be procured from the respondent or its salesmen; and (3) that the bud selection method of grafting is an exclusive feature of respondent's nursery stock; prohibited. (Sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended by sec. 3, 52 Stat. 112; 15 U.S.C., sec. 45b) [Cease and desist order, Greening Nursery Company, Docket 3673, March 10, 1943]

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 10th day of March, A. D. 1943.

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission, answer of the respondent, testimony and other evidence, in support of and in opposition to the allegations of the complaint, taken before trial examiners of the Commission theretofore duly designated by it, report of the trial examiners upon the evidence and exceptions filed thereto, briefs filed in support of the complaint and in opposition thereto, and oral argument of counsel; and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that said respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act:

It is ordered, That the respondent, Greening Nursery Company, a corporation, and its officers, representatives, agents, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device in connection with the offering for sale, sale, and distribution of fruit trees and other nursery products in commerce as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Representing directly or by implication that the respondent is the only nursery which uses the bud selection method of grafting in the propagation of fruit trees.

2. Representing directly or by implication that fruit trees propagated by the bud selection method of grafting can only be procured from the respondent or its salesmen.

3. Representing either directly or by implication that the bud selection method of grafting is an exclusive feature of respondent's nursery stock.

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with this order.

By the Commission.

TITLE 19—CUSTOMS DUTIES

Chapter I—Bureau of Customs

[T.D. 50831]

PART 8—ARTICLES CONDITIONALLY FREE, SUBJECT TO REDUCED RATE, ETC.

WHISKEY; DUTIABLE STATUS

Reduced rate of duty applicable to whiskey without regard to age. Article 459, Customs Regulations of 1937, revoked. [This document affects 19 CFR 8.57]

Pursuant to the trade agreements with Canada (T.D. 49752), the United Kingdom (T.D. 49753), and Mexico (T.D. 50797), the rate of duty on whiskey provided for in paragraph 802 of the Tariff Act of 1930, whether or not aged in wooden containers at least four years, has been reduced to $2.50 per proof gallon. Accordingly, article 459, Customs Regulations of 1937 [19 CFR 8.57], is hereby revoked, effective as to whiskey entered for consumption or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption on or after January 30, 1943.

PART 921—ALUMINUM SCRAP

[Supplementary Order M-1-d as Amended March 16, 1943]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of aluminum scrap for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 921.6 Supplementary Order M-1-d—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Aluminum scrap" means all materials or objects which are the waste or by-product of industrial fabrication, or which have been discarded on account of obsolescence, failure or other reason, the principal ingredient of which by either weight or volume is metallic aluminum; and shall include all types and grades of aluminum residues, such as drosses, skimmings, fines, grindings, sawings and buffings: Provided, That the recoverable metallic aluminum content, as determined by the fire assay, hydrogen evolution or other method of comparable efficiency, constitutes 15% or more by weight of such residues.

(2) "Plant scrap" means aluminum scrap which is generated in the course of manufacture, and defective or rejected material, the principal metallic ingredient of which by either weight or volume is aluminum.

(3) "Segregated scrap" means aluminum scrap which has been segregated and otherwise handled in such manner as to be acceptable for reprocessing into aluminum of substantially the original specifications in accordance with Section I of Schedule B hereof.

(4) "School scrap" means aluminum scrap which has been used in public or private vocational schools.

(5) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business, trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(6) "Producer" means the Aluminum Company of America, the Reynolds Metals Company, the Olin Corporation, and any other person who may be so designated by the Director General for Operations.

(7) "Approved smelter" means any person whose name appears on Schedule A attached to this order, as the same may be amended from time to time.

(8) "Dealer" means any person regularly engaged in the business of buying and selling aluminum scrap.

(b) Restrictions on use of aluminum scrap. (1) No person, other than a producer or approved smelter, shall melt, reprocess, smelt or otherwise use aluminum scrap unless specifically authorized so to do by the Director General for Operations on application made by letter to the Aluminum and Magnesium Division, Reference: M-1-d: Provided, however, That a foundry may remelt its gates, sprues and risers if in so doing it does not debase or contaminate the material, and if, in applying for permission to acquire aluminum, it reduces the requirements on its suppliers by an amount equal to the anticipated recoverable metal. A foundry may also accept a new casting of its own production, which is found to be defective or was spoiled in machining, and recast and reship it to replace the original casting.

(2) The Director of the Aluminum and Magnesium Division may issue directives to smelters, producers and others who may be permitted to melt aluminum scrap, which directives may direct the exact alloy or alloys which must be produced therewith and the amount of such alloy or alloys, and may prohibit the production of certain alloys. The Director of the Aluminum and Magnesium Division may also issue directives prescribing the amount of secondary ingot all fabricators (either independent or integrated) may be required to blend with primary ingot in the production of fabricated shapes, and he may, by directives, designate certain smelters who shall be the only smelters permitted to receive and melt scrap of certain alloys or the smelters who shall produce certain alloys. Directives with respect to all matters described in this paragraph (b) (2) may contain directions as to the production schedule of the person to whom they are issued.

(c) Segregation of aluminum scrap. (1) Any person who generates 500 pounds or more of plant scrap in a plant in any month shall carry out thereafter in any such plant the Aluminum Scrap Segregation Program set forth in Schedule B attached to this order and made a part hereof, unless otherwise directed by the Director of the Aluminum and Magnesium Division.

(2) Any person receiving aluminum scrap shall keep such scrap segregated, prior to its use in the manner permitted by paragraph (b) hereof, to the same extent as when received by him; and if he redelivers such scrap, he shall do so segregated to the same extent as when it was received by him.

(d) Contamination. No person shall contaminate aluminum scrap with any other metal or material, except that a producer or approved smelter may mix aluminum scrap with other metals in the production of aluminum alloys.

(e) Sale and delivery of aluminum scrap. Except as otherwise specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations, all persons generating or holding aluminum scrap shall deliver all such scrap at intervals not to exceed 60 days in accordance with the following provisions:

(1) 17S, 24S and 52S plant scrap solids. Unless the Director of the Aluminum and Magnesium Division has issued a directive to the contrary pursuant to paragraph (e) (6) hereof, segregated plant scrap consisting of 17S, 24S or 52S aluminum alloy (including Alclad and Pureclad) in solid form shall be shipped directly to any producer: Provided, however, That where the amount of such scrap generated from any one of such alloy specifications does not amount to 20,000 pounds in any month, the scrap of such alloy may also be shipped directly to any approved smelter or dealer.

(2) Other plant scrap. Except as provided in paragraph (b) (1) hereof, all other plant scrap shall be sold to any producer, approved smelter or dealer unless the Director of the Aluminum and Magnesium Division has issued a directive to the contrary pursuant to paragraph (e) (6) hereof.

(3) School scrap. School scrap shall be sold to any dealer or approved smelter and shall be designated as "school scrap" when sold.

(4) All other scrap. Any person who owns or originates any aluminum scrap (other than a person generating plant scrap or a dealer) shall deliver such scrap to any dealer or approved smelter and shall not use or dispose of such scrap in any other way.

(5) Dealer's operations. Unless the Director of the Aluminum and Magnesium Division has issued a directive to the contrary pursuant to paragraph (e) (6) hereof, all dealers must deliver any aluminum scrap (whether or not deemed to be usable in its "as is" form) to any producer or approved smelter: Provided, however, That any dealer may sell any scrap to another dealer if, in the regular course of business, he does not currently collect sufficient aluminum scrap to make it practicable for him to sell directly to a producer or approved smelter.

(6) Directives. The Director of the Aluminum and Magnesium Division may issue directives to a particular person or to a class of persons directing him or them to deliver aluminum scrap of certain alloys to another specific person or to a class of persons.

(f) Certification upon sale of segregated scrap. The generator of segregated scrap shall furnish the person to whom he makes delivery thereof with a signed document, in the form of Form PD–706 or in substantially similar form, showing (i) the alloy number or specification, (ii) form of scrap, (iii) weight (on a clean and dry basis, moisture content estimated, if necessary) and (iv) the name and address of the plant where generated. This document shall bear a notation as to the date of delivery and names and addresses of the parties to the transaction, and, in case of redelivery of such scrap, shall be endorsed and delivered to the person receiving such scrap. Any person delivering segregated scrap shall clearly mark it showing the alloy number or specification, form and source. No aluminum scrap other than segregated scrap shall be designated as segregated scrap by any person.

(g) Tolling prohibited. No aluminum scrap may be delivered or received pursuant to a toll, repurchase or similar arrangement, unless such transaction is specifically authorized by the Director of the Aluminum and Magnesium Division.

(h) No acquisition or delivery in violation of order. No person shall hereafter acquire or deliver aluminum scrap or products made therefrom if he has reason to believe such material has been or is to be used in violation of the terms of this or of any other order of the War Production Board: Provided, however, That any producer or approved smelter may acquire aluminum scrap for any use permitted by this order at any time, irrespective of the right under this order of the person disposing of the same to have acquired or to deliver such scrap.

(i) Records. Each person who participates in any transaction involving aluminum scrap shall keep and preserve for at least two years complete and accurate records as to all such transactions which records shall be subject to inspection by the War Production Board.

(j) Reports. (1) Any person generating 500 pounds or more of plant scrap in a plant in any month shall thereafter file reports monthly on Form WPB–317 with the Aluminum and Magnesium Division covering any such plant. All other persons generating plant scrap shall file quarterly reports on Form PD–828 not later than 20 days after the end of the calendar quarter except that those persons putting into process less than 3,000 pounds of aluminum in a calendar quarter will not be required to file this quarterly report for such quarter unless they have more than 500 pounds of aluminum scrap on hand at the end of the quarter. Producers or smelters are not required to file the above report.

(2) Any person, including smelters and producers, melting or smelting aluminum scrap in any month shall file a report on Form PD–272 with the Aluminum and Magnesium Division covering each such month. Such report shall be filed on or before the 15th day of the month following the month covered by the report.

(3) All dealers handling aluminum scrap shall file Form PD–249 with the Bureau of Mines, College Park, Maryland, by the 10th of each month, or such other reports as the Director General for Operations of the War Production Board may require.

(4) For the purpose of this paragraph (j), foundries shall not consider as aluminum scrap any gates, sprues or risers which will be reused in their own plant or any defective castings or spoiled castings returned to the foundry for recasting and reshipment to replace the original casting in accordance with paragraph (b) (1).

(k) Addressing of communications. All applications, statements, reports or other communications filed pursuant to this order or concerning the subject matter hereof, should be addressed to: War Production Board, Aluminum and Magnesium Division, Washington, D. C., Ref: M–1–d.

(l) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and, upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 16th day of March 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

SCHEDULE B

ALUMINUM SCRAP SEGREGATION PROGRAM

I. Segregation of aluminum scrap other than mixed aluminum scrap—(1) By alloy content. Aluminum scrap (other than mixed aluminum scrap as hereinafter defined) of each individual alloy (for example 17S, 24S, 52S, 645, etc., also 2S pure aluminum) shall be segregated from aluminum scrap of every other alloy.

NOTE: Scrap from coated material (Alclad or Pureclad sheet) may be included with uncoated material of the same alloy specification; but Scrap from painted material shall not be included with unpainted material of the same alloy specification except in very minor amounts.

(2) By form. In addition to the above segregation on the basis of alloy content, the scrap of each alloy (other than mixed aluminum scrap as hereinafter defined) shall be segregated into two form types:

(i) "Solids"—generated by shearing, clipping, cutting, blanking or similar process, also defective or rejected wrought aluminum parts, defective or rejected castings and gates, sprues, risers or similar foundry scrap;

(ii) "Machinings"—generated by machining, drilling, boring, turning, milling or like operations.

In no event shall solids and machinings be combined.

II. Classification of mixed aluminum scrap by form—(1) Definition. "Mixed aluminum scrap" shall consist of aluminum scrap in the form of solids or machinings, the alloy content of which cannot be identified, or of grindings, sawings, buffings and other fines and of drosses, swimmings and sweepings. It shall also consist of aluminum scrap generated from No. 12 type and piston alloy unless the generator certifies to the person to whom he makes delivery that the aluminum scrap was generated from a specific alloy of the No. 12 type or from a specific piston alloy.

(2) Classification. All mixed aluminum scrap shall be separated into four classes as follows:

(i) Solids;
(ii) Machinings;
(iii) Sawings;
(iv) Drosses, skimmings, grindings, buffings and sweepings and other fines.

Each of the four classes of mixed aluminum scrap shall be handled separately from each other class of mixed aluminum scrap and from all other aluminum scrap but shall not be treated as segregated scrap under Order M–1–d.

III. General provisions—(1) Official responsible for handling scrap. Each person operating a plant generating aluminum scrap shall appoint a responsible employee to supervise the collection, segregation and handling of all aluminum scrap generated in the plant. The name of such employee shall be forwarded to the Aluminum and Magnesium Division, War Production Board, Washington, D. C. No dealer or other person not a regular employee of the plant shall perform any such functions except as the Director General for Operations may specifically authorize.

(2) Collection and identification. Segregation shall be effected by collection at the machine where the aluminum scrap is generated. Separate containers for collection and bins for storage shall be provided for each type of aluminum scrap required to be segregated by this program. All containers and bins shall be clearly marked to identify the alloy and the form of scrap for which they are intended, and they shall be kept clean, dry and in good condition, so that their contents shall be protected from contamination and the weather. Each container and bin shall be used only as a receptacle for the alloy and form of scrap for which it is designated and marked.

(3) Identification of segregated scrap for shipment. Each unit of segregated scrap shall, upon shipment, be clearly marked or labelled as to alloy number or specification, form and source, i. e., the plant where generated.

(4) Obligation as regards subcontractors. Each person operating a plant, as part of his arrangement with any subcontractor to whom he furnishes aluminum shall impose an obligation upon, and otherwise make every effort to see to it that, such subcontractor institutes and carries out an adequate scrap collection and segregation program in conformance with this schedule and Order M–1–d.

[Conservation Order M–302]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of osmium, as hereinafter defined, for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3223.1 Conservation Order M–302—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Osmium" means the element osmium in commercially pure form, or the osmium content of any osmium-containing material other than an osmium alloy, whether or not such material is first converted into osmium metal. The term includes mixtures and compounds.

(2) "Osmium alloy" means any alloy containing 0.5 per cent or more of osmium metal by weight.

(b) Restrictions on use of osmium. On and after March 16, 1943, no person shall put into process or process any osmium, exclusive of osmium alloys, except for the purpose of manufacturing electrical contacts.

(c) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Appeal. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(2) Applicability of order. The prohibitions and restrictions contained in this order shall apply to the use of osmium in all items manufactured after March 16, 1943, irrespective of whether such items are manufactured pursuant to a contract made prior or subsequent to such date. Insofar as any other order of the Director General for Operations may have the effect of limiting or curtailing to a greater extent than herein provided the use of osmium in the production of any item, the limitations of such other order shall be observed.

(3) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(4) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Miscellaneous Minerals Division, Washington, D. C. Ref: M–302.

(5) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 16th day of March 1943.

Director General for Operations.

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[MPR 329,[2] Amendment 2]

PURCHASES OF MILK FROM PRODUCERS FOR RESALE AS FLUID MILK

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation 329 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1351.402 (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) The maximum price for each grade of "milk" shall be the highest price each purchaser of "milk" from a producer paid that producer for "milk" of the same grade received during January 1943, or such highest January 1943 price plus the amount by which the minimum producers' price for "milk" has been increased over January 1943 under an applicable order, agreement, or license issued pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, whichever is higher.

2. Section 1351.404 (d) is amended to read as follows:

(d) "Purchaser" means any person who buys "milk" from a producer for resale.[1] It refers to any branch, division, subsidiary, affiliate, or portion of a business organization, whether corporate or otherwise, purchasing "milk" from producers in a particular market as distinguished from purchases or other operations in different localities.

3. Section 1351.405 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) This regulation shall not apply to purchases of "milk" from a producer at a price lower than $2.75 per cwt. for "milk" of 4% butterfat content, or the equivalent thereof.

This amendment shall become effective March 20, 1943.

(Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871)

NEW HOUSEHOLD VACUUM CLEANERS AND ATTACHMENTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment is issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.* Subparagraph (2) in § 1370.11 (a) is amended, a new definition is added in § 1370.11 (a) (14) and a new paragraph (f) is added in § 1370.12 as follows:

§ 1370.11 Definitions. (a) When used in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 111, the term: * * *

(2) "Manufacturer" means any person who has produced any household vacuum cleaners since October 1, 1941, and includes all subsidiaries, affiliates, branches or other companies or enterprises under common ownership or control with such person.

* * * * *

(14) "Private brand seller" means any person, other than a manufacturer, engaged in the business of selling new household vacuum cleaners under his own trade mark or brand name, and includes all subsidiaries, affiliates branches or other companies or enterprises under common ownership or control with such person.

§ 1370.12 Appendix A: Maximum prices for household vacuum cleaners and attachments. * * *

(f) Maximum prices for sale to agencies of the United States. (1) Irrespective of the provisions of the preceding paragraphs of this section, the maximum price for the sale by any manufacturer of new household vacuum cleaners or attachments to the United States or to any agency of the United States shall be 47% of the maximum price for sales to consumers set forth in this § 1370.12 (Appendix A).

(2) The maximum price for the sale by any private brand seller of new household vacuum cleaners or attachments to the United States or to any agency of the United States shall be the private brand seller's net invoice cost plus a markup of 20% of such cost.

§ 1370.14 Effective dates of amendments. * * *

(h) Amendment No. 7 (§§ 1370.11 (a) (2), (14), and 1370.12 (f)) to Maximum Price Regulation No. 111 shall become effective March 20, 1943.

PART 1381—SOFTWOOD LUMBER

[MPR 26,[1] Amendment 12]

DOUGLAS FIR AND OTHER WEST COAST LUMBER

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation 26 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1381.58 (a) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) "Douglas fir and other West Coast lumber" means Douglas fir (Pseudotsuga taxifolia), West Coast hemlock (Tsuga heterophylla and Tsuga mertensiana) and all species of true fir (Abies) lumber produced in mills located in those parts of Oregon and Washington lying west of the Crest of the Cascade Mountains, and in Canada and Alaska.

2. Section 1381.62 (m) is amended by inserting after the phrase "for shipments originating in Alaska," the phrase "and delivered to points outside the continental United States."

This amendment shall become effective March 20, 1943.

PART 1394—RATIONING OF FUEL AND FUEL PRODUCTS

[Ration Order 5C,[1] Amendment 31]

MILEAGE RATIONING: GASOLINE REGULATIONS

A rationale accompanying this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order 5C is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1394.7952 (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) Form OPA R-544 Revised, for acknowledgment of delivery, to be used for the acquisition of gasoline by or on behalf of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, Maritime Commission, and War Shipping Administration of the United States, and by post exchanges, ships' service stores and similar facilities located at military or naval posts or stations, will be issued by the Washington office to the Washington headquarters of such agencies or activities. Military or naval posts or stations, and post exchanges, ships' service stores and similar facilities located at such posts or stations, shall use acknowledgments of delivery (or other evidences) for the acquisition of gasoline for transfer to consumers. Such form bearing the signature of an authorized officer, agent or employee of any such agency or activity shall be valid as an authorization of transfer of gasoline by any person to whom it is presented, to the extent of the gallonage thereon stated. An acknowledgment of delivery on Form OPA R-544 may be used in lieu of Form OPA R-544 Revised, subject to the limitations of § 1394.8154 (b).

2. Section 1394.8154 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1394.8154 Transfers in exchange for acknowledgments of delivery. (a) Transfer may be made in exchange for an acknowledgment of delivery on Form OPA R-544 Revised, or in exchange for an emergency acknowledgment issued in lieu thereof, in accordance with the provisions of § 1394.7952.

(b) An acknowledgment of delivery on Form OPA R-544 executed pursuant to § 1394.7952 (a) shall be valid for:

(1) Use by an agency or activity listed in § 1394.7952 (a) to acquire gasoline prior to April 1, 1943,

(2) Transfer of gasoline by a distributor to a dealer for replenishment purposes prior to May 1, 1943,

(3) Deposit by a distributor in his ration bank account prior to May 16, 1943, and

(4) Exchange for inventory coupons by a dealer prior to May 1, 1943 at the board having jurisdiction over the area in which his place of business is located.

(c) On and after May 16, 1943 an acknowledgment of delivery on Form OPA R-544 shall be invalid for any purpose.

This amendment shall become effective March 20, 1943.

[Ration Order 5C,[1] Amendment 33]

MILEAGE RATIONING: GASOLINE REGULATIONS

A rationale accompanying this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order 5C is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1394.7704 (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) A board having jurisdiction over an area (1) which is adequately served by subway, elevated railroad, or railroad commutation service, or (2) which has been determined by the Regional Administrator or Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing to be adequately served by other means of public transportation, shall allow mileage claimed with respect to which a ride-sharing arrangement has been made only if the applicant establishes that the use of such subway, elevated railroad, railroad commutation service or other means of transportation would not be reasonably adequate for the purpose for which such mileage is claimed.

2. Section 1394.7754 (a) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) That a bona fide ride-sharing arrangement has been made in connection with the use of the vehicle or vehicles for such purposes, pursuant to which at least four persons (including the driver) will regularly be carried in the vehicle in connection with their occupations, and that transportation is required for such purposes: Provided, That the names and addresses of all persons (other than the drivers of the vehicles) participating in the ride-sharing arrangement shall be set forth on separate sheets and attached to the application: Provided further, That a board having jurisdiction over an area (i) which is adequately served by subway, elevated railroad, or railroad commutation service, or (ii) which has been determined by the Regional Administrator or Deputy

(f) Bags, bagging and warehousing. (1) Whenever the producer, importer or primary jobber sells sulphate of ammonia in bags, he may add to the maximum prices permitted by paragraphs (a), (b) (c), (d) and (e) of this section, the sum of $1.00 per ton, together with the cost of the bags.

(2) If the producer, importer or primary jobber ships sulphate of ammonia from the producer's plant or, in the case of imports, from the point of discharge, to a warehouse situated at a point other than the point of production or discharge, stores the sulphate of ammonia in the warehouse, and reships it from the warehouse in bags, he may add to the charge permitted by the preceding paragraph the sum of $.50 per ton.

The point of discharge is the port at which the imported sulphate of ammonia is unloaded from a vessel, or the place at which a rail shipment of imported sulphate of ammonia is unloaded.

(g) Transportation tax. In any case in which the producer, importer or primary jobber is permitted by this section to require the buyer to pay transportation charges, the buyer may also be required to pay the three per cent transportation tax, imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942, on the amount of transportation charges paid by the buyer, although shipment is not actually made from the point from which the buyer pays the transportation charges. However, the buyer may not in any case be required to pay an amount greater than the amount of the tax actually imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act on the total transportation charges incurred in the shipment to the buyer.

The provisions of Supplementary Order No. 31 issued by the Office of Price Administration on November 26, 1942, shall have no application to this regulation.

This amendment shall become effective March 20, 1943.

PART 1305—ADMINISTRATION

[Gen. Ration Order 5,[1] Amendment 7]

FOOD RATIONING FOR INSTITUTIONAL USERS

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

General Ration Order No. 5 is amended in the following respects:

1. A new Sec. 3.5 is added to Article III of General Ration Order No. 5 to read as follows:

SEC. 3.5 Special procedure where board does not have Form R-1307. (a) If a board does not have a sufficient quantity of OPA Forms R-1307, the Regional Administrator may authorize it to grant allotments of rationed foods to Group II or III institutional users who have been unable to register under this order because of the lack of such forms.

(b) Application must be made to the board on OPA Form R-315. The applicant must state:

(1) The number of persons he served during December 1942 (computed in the way provided in Secs. 6.1 (a) and 7.1 (b) and (c)).

(2) His inventory (in pounds) of processed foods at the close of business on February 28, 1943, stated separately for each of the classes described in Sec. 3.2 (f) (1), as amended.

(3) In the case of a Group III user, the amount in pounds, of sugar and coffee used by him during December, 1942, and the amount, in pounds, of processed foods used by him in December, 1942, stated separately for each of the classes described in Sec. 3.2 (f) (1), as amended. (Each shall be computed in accordance with Sec. 7.1 (c)).

(c) Upon the filing of such application, the Board shall grant to the applicant allotments of rationed foods for the first allotment period, computed in the way provided in Articles VI and VII, and shall issue certificates therefor subject to the provisions of Article IX.

(d) Any institutional user who receives an allotment pursuant to this section must nevertheless register with the board prior to April 15th, 1943, on OPA Form R-1307, and must furnish all of the information required by that form.

This amendment shall become effective March 15, 1943.

[Ration Order 5C,[1] Amendment 32]

MILEAGE RATIONING: GASOLINE REGULATIONS

A rationale accompanying this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order 5C is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1394.7904 (b) is amended by deleting the word "or" after the word "Nebraska" and inserting after the word "Kansas" the words "Washington or Oregon".

2. Section 1394.7602 (a) (2) is amended by inserting after the words "Provided, That rations for fleet" the words "or official".

3. Section 1394.8010 (a) is amended by substituting a semicolon for the final period and by adding to the end of the text a new provision to read as follows:

(a) * * * Provided further, That in the case of a renewal application for a fleet or official ration the board may renew such ration without the presentation of the tire inspection records if the applicant submits to the board his signed statement setting forth that it would impose undue hardship upon him to present the tire inspection records because of the number or location of the vehicles involved or for other good rea-

WAR DEPARTMENT.

[Public Proclamation 16]

ARIZONA

REDUCTION OF MILITARY AREA

Headquarters Western Defense Command and Fourth Army, Presidio of San Francisco, California.

To: The people within the State of Arizona, and the public generally:

Whereas, the Secretary of War has determined that the military situation no longer requires the maintenance at its present location of the boundary of Military Area No. 1 within the State of Arizona as established by Proclamation No. 1, this headquarters, dated March 2, 1942,[1] and that therefore the area within that State now prohibited to persons of Japanese ancestry may be reduced:

Now, therefore, I, J. L. DeWitt, Lieutenant General, U. S. Army, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the President of the United States and by the Secretary of War, and my powers and prerogatives as Commanding General, Western Defense Command, and pursuant to a determination of military necessity for the continuance of Military Area No. 1 in Arizona as reduced and modified hereby, do declare and proclaim that:

1. Public Proclamation No. 1, this headquarters, dated March 2, 1942, as amended, is hereby further amended by striking from "Exhibit No. 1,[2] Description of Military Area No. 1," thereof, the following words:

• • • across the Colorado River to the point at or near Topock, Arizona, where the same intersects the southerly line of the improved road running from Topock in an easterly direction to Yucca, Arizona; thence along the southerly line of said road to the point at or near Yucca, Arizona, where the same intersects the westerly line of the improved road running in a southeasterly direction from Yucca to Signal, Arizona; thence along the westerly line of said road to the point at or near Signal, Arizona, where the same intersects the easterly line of the unimproved road running in a northeasterly direction to Wikieup, Arizona; thence in a northeasterly direction along the easterly line of said road to the point, approximately 16 miles northeast of Signal, Arizona, where the same intersects the southerly line of the improved road running from said intersection through Hillside to Congress Junction, Arizona; thence along the westerly line of said road to the point at or near Congress Junction, where the same intersects the westerly line of U. S. Highway No. 89; thence in a southerly direction along the westerly line of U. S. Highway No. 89 to the point where the same intersects the city limits of the city of Phoenix, Arizona; thence in an easterly and southerly direction along said city limits to the point where the same intersects the southerly line of U. S. Highway No. 80/89 east of Phoenix, Arizona; thence easterly along the southerly line of U. S. Highway No. 80/89 to the intersection with the southerly line of U. S. Highway No. 60/70 at or near Florence Junction, Arizona; thence easterly along the southerly line of U. S. Highway No. 60/70 to the intersection of easterly line of U. S. Highway No. 60 projected and southerly line of U. S. Highway No. 70; thence easterly along the southerly line of U. S. Highway No. 70 to the Arizona-New Mexico State Line; • • •; and substituting in the place and stead of said words, the following:

• • • to the California-Arizona State Line; thence southerly along the California-Arizona State Line to southerly line of U. S. Highway No. 60; thence easterly along the southerly line of U. S. Highway No. 60 to the southerly line of the Salome-Hassayampa road; thence along the southerly line of the Salome-Hassayampa road to its intersection with the Yuma-Maricopa County Line; thence southerly along the Yuma-Maricopa County Line to the southerly line of U. S. Highway No. 80; thence easterly along the southerly line of said U. S. Highway to its intersection with Arizona State Highway No. 85 (Gila Bend); thence southerly along the westerly line of said Highway to its intersection with the unimproved Gila Bend-Papago Indian Reservation road; thence along the westerly line of said unimproved road to the Maricopa-Pima County Line; thence easterly along said County Line and the Pinal-Pima County Line to Graham County; thence southerly along the Pima-Graham County Line to its intersection by the Graham-Cochise County Line; thence easterly along the Graham-Cochise County Line to the point where the Graham-Cochise County Line meets the Cochise-Greenlee County Line and thence easterly along the northerly Cochise County Line to the Arizona-New Mexico State Line; • • •.

2. Said Proclamation No. 1 is hereby further amended by striking from Paragraph No. 3 thereof, the following words: • • • and is shown on the map (Exhibit No. 2) as an unshaded area.

3. Said Proclamation No. 1 is further amended by striking from Exhibit No. 2[3] thereof the State of Arizona.

4. The portion of Military Area No. 1 being within the State of Arizona as hereby modified is shown on the map hereto attached (Exhibit No. 1)[3] as a shaded area.

5. Public Proclamation No. 2,[4] this headquarters, dated March 16, 1942, as amended, is hereby further amended by striking therefrom, Exhibit No. 2 thereof.

6. The description of that portion of Military Area No. 1 being within the boundaries of the State of Arizona contained in Civilian Exclusion Order No. 38,[5] this headquarters, dated May 3, 1942, is hereby amended to conform to the amended description of Military Area No. 1 set forth in Paragraph No. 1 hereof.

7. Public Proclamation Nos. 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12 and 14, this headquarters,[6] are hereby amended to conform to the foregoing change in the common boundary line of Military Areas Nos. 1 and 2, within the State of Arizona.

8. The foregoing amendments shall not operate to affect any offense committed or any penalty incurred because of violations of the provisions of the public proclamations, civilian exclusion orders or civilian restrictive orders heretofore issued by this headquarters.

9. This Proclamation shall become effective at midnight P. W. T. March 4, 1943.

[SEAL] J. L. DEWITT,
Lieutenant General, U. S. Army, Commanding.

Confirmed:
J. A. ULIO,
Major General, The Adjutant General.

NIPPON TRADE AGENCY

Re: Assets of Nippon Trade Agency, San Francisco, California.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation, finding that the property described as follows:

All property of any nature whatsoever situated in the United States and owned or controlled by, payable or deliverable to, or held on behalf of or on account of or owing to Nippon Trade Agency, San Francisco, California, which is a branch office or agency of Japan Foreign Trade Federation, Tokyo, Japan, is property of said agency which is a business enterprise within the United States and is a national of a designated enemy country (Japan), and determining that to the extent that such national is a person not within a designated enemy country such person is controlled by or acting for or on behalf of or as a cloak for a designated enemy country (Japan) or a person within such country, and the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of the aforesaid designated enemy country, and having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby vests such property in the Alien Property Custodian, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national", "designated enemy country" and "business enterprise within the United States" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

F. S. SAKAMAKI COMPANY

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that Francis S. Sakamaki is a subject of Japan and is interned in the United States, and therefore is a national of a designated enemy country (Japan);

2. Finding that F. S. Sakamaki Company, a sole proprietorship, San Francisco, California is a business enterprise within the United States;

3. Finding that said F. S. Sakamaki Company is owned and controlled by the aforesaid Francis S. Sakamaki, and therefore is a national of a designated enemy country (Japan);

4. Finding therefore that the property described as follows:

All property of any nature whatsoever situated in the United States and owned or controlled by, payable or deliverable to, or held on behalf of or on account of or owing to said F. S. Sakamaki Company, San Francisco, California, is property of a business enterprise within the United States which is a national of a designated enemy country (Japan);

5. Determining that to the extent that such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Japan);

6. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property described in subparagraph 4 hereof, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

7. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national", "designated enemy country" and "business enterprise within the United States" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

SOCIETE ANONYME DE MERBES-SPRIMONT

Re: Certain marble and monies owned by Societe Anonyme de Merbes-Sprimont.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that Societe Anonyme de Merbes-Sprimont, is a corporation organized under the laws of Belgium with its principal office in Bruxelles, Belgium, enemy occupied territory;

2. Finding that said Societe Anonyme de Merbes-Sprimont is controlled by a designated enemy country (Germany) or a person within such country;

3. Determining, therefore, that said Societe Anonyme de Merbes-Sprimont is a national of a designated enemy country (Germany);

4. Finding that said Societe Anonyme de Merbes-Sprimont is the owner of the property hereinafter described in subparagraph 5;

5. Finding therefore that the property described as follows:

a. Certain marble owned by Societe Anonyme de Merbes-Sprimont and presently stored in the plant of John J. Deery Co., Inc., 4242 Vernon Boulevard, Long Island City, New York, New York,

b. All right, title, interest and claim of any name or nature whatsoever of said Societe Anonyme de Merbes-Sprimont in and to all obligations, contingent or otherwise and whether or not matured, owing to it by said John J. Deery Co., Inc., including but not limited to all security rights in and to any and all collateral for any or all such obligations and the right to sue for and collect such obligations, and

c. All right, title, interest and claim of any name or nature whatsoever of said Societe Anonyme de Merbes-Sprimont in and to all obligations, contingent or otherwise and whether or not matured, owing to it by Philadelphia National Bank, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, including but not limited to all security rights in and to any and all collateral for any or all such obligations and including particularly the account in said Philadelphia National Bank which is due and owing to and held for said Societe Anonyme de Merbes-Sprimont, is property within the United States owned or controlled by a national of a designated enemy country (Germany);

6. Determining that the property described in subparagraphs 5b and 5c hereof is necessary for the maintenance or safeguarding of other property (namely, that hereinbefore described in subparagraph 5a) belonging to the same national of the same designated enemy country and subject to vesting (and in fact vested by this order) pursuant to section 2 of said Executive Order;

7. Determining that to the extent that such national is a person not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Germany);

8. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property described in subparagraph 5 hereof, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

9. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on February 1, 1943.

Re: Second mortgage owned by William Elberfeld on certain real property in Brooklyn, New York.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that William Elberfeld is a citizen of Germany, who has been interned by the United States Government at the alien detention station, Camp Forrest, Tennessee, and is a national of a designated enemy country (Germany);

2. Finding that William Elberfeld is the owner of a second mortgage on certain real property located at 34 Prospect Street, Borough of Brooklyn, City, County and State of New York;

3. Finding that the property described as follows:

All right, title, interest, estate and claim of any name or nature whatsoever, of William Elberfeld, in and to any and all obligations, contingent or otherwise and whether or not matured, which are secured by a second mortgage, dated April 1, 1942, and recorded April 2, 1942 in the County Clerk's Office of Kings County, New York, in Liber 8823 of Mortgages, page 578, on the lot and improvements located at 34 Prospect Street, Borough of Brooklyn, City, County and State of New York, more particularly described in Exhibit A attached hereto and made a part hereof, including but not limited to all security rights in and to any and all collateral (including the aforesaid second mortgage) for any or all of such obligations and the right to enforce and collect such obligations, is property within the United States owned or controlled by a national of a designated enemy country (Germany);

4. Determining that to the extent that such national is a person not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Germany);

5. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property described in subparagraph 3 hereof, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

6. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on February 8, 1943.

[Vesting Order 908]

NEW PACIFIC HOLDING COMPANY

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that the persons whose names and last known addresses, as represented to the undersigned, are set forth in Exhibit A attached hereto and made a part hereof, are nationals of a designated enemy country (Japan);

2. Finding that said persons are the owners of 3,452 shares of no par value common capital stock of New Pacific Holding Company, a Washington corporation, Seattle, Washington, which is a business enterprise within the United States, the number of shares owned by each of whom is set forth in said Exhibit A;

3. Finding that said 3,452 shares constitute a substantial part (namely, 18.96%) of all outstanding shares of capital stock of said business enterprise and represent an interest therein;

4. Determining, therefore, that such business enterprise is a national of a designated enemy country (Japan);

5. Determining that to the extent that such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Japan);

6. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and hereby (i) vests in the Alien Property Custodian the shares of stock described in subparagraph 2, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States, and (ii) undertakes the direction, management, supervision and control of such business enterprise to the extent deemed necessary or advisable from time to time by the undersigned.

7. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, or to vary the extent of such direction, management, supervision or control or to terminate the same, if and when it should be determined that any of such action should be taken.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national", "designated enemy country" and "business enterprise within the United States" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

HEITARO FUJITA

Re: Real properties located in Passaic County, New Jersey, owned by Heitaro Fujita.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that Heitaro Fujita, also known as Baron Rartero Fujiti, is a citizen of Japan, whose last known address is Prefecture of Osaka, City of Osaka, Japan, and is a national of a designated enemy country (Japan);

2. Finding that said Heitaro Fujita is the owner of the real properties hereinafter described in subparagraph 3;

3. Finding that the property described as follows:

All right, title, interest and estate, both legal and equitable, of Heitaro Fujita and of such of his heirs, devisees, legatees, representatives, successors, and assigns who are nationals of designated enemy countries, and of any and all other nationals of any and all designated enemy countries, in and to that certain real property situated in the Township of Pompton, County of Passaic and State of New Jersey, more particularly described in Exhibits A, B, C, D, E, F and G attached hereto and by reference made a part hereof, together with all fixtures, improvements and appurtenances thereto, and any and all claims of the aforesaid Heitaro Fujita and other nationals of designated enemy countries for rents, refunds, benefits or other payments arising from the ownership of such property.

is property within the United States owned or controlled by a national or nationals of a designated enemy country (Japan) or countries;

4 Determining that to the extent that such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Japan) or countries;

5 Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property hereinbefore described in subparagraph 3, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Executed at Washington, D. C. on February 17, 1943.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act as amended and Executive Order 9095 as amended and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian after investigation,

Finding that—

(1) The property and interests hereinafter described are property which is in the process of administration by the First National Bank of Tampa, Florida, Trustee, acting under the judicial supervision of the County Judge's Court of the State of Florida in and for the County of Hillsborough.

(2) Such property and interests are payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, a national of a designated enemy country, Germany, namely,

National:	Last known address
Daniel Haupt	Germany

And determining that—

(3) If such national is a person not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of a designated enemy country, Germany; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Daniel Haupt in and to the trust created under the will of Mathilde Carl, deceased, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and interests and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property and interests or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Dated: March 12, 1943.

Nationals:	Last known address
The heirs at law, next of kin, distributees and legal representatives of Pauline Sinko, deceased	Hungary.
James Sinko	Hungary.
Matthew Sinko	Hungary.
Helen Sinko	Hungary.
Elizabeth Sinko	Hungary.

And determining that—

(3) If such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country, Hungary; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of the heirs at law, next of kin, distributees and legal representatives of Pauline Sinko, deceased, James Sinko, Matthew Sinko, Helen Sinko and Elizabeth Sinko, and each of them, in and to the Estate of James Sinko, deceased, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and interests and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property and interests or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

COMMONWEALTH & SOUTHERN CORP., ET AL.

INTERIM ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION

In the matter of The Commonwealth & Southern Corporation and its subsidiary companies, respondents. Transportation Securities Corporation and The Commonwealth & Southern Corporation.

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 13th day of March 1943.

Transportation Securities Corporation ("Transportation") and The Commonwealth & Southern Corporation ("Commonwealth"), its parent company, having filed an application with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, particularly sections 9 and 10 thereof, regarding the acquisition by Transportation of 18,000 shares of Commonwealth's preferred stock, $6 Series, in consideration for the sale by Transportation of its investment in Springfield Transportation Company consisting of 5,000 shares (the entire issue) of that company's capital stock, in accordance with an agreement between Transportation and A. C. Allyn & Co., Incorporated and Equitable Securities Corporation; and

A public hearing on said application having been held after appropriate notice; the Commmission having examined the record and deeming it appropriate in the public interest to grant said application, and finding that the proposed transaction has the tendency required by section 10 (c) (2) and that no adverse findings are necessary under section 10 (c) (1), or under section 10 (b) by reason of the condition hereinafter imposed that Commonwealth shall promptly acquire the said 18,000 shares of the preferred stock from Transportation;

It is ordered, That said application be and hereby is granted forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U–24 and to the following additional terms and conditions:

(1) That within 15 days after the consummation of the aforesaid transactions, Commonwealth shall take steps to purchase from Transportation for cash, at a price to be approved by the Commission, the aforesaid 18,000 shares of Commonwealth's preferred stock, $6 Series, which are to be acquired by Transportation; and

(2) That jurisdiction be and hereby is reserved with respect to accounting entries on the books of Transportation and Commonwealth relating to the aforementioned transactions.

By the Commission.

CENTRAL STANDARD CONSOLIDATED MINES

ORDER RECONVENING HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its offices in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 15th day of March, A. D. 1943.

In the matter of Central Standard Consolidated Mines, common stock, 10¢ par value.

The Commission having heretofore on January 29, 1943, ordered that a hearing under section 19 (a) (2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, be held in this matter on February 19, 1943, at 10 A. M., Mountain War Time, at the Regional Office of the Securities and Exchange Commission in Denver, Colorado; and

Such hearing having been duly convened and thereafter adjourned to be reconvened at the offices of the Commission in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on a date to be determined by the Commission;

It is ordered, That such hearing be reconvened on April 12, 1943, at 10 A. M., Eastern War Time, in Room 318 of the Securities and Exchange Commission Building, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and continue thereafter at such time and place as the officer hereinafter designated may determine; and

It is further ordered, That in addition to the officer heretofore designated for the purpose of such proceeding, Charles S. Moore, an officer of the Commission, be and he hereby is designated to administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take testimony, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

By direction of the Commission.

PROCLAMATION 2578

ESTABLISHING THE JACKSON HOLE NATIONAL MONUMENT—WYOMING

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS the area in the State of Wyoming known as the Jackson Hole country, including that portion thereof which is located in the Teton National Forest, contains historic landmarks and other objects of historic and scientific interest that are situated upon lands owned or controlled by the United States; and

WHEREAS it appears that the public interest would be promoted by establishing the aforesaid area as a national monument to be known as the Jackson Hole National Monument:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States of America, under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by the act of June 4, 1897 (30 Stat. 11, 36; U.S.C., title 16, sec. 473), and the act of June 8, 1906 (34 Stat. 225; U.S.C., title 16, sec. 431), do proclaim that the Teton National Forest lands within the aforesaid area are hereby excluded from the said national forest and that, subject to all valid existing rights, the lands excluded from the said national forest together with all other lands within the following-described area are reserved from all forms of appropriation under the public land laws and set apart as a national monument, which shall hereafter be known as the Jackson Hole National Monument:

Beginning on the present western boundary line of the Grand Teton National Park at a point where the hydrographic divide between Webb Canyon and Snowshoe Canyon intersects the hydrographic divide of the Teton Mountains (within what will probably be when surveyed section 1, township 45 north, range 117 west, sixth principal meridian); thence northerly and northeasterly along the divide formed by the crest of the Teton Range to the projected position of what will be when surveyed the line between sections 4 and 5, township 47 north, range 116 west; thence south along the section line between sections 4 and 5, 8 and 9, to the point for the corner of sections 8, 9, 16, and 17; thence east along the line between sections 9 and 16, 10 and 15, 11 and 14, 12 and 13, township 47 north, range 116 west, sections 7 and 18, 8 and 17, 9 and 16, to the point for the corner of sections 9, 10, 15, and 16, township 47 north, range 115 west; thence south along the line between sections 15 and 16, 21 and 22, 27 and 28, to the point for the corner of sections 27, 28, 33, and 34; thence east along the line between sections 27 and 34, 26 and 35, to the point for the corner of sections 25, 26, 35, and 36; thence south along the line between sections 35 and 36, township 47 north, range 115 west, sections 1 and 2, 11 and 12, 13 and 14, 23 and 24, to the section corner common to sections 23, 24, 25, and 26; thence east along the line between sections 24 and 25, township 46 north, range 115 west, sections 19 and 30, 20 and 29, 21 and 28, 22 and 27, 23 and 26, 24 and 25, township 46 north, range 114 west, sections 19 and 30, township 46 north, range 113 west, to the point for the quarter section corner of sections 19 and 30; thence south along the meridional quarter section line of unsurveyed sections 30 and 31, township 46 north, range 113 west, and surveyed sections 6, 7, 18, 19 and 30, township 45 north, range 113 west, to the present boundary of the Teton National Forest; thence easterly, southerly, and southwesterly along the Teton National Forest boundary to the corner of sections 25 and 36 on the east boundary of township 44 north, range 115 west; thence west three-fourths mile to the west one-sixteenth section corner of sections 25 and 36; thence south one-half mile to the west center one-sixteenth section corner of section 36; thence east one-fourth mile to the present boundary of the Teton National Forest; thence southerly along the Teton National Forest boundary to the south bank of the Gros Ventre River; thence westerly along the south bank of the Gros Ventre River to the line between sections 10 and 11, township 42 north, range 115 west; thence south to the section corner common to sections 10, 11, 14 and 15; thence west to the section corner common to sections 8, 9, 16, and 17; thence south to the section corner common to sections 20, 21, 28, and 29, thence west one-half mile to the quarter section corner between sections 20 and 29; thence south one-half mile to the center quarter section corner of section 29, township 42 north, range 115 west; thence west to the quarter section corner of sections 25 and 30 on the line between township 42 north, range 115 west, and township 42 north, range 116 west; thence south to the corner of sections 25, 30, 31 and 36; thence west to the corner of sections 25, 26, 35 and 36; thence south along the line between sec-

The reservation made by this proclamation supersedes, as to any of the above-described lands affected thereby, the withdrawals made for classification and other purposes by Executive Orders No. 3394 of January 28, 1921; No. 4685 of July 7, 1927; No. 4857 of April 16, 1928; No. 5040 of February 4, 1929; No. 5436 of September 2, 1930; No. 5480 of November 13, 1930; and No. 7680 of July 30, 1937.

Warning is hereby expressly given to all unauthorized persons not to appropriate, injure, destroy, or remove any feature of this monument and not to locate or settle upon any of the lands thereof.

The Director of the National Park Service, under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, shall have the supervision, management, and control of the monument as provided in the act of Congress entitled "An Act to establish a National Park Service, and for other purposes," approved August 25, 1916 (39 Stat. 535, U. S. C., title 16, secs. 1 and 2), and acts supplementary thereto or amendatory thereof, except that the administration of the monument shall be subject to the reclamation withdrawal heretofore made under the authority of the act of June 17, 1902, 32 Stat. 388.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this 15th day of March in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and forty-three, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixty-seventh.

TITLE 5—ADMINISTRATIVE PERSONNEL

Chapter I—Civil Service Commission

PART 18—WAR SERVICE REGULATIONS

SEPARATIONS AND TRANSFERS UNDER REDUCTION IN FORCE INSTRUCTIONS ISSUED BY THE BUREAU OF THE BUDGET

The following regulations are prescribed to govern transfers and separations of employees in the executive branch of the Government who must be released under instructions issued by the Bureau of the Budget.

Sec.
18.701 Reductions in force under instructions issued by the Bureau of the Budget.
18.702 Employees separated under instructions received from the Bureau of the Budget to be placed on reemployment list.
18.901 Transfers under instructions received from the Bureau of the Budget.
18.902 Procedure in effecting transfers.
18.903 Transfers without the consent of the employees; appeals.

AUTHORITY: §§ 18.701 and 18.702 issued under the authority of E.O. 4240, June 4, 1925. §§ 18.901 to 18.903 issued under the authority of Pub. Law 821, approved December 22, 1942, E.O. 9063 (7 F.R. 1075), E.O. 9243 (7 F.R. 7213) and Directive X, War Manpower Commission (7 F.R. 7298).

§ 18.701 Reductions in force under instructions issued by the Bureau of the Budget. When the objectives of the transfer program set forth in § 18.901 of this chapter cannot be met, either because the services of employees released from any department or agency are not needed in and cannot be effectively utilized in other departments or agencies, or because the necessary time limit does not permit the completion of the process of locating vacancies for and transferring all released employees whose services might properly be utilized in the War Program, a sufficient number of employees must be separated from the roll of any agency in which a reduction in force is necessary to bring the total personnel on the rolls within the maximum figure permitted under the Bureau of the Budget instructions.

The requirement that formal separation rating lists shall be prepared and submitted to the Commission for approval before becoming effective is waived, until further notice. In lieu of such formal separation lists, and in addition to the lists of personnel called for in § 18.902 of this chapter, the department or agency shall immediately begin to prepare special separation lists showing the names of all employees in the groups in which separations are being proposed. The names of these employees shall be listed in order of proposed separation, the ones lowest on the list being the ones first to be separated. Such lists shall be prepared with due regard to tenure of employment, military preference, efficiency ratings, and length of service. The rules set forth below shall be followed:

(a) In any competitive group, consider as subgroup 1 employees now serving under permanent appointment, and employees serving under any other type of appointment (except temporary) who have currently completed a minimum of three years of continuous service. Consider as subgroup 2 all other employees except temporaries. Consider as subgroup 3 employees serving under temporary appointment limited to a specified period of time of one year or less.

(b) No employee in a lower numbered subgroup shall be separated so long as any employee in a higher numbered subgroup is retained on work of the same or similar type.

(c) In any subgroup of any competitive group, no employee entitled to military preference whose efficiency rating is "Good" or better than "Good" shall be separated, so long as any employee not entitled to military preference is retained on work of the same or similar type.

(d) In any subgroup of any competitive group, no employee entitled to military preference whose efficiency rating is less than "Good" shall be separated so long as any employee not entitled to military preference with an equal or lower efficiency rating is retained on work of the same or similar type.

(e) Subject to the foregoing rules, in general, employees with higher efficiency ratings should be preferred for retention to employees with lower efficiency ratings and where the efficiency ratings are equal employees with longer periods of service should be preferred for retention to employees with shorter periods of service.

(f) After the expiration of twenty days from the date of the receipt of instructions from the Bureau of the Budget departments and agencies may proceed to complete such reductions in force as may finally be necessary under the instructions of the Bureau of the Budget without securing prior approval of the Commission, but subject to appeal to the Commission if an employee feels that there has been a violation of his rights under military preference laws or these regulations.

§ 18.702 Employees separated under instructions received from the Bureau of the Budget to be placed on reemployment list. Any employees who are separated from the service as a result of the procedures set forth in § 18.701 above, who are unqualifiedly recommended for further Federal employment, and who have satisfactory efficiency ratings and service histories will, upon application, have their names entered on a reemployment list maintained by the Commission. The reemployment list will be used first in the filling of vacancies.

§ 18.901 Transfers under instructions received from the Bureau of the Budget. All possible steps shall be taken by the departments and agencies of the Government, in cooperation with the Civil Service Commission, to insure that (a) the personnel made available for transfer as the result of reductions in force instructions issued by the Bureau of the Budget shall be those, among all the employees of the agencies, where such instructions are received, whose transfer to other agencies or activities would be in the best interests of the War Program; (b) employees released whose services are needed in and can be effectively utilized in other departments or agencies shall be transferred to such other departments or agencies; and (c) in any department or agency where these instructions are received, employees who are released and whose services are not needed in and cannot be effectively utilized in other departments shall be separated in accordance with a procedure that shall give due regard to tenure of employment, military preference, efficiency ratings, and length of service.

§ 18.902 Procedure in effecting transfers. Upon issuance by the Bureau of the Budget of an instruction to an agency fixing the maximum personnel strength permitted, a copy of such instruction will be transmitted to the Commission. A representative of the Commission will immediately consult with the personnel officer of the agency concerned to determine the number of persons to be released, and the occupational groups and organizational units in which separations will be made, segregated by departmental and field service and by headquarters' offices within the field service. The agency shall at once determine the occupational groups and the organizational units from which transfers will be made and shall supply the Commission with lists of all present employees in the occupational groups and organizational units involved, together with the current adjective efficiency ratings. The lists shall be presented to the Commission within five days of the date of the instruction from the Bureau of the Budget requiring reduction in force.

No separations on account of reductions in force shall be effected by the agencies, except through the transfer procedure, for a period of twenty days from the date of the Bureau of the Budget instructions.

§ 18.903 Transfers without the consent of the employees; appeals. (a) In effecting transfers under this program the Commission will be governed by the provisions of § 18.9 (b) of this chapter, except as they may be modified by the paragraphs that follow.

(b) An employee who is unwilling to be transferred shall furnish the Commission's representative with a statement of reasons and evidence that the proposed transfer is inequitable or will impose upon him an undue hardship. This statement may be oral or in writing. The Commission's representatives will reconsider the proposed transfer in the light of the reasons furnished by the employee before taking any further steps to effect the transfer.

(c) Any appeal from an employee who is to be transferred without his consent must be filed within three days from the date he is notified that his case has been reconsidered and that he is to be transferred without his consent. Employees of departments or agencies located in Washington, D. C. or its immediate vicinity must file their appeals with the Legal Advisor of the Commission. Employees of departments of agencies outside Washington, D. C. must file their appeals with the person selected by the Commission's Regional Director in the manner laid down by paragraph (g) of this section.

(d) When an appeal is filed, an employee may at the same time file any additional statement or evidence that to him seems pertinent or may elect to stand on the case as set forth in his file. Any matter so filed, however, must be received within the 3-day period allotted for receipt of appeals or otherwise it will receive no consideration.

(e) The employee may indicate his preference in regard to the employee representative on the board that is to consider his appeal; that is, he may indicate a preference either for a union or for a non-union representative or for a representative of some particular union. Insofar as it is practicable, the wishes of the employee in this regard will be followed, but the employee may not designate an individual to serve as his representative.

(f) Actions on proposed transfers shall be suspended until the appeal has been adjudicated.

(g) In the Washington, D. C. area, members of the boards to review appeals will be designated by the legal advisor from a panel selected by him in advance. If the board's decision is unanimous and the legal advisor agrees, such decision will be final. If the board is unable to agree or if the legal advisor does not agree with the board's decision, the case will be sent to the Commission for decision.

In the field area the regional director will select a panel for each locality where a program of transfers is to be put into effect. From this panel he will designate a chairman. Appeals for that district will be filed with the chairman of the panel and he will designate two members of the panel to sit as a board of review. If the board's decision is unanimous, it will govern the disposition of the case. If the board is unable to agree, the chairman of the panel will forward the case to the Regional Director, and the latter's decision will be final.

By the United States Civil Service Commission.

President.

PART 1400—DELEGATIONS OF AUTHORITY

DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY TO THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR WITH RESPECT TO FISHERY COMMODITIES

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 9280, dated December 5, 1942, Food Directive 2, § 1400.11 (8 F.R. 1777), is amended by deleting therefrom the provisions in paragraph (g), and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

(g) The term "production" as used in paragraph (a) hereof shall include the catching and harvesting of any form of aquatic animal or plant life and the processing thereof. The Secretary of the Interior is specifically authorized and directed to exercise the powers of allocation, concentration, or conversion, conferred upon me by Executive Order No. 9280, and particularly the powers enumerated in paragraph (b) of section 8 thereof, with respect to such available facilities as may be necessary for use in connection with the catching and harvesting of aquatic animal or plant life and the processing thereof. In the exercise of the foregoing powers of allocation, concentration, or conversion, the Secretary of the Interior shall be guided by any recommendations which may be made by the Food Distribution Administration of the Department of Agriculture with respect to the amounts and kinds of fishery commodities or products required for war and essential civilian needs. With respect to the distribution of processed fishery commodities or products, the Food Distribution Administration shall perform all functions in connection with procurement, inspection, standards, labeling, allocation, conservation, limitation, specifications of product or container, and container supply. Any exercise of the powers delegated herein to the Secretary of the Interior, by him, prior to the effective date of this amendment is hereby ratified and confirmed, and any order heretofore issued by the Secretary of the Interior shall have the same force and effect as if issued after the effective date of this amendment.

Issued this 16th day of March 1943.

[SEAL] GROVER B. HILL,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

PART 77—MEDICAL AND DENTAL ATTENDANCE

MEDICAL ATTENDANCE

Sections 77.2 (a) and (b) (1), 77.3 (b), 77.4, 77.7 (d), 77.24 (e) (1), and 77.27 (c) (2) are hereby amended as follows:

§ 77.2 For whom authorized. Under the conditions indicated herein the Army, usually through its own facilities, will provide medical attendance to the personnel enumerated in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section.

(a) General. Any person admitted to an Army hospital under the provisions of AR 40–590 or 40–600 [1], while undergoing treatment in such hospital.

(b) Military. (1) Officers, Army nurses, Women's Army Auxiliary Corps, other militarized female personnel of the Army, contract surgeons (full time), warrant officers, cadets, enlisted men, general prisoners, and prisoners of war. (R.S. 161; 5 U.S.C. 22) [Par. 2, AR 40–505, Sept. 1, 1942 as amended by C 1, March 2, 1943]

(b) For whom authorized. Civilian medical attendance at public expense is authorized for the following personnel and none other:

(1) Officers, Army nurses, Women's Army Auxiliary Corps, other militarized female personnel of the Army, contract surgeons (full time), warrant officers, cadets, enlisted men, when on a duty status or when absent on authorized leave, sick leave, furlough, or pass. Civilian medical attendance is not authorized for the personnel enumerated when absent without leave. (R.S. 161; 5 U.S.C. 22) [Par. 3*b*, AR 40-505, Sept. 1, 194- as amended by C 1, March 2, 1943]

* * * * *

§ 77.4 Treatment in hospitals of other Government services.—(a) For whom authorized. When Army hospitals are not available, treatment in other Federal hospitals at public expense is authorized for the following personnel, and none other:

(1) Officers, Army nurses, Women's Army Auxiliary Corps, other militarized female personnel of the Army, contract surgeons (full time), warrant officers, cadets, enlisted men, general prisoners, and prisoners of war, when on a duty status or while absent from duty on authorized leave.

(2) A prisoner in military custody.

(3) An applicant for enlistment while under observation.

(b) Subsistence. Subsistence charges will be at the rate prescribed by the individual hospital. Payment for subsistence will not be made to the hospital by the individual concerned. The Surgeon General will collect the subsistence charges from any officer, Army nurse, officer of the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps, other militarized female personnel of the Army in officer status, contract surgeon (full time), warrant officer, so hospitalized, and deposit it to the proper appropriations. (R.S. 161; 5 U.S.C. 22) [Par 4, AR 40–505, Sept. 1, 1942, as amended by C 1, March 2, 1943]

[1] Administrative regulations of the War Department relative to hospitals.

§ 77.7 Civilian physicians practicing upon military reservations, posts, or camps. Regularly licensed civilian physicians may be authorized by the commanding officer to practice medicine upon military reservations, posts, or camps, other than as prescribed in § 77.3 under the following regulations:

* * * * *

(d) If the patient is an officer, Army nurse, member of the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps, other militarized female personnel of the Army, contract surgeon (full time), warrant officer, cadet, enlisted man, general prisoner, or prisoner of war, the civilian physician or the patient in case the medical attendance is obtained other than as provided in this section or in § 77.3 (a), will report the diagnosis of the disease or injury and the attending circumstances to the commanding officer, who will transmit the information to the surgeon. (R.S. 161; 5 U.S.C. 22) [Par. 7d, AR 40-505, Sept. 1, 1942, as amended by C 1, March 2, 1943]

* * * * *

§ 77.24 Army and Navy General Hospital. * * *

(e) Charges—(1) Subsistence charges. (i) A subsistence charge of 60 cents a day will be made for an enlisted man on the active list of the Navy, Marine Corps, United States Coast Guard, and Coast and Geodetic Survey, to be paid by the proper superior upon monthly statements submitted by the commanding officer of this hospital direct to the Surgeon General of the Navy, the commandant of the Coast Guard, and the disbursing agent of the Coast and Geodetic Survey, respectively.

(ii) Subsistence charges will be collected from other pay patients as follows:

(R.S. 161; 5 U.S.C. 22) [Par. 11*a*, AR 40-600, Oct. 6, 1942, as amended by C 1, March 2, 1943]

§ 77.27 Fitzsimons General Hospital.

(c) Charges. * * *

(2) Subsistence charges. Officers, commissioned warrant officers, and warrant officers of the Army, Navy or Marine Corps will be subject to a subsistence charge of $1.50 per day. All other persons subsisted on the status of an officer will be subject to a like charge for subsistence except cadets of the United States Military Academy and midshipmen of the United States Naval Academy who will be charged at the rate of $1 per day. (R.S. 161; 5 U.S.C. 22) [Par. 15*b*, AR 40-600 Oct. 6, 1942, as amended by C 1, March 2, 1943]

JOSTEN MANUFACTURING CO.

§ 3.6 (a) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Business status, advantages or connections of advertiser—Size: § 3.69 (a) Misrepresenting oneself and goods—Business status, advantages or connections—Size or equipment. In connection with offer, etc., in commerce, of respondent's class rings and other similar jewelry, and among other things, as in order set forth, using any statements or representations or pictorial representations or composite pictures in advertising or in any other manner which inaccurately portray or misrepresent the size or appearance of respondent's place of business or the comparative volume of business transacted by the respondent; prohibited. (Sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended by sec. 3, 52 Stat. 112; 15 U.S.C., sec. 45b) [Cease and desist order, Josten Manufacturing Company, Docket 3611, March 13, 1943]

§ 3.6 (c) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Composition of goods: § 3.6 (m 10) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Manufacture or preparation: § 3.6 (n) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Nature—Product: § 3.69 (b) Misrepresenting oneself and goods—Goods—Composition: § 3.69 (b) Misrepresenting oneself and goods—Goods—Manufacture or preparation: § 3.69 (b) Misrepresenting oneself and goods—Goods—Nature. In connection with offer, etc., in commerce, of respondent's class rings and other similar jewelry, and among other things, as in order set forth, representing, either directly or by implication, (1) that any ring or other article of jewelry composed in part of base metal is solid gold or solid 10-carat gold; or (2) that any ring which is in fact partly hollow or has undisclosed cavities within the interior of such ring, is a solid gold or solid 10-carat gold ring; prohibited. (Sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended by sec. 3, 52 Stat. 112; 15 U.S.C., sec 45b) [Cease and desist order, Josten Manufacturing Company, Docket 3611, March 13, 1943]

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 13th day of March, A. D. 1943.

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission, answer of the respondent, testimony and other evidence in support of and in opposition to the allegations of the complaint taken before trial examiners of the Commission theretofore duly designated by it, report of the trial examiners upon the evidence, and briefs filed in support of the complaint and in opposition thereto; and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that said respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act:

It is ordered, That the respondent, Josten Manufacturing Company, a corporation, and its officers, representatives, agents, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device in connection with the offering for sale, sale, and distribution of class rings and other similar jewelry in commerce as "commerce" as defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. The use of any statements or representations or pictorial representations or composite pictures in advertising or in any other manner which inaccurately portray or misrepresent the size or appearance of respondent's place of business or the comparative volume of business transacted by the respondent.

2. Representing, either directly or by implication, that any ring or other article of jewelry composed in part of base metal is solid gold or solid 10-carat gold.

3. Representing, either directly or by implication, that any ring which is in fact partly hollow or has undisclosed cavities within the interior of such ring, is a solid gold or solid 10-carat gold ring.

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with this order.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] OTIS B. JOHNSON,
Secretary.

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

Chapter I—Bureau of Internal Revenue

Subchapter A—Income and Excess-Profits Taxes

[T.D. 5244]

PART 23—CONSOLIDATED RETURNS OF AFFILIATED RAILROAD CORPORATIONS AND PAN-AMERICAN TRADE CORPORATIONS

INCOME TAX

In order to conform Regulations 104 [Part 23, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, 1940 Supp.] to the provisions of the Revenue Act of 1942 (Public Law 753, 77th Congress), approved October 21, 1942, such regulations are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. The title page is amended by striking out all matter following "Regulations 104" and preceding the seal of the Commissioner, and by inserting in lieu thereof the following: "Consolidated Income Tax Regulations relating to Consolidated Returns of Affiliated Corporations Prescribed Under Section 141 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code as Amended".

PAR. 2. Page III is amended by striking out all matter following the words "Regulations 104" and preceding the table of contents, and by inserting in lieu thereof the following: "Consolidated Income Tax Regulations. Title 26—Internal Revenue, Chapter I, Subchapter A—Part 23. Regulations relating to consolidated income tax returns of affiliated corporations prescribed under section 141 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code as amended."

PAR. 3. Page 1 is amended by striking out all matter following the words "Regulations 104" and preceding the words "Supplement D—Returns and Payment of Tax", and by inserting in lieu thereof the following: "Consolidated Income Tax Regulations relating to Consolidated Income Tax Returns of Affiliated Corporations Prescribed Under Section 141 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code as Amended".

PAR. 4. There is inserted immediately preceding § 23.0 the following:

SEC. 159. EXTENSION OF CONSOLIDATED RETURNS PRIVILEGE TO CERTAIN CORPORATIONS. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title I.)

(a) General rule. Section 141 (relating to consolidated returns of railroad corporations) is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 141. CONSOLIDATED RETURNS.

(a) Privilege to file consolidated income and excess-profits-tax returns. An affiliated group of corporations shall, subject to the provisions of this section, have the privilege of making consolidated income and excess-profits-tax returns for the taxable year in lieu of separate returns. The making of consolidated returns shall be upon the condition that the affiliated group shall make both a consolidated income-tax return and a consolidated excess-profits-tax return for the taxable year, and that all corporations which at any time during the taxable year have been members of the affiliated group making a consolidated income-tax return consent to all the consolidated income- and excess-profits-tax regulations prescribed under subsection (b) prior to the last day prescribed by law for the filing of such return. The making of a consolidated income-tax return shall be considered as such consent. In the case of a corporation which is a member of the affiliated group for a fractional part of the year, the consolidated returns shall include the income of such corporation for such part of the year as it is a member of the affiliated group. In the case of a corporation which is not a member of the affiliated group after March 31, 1942, of the last taxable year of such group which begins before April 1, 1942, such corporation shall not be considered a member of the affiliated group for consolidated income-tax-return purposes for such year but shall be considered a member of such group for consolidated excess-profits-tax-return purposes for such year, and the consent required in the case of such corporation shall relate only to the consolidated excess-profits-tax regulations.

(b) Regulations. The Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, shall prescribe such regulations as he may deem necessary in order that the tax liability of any affiliated group of corporations making consolidated income- and excess-profits-tax returns and of each corporation in the group, both during and after the period of affiliation, may be returned, determined, computed, assessed, collected, and adjusted, in such manner as clearly to reflect the income- and excess-profits-tax liability and the various factors necessary for the determination of such liability, and in order to prevent avoidance of such tax liability. Such regulations shall prescribe the amount of the net operating loss deduction of each member of the group which is attributable to a deduction allowed for a taxable year beginning in 1941 on account of property considered as destroyed or seized under section 127 (relating to war losses), and the allowance of the amount so prescribed as a deduction in computing the net income of the group shall not be limited by the amount of the net income of such member.

(c) Computation and payment of tax. In any case in which consolidated income-tax and excess-profits-tax returns are made or are required to be made, the taxes shall be determined, computed, assessed, collected, and adjusted in accordance with the regulations under subsection (b) prescribed prior to the last day prescribed by law for the filing of such returns; except that the tax imposed under section 15 or section 204 shall be increased by 2 per centum of the consolidated corporation surtax net income of the affiliated group of includible corporations. Only one specific exemption of $5,000 provided in section 710 (b) (1) shall be allowed for the entire affiliated group of corporations for the purposes of the tax imposed by Subchapter E of Chapter 2.

(d) Definition of "affiliated group." As used in this section, an "affiliated group" means one or more chains of includible corporations connected through stock ownership with a common parent corporation which is an includible corporation if—

(1) Stock possessing at least 95 per centum of the voting power of all classes of stock and at least 95 per centum of each class of the nonvoting stock of each of the includible corporations (except the common parent corporation) is owned directly by one or more of the other includible corporations; and

(2) The common parent corporation owns directly stock possessing at least 95 per centum of the voting power of all classes of stock and at least 95 per centum of each class of the nonvoting stock of at least one of the other includible corporations.

As used in this subsection, the term "stock" does not include nonvoting stock which is limited and preferred as to dividends.

(e) Definition of "includible corporation." As used in this section, the term "includible corporation" means any corporation except—

(1) Corporations exempt under section 101 from the tax imposed by this chapter.

(2) Insurance companies subject to taxation under section 201 or 207.

(3) Foreign corporations.

(4) Corporations entitled to the benefits of section 251, by reason of receiving a large percentage of their income from sources within possessions of the United States.

(5) Corporations organized under the China Trade Act, 1922.

(6) Regulated investment companies subject to tax under Supplement Q.

(f) Includible insurance companies. Despite the provisions of paragraph (2) of subsection (e), two or more domestic insurance companies each of which is subject to taxation under the same section of this chapter shall be considered as includible corporations for the purpose of the application of subsection (d) to such insurance companies alone.

(g) Subsidiary formed to comply with foreign law. In the case of a domestic corporation owning or controlling, directly or indirectly, 100 per centum of the capital stock (exclusive of directors' qualifying shares) of a corporation organized under the laws of a contiguous foreign country and maintained solely for the purpose of complying with the laws of such country as to title and operation of property, such foreign corporation may, at the option of the domestic corporation, be treated for the purpose of this chapter and of Subchapter E of Chapter 2 as a domestic corporation.

(h) Suspension of running of statute of limitations. If a notice under section 272 (a) in respect of a deficiency for any taxable year is mailed to a corporation, the suspension of the running of the statute of limitations, provided in section 277, shall apply in the case of corporations with which such corporation made a consolidated return for such taxable year.

(i) Allocation of income and deductions. For allocation of income and deductions of related trades or businesses, see section 45.

(b) Pan-American trade corporations. Section 152 (relating to consolidated income-tax returns of Pan-American trade corporations) shall not apply with respect to any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941.

* * * * *

SEC. 101 TAXABLE YEARS TO WHICH AMENDMENTS APPLICABLE. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title I.)

Except as otherwise expressly provided, the amendments made by this title shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941.

PAR. 5. Section 23.0 is amended by changing the first paragraph thereof to read as follows:

These regulations, authorized by sections 141 (b) and 152 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, are prescribed as a supplement to the income tax regulations applicable generally under the Code. They are applicable in the case of all corporations (with certain statutory exceptions) with respect to all taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941. They are applicable further in the case of railroad corporations with respect to all taxable years beginning after December 31, 1938, (not including taxable years for which the return was filed prior to December 28, 1939) and in the case of Pan-American trade corporations, with respect to all taxable years beginning after December 31, 1939. In the case of railroad corporations filing their return prior to December 28, 1939, (the date of approval of these regulations) Regulations 97, prescribed under section 141 (b) of the Revenue Act of 1936, are applicable insofar as not inconsistent with the provisions of the Code.

PAR. 6. Section 23.0 is further amended by inserting at the end of the footnote to such section the following additional paragraph:

The Report of the Committee on Finance (Rept. No. 1631, 77th Cong., 2d sess., p. 133) accompanying the Revenue Bill of 1942 contains the following statement: "The consolidated normal tax net income, the consolidated corporation surtax net income, and the consolidated capital gains and losses of the group are among those factors with respect to which the Commissioner, in view of experience with current and past consolidated returns regulations, is expected to prescribe regulations in order to reflect clearly the income and excess profits tax liability of the group and of each member thereof and the various factors necessary for the determination of such liability. In addition to these matters, your committee expects that such regulations will provide for the application of the excess profits relief provisions, and the provisions of section 710 (a) (1) (B) limiting excess profits taxes, in cases where consolidated returns are filed. Although the present regulations with respect to the determination of consolidated net income quite properly limit the deduction of the net operating loss carry-over of a member of a group from years prior to that in which its income is first included in a consolidated return to the amount of the separate income of such member, this section provides that such limitation shall not be applied to prevent the portion of the net operating loss carry-over which is attributable to a 1941 war loss of the member (see sec. 158 of the bill) being taken into account in computing consolidated net income."

PAR. 7. Section 23.1 (a) and (b) is amended to read as follows:

(a) Sections 141 and 152, as amended, give to the corporations of an affiliated group the privilege of making a consolidated return for the taxable year in lieu of separate returns. This privilege is given, however, for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941, upon the condition that all corporations which have been members of the affiliated group at any time during the taxable year for which the return is made consent to these regulations, and any amendments thereof duly prescribed prior to the last day prescribed by law for the filing of the return; and the making of the consolidated return is considered as such consent. The last day prescribed by law for the filing of the return includes the last day of the period of any extension of time granted by the Commissioner. For a taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1942, the regulations and the amendments thereof to which the taxpayer is required to consent are those duly prescribed prior to the making of the return for such year.

(b) The tax liability of the members of the affiliated group for the taxable year involved will be determined in accordance with the provisions of the regulations to which consent is given and without regard to any changes of the rules therein prescribed made subsequent to the last day prescribed by law for the filing of the return for such year, or, for taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1942, subsequent to the making of the return for such year.

PAR. 8. Section 23.2 (b), as amended by Treasury Decision 5127, approved March 5, 1942, is further amended as follows:

(A) By changing the first paragraph thereof to read as follows:

The term "affiliated group" includes:

(1) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941, the common parent corporation and every other corporation for the period during which such corporation is a member of the affiliated group within the meaning of section 141 of the Code as amended by section 159 of the Revenue Act of 1942; it does not include (i) any corporation which, under section 141, as amended, cannot be included in a consolidated return, (ii) an insurance company taxable under section 201 or 207 in the case of a consolidated return for corporations taxable under section 13, 14, or 204, (iii) a corporation taxable under section 13, 14, or 204 in the case of a consolidated return for insurance companies taxable under section 201 or 207, (iv) an insurance company taxable under section 201 in the case of a consolidated return for insurance companies taxable under section 207, or (v) an insurance company taxable under section 207 in the case of a consolidated return for insurance companies taxable under section 201;

(2) For taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1942, the common parent corporation and every other corporation for the period during which such corporation is a member of the affiliated group within the meaning of section 141 or section 152 of the Code prior to their amendment by the Revenue Act of 1942; it does not include any corporation which, under section 141 or section 152 of the Code, prior to amendment, cannot be included in the consolidated return.

(B) By striking out the fourth subparagraph and by inserting in lieu thereof two subparagraphs as follows:

For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941, an affiliated group of corporations, within the meaning of section 141 of the Code as amended by section 159 of the Revenue Act of 1942, is formed at the time that the common parent corporation, which is an includible corporation, becomes the owner directly of stock possessing at least 95 percent of the voting power of all classes of stock and at least 95 percent of each class of nonvoting stock (not including nonvoting stock which is limited and preferred as to dividends) of another includible corporation; a corporation becomes a member of such an affiliated group at the time that one or more members of such group become the owners directly of stock possessing at least 95 percent of the voting power of all classes of its stock and at least 95 percent of each class of its nonvoting stock (not including nonvoting stock which is limited and preferred as to dividends); and a corporation ceases to be a member of such an affiliated group at the time that the members of such group cease to own directly stock possessing at least 95 percent of the voting power of all classes of its stock, or at least 95 percent of each class of its nonvoting stock (not including nonvoting stock which is limited and preferred as to dividends).

For taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1942, an affiliated group of corporations, within the meaning of sections 141 and 152 of the Code prior to their amendment by the Revenue Act of 1942, is formed at the time the common parent corporation becomes the owner directly of at least 95 percent in the case of railroad corporations, and 100 percent in the case of Pan-American trade corporations, of the stock (as defined by section 141 (d) prior to its amendment) of another corporation; a corporation becomes a member of a railroad affiliated group at the time that one or more members of the group become the owners directly of at least 95 percent of its stock; a corporation becomes a member of a Pan-American affiliated group at the time that the common parent corporation becomes the owner directly of 100 percent of its stock; and a corporation ceases to be a member of an affiliated group when, in the case of railroad corporations, the members of the group cease to own directly 95 percent, or, in the case of Pan-American trade corporations, the parent corporation ceases to own directly 100 percent, of its stock.

PAR. 9. Section 23.2 (g), as amended by Treasury Decision 5127, approved March 5, 1942, is further amended by changing the expression within the parentheses to read as follows:

See, for example, "adjusted net income," section 13; "normal-tax net income," section 13 as amended by section 105 (a) of the Revenue Act of 1942; "special class net income," section 14 prior to its amendment by section 201 of the Revenue Act of 1939; "corporation surtax net income," section 15 as amended by section 105 (b) of the Revenue Act of 1942; "net income," section 21; "gross income," section 22; "taxable year" and "fiscal year," section 48 as amended by section 135 (d) of the Revenue Act of 1942; "deficiency," section 271; and the terms defined in section 3797, particularly the terms "person," "stock," and "corporation."

PAR. 10. Section 23.16 (b) is amended by changing the expression "§ 23.15 (b)" to read "§ 23.15 (c)."

PAR. 11. Section 23.30 is amended as follows:

(A) By striking at the end of paragraph (a) the words ", such bases to be determined in accordance with these regulations." and by inserting in lieu thereof the following: "; or, in the case of the taxes imposed by section 102 and by Subchapter A, upon the basis of the consolidated undistributed section 102 net income or the consolidated undistributed Subchapter A net income; such bases to be determined in accordance with these regulations."

(B) By striking at the end of paragraph (b), as amended by Treasury Decision 5127, approved March 5, 1942, the words "determined in accordance with these regulations." and by inserting in lieu thereof the following: "or, in the case of the taxes imposed by section 102 and by Subchapter A, the consolidated undistributed section 102 net income or the consolidated undistributed Subchapter A net income, determined in accordance with these regulations."

(C) By revising the heading of paragraph (c), as added by Treasury Decision 5127, approved March 5, 1942, to read, "Years Beginning in 1941.", and by striking at the end of the paragraph the words ", determined in accordance with these regulations." and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "or, in the case of the taxes imposed by section 102 and by Subchapter A, the consolidated undistributed section 102 net income or the consolidated undistributed Subchapter A net income, determined in each case in accordance with these regulations."

(D) By inserting immediately after paragraph (c), as added by Treasury Decision 5127, approved March 5, 1942, the following:

(d) Years beginning after December 31, 1941. In the case of an affiliated group which makes, or is required to make, a consolidated return for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, the tax liability of each corporation for the period during such year that it was a member of such group shall be computed upon the consolidated normal-tax net income and the consolidated corporation surtax net income of the group, or, in the case of the taxes imposed by section 102, section 201, and Subchapter A, the consolidated undistributed section 102 net income, the consolidated adjusted normal-tax net income, and the consolidated adjusted corporation surtax net income, or the consolidated undistributed Subchapter A net income, as the case may be, determined in each case in accordance with these regulations. If the affiliated group filing the consolidated return includes a western hemisphere trade corporation, as defined in section 109, exempt from surtax pursuant to section 15 (b), the surtax of the group shall be an amount which bears the same ratio to the surtax computed on the consolidated corporation surtax net income as the portion of the consolidated corporation surtax net income attributable to the other members of the group bears to the entire consolidated corporation surtax net income. (See, however, § 23.15, relating to the liability of the members of the group.)

PAR. 12. Section 23.31 (a) (1), as amended by Treasury Decision 5127, approved March 5, 1942, is further amended by striking out subdivisions (viii), (ix), and (x) and by inserting in lieu thereof the following:

(viii) The consolidated section 102 net income shall be the consolidated net income, computed without any net operating loss deductions, minus the sum of:

(a) The combined Federal income, war-profits, and excess-profits taxes paid or accrued during the taxable year by the several affiliated corporations to the extent not allowed as a deduction by section 23, but not including the tax imposed by section 102 of the Code, or a corresponding section of prior income tax laws,

(b) The combined contributions or gifts of the several affiliated corporations, payment of which is made within the taxable year, not otherwise allowed as a deduction, to or for the use of donees described in section 23 (o) of the Code for the purposes therein specified, and

(c) The combined losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets which are disallowed to the several affiliated corporations as deductions by section 117 (d);

(ix) The consolidated undistributed section 102 net income shall be the consolidated section 102 net income minus the consolidated basic surtax credit, computed without reduction by the amount of the credit provided in section 26 (a), relating to interest on Government obligations;

(x) The consolidated Subchapter A net income shall be the combined net income of the several affiliated corporations computed in the case of each corporation with the adjustments provided in section 505;

(xi) The consolidated undistributed Subchapter A net income shall be the consolidated Subchapter A net income minus the sum of:

(a) The consolidated dividends paid credit computed with the exceptions and limitations provided in section 504 (a),

(b) The aggregate amounts, subject to the provisions of section 504 (b), used or irrevocably set aside by the several affiliated corporations to pay or to retire indebtedness incurred prior to January 1, 1934, not including such portion of any such indebtedness as was owned on January 1, 1934, or at any time thereafter, directly or indirectly by another member of the group, and

(c) The aggregate amount of dividends paid by the several affiliated corporations after the close of the taxable year, subject to the provisions of section 504 (c).

PAR. 13. Section 23.31 (a) (2), as amended by Treasury Decision 5127, approved March 5, 1942, is further amended by striking the period at the end and inserting in lieu thereof a semicolon and the following:

(iv) The consolidated net operating loss credit shall be an amount equal to the consolidated net operating loss for the preceding taxable year, but not in excess of the consolidated adjusted net income for the taxable year;

(v) The consolidated net operating loss for the purposes of the consolidated net operating loss credit shall be an amount equal to the excess of the combined net operating losses of the several affiliated corporations having net operating losses (computed subject to the exceptions and limitations provided in section 26 (c) (2) of the Code) over the combined net income (adjusted with respect to the exceptions and limitations provided in such subsection in connection with the computation of net operating losses) of the several affiliated corporations having net income; however, a net operating loss sustained by a corporation for a taxable year prior to the first taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return of an affiliated group shall be included as a part of the consolidated net operating loss only to the extent that such net operating loss is not in excess of the adjusted net income of such corporation for such first taxable year computed without regard to the qualification expressed in paragraph (c) of this section relating to net operating loss deductions;

(vi) The consolidated dividend carry-over, subject to the qualifications provided in section 27 (c) with respect to preceding taxable years beginning in 1936 and 1937, shall be the sum of:

(a) The amount of the consolidated basic surtax credit for the second preceding taxable year, reduced by the adjusted net income for such year, and further reduced by the amount, if any, by which the adjusted net income for the first preceding taxable year exceeds the sum of: The consolidated basic surtax credit for such year, and the excess, if any, of the consolidated basic surtax credit for the third preceding taxable year over the consolidated adjusted net income for such year,

(b) The amount, if any, by which the consolidated basic surtax credit for the first preceding taxable year exceeds the consolidated adjusted net income for such year,

(c) For the first taxable year for which the income of a corporation is included in a consolidated return, the amount of any dividend carry-over to which such corporation would have been entitled if it had filed a separate return, and

(d) For the second taxable year for which the income of a corporation is included in a consolidated return, or is required to be so included, the amount of any dividend carry-over based upon dividend distributions made during its second preceding taxable year to which such corporation would have been entitled if it had continued to file separate returns, but only to the extent that such dividend distributions would have been a factor in the computation of the consolidated dividend carry-over of the affiliated group if such corporation had been a member of the group and its income had been included in a consolidated return of the group for the second preceding taxable year, and if the basic surtax credit and the adjusted net income of such corporation for the second preceding taxable year were the consolidated basic surtax credit and the consolidated adjusted net income of the group.

PAR. 14. Section 23.31 (a) (3), as amended by Treasury Decision 5127, approved March 5, 1942, is further amended by striking the period at the end and inserting in lieu thereof a semicolon and the following:

(v) The consolidated net operating loss credit shall be an amount equal to the consolidated net operating loss for the preceding taxable year, but not in excess of, as the case may be:

(a) The consolidated section 102 net income for the taxable year in the case of the tax imposed by section 102, or

(b) The consolidated Subchapter A net income for the taxable year in the case of the tax imposed under Subchapter A;

(vi) The consolidated net operating loss for the purposes of the consolidated net operating loss credit shall be an amount equal to the excess of the combined net operating losses of the several affiliated corporations having net operating losses (computed subject to the exceptions and limitations provided in section 26 (c) (2) of the Code) over the combined net income (adjusted with respect to the exceptions and limitations provided in such subsection in connection with the computation of net operating losses) of the several affiliated corporations having net income; however, a net operating loss sustained by a corporation for a taxable year prior to the first taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return of an affiliated group shall be included as a part of the consolidated net operating loss only to the extent that such net operating loss is not in excess of:

(a) That portion of the consolidated section 102 net income for the taxable year in the case of the tax imposed by section 102, or

(b) That portion of the consolidated Subchapter A net income for the taxable year in the case of the tax imposed by Subchapter A,

as the case may be, attributable to such corporation for such first taxable year;

(vii) The consolidated dividend carry-over, subject to the qualifications provided in section 27 (c) with respect to a preceding taxable year beginning in 1937, shall be the sum of:

(a) The amount of the consolidated basic surtax credit for the second preceding taxable year, reduced by the consolidated Subchapter A net income for such year, and further reduced by the amount, if any, by which the consolidated Subchapter A net income for the first preceding taxable year exceeds the sum of: The consolidated basic surtax credit for such year, and the excess, if any, of the consolidated basic surtax credit for the third preceding taxable year over the consolidated Subchapter A net income for such year,

(b) The amount, if any, by which the consolidated basic surtax credit for the first preceding taxable year exceeds the consolidated Subchapter A net income for such year.

(c) For the first taxable year for which the income of a corporation is included in a consolidated return, the amount of any dividend carry-over to which such corporation would have been entitled if it had filed a separate return, and

(d) For the second taxable year for which the income of a corporation is included in a consolidated return, or is required to be so included, the amount of any dividend carry-over based upon dividend distributions made during its second preceding taxable year to which such corporation would have been entitled if it had continued to file separate returns, but only to the extent that such dividend distributions would have been a factor in the computation of the consolidated dividend carry-over of the affiliated group if such corporation had been a member of the group and its income had been included in a consolidated return of the group for the second preceding taxable year, and if the basic surtax credit and the Subchapter A net income of such corporation for the second preceding taxable year were the consolidated basic surtax credit and the consolidated Subchapter A net income of the group.

PAR. 15. Section 23.31 (b), as amended by Treasury Decision 5127, approved March 5, 1942, is further amended by striking out all matter following the heading and by inserting in lieu thereof the following:

(1) Years beginning in 1941. In the case of an affiliated group of corporations which makes, or is required to make, a consolidated return for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1940, and before January 1, 1942, and except as otherwise provided in these regulations:

(i) The consolidated net income shall be the combined net income of the several affiliated corporations:

(a) Minus any consolidated net operating loss deduction,

(b) Plus any consolidated net short-term capital gain, and

(c) Plus or minus, as the case may be, any consolidated net long-term capital gain or consolidated net long-term capital loss;

(ii) The consolidated net operating loss deduction shall be an amount equal to the aggregate of the consolidated net operating loss carry-overs and of the consolidated net operating loss carry-backs to the taxable year reduced by the amount, if any, by which the consolidated net income (computed with the exceptions and limitations provided in section 122 (d), (1), (2), (3), and (4)) exceeds the consolidated normal-tax net income (computed without any net operating loss deduction);

(iii) The consolidated net operating loss carry-overs to the taxable year shall consist of:

(a) The amount of the consolidated net operating loss, if any, for the first preceding taxable year,

(b) The amount of the consolidated net operating loss, if any, for the second preceding taxable year reduced by the consolidated net income, if any, for the first preceding taxable year computed with the exceptions, additions, and limitations provided in section 122 (d) (1), (2), (4), and (6), and with a consolidated net operating loss deduction for such first preceding taxable year determined without regard to the net operating loss for such second preceding taxable year and without regard to any net operating loss carry-back,

and, with respect to net operating losses sustained by a corporation for taxable years prior to the first taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return:

(c) The amount of the net operating loss, if any, sustained by such corporation for the first preceding taxable year, and

(d) The amount of the net operating loss, if any, sustained by such corporation for the second preceding taxable year reduced by the net income, if any, of such corporation for the first preceding taxable year, or, if the income of such corporation is included in the consolidated return for the first preceding taxable year, reduced either by the net income of such corporation for such year increased with respect to its separate net short-term and long-term capital gains or by the consolidated net income for such year, whichever is the lesser, the net income for the first preceding taxable year being computed in each case with the exceptions, additions, and limitations provided in section 122 (d) (1), (2), (4), and (6), and with a net operating loss deduction of such corporation or a consolidated net operating loss deduction, as the case may be, for such first preceding taxable year determined without regard to the net operating loss of such corporation for the second preceding taxable year and without regard to any net operating loss carry-back;

(iv) The consolidated net operating loss carry-backs to the taxable year shall consist of:

(a) The amount of the consolidated net operating loss, if any, for the first succeeding taxable year (to the extent not attributable to those corporations making separate returns in the taxable year) reduced to the extent absorbed as a carry-back by the net income, consolidated or separate, as the case may be, for the first preceding taxable year, such net income being computed with the exceptions, additions, and limitations provided in section 122 (d) (1), (2), (4), and (6), and with a net operating loss deduction for such first preceding taxable year, consolidated or separate, as the case may be, determined without regard to the net operating loss for such first succeeding taxable year,

(b) The amount of the consolidated net operating loss, if any, for the second succeeding taxable year, to the extent not attributable to those corporations making separate returns in the taxable year,

and, with respect to net operating losses sustained by a corporation for taxable years subsequent to the last taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return:

(c) The amount of the net operating loss, if any, sustained by such corporation for the first succeeding taxable year reduced by the net income, if any, of such corporation for the first preceding taxable year, or, if the income of such corporation is included in the consolidated return for the first preceding taxable year, reduced either by the net income of such corporation for such year increased with respect to its separate net short-term and long-term capital gains or by the consolidated net income for such year, whichever is the lesser, the net income for the first preceding taxable year being computed in each case with the exceptions, additions, and limitations provided in section 122 (d) (1), (2), (4), and (6), and with a net operating loss deduction of such corporation or a consolidated net operating loss deduction, as the case may be, for the first preceding taxable year determined without regard to the net operating loss of such corporation for the first succeeding taxable year, and

not including as a first succeeding taxable year or a second succeeding taxable year any taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1942, and not including as a first preceding taxable year any taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1941;

(v) The consolidated net operating loss, computed for the purposes of the net operating loss deduction, shall be an amount equal to the excess of the combined net operating losses of the several affiliated corporations having net operating losses (computed subject to the exceptions, additions, and limitations provided in section 122 (d)) over the sum of:

(a) The combined net income of the several affiliated corporations having net income (adjusted with respect to the exceptions, additions, and limitations provided in section 122 (d) in connection with the computation of net operating losses), and

(b) The consolidated net short-term capital gains and the consolidated net long-term capital gains;

(vi) The consolidated net short-term capital gain shall be the excess of the sum of the short-term capital gains of the several affiliated corporations over the sum of:

(a) The aggregate short-term capital losses of such corporations, and

(b) The consolidated net short-term capital loss carry-over from the preceding taxable year;

(vii) The consolidated net short-term capital loss carry-over from the preceding taxable year (in an amount not greater than the consolidated net income for such year) shall be the excess of the sum of the short-term capital losses of the several affiliated corporations for the preceding taxable year over the sum of the short-term capital gains of such corporations;

(viii) The consolidated net long-term capital gain shall be the excess of the sum of the long-term capital gains of the several affiliated corporations over the sum of the long-term capital losses of such corporations;

(ix) The consolidated net long-term capital loss shall be the excess of the aggregate of the long-term capital losses of the several affiliated corporations over the aggregate of the long-term capital gains of such corporations;

(x) The consolidated normal-tax net income shall be the consolidated adjusted net income minus the consolidated section 26 (b) credit relating to dividends received;

(xi) The consolidated adjusted net income shall be the consolidated net income minus the consolidated section 26 (a) credit relating to interest on certain obligations of the United States and Government corporations;

(xii) The consolidated section 26 (a) credit relating to interest on certain obligations of the United States and Government corporations shall be an amount equal to the aggregate of the interest, of the class with respect to which credit is allowed by section 26 (a), received by the several affiliated corporations;

(xiii) The consolidated section 26 (b) credit relating to dividends received shall be an amount equal to 85 percent of the aggregate dividends, of the class with respect to which credit is allowed by section 26 (b), received by the several affiliated corporations, but not in excess of 85 percent of the consolidated adjusted net income;

(xiv) The consolidated corporation surtax net income shall be the consolidated net income minus the consolidated section 26 (b) credit for dividends received, computed by limiting such credit to 85 percent of the consolidated net income in lieu of 85 percent of the consolidated adjusted net income;

(xv) The consolidated section 102 net income shall be the consolidated net income, computed without any net operating loss deduction, minus the sum of:

(a) The combined Federal income, war-profits, and excess-profits taxes (other than a tax imposed by Subchapter E of Chapter 2 of the Code for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1940) paid or accrued during the taxable year by the several affiliated corporations, to the extent not allowed as a deduction by section 23, but not including a tax imposed by section 102 of the Code, or by a corresponding section of prior income tax laws,

(b) The combined contributions or gifts of the several affiliated corporations, payment of which is made within the taxable year, not otherwise allowed as a deduction, to or for the use of donees described in section 23 (o) of the Code for the purposes therein specified, and

(c) The excess of the sum of the short-term capital losses of the several affiliated corporations over the sum of the short-term capital gains of such corporations;

(xvi) The consolidated undistributed section 102 net income shall be the consolidated section 102 net income minus the consolidated basic surtax credit;

(xvii) The consolidated Subchapter A net income shall be the consolidated net income computed with the adjustments provided in section 505;

(xviii) The consolidated undistributed Subchapter A net income shall be the consolidated Subchapter A net income minus the sum of:

(a) The consolidated dividends paid credit with the exceptions and limitations provided in section 504 (a),

(b) The aggregate amount, subject to the provisions of section 504 (b), used or irrevocably set aside by the several affiliated corporations to pay or to retire indebtedness incurred prior to January 1, 1934, not including such portion of any such indebtedness as was owned on January 1, 1934, or at any time thereafter, directly or indirectly, by another member of the group,

(c) The aggregate amount of dividends paid by the several affiliated corporations after the close of the taxable year, subject to the provisions of section 504 (c), and

(d) The aggregate of the amounts, if any, distributed by the several affiliated corporations in redemption of preferred stock pursuant to the provisions of section 504 (d) of the Code as added by section 184 of the Revenue Act of 1942, not including any amounts so distributed with respect to preferred stock owned on January 1, 1934, or at any time thereafter, directly or indirectly, by another member of the group;

(xix) The consolidated dividends paid credit shall be the sum of:

(a) The consolidated basic surtax credit, and

(b) The consolidated dividend carry-over;

(xx) The consolidated basic surtax credit shall be the sum of:

(a) The aggregate amount of dividends paid by the several affiliated corporations during the taxable year (computed, in the case of the tax imposed by Subchapter A, with the qualifications provided in section 504 (a) relating to dividends paid after the close of the taxable year),

(b) The combined consent dividends credit of the several affiliated corporations provided in section 28, and

(c) The consolidated net operating loss credit;

(xxi) The consolidated dividend carry-over for the taxable year shall be the sum of:

(a) The amount, if any, by which the consolidated basic surtax credit for the first preceding taxable year exceeds the consolidated Subchapter A net income for such year,

(b) The amount of the consolidated basic surtax credit for the second preceding taxable year reduced by the consolidated Subchapter A net income for such year and further reduced by the amount, if any, by which the consolidated Subchapter A net income of the first preceding taxable year exceeds the sum of: The consolidated basic surtax credit for such year, and the excess, if any, of the consolidated basic surtax credit for the third preceding taxable year over the consolidated Subchapter A net income for such year, and, with respect to the unused basic surtax credit of a corporation for taxable years prior to the first taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return:

(c) The amount, if any, by which the basic surtax credit of such corporation for the first preceding taxable year exceeds the Subchapter A net income of such corporation for such year, and

(d) The amount of the basic surtax credit of such corporation for the second preceding taxable year reduced by the Subchapter A net income of such corporation for such year and further reduced by:

(A) The excess, if any, of the Subchapter A net income of such corporation for the first preceding taxable year over the sum of: The basic surtax credit of such corporation for such year, and the amount, if any, by which the basic surtax credit of such corporation for the third preceding taxable year exceeds the Subchapter A net income of such corporation for such year, or

(B) If the income of such corporation is included in the consolidated return for the first preceding taxable year, the lesser of the amount of the excess computed under (A) or the excess, if any, of the consolidated Subchapter A net income for the first preceding taxable year over the sum of: The consolidated basic surtax credit of such corporation for such year, and the amount, if any, by which the basic surtax credit of such corporation for the third preceding taxable year exceeds the Subchapter A net income of such corporation for such year;

(xxii) The consolidated net operating loss credit shall be an amount equal to the consolidated net operating loss for the preceding taxable year, but not in excess of, as the case may be:

(a) The consolidated section 102 net income for the taxable year in the case of the tax imposed by section 102, or

(b) The consolidated Subchapter A net income for the taxable year in the case of the tax imposed under Subchapter A;

(xxiii) The consolidated net operating loss, computed for the purposes of the net operating loss credit, shall be the sum of:

(a) The excess of the sum of: The combined net operating losses of the several affiliated corporations having net operating losses, computed subject to the exceptions and limitations provided in section 26 (c) (2), and The consolidated net long-term capital loss, if any, over the sum of: The combined net income, computed with respect to the exceptions and limitations provided in section 26 (c) (2) in connection with the computation of net operating losses, of the several affiliated corporations having net income, The consolidated net short-term capital gain, and The consolidated net long-term capital gain, if any, and

(b) With respect to the net operating loss sustained by a corporation for the taxable year prior to the first taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return, the amount of such net operating loss for such prior taxable year, computed subject to the exceptions and limitations provided in section 26 (c) (2), in an amount not in excess of: That portion of the consolidated section 102 net income for the taxable year in the case of the tax imposed by section 102, or that portion of the consolidated Subchapter A net income for the taxable year in the case of the tax imposed under Subchapter A, as the case may be, attributable to such corporation for the taxable year.

(2) Years beginning after December 31, 1941. In the case of an affiliated group of corporations which makes, or is required to make, a consolidated return for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, and except as otherwise provided in these regulations:

(i) The consolidated net income shall be the combined net income of the several affiliated corporations:

(a) Minus the sum of: Any consolidated net operating loss deduction, and any consolidated net loss from involuntary conversions and from sales or exchanges of property subject to the provisions of section 117 (j), and

(b) Plus any consolidated net capital gain, or

(c) Minus, in the case of an affiliated group including as members one or more corporations subject to the tax imposed by section 204, the combined additional capital loss deductions of such corporations authorized by section 204 (c) (5) as amended by section 164 (c) of the Revenue Act of 1942, but in an amount not in excess of the consolidated net capital loss;

(ii) The consolidated net operating loss deduction shall be an amount equal to the aggregate of the consolidated net operating loss carry-overs and of the consolidated net operating loss carry-backs to the taxable year reduced by the amount, if any, by which the consolidated net income (computed with the exceptions and limitations provided in section 122 (d) (1), (2), (3), and (4) exceeds the consolidated normal-tax net income (computed without any net operating loss deduction and without the credit provided in section 26 (e), relating to income subject to excess profits tax);

(iii) The consolidated net operating loss carry-overs to the taxable year shall consist of:

(a) The amount of the consolidated net operating loss, if any, for the first preceding taxable year, or, with respect to a first preceding taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, the amount of the consolidated net operating loss for such year to the extent not attributable to those corporations making separate returns in the taxable year,

(b) The amount of the consolidated net operating loss, if any, for the second preceding taxable year (or, with respect to a second preceding taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, the amount of the consolidated net operating loss for such year to the extent not attributable to those corporations making separate returns in the taxable year) reduced to the extent absorbed as a carry-over by the net income, consolidated or separate, as the case may be, for the first preceding taxable year (such net income being computed with the exceptions, additions, and limitations provided in section 122 (d) (1), (2), (4), and (6), and with a net operating loss deduction for such first preceding taxable year, consolidated or separate, as the case may be, determined without regard to the net operating loss for such second preceding taxable year and without regard to any net operating loss carry-back), and, with respect to net operating losses sustained by a corporation for taxable years prior to the first taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return,

(c) The amount of the net operating loss, if any, sustained by such corporation for the first preceding taxable year, and

(d) The amount of the net operating loss, if any, sustained by such corporation for the second preceding taxable year reduced by the net income, if any, of such corporation for the first preceding taxable year, or, if the income of such corporation is included in the consolidated return for the first preceding taxable year, reduced either by the net income of such corporation for such year increased with respect to its separate net short-term and long-term capital gains (or for years beginning after December 31, 1941, its separate net capital gain) or by the consolidated net income for such year, whichever is the lesser, the net income for the first preceding taxable year being computed in such case with the exceptions, additions, and limitations provided in section 122 (d) (1), (2), (4), and (6), and with a net operating loss deduction or a consolidated net operating loss deduction, as the case may be, for such first preceding taxable year determined without regard to the net operating loss of such corporation for the second preceding taxable year and without regard to any net operating loss carry-back, but only to the extent that such net operating losses, consolidated or separate, as the case may be, were not absorbed as net operating loss carry-backs, and, with respect to net operating losses subject to the provisions of (d), were not absorbed by the group in the first preceding taxable year as war losses pursuant to the last sentence of section 141 (b) of the Code;

(iv) The consolidated net operating loss carry-backs to the taxable year shall consist of—

(a) The amount of the consolidated net operating loss, if any, for the first succeeding taxable year (to the extent not attributable to those corporations making separate returns in the taxable year) reduced to the extent absorbed as a carry-back by the net income, consolidated or separate, as the case may be, for the first preceding taxable year, such net income being computed with the exceptions, additions, and limitations provided in section 122 (d) (1), (2), (4), and (6), and with a net operating loss deduction for such first preceding taxable year, consolidated or separate, as the case may be, determined without regard to the net operating loss for such first succeeding taxable year,

(b) The amount of the consolidated net operating loss, if any, for the second succeeding taxable year, to the extent not attributable to those corporations making separate returns in the taxable years,

and, with respect to net operating losses sustained by a corporation for taxable years subsequent to the last taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return,

(c) The amount of the net operating loss, if any, sustained by such corporation for the first succeeding taxable year reduced by the net income, if any, of such corporation for the first preceding taxable year, or, if the income of such corporation is included in the consolidated return for the first preceding taxable year, reduced either by the net income of such corporation for such year increased with respect to its separate net short-term and long-term capital gains (or, for years beginning after December 31, 1941, its separate net capital gain) or by the consolidated net income for such first preceding taxable year, whichever is the lesser, the net income for the first preceding taxable year being computed in either case with the exceptions, additions, and limitations provided in section 122 (d) (1), (2), (4), and (6), and with a net operating loss deduction or a consolidated net operating loss deduction, as the case may be, for the first preceding taxable year determined without regard to the net operating loss of such corporation for the first succeeding taxable year, and

(d) The amount of the net operating loss, if any, sustained by such corporation for the second succeeding taxable year;

(v) The consolidated net operating loss, computed for the purposes of the net operating loss deduction, shall be an amount equal to the excess of the sum of:

(a) The combined net operating losses of the several affiliated corporations having net operating losses (computed subject to the exceptions, additions, and limitations provided in section 122 (d)), and

(b) The consolidated net loss from involuntary conversions and from sales or exchanges of property subject to the provisions of section 117 (j),

over the sum of:

(c) The combined net income of the several affiliated corporations having net income (adjusted with respect to the exceptions, additions, and limitations provided in section 122 (d) in connection with the computation of net operating losses), and

(d) The consolidated net capital gain;

(vi) The consolidated net loss from involuntary conversions and from sales or exchanges of property subject to the provisions of section 117 (j) shall be the excess of the aggregate of the recognized losses of the character described in section 117 (j) sustained by the several affiliated corporations over the aggregate of the recognized gains of the character described in section 117 (j) realized by the several affiliated corporations;

(vii) The consolidated net capital gain shall be the excess of the sum of:

(a) The aggregate of the capital gains of the several affiliated corporations, and

(b) The consolidated net gain from involuntary conversions and from sales or exchanges of property subject to the provisions of section 117 (j),

over the sum of:

(c) The aggregate of the capital losses of such corporations, plus

(d) The aggregate of the consolidated net capital loss carry-overs to the taxable year, or

(e) In the first taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, the consolidated net short-term capital loss carry-over from the last taxable year beginning in 1941;

(viii) The consolidated net gain from involuntary conversions and from sales or exchanges of property subject to the provisions of section 117 (j) shall be the excess of the aggregate of the recognized gains of the character described in section 117 (j) realized by the several affiliated corporations over the aggregate of the recognized losses of the character described in section 117 (j) sustained by the several affiliated corporations;

(ix) The consolidated net capital loss carry-overs to the taxable year shall consist of:

(a) The consolidated net capital losses, if any, for the five preceding taxable years (not including any taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1942) to the extent that such losses were not attributable to corporations making separate returns in the taxable year, and were not absorbed by net capital gains for intervening taxable years pursuant to the provisions of section 117 (e) (1) of the Code as amended by section 150 of the Revenue Act of 1942, consolidated or separate, as the case may be,

and, with respect to net capital losses sustained by a corporation for taxable years prior to the first taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return,

(b) The net capital losses, if any, sustained by such corporation for its five preceding taxable years (not including any taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1942) to the extent that such losses were not absorbed by the net capital gains of such corporation (or, if the income of such corporation is included in a consolidated return, by the consolidated net capital gains) for intervening taxable years pursuant to the provisions of section 117 (e) (1) of the Code as amended by section 150 of the Revenue Act of 1942;

(x) The consolidated net capital loss shall be the excess of the aggregate of the capital losses of the several affiliated corporations over the sum of:

(a) The aggregate of the capital gains of such corporations, and

(b) The consolidated net gain from involuntary conversions and from sales or exchanges of property subject to the provisions of section 117 (j), reduced, in the case of an affiliated group including as members one or more corporations subject to the tax imposed by section 204 but only for the purpose of net capital loss carry-over computations, by whichever of the following amounts is the lesser:

(c) The combined additional capital loss deductions of such corporations authorized by section 204 (c) (5) as amended by section 164 (c) of the Revenue Act of 1942, or

(d) The consolidated corporation surtax net income computed without regard to capital gains and losses;

(xi) The consolidated net short-term capital loss carry-over from the last taxable year beginning in 1941 (in an amount not greater than the consolidated net short-term capital gain of the taxable year) shall be the sum of:

(a) The consolidated net short-term capital loss, if any, for the last taxable year beginning in 1941 in an amount not in excess of the consolidated net income for such year, and

(b) With respect to a member of the group which filed a separate return for the last taxable year beginning in 1941, the net short-term capital loss, if any, of such corporation for such year in an amount not in excess of its net income for such year;

(xii) The consolidated net short-term capital gain shall be the excess of the aggregate of the short-term capital gains of the several affiliated corporations over the sum of:

(a) The aggregate short-term capital losses of such corporations, plus

(b) The consolidated net capital loss carry-overs to the taxable year, or

(c) In the first taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, the consolidated net short-term capital loss carry-over from the last taxable year beginning in 1941;

(xiii) The consolidated net short-term capital loss shall be the excess of the aggregate of the short-term capital losses of the several affiliated corporations (or, for the purpose of the alternative tax computation under section 117 (c) as amended by section 150 (c) of the Revenue Act of 1942, the sum of such aggregate plus the consolidated net capital loss carry-over or the consolidated net short-term capital loss carry-over, as the case may be) over the aggregate of the short-term capital gains of such corporations;

(xiv) The consolidated net long-term capital gain shall be the excess of the sum of:

(a) The aggregate of the long-term capital gains of the several affiliated corporations, and

(b) The consolidated net gain from involuntary conversions and from sales or exchanges of property subject to the provisions of section 117 (j), over the aggregate of the long-term capital losses of such corporations;

(xv) The consolidated normal-tax net income shall be the consolidated adjusted net income minus the sum of:

(a) The consolidated section 26 (e) credit relating to income subject to excess profits tax, and

(b) The consolidated section 26 (b) credit relating to dividends received;

(xvi) The consolidated adjusted net income shall be the consolidated net income minus the consolidated section 26 (a) credit relating to interest on certain obligations of the United States and Government corporations;

(xvii) The consolidated section 26 (a) credit relating to interest on certain obligations of the United States and Government corporations shall be an amount equal to the aggregate of the interest, of the class with respect to which credit is allowed by section 26 (a), received by the several affiliated corporations;

(xviii) The consolidated section 26 (b) credit relating to dividends received shall be an amount equal to 85 percent of the aggregate dividends, of the class with respect to which credit is allowed by section 26 (b), received by the several affiliated corporations, but in an amount not greater than 85 percent of the excess of the consolidated adjusted net income over the consolidated section 26 (e) credit relating to income subject to excess profits tax;

(xix) The consolidated section 26 (e) credit relating to income subject to excess profits tax shall be an amount equal to the consolidated adjusted excess profits net income as defined in Consolidated Excess Profits Tax Regulations 110, or, in the case of an affiliated group including as members one or more corporations subject to the provisions of section 721 (relating to abnormalities in income in the taxable period), section 726 (relating to corporations completing contracts under the Merchant Marine Act of 1936), section 731 (relating to corporations engaged in mining strategic minerals), or section 736 (b) (relating to corporations with income from long-term contracts), the amount of which the consolidated excess profits tax for the taxable year is 90 percent, the consolidated excess profits tax for the purpose of this credit being computed without regard to the limitation provided in section 710 (a) (1) (B) (the 80 percent limitation), without regard to the credit provided in section 729 (c) and (d) for foreign taxes paid, and without regard to the adjustments provided in section 734;

(xx) The consolidated corporation surtax net income shall be the consolidated net income minus the sum of:

(a) The consolidated section 26 (e) credit relating to income subject to the excess profits tax, and

(b) The consolidated section 26 (b) credit for dividends received (computed by limiting such credit to 85 percent of the excess of the consolidated net income—in lieu of the consolidated adjusted net income—over the consolidated section 26 (e) credit, and computed without regard to dividends received on certain preferred stock of a public utility as referred to in (C) below), and

(c) In the case of an affiliated group including as members one or more corporations which are public utilities as defined in section 26 (h) (2) (A) of the Code as added by section 133 of the Revenue Act of 1942, but in an amount not greater than that portion of the consolidated corporation surtax net income (computed without regard to this credit) attributable to such public utilities, the consolidated section 26 (h) credit relating to dividends paid by such public utilities on preferred stock as defined in section 26 (h) (2) (B) of the Code;

(xxi) The consolidated section 26 (h) credit relating to dividends paid by public utilities on preferred stock shall be an amount equal to the aggregate of the dividends paid by members of the affiliated group which are public utilities within the meaning of section 26 (h) (2) (A) on preferred stock within the meaning of section 26 (h) (2) (B);

(xxii) The consolidated section 102 net income shall be the consolidated net income, computed without regard to any capital loss carry-overs and without regard to any net operating loss deduction, minus the sum of:

(a) The combined Federal income, war-profits, and excess-profits taxes (other than a tax imposed by Subchapter E of Chapter 2 of the Code for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1940) paid or accrued during the taxable year by the several affiliated corporations, to the extent not allowed as a deduction by section 23, but not including the tax imposed by section 102 of the Code, or by a corresponding section of prior income tax laws,

(b) The combined contributions or gifts of the several affiliated corporations, payment of which is made within the taxable year, not otherwise allowed as a deduction, to or for the use of donees described in section 23 (c) of the Code for the purposes therein specified,

(c) The excess of the sum of the capital losses of the several affiliated corporations (computed without regard to any capital loss carry-over) over the sum of the capital gains of such corporations, and

(d) The consolidated section 26 (e) credit relating to income subject to the excess profits tax;

(xxiii) The consolidated undistributed section 102 net income shall be the consolidated section 102 net income minus the consolidated basic surtax credit;

(xxiv) The consolidated Subchapter A net income shall be the consolidated net income computed with the adjustments provided in section 505;

(xxv) The consolidated undistributed Subchapter A net income shall be the consolidated Subchapter A net income minus the sum of:

(a) The consolidated dividends paid credit with the exceptions and limitations provided in section 504 (a),

(b) The aggregate amount, subject to the provisions of section 504 (b), used or irrevocably set aside by the several affiliated corporations to pay or to retire indebtedness incurred prior to January 1, 1934, not including such portion of any such indebtedness as was owned on January 1, 1934, or at any time thereafter, directly or indirectly, by another member of the group,

(c) The aggregate amount of dividends paid by the several affiliated corporations after the close of the taxable year, subject to the provisions of section 504 (c), and

(d) The aggregate of the amounts, if any, distributed by the several affiliated corporations in redemption of preferred stock pursuant to the provisions of section 504 (d) of the Code as added by section 184 of the Revenue Act of 1942, not including any amounts so distributed with respect to preferred stock owned on January 1, 1934, or at any time thereafter, directly or indirectly, by another member of the group;

(xxvi) The consolidated dividends paid credit shall be the sum of:

(a) The consolidated basic surtax credit, and

(xxvii) The consolidated basic surtax credit shall be the sum of:

(a) The excess of the aggregate amount of dividends paid by the several affiliated corporations during the taxable year (computed, in the case of the tax imposed by Subchapter A, with the qualifications provided in section 504 (a) relating to dividends paid after the close of the taxable year) over the consolidated section 26 (h) credit relating to dividends paid by public utilities on certain preferred stock, and

(b) The combined consent dividends credit of the several affiliated corporations provided in section 28, and, in an aggregate amount not exceeding the consolidated section 102 net income or the consolidated Subchapter A net income, as the case may be, the sum of:

(c) The consolidated net operating loss credit, and

(d) In the case of an affiliated group including one or more holding company affiliates of a bank as defined in section 2 of the Banking Act of 1933, the consolidated section 26 (d) credit relating to earnings or profits devoted to the acquisition of readily marketable assets other than bank stock;

(xxviii) The consolidated dividend carry-over for the taxable year shall be the sum of:

(a) The amount, if any, by which the consolidated basic surtax credit for the first preceding taxable year exceeds the consolidated Subchapter A net income for such year, or, with respect to a first preceding taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, the excess of such credit over such income to the extent that such credit and such income are not attributable to corporations making separate returns in the taxable year,

(b) The amount of the consolidated basic surtax credit for the second preceding taxable year reduced by the consolidated Subchapter A net income for such year and further reduced by the amount, if any, by which the consolidated Subchapter A net income of the first preceding taxable year exceeds the sum of: The consolidated basic surtax credit for such year, and The excess, if any, of the consolidated basic surtax credit for the third preceding taxable year over the consolidated Subchapter A net income for such year, or, with respect to a second preceding taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, the amount of the consolidated basic surtax credit for such taxable year so reduced to the extent that any such basic surtax credit and any such Subchapter A net income are not attributable to corporations making separate returns in the taxable year, and, with respect to the unused basic surtax credit of a corporation for taxable years prior to the first taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return,

(c) The amount, if any, by which the basic surtax credit of such corporation for the first preceding taxable year exceeds the Subchapter A net income of such corporation for such year, and

(d) The amount of the basic surtax credit of such corporation for the second preceding taxable year reduced by the Subchapter A net income of such corporation for such year and further reduced by:

(A) The excess, if any, of the Subchapter A net income of such corporation for the first preceding taxable year over the sum of: The basic surtax credit of such corporation for such year, and the amount, if any, by which the basic surtax credit of such corporation for the third preceding taxable year exceeds the Subchapter A net income of such corporation for such year, or

(B) If the income of such corporation is included in the consolidated return for the first preceding taxable year, the lesser of the amount of the excess computed under (aa) or the excess, if any, of the consolidated Subchapter A net income for the first preceding taxable year over the sum of: The consolidated basic surtax credit of such corporation for such year, and the amount, if any, by which the basic surtax credit of such corporation for the third preceding taxable year exceeds the Subchapter A net income of such corporation for such year;

(xxix) The consolidated net operating loss credit shall be an amount equal to the consolidated net operating loss for the preceding taxable year, or, with respect to a preceding taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, the amount of the consolidated net operating loss for such year to the extent not attributable to those corporations making separate returns in the taxable year, but not in excess of, as the case may be,

(a) The consolidated section 102 net income for the taxable year in the case of the tax imposed by section 102, or

(b) The consolidated Subchapter A net income for the taxable year in the case of the tax imposed under Subchapter A;

(xxx) The consolidated net operating loss, computed for the purposes of the net operating loss credit, shall be the sum of:

(a) The excess of the sum of:

(A) The combined net operating losses of the several affiliated corporations having net operating losses, computed subject to the exceptions and limitations provided in section 26 (c) (2),

(B) The consolidated net loss from involuntary conversions and from sales or exchanges of property subject to the provisions of section 117 (j), and

(C) In the case of an affiliated group including as members one or more corporations subject to the tax imposed by section 204, the combined additional capital loss deductions of such corporations authorized by section 204 (c) (5) as amended by section 164 (c) of the Revenue Act of 1942,

over the sum of:

(D) The combined net income, computed with respect to the exceptions and limitations provided in section 26 (c) (2) in connection with the computation of net operating losses, of the several affiliated corporations having net income, and

(E) The consolidated net capital gain, and

(b) With respect to the net operating loss sustained by a corporation for the taxable year prior to the first taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return, the amount of such net operating loss for such prior taxable year, computed subject to the exceptions and limitations provided in section 26 (c) (2), in an amount not in excess of: That portion of the consolidated section 102 net income for the taxable year in the case of the tax imposed by section 102, or that portion of the consolidated Subchapter A net income for the taxable year in the case of the tax imposed under Subchapter A, as the case may be, attributable to such corporation for the taxable year;

(xxxi) The consolidated section 26 (d) credit, relating to bank affiliates, shall be an amount equal to the aggregate of the earnings or profits of members of the group which are holding company affiliates of a bank as defined in section 2 of the Banking Act of 1933 devoted to the acquisition of readily marketable assets other than bank stock (not including any asset acquired, directly or indirectly, from another member of the group), subject, in the case of each such affiliate, to the limitations imposed by section 26 (d) determined without regard to the qualifications expressed in (d) (1) (ii) and (iii);

(xxxii) The consolidated adjusted normal-tax net income, in the case of an affiliated group consisting of corporations subject to the tax imposed by section 201, shall be the consolidated normal-tax net income minus the consolidated reserve and other policy liability credit provided in section 202 (b) and plus the consolidated adjustment for certain reserves provided in section 202 (c);

(xxxiii) The consolidated adjusted corporation surtax net income, in the case of an affiliated group consisting of corporations subject to the tax imposed by section 201, shall be the consolidated corporation surtax net income minus the consolidated reserve and other policy liability credit provided in section 202 (b) and plus the consolidated adjustment for certain reserves provided in section 202 (c);

(xxxiv) The consolidated reserve and other policy liability credit provided in section 202 (b) shall be the consolidated normal-tax net income multiplied by a figure to be determined and proclaimed by the Secretary for each taxable year pursuant to section 202 (b);

(xxxv) The consolidated adjustment for certain reserves provided in section 202 (c) shall be an amount equal to $3\frac{1}{4}$ percent of the combined unearned premiums and unpaid losses of the several affiliated corporations on contracts other than life insurance or annuity contracts, computed in the case of each corporation pursuant to the provisions of section 202 (c), but not less than 25 percent of the combined net premiums on such other contracts written during the taxable year.

PAR. 16. Section 23.31 (d) (1), as amended by Treasury Decision 5127, approved March 5, 1942, is further amended by striking from subdivision (ii) the word "and"; by striking the period at the end of subdivision (iii) and inserting a comma in lieu thereof; and by inserting the following new subdivisions:

(iv) There shall be disregarded all gains and losses from involuntary conversions and from sales and exchanges of property subject to the provisions of section 117 (j), and

(v) In the computation of the deduction under section 23 (v) relating to amortizable bond premium, there shall be disregarded the bonds of one member of the group owned by another member of the group during the taxable year.

PAR. 17. Section 23.31 (d) (2), as amended by Treasury Decision 5127, approved March 5, 1942, is further amended as follows:

(A) By striking that portion preceding the numbered subdivisions, and by inserting in lieu thereof the following:

For a taxable year for which a consolidated return is made or is required, the capital gains and losses, the short-term capital gains and losses, and the long-term capital gains and losses, as defined in section 117 (a), the gains and losses from involuntary conversions and from sales or exchanges of property subject to the provisions of section 117 (j), the additional capital loss deductions authorized by section 204 (c) (5), the interest received of a class with respect to which credit is allowed by section 26 (a), the dividends received of a class with respect to which credit is allowed by section 26 (b), the net operating loss as defined in section 26 (c) (2) for the purpose of the net operating loss credit, the net operating loss as defined in section 122 (a) for the purpose of the net operating loss deduction, the earnings or profits devoted to the acquisition of readily marketable assets other than bank stock in the case of a bank affiliate within the provisions of section 26 (d), the dividends paid on the preferred stock of a public utility within the provisions of section 26 (h), the Subchapter A net income, the Federal income, war-profits, and excess-profits taxes, the contributions or gifts of the class specified in section 23 (o) or 23 (q), the amounts used or irrevocably set aside to pay or to retire indebtedness incurred prior to January 1, 1934, the amount distributed in redemption of preferred stock pursuant to the provisions of section 504 (d), the basic surtax credit, the amount of dividends paid, and the consent dividends credit allowed pursuant to section 28 shall be computed and determined in the case of each affiliated corporation in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as if a separate return were filed, except:

(B) By changing subdivision (iii) to read as follows:

(iii) Capital gains and losses, short-term capital gains and losses, and long-term capital gains and losses shall be determined without regard to:

(a) Gains or losses arising in intercompany transactions,

(b) Gains or losses from involuntary conversions and from sales or exchanges of property subject to the provisions of section 117 (j), and

(c) The net short-term capital loss carry-over provided in section 117 (e);

(C) By striking from subdivision (v) the word "and"; by striking the period at the end of subdivision (vi) and inserting a semicolon in lieu thereof; and by inserting the following new subdivisions:

(vii) In the computation of the Federal income, war-profits, and excess-profits taxes, there shall be used the consolidated tax, or a proportionate part thereof, if the tax payable is properly computed on the basis of the consolidated return; and (viii) In the computation of dividends paid on the preferred stock of a public utility, there shall be excluded all dividends paid by such public utility to another member of the group.

PAR. 18. Section 23.31 (d) (3), as added by Treasury Decision 5127, approved March 5, 1942, is amended to read as follows:

(3) In no case (except as otherwise provided in this subparagraph) shall there be included in the consolidated net operating loss deduction for the taxable year as consolidated net operating loss carry-overs under (b) (1) (iii) (c) and (d) of this section, or (b) (2) (iii) (c) and (d), as the case may be, (relating to net operating losses sustained by a corporation in years prior to the first taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return) and as consolidated net operating loss carrybacks under (b (1) (iv) (c) and (d) of this section, or (b) (2) (iv) (c) and (d), as the case may be, (relating to net operating losses sustained by a corporation in years subsequent to the last taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return) an amount exceeding in the aggregate the net income of such corporation (computed with the exceptions and limitations provided in section 122 (d) (1), (2), (3), and (4)) included in the computation of the consolidated net income for the taxable year increased by its separate net capital gain (or, for years beginning prior to January 1, 1942, its separate net short-term and long-term capital gains). The provisions of this subparagraph do not apply with respect to that portion of any net operating loss carry-over from a taxable year beginning in 1941 attributable to war losses within the provisions of section 127 of the Code as added by section 156 of the Revenue Act of 1942, such portion being determined as the excess of the net operating loss for such year over the amount of any net operating loss for the year computed without regard to war losses.

PAR. 19. Section 23.31 (d) (4), as added by Treasury Decision 5127, approved March 5, 1942, is amended to read as follows:

(4) If a portion of the consolidated net operating loss deduction arises as a carry-over pursuant to the provisions of (b) (1) (iii) (c) or (d) of this section, or (b) (2) (iii) (c) or (d), as the case may be (relating to net operating losses sustained by a corporation in years prior to the first taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return), or as a carry-back pursuant to the provisions of (b) (1) (iv) (c) or (d) of this section, or (b) (2) (iv) (c) or (d), as the case may be, (relating to net operating losses sustained by a corporation in years subsequent to the last taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return), the consolidated net operating loss deduction shall not be less than the amount of such portion reduced by the amount, if any, by which the net income of such corporation (computed with the exceptions and limitations provided in section 122 (d) (1), (2), (3), and (4)) exceeds the normal-tax net income of such corporation (computed, for taxable years beginning in 1941, without any net operating loss deduction but taking into account any net long-term capital loss, and, for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941, without any net operating loss deduction and without the credit provided by section 26 (e) relating to income subject to excess profits tax but taking into account the additional capital loss deduction authorized by section 204 (c) (5)), or, in the case of two or more such corporations, the sum of such portions so reduced.

PAR. 20. Section 23.31 (d) (5), as added by Treasury Decision 5127, approved March 5, 1942, is amended to read as follows:

(5) With respect to consolidated net operating loss carry-overs and carrybacks:

(i) If, in the computation of the consolidated net operating loss deduction for the second consolidated return period in respect of which the income of a corporation is included in the consolidated returns of the group, there is involved the net operating loss separately sustained by such corporation for the second preceding taxable year together with a consolidated net operating loss for the second preceding taxable year, or if, for the second consolidated return period in respect of which the income of two or more members of the group is included in the consolidated returns of the group, there are involved the net operating losses separately sustained by such corporations for the second preceding taxable year, no portion of the consolidated net income for the first preceding taxable year shall be taken into account more than once in giving effect to the provisions of (b) (1) (iii) (b) and (d) of this section, or (b) (2) (iii) (b) and (d), as the case may be, (relating to the computation of the consolidated net operating loss carry-overs attributable to losses of the second preceding taxable year);

(ii) If, in the computation of the consolidated net operating loss deduction for the last taxable year in respect of which the income of a corporation is included in the consolidated returns of the group, there is involved the net operating loss separately sustained by such corporation for the first succeeding taxable year together with a consolidated net operating loss for the first succeeding taxable year, or if, for the last taxable year in respect of which the income of two or more members of the group is included in the consolidated returns of the group, there are involved the net operating losses separately sustained by such corporations for the first succeeding taxable year, no portion of the consolidated net income for the first preceding taxable year shall be taken into account more than once in giving effect to the provisions of (b) (1) (iv) (a) and (c) of this section, or (b) (2) (iv) (a) and (c), as the case may be, (relating to the computation of the consolidated net operating loss carry-backs attributable to losses of the first succeeding taxable year).

PAR. 21. Section 23.31 (d) (6), as added by Treasury Decision 5127, approved March 5, 1942, is amended to read as follows:

(6) If, in the computation of the consolidated dividend carry-over for the second consolidated return period in respect of which the income of a corporation is included in the consolidated returns of the group, there is involved a separate unused basic surtax credit of such corporation for the second preceding taxable year together with a consolidated unused basic surtax credit for the second preceding taxable year, or if, for the second consolidated return period in respect of which the income of two or more members of the group is included in the consolidated returns of the group, there are involved the separate unused basic surtax credits of such corporations for the second preceding taxable year, no portion of the excess of the consolidated Subchapter A net income over the consolidated basic surtax credit for the first preceding taxable year shall be taken into account more than once in giving effect to the provisions of (b) (1) (xxi) (b) and (d) of this section, or (b) (2) (xxvi) (b) and (d), as the case may be, (relating to the computation of that part of the consolidated dividend carry-over attributable to the unused basic surtax credits of the second preceding taxable year).

PAR. 22. Section 23.31 (d), as amended by Treasury Decision 5127, approved March 5, 1942, is further amended by inserting immediately after subparagraph (6) the following subparagraphs:

(7) If an affiliated group filing a consolidated return for a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, sustains a consolidated net operating loss within the provisions of section 26 (c), relating to the net operating loss credit, or within the provisions of section 122, relating to the net operating loss deduction, and if there are included as members of such group one or more corporations which made separate returns either in a preceding taxable year (not including any year beginning prior to January 1, 1941) or in a succeeding taxable year, the portion of such consolidated net operating loss attributable to such corporations severally shall be determined, such portion in the case of any such corporation being determined in an amount proportionate to the net losses (capital net losses and ordinary net losses alike) of the several affiliated corporations having net losses, to the extent that such losses were taken into account in the computation of the consolidated net operating loss.

(8) If an affiliated group filing a consolidated return for a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, sustains a consolidated net capital loss, and if there are included as members of such group one or more corporations which make separate returns in a succeeding taxable year, the portion of such consolidated net capital loss attributable to such corporations severally shall be determined, such portion in the case of any such corporation being an amount which bears the same ratio to the consolidated net capital loss which the net capital loss of such corporation bears to the aggregate of the net capital losses for the taxable year sustained by the several affiliated corporations having net capital losses.

(9) If an affiliated group filing a consolidated return for a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, has an unusued consolidated basic surtax credit, and if there are included as members of such group one or more corporations which make separate returns in a succeeding taxable year, the portion of such unusued consolidated basic surtax credit attributable to such corporations severally shall be determined for the purposes of the dividend carry-over, such portion in the case of any such corporation being determined in an amount proportionate to the dividends paid, the consent dividends credits, the several factors involved in the computation of the consolidated net operating loss credit, and the Subchapter A net incomes of the several affiliated corporations, to the extent that such items were taken into account in the computation of the consolidated basic surtax credit and the consolidated Subchapter A net income.

PAR. 23. Section 23.31 (f), as amended by Treasury Decision 5127, approved March 5, 1942, is further amended to read as follows:

(f) Net operating loss deduction, net operating loss credit, and dividend carry-over after consolidated return period. The consolidated net operating loss (whether computed for the purpose of the deduction or the credit) or the unused consolidated basic surtax credit of an affiliated group for any consolidated return period beginning prior to January 1, 1942, shall be used in computing the net operating loss deduction, the net operating loss credit, or the dividend carry-over, as the case may be, in the return of the common parent corporation (or the consolidated net operating loss deduction, the consolidated net operating loss credit, or the consolidated dividend carry-over in the consolidated return of another affiliated group of which such common parent becomes a member) for a taxable year subsequent to the last consolidated return period of the group in the same manner, to the same extent, upon the same conditions, and subject to the same limitations as if, during the taxable year in which such loss or such unused basic surtax credit originated and continuing to the date of the termination of the group, the group had been a single corporation, the common parent corporation; and no net operating loss or unused basic surtax credit attributable to a consolidated return period beginning prior to January 1, 1942, shall be used in computing the net operating loss deduction, the net operating loss credit, or the dividend carry-over of a subsidiary (or the consolidated net operating loss deduction, the consolidated net operating loss credit, or the consolidated dividend carry-over of another affiliated group of which such subsidiary becomes a member) for any taxable year subsequent to the last consolidated return period of the group. No part of any unused basic surtax credit of a corporation for a year prior to the first taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return, if the consolidated return year begins prior to January 1, 1942, shall be used in computing the dividend carry-over of such corporation (or the consolidated dividend carry-over of another affiliated group of which it becomes a member) for any taxable year subsequent to the last consolidated return period, but any part of such unused basic surtax credit which, except for this restriction, might be so used shall be treated as attributable to the common parent corporation of the group for a year in which such common parent had no adjusted net income and no other basic surtax credit. No part of any net operating loss sustained by a corporation prior to the first taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return, if the consolidated return year begins prior to January 1, 1942, shall be used in computing the net operating loss deduction of such corporation (or the consolidated net operating loss deduction of another affiliated group of which it becomes a member) for any taxable year subsequent to the last consolidated return period, but any part of such net operating loss which, except for this restriction, might be so used shall be treated as having been sustained by the common parent corporation of the group.

The consolidated net operating loss (whether computed for the purpose of the deduction or the credit) of an affiliated group for a consolidated return period beginning after December 31, 1941, or the unused consolidated basic surtax credit of such group for such period, shall be used in computing the consolidated net operating loss deduction, the consolidated net operating loss credit, or the consolidated dividend carry-over, as the case may be, notwithstanding that one or more corporations, members of the group in the taxable year in which such loss or such unused basic surtax credit originates, make separate returns (or join in a consolidated return made by another affiliated group) for a subsequent taxable year (or, in the case of a carry-back computation, for a preceding taxable year), but only to the extent that such consolidated net operating loss or such unused consolidated basic surtax credit is not attributable to such corporations; and such portion of such consolidated net operating loss or such unused consolidated basic surtax credit as is attributable to the several corporations making separate returns (or joining in a consolidated return made by another affiliated group) for a subsequent taxable year (or, in the case of a carry-back computation, for a preceding taxable year) shall be used by such corporations severally as carry-overs, or as carry-backs, in such separate returns, or in such consolidated return, of the other affiliated group. Any unused basic surtax credit of a corporation for a year prior to the first taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return, if the consolidated return year begins after December 31, 1941, shall be used in computing the dividend carry-over of such corporation (or the consolidated dividend carry-over of another affiliated group of which it becomes a member) for a subsequent taxable year for which it makes a separate return or joins in a consolidated return of another group, but only to the extent that such unused basic surtax credit was not absorbed in the computation of the consolidated dividend paid credit for the prior consolidated return period. Any net operating loss sustained by a corporation prior to the first taxable years in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return, if the consolidated return year begins after December 31, 1941, shall be used in computing the net operating loss deduction of such corporation (or the consolidated net operating loss deduction of another affiliated group of which it becomes a member) for a subsequent taxable year for which it makes a separate return or joins in a consolidated return of another group, but only to the extent that such net operating loss was not absorbed in the computation of the consolidated net operating loss deduction for the prior consolidated return period.

PAR. 24. Section 23.34 (c) (2) is amended by striking from the second sentence the phrase "in subsequent years" and inserting in lieu thereof the phrase "in prior or subsequent years."

PAR. 25. Section 23.37, as amended by Treasury Decision 5127, approved March 5, 1942, is further amended as follows:

(A) By changing subparagraph (a) (1), as amended, to read:

(1) Where such distribution is in complete liquidation and redemption of all of its stock (whether in one distribution or a series) and of its bonds and other indebtedness, if any, falls without the provisions of section 112 (b) (6), and is the result of a bona fide termination of the business and operations of such member of the group, in which case the adjustments specified in §§ 23.34 and 23.35 will be made and § 23.36 will be applicable, or

(B) By changing paragraph (b) to read as follows:

(b) In case any such distribution is made after a consolidated return period, whether in complete or partial liquidation, except a complete liquidation within the provisions of section 112 (b) (6), with respect to stock and with respect to bonds, debentures, notes, certificates, and other indebtedness of the liquidated corporation acquired prior to or during any taxable year subsequent to 1928 for which a consolidated income or excess profits tax return was filed, the adjustments specified in §§ 23.34 and 23.35 will be made, and § 23.36 will be applicable.

PAR. 26. Section 23.39 (b) (3), as added by Treasury Decision 5127, approved March 5, 1942, is amended to read as follows:

If a corporation which was a member of an affiliated group in a consolidated return period makes or is required to make a separate return for the succeeding taxable year, the value of its opening inventory to be used in computing its net income for such secceeding taxable year shall be the proper value of its closing inventory used in computing consolidated net income for the last consolidated return period increased in the amount of profits or decreased in the amount of losses eliminated in the computation of such inventory as profits or losses arising in transactions between members of the affiliated group, but in an amount not exceeding, in the case of profits, either the amount of profits arising from such intercompany transactions reflected in the closing inventory of such corporation for such succeeding taxable year or the amount of such intercompany profits eliminated from its opening inventory for its first consolidated return period pursuant to the provisions of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, and not exceeding, in the case of losses, either the amount of losses arising from intercompany transactions reflected in the closing inventory for such corporation for such succeeding taxable year or the amount of such intercompany losses eliminated from its opening inventory for its first consolidated return period pursuant to the provisions of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

PAR. 27. Section 23.40, as amended by Treasury Decision 5127, approved March 5, 1942, is further amended to read as follows:

§ 23.40 Bad debts—(a) Deduction during consolidated return period. No deduction shall be allowed during a consolidated return period to any member of the affiliated group on account of worthlessness in whole or in part of any obligation (including accounts receivable, bonds, notes, debts, and claims of whatsoever nature) of any other corporation which was a member of the group as of the last day of the taxable year or which was liquidated by the group during such year, except as a loss resulting from a bona fide termination of the business and operations of such other corporation, whether in liquidation or otherwise, in which case the loss will be computed subject to the adjustments specified in § 23.35, and the provisions of § 23.36 shall be applicable.

(b) Limitation of allowance after consolidated return period. With respect to obligations (including accounts receivable) of a member of an affiliated group acquired in any way by another member of the group prior to or during any taxable year subsequent to 1928 for which a consolidated income or excess profits tax return was filed, the adjustments prescribed with respect to the allowance of losses upon the sale of bonds shall be applicable to the allowance of any bad debt deduction for any period subsequent to the consolidated return period. (See § 23.35.)

PAR. 28. Section 23.42, as amended by Treasury Decision 5127, approved March 5, 1942, is further amended as follows:

(A) By changing the heading of paragraph (b) to read, "(b) Years beginning after December 31, 1940, and prior to January 1, 1942."

(B) By striking from the first subparagraph of paragraph (b) the words "after December 31, 1940," and inserting in lieu thereof the words "after December 31, 1940, and prior to January 1, 1942,".

(C) By inserting at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

(c) Years beginning after December 31, 1941. The provisions of sections 23 (g) and (k), 117 (d), (e), and (j), 122 (d), and 204 (c) (5), with respect to gains and losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets shall be applied, in respect of such gains and losses sustained during a consolidated return period beginning after December 31, 1941, as if the affiliated group were the taxpayer.

With respect to a net short-term capital loss sustained by a corporation in its last taxable year beginning in 1941, a year prior to the first consolidated return period in respect of which the income of such corporation is included in the consolidated return, such loss (in an amount not in excess of the net income of such corporation for such year or in excess of the net short-term capital gain of such corporation for the first consolidated return period) shall, for the purposes of section 117 (e), relating to net short-term capital loss carry-overs, be treated as if such net short-term capital loss had been sustained by the affiliated group.

With respect to a net capital loss sustained by a corporation in a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, a year prior to the first consolidated return period in respect of which its income is included in a consolidated return, such loss (in an amount not in excess of the net capital gain of such corporation for succeeding consolidated return periods) shall, for the purposes of section 117 (e), relating to net capital loss carry-overs, be treated as if such net capital loss had been sustained by the affiliated group.

A consolidated net capital loss of an affiliated group for a consolidated return period beginning after December 31, 1941, shall be considered as a consolidated short-term capital loss in subsequent consolidated return periods notwithstanding that one or more corporations, members of the group in the taxable year in which such loss was sustained, make separate returns for subsequent taxable years (or join in a consolidated return made by another affiliated group), but only to the extent that such consolidated net capital loss is not attributable to such corporations; and such portion of such consolidated net capital loss as is attributable to the several corporations making separate returns (or joining in a consolidated return made by another affiliated group) for a subsequent taxable year shall be considered as a short-term capital loss in such separate returns, or in such consolidated return of the other affiliated group, but only to the extent that such portion of such consolidated net capital loss was not absorbed in intervening taxable years by net capital gains, consolidated or separate, as the case may be. Any net capital loss sustained by a coporation prior to the first taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return, if the consolidated return year begins after December 31, 1941, shall be considered as a short-term capital loss in the separate return of such corporation (or the consolidated return of another affiliated group of which it becomes a member) for a subsequent taxable year for which it makes a separate return or joins in a consolidated return of another group, but only to the extent that such net capital loss was not absorbed in intervening taxable years by net capital gains, consolidated or separate, as the case may be.

PART 33 — CONSOLIDATED RETURNS OF AFFILIATED CORPORATIONS PRESCRIBED UNDER SECTION 730 (b) OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE

EXCESS PROFITS TAX

In order to conform Regulations 110 (Part 33, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, 1941 Supp.) to the provisions of the Revenue Act of 1942 (Public Law 753, 77th Congress), approved October 21, 1942, such regulations are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. The title page is amended by inserting immediately preceding the seal of the Commissioner the following: "and, for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941, prescribed under section 141 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code as amended by section 159 of the Revenue Act of 1942."

PAR. 2. Page III is amended—

(A) By striking out all matter following "Subchapter A—Part 33" and preceding the table of contents, and by inserting in lieu thereof the following:

Regulations relating to consolidated returns of affiliated corporations prescribed under section 730 (b) of the Excess Profits Tax Act of 1940 (Subchapter E of Chapter 2 of the Internal Revenue Code as added by the Second Revenue Act of 1940) and, for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941, prescribed under section 141 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code as amended by section 159 of the Revenue Act of 1942

(B) By striking the period at the end of the footnote and by inserting in lieu thereof a comma and the following:

and revised under the authority contained in section 141 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended by section 159 of the Revenue Act of 1942 (Public Law 753, 77th Cong.).

PAR. 3. Page 1 is amended by striking out all matter following the words "Consolidated Excess Profits Tax Regulations" and preceding the words "Subchapter E—Excess Profits Tax", and by inserting in lieu thereof the following: "relating to: Consolidated returns of affiliated corporations prescribed under section 730 (b) of the Excess Profits Tax Act of 1940 (Subchapter E of Chapter 2 of the Internal Revenue Code as added by the Second Revenue Act of 1940, and, for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941, prescribed under section 141 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code as amended by section 159 of the Revenue Act of 1942"

PAR. 4. There is inserted immediately preceding § 33.0 the following:

SEC. 159. EXTENSION OF CONSOLIDATED RETURNS PRIVILEGE TO CERTAIN CORPORATIONS. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title I.)

(a) General rule. Section 141 (relating to consolidated returns of railroad corporations) is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 141. CONSOLIDATED RETURNS.

(a) Privilege to file consolidated income and excess-profits-tax returns. An affiliated group of corporations shall, subject to the provisions of this section, have the privilege of making consolidated income and excess-profits-tax returns for the taxable year in lieu of separate returns. The making of consolidated returns shall be upon the condition that the affiliated group shall make both a consolidated income-tax return and a consolidated excess-profits-tax return for the taxable year, and that all corporations which at any time during the taxable year have been members of the affiliated group making a consolidated income-tax return consent to all the consolidated income- and excess-profits-tax regulations prescribed under subsection (b) prior to the last day prescribed by law for the filing of such return. The making of a consolidated income-tax return shall be considered as such consent. In the case of a corporation which is a member of the affiliated group for a fractional part of the year, the consolidated returns shall include the income of such corporation for such part of the year as it is a member of the affiliated group. In the case of a corporation which is not a member of the affiliated group after March 31, 1942, of the last taxable year of such group which begins before April 1, 1942, such corporation shall not be considered a member of the affiliated group for consolidated income-tax-return purposes for such year but shall be considered a member of such group for consolidated excess-profits-tax-return purposes for such year, and the consent required in the case of such corporation shall relate only to the consolidated excess-profits-tax regulations.

(b) Regulations. The Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, shall prescribe such regulations as he may deem necessary in order that the tax liability of any affiliated group of corporations making consolidated income- and excess-profits-tax returns and of each corporation in the group, both during and after the period of affiliation, may be returned, determined, computed, assessed, collected, and adjusted in such manner as clearly to reflect the income- and excess-profits-tax liability and the various factors necessary for the determination of such liability, and in order to prevent avoidance of such tax liability. Such regulations shall prescribe the amount of the net operating loss deduction of each member of the group which is attributable to a deduction allowed for a taxable year beginning in 1941 on account of property considered as destroyed or seized under section 127 (relating to war losses), and the allowance of the amount so prescribed as a deduction in computing the net income of the group shall not be limited by the amount of the net income of such member.

(c) Computation and payment of tax. In any case in which consolidated income-tax and excess-profits-tax returns are made or are required to be made, the taxes shall be determined, computed, assessed, collected, and ajusted in accordance with the regulations under subsection (b) prescribed prior to the last day prescribed by law for the filing of such returns; except that the tax imposed under section 15 or section 204 shall be increased by 2 per centum of the consolidated corporation surtax net income of the affiliated group of includible corporations. Only one specinc exemption of $5,000 provided in section 710 (b) (1) shall be allowed for the entire affiliated group of corporations for the purposes of the tax imposed by Subchapter E of Chapter 2.

(d) Definition of "affiliated group". As used in this section, an "affiliated group" means one or more chains of includible corporations connected through stock ownership with a common parent corporation which is an includible corporation if—

(1) Stock possessing at least 95 per centum of the voting power of all classes of stock and at least 95 per centum of each class of the nonvoting stock of each of the includible corporations (except the common parent corporation) is owned directly by one or more of the other includible corporations; and

(2) The common parent corporation owns directly stock possessing at least 95 per centum of the voting power of all classes of stock and at least 95 per centum of each class of the nonvoting stock of at least one of the other includible corporations.

As used in this subsection, the term "stock" does not include nonvoting stock which is limited and preferred as to dividends.

(e) Definition of "includible corporation". As used in this section, the term "includible corporation" means any corporation except—

(1) Corporations exempt under section 101 from the tax imposed by this chapter.

(2) Insurance companies subject to taxation under section 201 or 207.

(3) Foreign corporations.

(4) Corporations entitled to the benefits of section 251, by reason of receiving a large percentage of their income from sources within possessions of the United States.

(5) Corporations organized under the China Trade Act, 1922.

(6) Regulated investment companies subject to tax under Supplement Q.

(f) Includible insurance companies. Despite the provisions of paragraph (2) of subsection (e), two or more domestic insurance companies each of which is subject to taxation under the same section of this chapter shall be considered as includible corporations for the purpose of the application of subsection (d) to such insurance companies alone

(g) Subsidiary formed to comply with foreign law. In the case of a domestic corporation owning or controlling, directly or indirectly, 100 per centum of the capital stock (exclusive of directors' qualifying shares) of a corporation organized under the laws of a contiguous foreign country and maintained solely for the purpose of complying with the laws of such country as to title and operation of property, such foreign corporation may, at the option of the domestic corporation, be treated for the purpose of this chapter and of Subchapter E of Chapter 2 as a domestic corporation.

(h) Suspension of running of statute of limitations. If a notice under section 272 (a) in respect of a deficiency for any taxable year is mailed to a corporation, the suspension of the running of the statute of limitations, provided in section 277, shall apply in the case of corporations with which such corporation made a consolidated return for such taxable year.

(i) Allocation of income and deductions. For allocation of income and deductions of related trades or businesses, see section 45.

SEC. 101. TAXABLE YEARS TO WHICH AMENDMENTS APPLICABLE. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title I.)

Except as otherwise expressly provided, the amendments made by this title shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941.

PAR. 5. Section 33.0 is amended by changing the first sentence of the first paragraph to read as follows:

These regulations, authorized by section 730 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code as added by the Second Revenue Act of 1940 and by section 141 (b) of the Code as amended by section 159 of the Revenue Act of 1942, are prescribed as a supplement to the excess profits tax regulations applicable generally under the Code.

PAR. 6. Section 33.0 is further amended by inserting at the end of the footnote to such section the following additional paragraph:

The Report of the Committee on Finance (Rept. No. 1631, 77th Cong., 2d sess., p. 133) accompanying the Revenue Bill of 1942 contains the following statement:

The consolidated normal tax net income, the consolidated corporation surtax net income, and the consolidated capital gains and losses of the group are among those factors with respect to which the Commissioner, in view of experience with current and past consolidated returns regulations, is expected to prescribe regulations in order to reflect clearly the income and excess profits tax liability of the group and of each member thereof and the various factors necessary for the determination of such liability. In addition to these matters, your committee expects that such regulations will provide for the application of the excess profits relief provisions, and the provisions of section 710 (a) (1) (B) limiting excess profits taxes, in cases where consolidated returns are filed. Although the present regulations with respect to the determination of consolidated net income quite properly limit the deduction of the net operating loss carry-over of a member of a group from years prior to that in which its income is first included in a consolidated return to the amount of the separate income of such member, this section provides that such limitation shall not be applied to prevent the portion of the net operating loss carry-over which is attributable to a 1941 war loss of the member (see sec. 158 of the bill) being taken into account in computing consolidated net income

PAR. 7. Section 33.1 (a) is amended by changing the first sentence thereof to read as follows:

Section 730, applicable with respect to taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1942, and section 141 as amended by section 159 of the Revenue Act of 1942, applicable with respect to subsequent taxable years, give to the corporations of an affiliated group the privilege of making a consolidated excess profits tax return for the taxable year in lieu of separate returns.

PAR. 8. Section 33.2 (b) is amended as follows:

(A) By striking from the first sentence of the first subparagraph the words "section 730", and by inserting in lieu thereof the following: "section 141 as amended by section 159 of the Revenue Act of 1942, or section 730, as the case may be".

(B) By striking from the second sentence of the first subparagraph the words "section 730", and by inserting in lieu thereof the following: "section 141 as amended by section 159 of the Revenue Act of 1942, or section 730, as the case may be.".

(C) By striking out the third subparagraph, and by inserting in lieu thereof two subparagraphs as follows:

For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941, an affiliated group of corporations, within the meaning of section 141 of the Code as amended by section 159 of the Revenue Act of 1942, is formed at the time that the common parent corporation, which is an includible corporation, becomes the owner directly of stock possessing at least 95 percent of the voting power of all classes of stock and at least 95 percent of each class of nonvoting stock (not including nonvoting stock which is limited and preferred as to dividends) of another includible corporation; a corporation becomes a member of such an affiliated group at the time that one or more members of such group become the owners directly of stock possessing at least 95 percent of the voting power of all classes of its stock and at least 95 percent of each class of its nonvoting stock (not including nonvoting stock which is limited and preferred as to dividends); and a corporation ceases to be a member of such an affiliated group at the time that the members of such group cease to own directly stock possessing at least 95 percent of the voting power of all classes of its stock, or at least 95 percent of each class of its nonvoting stock (not including nonvoting stock which is limited and preferred as to dividends).

For taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1942, an affiliated group of corporations, within the meaning of section 730, is formed at the time that the common parent corporation becomes the owner directly of at least 95 percent of each class of the stock (as defined by section 730 (d)) of another corporation. A corporation becomes a member of an affiliated group at the time that one or more members of the group become the owners directly of at least 95 percent of each class of its stock. A corporation ceases to be a member of an affiliated group when the members of the group cease to own directly at least 95 percent of each class of its stock.

PAR. 9. Section 33.2 (g) is amended by changing the expression within the parentheses to read as follows:

See, for example, "adjusted net income," section 13; "normal-tax net income," section 13 as amended by section 105 (a) of the Revenue Act of 1942; "special class net income," section 14 prior to its amendment by section 201 of the Revenue Act of 1939; "corporation surtax net income," section 15 as amended by section 105 (b) of the Revenue Act of 1942; "net income," section 21; "gross income," section 22; "taxable year" and "fiscal year," section 48 as amended by section 135 (d) of the Revenue Act of 1942; "deficiency," section 271; and the terms defined in section 3797, particularly the terms "person," "stock," and "corporation."

PAR. 10. Section 33.12 (c) is amended by striking the words "Form 851E," and by inserting in lieu thereof "Form 851."

PAR. 11. Section 33.18 (b) is amended by changing the matter within the parentheses to read as follows: "under the provisions of section 141 as amended by section 159 of the Revenue Act of 1942, or section 730, as the case may be."

PAR. 12. Section 33.30 (a) is amended as follows:

(A) By striking from subparagraph (1) (ii) the words "which would have resulted for each previous taxable year," and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "which would have resulted for the taxable year (computed under subdivision (i)) and for each previous taxable year."

(B) By striking from subparagraph (2) that portion of the first sentence following the semicolon, and by inserting in lieu thereof the following: "but the amount of such decrease shall be diminished by the aggregate of the increases in the tax which would have resulted for the future taxable year (computed under subdivision (i)) and for the taxable years intervening between such previous taxable year and such future taxable year because of the inclusion in gross income of the portions of such net abnormal income attributable to such intervening years."

PAR. 13. Section 33.30 (c), as amended by Treasury Decision 5126, approved March 5, 1942, is further amended as follows:

(A) By changing the heading thereof to read, "In case of profits from mining strategic metals."

(B) By striking from the first sentence, as amended, the words "beginning prior to January 1, 1941".

PAR. 14. Section 33.30, as amended by Treasury Decision 5126, approved March 5, 1942, is further amended by inserting immediately after paragraph (c) the following:

For a consolidated return period beginning after December 31, 1941, the consolidated excess profits tax liability shall be whichever of the following amounts is the lesser:

(1) Ninety percent of the consolidated adjusted excess profits net income, or

(2) An amount which when added to the consolidated tax computed under Regulations 104 (not including any tax imposed by section 102 or section 500) equals 80 percent of the consolidated corporation surtax net income, computed without regard to the section 26 (e) credit (relating to income subject to excess profits tax), increased by the excess, if any, of the consolidated net income computed under these regulations over the consolidated net income computed under Regulations 104, or decreased by the excess, if any, of the consolidated net income computed under Regulations 104 over the consolidated net income computed under these regulations, and computed with a dividend received credit determined by reference to a consolidated net income similarly increased or decreased.

PAR. 15. Section 33.31 (a), as amended by Treasury Decision 5126, approved March 5, 1942, is further amended as follows:

(A) By striking out the heading and that portion of the paragraph preceding the numbered subparagraphs, and by inserting in lieu thereof the following:

(a) Definitions; years beginning prior to January 1, 1942. In the case of an affiliated group of corporations which makes or is required to make a consolidated excess profits tax return for any taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1942, and except as otherwise provided in these regulations:

(B) By changing subparagraph (2) to read:

(2) The consolidated net short-term capital gain shall be the excess of the sum of the short-term capital gains of the several affiliated corporations over the sum of:

(i) The aggregate short-term capital losses of such corporations, and

(ii) The consolidated net short-term capital loss carry-over from the preceding taxable year;

(C) By changing subparagraph (5) to read as follows:

(5) The consolidated net operating loss deduction shall be:

(i) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1940, an amount equal to the aggregate of the consolidated net operating loss carry-overs and of the consolidated net operating loss carrybacks to the taxable year reduced by the amount, if any, by which the consolidated net income (computed with the exceptions and limitations provided in section 122 (d) (1), (2), (3), and (4)) exceeds the consolidated normal-tax net income (computed without any net operating loss deduction) but shall not exceed the amount of the consolidated normal-tax net income computed without the benefit of such deduction, and

(ii) For taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1941, an amount equal to the consolidated net operating loss carry-over reduced by the amount, if any, by which the consolidated net income (computed with the exceptions and limitations provided in section 122 (d)) exceeds the consolidated normal-tax net income (computed without any net operating loss deduction) but shall not exceed the amount of the consolidated normal-tax net income computed without the benefit of such reduction:

(D) By changing subparagraph (6) to read:

(6) The consolidated net operating loss carry-overs and carry-backs:

(i) The consolidated net operating loss carry-overs to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1940, shall consist of:

(a) The amount of the consolidated net operating loss, if any, for the first preceding taxable year,

(b) The amount of the consolidated net operating loss, if any, for the second preceding taxable year reduced by the consolidated net income, if any, for the first preceding taxable year computed with the exceptions, additions, and limitations provided in section 122 (d) (1), (2), (4), and (6), and with a consolidated net operating loss deduction for such first preceding taxable year determined without regard to the net operating loss for such second preceding taxable year and without regard to any net operating loss carry-back,

and, with respect to net operating losses sustained by a corporation for taxable years prior to the first taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return:

(c) The amount of the net operating loss, if any, sustained by such corporation for the first preceding taxable year, and

and, with respect to net operating losses sustained by a corporation for taxable years subsequent to the last taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return:

(c) The amount of the net operating loss, if any, sustained by such operation for the first succeeding taxable year reduced by the net income, if any, of such corporation for the first preceding taxable year, or, if the income of such corporation is included in the consolidated return for the first preceding taxable year, reduced either by the net income of such corporation for such year increased with respect to its separate net short-term and long-term capital gains or by the consolidated net income for such first preceding taxable year, whichever is the lesser, the net income for the first preceding taxable year being computed in either case with the exceptions, additions, and limitations provided in section 122 (d) (1), (2), (4), and (6), and with a net operating loss deduction or a consolidated net operating loss deduction, as the case may be, for the first preceding taxable year determined without regard to the net operating loss of such corporation for the first succeeding taxable year, and

not including as a first succeeding taxable year or a second succeeding taxable year any taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1942, and not including as a first preceding taxable year any taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1941;

(iii) The consolidated net operating loss carry-over for a taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1941, shall be the sum of:

(a) The amount of the consolidated net operating loss, if any, for the first preceding taxable year,

(b) The amount of the consolidated net operating loss, if any, for the second preceding taxable year reduced by the excess, if any, of the consolidated net income (computed with the exceptions and limitations provided in section 122 (d)) for the first preceding taxable year over the consolidated net operating loss for the third preceding taxable year.

and, with respect to net operating losses sustained by a corporation for taxable years prior to the first taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return:

(c) The amount of the net operating loss, if any, sustained by such corporation for the first preceding taxable year, and

(d) The amount of the net operating loss, if any, sustained by such corporation for the second preceding taxable year reduced by the excess, if any, of the net income of such corporation for the first preceding taxable year or, if the income of such corporation is included in the consolidated return for the first preceding taxable year, either the net income of such corporation increased by the separate net short-term and long-term capital gains of such corporation or the consolidated net income for such year (computed in either case with the exceptions and limitations provided in section 122 (d)), whichever is the lesser, over the net operating loss of such corporation for the third preceding taxable year;

(E) By striking from subparagraph (7) the firs' parenthetical expression included therein, and by inserting in lieu thereof the following: "(computed subject to the exceptions, additions, and limitations provided in section 122 (d), or, for taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1941, subject to the exceptions and limitations provided in such section prior to its amendment by section 105 (e) (3) of the Revenue Act of 1942)"; and by striking the parenthetical expression appearing in subparagraph (7) (i), and by inserting in lieu thereof the following: "adjusted with respect to the exceptions, additions, and limitations provided in section 122 (d) in connection with the computation of net operating losses, or, for taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1941, with respect to the exceptions and limitations provided in such section prior to its amendment by section 105 (e) (3) of the Revenue Act of 1942)".

(F) By changing subparagraph (13) to read:

(13) The consolidated section 711 (a) adjustment shall be the net amount of the aggregate adjustments provided in section 711 (a) (1) or 711 (a) (2), as the case may be, computed and determined in the case of each affiliated corporation, except as otherwise provided in (c) of this section, in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as if a separate return were filed, but without regard to the adjustments provided for in section 711 (a) (1) (B) or 711 (a) (2) (D) on account of the excess of recognized gains over recognized losses from certain sales, exchanges, or involuntary conversions of depreciable property and section 711 (a) (1) (F) or 711 (a) (2) (A) on account of dividends received, increased or decreased, as the case may be, by the sum of:

(i) The excess of the aggregate recognized gains of the several corporations from sales, exchanges, or involuntary conversions of property held for more than 18 months subject to the allowance for depreciation provided in section 23 (1) over the aggregate recognized losses of the several corporations from sales, exchanges, or involuntary conversions of such property, and

(ii) The excess of the aggregate amount of the dividends received by the several corporations of the class with respect to which adjustment is provided in section 711 (a) (1) (F) or 711 (a) (2) (A), as the case may be, over the consolidated credit for dividends received;

(G) By changing subparagraph (14) (iii) to read:

(iii) The consolidated unused excess profits credit adjustment (or, for taxable years beginning prior to January 1,1941, the consolidated excess profits credit carry-over for such year);

(H) By striking from subparagraph (15) (ii) the words "and subject to the provisions of section 712 (c),".

(I) By striking from subparagraph (16) (ii), as added by Treasury Decision 5126, approved March 5, 1942, the words "For a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1940," and by inserting in lieu thereof the following: "For a taxable year beginning in 1941"

(J) By striking from subparagraph (21), as added by Treasury Decision 5126, approved March 5, 1942, the parenthetical expression, "(computed without regard to (b) (2) (iv) (a) of this section)", and by inserting in lieu thereof the following: "(computed without regard to (c) (2) (iv) (a) of this section)".

(K) By striking out subparagraphs (32), (33), and (34), and by substituting in lieu thereof the following:

(32) The consolidated unused excess profits credit adjustment shall be an amount equal to the aggregate of the consolidated unused excess profits credit carry-overs and of the consolidated unused excess profits credit carry-backs to the taxable year;

(33) The consolidated unused excess profits credit carry-overs to the taxable year shall consist of:

(i) The amount of the consolidated unused excess profits credit, if any, for the first preceding taxable year,

(ii) The amount of the consolidated unused excess profits credit, if any, for the second preceding taxable year reduced by the consolidated adjusted excess profits net income, if any, for the first preceding taxable year computed without regard to the specific exemption provided in section 710 (b) (1) and with a consolidated unused excess profits credit adjustment for such first preceding taxable year determined without regard to the consolidated unused excess profits credit for such second preceding taxable year and without regard to any unused excess profits credit carry-back.

and, with respect to any unused excess profits credits of a corporation for years prior to the first taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return:

(iii) The amount of the unused excess profits credit, if any, of such corporation for the first preceding taxable year, and

(iv) The amount of the unused excess profits credit, if any, of such corporation for the second preceding taxable year reduced:

(a) By the adjusted excess profits net income, if any, of such corporation for the first preceding taxable year, or

(b) If the income of such corporation is included in the consolidated return for the first preceding taxable year, by the amount of the consolidated adjusted excess profits net income for the first preceding taxable year or the excess of that portion of the consolidated excess profits net income attributable to such corporation over that portion of the consolidated excess profits credit attributable to such corporation, whichever is the lesser,

the adjusted excess profits net income for the first preceding taxable year (separate or consolidated, as the case may be) being computed without regard to the specific exemption provided in section 710 (b) (1) and with an unused excess profits credit adjustment of such corporation or a consolidated unused excess profits credit adjustment, as the case may be, for such first preceding taxable year determined without regard to the unused excess profits credit of such corporation for the second preceding taxable year and without regard to any unused excess profits credit carry-back;

(34) The consolidated unused excess profits credit carry-backs to the taxable year shall consist of:

(i) The amount of the consolidated unused excess profits credit, if any, for the first succeeding taxable year (to the extent not attributable to those corporations making separate returns in the taxable year) reduced to the extent absorbed as a carry-back by the adjusted excess profits net income, consolidated or separate, as the case may be, for the first preceding taxable year, such adjusted excess profits net income being computed in either case without regard to the specific exemption provided in section 710 (b) (1) and with an unused excess profits credit adjustment, consolidated or separate, determined without regard to the consolidated unused excess profits credit for the first succeeding taxable year,

(ii) The amount of the consolidated unused excess profits credit, if any, for the second succeeding taxable year, to the extent not attributable to those corporations making separate returns in the taxable year, and, with respect to any unused excess profits credits of a corporation for taxable years subsequent to the last taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return:

(iii) The amount of the unused excess profits credit, if any, of such corporation for the first succeeding taxable year reduced:

(a) By the adjusted excess profits net income, if any, of such corporation for the first preceding taxable year, or,

(b) If the income of such corporation is included in the consolidated return for the first preceding taxable year, the lesser of the amount of such excess or the excess, if any, of the consolidated excess profits net income for the first preceding taxable year over the sum of the consolidated excess profits credit for the first preceding taxable year and the unused excess profits credit of such corporation for the third preceding taxable year, or

(b) If the income of such corporation is included in the consolidated return for the first preceding taxable year, by the amount of the consolidated adjusted excess profits net income for the first preceding taxable year or the excess of that portion of the consolidated excess profits net income attributable to such corporation over that portion of the consolidated excess profits credit attributable to such corporation, whichever is the lesser,

the adjusted excess profits net income for the first preceding taxable year (separate or consolidated, as the case may be) being computed without regard to the specific exemption provided in section 710 (b) (1) and with an unused excess profits credit adjustment, or consolidated unused excess profits credit adjustment, as the case may be, for the first preceding taxable year determined without regard to the unused excess profits credit of such corporation for the first succeeding taxable year, and

(iv) The amount of the unused excess profits credit, if any, of such corporation for the second succeeding taxable year,

not including as a first succeeding taxable year or a second succeeding taxable year any taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1942, and not including as a preceding taxable year any taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1941;

(35) The consolidated excess profits credit carry-over for a taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1941, shall be the sum of:

(i) The consolidated unused excess profits credit for the first preceding taxable year,

(ii) The consolidated unused excess profits credit for the second preceding taxable year reduced by the amount, if any, by which the consolidated excess profits net income for the first preceding taxable year exceeds the sum of:

(a) The consolidated excess profits credit for such first preceding taxable year plus

(b) The consolidated unused excess profits credit for the third preceding taxable year, and, with respect to the unused excess profits credit of a corporation for taxable years prior to the first taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return:

(iii) The unused excess profits credit, if any, of such corporation for the first preceding taxable year, and

(iv) The unused excess profits credit, if any, of such corporation for the second preceding taxable year reduced by:

(a) The excess, if any, of the excess profits net income of such corporation for the first preceding taxable year over the sum of the excess profits credit of such corporation for the first preceding taxable year and the unused excess profits credit of such corporation for the third preceding taxable year, or

(b) If the income of such corporation is included in the consolidated return for the first preceding taxable year, the lesser of the amount of such excess or the excess, if any, of the consolidated excess profits net income for the first preceding taxable year over the sum of the consolidated excess profits credit for the first preceding taxable year and the unused excess profits credit of such corporation for the third preceding taxable year;

(36) The consolidated unused excess profits credit shall be the excess of the consolidated excess profits credit for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1939, over the consolidated excess profits net income for such taxable year, computed on the basis of the excess profits credit applicable to such taxable year.

PAR. 16. Section 33.31, as amended by Treasury Decision 5126, approved March 5, 1942, is further amended by inserting immediately after paragraph (a) (36) the following:

(b) Definitions; years beginning after December 31, 1941. In the case of an affiliated group of corporations which makes or is required to make a consolidated excess profits tax return for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, and except as otherwise provided in these regulations:

(1) The consolidated net income shall be the combined net income of the several affiliated corporations:

(i) Minus the sum of:

(a) Any consolidated net operating loss deduction, and

(b) Any consolidated net loss from involuntary conversions and from sales or exchanges of property subject to the provisions of section 117 (j), and

(ii) Plus any consolidated net capital gain, or

(iii) Minus, in the case of an affiliated group including as members one or more corporations subject to the tax imposed by section 204, the combined additional capital loss deductions of such corporations authorized by section 204 (c) (5) as amended by section 164 (c) of the Revenue Act of 1942, but in an amount not in excess of the consolidated net capital loss;

(2) The consolidated net operating loss deduction shall be an amount equal to the aggregate of the consolidated net operating loss carry-overs and of the consolidated net operating loss carry-backs to the taxable year reduced by the amount, if any, by which the consolidated net income (computed with the exceptions and limitations provided in section 122 (d) (1), (2), (3), and (4)) exceeds the consolidated normal-tax net income (computed without any net operating loss deduction and without the credit provided in section 26 (e), relating to income subject to excess profits tax) but shall not exceed the amount of the consolidated normal-tax net income computed without the benefit of such deduction;

(3) The consolidated net operating loss carry-overs to the taxable year shall consist of:

(i) The amount of the consolidated net operating loss, if any, for the first preceding taxable year, or, with respect to a first preceding taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, the amount of the consolidated net operating loss for such year to the extent not attributable to those corporations making separate returns in the taxable year,

(ii) The amount of the consolidated net operating loss, if any, for the second preceding taxable year (or, with respect to a second preceding taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, the amount of the consolidated net operating loss for such year to the extent not attributable to those corporations making separate returns in the taxable year) reduced to the extent absorbed as a carry-over by the net income, consolidated or separate, as the case may be, for the first preceding taxable year (such net income being computed with the exceptions, additions, and limitations provided in section 122 (d) (1), (2), (4), and (6), and with a net operating loss deduction for such first preceding taxable year, consolidated or separate, determined without regard to the net operating loss for such first succeeding taxable year, consolidated or separate, as the case may be, determined without regard to the net operating loss for such second preceding taxable year and without regard to any net operating loss carry-back), and, with respect to net operating losses sustained by a corporation for taxable years prior to the first taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return:

(iii) The amount of the net operating loss, if any, sustained by such corporation for the first preceding taxable year, and

(iv) The amount of the net operating loss, if any, sustained by such corporation for the second preceding taxable year reduced by the net income, if any, of such corporation for the first preceding taxable year, or, if the income of such corporation is included in the consolidated return for the first preceding taxable year, reduced either by the net income of such corporation for such year increased with respect to its separate net short-term and long-term capital gains (or for years beginning after December 31, 1941, its separate net capital gain) or by the consolidated net income for such first preceding taxable year, whichever is the lesser, the net income for the first preceding taxable year being computed in either case with the exceptions, additions, and limitations provided in section 122 (d) (1), (2), (4), and (6), and with a net operating loss deduction or a consolidated net operating loss deduction, as the case may be, for the first preceding taxable year determined without regard to the net operating loss of such corporation for the second preceding taxable year and without regard to any net operating loss carry-back, but only to the extent that such net operating losses, consolidated or separate, as the case may be, were not absorbed as net operating loss carry-backs, and, with respect to net operating losses subject to the provisions of (iv), were not absorbed by the group in the first preceding taxable year as war losses pursuant to the last sentence of section 141 (b) of the Code;

(4) The consolidated net operating loss carry-backs to the taxable year shall consist of:

(i) The amount of the consolidated net operating loss, if any, for the first succeeding taxable year (to the extent not attributable to those corporations making separate returns in the taxable year) reduced to the extent absorbed as a carry-back by the net income, consolidated or separate, as the case may be, for the first preceding taxable year, such net income being computed with the exceptions, additions, and limitations provided in section 122 (d) (1), (2), (4), and (6), and with a net operating loss deduction for such first preceding taxable year, consolidated or separate, as the case may be, determined without regard to the net operating loss for such first succeeding taxable year,

(ii) The amount of the consolidated net operating loss, if any, for the second succeeding taxable year, to the extent not attributable to those corporations making separate returns in the taxable year, and, with respect to net operating losses sustained by a corporation for taxable years subsequent to the last taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return:

(iii) The amount of the net operating loss, if any, sustained by such corporation for the first succeeding taxable year reduced by the net income, if any, of such corporation for the first preceding taxable year, or, if the income of such corporation is included in the consolidated return for the first preceding taxable year, reduced either by the net income of such corporation for such year increased with respect to its separate net short-term and long-term capital gains (or, for years beginning after December 31, 1941, its separate net capital gain) or by the consolidated net income for such first preceding taxable year, whichever is the lesser, the net income for the first preceding taxable year being computed in either case with the exceptions, additions, and limitations provided in section 122 (d) (1), (2), (4), and (6), and with a net operating loss deduction or a consolidated net operating loss deduction, as the case may be, for the first preceding taxable year determined without regard to the net operating loss of such corporation for the first succeeding taxable year, and

(iv) The amount of the net operating loss, if any, sustained by such corporation for the second succeeding taxable year;

(5) The consolidated net operating loss, computed for the purposes of the net operating loss deduction, shall be an amount equal to the excess of the sum of:

(i) The combined net operating losses of the several affiliated corporations having net operating losses (computed subject to the exceptions, additions, and limitations provided in section 122 (d)), and

(ii) The consolidated net loss from involuntary conversions and from sales or exchanges of property subject to the provisions of section 117 (j),

over the sum of:

(iii) The combined net income of the several affiliated corporations having net income (adjusted with respect to the exceptions, additions, and limitations provided in section 122 (d) in connection with the computation of net operating losses), and

(iv) The consolidated net capital gain.

(6) The consolidated net loss from involuntary conversions and from sales or exchanges of property subject to the provisions of section 117 (j) shall be the excess of the aggregate of the recognized losses of the character described in section 117 (j) sustained by the several affiliated corporations over the aggregate of the recognized gains of the character described in section 117 (j) realized by the several affiliated corporations;

(7) The consolidated net capital gain shall be the excess of the sum of:

(i) The aggregate of the capital gains of the several affiliated corporations, and

(ii) The consolidated net gain from

(iii) The combined additional capital obligations of the United States and

(a) The consolidated net short-term capital gains, plus would have been entitled in a separate return to an excess profits credit based out regard to (c) (2) (iv) (a) of this section), the aggregate accumulated

(ii) The consolidated net gain from involuntary conversions and from sales or exchanges of property subject to the provisions of section 117 (j),

over the sum of:

(iii) The aggregate of the capital losses of such corporations, plus

(iv) The aggregate of the consolidated net capital loss carry-overs to the taxable year, or

(v) In the first taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, the consolidated net short-term capital loss carry-over from the last taxable year beginning in 1941.

(8) The consolidated net gain from involuntary conversions and from sales or exchanges of property subject to the provisions of section 117 (j) shall be the excess of the aggregate of the recognized gain of the character described in section 117 (j) realized by the several affiliated corporations over the aggregate of the recognized losses of the character described in section 117 (j) sustained by the several affiliated corporations;

(9) The consolidated net capital loss carry-overs to the taxable year shall consist of:

(i) The consolidated net capital losses, if any, for the five preceding taxable years (not including any taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1942) to the extent that such losses were not attributable to corporations making separate returns in the taxable year, and were not absorbed by net capital gains for intervening taxable years pursuant to the provisions of section 117 (e) (1) of the Code as amended by section 150 of the Revenue Act of 1942, consolidated or separate, as the case may be,

and, with respect to net capital losses sustained by a corporation for taxable years prior to the first taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return:

(ii) The net capital losses, if any, sustained by such corporation for its five preceding taxable years (not including any taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1942) to the extent that such losses were not absorbed by the net capital gains of such corporation (or, if the income of such corporation is included in a consolidated return, by the consolidated net capital gains) for intervening taxable years pursuant to the provisions of section 117 (e) (1) of the Code as amended by section 150 of the Revenue Act of 1942;

(10) The consolidated net capital loss shall be the excess of the aggregate of the capital losses of the several affiliated corporations over the sum of:

(i) The aggregate of the capital gains of such corporations, and

(ii) The consolidated net gain from involuntary conversions and from sales or exchanges of property subject to the provisions of section 117 (j), reduced, in the case of an affiliated group including as members one or more corporations subject to the tax imposed by section 204 but only for the purpose of net capital loss carry-over computations, by whichever of the following amounts is the lesser:

(iii) The combined additional capital loss deductions of such corporations authorized by section 204 (c) (5) as amended by section 164 (c) of the Revenue Act of 1942, or

(iv) The consolidated corporation surtax net income as defined in Consolidated Income Tax Regulations 104, but computed without regard to capital gains and losses.

(11) The consolidated net short-term capital loss carry-over from the last taxable year beginning in 1941 (in an amount not greater than the consolidated net short-term capital gain of the taxable year) shall be the sum of:

(i) The consolidated net short-term capital loss, if any, for the last taxable year beginning in 1941 in an amount not in excess of the consolidated net income for such year, and

(ii) With respect to a member of the group which filed a separate return for the last taxable year beginning in 1941, the net short-term capital loss, if any, of such corporation for such year in an amount not in excess of its net income for such year.

(12) The consolidated net short-term capital gain shall be the excess of the aggregate of the short-term capital gains of the several affiliated corporations over the sum of:

(i) The aggregate short-term capital losses of such corporations, plus

(ii) The consolidated net capital loss carry-overs to the taxable year, or

(iii) In the first taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, the consolidated net short-term capital loss carry-over from the last taxable year beginning in 1941.

(13) The consolidated net short-term capital loss shall be the excess of the aggregate of the short-term capital losses of the several affiliated corporations (or, for the purpose of the alternative tax computation under section 117 (c) as amended by section 150 (c) of the Revenue Act of 1942, the sum of such aggregate plus the consolidated net capital loss carry-over or the consolidated net short-term capital loss carry-over, as the case may be) over the aggregate of the short-term capital gains of such corporations;

(14) The consolidated net long-term capital gain shall be the excess of the sum of:

(i) The aggregate of the long-term capital gains of the several affiliated corporations, and

(ii) The consolidated net gain from involuntary conversions and from sales or exchanges of property subject to the provisions of section 117 (j), over the aggregate of the long-term capital losses of such corporations;

(15) The consolidated normal-tax net income shall be the consolidated adjusted net income minus the sum of:

(i) The consolidated section 26 (e) credit relating to income subject to excess profits tax, and

(ii) The consolidated section 26 (b) credit relating to dividends received;

(16) The consolidated adjusted net income shall be the consolidated net income minus the consolidated section 26 (a) credit relating to interest on certain obligations of the United States and Government corporations;

(17) The consolidated section 26 (a) credit relating to interest on certain obligations of the United States and Government corporations shall be an amount equal to the aggregate of the interest, of the class with respect to which credit is allowed by section 26 (a), received by the several affiliated corporations;

(18) The consolidated section 26 (b) credit relating to dividends received shall be an amount equal to 85 percent of the aggregate dividends, of the class with respect to which credit is allowed by section 26 (b), received by the several affiliated corporations, but in an amount not greater than 85 percent of the excess of the consolidated adjusted net income over the consolidated section 26 (e) credit relating to income subject to excess profits tax;

(19) The consolidated section 26 (e) credit relating to income subject to excess profits tax shall be an amount equal to the consolidated adjusted excess profits net income, or, in the case of an affiliated group including as members one or more corporations subject to the provisions of section 721 (relating to abnormalities in income in the taxable period), section 726 (relating to corporations completing contracts under the Merchant Marine Act of 1936), section 731 (relating to corporations engaged in mining strategic minerals), or section 736 (b) (relating to corporations with income from long-term contracts), the amount of which the consolidated excess profits tax for the taxable year is 90 percent, the consolidated excess profits tax for the purpose of this credit being computed without regard to the limitation provided in section 710 (a) (1) (B) (the 80 percent limitation), without regard to the credit provided in section 729 (c) and (d) for foreign taxes paid, and without regard to the adjustments provided in section 734;

(20) The consolidated excess profits net income shall be the consolidated normal-tax net income increased or decreased, as the case may be, by the consolidated section 711 (a) adjustment;

(21) The consolidated section 711 (a) adjustment shall be the net amount of the aggregate adjustments provided in section 711 (a) (1) (C), (D), (E), and (I), or section 711 (a) (2) (B), (E), (F), (G), (H), and (K), as the case may be, computed and determined in the case of the several affiliated corporations, except as otherwise provided in (c) of this section, in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as if separate returns were filed, increased or decreased, as the case may be, with respect to:

(i) The consolidated section 26 (e) credit relating to income subject to excess profits tax,

(ii) The difference, if any, between the consolidated net short-term capital gains and the consolidated net capital gains, or, in the case of an affiliated group including as members one or more corporations subject to the tax imposed by section 204 and having a consolidated net capital loss for the taxable year, the sum of:

(a) The consolidated net short-term capital gains, plus

(b) Either the amount of the combined additional capital loss deductions of such corporations authorized by section 204 (c) (5) as amended by section 164 (c) of the Revenue Act of 1942, or the amount of the consolidated net capital loss, whichever is the lesser,

(iii) The excess of the aggregate amount of the dividends received by the several corporations of the class with respect to which adjustment is provided for in section 711 (a) (1) (F) or 711 (a) (2) (A), as the case may be, over the consolidated credit for dividends received,

(iv) In the case of life insurance companies subject to the tax imposed by section 261:

(a) If the consolidated excess profits credit is based on income, the excess of the product of the figure determined and proclaimed under section 202 (b) and the consolidated excess profits net income computed without regard to this adjustment over the consolidated adjustment for certain reserves provided in section 202 (c), or

(b) If the consolidated excess profits credit is based on invested capital, 50 percent of the excess of the product of the figure determined and proclaimed under section 202 (b) and the consolidated excess profits net income computed without regard to this adjustment over the consolidated adjustment for certain reserves provided in section 202 (c),

(v) The consolidated net operating loss deduction adjustment;

(22) The consolidated adjustment for certain reserves provided in section 202 (c) shall be an amount equal to 3¼ percent of the combined unearned premiums and unpaid losses of the several affiliated corporations on contracts other than life insurance or annuity contracts, computed in the case of each corporation pursuant to the provisions of section 202 (c), but not less than 25 percent of the combined net premiums on such other contracts written during the taxable year;

(23) The consolidated net operating loss deduction adjustment shall be the difference between the amount of the consolidated net operating loss deduction for the taxable year otherwise computed under these regulations and the amount of such consolidated net operating loss deduction computed subject to the provisions of section 711 (a) (1) (J) or section 711 (a) (2) (L), as the case may be;

(24) The consolidated adjusted excess profits net income shall be the consolidated excess profits net income minus the sum of:

(i) A specific exemption of $5,000,

(ii) The consolidated excess profits credit, and

(iii) The consolidated unused excess profits credit adjustment;

(25) The consolidated excess profits credit shall be:

(i) The consolidated excess profits credit based on invested capital, or

(ii) In the case of an affiliated group one or more of the members of which would have been entitled in a separate return to an excess profits credit based on income, either the consolidated excess profits credit based on income or the consolidated excess profits credit based on invested capital, whichever results in the lesser tax;

(26) The consolidated excess profits credit based on invested capital shall be the sum of:

(i) Eight percent of that portion of the consolidated invested capital not in excess of $5,000,000,

(ii) Seven percent of that portion of the consolidated invested capital in excess of $5,000,000 but not in excess of $10,000,000,

(iii) Six percent of that portion of the consolidated invested capital in excess of $10,000,000 but not in excess of $200,000,000, and

(iv) Five percent of that portion of the consolidated invested capital in excess of $200,000,000;

(27) The consolidated invested capital for the taxable year shall be the consolidated average invested capital for such year reduced by the consolidated inadmissible asset adjustment;

(28) The consolidated average invested capital for the taxable year shall be the sum of:

(i) The combined average invested capital for the taxable year of the several affiliated corporations computed in the case of each corporation without including any accumulated earnings and profits, or any amount under section 718 (a) (6) for new capital,

(ii) The consolidated accumulated earnings and profits as of the beginning of such taxable year, and

(iii) An amount equal to 25 percent of the consolidated new capital;

(29) The consolidated inadmissible asset adjustment shall be an amount which bears the same ratio to the consolidated average invested capital as the aggregate inadmissible assets of the several affiliated corporations bear to the aggregate admissible and inadmissible assets of such corporations;

(30) The consolidated accumulated earnings and profits as of the beginning of the taxable year shall be an amount equal to the excess of the combined accumulated earnings and profits as of the beginning of such year of the several affiliated corporations having accumulated earnings and profits over the combined deficit in accumulated earnings and profits as of the beginning of such year of the several affiliated corporations having such deficits;

(31) The consolidated new capital shall be an amount equal to the aggregate new capital of the several affiliated corporations for each day of the taxable year (subject to the limitations imposed by section 718 (a) (6) (d), (e), and (f) of the Code) divided by the number of days in such year; the limitations imposed by section 718 (a) (6) (d), (e), and (f) with respect to increases in inadmissible assets, maximum new capital allowable, and reductions on account of distributions out of pre-1941 accumulated earnings and profits shall be determined by reference to aggregate equity invested capital (computed without regard to (c) (2) (iv) (a) of this section), the aggregate accumulated earnings and profits, the aggregate inadmissible assets, the aggregate borrowed capital, the aggregate money or property paid in but excluded by reason of section 718 (a) (6) (A) or (B), and the aggregate distributions, of the several affiliated corporations, computed in each case pursuant to the provisions of these regulations, both with respect to the taxable year for which the computation is being made and with respect to the beginning of the first taxable year beginning after December 31, 1940, and intervening years (regardless of whether or not such corporations were affiliated and regardless of whether or not consolidated returns were made or were required prior to the current year, except that no elimination of intercompany profits or losses shall be made for separate return years) in the same manner and to the same extent as if such aggregates were, respectively, the equity invested capital, the accumulated earnings and profits, the inadmissible assets, the borrowed capital, the money or property paid in, and the distributions, of a separate corporation;

(32) The consolidated excess profits credit based on income shall be:

(i) Ninety-five percent of the consolidated average base period net income,

(ii) Plus 8 percent of the consolidated net capital addition, or

(iii) Minus 6 percent of the consolidated net capital reduction;

(33) The consolidated average base period net income shall be, whichever is the greater:

(i) An amount (subject to the adjustment provided in (b) (34) of this section) which bears the same ratio to the excess of the aggregate of the consolidated base period excess profits net income for the several consolidated base period years over the aggregate of the consolidated base period deficits in excess profits net income for any of such years which 12 bears to the total number of months in the consolidated base period, or

(ii) An amount (subject to the qualification expressed in (b) (35) of this section) which bears the same ratio to the excess of the aggregate consolidated excess profits net income for each of the taxable years in the second half of the consolidated base period over the aggregate of any consolidated deficits in excess profits net income in such second half, plus one-half of the amount, if any, by which such excess in the second half of the consolidated base period exceeds such excess in the first half of such period, which 12 bears to the total number of months in the second half of the consolidated base period, but in an amount not greater than the highest consolidated excess profits net income (placed on an annual basis, when necessary) for any taxable year in the consolidated base period;

(34) For the purpose of (b) (33) (i) of this section, if the consolidated base period excess profits net income (or consolidated base period deficit in excess profits net income) for one consolidated base period year divided by the number of months in such base period year is less parent corporation would have been enclose of the last consolidated base period year

(a) By the adjusted excess profits net income, if any, of such corporation for consolidated excess profits credit attributable to such corporation, whichever is the lesser year, the new capital for any day of a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1940, the equity invested capital, the of months in such base period year is less than 75 percent of the aggregate of the consolidated base period excess profits net income (reduced by any consolidated deficits in base period excess profits net income) for the other consolidated base period years divided by the number of months in such other base period years, there shall be used as the consolidated base period excess profits net income for such one base period year an amount equal to 75 percent of such average monthly amount for such other base period years multiplied by the number of months in such one base period year, and the base period year subjected to this adjustment shall be the year the increase in which will produce the highest consolidated average base period net income;

(35) For the purpose of (b) (33) (ii) of this section, the consolidated excess profits net income for any consolidated base period year ending after May 31, 1940, shall be an amount not greater than the sum of:

(i) An amount which bears the same ratio to the consolidated excess profits net income for such year as the number of months before June 1, 1940, bears to the total number of months in such taxable year,

(ii) An amount which bears the same ratio to the consolidated excess profits net income for the last preceding taxable year as the number of months after May 31, 1940, in the taxable year bears to the number of months in such preceding taxable year, but not in excess of the consolidated excess profits net income for such last preceding taxable year, and

(iii) If the number of months in such last preceding taxable year is less than the number of months after May 31, 1940, an amount which bears the same ratio to the consolidated excess profits net income for the second preceding taxable year as the excess of such number of months after May 31, 1940, over the number of months in such preceding taxable year, bears to the number of months in such second preceding taxable year;

(36) The consolidated base period excess profits net income for a consolidated base period year shall be an amount equal to the combined base period excess profits net income for such year of the affiliated corporations which would have been entitled in separate returns to an excess profits credit based on income, reduced by the sum of the deficits in excess profits net income for such year, in the case of any such corporations;

(37) The consolidated base period deficit in excess profits net income for a consolidated base period year shall be an amount equal to the aggregate of the deficits for such year, in the case of the affiliated corporations which would have been entitled in separate returns to an excess profits credit based on income reduced by the combined base period excess profits net income of any such corporations for such year;

(38) The consolidated base period years shall be, as the case may be:

(i) The base period years of the common parent corporation if such common parent corporation would have been entitled in a separate return to an excess profits credit based on income, or

(ii) The four successive 12-month periods beginning on the date in 1936 corresponding to the date on which begins the first taxable year for which a consolidated return is filed if the common parent corporation would not be entitled separately to an excess profits credit based on income;

(39) The consolidated net capital addition for the taxable year shall be the excess, divided by the number of days in the taxable year, of the aggregate of the consolidated daily capital addition for each day of the taxable year over the aggregate of the consolidated daily capital reduction for each day of the taxable year;

(40) The consolidated net capital reduction for the taxable year shall be the excess, divided by the number of days in the taxable year, of the aggregate of the consolidated daily capital reduction for each day of the taxable year over the aggregate of the consolidated daily capital addition for each day of the taxable year;

(41) The consolidated daily capital addition for any day of the taxable year shall be the combined daily capital additions of the several affiliated corporations for such day, computed without regard to the adjustment for excluded capital, reduced by the excess, if any, of the consolidated excluded capital for such day over the combined excluded capital of the several corporations for the first day following the close of the last consolidated base period year;

(42) The consolidated excluded capital for any day of the taxable year shall be the combined excluded capital of the several corporations for such day reduced by the consolidated additional daily capital reduction under section 713 (g) (5) for such day;

(43) The consolidated additional daily capital reduction under section 713 (g) (5) for any day of the taxable year shall be whichever of the following amounts is the lesser:

(i) The excess of the aggregate of the adjusted basis (for determining loss upon sale or exchange) of stock in other corporations which are members of the same controlled group as defined in section 713 (g) (5) acquired by the several affiliated corporations after the close of the last consolidated base period year over the aggregate of the adjusted basis (for determining loss upon sale or exchange) of stock in such other corporations disposed of by the several affiliated corporations prior to such day and after the close of the last consolidated base period year, or

(ii) The excess of the aggregate of the adjusted basis (for determining loss upon sale or exchange) of stock in all domestic corporations and of obligations described in section 22 (b) (4), held by the several affiliated corporations at the beginning of such day over the aggregate of the adjusted basis (for determining loss upon sale or exchange) of stock in all domestic corporations and of obligations described in section 22 (b) (4), held by the several affiliated corporations at the close of the last consolidated base period year, such adjusted basis being determined in each case without regard to transactions between members of the affiliated group, after the close of the last consolidated base period year, whether or not a consolidated return was filed for the year of the transaction, and without regard to stock of another member of the affiliated group to the extent that such stock is made the basis of an adjustment under (c) (2) (xii) (F) of this section;

(44) The consolidated daily capital reduction for any day of the taxable year shall be the sum of:

(i) The combined daily capital reductions of the several affiliated corporations for such day computed under section 713 (g) (4), and

(ii) The consolidated additional daily capital reduction under section 713 (g) (5) for such day;

(45) The consolidated unused excess profits credit adjustment shall be an amount equal to the aggregate of the consolidated unused excess profits credit carry-overs and of the consolidated unused excess profits credit carry-backs to the taxable year;

(46) The consolidated unused excess profits credit carry-overs to the taxable year shall consist of:

(i) The amount of the consolidated unused excess profits credit, if any, for the first preceding taxable year, or, with respect to a first preceding taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, the amount of the consolidated unused excess profits credit for such year to the extent not attributable to those corporations making separate returns in the taxable year,

(ii) The amount of the consolidated unused excess profits credit, if any, for the second preceding taxable year (or, with respect to a second preceding taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, the amount of the consolidated unused excess profits credit for such year to the extent not attributable to those corporations making separate returns in the taxable year) reduced by the consolidated adjusted excess profits net income, if any for the first preceding taxable year computed without regard to the specific exemption provided in section 710 (b) (1) and with a consolidated unused excess profits credit adjustment for such first preceding taxable year determined without regard to the consolidated unused excess profits credit for such second preceding taxable year and without regard to any unused excess profits credit carry-back, and, with respect to any unused excess profits credit of a corporation for years prior to the first taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return:

(iii) The amount of the unused excess profits credit, if any, of such corporation for the first preceding taxable year, and

(iv) The amount of the unused excess profits credit, if any, of such corporation for the second preceding taxable year reduced:

(a) By the adjusted excess profits net income, if any, of such corporation for the first preceding taxable year, or

(b) If the income of such corporation is included in the consolidated return for the first preceding taxable year, by the amount of the consolidated adjusted excess profits net income for the first preceding taxable year or the excess of that portion of the consolidated excess profits net income attributable to such corporation over that portion of the consolidated excess profits credit attributable to such corporation, whichever is the lesser,

the adjusted excess profits net income for the first preceding taxable year (separate or consolidated, as the case may be) being computed without regard to the specific exemption provided in section 710 (b) (1) and with an unused excess profits credit adjustment of such corporation or a consolidated excess profits credit adjustment, as the case may be, for such first preceding taxable year determined without regard to the unused excess profits credit of such corporation for the second preceding taxable year and without regard to any unused excess profits credit carry-back;

(47) The consolidated unused excess profits credit carry-backs to the taxable year shall consist of:

(i) The amount of the consolidated unused excess profits credit, if any, for the first succeeding taxable year (to the extent not attributable to those corporations making separate returns in the taxable year) reduced to the extent absorbed as a carry-back by the adjusted excess profits net income, consolidated or separate, as the case may be, for the first preceding taxable year, such adjusted excess profits net income being computed in either case without regard to the specific exemption provided in section 710 (b) (1) and with an unused excess profits credit adjustment, consolidated or separate, determined without regard to the consolidated unused excess profits credit for the first succeeding taxable year,

(ii) The amount of the consolidated unused excess profits credit, if any, for the second succeeding taxable year, to the extent not attributable to those corporations making separate returns in the taxable year, and, with respect to any unused excess profits credits of a corporation for taxable years subsequent to the last taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return:

(iii) The amount of the unused excess profits credit, if any, of such corporation for the first succeeding taxable year reduced:

(a) By the adjusted excess profits net income, if any, of such corporation for the first preceding taxable year, or,

(b) If the income of such corporation is included in the consolidated return for the first preceding taxable year, by the amount of the consolidated adjusted excess profits net income for the first preceding taxable year or the excess of that portion of the consolidated excess profits net income attributable to such corporation over that portion of the consolidated excess profits credit attributable to such corporation, whichever is the lesser,

the adjusted excess profits net income for the first preceding taxable year (separate or consolidated, as the case may be) being computed without regard to the specific exemption provided in section 710 (b) (1) and with an unused excess profits credit adjustment, or consolidated unused excess profits credit adjustment, as the case may be, for the first preceding taxable year determined without regard to the unused excess profits credit of such corporation for the first succeeding taxable year, and

(iv) The amount of the unused excess profits credit, if any, of such corporation for the second succeeding taxable year;

(48) The consolidated unused excess profits credit shall be the excess of the consolidated excess profits credit for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1939, over the consolidated excess profits net income for such taxable year, computed on the basis of the excess profits credit applicable to such taxable year.

PAR. 17. The section formerly designated § 33.31 (b), as amended by Treasury Decision 5126, approved March 5, 1942, is further amended as follows:

(A) By changing the heading thereof to read: (c) Computations.

(B) By striking from subdivision (ii) of subparagraph (1) the word "and"; by striking the period at the end of subdivision (iii) and inserting a comma in lieu thereof; and by inserting in subparagraph (1) the following new subdivisions:

(iv) There shall be disregarded all gains and losses from involuntary conversions and from sales and exchanges of property subject to the provisions of section 117 (j), and

(v) In the computation of the deduction under section 23 (v) relating to amortizable bond premium, there shall be disregarded the bonds of one member of the group owned by another member of the group during the taxable year.

(C) By striking that portion of subparagraph (2) preceding the numbered subdivisions, and by inserting in lieu thereof the following:

For a taxable year for which a consolidated return is made or is required, the interest received of a class with respect to which credit is allowed by section 26 (a), the dividends received of a class with respect to which credit is allowed by section 26 (b), the capital gains and losses, the short-term capital gains and losses, and the long-term capital gains and losses, as defined in section 117 (a), the gains and losses from involuntary conversions and from sales or exchanges of property subject to the provisions of section 117 (j), the additional capital loss deductions authorized by section 204 (c) (5), the net operating loss as defined in section 122 (a) for the purpose of the net operating loss deduction, the average invested capital for the taxable year, the accumulated earnings and profits or deficit in accumulated earnings and profits as of the beginning of the taxable year, the new capital for any day of a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1940, the equity invested capital, the borrowed capital, the amount of distributions from earnings and profits for the purpose of new capital computations, the admissible and inadmissible assets, the base period excess profits net income, the deficit in excess profits net income for a base period year, the daily capital addition for any day of the taxable year, the daily capital reduction for any day of the taxable year, and the excluded capital within the meaning of section 713 (g) (3) shall be computed and determined in the case of each affiliated corporation in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as if a separate return were filed, except:

(D) By changing subdivision (ii) of subparagraph (2) to read as follows:

(ii) In the computation of capital gains and losses, short-term capital gains and losses, and long-term capital gains and losses, as defined in section 117 (a), the gains and losses from involuntary conversions and from sales or exchanges of property subject to the provisions of section 117 (j), and the additional capital loss deductions authorized by section 204 (c) (5), there shall be eliminated all gains or losses arising in intercompany transactions;

(E) By striking from subdivision (iv) (f) of subparagraph (2), as amended by Treasury Decision 5126, the words "there shall be subtracted from average invested capital otherwise computed" and substituting in lieu thereof the words "there shall be subtracted from daily invested capital otherwise computed"; and by striking from the parenthetical expression in such subdivision the reference to "§ 33.31 (b) (2) (iv) (f)" and inserting in lieu thereof "§ 33.31 (c) (2) (iv) (f)".

(F) By striking from the first parenthetical expression in subdivision (iv) (g) of subparagraph (2), as amended by Treasury Decision 5126, the reference to "§ 33.31 (b) (2) (iv) (g)" and inserting in lieu thereof § 33.31 (c) (2) (iv) (g)"; and by striking from such subdivision the words "there shall be excluded as of the date on which such corporation became a member of the group within the meaning of section 730 (d)" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "there shall be excluded as of the date on which such corporation became a member of the group within the meaning of section 141 (d) of the Code (or, in the case of taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1942, section 730 (d))".

(G) By striking from the first parenthetical expression in subdivision (v) (a) of subparagraph (2), as amended by Treasury Decision 5126, the reference to "§ 33.31 (b) (2) (v) (a)" and inserting in lieu thereof "§ 33.31 (c) (2) (v) (a)"; and by striking from such subdivision the words "there shall be excluded as of the date on which such corporation became a member of the group within the meaning of section 730 (d)" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "there shall be excluded as of the date on which such corporation became a member of the group within the meaning of section 141 (d) of the Code (or, in the case of taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1942, section 730 (d))".

(H) By striking from subdivision (v) (b) of subparagraph (2) the words "either under the Second Revenue Act of 1940" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "whether under section 141 of the Code as amended, under section 730 of the Code as amended,".

(I) By striking from subdivision (v) (c) of subparagraph (2) the words "either under the Second Revenue Act of 1940" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "whether under section 141 of the Code as amended, under section 730 of the Code as amended,".

(J) By striking from subdivision (v) (f) of subparagraph (2), as amended by Treasury Decision 5126, the reference to "(b) (2) (iv) (g)" and inserting in lieu thereof "(c) (2) (iv) (g)".

(K) By striking from subdivision (vii) of subparagraph (2), as amended by Treasury Decision 5126, the reference to "(b) (2) (iv)" and inserting in lieu thereof "(c) (2) (iv)".

(L) By striking from subdivision (xi) (b) of subparagraph (2), as amended by Treasury Decision 5126, the words "section 730" and inserting in lieu thereof "section 141 of the Code (or, for taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1942, section 730)".

(M) By changing subdivision (xi) (c) to read:

(c) The capital gains and losses, the short-term capital gains and losses, and the recognized gains and losses from involuntary conversions and from sales or exchanges of property subject to the provisions of section 117 (j), of the several affiliated corporations for base period years shall be treated as the capital gains and losses, the short-term capital gains and losses, and the section 117 (j) gains and losses of the group as a single corporation, and, for the purpose of computing, in the case of the several corporations, the net capital loss carry-over (or, in a tax computation for years beginning prior to January 1, 1943, the net short-term capital loss carry-over) to succeeding base period years, any net capital loss of the group for the year (or net short-term capital loss, as the case may be) computed pursuant to these provisions shall be allocated to the several corporations having net capital losses (or net short-term capital losses) for such year in amounts proportionate to such net losses;

(N) By changing subdivision (xi) (c) to read:

(c) The amount to be excluded, for a taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1942 under section 711 (b) (1) (B) on account of the excess of recognized gains from the sale, exchange, or involuntary conversion of property held for more than 18 months subject to the allowance for depreciation provided in section 23 (l) over recognized losses from such sales, exchanges, or involuntary conversions shall be an amount which bears the same ratio to the excess of the aggregate of such gains over the aggregate of such losses of the several affiliated corporations as the excess of such gains over such losses of the particular corporation bears to the sum of such excesses of the several members of the group having such an excess;

(O) By inserting immediately after the semicolon at the end of subdivision (xi) (g) the word "and" together with the following:

(h) If the stock of a subsidiary corporation owned by other members of the affiliated group at any time during the taxable year was acquired by such members, or by other members of the group, at any time on or after the first day of the consolidated base period, but only to the extent to which the consideration for such acquisition was not the issuance of the stock of the acquiring corporation (not including an acquisition from another member of the group which was affiliated with the acquiring corporation at the time of such acquisition within the meaning of section 141 of the Code, whether or not a consolidated income or excess profits tax return was filed for the year in which such acquisition occurred), or if the stock of another subsidiary owned at any time during the taxable year was owned by such first subsidiary, the stock of which was so acquired, as of the date of such acquisition, there shall be excluded, in the computation of the base period excess profits net income of each such subsidiary corporation, or of their deficits in base period excess profits net income, a proportionate part of the amount thereof otherwise computed, such proportionate part to be determined pursuant to the provisions of section 742 (f) (1) of the Code and § 30.742–2 (b) (3) (ii) (b) of Regulations 109 as if such subsidiaries were component corporations within the provisions of section 740 (b) of the Code;

(P) By inserting immediately after the semicolon at the end of subdivision (xii) (e) the word "and" together with the following:

(f) If the stock of a subsidiary corporation owned by members of the affiliated group at any time during the taxable year was acquired by such members, or by other members of the group, at any time subsequent to the close of the consolidated base period, but only to the extent to which the consideration for such acquisition was not the issuance of the stock of the acquiring corporation (not including an acquisition from another member of the group which was affiliated with the acquiring corporation at the time of such acquisition within the meaning of section 141 of the Code, whether or not a consolidated income or excess profits tax return was filed for the year in which such acquisition occurred), or if the stock of another subsidiary owned at any time during the taxable year was owned by such first subsidiary, the stock of which was so acquired, as of the date of such acquisition, there shall be excluded a proportionate part of the amounts of the daily capital additions and daily capital reductions of each such subsidiary corporation otherwise computed, such proportionate part to be determined pursuant to the provisions of section 742 (f) (1) of the Code and § 30.743–2 (b) of Regulations 109 as if such subsidiaries were component corporations within the provisions of section 740 (b) of the Code;

(Q) By striking from subdivision (xiii) (a) the comma and the word "and" at the end thereof and inserting in lieu thereof a semicolon; by inserting immediately after the semicolon at the end of subdivision (xiii) (b) the word "and" together with the following:

(c) No increase shall be made with respect to stock of other members of the affiliated group acquired subsequent to the close of the last consolidated base period year to the extent that adjustment by reason of such stock acquisition is made in the daily capital additions or daily capital reductions of other members, pursuant to the provisions of section 742 (f) (1) of the Code and § 30.743–2 (b) of Regulations 109.

(R) By changing subparagraph (3) to read:

(3) In no case (except as otherwise provided in this subparagraph) shall there be included in the consolidated net operating loss deduction for the taxable year as consolidated net operating loss carry-overs under (a) (6) (i) (c) and (d) of this section, or (a) (6) (iii) (c) and (d) or (b) (3) (iii) and (iv), as the case may be, (relating to net operating losses sustained by a corporation in years prior to the first taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return) and as consolidated net operating loss carry-backs under (a) (6) (ii) (c) and (d) of this section, or (b) (4) (iii) and (iv), as the case may be, (relating to net operating losses sustained by a corporation in years subsequent to the last taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return) an amount exceeding in the aggregate the net income of such corporation (computed with the exceptions and limitations provided in section 122 (d) (1), (2), (3), and (4)) included in the computation of the consolidated net income for the taxable year increased by its separate net capital gain (or, for years beginning prior to January 1, 1942, its separate net short-term and long-term capital gains). The provisions of this subparagraph do not apply with respect to that portion of any net operating loss carry-over from a taxable year beginning in 1941 attributable to war losses within the provisions of section 127 of the Code as added by section 156 of the Revenue Act of 1942, such portion being determined as the excess of the net operating loss for such year over the amount of any net operating loss for the year computed without regard to war losses.

(S) By changing subparagraph (4) to read:

(4) If a portion of the consolidated net operating loss deduction arises as a carry-over pursuant to the provisions of (a) (6) (i) (c) or (d) of this section, or (a) (6) (iii) (c) or (d) or (b) (3) (iii) or (iv), as the case may be (relating to net operating losses sustained by a corporation in years prior to the first taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return), or as a carry-back pursuant to the provisions of (a) (6) (ii) (c) or (d) of this section, or (b) (4) (iii) or (iv), as the case may be (relating to net operating losses sustained by a corporation in years subsequent to the last taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return), the consolidated net operating loss deduction shall not be less than the amount of such portion reduced by the amount, if any, by which the net income of such corporation (computed with the exceptions and limitations provided in section 122 (d) (1), (2), (3), and (4)) exceeds the normal-tax net income of such corporation (computed, for taxable years beginning in 1941, without any net operating loss deduction but taking into account any net long-term capital loss, and, for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941, without any net operating loss deduction and without the credit provided by section 26 (e) relating to income subject to excess profits tax but taking into account the additional capital loss deduction authorized by section 204 (c) (5)), or, in the case of two or more such corporations, the sum of such portions so reduced.

(T) By changing subparagraph (5) to read:

(5) With respect to consolidated net operating loss carry-overs and carry-backs:

(i) If, in the computation of the consolidated net operating loss deduction for the second consolidated return period in respect of which the income of a corporation is included in the consolidated returns of the group, there is involved the net operating loss separately sustained by such corporation for the second preceding taxable year together with a consolidated net operating loss for the second preceding taxable year, or if, for the second consolidated return period in respect of which the income of two or more members of the group is included in the consolidated returns of the group, there are involved the net operating losses separately sustained by such corporations for the second preceding taxable year, no portion of the consolidated net income for the first preceding taxable year shall be taken into account more than once in giving effect to the provisions of (a) (6) (i) (b) and (d) of this section, or (a) (6) (iii) (b) and (d) or (b) (3) (ii) and (iv), as the case may be (relating to the computation of the consolidated net operating loss carry-overs attributable to losses of the second preceding taxable year);

(ii) If, in the computation of the consolidated net operating loss deduction for the last taxable year in respect of which the income of a corporation is included in the consolidated returns of the group, there is involved the net operating loss separately sustained by such corporation for the first succeeding taxable year together with a consolidated net operating loss for the first succeeding taxable year, or if, for the last taxable year in respect of which the income of two or more members of the group is included in the consolidated returns of the group, there are involved the net operating losses separately sustained by such corporations for the first succeeding taxable year, no portion of the consolidated net income for the first preceding taxable year shall be taken into account more than once in giving effect to the provisions of (a) (6) (ii) (a) and (c) of this section, or (b) (4) (i) and (iii), as the case may be, (relating to the computation of the consolidated net operating loss carry-backs attributable to losses of the first succeeding taxable year).

(U) By changing subparagraph (6) to read:

(6) In no case shall there be included in the consolidated unused excess profits credit adjustment for the taxable year as consolidated unused excess profits credit carry-overs under (a) (33) (iii) and (iv) of this section, or (b) (46) (iii) and (iv), or in the consolidated excess profits credit carry-over for a taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1941, under (a) (35) (iii) and (iv), as the case may be, (relating to the unused excess profits credit of a corporation for years prior to the first taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return), and as consolidated unused excess profits credit carry-backs under (a) (34) (iii) and (iv) of this section, or (b) (47) (iii) and (iv), as the case may be, (relating to the unused excess profits credit of a corporation for years subsequent to the last taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return) an amount in excess of the portions thereof which could have been availed of by such corporation as unused excess profits credit carry-overs and carry-backs, or an excess profits credit carry-over, if a separate return had been filed for such taxable year, but with its net income computed subject to the provisions of (c) (1) (i) of this section.

(V) By changing subparagraph (7) to read:

(7) With respect to consolidated unused excess profits credit carry-overs and carry-backs:

(i) If, in the computation of the consolidated unused excess profits credit adjustment (or, with respect to taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1941, the consolidated unused excess profits credit carry-over) for the second consolidated return period in respect of which the income of a corporation is included in the consolidated returns of the group, there is involved the separate unused excess profits credit of such corporation for the second preceding taxable year together with a consolidated unused excess profits credit for the second preceding taxable year, or if, for the second consolidated return period in respect of which the income of two or more members of the affiliated group is included in the consolidated returns of the group, there are involved the separate unused excess profits credits of such corporations for the second preceding taxable year, no portion of the consolidated adjusted excess profits net income for the first preceding taxable year shall be taken into account more than once in giving effect to the provisions of (a) (33) (ii) and (iv) of this section, or (b) (46) (ii) and (iv), or (a) (35) (ii) and (iv), as the case may be, (relating to the computation of the consolidated unused excess profits credit carry-overs attributable to unused excess profits credits of the second preceding taxable year);

(ii) If, in the computation of the consolidated unused excess profits credit adjustment for the last taxable year in respect of which the income of a corporation is included in the consolidated returns of the group, there is involved the separate unused excess profits credit of such corporation for the first succeeding taxable year, or if, for the last taxable year in respect of which the income of two or more members of the group is included in the consolidated returns of the group, there are involved the separate unused excess profits credits of such corporations for the first succeeding taxable year, no portion of the consolidated adjusted excess profits net income for the first preceding taxable year shall be taken into account more than once in giving effect to the provisions of (a) (34) (i) and (iii) of this section, or (b) (47) (i) and (iii), as the case may be (relating to the computation of the consolidated unused excess profits credit carry-backs attributable to unused excess profits credits of the first succeeding taxable year).

(W) By striking the first word in subparagraph (8) and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "If, for any taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1942,".

(X) By inserting immediately after subparagraph (8) the following new subparagraphs:

(9) If an affiliated group filing a consolidated return for a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, sustains a consolidated net operating loss within the provisions of section 122, relating to the net operating loss deduction, and if there are included as members of such group one or more corporations which made separate returns, either in a preceding taxable year (not including any year beginning prior to January 1, 1941) or in a succeeding taxable year, the portion of such consolidated net operating loss attributable to such corporations severally shall be determined, such portion in the case of any such corporation being determined in an amount proportionate to the net losses (capital net losses and ordinary net losses alike) of the several affiliated corporations having net losses, to the extent that such losses were taken into account in the computation of the consolidated net operating loss.

(10) If an affiliated group filing a consolidated return for a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, sustains a consolidated net capital loss, and if there are included as members of such group one or more corporations which make separate returns in a succeeding taxable year, the portion of such consolidated net capital loss attributable to such corporations severally shall be determined, such portion in the case of any such corporation being an amount which bears the same ratio to the consolidated net capital loss which the net capital loss of such corporation bears to the aggregate of the net capital losses for the taxable year sustained by the several affiliated corporations having net capital losses.

(11) If an affiliated group filing a consolidated return for a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, has a consolidated unused excess profits credit for such year, and if there are included as members of such group one or more corporations which made separate returns, either in a preceding taxable year (not including any year beginning prior to January 1, 1941) or in a succeeding taxable year, the portion of such consolidated unused excess profits credit attributable to such corporations severally shall be determined, such portion in the case of any such corporation being determined in an amount bearing the same ratio to the consolidated unused excess profits credit for the taxable year which the excess, if any, of that portion of the consolidated excess profits credit attributable to such corporation over that portion of the consolidated excess profits net income, if any, attributable to such corporation bears to the aggregate of such excesses in the case of the several affiliated corporations having such excesses for the taxable year.

(12) If there are involved in the computation of the consolidated normal tax net income, computed for income tax purposes pursuant to Regulations 104, net operating loss carry-overs, net short-term capital loss carry-overs, bases for determining gain or loss upon a sale or exchange, or other factors, in amounts different from the net operating loss carry-overs, net short-term capital loss carry-overs, bases for determining gain or loss upon a sale or exchange, or such other factors, determined for excess profits tax purposes pursuant to these regulations, the consolidated normal tax net income, computed for the purpose of the excess profits tax, shall be computed pursuant to the provisions of these regulations.

PAR. 18. The section formerly designated § 33.31 (c) is amended by changing such designation to § 33.31 (d).

PAR. 19. The section formerly designated § 33.31 (d) is amended to read as follows:

(c) Net operating loss deduction after consolidated return period. The consolidated net operating loss, computed for the purpose of the net operating loss deduction, of an affiliated group for any consolidated return period beginning prior to January 1, 1942, shall be used in computing the net operating loss deduction in the return of the common parent corporation (or the consolidated net operating loss deduction in the consolidated return of another affiliated group of which such common parent becomes a member) for a taxable year subsequent to the last consolidated return period of the group in the same manner, to the same extent, upon the same conditions, and subject to the same limitations as if, during the taxable year in which such loss was sustained and continuing to the date of the termination of the group, the group had been a single corporation, the common parent corporation; and no net operating loss attributable to a consolidated return period beginning prior to January 1, 1942, shall be used in computing the net operating loss deduction of a subsidiary (or the consolidated net operating loss deduction of another affiliated group of which such subsidiary becomes a member) for any taxable year subsequent to the last consolidated return period of the group. No part of any net operating loss sustained by a corporation prior to the first taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return, if the consolidated return year begins prior to January 1, 1942, shall be used in computing the net operating loss deduction of such corporation (or the consolidated net operating loss deduction of another affiliated group of which it becomes a member) for any taxable year subsequent to the last consolidated return period, but any part of such net operating loss which, except for this restriction, might be so used shall be treated as having been sustained by the common parent corporation of the group.

The consolidated net operating loss, computed for the purpose of the net operating loss deduction, of an affiliated group for a consolidated return period beginning after December 31, 1941, shall be used in computing the consolidated net operating loss deduction notwithstanding that one or more corporations, members of the group in the taxable year in which such loss was sustained, make separate returns (or join in a consolidated return made by another affiliated group) for a subsequent taxable year (or, in the case of a carry-back computation, for a preceding taxable year), but only to the extent that such consolidated net operating loss is not attributable to such corporations; and such portion of such consolidated net operating loss as is attributable to the several corporations making separate returns (or joining in a consolidated return made by another affiliated group) for a subsequent taxable year (or, in the case of a carry-back computation, for a preceding taxable year) shall be used by such corporations severally as carry-overs, or as carry-backs, in such separate returns, or in such consolidated return of the other affiliated group. Any net operating loss sustained by a corporation prior to the first taxable years in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return, if the consolidated return year begins after December 31, 1941, shall be used in computing the net operating loss deduction of such corporation (or the consolidated net operating loss deduction of another affiliated group of which it becomes a member) for a subsequent taxable year for which it makes a separate return or joins in a consolidated return of another group, but only to the extent that such net operating loss was not absorbed in the computation of the consolidated net operating loss deduction for the prior consolidated return period.

PAR. 20. The section formerly designated § 33.31 (e) is amended to read as follows:

(f) Unused excess profits credit after consolidated return period. The consolidated unused excess profits credit of an affiliated group for any consolidated return period beginning prior to January 1, 1942, shall be used in computing the adjusted excess profits net income of the common parent corporation (or the consolidated adjusted excess profits net income of another affiliated group of which such common parent becomes a member) for a taxable year subsequent to the last consolidated return period of the group in the same manner, to the same extent, upon the same conditions, and subject to the same limitations as if, during the taxable year in which such unused excess profits credit originated and continuing to the date of the termination of the group, the group had been a single corporation, the common parent corporation; and no unused excess profits credit attributable to a consolidated return period beginning prior to January 1, 1942, shall be used in computing the adjusted excess profits net income of a subsidiary (or the consolidated adjusted excess profits net income of another affiliated group of which such subsidiary becomes a member) for any taxable year subsequent to the last consolidated return period of the group. No part of any unused excess profits credit of a corporation for a year prior to the first taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return, if the consolidated return year began prior to January 1, 1942, shall be used in computing the adjusted excess profits net income of such corporation (or the consolidated adjusted excess profits net income of another affiliated group of which it becomes a member) for any taxable year subsequent to the last consolidated return period, but any part of such unused excess profits credit which, except for this restriction, might be so used shall be treated as attributable to the common parent corporation of the group for a year in which such common parent had no excess profits net income and no other excess profits credit.

The consolidated unused excess profits credit of an affiliated group for a consolidated return period beginning after December 31, 1941, shall be used in computing the consolidated unused excess profits credit adjustment notwithstanding that one or more corporations, members of the group in the taxable year in which such unused excess profits credit originates, make separate returns (or join in a consolidated return made by another affiliated group) for a subsequent taxable year (or, in the case of a carry-back computation, for a preceding taxable year), but only to the extent that such consolidated unused excess profits credit is not attributable to such corporations; and such portion of such consolidated unused excess profits credit as is attributable to the several corporations making separate returns (or joining in a consolidated return made by another affiliated group) for a subsequent taxable year (or, in the case of a carry-back computation, for a preceding taxable year) shall be used by such corporations severally as carry-overs, or as carry-backs, in such separate returns, or in such consolidated return of the other affiliated group. Any unused excess profits credit of a corporation for a year prior to the first taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return, if the consolidated return year begins after December 31, 1941, shall be used in computing the unused excess profits credit adjustment of such corporation (or the consolidated unused excess profits credit adjustment of another affiliated group of which it becomes a member) for a subsequent taxable year for which it makes a separate return or joins in a consolidated return of another group, but only to the extent that such unused excess profits credit was not absorbed in the computation of the consolidated unused excess profits credit adjustment for the prior consolidated return period.

PAR. 21. The section formerly designated § 33.31 (f) is amended by changing such designation to § 33.31 (g).

PAR. 22. Section 33.34, as amended by Treasury Decision 5126, approved March 5, 1942, is further amended as follows:

(A) By striking from the third subparagraph of paragraph (a) the words "see paragraph (c)" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "see paragraph (c)".

(B) By striking from that portion of subparagraph (2) of paragraph (c) following the three numbered subdivisions the phrase "in subsequent years" and inserting in lieu thereof the phrase "in prior or subsequent years".

PAR. 23. Section 33.37, as amended by Treasury Decision 5126, approved March 5, 1942, is further amended as follows:

(A) By changing paragraph (a) (1), as amended, to read:

(1) Where such distribution is in complete liquidation and redemption of all of its stock (whether in one distribution or a series) and of its bonds and other indebtedness, if any, falls without the provisions of section 112 (b) (6), and is the result of a bona fide termination of the business and operations of such member of the group, in which case the adjustments specified in §§ 33.34 and 33.35 will be made, and § 33.36 will be applicable, or

(B) By changing subsection (b) to read as follows:

(b) In case any such distribution is made after a consolidated return period, whether in complete or partial liquidation, except a complete liquidation within the provisions of section 112 (b) (6), with respect to stock and with respect to bonds, debentures, notes, certificates, and other indebtedness of the liquidated corporation acquired prior to or during any taxable year subsequent to 1928 for which a consolidated income or excess profits tax return was filed, the adjustments specified in §§ 33.34 and 33.35 will be made, and § 33.36 will be applicable.

PAR. 24. Section 33.39 (c) is amended to read as follows:

If a corporation which was a member of an affiliated group in a consolidated return period makes or is required to make a separate return for the succeeding taxable year, the value of its opening inventory to be used in computing its net income for such succeeding taxable year shall be the proper value of its closing inventory used in computing consolidated net income for the last consolidated return period increased in the amount of losses eliminated in the computation of such inventory as profits or losses arising in transactions between members of the affiliated group, but in an amount not exceeding, in the case of profits, either the amount of profits arising from such intercompany transactions reflected in the closing inventory of such corporation for such succeeding taxable year or the amount of such intercompany profits eliminated from its opening inventory for its first consolidated return period pursuant to the provisions of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, and not exceeding, in the case of losses, either the amount of losses arising from intercompany transactions reflected in the closing inventory for such corporation for such succeeding taxable year or the amount of such intercompany losses eliminated from its opening inventory for its first consolidated return period pursuant to the provisions of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

PAR. 25. Section 33.39 (d) is amended by striking out the words "within the meaning of section 730" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "within the meaning of section 141 (d) of the Code (or, in the case of taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1942, within the meaning of section 730 (d))".

PAR. 26. Section 33.40, as amended by Treasury Decision 5126, approved March 5, 1942, is further amended to read as follows:

§ 33.40 Bad debts—(a) Deduction during consolidated return period. No deduction shall be allowed during a consolidated return period to any member of the affiliated group on account of worthlessness in whole or in part of any obligation (including accounts receivable, bonds, notes, debts, and claims of whatsoever nature) of any other corporation which was a member of the group as of the last day of the taxable year or which was liquidated by the group during such year, except as a loss resulting from a bona fide termination of the business and operations of such other corporation, whether in liquidation or otherwise, in which case the loss will be computed subject to the adjustments specified in § 33.35, and the provisions of § 33.36 shall be applicable.

(b) Limitation of allowance after consolidated return period. With respect to obligations (including accounts receivable) of a member of an affiliated group acquired in any way by another member of the group prior to or during any taxable year subsequent to 1928 for which a consolidated income or excess profits tax return was filed, the adjustments prescribed with respect to the allowance of losses upon the sale of bonds shall be applicable to the allowance of any bad debt deduction for any period subsequent to the consolidated return period. (See § 33.35.)

PAR. 27. Section 33.42 is amended as follows:

(A) By inserting the following new paragraph heading immediately after the section heading:

(a) Years beginning prior to January 1, 1942.

(B) By inserting in the first subparagraph in paragraph (a) immediately after the words "consolidated return period" the following: "beginning prior to January 1, 1942".

(C) By inserting at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

(b) Years beginning after December 31, 1941. The provisions of sections 23 (g) and (k), 117 (d), (e), and (j), 122 (d), and 204 (c) (5), with respect to gains and losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets shall be applied, in respect of such gains and losses sustained during a consolidated return period beginning after December 31, 1941, as if the affiliated group were the taxpayer.

With respect to a net short-term capital loss sustained by a corporation in its last taxable year beginning in 1941, a year prior to the first consolidated return period in respect of which the income of such corporation is included in the consolidated return, such loss (in an amount not in excess of the net income of such corporation for such year or in excess of the net short-term capital gain of such corporation for the first consolidated return period) shall, for the purposes of section 117 (e), relating to net short-term capital loss carry-overs, be treated as if such net short-term capital loss had been sustained by the affiliated group.

With respect to a net capital loss sustained by a corporation in a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, a year prior to the first consolidated return period in respect of which its income is included in a consolidated return, such loss (in an amount not in excess of the net capital gain of such corporation for succeeding consolidated return periods) shall, for the purposes of section 117 (e), relating to net capital loss carry-overs, be treated as if such net capital loss had been sustained by the affiliated group.

A consolidated net capital loss of an affiliated group for a consolidated return period beginning after December 31, 1941, shall be considered as a consolidated short-term capital loss in subsequent consolidated return periods notwithstanding that one or more corporations, members of the group in the taxable year in which such loss was sustained, make separate returns for subsequent taxable years (or join in a consolidated return made by another affiliated group), but only to the extent that such consolidated net capital loss is not attributable to such corporations;

in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 6 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 6;

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 6; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith § 326.5 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R–I, and § 326.6 (Numerical list of mines) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R–II, and § 326.23 (General prices; for shipment into all market areas) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this Order, pursuant to the rules and regulations governing practice and procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this Order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

Dated: March 1, 1943.

Subchapter B—Director General for Operations

AUTHORITY: Regulations in this subchapter issued under P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6660; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Amendment 1 to Suspension Order S–206]

THOMAS C. SHINN

Thomas C. Shinn of Mount Holly, New Jersey, has appealed from the provisions of Suspension Order S–206, issued on the 5th day of January 1943. After a thorough review of the case it has been determined that Suspension Order S–206 should be modified so as to expire at an earlier date than now specified. In all other respects the appeal is denied.

In view of the foregoing, paragraph (c) of § 1010.206 Suspension Order S–206, issued January 5, 1943, is hereby amended to read as follows:

(c) This order shall take effect January 8, 1943 and shall expire on April 8, 1943, after which latter date it shall have no further force or effect.

Issued this 16th day of March 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER, Director General for Operations.

PART 982—MINES AND SMELTERS

[Preference Rating Order P–56, as Amended March 17, 1943]

MINES

Preference Rating Order P–56 (§ 982.1), as heretofore amended, is further amended to read as follows:

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply, for defense, for private account, and for export, of materials used in the operation of mines, and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the defense of the United States:

§ 982.1 Preference Rating Order P–56—(a) Definitions. (1) "Producer" means a person operating any of the following enterprises:

(i) Any plant actually engaged in the extraction by surface, open-pit, or underground methods, or in the beneficiation, concentration, or preparation for shipment, of the products of mining activity;

(ii) Any plant wholly engaged in the processing and burning of refractories;

(iii) Any prospecting enterprise for the discovery or exploration of new or additional mining projects, including the construction of access roads.

(2) "District" means a mine supply control district of the Board of Economic Warfare.

(3) "Maintenance, repair and operating supplies" means material used for the following purposes in the conduct of any enterprise described in paragraph (a) (1):

(i) Minimum upkeep necessary to continue the working condition of essential property or equipment;

(ii) Restoration of essential property or equipment to a sound working condition after wear and tear, damage, destruction or failure of parts, or the like have made the property or equipment unfit or unsafe for service;

(iii) Where such material is essential to and consumed in such operation. The term does not include raw materials which enter into or form part of the finished product.

(4) "Priorities assistance" means any preference rating, allotment under the Controlled Materials Plan, or other form of authorization to acquire material, issued by or under authority of the War Production Board.

(b) Purpose and scope. The purpose of this order is to provide procedures for producers, as defined herein, to obtain maintenance, repair, and operating supplies and mining machinery and other material and equipment.

(c) CMP Regulation No. 5 not applicable. None of the provisions of CMP Regulation No. 5 shall apply to any producer, as defined herein, and no such producer shall obtain any material under said regulation.

(d) Issuance of serial numbers. Producers and districts may apply to the War Production Board for serial numbers. Such applications may be addressed to War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Reference: P56, or may (in the case of producers) be filed with the appropriate War Production Board Regional Office, Attention: Regional Technical Adviser, Mining Equipment Division, or with the appropriate State Coordinator of Mines. Serial numbers may be issued to producers and districts and may be denied or cancelled by the Director General for Operations in appropriate cases. In taking such action and in assigning priorities assistance, the Director General will consider the importance to national defense of the present and prospective output of materials to be produced, the consumption of critical material involved, the importance to national defense of competing demands for such material, and competing demands for manpower.

(e) Priorities assistance for producers with serial numbers. Producers holding serial numbers may apply for priorities assistance as follows:

(1) For maintenance, repair and operating supplies, by filing the appropriate form in the PD–400 series.

(2) For mining machinery and other material and equipment, by submitting to the War Production Board a written application describing the machinery or equipment needed, the reasons why such machinery or equipment is essential for the proper operation of the producer's plant, and such other or further information as may from time to time be required, and shall also file such forms and supply such information as may be required by the provisions of any other order with respect to any particular type of equipment.

(f) Priorities assistance for certain foreign producers. To enable a producer not holding a serial number hereunder and located outside the United States and within the jurisdiction of a district, to obtain priorities assistance, the following procedure is established:

(1) For maintenance, repair, and operating supples, a district may apply for priorities assistance by filing the appropriate form in the PD–400 series, and the Director General will grant such priorities assistance as he deems appropriate. A producer not holding a serial number and located in a district may apply for priorities assistance by submitting to such district his purchase orders for maintenance, repair or operating supplies, together with such information as the applicant may deem relevant in support of his application and such information as may be required by the district. Within the limits of the priorities assistance granted to it pursuant to this paragraph (f) (1), such district may authenticate any such purchase order for maintenance, repair or operating supplies by indicating the appropriate priorities assistance and countersigning the purchase order as follows:

Approved:

Name of district.

Signature of authorized official.

(2) For mining machinery and other material and equipment, a producer not holding a serial number and located within a district, may submit to the War Production Board a written application containing the information described in paragraph (e) (2), which must be endorsed with the signed approval of the district within which he is located.

(3) A distributor of maintenance, repair or operating supplies or of other mining machinery or equipment, located outside the United States and within the jurisdiction of a district may apply for priorities assistance in the same manner as prescribed in paragraphs (f) (1) and (f) (2) for producers not holding serial numbers and located within the jurisdiction of a district. A distributor shall not dispose of material so acquired except upon written approval of the district.

(g) Priorities assistance in other cases. A preference rating of A–2 is hereby assigned to deliveries of maintenance, repair, and operating supplies to all producers not holding serial numbers or otherwise specifically provided for in this order. Such producers may apply for priorities assistance for mining machinery or equipment, or for further priorities assistance for maintenance, repair, or operating supplies, by submitting to the War Production Board a written application containing the information described in paragraph (e) (2).

(h) Restrictions on use of priorities assistance. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, no producer shall acquire any mining machinery or equipment, or maintenance, repair, or operating supplies through use of a preference rating or other form of priorities assistance assigned otherwise than pursuant to this order or an order in the P–19 series.

(i) Application and extension of priorities assistance. Preference ratings assigned and allotments of controlled materials made pursuant to this order shall be applied, extended or made in accordance with the terms of Priorities Regulation No. 3, CMP Regulation No. 1, or other relevant War Production Board regulation. A producer in making use of any such priorities assistance, shall endorse on his contract or purchase order "P–56, Serial number _____," inserting in the blank his serial number hereunder, if any. The use of such endorsement by a producer shall constitute a representation, subject to the criminal penalties for misrepresentation contained in section 35A of the Criminal Code (18 U. S. C. 80), that the item ordered will be used for the purpose for which priorities assistance was granted to acquire it.

(j) Restrictions on receipts and inventory. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, including CMP Regulation No. 2, receipts and inventories of producers shall be subject to the following restrictions only: No producer shall receive any delivery of material which will increase his inventory to an amount greater than the minimum necessary to sustain his current level of operations, and the ratio of such inventory to current production shall in no event exceed the ratio of average inventory to average production for the years 1938, 1939, and 1940.

(k) Restrictions on use and resale of material. No person shall use any material obtained pursuant to this order for any purpose other than that for which priorities assistance was granted to acquire it; and no person shall resell any such material except:

(1) To a producer holding a serial number hereunder, or

(2) With the approval of the Mining Equipment Division, or

(3) If he is located outside the United States and within a district, with the written approval of such district.

(l) Records, audits, and reports. Each producer and each distributor shall keep and preserve for a period of not less than two years accurate and complete records of all transactions affected by this order, and shall submit from time to time to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board. Each producer and each distributor shall execute and file with the War Production Board or other designated agency such reports and questionnaires as the War Production Board may from time to time require.

(m) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(n) Communications. All reports and applications hereunder and all other communications with respect to this order shall, except as otherwise specifically provided, be addressed to War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Reference: P–56.

Issued this 17th day of March 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 1172—ASBESTOS TEXTILES

[Conservation Order M–283 as Amended March 17, 1943]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of asbestos textiles for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1172.3 Conservation Order M–283—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Asbestos textiles" means any material initially produced from the mineral asbestos by means of a carding operation and includes all such material in the following forms subsequent to the carding operation:

[NOTE: Items pertaining to wicks were deleted March 17, 1943]

Carded fiber
Plain roving (underwriter's and commercial)
Plain roving (above underwriter's grade)
Reinforced roving
Cable filler
Lapps
Yarn—single Yarn—plied
Yarn—metallic
Cloth—1¼ pounds per square yard and lighter, all weaves
Cloth—heavier than 1¼ pounds per square yard, non-metallic, plain weave Cloth—heavier than 1¼ pounds per square yard, metallic, plain weave Cloth—all weights, metallic and non-metallic other than plain weave Tape—.010 to .025" thick
Tape—1/32" thick and up
Cord—Plain or treated
Tubing—woven or braided

(2) "Supplier" means any person who produces asbestos textiles from the mineral asbestos by means of a carding operation.

(3) "Consumer" means any person who purchases or accepts delivery of asbestos textiles from a supplier for resale, or for use in the manufacture of other forms of asbestos textiles or of articles made in whole or in part of asbestos textiles, or for any other use. A supplier, who uses asbestos textiles which he has produced in the manufacture of any product which is not itself an asbestos textile as defined in paragraph (a) (1), shall be deemed also to be a consumer.

(b) Restrictions on use and delivery of asbestos textiles. (1) On and after April 1, 1943, no supplier shall deliver asbestos textiles, and no person shall accept delivery of asbestos textiles from a supplier, except upon specific authorization by the Director General for Operations upon application pursuant to paragraph (d) or except as provided in paragraph (c).

(2) Each person specifically authorized to accept delivery of asbestos textiles shall use such asbestos textiles for the purpose for which the authorization was requested, except as otherwise directed by the Director General for Operations.

(3) The Director General for Operations at his discretion may at any time issue special directions to any person with respect to the use, process to final product, delivery, acceptance of delivery, or placing of orders, of asbestos textiles by such person, notwithstanding the provision of paragraph (c) hereof, or special directions to any supplier with respect to the kinds of asbestos textiles which he may or must manufacture, and the grades and types of asbestos fiber which he may or must use in the production of asbestos textiles.

(4) Such authorizations and directions will be made to ensure the satisfaction of requirements, direct and indirect, for the defense of the United States and for essential civilian supply; and may also be made in consideration of any possible dislocation of labor, of the problems of transportation, including cross-hauling, and of the necessity of keeping a plant in operation so that it may be able to fulfill war orders and essential requirements; and may be issued, and, unless otherwise specified by the Director General for Operations, shall be complied with, without regard to preference ratings.

(c) Small order exemption. (1) Any person may accept delivery of 100 pounds or less of asbestos textiles in the aggregate during any one calendar month without specific authorization, provided that such person has not been specifically authorized to accept delivery of any quantity of asbestos textiles during such month; and

(2) Any supplier may deliver asbestos textiles without specific authorization to any person who shall certify to him in writing that he is entitled, pursuant to paragraph (c) (1), to accept delivery, provided that:

(i) No supplier shall deliver in the aggregate in any calendar month, pursuant to this paragraph (c), an amount in excess of 5 per cent by weight of his actual shipments of asbestos textiles for the preceding month;

(ii) No supplier shall make deliveries during any calendar month, pursuant to this paragraph (c), if such deliveries will prevent completion of any deliveries which have been specifically authorized for such month;

(iii) Such certification shall be signed by an authorized official, either manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7 and shall be in substantially the following form:

The undersigned hereby certifies pursuant to War Production Board Order M–283 that the requested delivery of asbestos textiles plus other deliveries of asbestos textiles heretofore accepted during the month for which delivery is requested does not exceed 100 pounds in the aggregate; and that the undersigned has not been specifically authorized by the War Production Board to accept delivery of any quantity of asbestos textiles during the month for which delivery is requested.

Dated_____

By_____ Authorized Official

(iv) No supplier shall make deliveries, even against such certification, if he knows or has reason to believe that the certification is false; but in the absence of such knowledge or reason to believe, he may rely on such certification.

(3) For the purpose of this paragraph (c), the 100 pounds exemption for each person shall be deemed to extend only to an individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or other business organization as a unit, and shall not be deemed to extend to each division, plant, store, or purchasing agency of such unit.

(d) Applications and reports — (1) Consumers. Each consumer seeking authorization to accept delivery of asbestos textiles during any calendar month shall file application on Form PD–779. Six copies shall be prepared, of which three (with table II left blank) shall be forwarded, not later than the 1st day of the month preceding the month for which authorization for delivery is requested, to the supplier with whom the order or orders described in such application are placed, and two (with table II filled out) shall be sent, not later than the 10th day of the month preceding the month for which authorization for delivery is requested, to the War Production Board. A separate set of forms shall be prepared for each plant location of the applicant and for each supplier from whom the delivery of asbestos textiles is sought.

(2) Suppliers. Suppliers shall seek authorization to deliver asbestos textiles only to consumers who have filed with them Form PD–779 in triplicate. Each supplier seeking authorization to make such deliveries to any consumer during any calendar month shall fill out all three copies of Form PD–779 received from such consumer, indicating thereon his proposed deliveries during such month to such consumer, and shall file two of such copies with the War Production Board on or before the 15th day of the month preceding the month for which delivery is requested by the consumer.

(3) Other reports. All persons affected by this order shall file such other reports as may be requested from time to time by the Director General for Operations.

(e) Special provisions. (1) Each supplier who consumes all or part of his production of asbestos textiles in the manufacture of any product which is not itself an asbestos textile, as defined in paragraph (a) (1), shall treat the production and consumption parts of his operations as separate divisions, and delivery to himself for consumption shall be deemed delivery, requiring authorization within the meaning of paragraph (b) (1). Each such supplier in his separate capacity as a consumer and as a supplier shall file all the applications and reports required by paragraphs (d) (1) and (d) (2). A supplier who consumes all or any part of his production of asbestos textiles in the manufacture of products which are not asbestos textiles as defined in subparagraph (a) (1) must request allocation only for that type of asbestos textile that immediately precedes the manufacturing process which changes its form beyond that shown in the list of asbestos textiles in paragraph (a) (1).

(2) Each supplier shall notify the War Production Board of the cancellation by a consumer of any authorized delivery or of his own inability to make authorized delivery within 5 days after he has notice of such fact.

(f) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(2) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Cork-Asbestos and Fibrous Glass Division, Washington, D. C. Ref: M–283.

(3) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 17th day of March 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 3192—SPECIALTY PAPERS

[General Conservation Order M-286]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of specialty papers for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3192.1 General Conservation Order M-286—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Manufacturer" means any person engaged in the business of manufacturing any grade or type of paper listed in column 2 on List A.

(2) "Distributor" means any person engaged in the business of buying for resale or of ordering for the account of others any grade or type of paper listed in column 2 on List A.

(3) "Prohibited use" means, with respect to each grade or type of paper listed in column 2 on List A, the uses described for such grade or type of paper in column 3 on List A.

(4) "Grade or type of paper" designated in column 2 on List A includes all the sorts and varieties of paper commonly regarded by the trade as included within such designation.

(b) Manufacturers' and distributors' obligation to examine orders. From and after the respective dates shown in column 1 on List A for the various types of paper and uses listed in columns 2 and 3:

(1) No manufacturer or distributor shall accept any order for any grade or type of paper listed in column 2, or sell or deliver any such paper, if, by virtue of the identity of the person placing the order or the nature of his business (so far as known to the manufacturer or distributor) or the specifications of the order, or otherwise, the manufacturer or distributor knows or has reason to know that such paper will be used for any prohibited use, as specified for such paper in column 3.

(c) Limitation on use of papers shown in column 2 on List A. From and after the respective dates shown in column 1 on List A for the various types of paper and uses shown in columns 2 and 3 no person who accepts delivery of any grade or type of paper shown in column 2 shall use the same for any prohibited use, as specified for such grade or type of paper in column 3.

(d) Exceptions. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (b) and (c) of this order any manufacturer or distributor may deliver, and any person may use, any quantity of any type or grade of paper shown in column 2 on List A (unless restricted in the use thereof by virtue of some other order of the War Production Board) for any use required by any contract with or order from the Army or Navy of the United States or any other agency or government referred to in (b) (1) and (2) of § 944.1 of Priorities Regulation No. 1, as amended.

(2) In case of doubt as to whether a particular use falls within the uses prohibited by the descriptions in column 3 on List A, any manufacturer, distributor or user may apply (by letter in triplicate) to the Director General for Operations for a specific ruling. The Director General for Operations may, either in response to such request or on his own motion, by letter or telegram addressed to a particular manufacturer, distributor or user, issue specific rulings determining whether or not a particular use or particular uses of a particular grade or type of paper are included within the prohibited uses for such grade or type.

(3) In case of doubt as to whether any particular paper is included by a particular designation, any manufacturer, distributor or user affected by this order may apply to the Director General for Operations for a specific ruling, by letter in triplicate, describing such paper in detail, the common designation thereof or of similar papers in the trade, the general uses for which such paper is designed or commonly used, and enclosing a sample of such paper. The Director General for Operations may, either in response to such request or on his own motion, by letter or telegram to a particular manufacturer, distributor or user, issue specific rulings determining which designation applies to any particular paper or papers or whether or not a particular paper or papers are included in any designation on List A.

(e) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(f) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds for appeal.

(g) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep for at least two years records concerning inventory, production, purchases and sales, and shall make reports on the same if required.

(h) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order or any schedule issued supplementary hereto shall, unless otherwise directed be addressed to: War Production Board, Pulp and Paper Division, Washington, D. C., Ref: M-286.

(i) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 17th day of March 1943.

PART 3210—WASTE MANILA ROPE

[General Conservation Order M-294]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of waste manila rope for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3210.1 General Conservation Order M-294—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Waste manila rope" means used manila rope, which is acquired for any purpose whatsoever excepting only that which is acquired for reuse as rope. The material resulting from any shredding, parting or other type of separation of the strands or fibres of used manila rope shall be deemed to be "waste manila rope".

(2) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation, or agency or any organized group of persons whether incorporated or not.

(3) "Dealer" means any person who procures waste manila rope for storage or sale, and includes selling agents, and other commercially recognized agents acting for their own account or for others.

(4) "Permitted use" means with respect to each grade or type of paper designated on List A, the uses described for such paper on List A.

(b) Limitations on use of waste manila rope. (1) From and after March 19, 1943, no person shall use waste manila rope as a raw material in the manufacture of any product or products other than in the manufacture of rope or in the manufacture of paper.

(2) From and after March 19, 1943, no person shall use waste manila rope in the manufacture of any grade or type of paper other than the grades and types of paper shown on List A.

(c) Limitation on use of grades and types of paper shown on List A. From and after March 19, 1943, no person who accepts delivery of any quantity of any grade or type of paper shown on List A in which waste manila rope is used as a raw material shall use the same for any purpose or use other than the permitted uses for such grade or type of paper shown on List A.

(d) Limitations on use of waste manila rope in the manufacture of flour and cereal sack papers. (1) No person shall use waste manila rope in the manufacture of paper for flour or cereal products sacks to an extent in excess of 35% of the total fibre content of such paper; provided, however, that the amount of waste manila rope used by him in the manufacture of such paper during any one month shall not exceed 35% of the amount used by him in the manufacture of such paper during the month of December 1942.

(2) No person shall use waste manila rope in the manufacture of paper for flour or cereal products sacks on and after June 1, 1943.

(e) Obligation to examine and refuse certain orders and serve notice with deliveries. From and after March 19, 1943:

(1) No person using waste manila rope in the manufacture of the grades and types of paper shown on List A shall sell or deliver any such paper which he knows or has reason to know will be used for any purpose or use other than a permitted use.

(f) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(g) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provisions appealed from and stating fully the grounds for appeal.

(h) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep for at least two years records concerning inventory, production, purchases and sales.

(i) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, all communications concerning this order or any schedule issued supplementary hereto shall, unless otherwise directed be addressed to War Production Board, Pulp and Paper Division, Washington, D. C., Ref: M-294.

(j) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 17th day of March 1943.

PART 1315—RUBBER AND PRODUCTS AND MATERIALS OF WHICH RUBBER IS A COMPONENT

[Ration Order 1A,[1] Amendment 16]

TIRES, TUBES, RECAPPING AND CAMELBACK

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

1. Section 1315.503 (c) is amended as follows:

Total allowed mileage	Kind of tire	Kind of tube
240 miles per month, or less	Grade III	New or used at applicant's option.
241 to 360 miles per month	Grade II or Grade III tire at applicant's option.	New or used at applicant's option.
361 miles per month or over	Grade I, Grade II or Grade III tire at applicant's option.	New or used at applicant's option.
For fleet passenger automobiles or official passenger automobiles for which interchangeable gasoline ration books have been currently issued.	Grade III tire; if applicant establishes that the particular vehicle will be operated for the requisite number of miles (241 or 361) per month, then a Grade II or Grade I tire.	New or used at applicant's option.

The following limitations are applicable in determining the grade of tire that may be acquired on the basis of allowed mileage under the above table: Mileage allowed on a special ration shall not be included in the allowed mileage; and no certificate for a tire may be granted if the tire to be replaced can be recapped, except under the circumstances set forth in paragraph (d) of this section.

2. In § 1315.503 (d) (3) the list of tire sizes is amended as follows:

4.50–17	4.50–19
4.75–17	4.75–19
5.00–17	5.00–19
5.25–17	4.75/5.00–19
5.50–17	5.25–19
5.25/5.50–17	5.50–19
6.00–17	5.25/5.50–19

PART 1390—MACHINERY AND TRANSPORTATION EQUIPMENT

[MPR 136,[1] as Amended, Amendment 70]

MACHINES AND PARTS, AND MACHINERY SERVICES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1390.25 (c) (21) is amended to read as follows:

(21) Automotive and lead acid storage batteries and parts—(i) Automotive batteries. Notwithstanding any contrary provisions of this regulation, the maximum price applicable to the sale by any person subject to this regulation of any automotive storage battery or part shall be the higher of the following:

(a) The net price determined in accordance with the applicable provisions of §§ 1390.5, 1390.7, or 1390.10, plus an amount not exceeding one cent for each pound, or major fraction of a pound, of lead contained in such battery or part; or

(b) The net price determined in accordance with the applicable provisions of §§ 1390.5, 1390.7, or 1390.10, but substituting in such sections the date February 1, 1942 for the date October 1, 1941.

(ii) Other lead acid batteries. Notwithstanding any contrary provisions of this regulation, the maximum price applicable to the sale by any person subject to this regulation of any lead acid storage battery or part, other than an automotive storage battery or part, shall be the net price determined in accordance with the applicable provisions of §§ 1390.5, 1390.7, or 1390.10, plus an amount not exceeding one cent a pound, or major fraction of a pound, of lead contained in such battery or part: Provided, That the price so determined shall in no event exceed the highest price charged for such battery or part during the month of March 1942.

(iii) Reports. Every person subject to this regulation who sells automotive or any other type of lead acid, storage batteries or parts shall, on or before April 30, 1943, file with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., all his published and confidential price and discount sheets containing maximum prices permitted by paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section. Any such person whose maximum prices are not affected by this section and who has heretofore filed all his published or confidential price and discount sheets, shall, on or before April 30, 1943, file with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a statement identifying the price and discount sheets which he has in effect on the date of filing such statement.

This amendment shall become effective March 22, 1943.

PART 1404—RATIONING OF FOOTWEAR

[Ration Order 17,[1] Amendment 4]

SHOES

A rationale accompanying this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order 17 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 2.11 (c) and (d) are added to read as follows:

(c) Any person or establishment entitled to transfer shoes which have been damaged by fire, water, steam, or a similar accidental cause to the extent that they cannot reasonably be sold for ration currency may be authorized by the District Office to mark them non-rationed. Application for the authority shall be made by letter, giving all facts available to show the time, place, manner, and extent of the damage. If the applicant is an establishment, the application shall be made to the District Office for the area where the establishment is located; otherwise, to the District Office for the area where the damaged shoes are located. The applicant shall be required to furnish two copies of a list of the shoes to be marked non-rationed prepared as directed by the District Office. The approval of the application shall be in writing, and one copy of the approval shall be retained by the applicant.

(d) Shoes permitted to be marked non-rationed on the authority of the above paragraph shall be marked with the word "non-rationed" and a code number to be assigned by the District Office. The mark shall be written or stamped on one shoe of each pair or on a sticker affixed to the shoe, before the shoes are transferred.

2. Sec. 2.20 is added to read as follows:

SEC. 2.20 Owner reports closing of business. The owner of an establishment which closes its business and disposes of its stock of shoes in a manner other than as permitted under Sec. 3.7 shall within five days report that fact to the District Office and furnish a statement of the amount of ration currency, if any, owed to or by the establishment, with the name and address of each person or establishment to or from whom the ration currency is due. He shall also surrender to the District Office, with the report, all ration currency on hand, including a certified ration check drawn to the account of the Office of Price Administration for the net balance of its shoe ration bank account. Any ration currency owed to the establishment by another shall thereafter be deemed to be owed to the District Office. However, the District Office may require the owner of the establishment to collect all ration currency owed to it and pay all ration currency it owes to other persons or establishments.

3. Sec. 3.2 (d) is amended to read as follows:

(d) A transfer of the shoes by any person included in paragraph (c) of this section may be made without the surrender of ration currency to another person so included, or to the owner, or to the person from whose lawful custody the shoes were taken. All other transfers of the shoes (if new) must be made in exchange for ration currency, except as otherwise permitted under Sec. 2.11 for non-rationed shoes. Any ration currency so received must be surrendered to a District Office within five days.

This amendment shall become effective March 18, 1943.

(Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong. as amended by Pub. Laws 89, 421 and 507, 77th Cong.; W.P.B. Dir. 1, 7 F.R. 562, Supp. Dir. 1–T, 8 F.R. 1727; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719)

PART 1407—RATIONING OF FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[Ration Order 10,[1] Amendment 7]

FOOD RATIONING REGULATIONS FOR THE VIRGIN ISLANDS

A rationale accompanying this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order 10 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1407.623 (a) (1) and (2) is added to read as follows:

(1) Wheat flour
(2) Corn meal

2. Section 1407.662 (a) is restored as to wheat flour and corn meal and amended. Subparagraph (1) is added, as follows:

(a) On and after August 26, 1942, or the effective date of any amendment, with respect to any commodity made subject to Ration Order 10 by such amendment, notwithstanding the terms of any contract, agreement, or commitment, regardless of when made, a distributor or other person may transfer a rationed commodity to a consumer, and a consumer may accept such transfer of a rationed commodity, only under the following conditions:

(1) At the time of transfer the transferor shall require presentation of a valid war ration book or certificate issued to the transferee or a person on whose behalf he is acting and shall detach from such war ration book stamps designated for the particular commodity and for the period in which the transfer is made, or shall require surrender of a valid certificate, having a weight value equal to the quantity of the rationed commodity transferred.

3. Section 1407.669 (a) is amended as follows:

(a) In event of a public disaster or similar emergency, or where necessary to alleviate hardship or suffering the Director may authorize the transfer of a rationed commodity to be made without the surrender of certificates or stamps, or may issue certificates in such amounts as he may deem necessary under the circumstances to provide for the public health and safety, and to secure the efficient rationing of such commodity or commodities in the Virgin Islands.

4. In § 1407.687 items 11, 12, 13 and 14 are added to read as follows:

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

5. Section 1407.704 (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) For computing the amount of the ration of a person for institutional use, pursuant to § 407.703, the allowance per person served shall be as follows:

Rationed commodity:	Allowance per person
Wheat flour	4 pounds per month.
Corn meal	12 pounds per month.

6. Section 1407.763 (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) Every primary distributor, intermediate distributor, and retailer of any commodity which is subject to this Ration Order 10 shall on the first Monday following registration and weekly thereafter submit a report to the director, or his designated representative for the area in which the establishment is located, on a form approved by the director. Such report shall state, for each commodity, the quantity on hand at the beginning of the week, the quantity received, and the quantity transferred during the week preceding such report, the quantity on hand at the expiration of the week, and any additional information required by the Director. A separate report shall be made for each establishment. Such report shall include transfers to and from other establishments owned by the same person.

This amendment shall become effective February 22, 1943.

(Pub. Law 471, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89, 421 and 507, 77th Cong.; W.P.B. Dir. 1 Supp. Dir. 1–J, O.P.A. Administrative Order 19; 7 F.R. 562, 7 F.R. 5043, 5148)

PART 1429—POULTRY AND EGGS

[Rev. MPR 269,[1] Amendment 6]

POULTRY

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

A new paragraph (e) is added to § 1429.2; §§ 1429.19, 1429.21, and 1429.22 are amended, and §§ 1429.23, 1429.24, 1429.26 and 1429.27 are revoked; all to read as set forth below.

(e) All sales and purchases of pigeons, squabs, guineas, quail, and pheasants.

§ 1429.19 Maximum base prices for poultry items. (a) Every place in the United States shall have its own maximum base price for the poultry items listed in Table A of this section. The word "place" means any city, town, village, or hamlet in the United States.

(b) The United States shall be divided into an "Eastern Zone" and a "Western Zone" for the purpose of calculating maximum base prices for poultry items.

(1) All of the United States east of the line running south from the Canadian border along the eastern shore of Lake Michigan, the Illinois-Indiana State Line, the Illinois-Kentucky State Line, and then south along the eastern bank of the Mississippi River to the Gulf of Mexico, shall constitute the "Eastern Zone".

(2) All of the United States west of the above line shall constitute the "Western Zone".

(c) Maximum base prices for poultry items, excluding duck items. (1) The maximum base price for any poultry item, excluding duck items, purchased, sold, or delivered at any place in the "Eastern Zone" of the United States shall be calculated by taking the maximum base price for such poultry item in Chicago as set forth in Table A of this section, and adding thereto the "freight rate" from Chicago to such particular place.

"Freight rate" means the lowest carlot railroad freight rate for dressed poultry multiplied by 1.22.

(2) The maximum base price for any poultry item, excluding duck items, purchased, sold, or delivered at any place in the "Western Zone" of the United States shall be calculated as follows:

(i) The "freight rate" from the place to each of the five basing point cities of New York, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Seattle, and Portland, Oregon, shall be subtracted from the respective maximum base prices in each of these five cities for the poultry item as set forth below in Table A of this section, and the highest price so obtained shall be the maximum base price for the poultry item at such place.

Example: To determine the maximum base price for a Grade A dressed young turkey of less than 16 pounds in Denver, Colorado, subtract the following "freight rates" from the following maximum base prices:

	New York	San Francisco and Los Angeles	Portland and Seattle
Maximum base price	40.00¢	39.00¢	39.18¢
"Freight rate" from Denver to	2.26¢	1.38¢	1.52¢
Difference	37.74¢	37.62¢	37.28¢

The highest price is obtained by subtracting the Denver to New York "freight rate" from the New York maximum base price for a Grade A dressed young turkey of less than 16 pounds, and 37.74¢ per pound is the maximum base price for such turkey item in Denver, Colorado.

(d) Maximum base prices for live duck items. (1) The maximum base price for any live duck item purchased, sold, or delivered at any place in the United States shall be 27¢ per pound.

(e) Maximum base prices for "kosher-killed" and "kosher-dressed-and-plucked" duck items. (1) The maximum base price for any "kosher-killed" duck item purchased, sold, or delivered at any place in the United States shall be 28¢ per pound.

(2) The maximum base price for any "kosher-dressed-and-plucked" duck item purchased, sold, or delivered at any place in the United States shall be 30¢ per pound.

(f) Maximum base prices for dressed, drawn, and quick-frozen eviscerated duck items. (1) The maximum base price for any dressed, drawn, or quick-frozen eviscerated duck item purchased, sold, or delivered at any place in the "Eastern Zone" of the United States shall be calculated by taking the maximum base price for such duck item in New York as set forth below in Table A of this section, and adding thereto the "freight rate" from New York to such particular place.

(2) The maximum base price for any dressed, drawn, or quick-frozen eviscerated duck item purchased, sold, or delivered at any place in the "Western Zone" of the United States shall be calculated as follows:

(i) The "freight rate" from any place in the "Western Zone" of the United States to each of the six basing point cities of Chicago, New Orleans, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Seattle, and Portland, Oregon, shall be subtracted from the respective maximum base prices in each of these six cities for the duck item as set forth in Table A of this section, and the highest price so obtained shall be the maximum base price for the duck item at such place.

(g) The following exceptions are made to paragraphs (c), (d), (e) and (f) immediately above:

(1) The maximum base prices for each poultry item purchased, sold, or delivered in the cities of San Diego, California, Phoenix, Arizona, and Tucson, Arizona, shall be the same as those listed below in Table A of this section for Los Angeles.

(2) The maximum base prices for each poultry item purchased, sold, or delivered at all places in the State of Oregon west of Portland shall be the same as those listed below in Table A of this section for Portland.

(3) The maximum base prices for each poultry item purchased, sold, or delivered at all places in the State of Washington west of the eastern boundaries of the counties of Whatcom, Skagit, Snohomish, King, Pierce, Lewis, and Skamania shall be the same as those listed below in Table A of this section for Seattle.

(h) Maximum base prices for poultry items in the basing point cities.—(1) Table A. The "Eastern Zone" basing point city for all poultry items designated below, excluding duck items, is Chicago. The "Western Zone" basing point cities for all poultry items designated below, excluding duck items, are New York, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Seattle, and Portland, Oregon. The "Eastern Zone" basing point city for all dressed, drawn, and quick-frozen eviscerated duck items designated below is New York. The "Western Zone" basing point cities for all dressed, drawn, and quick-frozen eviscerated duck items designated below are Chicago, New Orleans, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Seattle, and Portland, Oreg.

The following maximum base prices are for poultry items as designated below delivered to the buyer's customary receiving point at the basing point cities listed immediately below:

(i) Grade "A" poultry items.

[1] These are maximum base prices at all places in the United States.

(ii) Grade "B" poultry items. All Grade "B" poultry items shall be 1½¢ per lb. less in price than the corresponding Grade "A" poultry items listed above.

(iii) Grade "C" poultry items. All Grade "C" poultry items shall be 4¢ per lb. less in price than the corresponding Grade "A" poultry items listed above.

(iv) Monthly adjustments in base prices for dressed, drawn, and quick-frozen eviscerated turkey items. The above prices for dressed, drawn, and quick-frozen eviscerated turkey items shall be in force for the months of November, December, and January. For the remaining months of the year the following additions shall be made to each of the above prices for dressed, drawn, and quick-frozen eviscerated turkey items:

	Cents per pound
February	½
March	1
April	1½
May	2
June	2½
July	3
August	3½
September	2
October	1

(2) Prices for drawn and quick-frozen eviscerated poultry when sold in split or cut-up form. The aggregate price received through the sale of all the cut-up parts of any drawn or quick-frozen eviscerated bird shall not exceed the amount which could be received by the sale of the whole drawn or quick-frozen eviscerated bird of the same grade and weight as specified in Table A of this section.

(3) Prices for hard scalded poultry. Poultry, excluding ducks and geese, otherwise eligible for Grade "A", Grade "B", and Grade "C" classification, but which has been subjected to water for dressing at a temperature higher than 135 degrees Fahrenheit, shall remain eligible for Grade "A", Grade "B", and Grade "C" classification, and shall be sold, purchased, or delivered at prices no higher than those established for Grade "A", Grade "B", and Grade "C" dressed poultry items in Table A of this section: Provided, That such poultry has not been frozen and stored under refrigeration.

If such poultry, excluding ducks and geese, has been frozen and stored under refrigeration it shall be eligible for Grade "B" and Grade "C" classification only, and shall be sold, purchased, or delivered at prices no higher than those established for Grade "B" and Grade "C" dressed poultry items in Table A of this section.

(4) Application of prices for "kosher-killed" and "kosher-dressed-and-plucked" poultry items. The prices established for "kosher-killed" and "kosher-dressed-and-plucked" poultry items in Table A of this section shall apply only when such "kosher-killed" and such "kosher-dressed-and-plucked" poultry items are sold to a "bona fide buyer" of "kosher-killed" and "kosher-dressed-and-plucked" poultry located within a radius of 50 miles from the point of slaughter. In all other cases, purchases and sales of "kosher-killed" and "kosher-dressed-and-plucked" poultry items shall be made at prices not exceeding those established for dressed poultry items in Table A of this section.

(5) Application of prices for all poultry items in packaged form. No additional charge shall be added to the prices established for all poultry items in Table A of this section for the wrapping, packaging, or boxing of such poultry items.

(6) Calculation of prices. In calculating maximum prices per pound basis in this section, and in §§ 1429.20, 1429.21 and 1429.22 herein, all calculations shall be carried to the fourth decimal place. Final calculations of a maximum price resulting in a fraction of a cent per pound shall be adjusted to the nearest ½¢ per pound.

(i) Definitions of terms used in this section. (1) "Poultry" means all broilers, fryers, roasters, stags, capons, old roosters, turkeys, ducks and geese, including live, dressed, drawn, eviscerated, and all other forms of the foregoing when sold for human consumption: Provided, however, That this regulation shall not apply to poultry when in the canned form, and poultry exempted in § 1429.2 above. Poultry in the canned form is covered in the General Maximum Price Regulation, as amended.

(2) "Dressed poultry" means poultry which has been killed, bled, and plucked without regard to the method of plucking or finishing.

(3) "Drawn poultry" means dressed poultry from which the entrails, head, and feet have been removed.

(4) "Quick-frozen eviscerated poultry" means dressed poultry from which the entrails, viscera, head and feet have been wholly removed under state or federal supervision and inspection, the giblets of which have been cleaned and replaced, and the whole carcass of which has been subjected to a cleansing process which makes it ready to cook, the whole then being packaged in carcasses, split or dismembered forms, and frozen at low temperatures.

(5) "Kosher-killed poultry" means poultry which:

(i) Has been killed and bled in accordance with the requirements of the Hebraic dietary laws; and

(ii) Is identified as kosher-killed by a stamp or tag on each bird.

(6) "Kosher - dressed - and - plucked poultry" means poultry which:

(i) Has been killed, bled and dry-plucked in accordance with the requirements of the Hebraic dietary laws; and

(ii) Is identified as kosher-killed by a stamp or tag on each bird.

(7) "Bona fide buyer of kosher-killed and kosher-dressed-and-plucked poultry" means a person who maintains a selling establishment at or through which he regularly and generally sells kosher poultry as such, or a person who is a purveyor of kosher meals.

(8) "Split poultry" means drawn poultry which has been cut into halves, each half containing approximately equal and as far as possible, equivalent parts of the bird.

(9) "Cut-up poultry" means drawn poultry, the carcass of which has been dismembered or cut into portions.

(j) Species, age, and sex specifications for items listed in Table A. Species, age, and sex specifications promulgated by the United States Department of Agriculture in the publications listed immediately below shall be used as the species, age, and sex specifications for all poultry items listed in Table A of this section.

Tentative U. S. Standards for Classes and Grades for Dressed Turkeys.

Classification and Tentative Specifications for U. S. Standards and Grades for Dressed Chickens.

Tentative Specifications for U. S. Standards and Grades for Dressed Ducks, Geese, Guineas, and Squabs.

Tentative U. S. Standards for Grades for Live Poultry.

(k) Application of grade specifications for items listed in Table A—(1) Dressed turkeys. The Tentative U. S. Standards for Classes and Grades for Dressed Turkeys now in effect shall apply to all sales, purchases, or deliveries of dressed turkeys covered herein. Revisions promulgated by the U. S. Department of Agriculture shall become concurrently effective for the purposes of this regulation for stock packed after the issuance of such revisions.

(2) Dressed poultry other than turkeys. (i) Until June 30, 1943, commercial standards now commonly accepted by the trade for classes and grades of dressed poultry, other than turkeys, shall apply to all sales, purchases, or deliveries of dressed, drawn, and eviscerated poultry, other than turkeys, processed and packed before February 28, 1943, as follows:

(a) All dressed, drawn, and eviscerated poultry, whether dry or ice-packed, commonly accepted by the trade as top and premium packs shall be sold, purchased, or delivered at prices not to exceed those specified for Grade "A" poultry in Table A of this section.

(b) All dressed, drawn, and eviscerated poultry, whether dry or ice-packed, commonly accepted by the trade as second grade or choice poultry shall be sold, purchased, or delivered at prices not to exceed those specified for Grade "B" poultry in Table A of this section.

(c) All dressed, drawn, and eviscerated poultry, whether dry or ice-packed, commonly accepted by the trade as bottom or third grade poultry, shall be sold, purchased, or delivered at prices not to exceed those specified for Grade "C" poultry in Table A of this section.

(ii) The Tentative Grade Specifications for Dressed Poultry as promulgated or revised by the United States Department of Agriculture shall apply to all sales, purchases, or deliveries of all dressed, drawn, and eviscerated poultry, other than turkeys, processed and packed after February 28, 1943.

(iii) After June 30, 1943, the Tentative Grade Specifications For Dressed Poultry as promulgated or revised by the United States Department of Agriculture shall apply to all sales, purchases, or deliveries of all dressed, drawn, and eviscerated poultry, other than turkeys, regardless of the date when such poultry was processed and packed: Provided, That:

(a) Poultry, excluding ducks and geese, otherwise eligible for Grade "A", Grade "B", and Grade "C" classification, but which has been subjected to water for dressing at a temperature higher than 135 degrees Fahrenheit, shall remain eligible for Grade "A", Grade "B", and Grade "C" classification, and shall be sold, purchased, or delivered at prices no higher than those established for Grade "A", Grade "B", and Grade "C" dressed poultry items in Table A of this section, Provided, That such poultry has not been frozen and stored under refrigeration.

If such poultry, excluding ducks and geese, has been frozen and stored under refrigeration it shall be eligible for Grade "B" and Grade "C" classification only, and shall be sold, purchased, or delivered at prices no higher than those established for Grade "B" and Grade "C" dressed poultry items in Table A of this section.

(3) The Tentative U. S. Standards for Grades for Live Poultry now in effect shall apply to all sales, purchases, or deliveries of live poultry covered herein. Revisions promulgated by the U. S. Department of Agriculture shall become concurrently effective for the purposes of this regulation for live poultry sold, purchased, or delivered after the issuance of such revisions.

§ 1429.21 Permitted increases to maximum base prices. (a) Any person who makes any one of the following described sales of poultry items may add the increase indicated below for such sale to the maximum base price indicated below for such sale in order to determine his maximum selling price. No person may add more than one permitted increase to any maximum base price,

TABLE B.—MAXIMUM PERMITTED INCREASES FOR SALES OF POULTRY ITEMS

Seller and type of sale made	Buyer	Quantity and form of sale	Item sold	Base price to which increase is added	Maximum increase in cents per pound for "wholesaler" and "hotel supply house" only

(6) Any type of seller	United States Government or any agency thereof.	Any quantity	Any poultry item	Maximum base price at seller's shipping point.	¼ cent plus—Lowest "freight rate" from seller's shipping point to buyer's customary receiving point in cents per pound. If shipments are made in less than carlot quantities seller may add lowest actual freight rate from seller's shipping point to buyer's customary receiving point in cents per pound, instead of lowest "freight rate".
(7) Any type of seller	United States Government or any agency thereof.	More than 14,000 lbs. in "selected classes".	Any dressed poultry item.	Maximum base price at seller's shipping point.	¾ cent plus—Lowest "freight rate" from seller's shipping point to buyer's customary receiving point in cents per pound. If shipments are made in less than carlot quantities seller may add lowest actual freight rate from seller's shipping point to buyer's customary receiving point in cents per pound, instead of lowest "freight rate".
(8) Producers or processing plants only who customarily sell in less than wholesale quantities.	Individual retail stores or commercial, industrial, institutional, or governmental users.	Less than wholesale quantities.	Any poultry item	Maximum base price at buyer's customary receiving point.	1½ cents.

(b) Definitions of terms used in Table B. (1) All definitions listed in § 1429.19 (i) above for the terms used in Table A shall apply to the same terms when used in Table B.

(2) "Producer" means any person who grows or raises live poultry on a farm or farms operated by or for him.

(3) "Processing plant" means any business establishment which is engaged primarily in the business of converting live poultry into dressed, drawn, or quick-frozen eviscerated poultry. "Processing plant" does not mean any person who is engaged primarily in the distribution of poultry at wholesale or at retail, and who in the course of such distribution incidentally converts live birds into dressed, drawn, or eviscerated birds, or dressed birds into drawn or eviscerated birds.

(4) "Wholesale quantities" means lots of 3,000 pounds or more of live or dressed turkeys, or lots of 1,000 pounds or more of other live or dressed poultry.

(5) "Wholesalers" means any person who possesses all of the following characteristics:

(i) He must customarily receive, or purchase and receive poultry items in wholesale quantities.

(ii) He must maintain at the particular place where he is located a business establishment where he receives and stocks poultry items, where he employs a personnel which physically handles and distributes such poultry items, and from which he sells or distributes such poultry items.

(iii) He must customarily sell or distribute poultry items in quantity lots which are smaller than his purchases or receipts, to: Intermediate wholesalers, or retailers, or institutional, industrial, commercial, or governmental users.

(iv) He must customarily sell or distribute at least 75 per cent of his dollar volume of poultry items for ultimate consumption within a radius of 100 miles from his place of business: Provided That: If he maintains his business establishment at any place in the States of Montana, Wyoming, Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona, Utah, Idaho, Nevada, California, Oregon, and Washington, he must customarily sell or distribute at least 75 per cent of his dollar volume of poultry items for ultimate consumption within a radius of 200 miles from his place of business.

Example: The following are considered wholesalers if they possess all the characteristics listed above.

(a) Independent wholesalers or jobbers.

(b) Distributive branches of processors, including branches of cooperative processors.

Example: The following are not considered wholesalers.

(c) Persons who engage primarily in directing the sale and distribution of poultry items from the producer, processor, or shipper without engaging in any physical handling of poultry items, such as:

(i) Agents and brokers, or auctioneers acting for a producer, processor, or shipper,

(ii) Salaried representatives, sales offices, and all supervisory or administrative offices of a producer, processor, or shipper whose personnel does not engage in any physical handling or distribution of poultry items.

(d) Central plants, or reshipping centers which receive shipments of poultry items from associated processing plants for reshipment, and which render such services as accumulating stocks, furnishing storage, consolidating carlots or trucklots, and reorganizing the makeup of shipments to meet the requirements specified by any wholesaler or other receiver located at the receiving point for which shipment is intended.

(6) "Hotel supply house" means any person who sells or distributes 90% or more of his dollar volume of poultry items to hotels, restaurants, clubs, dining cars, steamship companies, and institutional users, and who for a period of at least twelve months prior to March 1st, 1943, sold or distributed 90% or more of his dollar volume of poultry items to hotels, restaurants, clubs, dining cars, steamship companies, and institutional users.

(7) "Special service sale" is a sale of any dressed poultry item made by a "wholesaler" or a "hotel supply house" to a hotel, restaurant, club, dining car, steamship company, or institutional user wherein the "wholesaler" or the "hotel supply house" performs the additional service of removing poultry from the wholesale packages, regrading poultry to more uniform grades and sizes than those required by wholesale grades, and selling in less than wholesale package lots.

(8) "Selected classes" means a 14,000 pound or larger assortment of dressed poultry, 95 percent of which consists of no more than three dressed "poultry classes", and all of which is packed into one truck or into one freight car.

"Poultry class" means poultry of one type, one grade, and one uniform weight. Poultry shall be deemed to be of one uniform weight when the range in weight from the lightest to the heaviest bird in the class does not exceed:

(i) Three pounds in the case of turkeys.

(ii) One pound in the case of capons.

(iii) One-half pound in the case of fowl, broilers, fryers, roasters, and stags.

(iv) Any number of pounds in the case of other types of poultry.

(9) "Shipping point" means that place in the seller's business establishment from which shipments or deliveries of poultry items are made. In the case of non-delivered sales, "shipping point" means that place in the seller's business establishment where the buyer calls for and receives his purchases of poultry items.

§ 1429.22 Maximum prices for poultry items when sold by producers or processing plants at retail. (a) The maximum prices for the sales and deliveries of poultry items when sold by producers or processing plants at retail, that is, to an ultimate consumer other than a commercial, institutional, industrial, or governmental user, shall be calculated as follows:

(1) The seller shall add 1½¢ per pound to the maximum base price at his shipping point for any poultry item, and shall multiply the sum so obtained by 1.20, and the product of such multiplication shall be his maximum selling price for such poultry item: Provided, That in cases of mail order sales the seller may add to such maximum selling price his actual express or mailing expense to the buyer's receiving point.

This amendment shall become effective March 20, 1943.

PART 1436—PLASTICS AND SYNTHETIC RESINS

[MPR 345]

THERMOPLASTIC SCRAP

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, it is necessary and proper to establish maximum prices for sales of thermoplastic scrap by a specific maximum price regulation.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 345 is hereby issued.

Sec.
1436.1 Prohibition against buying and selling theormoplastic scrap above maximum prices.
1436.2 Less than maximum prices.
1436.3 Geographical applicability.
1436.4 Applicability of the General Maximum Price Regulation.
1436.5 Export sales.
1436.6 Imports.
1436.7 Records and reports.
1436.8 Licensing.
1436.9 Evasion.
1436.10 Enforcement.
1436.11 Adjustable pricing.
1436.12 Petitions for amendment.
1436.13 Definitions.
Appendix A: Maximum prices for thermoplastic scrap.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1436.1 to 1436.13, inclusive issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E. O. 9250, 7 F. R. 7871.

§ 1436.1 Prohibition against buying and selling thermoplastic scrap above maximum prices. On and after March 22, 1943, regardless of any contract or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver, and no person shall buy or receive in the course of trade or business, any thermoplastic scrap at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in Appendix A of this regulation, and no person shall agree, offer, or attempt to do any of these things.

§ 1436.2 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those established by this regulation may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1436.3 Geographical applicability. The provisions of this regulation shall be applicable to the forty-eight states of the United States and to the District of Columbia, but shall not be applicable to the territories and possessions of the United States.

§ 1436.4 Applicability of the General Maximum Price Regulation.[1] The provisions of this regulation supersede the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation with respect to sales and deliveries for which maximum prices are established by this regulation.

§ 1436.5 Export sales. The maximum price at which a person may export thermoplastic scrap shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation [2] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1436.6 Imports. This regulation shall not apply to the prices paid by importers to foreign sellers or their agents for thermoplastic scrap produced out of the continental United States, but shall apply to thermoplastic scrap after importation into the continental United States.

§ 1436.7 Records and reports. (a) Every person making a purchase or sale of thermoplastic scrap in the course of trade or business, or otherwise dealing therein, after March 21, 1943 shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, complete and accurate records of each such purchase or sale, showing the date thereof, the name and address of the buyer and of the seller, the price contracted for or received, the quantity and a description of the grade or type of the thermoplastic scrap and, if returnable containers are used, the container deposit charged.

(b) Such persons shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration and shall keep such other records in addition to or in the place of the records required in paragraph (a) of this section as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require.

§ 1436.8 Licensing. The provisions of Supplementary Order No. 11 (§ 1305.15) licensing distributors of chemicals and drugs shall be applicable to every distributor of thermoplastic scrap. The term "distributor" shall have the meaning given it by such Supplementary Order No. 11.

§ 1436.9 Evasion. The maximum prices established by this regulation shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase, or receipt of, or relating to, any thermoplastic scrap, alone or in connection with any other commodity, or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium, or other privilege, or by tying agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise.

§ 1436.10 Enforcement. Persons violating any provisions of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages and proceedings for suspension of licenses as provided by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

§ 1436.11 Adjustable prices. Any person may offer or agree to adjust or fix prices to and at prices not in excess of the maximum prices in effect at the time of delivery. In appropriate situations where a petition for amendment requires extended consideration, the Price Administrator may, upon application, grant permission in writing to agree to adjust prices upon deliveries made during the pendency of the petition in accordance with the disposition of the petition.

§ 1436.12 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.

§ 1436.13 Definitions. (a) When used in this regulation, the term:

(1) "Person" means an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(2) "Thermoplastic" includes all plastic materials which can be formed and reformed by the application of heat and pressure without material change in physical properties, but does not include synthetic rubber, shellac, or natural gums. "Synthetic rubber" means a material obtained by chemical synthesis, possessing the approximate physical properties of natural rubber, when compared in either the vulcanized or unvulcanized condition, which can be vulcanized with sulphur or other chemicals with the application of heat, and which, when vulcanized, is capable of rapid elastic recovery after being stretched to at least twice its length at temperatures ranging from 0° F. to 150° F. at any humidity.

(3) "Scrap" is material which has been salvaged or is being sold for salvage purposes. It does not include material which has been salvaged by its manufacturer before its initial sale, nor does it include any material which contains less than 15% of purchased salvage or salvaged material, and which its manufacturer sells under standard new material specifications. It includes the following:

(a) "Molding scrap," which consists of materials that have been molded either by injection, compression, or extrusion processes. Molding scrap may be in the form of unground, ground, or reworked material. It does not include nitrocellulose of plastic grade.

(b) "Sheet scrap," which consists of plastic sheets, rods or tubes, or cuttings from any of these, including all forms of scrap nitrocellulose of plastic grade except motion picture, X-ray, or photographic film. It may be in unground or ground form. The following are not included: cellulose acetate, X-ray or photographic film scrap; sheets laminated to non-plastic materials such as wire mesh, paper, or glass; gummed tapes; second grade sheets, rods or tubes in their original form.

(4) "Mixture" means a physical mixture of any thermoplastic scrap material with any other thermoplastic scrap material or materials.

(5) "Crystal clear" means water clear transparent.

(6) "Plain color" means of one color and includes transparent, translucent, opaque, pastel and black.

(7) "Mixed color" means a combination of two or more colors, of the same kind of scrap material, including mottles, pearls, and metallics.

(8) "Unground" means not converted into a granular or powdered form, and includes mixtures of unground and reground.

(9) "Ground" or "reground" means converted into a granular or powdered form, suitable for remolding or for casting.

(10) "Reworked" means replasticized, with or without dyes, and made suitable for the same general use as the new material from which the scrap originated.

(11) "Seller's shipping point" means the place of distribution maintained by seller from which actual shipment is made.

Appendix A: Maximum prices for thermoplastic scrap. (a) The following maximum prices per pound are established for sales of thermoplastic scrap:

(1) Molding scrap cellulose acetate, cellulose acetate butyrate, polystyrene, methyl methacrylate, and mixtures.

	Crystal clear	Plain color	Mixed color
Cellulose acetate:
Unground	$0.21	$0.17	$0.11
Reground	.27	.23	.17
Reworked	.33	.29	-------
Cellulose acetate butyrate:
Unground	.23	.19	.13
Reground	.29	.25	.19
Reworked	.35	.31	-------
Polystyrene:
Unground	.16	.15	.09
Reground	.22	.21	.15
Reworked	.28	.27	-------
Methyl methacrylate:
Unground or reground	.28	.28	.28
Mixtures	.06	.06	.06

(2) Sheet scrap cellulose acetate, cellulose acetate butyrate, cellulose nitrate, methyl methacrylate, and mixtures.

	Crystal clear	Plain color	Mixed color
Cellulose acetate:
Unground	$0.11	$0.09	$0.06
Ground	.14	.12	.09
Cellulose acetate butyrate:
Unground	.13	.11	.08
Ground	.16	.14	.11
Cellulose nitrate:
Unground	.11	.09	.06
Ground	.19	.17	.14
Methyl methacrylate:
Unground or Ground	.15	.15	.15
Mixtures	.06	.06	.06

(3) Polyvinyl chloride, copolymers of vinyl chloride and vinyl acetate, polyvinyl butyral, and mixtures.

	Unground or ground
Polyvinyl chloride	$0.21
Copolymers of vinyl chloride and vinyl acetate	.21
Polyvinyl butyral	.21

(4) Other thermoplastic scrap. The maximum prices for any other form or type of thermoplastic scrap shall be 60% of the current that net delivered largest quantity selling price of the new material from which the scrap was made.

(5) Transportation charges. All of the above prices are f. o. b. seller's shipping point.

(6) Containers—(a) Cellulose nitrate. Seller may require buyer to furnish containers for the shipment of cellulose nitrate. Where seller furnishes containers no additional charge may be made therefor except that a reasonable container deposit may be required on returnable containers, provided it is refunded upon return of the containers in good condition within 60 days. Transportation costs with respect to the shipment of empty containers to sellers shall be borne by the person who furnishes the container.

(b) All other thermoplastic scrap. The containers for all other thermoplastic scrap materials shall be furnished by the seller who shall make no additional charge for such containers. Where returnable containers are supplied by the seller, however, he may require a reasonable container deposit: Provided, That he refunds such deposit upon the return of the containers in good condition within sixty days. Transportation costs with respect to the return of empty containers to the seller shall be borne by the seller.

This regulation shall become effective March 22, 1943.

Issued this 16th day of March 1943.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Amendment 136 to Supp. Reg. 14[1] to GMPR[2]]

MODIFICATION OF MAXIMUM PRICES FOR CERTAIN COMMODITIES, SERVICES AND TRANSACTIONS

NEW COMMERCIAL VEHICLES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1499.73 (a) (19) (iv) subdivision (b) is amended as follows:

§ 1499.73 Modification of maximum prices established by § 1499.2 of General Maximum Price Regulation for certain commodities, services and transactions. (a) The maximum prices established by § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation for the commodities, services and transactions listed below are modified as hereinafter provided: • • •

(19) New commercial motor vehicles.

(iv) Lower maximum prices if standard delivery operations are not performed: • • •

(b) Standard delivery operations; general purpose. The operations set forth in the checklist below are identical with those established by Conservation Order M–216–A, as amended, issued by the War Production Board. Before any vehicle is delivered into the hands of a buyer, it shall be processed according to the provisions and instructions contained in the following checklist. This checklist is purposely detailed so as to discourage omissions of necessary operations. The sequence of the items listed is based on the fact that serious damage may result if certain operations are done out of turn. Accordingly, this list is arranged so that each operation is done only after the necessary preparatory work has been completed. The purpose of this checklist is to set forth the step-by-step procedure for conditioning every vehicle so that it will give maximum service when put to use. The procedure as outlined in the following pages is intended to be used as a checklist. A responsible person should be charged with the duty of seeing that the order of operations is followed strictly, and that each item is checked only after it is completed. Vehicles should be processed for delivery as near the storage location as practicable.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

1. Under no circumstances should a reserve vehicle be operated, under its own power, until the Standard Delivery Operations numbered 1–13 inclusive have been performed upon it.

2. With respect to change of location of reserve vehicles in storage, the following conditioning operations must be performed:

Before being towed by crane truck or rigid bar, Items Nos. 1 a, b; and 2 b.

Before being towed by loose linkage (rope or chain), Items Nos. 1 a, b; and 2 b, e, f, g.

(b) Checklist of operations performed to prepare the following vehicle for use.

Item No.

1. Tires.
   a. If tires are unmounted, inspect the rims and remove all rust. Mount tires and inflate them to tire manufacturer's recommended pressure.
   b. If tires are mounted, inflate them to tire manufacturer's recommended pressure.

Item No.

2. Brake System and Front Wheel Lubricant.
   a. Remove all wheels and drums and thoroughly clean rust from all braking surfaces. Also examine anchor pins to make sure their bearings are free so that springs return shoes to released position. Do not work brake pedal with brake drums off.
   b. Repack front wheel bearings with new lubricant if necessary.
   c. Check hydraulic master cylinder fluid level, adding approved fluid if necessary. See that filler cap vent is open.
   d. Inspect brake system for leaks and repair any defects.
   e. Work brake pedal several times to make sure system is operating. Jack up each wheel (if blocks were removed) and apply brakes. Check to see that they operate and then release fully so wheel can turn freely with no drag.
   f. Check brake pedal-floor clearance and adjust if necessary.
   g. With respect to conditioning vacuum booster, electric, and compressed air brake equipment, follow equipment manufacturer's recommendations.

   NOTE. Remove outside body and window coverings. Protect upholstery while conditioning vehicle. If another location is required for remaining work, vehicle must not be run under its own power until ready for preliminary road test. (See General Instructions above.)

3. Fuel System.
   a. Replace gasoline tank drain plug
   b. Thoroughly clean fuel line, fuel pump sediment bowl and filter screen, and carburetor. Reinstall.
   c. Check all fuel connections, including carburetor flange nuts or cap screws.
   d. Put gasoline in tank, adding ½ pint of SAE engine oil to each 5 gallons of gasoline. Replace filler cap, making sure vent is free.
   e. Check accelerator, throttle and choke linkages, idle and wide open positions.
   f. Remove seal from air cleaner; and add oil if necessary.

4. Ignition System.
   a. Clean and adjust spark plugs. Leave them out so cylinders can be lubricated later.
   b. Check distributor, adjust points, clean rotor and contact points.
   c. Lubricate cam and rocker bearing surface.
   d. Clean wire connections and push wires firmly into their sockets in distributor and coil.

5. Valve Compartment. (Overhead valve engines)
   a. Remove cover and remove oil soaked rags if any.
   b. Spray valve mechanism with suitable light oil. Leave cover off for observation of valve action later.

6. Seals.
   a. Remove seal from tail pipe opening.
   b. Remove seals from oil filler tube, crankcase breather tube, and any other opening. Clean and replace covers.

7. Clutch.
   a. Remove block used to keep clutch disengaged and make sure there is correct amount of free pedal movement at top of travel.

Item No.

8. Preparing engine for service.
   a. Tighten all cooling system, heater hose and defroster connections, replacing any defective hose. If cooling system was stored full, add sufficient coolant to make up for evaporation. If cooling system was stored empty, close drain cocks and replace drain plugs. Fill with clean water and check for leaks.
   b. Drain oil from crankcase.
   c. Drop oil pan, thoroughly clean pan, inside of crankcase and pump screen. Replace pan using new gasket.
   d. Fill crankcase with flushing oil. Pour 2 ounces of SAE–10 engine oil into each spark plug hole. Leave spark plugs out.
   e. Lubricate generator, starter, and water pump.
   f. Clean battery carrier, repainting if necessary. Install securely a fully charged battery (spec. gravity of 1.280 or above at 60 degrees F.; water level ¼" to ⅜" above plates). Clean cables and connections, tighten, and coat terminals with vaseline or approved corrosion preventive. Test battery hookup by turning on headlights (ammeter should show discharge).
   g. With ignition switch off and clutch disengaged crank engine for 30 seconds with starter in order to exercise reciprocating parts and bearings. While cranking engine listen carefully for indications of trouble. Remedy any trouble (such as engine failing to turn over or starter being stuck) before proceeding further. Reinstall spark plugs using new gaskets if necessary.
   h. Start engine (clutch disengaged) and run at idle speed or five minutes.
   i. Adjust automatic choke control if necessary.
   j. Set engine idle speed according to manufacturer's recommendations.
   k. Turn off engine. Drain flushing oil immediately from crankcase.
   [1]l. If engine oil filter is sealed type, replace it with a new one. If it is replaceable element type, clean out filter chamber and install new element.
   m. Fill crankcase to correct level with engine oil of proper SAE viscosity for temperature conditions under which vehicle will operate. Start engine and run at idle speed.

9. While Engine Is Running, check the following items for proper operations, making all necessary adjustments and repairs:
   a. All instruments (oil, gas, temperature, and ammeter).
   b. Windshield wipers, with blades installed.
   c. Horn.
   d. Every switch position of every light on vehicle.
   e. Heater, climatizer, defroster.
   f. Cigar lighter, radio, clock and other accessories.
   g. Automatic top on convertibles.
   h. Charging rate, and voltage and current regulator.

[1] Items 8 c and 8 l must be performed unless the manufacturer files a statement with the Automotive Division of the War Production Board, and with its dealers, stating that failure to perform these items on vehicles of its own manufacture will not impair their operation as new vehicles.

[2] Not applicable to trucks.

Item No.

9. While Engine Is Running—Continued.
   i. Manifold heater valve.
   j. Inspect all water hose connections, oil and fuel lines for leakage.
   k. Check and if necessary adjust valve tappets according to vehicle manufacturer's recommendations.
10. After Shutting off Engine, perform the following operations: Before any sediment in coolant has time to settle, make the following check of the cooling system:
   a. If coolant carries little or no anti-freeze, completely drain entire cooling system, examining coolant for presence of rust or other foreign matter.
   b. If coolant carries a considerable amount of anti-freeze, drain a quart from bottom of radiator. If liquid is clear return sample to radiator.
   c. If coolant shows rusty and dirty, completely drain entire cooling system, reverse flush radiator and engine block to remove sediment, using a combination water-air flushing nozzle. (Follow manufacturer's recommendations with respect to thermostats and water pumps before flushing the block.)
   d. Fill cooling system (if not already done) with clean water and rust inhibitor, adding anti-freeze according to seasonal requirements. Watch for leaks at hose ends and pump, and correct any that develop.
   e. While engine is still hot, tighten cylinder head nuts in recommended order.
   f. Tighten manifold studs.
   g. Tighten bolts at connection between exhaust manifold and pipe to muffler.
   h. Replace valve compartment cover (overhead valve engines).
   i. Check all bolt adjustments and replace belts if necessary.
11. Lubrication.
   a. Lubricate every fitting and check the lubricant level of every reservoir according to vehicle manufacturer's lubrication chart, excepting those taken care of above. Flush out all gear boxes in which rust inhibitor was used during storage. Fill to correct level with new lubricant.
   b. While lubricating, inspect underside of chassis and body for loose or damaged parts, and make any necessary adjustments or replacements.
12. Check, and if Needed Tighten, the following items:
   a. Nuts on spring U-bolts.
   b. All steering connections.
   [2]c. Front and rear sway eliminator or stabilizer bolts.
   d. Body bolts.
   e. Front and rear bumper bolts.
   f. Gas tank straps.
   g. Shock absorber bolts.
13. Front end and wheels.
   a. Check front wheel toe-in.
   b. Test steering adjustments and connections. Check amount of wheel turn to stop on left and right.
   c. Check steering wheel for correct amount of play.
14. Preliminary road test.

   NOTE: Before road test, remove any stickers that obstruct vision, and wash windshield.

   Road test every vehicle by driving it at least three miles and checking the operation of the following items:
   a. All gear positions, and operation of gear shift lever.

Item No.

14. Preliminary Road Test—Continued.
   b. Accelerator.
   c. Service brakes.
   d. Hand brake.
   e. All instruments; oil, gas, temperature, ammeter, speedometer, and odometer.
   f. Set spark advance or octane selector at correct adjustment for economical performance, idling, pick-up in each forward gear, and ping in the acceleration.
   g. Springs and shock absorbers.
   h. Locate squeaks, rattles, and unusual noises.
   i. Special equipment such as overdrives, 2-speed axles, hill-holding devices, and transmissions other than conventional type.
   j. Note any other items upon which work needs to be done.
15. Return Vehicle to Shop and do the following operations:
   a. Focus headlights.
   b. Do any work on clutch, service brakes and hand brake for which road test showed need.
   c. Reinspect all water hose connections, oil and fuel lines for leakage.
   d. Clean fuel filters at carburetor and fuel pump.
   e. Make necessary repairs or adjustments or any other items which road test showed to need attention.
   f. Check all tire pressures again and if necessary replace valve core and inspect innertube and tire casing.
16. Final Road Test.
   a. Make further road tests if necessary to see that all equipment is operating satisfactorily.
   b. Check for leaks under engine, transmission, and rear axle.
   c. Clean and remove rust and dirt from engine and its accessories and other chassis parts. Touch up with paint or appropriate color if originally painted.
17. Body.
   a. Remove wax or grease from interior chrome, clean upholstery, carpets, and floor mats and repair any damaged places. Use solvent cleaner which will not damage finish or upholstery.
   b. Remove plugs or screening from holes in floorboards or dash.
   c. Check and lubricate front seat adjustment.
   d. Check operation of all windows, ventipanes, cowl ventilator and sun visors. Clean windows and windshield inside and outside and repair any defects.
   e. Check operation of all doors from inside and outside, trunk lid, hood and glove compartment.
   f. Check operation of all keys and locks on doors, glove compartment and trunk.
   g. Check and clean tools in kit.
   h. Re-cement any sponge rubber seal strips which may have pulled loose, replacing any which have deteriorated.
   i. Inspect paint finish and repair or touch up any defects or damage.
   j. Clean and polish vehicle body and chrome trim.

NOTE: Owner should drain engine crankcase at about 250 miles and refill to the full mark with a good grade of engine oil of proper SAE viscosity for temperature conditions under which vehicle will operate.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[MPR 165 as amended,[1] Amendment 17]

SERVICES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

A new paragraph (f) is added to § 1499.114 as set forth below:

§ 1499.114. Applications for adjustments by sellers. * * *

(f) Adjustment of prices through buyer-seller agreement—(1) Method of agreeing on maximum prices. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this regulation, the maximum price for any service supplied to a purchaser, other than a purchaser at retail, may be determined by agreement between the seller and the purchaser, provided, however, that the following facts exist:

(i) As to the seller:

(a) The actual cost of materials and labor used in supplying the service has increased so that it exceeds the cost in March 1942 (or on the "applicable base date" as defined in this paragraph) of such materials and labor by an amount so large that the continued supply of the service is threatened.

(b) The amount in dollars and cents which is added by agreement to the maximum price for the service as established by other sections of this regulation is no more than the amount by which the actual cost of materials and labor used in supplying the service exceeds the cost in March 1942 (or on the "applicable base date" as defined in this paragraph).

(ii) As to the purchaser:

(a) The purchaser is willing to pay the higher price requested by the seller;

(b) The purchaser cannot supply the service himself at a price as low as the requested price and cannot secure satisfactory performance of the service from any other seller at a price as low as the requested price;

(c) The purchaser will not pass on the increase in the price of the service in any form to any of his customers; and

(d) The purchaser will not use the increased price in any way as the basis for an application for adjustment of his own price, and any application filed by the purchaser will be filed upon the basis of the maximum price for the service as established by the other sections of this maximum price regulation.

(2) Certification of facts required. The seller must certify on Form OPA 687:116 that all the facts required by subparagraph (1) (i) of this paragraph exist; and the purchaser must certify on the same copy of Form OPA 687:116 that all the facts required by subparagraph (1) (ii) of this paragraph exist.

(3) Method of filing Form OPA 687:116. Three copies of Form OPA 687:116 properly filled out shall be filed by the seller with the appropriate field office of the Office of Price Administration at least 15 days prior to the first sale of the service at the price agreed upon in accordance with this section.

(4) Adjustments based upon wage or salary increases requiring the approval of the National War Labor Board. If a seller will seek to increase his maximum price under the provisions of this paragraph in the event a proposed wage or salary increase requiring the approval of the National War Labor Board (hereinafter called "Board") becomes finally effective, he shall take the following steps:

(i) In the case of a wage or salary increase voluntarily agreed to between the seller and his employees, the seller must file Form OPA 687:116 in the manner above set forth not more than 15 days after filing his application for approval of the agreed-upon wage or salary increase. After the proposed wage or salary increase becomes finally effective, but in no event earlier than 15 days after the filing of Form OPA 687:116, the seller may increase his prices as requested pursuant to this paragraph.

(ii) In the case of a disputed wage or salary proceeding, the seller, within 15 days after receiving notice that the case was certified to the Board, shall give written notice to the appropriate field office of the Office of Price Administration that he will request a price increase under this paragraph if ordered to grant a wage or salary increase by the Board. If the Board decides to grant a wage or salary increase, the seller shall file Form OPA 687:116 in the manner above set forth not more than 5 days after he is notified of the proposed Board decision. After the wage or salary increase becomes finally effective, but in no event earlier than 15 days after the filing of Form OPA 687:116, the seller may increase his prices as requested pursuant to this paragraph.

(iii) Both the seller and the purchaser shall, when filing Form OPA 687:116 pursuant to this subparagraph (4), make the necessary certifications on the assumption that the proposed wage or salary increase has become finally effective.

(iv) The provisions of this subparagraph (4) shall supersede the provisions of Supplementary Order No. 28 issued by the Office of Price Administration in all cases in which a seller seeks to increase his prices pursuant to this paragraph (f) because of a wage or salary increase requiring the approval of the Board. If the forms required by this subparagraph (4) are not filed in time, and the wage or salary increase requiring the approval of the Board becomes finally effective, the seller will be foreclosed from seeking relief under this paragraph (f) based upon those wage or salary increases. The fact that the seller has not so filed the required forms will not preclude recognition by the Office of Price Administration of the increased cost resulting from such wage or salary increase in considering any later application for adjustment or petition for amendment based on subsequent changes in circumstances.

(5) Effective date of price increase under this paragraph (f). Unless the Office of Price Administration or any authorized representative thereof shall, by notice mailed to the seller within 15 days from the date of filing Form OPA 687:116, disapprove the maximum price as agreed upon, such price shall be deemed to have been approved, subject to disapproval or adjustment at any later time by an order issued by the Office of Price Administration or any authorized representative thereof. In no case shall any price increase resulting from the application of this paragraph (f) become effective prior to 15 days from the date of the filing of Form OPA 687:116, nor, in the case of price increases based upon wage or salary increases requiring the approval of the Board, prior to the date upon which the wage or salary increase becomes finally effective.

(6) Delegation of authority. Any regional office of the Office of Price Administration and such other offices as may be authorized by order issued by the appropriate regional office, are hereby authorized to approve, disapprove, or adjust maximum prices agreed upon pursuant to this section, in accordance with its provisions.

(7) Definitions. (i) "Applicable base date", as used in this § 1499.114 (f), refers only to sales by persons who seek to adjust, by this section, maximum prices for services supplied during March 1942 pursuant to a contract entered into before that date, and means October 1, 1941, or the date when the contract became effective, whichever date is closer to March 1, 1942.

§ 1499.121a Effective dates of amendments. * * * (q) Amendment No. 17 (§ 1499.114 (f)) to Maximum Price Regulation No. 165 as amended shall become effective March 22, 1943.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, It is ordered:

§ 1499.1769 Authorization of maximum prices for sales of dehydrated cut okra, in 1¼ ounce cellophane packages by B. F. Trappey's Sons, Incorporated, New Iberia, Louisiana and by wholesalers and retailers. (a) On and after March 17, 1943, the maximum price for sales by B. F. Trappey's Sons, Incorporated, New Iberia, Louisiana, of dehydrated cut okra packed in 1¼ ounce cellophane packages shall be $.75 per dozen f. o. b. New Iberia, Louisiana.

(b) The wholesale grocers maximum price for dehydrated cut okra packed in 1¼ ounce cellophane packages shall be $.90 per dozen.

(c) Retail grocers maximum prices for dehydrated cut okra, packed in 1¼ ounce cellophane packages and manufactured by B. F. Trappey's & Sons Inc. shall be $.10 per 1¼ ounce package.

(d) No seller, except a seller at retail, shall change his customary discounts, allowances and price differentials applying to comparable items in making sales of 1¼ ounce cellophane packages of dehydrated cut okra unless such change in these customary discounts, allowances and price differentials result in lower selling prices.

(e) B. F. Trappey's Sons, Inc. shall print or otherwise reproduce on each 1¼ ounce cellophane package of dehydrated cut okra the following legend: "OPA Retail Ceiling Price 10c."

(f) On and after March 17, 1943, B. F. Trappey's Sons, Incorporated shall supply a written notification to each wholesaler at the time of the first delivery of 1¼ ounce cellophane packages of dehydrated cut okra, to such wholesaler and for a period of three months thereafter, and shall include with each shipping unit of 1¼ ounce packages of dehydrated cut okra a written notification to retailers. If such retailer notification is enclosed within a shipping unit, a legend shall be affixed outside of each unit to read: "Retailers Notice Enclosed." The written notification for each type of purchaser shall include the following statements:

Notification from B. F. Trappey's Sons, Incorporated to Wholesalers.

The OPA has authorized us to charge wholesalers $.75 per dozen f. o. b. New Iberia, Louisiana, for 1¼ ounce cellophane packages of dehydrated cut okra subject to all customary allowances and discounts. Wholesalers are authorized to establish a ceiling price of $.90 per dozen. Retailers are authorized to establish a ceiling price of $.10 per 1¼ ounce package. A copy of notification to retailers is included in every shipping unit of these items. If the initial sale of these items to any retailer is a split case sale, wholesalers are required to provide such retailer with a copy of the retail notification so enclosed. OPA requires you keep this notice for examination.

Notification from B. F. Trappey's Sons, Incorporated to Retailers.

The OPA authorizes retailers to establish ceiling prices for dehydrated cut okra packed in 1¼ ounce cellophane packages of $.10 per 1¼ ounce package. OPA requires that you keep this notice for examination.

(g) This Order No. 333 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(h) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in § 1499.20 of the General Maximum Price Regulation and section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, shall apply to terms used herein.

(i) This Order No. 333 (§ 1499.1769) shall become effective March 17, 1943.

PART 1407—RATIONING OF FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[Restriction Order 1,[1] Amendment 18]

MEAT RESTRICTION

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1407.917 is amended by changing the head-note and by adding a new paragraph (d) to read as set forth below:

§ 1407.917 Adjustments and exceptions. * * *

(d) If any regional administrator finds that there is, within his region, an area in which controlled meat is unavailable to such an extent that efficiency and despatch in the war effort or public health or morale are, or will be, seriously threatened the Director of the Food Rationing Division may authorize such regional administrator to grant, without written application, such exceptions to slaughterers or non-quota slaughterers as such administrator shall deem necessary to remove such threat.

This amendment shall become effective March 16, 1943.

PART 1439—UNPROCESSED AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES

[Temporary MPR 28,[2] Amendment 3]

CERTAIN PERISHABLE FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Temporary Maximum Price Regulation 28 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1439.253 (c) is added to read as follows:

(c) If the seller cannot determine his maximum price for a listed commodity under the foregoing, because neither he nor his most closely competitive seller of the same class delivered or offered for delivery such listed commodity to a purchaser of the same class during the base period of February 18, 1943, to February 22, 1943, inclusive, he shall determine his maximum price by the following procedure applied in the following order:

(1) By taking the maximum price for the similar listed commodity most nearly like it which he (or, if none, his most closely competitive seller of the same class) charged a purchaser of the same class during the base period.

(2) By taking the maximum price of the same commodity which he (or, if none, his most closely competitive seller of the same class) charged a different class of purchaser during such base period and adjusting the price to reflect the customary differential between the two classes of purchasers.

(3) By taking the maximum price of the similar listed commodity most nearly like it which he (or, if none, his most closely competitive seller of the same class) charged a different class of purchaser during such base period, and adjusting the price to reflect the customary differential between the two classes of purchasers.

(4) In all other cases, by taking the maximum price for the most nearly similar listed commodity that he (or, if none, his most closely competitive seller of the same class) has delivered or offered for delivery during such base period and adjusting that price to reflect the differential between the two commodities normal or customary to his business or, if none, to reflect the reasonable differential between the two commodities based upon the variances in the cost of the two commodities.

2. Section 1439.253 (d) is added to read as follows:

(d) Whenever the term "listed commodity" is used in this section it shall mean any commodity listed in this temporary regulation or in Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 29. Where a maximum price is established by using the maximum price of the most nearly similar commodity listed in Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 29, the base period for that commodity shall be February 20, 1943, to February 24, 1943, inclusive.

This amendment shall become effective March 16, 1943.

[Temporary MPR 29,[1] Amendment 2]

CERTAIN PERISHABLE VEGETABLES; SPINACH AND LETTUCE

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneouly herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Temporary Maximum Price Regulation 29 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1439.303 (c) is added to read as follows:

(c) If the seller cannot determine his maximum price for a listed commodity under the foregoing, because neither he nor his most closely competitive seller of the same class delivered or offered for delivery such listed commodity to a purchaser of the same class during the base period of February 20, 1943, to February 24, 1943, inclusive, he shall determine his maximum price by the following procedure applied in the following order:

(1) By taking the maximum price for the similar listed commodity most nearly like it which he (or, if none, his most closely competitive seller of the same class) charged a purchaser of the same class during the base period.

(2) By taking the maximum price of the same commodity which he (or, if none, his most closely competitive seller of the same class) charged a different class of purchaser during such base period and adjusting the price to reflect the customary differential between the two classes of purchasers.

(3) By taking the maximum price of the similar listed commodity most nearly like it which he (or, if none, his most closely competitive seller of the same class) charged a different class of purchaser during such base period, and adjusting the price to reflect the customary differential between the two classes of purchasers.

(4) In all other cases, by taking the maximum price for the most nearly similar listed commodity that he (or, if none, his most closely competitive seller of the same class) has delivered or offered for delivery during such base period and adjusting that price to reflect the differential between the two commodities normal or customary to his business, or, if none, to reflect the reasonable differential between the two commodities based upon the variances in the cost of the two commodities.

2. Section 1439.303 (d) is added to read as follows:

(d) Whenever the term "listed commodity" is used in this section it shall mean any commodity listed in this temporary regulation or in Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 28. Where a maximum price is established by using the maximum price of the most nearly similar commodity listed in Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 28, the base period for that commodity shall be February 18, 1943, to February 22, 1943, inclusive.

This amendment shall become effective March 16, 1943.

TITLE 43—PUBLIC LANDS: INTERIOR

Chapter II—Bureau of Reclamation

PART 402—ANNUAL WATER CHARGES[1]

KLAMATH IRRIGATION PROJECT

FEBRUARY 27, 1943.

Public notice of annual water charges. (Act of June 17, 1902 (32 Stat. 388) as amended or supplemented)

1. Operation and maintenance charges. The annual operation and maintenance charge for the irrigation season of 1943, and thereafter until further notice, against all lands of the Main division lying outside of the Klamath Irrigation District shall be a minimum charge of one dollar and sixty cents ($1.60) per irrigable acre, whether water is used or not, which will entitle the water user to two and one-half ($2\frac{1}{2}$) acre-feet of water per irrigable acre. Additional water will be furnished at the rate of fifty cents ($0.50) per acre-foot.

2. The annual operation and maintenance charge for the irrigation season of 1943, and thereafter until further notice, against all lands under district or individual Warren Act contracts, shall be a minimum charge of eighty-six cents ($0.86) per irrigable acre, whether water is used or not, which will entitle the water user to two and one-half ($2\frac{1}{2}$) acre-feet of water per irrigable acre: Provided, That for those contracts which have not been amended so as to increase the allowance of water from 2 to $2\frac{1}{2}$ acre-feet per annum, only 2 acre-feet will be furnished under the minimum charge. Additional water will be furnished at the rate of twenty-five cents ($0.25) per acre-foot.

3. Water rental charges. The annual water rental charge for the irrigation season of 1943, and thereafter until further notice, against all lands of the Tule Lake division lying outside of the Klamath Irrigation District and subject to Public Orders of January 22, 1927, March 30, 1928, February 6, 1929, September 10, 1930, October 16, 1931, and September 9, 1937, shall be a minimum charge of two dollars ($2.00) per irrigable acre, whether water is used or not, which will entitle the water users to two and one-half ($2\frac{1}{2}$) acre-feet of water per irrigable acre. Additional water will be furnished up to a limit of three and one-half ($3\frac{1}{2}$) acre-feet per irrigable acre at a rate of fifty cents ($0.50) per acre-foot and all further quantities for seventy-five cents ($0.75) per acre-foot.

4. For irrigation or waste water furnished Tule Lake leased lands the charge, unless otherwise specified in the leases, shall be seventy cents ($0.70) per acre-foot for the season of 1943 and thereafter until further notice.

5. For irrigation or waste water furnished private lands within the dry bed of or bordering Lower Klamath Lake, the charge shall be fifty cents ($0.50) per acre-foot for the season of 1943 and thereafter until further notice.

6. For water furnished lands not subject to the operation and maintenance or water rental charges named above the charges shall be eighty cents ($0.80) per acre-foot for the season of 1943 and thereafter until further notice.

7. Time of payment. For lands of the Tule Lake division under public notice or public order lying outside of the Klamath Irrigation District, the minimum charge of two dollars ($2.00) per irrigable acre stated above will be due and payable one-half before the delivery of water, if water is delivered before July 1, and one-half on or before July 1. If no water is delivered before July 1, then the entire charge shall become due and payable on that date. If the charge, or any part thereof, is unpaid on that date there will be added a penalty of one-half of one per centum ($\frac{1}{2}\%$) and there will be added a like penalty of one-half of one per centum ($\frac{1}{2}\%$) on the first day of each month thereafter so long as such default shall continue. Payment for water used in addition to the allowance under the minimum charge shall be made on or before December 1 of the season in which used, and if not paid on or before said due date, there will be added a penalty of one-half of one per centum ($\frac{1}{2}\%$) and there will be added a like penalty of one-half of one per centum ($\frac{1}{2}\%$) on the first day of each month thereafter so long as such default shall continue.

8. For all other lands referred to herein the minimum charges announced shall be due and payable before the delivery of water and in any event not later than May 1 of the current irrigation season. Payment for water used in addition to the allowance under the minimum charge shall be made on or before December 1 of the season in which used. On all payments not made on or before the due dates specified herein, there will be added a penalty of one-half of one per centum ($\frac{1}{2}\%$) and there will be added a like penalty of one-half of one per centum ($\frac{1}{2}\%$) on the first day of each month thereafter so long as such default shall continue.

9. Where water rental application is made for public land entered under the Reclamation Law after June 15 and where water rental application is made after August 1 for land in private ownership, no water rental charge shall be made for water delivered during the remainder of the irrigation season in which water rental application is made.

Grazing Service.

ORDER FOR REMOVAL OF TRESPASSING HORSES FROM CERTAIN GRAZING DISTRICTS

Whereas a number of horses are trespassing and grazing on land in each and all of the 58 grazing districts in the United States; and, whereas these horses are consuming forage needed for domestic livestock, thus causing injury to the range and increased cost of administration thereof;

Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of the Interior by the act of June 28, 1934 (48 Stat. 1269, 43 U.S.C. 315, et seq.), as amended, commonly referred to as the Taylor Grazing Act, the following order is issued for the occupancy, use, protection, and administration of the Federal range in the grazing districts above referred to, more particularly described as: Arizona Grazing Districts Nos. 1, 2, 3, and 4; California Grazing Districts Nos. 1 and 2; Colorado Grazing Districts Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8; Idaho Grazing Districts Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5; Montana Grazing Districts Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6; Nevada Grazing Districts Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5; New Mexico Grazing Districts Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7; Oregon Grazing Districts Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7; Utah Grazing Districts Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9; and Wyoming Grazing Districts Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5; all of which districts having been established by appropriate orders.

1. Each and all of the grazing districts above described are hereby closed for the period beginning September 1, 1943, and ending March 1, 1944, to the grazing of horses, except those horses that are lawfully grazing on or crossing lands in any of the said districts or allotments therein contained pursuant to the Federal Range Code approved September 23, 1942, and which contains the rules and regulations prescribed for the administration of grazing districts, or that are used in connection with operations authorized by such Federal Range Code, or that are used as riding, pack, or draft animals by persons lawfully traveling over such land.

2. Officers and employees of the Grazing Service are hereby authorized to dispose of, in the most humane manner, all horses found trespassing or grazing in violation of this order.

3. Public notice of intention to dispose of such horses shall be given by posting notices in public places and advertising in a newspaper or newspapers of general circulation in each and all of the said grazing districts described above.

This order shall be effective from and after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Approved this 10th day of March A. D. 1943.

HAROLD L. ICKES,
Secretary of the Interior.

PROGRAM FOR SUGAR BEETS

The ATTORNEY GENERAL: Pursuant to section 12 of Public Law 603, approved June 11, 1942, and section 8 (f) of Executive Order 9280 of December 5, 1942, I submit to you a program for the production of domestic sugar beets and the distribution of sugar made therefrom to be carried out by the Commodity Credit Corporation. This program and the agreement offered in implementation thereof are more fully described in the annexed memorandum of Mr. J. B. Hutson, President, Commodity Credit Corporation, dated March 11, 1943.

I hereby approve this program for the purposes of section 12 of Public Law 603, approved June 11, 1942, and, after consultation with you, I hereby find and so certify to you that the doing of any act or thing, or the omission to do any act or thing, by any person in compliance with such program, is requisite to the prosecution of the war.

[SEAL] CLAUDE R. WICKARD,
Secretary of Agriculture.

MARCH 15, 1943.

1943 SUGAR BEET PRODUCTION PROGRAM

War conditions have made it necessary for the United States to rely more heavily than heretofore upon continental sources of sugar, particularly upon continentally produced beet sugar. As a part of its program to assist sugar beet producers and to assure sufficient supplies of sugar during the latter part of 1943 and during 1944 the Department of Agriculture has announced and will carry out through the Commodity Credit Corporation a sugar beet price-support and distribution program. This program has thus far involved the preparation and submission to all processors of sugar beets of a Processor Agreement, 1943 Sugar Beet Production Program, adapted to meet the situation in each of the several sugar beet producing areas. Copies of this agreement are on file in and available for public inspection at the offices of the Commodity Credit Corporation.

The principal provisions of this agreement may be summarized as follows: The processors agree to buy sugar beets from producers at a price based upon present ceiling prices for refined beet sugar, plus a basic "support payment" of $1.50 per ton and plus a share in any proceeds that would accrue to the processors in the event present sugar prices are substantially increased. Processors are not obligated to make the $1.50 support payment to producers until necessary funds are received from the Commodity Credit Corporation. Such support payment accrues to the processors by a sale and repurchase transaction under which, after the beets are purchased from producers by processors at a price including such payment, the Commodity Credit Corporation purchases the beets from the processors at the same price and immediately thereafter sells them to the processors at a repurchase price exclusive of the support payment. Such repurchase price is calculated in part upon the proceeds derived by processors from the sale of sugar. Processors are thereby protected against the effects of possible declines in the sugar market and will also be able to pass on to the Commodity Credit Corporation abnormal transportation costs necessitated by the movement of beet sugar under the war program to areas where it is not normally used. In the event the market rises, or it is possible to get larger returns out of the present ceiling price, the Commodity Credit Corperation will be reimbursed for its costs to the extent of the support payment of $1.50 per ton of beets and to the extent that market declines have been reflected in repurchase prices paid by processors for beets. In the event that proceeds derived by processors from the sale of sugar are more than sufficient to reimburse the Commodity Credit Corporation for its costs, processors and producers will share in such excess.

Since, as indicated above, the processors are protected against market declines and abnormal transportation costs by a reduction in the repurchase price payable to the Commodity Credit Corporation for beets, they agree to market sugar in a manner that will minimize losses to the Corporation. It is worth noting in this connection that, during the midsummer of 1942 beet sugar transported at Government expense was sold competitively at levels significantly below the ceiling price. Consequently the agreement requires the processors to sell sugar at the applicable ceiling price and to eliminate sales concessions. However, it permits processors to sell at lower prices to meet competition of particular sellers, to sell at the pervailing market price if such price is lower than the ceiling price, and to sell at a specified differential under the prevailing market price for cane sugar. Liquidated damages are provided in the event of sales of sugar at less than the permitted prices.

The agreement referred to, in my opinion, will have the effect of obtaining the necessary production of sugar beets and will facilitate the distribution of beet sugar in accordance with war needs. It will likewise serve to minimize the possible financial losses of the Commodity Credit Corporation without injury to the consumer and within the limits of legally established ceiling prices. I believe that the program described is essential to the war effort and that certification pursuant to section 12 of Public Law 603, approved June 11, 1942, is necessary

AFFIRMATION OF CERTIFICATE CANCELLATION

Notice of denial of an application for reconsideration of an order cancelling a special learner certificate.

Notice is hereby given that an application dated November 12, 1942 for reconsideration of an order cancelling a special learner certificate issued to Stein-Way Clothing Company of Erwin, Tennessee is hereby denied for failure to show that there is additional evidence which may materially affect the decision and that there were reasonable grounds for failure to adduce such evidence in the original proceedings. The order cancelling the certificate, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on October 29, 1942, is affirmed.

Signed at New York, New York, this 12th day of March 1943.

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION.

[Docket No. 4928]

W. M. MEADOR & COMPANY, INC.

COMPLAINT AND NOTICE OF HEARING

The Federal Trade Commission, having reason to believe that the party respondent named in the caption hereof and hereinafter more particularly designated and described, since June 19, 1936, has violated and is now violating the provisions of subsection (c) of section 2 of the Clayton Act (U.S.C. Title 15, Sec. 13) as amended by the Robinson-Patman Act, approved June 19, 1936, hereby issues its complaint, stating its charges with respect thereto as follows:

PARAGRAPH ONE: Respondent W. M. Meador & Company, Inc., is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Alabama, with its principal office and place of business located at 104 North Commerce Street, Mobile, Alabama. The respondent is engaged in the purchase, sale and distribution of food products, canned goods and miscellaneous merchandise.

PARAGRAPH TWO: Respondent is now and for many years last past has been engaged in business as a jobber, buying in its own name, for its own account, for resale various food products, canned goods and miscellaneous merchandise and reselling such products.

PARAGRAPH THREE: Respondent, in the course and conduct of its said business as a jobber, purchases a substantial portion of its requirements of food products, canned goods, and miscellaneous merchandise from sellers located in States other than the States in which the respondent is located. Pursuant to said purchases and instructions such commodities are caused to be shipped and transported by the respective sellers thereof across State lines to the respondent or to respondent's customers.

PARAGRAPH FOUR: Respondent, since June 19, 1936, in connection with the purchase of its requirements of food products, canned goods, and miscellaneous merchandise, for resale from numerous sellers located in States other than the States where the respondent is located, has been and is now receiving and accepting in its own behalf and for its own account, brokerage fees or allowances and discounts in lieu of brokerage in substantial amounts from numerous sellers of said food products, canned goods, and miscellaneous merchandise.

PARAGRAPH FIVE: The receipt and acceptance by the respondent of brokerage fees or allowances and discounts in lieu of brokerage by respondent as set forth above is in violation of subsection (c) of section 2 of the Clayton Act, as amended.

Wherefore, the premises considered, the Federal Trade Commission on this 12th day of March, A. D. 1943, issues its complaint against said respondent.

Notice is hereby given you, W. M. Meador & Company, Inc., a corporation, respondent herein, that the 16th day of April, A. D., 1943, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, is hereby fixed as the time, and the offices of the Federal Trade Commission in the City of Washington, D. C., as the place, when and where a hearing will be had on the charges set forth in this complaint, at which time and place you will have the right, under said Act, to appear and show cause why an order should not be entered by said Commission requiring you to cease and desist from the violations of the law charged in the complaint.

You are notified and required, on or before the twentieth day after service upon you of this complaint, to file with the Commission an answer to the complaint. If answer is filed and if your appearance at the place and on the date above stated be not required, due notice to that effect will be given you. The Rules of Practice adopted by the Commission with respect to answers or failure to appear or answer (Rule IX) provide as follows:

In case of desire to contest the proceeding the respondent shall, within twenty (20) days from the service of the complaint, file with the Commission an answer to the complaint. Such answer shall contain a concise statement of the facts which constitute the ground of defense. Respondent shall specifically admit or deny or explain each of the facts alleged in the complaint, unless respondent is without knowledge, in which case respondent shall so state.

* * * * * *

Failure of the respondent to file answer within the time above provided and failure to appear at the time and place fixed for hearing shall be deemed to authorize the Commission, without further notice to respondent, to proceed in regular course on the charges set forth in the complaint.

If respondent desires to waive hearing on the allegations of fact set forth in the complaint and not to contest the facts, the answer may consist of a statement that respondent admits all the material allegations of fact charged in the complaint to be true. Respondent by such answer shall be deemed to have waived a hearing on the allegations of fact set forth in said complaint and to have authorized the Commission, without further evidence, or other intervening procedure, to find such facts to be true.

Contemporaneously with the filing of such answer the respondent may give notice in writing that he desires to be heard on the question as to whether the admitted facts constitute the violation of law charged in the complaint. Pursuant to such notice, the respondent may file a brief, directed solely to that question, in accordance with Rule XXIII.

In witness whereof, the Federal Trade Commission has caused this, its complaint, to be signed by its Secretary, and its official seal to be hereto affixed, at Washington, D. C., this 12th day of March, A. D. 1943.

By the Commission.

of Chicago, Illinois, shall make such joint or common use of motor vehicles owned or used by them in such collection and delivery service as will result in increasing the loads of such motor vehicles and in eliminating so far as feasible the movement of empty or partially laden vehicles, and upon such terms between the carriers as they may agree upon, or, in the event of their disagreement, as the Office of Defense Transportation shall find to be just and reasonable.

2. The lawfully published and effective rates, rules and regulations of the carrier issuing the bill of lading shall govern in such collection and delivery service.

3. The records of the carriers in respect of such collection and delivery service shall be available for examination and inspection at all reasonable times by accredited representatives of the Office of Defense Transportation.

4. The provisions of this order shall not be so construed or applied as to require or permit any carrier to perform any transportation service, the performance of which by it is not authorized or sanctioned by law, or to render any service beyond its transportation capacity, or to alter its legal liability to any shipper.

5. Each of the carriers shall file forthwith with the appropriate regulatory body or bodies having jurisdiction over the operations affected by this order, and publish in accordance with law, and continue in effect until further order, tariffs or appropriate supplements to filed tariffs, setting forth any changes in rates, charges, operations, rules, regulations and practices of the carrier which may be necessary to accord with the provisions of this order, together with a copy of this order; and forthwith shall apply to such regulatory body or bodies for special permission for such tariffs or supplements to become effective on one day's notice.

6. Communications concerning this order should be addressed to the Division of Motor Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, Washington, D. C., and should refer to "Supplementary Order ODT 3, Revised–17".

7. This order shall become effective March 22, 1943, and shall remain in full force and effect until the termination of the present war shall have been duly proclaimed, or until such earlier time as the Office of Defense Transportation by further order may designate.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 15th day of March, 1943.

[Order 10 Under MPR 185]

FILICE AND PERRELLI CANNING COMPANY

APPROVAL OF MAXIMUM PRICES

Order 10 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 185—Canned Fruits and Canned Berries.

Approval of maximum prices for Filice & Perrelli Canning Company, Inc., Richmond, California.

The applicant, Filice & Perrelli Canning Company, Inc., has filed an application for specific authorization of maximum prices for three items of canned Royal Anne unpitted cherries, pursuant to § 1341.102 (e) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 185.

Due consideration has been given to the information submitted by the applicant with respect to the packing of Royal Anne unpitted cherries in the grades, counts, sizes and syrups in question.

For the reasons set forth in the opinion which accompanies this order and under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, It is hereby ordered, That:

(a) The applicant, Filice & Perrelli Canning Company, Inc., may sell, offer to sell or deliver and any person may buy, offer to buy or receive from the applicant, canned Royal Anne unpitted cherries in the grades, counts, sizes and syrups listed in this paragraph at a price, f. o. b. factory, per dozen, no higher than the maximum price listed opposite the respective item:

Size	Grade	Can count	Syrup	Maximum Price
1T	Choice	36–50	Water	$1.60
2½	Seconds	50–110	Standard	2.25
10	Standards	260–450	Choice	9.25

(b) This Order No. 10 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(c) The applicant shall not change its customary allowances, discounts, or price differentials, including price differentials between different classes of purchasers, unless such change results in a lower price.

(d) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in § 1341.110 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 185 and section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, shall be applicable to the terms used herein.

(e) This order shall become effective March 17, 1943.

Issued this 16th day of March 1943.

In the matter of Columbia Gas & Electric Corporation, Atlantic Seaboard Corporation, Amere Gas Utilities Company, and Virginia Gas Distribution Corporation.

Columbia Gas & Electric Corporation, a registered holding company, and Atlantic Seaboard Corporation, a registered holding company and wholly-owned subsidiary of Columbia Gas & Electric Corporation, and Amere Gas Utilities Company and Virginia Gas Distribution Corporation, wholly-owned subsidiaries of Atlantic Seaboard Corporation, having filed applications and declarations and amendments thereto, under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, particularly sections 10, 12 (b) and 12 (c) and Rules U-42 and U-45 promulgated thereunder, regarding the following proposed transactions: (a) Columbia Gas & Electric Corporation to surrender to Atlantic Seaboard Corporation, as of December 31, 1937, as a capital contribution, $2,112,000 principal amount of 6% income demand notes of Atlantic Seaboard Corporation. Of this amount $1,295,000 is to be used by Atlantic Seaboard Corporation to create special capital surplus available for certain charges in connection with its property account, and $817,000 as a reserve in the amount of its own contribution to its subsidiaries, as hereinafter described; (b) Atlantic Seaboard Corporation to surrender to its subsidiaries, as of December 31, 1937, as a capital contribution, a total of $817,000 income demand loans of its subsidiaries in the following amounts: Amere Gas Utilities Company $38,000, Virginia Gas Distribution Corporation $112,000, Virginia Gas Transmission Corporation $667,000; said capital contributions to be used by the respective companies to create special capital surplus available for charges in connection with their property accounts.

Public hearings having been held after appropriate notice, the Commission having examined the record and having made and filed its findings herein;

It is ordered, That the declarations and applications of Columbia Gas & Electric Corporation, Atlantic Seaboard Corporation, Amere Gas Utilities Company, and Virginia Gas Distribution Corporation, as amended, be, and the same hereby are, permitted to become effective forthwith and granted forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24 and to the following further terms and conditions:

(1) That no charge be made to special capital surplus of Atlantic Seaboard Corporation and its subsidiaries unless (a) such charge has previously been authorized by appropriate resolution of declarant's boards of directors, and (b) subsequent to such resolution of the boards of directors, thirty days' prior notice of the making of such charge be given to this Commission.

(2) That with respect to any part of special capital surplus of Atlantic Seaboard Corporation and its subsidiaries which is not used for the purposes outlined by the declarants jurisdiction is reserved by this Commission, in and as part of the proceedings herein, with respect to the ultimate disposition of such balance.

By the Commission (Chairman Purcell and Commissioners Healy, Burke and O'Brien), Commissioner Pike being absent and not participating.

HOUSTON GULF GAS COMPANY

NOTICE OF FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 15th day of March, A. D. 1943.

Notice is hereby given that a declaration has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by the above named party; and Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than March 25, 1943, at 5:30 P. M., E. W. T., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter stating the reasons for such request and the nature of his interest, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. At any time thereafter, such declaration as filed or as amended may become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the Rules and Regulations promulgated pursuant to said Act, or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

All persons interested are referred to said declaration which is on file in the office of said Commission for a statement of the transactions thereon proposed, which is summarized below:

Houston Gulf Gas Company ("Houston Gulf"), an indirect subsidiary of United Gas Corporation, a subsidiary of Electric Power & Light Corporation, which in turn is a subsidiary of Electric Bond and Share Company, both registered holding companies, proposes to issue its promissory note dated on or about April 15, 1943 in the principal amount of $600,000 bearing interest at the rate of 2% per annum, payable six months from the date thereof to the First National Bank of Boston ("Bank") and to use the cash proceeds therefrom to construct natural gas transmission facilities and make changes in existing equipment, the cost of which is estimated at $600,000. This expenditure is alleged to be necessary to enable Houston Gulf to convey to Defense Plant Corporation for a cash purchase price of $2,625,000 its 14" and 16" natural gas transmission line extending from Refugie, Refugie County, Texas to Pierce Junction, Harris County, Texas, for conversion into an oil pipe line. The proposed sale and conversion are stated to be necessary for the more effective prosecution of the war.

Houston Gulf is presently indebted to Bank in the sum of $3,000,000, representing the unpaid balance on a 2½% note in the principal amount of $6,000,000 dated August 29, 1940, maturing August 29, 1945, and payable in semi-annual installments of $600,000. The note provides that the proceeds of the sale of any of Houston Gulf's properties, in excess of $50,000 in any twelve month period, shall be applied toward the payment of the principal amount thereof.

Houston Gulf proposes to use the proceeds of the sale of its natural gas transmission line above described, to which the Bank has agreed, as follows:

To payment of note proposed to be issued as described above	$600,000
For other corporate purposes	400,000

To partial prepayment of the heretofore, and on November 2, 1942, filed with respect to certain electrical equipment, as described in the enclosed letter

To partial prepayment of the unpaid balance on the note held by the Bank as described above	1,500,000
Increase in Declarant's cash	125,000
Total	2,625,000

Following the consummation of the previously described transactions, declarant proposes to issue to the Bank a new 2½% note in the principal amount of $1,500,000 payable in semi-annual installments of $300,000 and maturing on August 29, 1945. This note together with a like principal amount of cash as indicated above will be used to prepay the unpaid balance on the declarant's note dated August 29, 1940, which will be surrendered and canceled.

Declarant has designated sections 6 (a) and 7 of the Act as applicable to the issuance of the proposed notes of $600,000 and $1,500,000 and section 12 and Rule U-42 as applicable to the redemption and retirement of the $6,000,000 note.

The declaration requests that the Commission enter its order in this matter on or about March 25, 1943.

By the Commission.

AMERICAN STATES UTILITIES CORPORATION

ORDER PERMITTING WITHDRAWAL OF APPLICATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 16th day of March, A. D. 1943.

American States Utilities Corporation, a registered holding company, having heretofore, and on November 2, 1942, filed an application pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, whereby said corporation sought approval of a certain plan for compliance with section 11 (b) of said Act which application is presently pending before this Commission; and

Said American States Utilities Corporation having subsequently filed a petition for leave to withdraw its said application, and the Commission having considered said petition and finding the same proper to be granted:

It is ordered, That said American States Utilities Corporation be, and hereby is, granted leave to withdraw said application filed by it herein on November 2, 1942 pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935; and

It is further ordered, That said application be deemed to be withdrawn from the date of the entry of this order.

By the Commission.

Chapter VIII—Food Distribution Administration

PART 802—SUGAR DETERMINATIONS

PROPORTIONATE SHARES FOR SUGARCANE FARMS IN PUERTO RICO FOR THE 1942–43 CROP

Pursuant to the provisions of section 302 of the Sugar Act of 1937, as amended, the following determination is hereby issued:

§ 802.46d Proportionate shares for sugarcane farms in Puerto Rico for the 1942–43 crop. The proportionate share for any farm in Puerto Rico for the 1942–43 crop shall be the amount of sugar, raw value, commercially recoverable from sugarcane grown on such farm and marketed (or processed by the producer) for the extraction of sugar during the 1942–43 crop season.

This determination supersedes the "Determination of Proportionate Shares for Sugarcane Farms in Puerto Rico, Pursuant to the Sugar Act of 1937, as Amended," issued December 31, 1942, insofar as that determination relates to proportionate shares for the 1942–43 crop. (Sec. 302, 50 Stat. 910; 7 U.S.C., 1940 ed. 1132).

Done at Washington, D. C., this 17th day of March 1943. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

PART 1405—FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

RESTRICTIONS ON MANUFACTURE AND SALE OF CITRUS FRUIT JUICE

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 9280, dated December 5, 1942, and in order to assure an adequate supply and efficient distribution of citrus fruit juice to meet war and essential civilian needs, It is hereby ordered, That Food Distribution Order No. 3 (8 F.R. 255) issued on January 5, 1943, by the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States, as amended (8 F.R. 828; 8 F.R. 1303), be, and the same hereby is, amended to read as follows:

§ 1405.1 Citrus fruit juice—(a) Definitions. When used in this order, unless otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof:

(1) The term "single-strength juice" means the juice extracted from oranges, lemons, or grapefruit, or any combination of such juices with other citrus juice or other juices, sweetened or unsweetened, with or without the addition of preservatives or the use of any other treatment, the effect of which is to preserve or change the character of such juices, but does not include concentrated juice.

(2) The term "concentrated juice" means the juice extracted from oranges, lemons, or grapefruit, or any combination of such juices with other citrus juice or other juices, with or without the addition of preservatives or the use of any other treatment, the effect of which is to preserve or change the character of such juices, treated or processed in such manner as to reduce it to a powdered form or to increase the density thereof to more than 16 degrees Brix at 20 degrees Centigrade: Provided, That where the increase in density results solely from the addition of sugar or other ingredients, the resultant product shall be considered as single-strength juice and not as concentrated juice.

(3) The term "government war contracts" means sales contracts of any type entered into between a processor directly, or indirectly through third parties, and a governmental agency.

(4) The term "person" shall mean any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other business entity.

(5) The term "quota period" means a period of time established by the Director.

(6) The term "processor" means any person in the business of extracting juice from oranges, lemons, or grapefruit for processing as single-strength or concentrated juice.

(7) The term "producing area" means the States of California, Arizona, Texas, and Florida.

(8) The term "Director" means the Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, or any employee of the United States Department of Agriculture designated by such Director.

(9) The term "governmental agency" or "governmental agencies" means and includes the Army, the Navy, the Marine Corps, the Coast Guard, the War Shipping Administration, the United States Maritime Commission, the American National Red Cross, or any agency of the United States purchasing supplies for any of the foregoing, or for delivery to or for the account of the government of any country pursuant to the act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act): Provided, That U. S. Army or U. S. Marine Corps Post Exchanges, U. S. Navy Ship's Service Departments, and restaurants and cafeterias located on military or naval reservations are not included in the term "governmental agency" or "governmental agencies."

(10) The term "deliver" or "delivery" means delivery pursuant to a contract of sale.

(b) Restrictions on production, sale, and delivery of citrus fruit juice. (1) On and after March 23, 1943, without regard to existing contracts or the rights of creditors, no processor shall produce, except as authorized by the Director, any concentrated juice other than concentrated juice meeting the specifications prescribed either by the procurement division of any governmental agency or by a government war contract with such processor.

(2) Without regard to existing contracts or the rights of creditors, no processor shall sell or deliver, and no State or any subdivision thereof, no department or agency of the United States, and no person shall buy or receive any concentrated juice produced after January 9, 1943, except pursuant to a government war contract or as authorized by the Director.

(3) No processor who has facilities for producing or who is engaged in the business of producing concentrated juice shall produce any single-strength juice except for conversion into concentrated juice: Provided, That the Director may, from time to time, authorize a processor, who has concentrating facilities, to produce single-strength juice for sale as such.

(4) The Director may establish production quotas of concentrated juice for each processor, and if such quotas are produced prior to the end of the quota period the Director may, notwithstanding the provisions of (b) (3) hereof, authorize the production of single-strength juice and concentrated juice, or either, during the remainder of the quota period, for sale to other than governmental agencies.

(5) A processor may sell and deliver concentrated juice for use in the manufacturing of such medicinal products as may be approved by the Director under the provisions of this order: Provided, That the processor obtains and forwards, prior to each such sale or delivery, to the Director a statement from the purchaser to the effect that the concentrated juice is to be used exclusively in the manufacturing of such products.

(6) A processor may sell and deliver concentrated juice to any person who customarily supplies ocean-going vessels, if the purchaser uses such concentrated juice only for resale for use as necessary supplies on ocean-going vessels engaged in the foreign, coastwise, or intercoastal trade: Provided, That the processor obtains and forwards, prior to each such sale or delivery, to the Director a statement from the purchaser to the effect that the concentrated juice is to be resold exclusively for use on ocean-going vessels engaged in the foreign, coastwise, or intercoastal trade.

(7) The Director may, notwithstanding any other provision of this order, limit for any period or periods of time the production of single-strength juice for sale as such by each processor in the producing area, or such portions thereof as the Director may designate, to the quantity of single-strength juice which the Director deems to be advisable.

(8) Any decision, determination, or other action by the Director pursuant to the provisions of this order may be by general supplementary order or by written notices by the Director to the individual processor or person directly concerned.

(c) Records and reports. Every person subject to this order shall maintain such records for at least two years (or for such other periods of time as the Director may designate), and shall execute and file such reports upon such forms and submit such information as the Director may from time to time request or direct, and within such times as he may prescribe (specific recording or reporting requirements by the Director will be subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942).

(d) Audits and inspections. Every person subject to this order shall, upon request, permit inspections by the Director, at all reasonable times, of his stocks of single-strength juice and concentrated juice, respectively, and the premises used in his business, and all of his books, records, and accounts shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by the Director.

(e) Applicability of order. Any person doing business in one or more of the 48 States or the District of Columbia is subject to the provisions hereof, but the provisions hereof shall not apply to any person doing business in any Territory or Possession of the United States with respect to such business.

(f) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this order or wilfully conceals a material fact concerning a matter within the jurisdiction of any Department or agency of the United States may be prohibited from receiving or making further deliveries of any material subject to allocation; and such further action may be taken against him as the Director deems appropriate, including recommendations for prosecution under Section 35a of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 80), under Paragraph 5 of Section 301 of Title III of the Second War Powers Act, and under any and all other applicable laws.

(g) Petition for relief from hardship. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship on him may petition in writing (in triplicate) for relief to the Director, setting forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought. The Director may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate, and such action shall be final.

(h) Communications to the Department of Agriculture. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. Ref. FD 3.

(i) Delegation of authority. The Director is hereby designated to administer the provisions hereof.

(j) Effective date. This order shall take effect March 23, 1943. With respect to any violation of said Food Distribution Order No. 3, as heretofore amended, prior to the effective time of the provisions of this amendment, said Food Distribution Order No. 3, as heretofore amended, shall be deemed to be in full force and effect for the purpose of sustaining any proper suit, action, or other proceeding with respect to any such violation or liability.

Issued this 18th day of March 1943.

Memorandum For The Chief of Staff:

1. There is hereby delegated to the Chief of Staff full power, in connection with operations subject to his direction and control, to exercise any of the authority and powers pursuant to Executive Order No. 9001 delegated to the undersigned by the Secretary of War by instrument dated December 30, 1941 [see Procurement Regulations, § 81.107 (b)]. The Chief of Staff may, pursuant to Executive Order No. 9001, exercise such powers either personally or through such officers or officers or civilian officials of the War Department as he may direct and he may confer upon such officers or civilian officials the power to make further delegations of such powers within the War Department.

2. All action heretofore taken by the Chief of Staff or by the direction of the Chief of Staff, that would by this delegation be authorized, is hereby ratified and confirmed. There is hereby expressly conferred upon the Chief of Staff the power and authority to ratify and confirm any action heretofore taken by any person responsible directly or indirectly to the Chief of Staff that would by this delegation of authority be authorized.

Dated this 11th day of January 1943.

ROBERT P. PATTERSON,
Under Secretary of War.

Section 81.108 (a) is amended and § 81.108 (f) is added as follows:

§ 81.108 Applicability as to various activities. (a) Except as indicated in paragraph (f) of this section War Department Procurement Regulations are applicable to all procurement activities of the War Department. Such activities include, but are not necessarily limited to, the following:

(1) Purchase of supplies, materials, equipment and services.

(2) The procurement of construction work, including that on rivers and harbors.

* * * * *

(f) Procurement and contracting authority of Commanding Officers outside continental United States. In general, Commanding Officers in charge of United States Armed Forces outside the continental United States and its territories and possessions including Alaska are not required, in connection with the procurement of supplies necessary to accomplish the mission confided in them, to comply with the Procurement Regulations or any other regulations, circulars or instructions or with any provisions or restrictions of the laws of the United States which may be applicable within the United States or any territory or possession thereof. This matter is more fully treated in Section I of War Department Circular No. 21, 1943. Likewise, Commanding Officers in charge of United States Armed Forces outside the continental United States but within the territories or possessions of the United States including Alaska, who are responsible directly to the War Department, in connection with the procurement of supplies necessary to the accomplishment of the mission confided in them are authorized to disregard Procurement Regulations and other War Department Regulations, restrictions, circulars and instructions, and when they find that to do so will facilitate the prosecution of the war, they are authorized to disregard the provisions of law relating to procurement; all subject however to (1) Title II of the First War Powers Act, 1941, (2) the restrictive provisions contained in Executive Order No. 9061 and (3) any law approved after December 18, 1941. This matter is more fully set forth in Section II of War Department Circular No. 21, 1943.

Contracts—General

Section 81.302 (c) is amended by redesignating the present paragraph (c) as subparagraph (1) and adding subparagraphs (2) to (5) as follows:

§ 81.302 Definitions. * * *

(c) Contracting officer. (1) * * *

(2) Except when otherwise in the instrument specifically provided, the words "contracting officer", as used in any existing or future contract, supplemental agreement or change order, are construed to include the contracting officer who executed the instrument and his duly appointed successor or authorized representative.

(3) Representatives may be designated as follows:

(i) The chief of a supply service may designate any officer or civilian official to act as representative of the contracting officer who executed a contractual instrument, or of the latter's duly appointed successor;

(ii) A commanding officer may designate any contracting officer assigned to his command or station as representative of any other contracting officer assigned to the same command or station who executed a contractual instrument, or of the latter's duly appointed successor so assigned;

(iii) The contracting officer who executed a contractual instrument, his duly appointed successor, and any representative designated pursuant to (i) or (ii) of this subparagraph (3), may designate any officer or civilian official to act as his representative.

(4) The designations authorized in subparagraph (3) may be made by instructions relating to particular contractual instruments or classes of such instruments, or to certain or all functions thereunder; but in no event shall anyone other than a contracting officer be empowered to execute any contractual instrument.

(5) All action heretofore taken which would have been valid if this paragraph (c) had then been in effect, is hereby ratified and confirmed.

Authority To Make Awards, Contracts, and Modifications Thereof; Required Approvals

Section 81.308d is amended as follows:

§ 81.308d Ratification of prior action. In any case where an existing War Department contract or any section of these Procurement Regulations requires that any action affecting a War Department contract be approved by a contracting officer, chief of a supply service or other representative of the War Department in advance of taking of such action or that it be so approved in writing by a stated time, such action may be approved or ratified in writing by such officer or representative of the War Department after such action has been taken or after such stated time. Such approval or ratification will take effect retroactively as of the date specified in the written instrument of approval or ratification. In general, cases which are appropriate for the exercise of the authority contained in this section will fall into one of two categories, namely: (a) cases where, in the interest of expediting production and without obtaining the requisite prior approvals, action has been taken in reliance in good faith upon assurances of a person in authority, or (b) cases where the action taken without such assurances was of a nature which would have been approved had approval been sought seasonably. The prosecution of the war will be facilitated by the liberal use of the authority contained in this section.

Formalities in Connection With Execution of Contracts and Modifications Thereof

Section 81.309 (b) and (c) are amended as follows:

§ 81.309 Numbering contracts. * * *

(b) System. * * *

(4) In the case of contracts executed within a service command which are to be paid with funds allotted to the Service Command by the Commanding General, Services of Supply, some appropriate symbol in parenthesis to indicate the Service Command. This should immediately follow the symbol required by subparagraph (3) above. To illustrate, contracts executed within the First Service Command might contain immediately after the symbol, which indicates the portion of the allotment which is to be charged, the designation "(S. C. 1)".

(5) A serial number, separated from the above by a hyphen, commencing with the number 1 and continuing in succession indefinitely without regard to the fiscal year. When the serial number reaches the limit of five digits (99,999), a new series will be used beginning with the serial number 1 and followed by the capital letter "A". Should additional series become necessary, they will be distinguished by the capital letters "B", "C", "D", etc., as may be required.

W–669 qm–1

(2) Based on paragraph (b) above, the following is the number of the first numbered contract executed at Fort Bragg, North Carolina:

W–159 qm (S. C. 4)–1

The second illustration above is on the assumption that the contract is to be paid with funds allotted to the Fourth Service Command by the Commanding General, Services of Supply and that the portion of such funds to be charged is the portion for Quartermaster equipment.

* * * * *

Section 81.313 (a) and (b) are amended as follows:

§ 81.313 Form of supplemental agreements and change orders—(a) Supplemental agreements. (1) Supplemental agreements will be reduced to writing and signed by the contracting parties. Supplemental agreements will bear the same identification as the contract which is thereby modified or amended, and will be lettered or numbered, whichever method is authorized by the chief of the supply service concerned, in the order in which the modifications or amendments to the contract are issued. One continuous series of lettering or numbering as the case may be, will be used for each contract, even though it is modified or amended, both by supplemental agreements and by change orders.

(2) Whenever it is desired to effect a modification of more than one contract, it is permissible, in lieu of executing separate supplemental agreements for each contract, to execute a single supplemental agreement. This may be particularly desirable in effecting reductions in the total contract price of more than one contract or in the unit prices payable for items deliverable under more than one contract, (whether in conjunction with renegotiation under the provisions of the Sixth Supplemental National Defense Appropriation Act, 1942 or otherwise). Such supplemental agreements should be numbered in accordance with subparagraph (1) above as a supplemental agreement to each contract modified thereby. This may be done either on the face thereof or on an exhibit thereto. The following illustrates the type of designation that should be given such a supplemental agreement:

3	W 669 qm–1
8	W 669 qm–3

The above designations indicate that the single supplemental agreement constitutes the third modification of contract number W 669 qm–1; the fourth modification of contract number W 669 qm–2 and the eighth modification of contract number W 669 qm–3.

(b) Change orders. Change orders will be in the form of letters addressed to the contractor, and will specify the number of the contract concerned, the changes to be made, the increase or decrease in price and time for performance, and such other terms as may be necessary. Change orders will bear the same identification as the contract which is thereby modified or amended and will be lettered or numbered whichever method is authorized by the chief of the supply service concerned, in the order in which the modifications or amendments to the contract are issued. One continuous series of lettering or numbering as the case may be will be used for each contract, even though it is modified or amended both by supplemental agreements and by change orders.

Distribution of Contracts and Orders Thereunder

Section 81.315 is amended as follows:

§ 81.315 General. * * *

(b) All instructions relating to distribution of contracts are subject to the provisions of AR 380–5 and all other current instructions governing the safeguarding and disclosing of information affecting the national defense of the United States. The General Accounting Office has requested that when contracts containing secret or confidential matter are forwarded to it, such contracts be transmitted under two covers, each cover to be addressed to the Contract Service Section, Audit Division, General Accounting Office, 431 Old Post Office Building, Washington, D. C., Attention of Mr. Arthur S. Eaton. The inner cover only will be marked "Personal and Confidential."

Section 81.317a is added as follows:

§ 81.317a Supplemental agreements and change orders. (a) Signed numbers and copies of supplemental agreements and change orders will be distributed in the same manner as is prescribed for the contracts to which they pertain and the contracting officer will note on his retained copy of the supplemental agreement or change order the date on which the contractor's number was delivered or mailed to him. When, pursuant to § 81.313 (a) (2), a single supplemental agreement is executed to modify more than one contract, the following procedure will be followed:

(1) The original signed number will be forwarded to the General Accounting Office.

(2) The duplicate signed number will be filed with the contracting officer who supervised the execution thereof or with the chief of the supply service concerned and correct copies of the supplemental agreement will be furnished to the contracting officers under all of the contracts affected by the supplemental agreement.

(3) The triplicate signed number will be forwarded to the contractor.

(4) An authenticated copy will be forwarded to the disbursing officer under each contract affected by the supplemental agreement.

Section 81.318 (a) is amended as follows:

§ 81.318 Special cases—(a) Purchases under contracts of Procurement Division, Treasury Department; Navy Department; Post Office Department; etc. * * *

(2) The chief of the supply service concerned will secure compliance with all special instructions of the respective agencies which make the contracts. For example, the regulations of the Procurement Division Treasury Department require that a copy of all purchase orders placed under General Schedule of Supplies Contracts be forwarded to that Division.

* * * * *

Miscellaneous

Section 81.318c is redesignated § 81.318b (d) and paragraph (e) is added to § 81.318b, the section headnote being amended as follows:

§ 81.318b Charges for telegraph, cable and radio messages in cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts. * * *

(d) Cable and radio messages in cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts. Cable and radio messages sent by cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractors, or their representatives, pertaining to cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts will also be paid for directly by the Government, and the procedure outlined in paragraph (c) of this section will be followed in handling and in paying for such messages when transmitted by telegraph companies.

(e) Contract clauses. In connection with paragraphs (a)–(d) of this section, see contract clause set forth in § 81.359.

Mandatory and Optional Contract Provisions

Section 81.324 (f) is added as follows:

§ 81.324 Termination for convenience of the Government. * * *

(f) There may be added to paragraph (d) of the contract articles set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section the sentence set forth below in any case where the contractor desires to have such sentence inserted:

The foregoing subparagraph (2) of this paragraph (d) shall be construed as requiring the Contracting Officer to approve the payment to the Contractor of, or the reimbursement of the Contractor for, the amount of any final judgment rendered by a court of competent jurisdiction determining the liability of the Contractor upon an obligation or commitment which the Contracting Officer finds to have been incurred or entered into with respect to the uncompleted portion of this contract, or for such part of such judgment as the Contracting Officer finds to have been based upon such a liability of the Contractor: Provided, (1) That the Contracting Officer shall find that the Contractor in good faith made reasonable attempts to negotiate an adjustment of such liability without litigation and (2) that the Contractor shall have given the Contracting Officer prompt notice of the initiation of the proceedings in which such judgment was rendered and shall have offered the Government control of the defense of the proceedings.

The above sentence is deemed to effect no substantial change in the meaning of the language contained in said contract articles.

Paragraph (f) of the Advance Payments Clause quoted in § 81.347 is amended as follows:

§ 81.347 Advance payments; fixed-price contracts, with interest. A clause substantially as follows will be included in fixed-price contracts when it is contemplated that advance payments with interest will be made thereon:

Advance payments. * * *

(f) On the unliquidated balance of the advance payments outstanding, the contractor agrees to pay interest at the rate of two and one-half per cent per annum. Such interest shall be computed at the end of each calendar month on the average daily balance of the principal of the unliquidated advance payments outstanding. In determining such balance, charges on account of the advance payments to the contractor hereunder shall be made as of the dates of the checks therefor; credits arising from deductions from payments to the contractor under this contract shall be made, upon the issue of the check for such payment, as of the dates of shipment as indicated on the contractor's invoice and/or Government Receiving Report; and credits arising from cash repayments to the Government by the Contractor shall be made as of the dates the checks therefor are received by the disbursing officer. As soon as such monthly computations shall have been made, the interest so determined shall be deducted from the payments otherwise due to contractor under this contract: Provided, however, That in no event shall deductions on account of interest exceed five per cent (5%) of the gross payment due the contractor prior to any deduction under this paragraph or paragraph (e) or any other provisions of this contract. In the event the accrued interest exceeds such five per cent, the excess of such interest shall be carried forward and deducted from subsequent payments. The interest shall not be compounded, and shall, subject to the provisions of paragraph (d) hereof, cease to accrue upon the termination of the contract for other than the fault of the contractor, or upon the date found by the Contracting Officer to be the date upon which the contractor completed his performance under the contract.

* * * * *

Sections 81.348a and 81.348b are added as follows:

§ 81.348a Advance payments: cost-plus-fixed-fee contracts; with interest. A clause substantially as follows will be included in cost-plus-fixed-fee contracts when it is contemplated that advance payments with interest will be made thereon:

Advance payments. (a) At any time and from time to time after the execution of this contract, the Government at the request of the Contractor and subject to the approval of the _____ or his duly authorized representative, or the person to whom authority to make advance payments has been delegated, as to the present need therefor, shall advance to the Contractor sums not to exceed _____ per centum (_____%) of the estimated cost of this contract (exclusive of the Contractor's fixed fee), as it may be amended from time to time. On the unliquidated balance of the advance payments outstanding, the Contractor agrees to pay interest at the rate of two and one-half percent (2½%) per annum to be computed in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (f) hereof.

(b) As a condition precedent to the making of any advance payment or payments as hereinbefore provided, the Contractor shall furnish the Government with such adequate security as the Under Secretary of War or the person to whom authority has been delegated to make advance payments shall prescribe: Provided, That, if other security is not prescribed, the terms of this contract shall be considered adequate security for such advance payments: And provided further, That if at any time the Under Secretary of War deems the security furnished by the Contractor inadequate, the Contractor shall furnish such additional security, in the form of a surety bond or surety bonds, as shall be satisfactory to the Under Secretary of War.

(c) Until all advance payments hereunder are liquidated, all funds received as advance payments under this contract together with all funds received as reimbursements for the cost of the work under Article _____ of this contract, exclusive of the Contractor's fixed fee, shall be deposited in a special bank account or accounts at a member bank or banks of the Federal Reserve System or any "insured" bank within the meaning of the Act creating the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (Act of August 23, 1935; 49 Stat. 684, as amended; 12 U.S.C. 264) separate from the Contractor's general or other funds. Such special bank account or accounts shall be so designated as to indicate clearly to the bank their special character and purpose, and the balance in such account or accounts shall be used by the Contractor exclusively as a revolving fund for carrying out the purposes of this contract and any amendments thereto, and not for other business of the Contractor. Any balances from time to time in such special account or accounts shall at all times secure the repayment of the advances in connection with which the special account or accounts are opened, and the Government shall have a lien upon such balances to secure the repayment of such advances, which lien shall be superior to any lien of the bank or any other person upon such account or accounts by virtue of assignment to it of such contract or otherwise: Provided, That the bank shall be under no liability to any party hereto for the withdrawal of any funds from said special account upon checks properly endorsed and signed by the Contractor, except that after the receipt by the bank of written directions from the _____ or his duly authorized representative, the bank shall act thereon and be under no liability to any party hereto for any action taken in accordance with the said written directions. Any instructions or written directions received by the bank through the Contracting Officer upon War Department stationery and purporting to be signed by, or by the direction of, the _____ or his duly authorized representative, shall, insofar as the rights, duties, and liabilities of the bank are concerned, be conclusively deemed to have been properly issued and filed with the bank by the _____ or his duly authorized representative.

(d) It is agreed that the aggregate of the advance payments outstanding under this contract, together with funds received as reimbursement for the cost of the work by the Contractor under Article _____ of this contract, shall at no time exceed the total estimated cost of the work under this contract as it may be revised from time to time, and any such excess shall be immediately repaid by the Contractor to the Government or if any reimbursement is due from the Government to the Contractor shall be deducted therefrom: Provided, however, That if the total cost of the work under this contract shall be in excess of the amount so paid to the Contractor, including said advance payments the Government upon representation of satisfactory evidence shall currently and promptly reimburse the Contractor to the extent of such excess cost (subject to any delay in the availability of appropriated funds).

(e) If, upon completion of this contract, or upon the termination thereof for other than the fault of the Contractor, the advance payments made to the Contractor in respect of this contract have not been fully liquidated in the manner herein provided, the unliquidated balance of such advance payments shall be deducted from any payments otherwise due the Contractor in respect of this contract; and if the sum or sums due the Contractor be insufficient to cover such balance, the deficiency shall be paid by the Contractor in cash forthwith after demand and final audit by the Government of all accounts hereunder in respect of this contract: Provided, however, That in the event of such termination of the contract for other than the fault of the Contractor, such deduction shall not be made prior to final audit unless, and only to the extent that the Contracting Officer or his duly authorized representative shall determine that such action is reasonably required in order to secure the eventual repayment in full to the Government of such unliquidated advance payments. In the event of cancellation or termination of this contract because of the fault of the Contractor, the Contractor, notwithstanding any ultimate rights to be reimbursed, agrees to return to the Government, upon demand, without set-off of any sums alleged to be due the Contractor, the unliquidated balance of any advance payment. Furthermore, if, in the opinion of the _____ or his duly authorized representative, the unobligated balance of the advance payments made by the Government under paragraph (a) hereof exceeds the amount necessary for the current needs of the Contractor, as determined by the _____ or his duly authorized representative, the amount of such excess shall, upon demand by the _____ or his duly authorized representative, be promptly returned to the Government and will be credited against the balance due the Government on advances previously made. If the demand made in any event set forth in this paragraph is not met upon receipt of such demand by the Contractor, the amount demanded will bear interest at the rate of six percent (6%) rather than two and one-half percent (2½%) per annum from the date of the receipt of the demand until payment is made: Provided, however, That such additional interest over and above the regular two and one-half percent is hereby waived as to any sums paid by the Contractor within 15 days after the amount becomes due hereunder. If and when the Contractor has, by means of deductions or otherwise, reimbursed the Government in full for payments made, any money remaining in the special bank account or accounts shall be free and clear of any lien hereunder, and the bank or banks concerned shall have authority to pay same to the Contractor and shall thereupon be relieved of any further obligation to the Government on account thereof.

(f) On the unliquidated balance of the advance payments outstanding, the Contractor agrees to pay interest at the rate of two and one-half percent (2½%) per annum. Such interest shall be computed at the end of each calendar month on the average daily balance of the principal of the unliquidated advance payments outstanding. In determining such balance, charges on account of the advance payments to the Contractor hereunder shall be made as of the dates of the checks therefor; credits resulting from disbursements made by the Contractor which are applied against advance payments shall be made upon the approval of the vouchers therefor by the disbursing officer, as of the dates respectively upon which the Contractor presents to the Contracting Officer or his duly authorized representative full and accurate data for the preparation of each such voucher which date shall, as to each such voucher, be certified by the Contracting Officer or his duly authorized representative on the face thereof; and credits arising from cash repayments to the Government by the Contractor shall be made as of the dates the checks therefor are received by the disbursing officer. As soon as such monthly computations shall have been made, the interest charge so determined shall be deducted from any payments on account of the fixed fee which may be made to the Contractor from time to time under this contract. In the event the accrued interest exceeds any such payment, the excess of such interest shall be carried forward and deducted from subsequent payments on account of the fixed fee. The interest shall not be compounded, and shall, subject to the provisions of paragraph (e) hereof, cease to accrue upon the termination of the contract for other than the fault of the Contractor, or upon the date found by the Contracting Officer to be the date upon which the Contractor completed his performance under the contract.

(g) The Contractor shall, at all times, afford to the Contracting Officer, or his duly authorized representative, proper facilities for the inspection and audit of the Contractor's accounts, and the Contractor hereby agrees that the Contracting Officer, or his duly authorized representative, shall have the right so far as the Contractor's rights are concerned, during business hours to inspect and make copies of any entries in the books and records of the bank or banks relating to the said special account or accounts.

(h) Subject to the approval of the Contracting Officer or his duly authorized representative the Contractor may make payments to subcontractors and materialmen in advance out of the special account, for labor or services, or to pay for materials in advance of delivery at the site of the work or at an approved storage site. Such subadvances shall not exceed _____ percent (_____%) of the subcontract price of estimated cost, as the case may be, and the subcontractor or materialmen to whom such advances are made shall furnish adequate security therefor. Unless other security is furnished, covenants in subcontracts, expressly made for the benefit of the Government, providing for a subspecial account with Government lien thereon and for a Government lien on or title to property, tangible or intangible, purchased from the special account, and imposing upon the subcontractor substantially the same duties and giving the Government substantially the same rights as are provided herein between the Government and the Contractor, have been prescribed by the Under Secretary of War as minimum adequate security for such subadvances.

(i) Any assignment of moneys due or to become due under this contract shall be subordinate to the rights or claims of the Government arising under this contract or any amendment thereto by virtue of any advance payments authorized herein or otherwise: Provided That, if at any time any claim arising under this contract is assigned or purportedly assigned in any manner inconsistent with the said rights of the Government, the _____ or his duly authorized representative shall have the right to suspend further advance payments without notice.

§ 81.348b Advance payments; cost-plus-fixed-fee contracts; without interest. A clause substantially as follows will be included in cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts when it is contemplated that advance payments without interest will be made thereon:

Advance payments. (a) At any time and from time to time after the execution of this contract, the Government at the request of the Contractor and subject to the approval of the _____ or his duly authorized representative, or the person to whom authority to make advance payments has been delegated, as to the present need therefor shall advance to the Contractor, without payment of interest thereon by the Contractor, sums not to exceed _____ per cent (_____%) of the estimated cost of this contract (exclusive of the Contractor's fixed fee), as it may be amended from time to time.

(b) As a condition precedent to the making of any advance payment or payments as hereinbefore provided, the Contractor shall furnish the Government with such adequate security as the Under Secretary of War or the person to whom authority has been delegated to make advance payments shall prescribe, Provided, That, if other security is not prescribed, the terms of this contract shall be considered adequate security for such advance payments: And provided further, That if at any time the Under Secretary of War deems the security furnished by the Contractor inadequate, the Contractor shall furnish such additional security, in the form of a surety bond or surety bonds, as shall be satisfactory to the Under Secretary of War.

(c) Until all advance payments hereunder are liquidated, all funds received as advance payments under this contract together with all funds received as reimbursements for the cost of the work under Article _____ of this contract, exclusive of the Contractor's fixed fee, shall be deposited in a special bank account or accounts at a member bank or banks of the Federal Reserve System or any "insured" bank within the meaning of the Act creating the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (Act of August 23, 1935, 49 Stat. 684) as amended (12 U.S.C. 264) separate from the Contractor's general or other funds. Such special bank account or accounts shall be so designated as to indicate clearly to the bank their special character and purpose, and the balance in such account or accounts shall be used by the Contractor exclusively as a revolving fund for carrying out the purposes of this contract and any amendments thereto and not for other business of the Contractor. Any balances from time to time in such special account or accounts shall at all times secure the repayment of the advances in connection with which the special account or accounts are opened, and the Government shall have a lien upon such balances to secure the repayment of such advances, which lien shall be superior to any lien of the bank or any other person upon such account or accounts by virtue of assignment to it of this contract or otherwise: Provided, That the bank shall be under no liability to any party hereto for the withdrawal of any funds from said special account upon checks, properly endorsed and signed by the Contractor, except that after the receipt by the bank of written directions from the _____ or his duly authorized representative, the bank shall act thereon and be under no liability to any party hereto for any action taken in accordance with the said written directions. Any instructions or written directions received by the bank through the Contracting Officer upon War Department stationery and purporting to be signed by, or by the direction of, the _____ or his duly authorized representative, shall, in so far as the rights, duties, and liabilities of the bank are concerned, be conclusively deemed to have been properly issued and filed with the bank by the _____ or his duly authorized representative.

(d) It is agreed that the aggregate of the advance payments outstanding under this contract together with funds received as reimbursement for the cost of the work by the Contractor under Article _____ of this contract shall, at no time, exceed the total estimated cost of the work under this contract as it may be revised from time to time and any such excess shall be immediately repaid by the Contractor to the Government or if any reimbursement is due from the Government to the Contractor, shall be deducted therefrom: Provided, however, That if the total cost of the work under this contract shall be in excess of the amount so paid to the Contractor, including said advance payments, the Government upon presentation of satisfactory evidence shall currently and promptly reimburse the Contractor to the extent of such excess cost (subject to any delay in the availability of appropriated funds).

(e) If, upon completion of this contract, or upon the termination thereof for other than the fault of the Contractor, the advance payments made to the Contractor in respect of this contract have not been fully liquidated in the manner herein provided, the unliquidated balance of such advance payments shall be deducted from any payments otherwise due the Contractor in respect of this contract; and if the sum or sums due the Contractor be insufficient to cover such balance, the deficiency shall be paid by the Contractor in cash forthwith after demand and final audit by the Government of all accounts hereunder in respect of this contract: Provided, however, That in the event of such termination of the contract for other than the fault of the Contractor, such deduction shall not be made prior to final audit unless, and only to the extent that, the Contracting Officer or his duly authorized representative shall determine that such action is reasonably required in order to secure the eventual repayment in full to the Government of such unliquidated advance payments. In the event of cancellation or termination of this contract because of the fault of the Contractor, the Contractor, notwithstanding any ultimate rights to be reimbursed, agrees to return to the Government, upon demand, without set-off of any sums alleged to be due the Contractor, the unliquidated balance of any advance payment. Furthermore, if, in the opinion of the _____ or his duly authorized representative, the unobligated balance of the advance payments made by the Government under paragraph (a) hereof exceeds the amount necessary for the current needs of the Contractor, as determined by the _____ or his duly authorized representative, the amount of such excess shall, upon demand by the _____ or his duly authorized representative, be promptly returned to the Government and will be credited against the balance due the Government on advances previously made. If the demand made in any event set forth in this paragraph is not met upon receipt of such demand by the Contractor, the amount demanded will bear interest at the rate of six percent (6%) per annum from the date of the receipt of the demand until payment is made; Provided, however, That such payment of interest is hereby waived as to any sum paid by the Contractor within 15 days after the amount becomes due hereunder. If and when the Contractor has, by means of deductions or otherwise, reimbursed the Government in full for payments made, any money remaining in the special bank account or accounts shall be free and clear of any lien hereunder and the bank or banks concerned shall have authority to pay same to the Contractor and shall thereupon be relieved of any further obligation to the Government on account thereof.

(f) The Contractor shall, at all times, afford to the Contracting Officer, or his duly authorized representative, proper facilities for the inspection and audit of the Contractor's accounts, and the Contractor hereby agrees that the Contracting Officer, or his duly authorized representative shall have the right so far as the Contractor's rights are concerned, during business hours, to inspect and make copies of any entries in the books and records of the bank or banks relating to the said special account or accounts.

(g) Subject to the approval of the Contracting Officer or his duly authorized representative the Contractor may make payments to subcontractors and materialmen in advance out of the special account, for labor or services, or to pay for materials in advance of delivery at the site of the work or at an approved storage site. Such subadvances shall not exceed ------ per cent (------ %) of the subcontract price or estimated cost, as the case may be, and the subcontractor or materialmen to whom such advances are made shall furnish adequate security therefor. Unless other security is furnished, covenants in subcontracts, expressly made for the benefit of the Government, providing for a subspecial account with Government lien thereon and for a Government lien on or title to property, tangible or intangible, purchased from the special account, and imposing upon the subcontractor substantially the same duties and giving the Government substantially the same rights as are provided herein between the Government and the Contractor, have been prescribed by the Under Secretary of War as minimum adequate security for such subadvances.

(h) Any assignment of moneys due or to become due under this contract shall be subordinate to the rights or claims of the Government arising under this contract or any amendment thereto by virtue of any advance payments authorized herein or otherwise: Provided, That, if at any time any claim arising under this contract is assigned or purportedly assigned in any manner inconsistent with the said rights of the Government, the ---------- or his duly authorized representative shall have the right to suspend further advance payments without notice.

Forcign Purchases

Subparagraph (2) is added to § 81.503 (c) as follows:

§ 81.503 Applicability of Act.

* * * * * *

(c) Acts cognate to the Buy American Act. * * *

(2) By determination of the Under Secretary of War dated February 3, 1943, the restrictions of the Act referred to in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph were suspended as to all articles, materials or supplies constituting, using or containing such articles of food or clothing as were theretofore exempted from the operation of the Buy American Act (for list of such articles of food or clothing, see paragraph (b) of this section).

Interdepartmental Purchases

§ 81.606 is amended to read as follows:

§ 81.606 Purchases under contracts of Procurement Division, Treasury Department—(a) Basic law. The Act of March 3, 1933 provided in part as follows:

* * * Accordingly, the President shall investigate the present organization of all executive and administrative agencies of the Government and shall determine what changes therein are necessary to accomplish the following purposes: * * * To group, coordinate, and consolidate executive and administrative agencies of the Government, as nearly as may be, according to major purposes; * * * To eliminate overlapping and duplication of effort; * * * (47 Stat. 1517; U.S.C. 5:124).

Pursuant to the above Act there was issued under date of June 10, 1933 Executive Order Number 6166 which provides in part as follows:

The function of determination of policies and methods of procurement * * * of property, facilities, structures, improvements, machinery, equipment, stores, and supplies exercised by any agency is transferred to a Procurement Division in the Treasury Department, at the head of which shall be a Director of Procurement. * * * In respect of any kind of procurement * * * for any agency the Procurement Division may, with the approval of the President, (a) undertake the performance of such procurement * * * itself, or (b) permit such agency to perform such procurement * * * or (c) entrust such performance to some other agency, or (d) avail itself in part of any of these recourses, according as it may deem desirable in the interest of economy and efficiency. When the Procurement Division has prescribed the manner of procurement * * * of any thing, no agency shall thereafter procure * * * such thing in any manner other than so prescribed. The execution of work now performed by the Corps of Engineers of the Army shall remain with said corps, subject to the responsibilities herein vested in the Procurement Division. * * *

Under date of April 12, 1935 there was issued by the Procurement Division, Treasury Department, with the approval of the President, a regulation which provides in part as follows:

* * * Those supplies of which the procurement * * * is to be controlled (by the Procurement Division) * * * will be listed and communicated to the executive departments as may be necessary, and thereafter no individual procurement * * * of these articles shall take place except in emergencies. * * *

(b) Requirement. Purchases will be made from contracts of the Procurement Division, Treasury Department (General Schedule of Supplies), when so directed by the chief of the supply service concerned or when required by the terms of the contracts unless the item can not be furnished under such contracts within the time that the item is required by the supply service concerned.

(c) Emergency purchases. In any case where pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section purchase of an item listed in the General Schedule of Supplies, is not made under a General Schedule of Supplies contract because the item could not be furnished under such a contract within the time that the item was required, the voucher submitted to the General Accounting Office will contain, or be accompanied by, a statement showing clearly that the time element made such purchase necessary. It is to be emphasized that a mere conclusion is not sufficient, but a full and complete statement giving the specific reasons why the time element made such purchase necessary should be furnished.

(d) Procedure. Chiefs of supply services are responsible for advising contracting officers as to the terms and conditions of all such contracts and as to whether purchases therefrom are mandatory.

(e) Ratification of purchases not made under contracts of the Procurement Division, Treasury Department. When it appears to his satisfaction that an item listed in the General Schedule of Supplies was not purchased under a contract of the Procurement Division, Treasury Department because the contracting officer overlooked the necessity of purchasing under such a contract the chief of the supply service concerned may ratify such purchase. This will be done, however, only where it appears that the oversight represents an isolated instance and not a continued course of neglect. A statement should be presented to the chief of the supply service setting forth all of the facts including the contract price paid as compared to that payable under the Treasury Department contract and all facts which tend to excuse the failure to purchase under the Treasury Department contract.

(f) Copy of purchase order to Procurement Division, Treasury Department. A copy of each purchase order representing a purchase under a General Schedule of Supplies contract will be forwarded directly to the Procurement Division, Treasury Department, as soon as practicable after the date of issue.

(g) "Schedule of stock items." This publication of the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department lists the items which are carried in stock in the warehouse of that Division in Washington, D. C., primarily to supply the needs in that city. Field agencies of the War Department will not place orders on the Procurement Division for items which are stocked in the warehouse in Washington, D. C., for shipment outside the District of Columbia. This publication should not be distributed to War Department field agencies outside of Washington, D. C.

Section 81.608 is rescinded and the following substituted therefor:

§ 81.608 Purchases from Federal Prison Industries, Inc., Department of Justice—(a) Basic law. The Act of May 27, 1930 provides in part as follows:

The several Federal departments and independent establishments and all other Government institutions of the United States shall purchase at not to exceed current market prices, such products of the industries herein authorized to be carried on as meet their requirements and as may be available * * * (46 Stat. 392; 18 U S C 744g, M. L., 1931, Sec. 1936).

Under date of December 11, 1934, there was issued Executive Order Number 6917 which provides in part as follows:

It is hereby ordered that a corporation of the District of Columbia be and is hereby created, said corporation to be named as Federal Prison Industries, Inc. * * * The principal office of said corporation shall be in the City of Washington, District of Columbia, * * * The heads of the several executive departments, independent establishments and Government owned and Government controlled corporations shall cooperate with the corporation in carrying out its duties and shall purchase, at not to exceed current market prices, the products or services of said industries, to the extent required or permitted by law.

(b) Requirement. It is required that all items manufactured by and all services rendered by, Federal Prison Industries, Inc. be purchased from that agency except where a general or special clearance for the purchase of the items from commercial source has been granted. The following clearance which covers purchases up to June 30, 1933, indicates not only the items as to which such clearance has been granted but also those items which are available and which accordingly must be purchased from Federal Prison Industries, Inc.:

December, 1942.

CLEARANCE

[C-20380]

1 Clearance is granted to purchase from other sources articles manufactured or services rendered by Federal Prison Industries, Inc., not listed above.

2 Clearance is granted to purchase from other sources articles manufactured or services rendered by Federal Prison Industries, Inc., including the items listed above, in the following cases:

(a) By contractors or contracting officers under cost-plus-a-fixed-fee construction or supply contracts;

(b) By contracting officers under fixed-price (lump sum) construction or supply contracts, wherein the Government is required to furnish certain Government materials;

(c) When immediate delivery or performance is required by the public exigency.

(d) When suitable second hand or used articles can be procured.

3 This clearance is to cover purchases made by the War Department only, and is effective for the period January 1, to June 30, 1943, inclusive.

4 Copy of this clearance should be attached to your contract or voucher when transmitted to the General Accounting Office, or reference made thereon to this clearance number.

Very truly yours,
FEDERAL PRISON INDUSTRIES, INC.,
By (Signed) A. H. CONNER,
Associate Commissioner.

NOTE: By letter dated January 14, 1943, Federal Prison Industries, Inc., granted clearance for the purchase from commercial sources of 3C chairs until further notice.

(c) Procedure. Chiefs of supply services are responsible for advising contracting officers as to the detailed procedure for placing orders with Federal Prison Industries, Inc. In general, purchase orders should be forwarded in duplicate to Federal Prison Industries, Inc., Department of Justice, Washington, D. C. Requests for clearances should also be directed to the above agency which, in an emergency, will grant telegraphic clearance.

Section 81.608a is amended as follows:

§ 81.608a Purchases from State Prisons and other correctional institutions. Purchases of items manufactured or produced by State prisons may be made directly from such institutions (Op. Att. Gen. 37739, May 6, 1942, and Let. Pres. May 10, 1942. See also Exec. Order 9196 dated July 9, 1942, and § 81.902 et seq. of these regulations). Likewise, purchases of services rendered by State prisons may be made directly from such institutions. No purchase, however, from a State prison or other correctional institution will be made of a mandatory item appearing in the schedules of the Federal Prisons Industries, Inc. (See § 81.608) without a prior clearance (general or special) from that agency. For purchases by Government contractors, and subcontractors from Federal, State and territorial prisons or prison industries, see § 81.345.

Section 81.609 (b) is amended by adding an item in its proper numerical sequence as follows:

§ 81.609 Purchases under contracts of Post Office Department. * * *

(b) Envelopes authorized for supply to the military service.

Item No.:	Description
*	* * * * *
192. ----	4⅛ x 9½ inches, White, open side.
*	* * * * *

In § 81.610 paragraph (b) is amended and paragraphs (c) and (d) are added as follows:

§ 81.610 Purchases from Government Printing Office. (a) All blank envelopes, blank paper, inks, glues and other supplies manufactured or carried in stock by the Government Printing Office, and which are required for use within the District of Columbia, will be purchased from that office.

(b) All printing, binding and blank book work of either of the following types shall be done in the Government Printing Office in the District of Columbia unless a clearance is obtained from the Public Printer to have the work done elsewhere:

(1) Work intended for the use of components of the War Department located in the District of Columbia.

(2) Work intended for the general use of the War Department and not for the exclusive use of any one component of the War Department.

(c) All printing, binding and blank book work which is intended for the exclusive use of any one component of the War Department located outside of the District of Columbia and which it is impracticable to have done at the Government Printing Office in the District of Columbia, may be done elsewhere without the necessity of obtaining a clearance from the Public Printer. Such work shall be done either:

(1) At field printing plants authorized by the Joint Committee on Printing, or

(2) By commercial firms authorized by the Joint Committee on Printing.

A list of authorized field printing plants and commercial firms is contained in the Regulations of the Joint Committee on Printing Relative to Periodicals and Field Printing. For the certificate which is required to be placed on vouchers involving payments for all printing, binding and blank book work, procured elsewhere than at the Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C., see AR 35–1040[1] and §§ 35.1 to 35.4, inclusive. For all reports required to be filed of all printing, binding and blank book work so procured, see AR 30–2120.[2]

(d) The chiefs of the supply services are authorized to communicate directly with the Government Printing Office through their properly appointed representatives. The Government Printing Office has designated the following persons as War Department Contact Representatives:

Mr. L. Trumbull, Contact Clerk.
Mr. Henry Matheny, Estimator.
GPO Ext. 270 or 342

Federal, State and Local Taxes—Federal Taxes

Section 81.804 is amended as follows:

§ 81.804 Tax exempt sales. Under the regulations of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue (T. D. 5114, approved January 27, 1942) the following sales are exempt from the taxes imposed by Chapter 29 of the Internal Revenue Code: (a) sales of articles to the United States; (b) sales of articles to Government contractors or subcontractors when such articles are incorporated in an article sold to the United States; (c) sales of articles which are incorporated in the building or work constructed, altered, improved or repaired pursuant to a Government contract. Such sales are tax exempt only where the price paid by the Government does not include the tax. (See also § 81.814 as to certain articles consumed in manufacture or construction where the Government receives the benefit of the exemption from tax on such articles). With respect to prime contracts or purchases made after March 1, 1943, and subcontracts or purchases made by contractors or subcontractors on or after that date, see policies outlined in § 81.809a.

Section 81.805 is amended as follows:

§ 81.805 Cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts. (a) Under rulings of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, articles sold to contractors engaged on a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee basis are exempt from the application of the Federal excise taxes since such articles are furnished for the exclusive use of the United States. As a condition to such exemption title to the article purchased by the fixed-fee contractor must ultimately vest in the United States. With respect to purchases by cost-plus-a-fixed-fee subcontractors of articles to be consumed in the performance of the subcontract (see § 81.814), tax exemption can be obtained under present rulings of the Commissioner only by the issuance of a form 1094 by an authorized Government officer (see § 81.812 (b)). With respect to prime contracts or purchases made after March 1, 1943, and subcontracts or purchases made by contractors or subcontractors on or after that date, see policy outlined in § 81.809a.

(b) • • •

In § 81.809a paragraphs (a), (b) (1), and (e) are amended as follows:

§ 81.809a Policies with respect to contracts or purchases made on or after March 1, 1943—(a) Army-Navy joint tax exemption policies with respect to Federal excise taxes. The Under Secretary of War, jointly with the Under Secretary of the Navy, has issued the memorandum dated January 4, 1943, quoted below:

(b) Changes effected by the new policies. The principal changes effected by the new policy are:

(1) Under the new policies fixed price (lump-sum) prime contracts made on or after March 1, 1943 for the acquisition by the War Department of articles subject to Federal excise taxes ("purchase articles") shall in general be made on a price basis which excludes such Federal excise taxes. The Chief of any Supply Service may authorize any contract or class of prime contracts to be made on a price basis which includes such Federal excise taxes.

• • • • •

(e) Changes. The chief of each supply service will make necessary changes in existing bid forms, specifications, and instructions relating to bids and evaluation of contracts to carry out the policies set forth in the memorandum quoted in paragraph (a) of this section. Great care should be exercised in drawing contracts and purchase orders to make certain that their provisions reflect accurately the intention of the parties with respect to taxes and that they are consistent with the policies above mentioned.

Tax Exemption Certificates

In § 81.813 paragraph (a) is amended, paragraph (d) is redesignated paragraph (e), and a new paragraph (d) is added as follows:

§ 81.813 Use of tax exemption certificates. (a) (1) Under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, articles are exempt from the taxes imposed by Chapter 29 of the Internal Revenue Code when such articles are sold on a tax-free basis for the exclusive use of the United States. The tax is imposed upon the manufacturer, producer, or importer. Where the article is sold on a tax-free basis for the exclusive use of the United States by a person other than the manufacturer, producer, or importer, a credit for or a refund of the tax may be obtained.

(2) In accordance with Treasury Decision 5114 dated January 27, 1942, articles are exempt from taxes imposed by Chapters 25 or 29, where such articles are used or incorporated by the purchaser as material in the manufacture or production of, or as a component part of, an article which is to be furnished to the United States Government: Provided, That (i) the price of the article does not include a tax on the sale or transfer thereof under Chapter 25 or 29 of the Internal Revenue Code, (ii) the article is included at such tax-free basis in the price of the article in which it is incorporated and (iii) satisfactory evidence of the exemption is furnished by tax exemption certificate (see paragraph (c) of this section). Under regulations of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, tax exemption certificates are used for the purpose of establishing rights to exemptions (T.D. 5114, January 27, 1942; I. R. Code, sec. 3442) and may be the basis of establishing claims for credits and refunds (I. R. Code, secs. 3442, 3443; Reg. 44, § 314.64 as amended). With respect to prime contracts or purchases made after March 1, 1943, and purchases made by subcontractors on or after that date, see policies outlined in § 81.809a.

(d) Special considerations affecting tax exemption of lubricating oil and gasoline. (1) Lubricating oil or gasoline, when incorporated in a purchase article (as defined in Treasury Decision 5114; see § 81.804a) so as to become a part thereof, constitutes a subsidiary article within the meaning of Treasury Decision 5114, and tax exemption of such oil and gasoline can be obtained pursuant to that Treasury Decision. Thus lubricating oil incorporated as the fluid in hydraulic apparatus constitutes a subsidiary article, where the hydraulic apparatus is purchased as such by the United States under a prime contract or where the hydraulic apparatus is a component part of some other article purchased as such by the United States under a prime contract. However, except as stated in subparagraph (2) below, the term "subsidiary article" does not include lubricating oil consumed in the operation of machinery in manufacturing such hydraulic apparatus.

(2) Lubricating oil or gasoline is also a subsidiary article when sold to a prime contractor for use as equipment, material or supplies in the performance of his prime contract, if payment for the lubricating oil or gasoline is made by the United States, and in other cases where it can be shown that the United States clearly receives the benefit of exemption from the tax. Thus, where the price contract involves the construction of a plant, or the operation and maintenance of a plant, either on the basis of cost-plus-a-fixed-fee or some other basis under which the tax on the gasoline or lubricating oil is not to be included in the cost chargeable to the United States, the gasoline or lubricating oil sold to the prime contractor for use in the performance of such prime contract constitutes a subsidiary article within the meaning of Treasury Decision 5114 and tax exemption of such oil and gasoline can be obtained pursuant to that decision. In such case, the gasoline or lubricating oil is deemed to be incorporated in the subject matter of the prime contract, namely, the plant construction or the plant operation.

(3) Gasoline, lubricating oil and other similar consumable supplies, used under cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts have been and are now exempt. However, such consumable supplies, when constituting subsidiary articles, as in subparagraph (2) above, are only exempt under Treasury Decision 5114 if purchased by a prime contractor. If such consumable supplies are purchased by a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee subcontractor or subsidiary subcontractor, Standard Form No. 1094 must be used in order to secure the exemption from federal excise tax.

(4) With respect to prime contracts or purchases made after March 1, 1943, and subcontracts or purchases made by contractors or subcontractors on or after that date, see policies outlined in § 81.809a.

(e) Tax exemption certificates are also used for establishing exemptions from state and local taxes. In such cases certificates should be prepared in accordance with the requirements of the particular state or local tax officials concerned. Except as provided in § 81.815 (a) no tax exemption certificate should be issued with respect to a state or local tax unless the contract shows that the price paid by the Government is exclusive of the tax to which the certificate pertains or unless the contractor consents to the deduction of such tax from the contract price and the acceptance of the tax exemption certificate in lieu thereof.

Items Subject to Federal Excise Taxes

Section 81.817 is amended as follows:

§ 81.817 Federal retailers' excise taxes. The items on which Federal Retailers' Excise Taxes are imposed are listed below. The tax is in the amount of 10 per centum of the price for which sold, and the taxes are effective as of October 1, 1941.

(3) Under an agreement between the War Department and the Bureau of Internal Revenue it has been agreed that the latter will not attempt to collect taxes under Chapter 19 of the Internal Revenue Code on sales of jewelry, furs, and toilet preparations to members of the armed forces and their families and to civilian employees permanently employed on military posts, when such sales are made in army commissaries. The War Department in turn agreed that sales of such articles in army commissaries would not be made to casual laborers or temporary employees on military posts.

Section 81.817a is added as follows:

§ 81.817a Bituminous coal tax. An excise tax of one cent per ton upon the sale of bituminous coal is imposed by Section 3520 of the Internal Revenue Code. The tax does not apply to the sale of coal for the exclusive use of the United States or any subdivision thereof or for use in the performance of Governmental functions. The Treasury Department has prescribed a special form of exemption certificate to be issued to the party from whom such coal is purchased in order to support claim for tax exemption, or for tax refund if the tax has already been paid. The exemption certificate should be substantially in the following form:

---------- , 194..

The undersigned hereby certifies that he is a ---------- , ----------,

Grade Branch of Service or Supply Service

United States Army, assigned to War Department Contract No. W-----, and that he is authorized to execute this certificate and that the bituminous coal specified in the accompanying order or contract, or on the reverse side hereof, is purchased from ---------- for the exclusive use of the War Department ----------

Name of Vendor

---------- of the United States Government, for use in the performance of essential Governmental functions.

It is understood that the exemption from tax in the case of sales of bituminous coal to the United States, is limited to such coal purchased for its exclusive use for use in the performance of essential Governmental functions, and it is agreed that if coal purchased tax-free under this Exemption Certificate is used otherwise or is sold to employees or others, the vendee will report such fact to the vendor. It is also understood that the fraudulent use of this certificate to secure exemption will subject the undersigned and all guilty parties to a fine of not more than $10 000 or to imprisonment for not more than five years, or both, together with cost of prosecution.

Title of Officer

The Treasury Department (March 24, 1941) ruled that the excise tax does not apply to sales made to contractors in connection with work performed under cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts with the Government. All exemption certificates above mentioned will be executed only by officers designated to execute tax exemption certificates on standard form No. 1094 (see § 81.812 (b)).

Adjustments of Contracts Because of Changed Federal Excises

Section 81.820 is added as follows:

§ 81.820 Freight tax (tax on transportation of property) imposed by the Revenue Act of 1942. No increase will be made in the price payable under a contract executed prior to December 1, 1942 and containing a tax article substantially in the form set out in § 81.357, by reason of the imposition of a freight tax (tax on transportation of property imposed under section 3475 of the Internal Revenue Code; Revenue Act of 1942, sec. 620) on freight charges which the contractor is bound to pay in accordance with the contract. (See Op. Comp. Gen. B-30754, dated January 2, 1943).

Federal Transportation Taxes

Sections 81.821 and 81.822 are added as follows:

§ 81.821 Transportation of property—(a) Freight tax of 1942. Section 3475 of the Internal Revenue Code (inserted by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942) imposes a tax of 3% upon the amount paid within the United States on and after December 2, 1942 for transportation of property on or after December 1, 1942, by rail, motor vehicle, water, or air from one point in the United States to another. In the case of coal, the rate of tax four cents per short ton. The tax applies only to amounts paid to persons engaged in the business of transporting property for hire, including freight forwarders and express companies, but not including amounts paid to forwarders and express companies for transportation for which a tax has previously been paid under the section. The tax does not apply to amounts paid by the United States or any of its agencies or instrumentalities for transportation of property. The tax is imposed upon the person making the payment subject to the tax. [See Treasury Regulations 113, 1943 ed., 8 Fed. Reg. 1433]

(b) Exemptions from the tax. The following payments are exempt:

(1) Amounts paid for transportation on a government bill of lading, or a commercial bill of lading, later converted to a government bill of lading.

(2) Amounts paid directly by the United States for transportation.

(3) Amounts paid for transportation shown to be intended for export.

No exemption certificates are necessary where the payment is by Government check or the shipment is made by Government bill of lading or converted bill of lading.

(c) Cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts. The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has ruled informally that the tax will apply to amounts paid by cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractors for transportation of property even though the Government is bound to reimburse the contractor. Shipments to a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractor on government bill of lading, are however exempt (see paragraph (b) of this section). Contracting officers in administering cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts needs not for the sole purpose of avoiding the payment of the Transportation tax arrange to pay transportation charges directly. Cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractors paying this transportation tax on transportation charges incurred in the performance of their contract will be reimbursed for the amount of the tax so paid. However, cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractors will not be authorized to reimburse their suppliers for the payment of this transportation tax under existing contracts or purchase orders, unless such existing subcontracts or purchase orders, as presently written, expressly authorize an adjustment of the price of the item in the event a tax is imposed on transportation.

§ 81.822 Transportation of persons. Section 3469 of the Internal Revenue Code, inserted by the Revenue Act of 1941 sec. 554 (b) as amended by section 609 of Revenue Act of 1942, imposes an excise tax of 10% upon the transportation of persons. The tax does not apply to the payment of transportation furnished to the United States. This exemption includes amounts paid for transportation of personnel of the War Department when traveling on official business. It applies also when such amounts are paid by such personnel traveling on a mileage or other allowance basis, where reimbursement is made to such personnel by the Government (See I. R. Regs. 42, §·130.61). Exemption from this tax is secured by executing Form 731 Revised October, 1941. Members of the military or naval forces traveling in uniform of the United States on official leave, furlough or pass and paying special fares at a rate of not more than 1¼ cents a mile, are exempt from payment of tax. The Bureau of Internal Revenue has ruled that transportation furnished to employees of cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractors traveling exclusively upon Government business is not subject to this tax when the cost of the travel is reimbursable under the contract.

Labor—Convict Labor Law

Section 81.903 (a) is amended as follows:

§ 81.903 Application of basic statutes. (a) The prohibitions contained in the foregoing provisions of this section do not apply to the following purchases:

(1) Purchases of items manufactured, or services rendered, by Federal Prison Industries, Inc. (see § 81.608).

(2) Purchases of items manufactured or produced, or of services rendered, by State Prisons or other correctional State institutions (see § 81.608a).

The Joint Statement of December 26, 1942 of the National War Labor Board and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue: Procedure for Wage and Salary Adjustments by State, County, and Municipal Governments and Agencies Thereof quoted in § 81.976m (8 FR 2540) is removed from that section and the following substituted therefor:

§ 81.976m Statutory salaries and wages. • • •

On December 26, 1942, the National War Labor Board and Commissioner of Internal Revenue issued a joint statement which effected changes of the procedure provided for in the joint statement of the Board and Commissioner of November 12, 1942, quoted above. The joint statement of December 26, 1942, took the form of General Order No. 12–A, the text of which may be found in § 81.980*l*.

Section 81.977*ll* as published in the FEDERAL REGISTER March 2, 1943 (8 F.R. 2541) is redesignated § 81.977aaa and a new § 81.977*ll* is added as follows:

§ 81.977*ll* Functions and jurisdictions of the Salary Stabilization Unit and its regional offices. On January 19, 1943, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue issued seventeen procedural regulations relating to the functions and jurisdictions of the Salary Stabilization Unit and its Regional Offices. These regulations are set forth in the succeeding paragraphs which are designated paragraphs (a) to (q), inclusive.

(a) Duties of Deputy Commissioner.

1 Duties of Deputy Commissioner. The Deputy Commissioner, Salary Stabilization Unit, will exclusively represent the Commissioner in administering those provisions of the Executive Order of October 3, 1942 (No. 9250) and the Director's and Commissioner's regulations issued thereunder which relate to the stabilization and limitation of salaries in excess of $5,000 per annum, and of salaries not in excess of $5,000 per annum paid to executive, administrative, and professional employees not represented by a recognized labor organization.

(b) Regional offices. See § 81.977c (a) for a list of the regional offices of the Salary Stabilization Unit, their addresses and jurisdictions.

(c) Regional officers and employees.

3 Regional officers and employees. Each salary stabilization office will be under the immediate supervision of a head, who will perform his duties under the direction of the Deputy Commissioner, and will represent the Commissioner and Deputy Commissioner in administering, within the territory assigned to his office, the above-specified provisions of Executive Order 9250 and the regulations issued thereunder. Each salary stabilization office may also have an assistant head, a counsel, and such number of conferees, clerks, and other employees as the Deputy Commissioner may from time to time find necessary.

(d) Applications for approval of salary adjustments.

4. Applications for approval of salary adjustments. (a) Except as provided in subparagraphs (b) and (c) hereof, every application under §§ 1002.13, 1002.15, or 1002.16 of the Salary Stabilization Regulations,[1] for approval of an increase or decrease in a salary rate within the Commissioner's jurisdiction, shall be submitted by the employer on Form SSU 1 in triplicate, or in any alternative manner authorized by the instructions on that form, to the head of the regional office serving the area within which the employer's principal office or place of business is located, and shall be within that officer's jurisdiction; but jurisdiction of any such application may, by direction of the Deputy Commissioner, be transferred to any other regional office. If under exceptional circumstances he deems it necessary in the interest of efficient administration, the Deputy Commissioner may also assume original jurisdiction of any application.

(b) If the Commissioner has delegated to any other officer or agency his authority to approve or disapprove adjustments in the salaries of employees of any class or group, applications for approval of such adjustments shall be made to the officer or agency to whom such authority has been delegated, in the form and manner prescribed by such officer or agency.[2]

(c) No application or notice to the Commissioner will be required for adjustments in the salaries of employees of State or local governments, if made to correct maladjustments, inequalities, or gross inequities.

[CROSS REFERENCE: See § 81.976m]

(e) Applications for approval of salary-rate schedules.

5. Applications for approval of salary-rate schedules. Every application for approval of a proposed new salary-rate schedule or proposed general modification of an existing salary-rate schedule shall be submitted by the employer in triplicate to the head of the regional office within whose territorial jurisdiction the employee's principal office or place of business is located. Jurisdiction of any such application may be transferred to another regional office or assumed by the Deputy Commissioner as provided in paragraph 4 (a) hereof. After approval by the head of a regional office or by the Deputy Commissioner, a new or modified salary-rate schedule will have the same effect, in obviating the necessity for approval of individual salary-rate changes, as a salary-rate schedule in effect October 3, 1942.

(f) Applications for rulings respecting exemptions.

6. Applications for rulings respecting exemptions. Every application for a ruling as to whether a proposed salary adjustment is exempt from the requirements of the Director's and Commissioner's regulations relative to prior approval by the Commissioner shall be submitted by the employer on Form SSU 2 in triplicate to the head of the regional office serving the area within which the employer's principal office or place of business is located, and shall be within that officer's jurisdiction, subject to the provisions of paragraph 4 (a) hereof regarding transfers of jurisdiction and assumption of jurisdiction by the Deputy Commissioner.

(g) Applications for authorization of salaries in excess of the $25,000 limit.

7. Applications for authorization of salaries in excess of the $25,000 limit. Every application under §§ 1002.19 to 1002.22 of the Salary Stabilization Regulations,[1] for authorization of a salary in excess of the $25,000 limit, shall be submitted by the employee on Form SSU 3 in triplicate to the head of the regional office serving the area within which the place of employment is located, and shall be supported by a statement, signed by the applicant's employer, as to the salary which, except for the limitation prescribed by the general regulations of the Economic Stabilization Director (§ 1002.18 of the Salary Stabilization Regulations),[1] would be paid to the applicant. Such applications shall be subject to the provisions of paragraph 4 (a) hereof relative to transfers of jurisdiction and assumption of jurisdiction by the Deputy Commissioner.

(h) Signature and verification of applications.

8. Signature and verification of applications. Every application shall be signed by the applicant, or in the applicant's name by a duly authorized person; shall set forth fully the facts on which it is based, as required by the appropriate application form; and shall be sworn to before a deputy collector, notary public, or other officer authorized to administer oaths. If the applicant is a partnership, the application shall be executed in the partnership's name by one of the partners. If the applicant is a corporation, the application shall be executed in the name of the corporation by one of its principal officers. Statements of fact made in any application may be verified by the head of the regional office having jurisdiction, insofar as he deems it necessary and practicable under the circumstances. For that purpose he may refer an application for investigation to the appropriate internal revenue agent in charge, special agent in charge, or collector of internal revenue, and may require such further evidence in substantiation of the statements made in the application as he may deem necessary in order to reach a decision thereon.

(i) Conferences.

9. Conferences. The head of the regional office having jurisdiction of an application or any of his legal or technical assistants, may grant a conference to the applicant or his representative. At any such conference the applicant may be represented by a responsible officer or supervisory employee without special authorization. Any other representative must submit a power of attorney authorizing him to represent the applicant.

(j) Authority of heads of regional offices.

10. Authority of heads of regional offices. The head of the regional office having jurisdiction of any application will have authority to approve or disapprove it for the Commissioner, wholly or in part, and his decision shall be deemed to be the Commissioner's determination under § 4001.4 of the general regulations of the Economic Stabilization Director[1] (§§ 1002.10 and 1002.11 of the Salary Stabilization Regulations)[2] unless and until modified or reversed as provided in paragraphs 13 to 15 hereof; but any such decision may be set aside by the Commissioner if he finds that it has been arrived at through fraud, collusion, or misrepresentation of a material fact.

(k) Decisions and rulings.

11. Decisions and rulings. (a) Every decision approving or disapproving, wholly or in part, an increase or decrease in a salary rate, a new or modified salary agreement or salary-rate schedule, or a salary allowance in excess of the $25,000 limit, will be set forth in a memorandum, to be known as a "decision memorandum," which will show the name and address of the applicant, the precise nature of the proposed action for which the Commissioner's approval is requested, and the decision with respect thereto. Every such memorandum will be signed by the head of the regional office, or by the Deputy Commissioner, in his own name, following the words "By direction of the Commissioner." The original will be transmitted promptly to the applicant, and copies of decisions made by the heads of regional offices will be forwarded promptly to the Deputy Commissioner. Every decision memorandum approving an application, wholly or in part, will be supported by a concise statement, on a separate sheet, of the reasons for approval. Every adverse decision memorandum will be accompanied by a copy of the regional office's letter to the applicant disapproving his application, which letter will include a concise statement of the reasons for disapproval. If an additional salary allowance to an employee is authorized under §§ 1002.19 to 1002.22 of the Salary Stabilization Regulations,[3] the head of the regional office will send the employer a notice stating the additional salary authorized to be paid by such employer. If the employee to whom such an allowance is granted receives salaries from two or more employers, such a notice will be sent to each employer. For this purpose an additional allowance granted to an employee receiving salary from more than one source will be allocated among his employers as requested by him. Copies of decision memorandums will also be furnished to such officers of the Internal Revenue Bureau and other Government agencies as the Commissioner may from time to time direct.

(b) Rulings with respect to exemptions will be prepared, signed, and dispatched by heads of regional offices, or by the Deputy Commissioner, in the same manner as decision memorandums.

12 Determinations respecting salaries paid. (a) On request of any collector of internal revenue agent in charge, or special agent in charge whose office is located within the territorial jurisdiction of any salary stabilization office, the head thereof will determine whether any salary payment within the Commissioner's jurisdiction was made in contravention of the regulations of the Economic Stabilization Director and the Commissioner, and will set forth his finding in a decision memorandum as provided in paragraph 11 (a) hereof. If he finds that any such payment is not in contravention of the regulations, he will send his decision memorandum to the officer making the request (at the same time forwarding as many copies thereof to the Deputy Commissioner, Salary Stabilization Unit, as that officer may prescribe). If he finds that any such payment is in contravention of the regulations, he will submit his decision memorandum to the Deputy Commissioner for approval before transmitting it to the officer making the request. If, in the judgment of the head of the regional office, there is serious doubt as to whether any payment is or is not in contravention of the regulations, he may request advice from the Deputy Commissioner before making a decision. Unless and until modified or reversed as provided in paragraphs 13 to 15 hereof, a determination by the head of a regional office of the Salary Stabilization Unit shall be deemed to be the Commissioner's determination under § 4001.4 of the Director's general regulations[1] (§§ 1002.10 and 1002.11 of the Salary Stabilization Regulations).[4]

(b) At the direction of the Commissioner, similar determinations will be made at the request of duly authorized officers of any other Government agency.

(m) Reconsideration and review of decisions.

13. Reconsideration and review of decisions. An applicant whose application is disapproved, wholly or in part, by the head of a regional office may submit to the Deputy Commissioner, through such regional head, a request for review thereof. Every such request shall set forth fully the grounds on which it is based, insofar as such grounds are not stated in the original application. The head of the regional office having jurisdiction will examine every such request, and if it states facts not previously submitted to him, he may reconsider the application, may verify such statements insofar as he deems it necessary and practicable, and may modify his prior decision if he finds that the facts warrant such action. If thereafter the applicant adheres to his request for review, the head of the regional office will forward it to the Deputy Commissioner with a concise statement of the reasons for disapproval or partial disapproval of the application.

(n) Review of application.

14. On receipt in the Deputy Commissioner's office, every such request for review will be examined to determine whether or not it makes a prima facie showing of error on the part of the head of the regional office. If in the Deputy Commissioner's judgment it does not do so, the request will be denied. If in the Deputy Commissioner's judgment it does so, a hearing by the Deputy Commissioner or his representative may be arranged for the earliest practicable date. At any such hearing the applicant may be represented as provided in paragraph 9 hereof.

(o) Action by Deputy Commissioner.

15. If the Deputy Commissioner does not approve a decision of the head of a regional office, he may refer it back to such head for reconsideration, or may modify or reverse it by means of a decision memorandum signed in his own name following the words "By direction of the Commissioner." He will also sign a similar decision memorandum with respect to every application of which he assumes original jurisdiction.

(p) Effect of modification or reversal.

16. Effect of modification or reversal. If a decision with respect to any application is modified on reconsideration by the head of a regional office, or is modified or reversed by the Deputy Commissioner, such modification or reversal shall, from its effective date, be deemed to be the determination of the Commissioner under § 4001.4 of the general regulations of the Economic Stabilization Director[3] (§§ 1002.10 and 1002.11 of the Salary Stabilization Regulations)[4] but no modification or reversal of a prior decision shall take effect before the first day of the pay roll period immediately following the date of such modification or reversal.

(q) Purposes of regulations.

17. Purposes of regulations. The purposes of the salary stabilization regulations of the Economic Stabilization Director and the Commissioner, as stated in Executive Order 9250, approved October 3, 1942, are to stabilize the cost of living in accordance with the Act of October 2, 1942, and to aid in the prosecution of the war. In order to carry out those purposes, salary rates prevailing on September 15, 1942, should not be increased or decreased unless necessary to correct maladjustments, inequalities or gross inequities, or to aid in the effective prosecution of the war. Heads of regional offices will keep those purposes constantly in mind in performing the duties imposed on them by this mimeograph.

Paragraph (a) is hereby added to § 81.977aaa previously published as § 81.977*ll* (8 F.R. 2541).

• • • • •

(a) Government-owned, privately-operated facilities. The Government-owned, privately operated facilities embraced within the delegation to the War Department Agency from the Commission of Internal Revenue are identical with those covered by the delegation from the National War Labor Board to the War Department Agency. For the names of such Government-owned, privately-operated facilities see § 81.980n (b).

Section 81.979 is amended as follows:

§ 81.979 Procedure in cases of voluntary applications for wage adjustments by private employers; coverage of this statement.

Procedure in cases of voluntary applications for wage adjustments by private employers; coverage of this statement. The term "wages," wherever used in this statement, shall be deemed to include salaries insofar as approval of the adjustment thereof has been made a function of the National War Labor Board.

I. THE SET-UP IN THE REGIONS

1. There are established 10 regional offices of the National War Labor Board, to be located in the 10 regional offices of the Office for Emergency Management, the list of which is appended hereto.

2. Each regional office of the Board will be headed by a full-time representative of the National War Labor Board, to be appointed by the Board and to be known as "Regional Director for the National War Labor Board." Each office will be supplied with an appropriate staff.

3. Each Regional Director will have an advisory board composed of representatives of labor, employers, and the public, to be appointed by the National War Labor Board.

4. Attached to each regional office will be tripartite panels composed of representatives of labor, employers and the public, to be appointed by the National War Labor Board. If the pressure of work in any region necessitates, tripartite panels may sit simultaneously, under the general administrative direction of the Regional Director. The primary responsibility of the Regional Director and the tripartite panels shall be to handle voluntary applications for wage adjustments with the utmost expedition consistent with the proper carrying out of the Board's wage policies.

5 In the handling of all wage cases the Regional Directors, and the tripartite panels, are charged with the obligation of executing the Board's wage policies, and they shall have no policy-making powers.

6 Pursuant to the policy of interdepartmental cooperation laid down in Section 2 of Title III of Executive Order No. 9250, the facilities of the offices of the Wage and Hour Division of the Department of Labor as hereinafter more fully described, are available to the Board as information centers and as headquarters for the filing out of application forms, for the use of the National War Labor Board's Regional Directors, and panels, in voluntary wage adjustment cases. In such capacities the offices of the Wage and Hour Division will be acting as the Board's agents.

7 The general procedure in cases of voluntary wage adjustments by private employers will be as follows (subject to certain exceptions which will hereinafter be noted):

(a) The application form shall be filed in an office of the Wage and Hour Division, and shall be transmitted by said office to the Regional Director of the National War Labor Board for that region.

(b) The initial ruling on the application will then be made by said Regional Director.

(c) If any party to the application disagrees with said ruling, the application will be referred to, and passed on by a tripartite panel.

8. The detailed procedure in such cases, including the appellate and the reviewing functions of the National War Labor Board, are set forth below.

II THE HANDLING OF PRELIMINARY INQUIRIES ABOUT JURISDICTION

1. An employer or a union (or an employee or a group of employees not represented by a union with respect thereto) directly concerned in a proposed wage adjustment, if uncertain whether under the applicable regulations and orders the proposed adjustment can be made without Board approval, may ask the nearest office of the Wage and Hour Division of the Department of Labor in the region for an informal ruling. Said office shall then issue a written ruling, as agent of the National War Labor Board, and send copies thereof to the person or persons who made the inquiry and to the Regional Director of said Board for his information.

2. If said ruling is that the proposed wage adjustment is of a sort which may be made without the approval of the National War Labor Board, then:

(a) The ruling shall be deemed to be an authoritative act of the Board through its agent for that purpose, and shall remain in effect unless reversed as provided below.

(b) If the Board's Regional Director, on receipt of the ruling from the office of the Wage and Hour Division, reverses it, he shall promptly notify the person or persons who made the inquiry that the adjustment is of a sort which requires approval. If in the meantime the employer has made the adjustment, relying upon the ruling by the office of the Wage and Hour Division that it did not need Board approval, then:

(i) the adjustment may be continued in effect for a period of ten days following the issuance of the Regional Director's ruling, within which period the employer may file with the office of the Wage and Hour Division (jointly with a duly recognized collective bargaining agency, or by himself, as previously provided), an application for approval of the adjustment.

(ii) if such an application is so filed, the adjustment may be further continued in effect until and unless it is finally disapproved under the Board's procedure. Such disapproval shall take effect only from the date of the issuance of the order of disapproval.

3. If the office of the Wage and Hour Division to which an inquiry has been addressed, as aforesaid, rules that the proposed adjustment is of a sort which cannot properly be made without the approval of the National War Labor Board, the ruling shall be deemed to be an authoritative act of the Board through said office as the Board's agent for that purpose. The person or persons who made the inquiry may seek from the Board's Regional Director a reversal of the ruling by the Wage and Hour Division office. The Regional Director's ruling on the question so submitted shall be final.

III. THE FILING OF APPLICATIONS FOR APPROVAL OF WAGE ADJUSTMENTS

1. Each application, when made, shall be filed with the nearest office of the Wage and Hour Division in the region as the agent of the National War Labor Board for that purpose. All applications shall be made upon appropriate forms prepared by the National War Labor Board.

2. Applications may be of two sorts. The first sort is where approval is sought of an adjustment which has been agreed upon by the parties or has been awarded in an arbitration proceeding. In such cases the application for approval may be signed by any party (or jointly by any or all the parties) to the contract or arbitration proceeding. The application shall state whether all the parties to the contract or arbitration proceeding have signed the application, and shall state the name and address of each party who has not signed the application. If there be any such party who has not signed, the Wage and Hour Division office with which the application was filed shall, as agent of the Board, before acting on the application, send said party a notice of the application. The notice shall request the party to state whether he contests the fact of the contract or arbitration award having been made. If, within seven days of the sending of the notice, he has not filed a statement contesting such fact, or if he files a statement admitting it, the application will then be acted on. If he contests the fact of the contract or award having been made, the matter will be treated as a dispute case and referred to the Conciliation Service of the Department of Labor, unless (a) the contract or award was in writing, (b) the writing or a certified or otherwise authenticated copy thereof has been produced, and (c) the office of the Wage and Hour Division is satisfied that no substantial question exists as to the party being a party thereto. Where the Wage and Hour Division is so satisfied, it shall rule accordingly and proceed with the handling of the application. The ruling may be reviewed (on petition of the protesting party) by the Regional Director of the National War Labor Board when the application is transmitted to him. His ruling shall be final.

3. The second sort of application is where an employer on his own initiative wishes to make a wage adjustment. In such cases the application shall be signed either (a) jointly by the employer and a duly recognized collective bargaining agency for any or all of the employees who are to be affected by the proposed wage adjustment, or (b) by the employer alone. In either case the application shall state whether or not there is a duly recognized collective bargaining agency (for any or all of the affected employees) which has not joined with the employer in the application. If it appears that there is such an organization which has not so joined, the office of the Wage and Hour Division, to which the application has been submitted, shall, as agent of the Board, before acting on the application, send to the appropriate local officials of such organization a notice of the application, requesting the organization, if it has any objections to the application being acted upon, so to inform the office. If no such objections are filed within seven days of the sending of the notice, or if the organization in question states that it has no objections, the application will then be acted upon. If objections are made within said period, the matter will be treated as a dispute case and referred to the Conciliation Service of the Department of Labor.

4. In cases where the employer has signed or joined in signing, an application for approval of a wage increase, he shall state in the application whether he intends to make the proposed wage increases, if it is approved, the basis of an application to the Office of Price Administration for an adjustment of his maximum prices or for an amendment of the regulations establishing those prices.

5. In cases where the employer has not signed, or joined in signing, an application for approval of a wage increase, he shall be requested, in the notice of the filing of the application which the Wage and Hour Division office is required to send him under paragraph (2) above, to state whether he intends to make the proposed wage increase. If it is approved, the basis of an application to the Office of Price Administration for an adjustment of his maximum prices or for an amendment of the regulations establishing those prices. He shall be asked to make this statement (a) within seven days of the sending of said notice, or (b) if (as described in paragraph (2) above) he contests the fact of the agreement or arbitration award having been made, within seven days of any ruling by the Wage and Hour Division finding him to be a party to said agreement or arbitration award.

6. If the employer states that he intends to make the proposed wage increase (if it is approved) the basis of an application to the Office of Price Administration for an adjustment of his maximum prices or for an amendment of the regulations establishing those prices, (a) his statement shall be entered in an appropriate place on the application for a wage increase before the application is acted on by the Regional Director as provided below, and (b) the employer will be required to furnish further information, the nature and effect of which will be set forth hereinafter under (V).

7. When an application has been submitted to an office of the Wage and Hour Division, and no preliminary inquiry about jurisdiction has been made under (II) above, the office shall first make certain that the application is of a sort which needs the approval of the National War Labor Board. If the office believes that approval is not or may not be required by the applicable regulations and orders, the office shall proceed under (II) above exactly as if the applicant had asked for a preliminary ruling on jurisdiction. If no jurisdictional question is involved, or if there is such a question but it has been cleared up under (II) above, the office of the Wage and Hour Division shall then proceed with the application. In so doing, its function shall be as agent of the National War Labor Board for that purpose, to see to it that the appropriate forms prepared by the Board are fully and accurately filled out. When this has been done, the application shall be transmitted by said office to the nearest Regional Director of the National War Labor Board.

8. Upon receipt of the application, the Regional Director shall consider it. Before acting on it, he shall first make certain that it is the kind of application which requires Board approval (unless this question has already been ruled upon and determined under (II) above). If he concludes that the application does not require Board approval, he shall make a written ruling to that effect and send copies to the applicant or applicants. If he concludes that the application is of a sort which does require Board approval, he shall proceed to act upon it as provided in (IV) below. In any case the Regional Director, before acting, may obtain further needed information informally from the applicant or applicants or from the Wage and Hour Division, or refer the application back to the Wage and Hour Division office for such further information as he may specify. In each case the Regional Director shall send a copy of the application to the Office of Price Administration for its information.

III A. APPLICATION BY EMPLOYERS' ASSOCIATION FOR APPROVAL OF WAGE OR SALARY ADJUSTMENT

Application for approval of a wage or salary adjustment may be made on a form approved by the National War Labor Board on behalf of more than one employer by an employers' association or other similar organization. Such an application may be executed by the appropriate representative of the association or other similar organization acting on behalf of all such employers.

The application shall state in addition to the other matters required by Section III, 3, the name and address of each employer on whose behalf it is made and who has not signed the application. The Wage and Hour Division Office with which the application is filed shall, as agent of the Board, before acting on the application send to each such employer a notice of the application.

The notice shall request the employer to state whether he has authorized the applicant to file the application on his behalf. If, within seven days of the sending of the notice, he has not filed a statement contesting the authorization, or if he files a statement admitting it, the application will then be acted on. If he contests the fact of authorization, he will not be considered as a party to the application.

In all other respects the procedure set forth in "Procedure in Cases of Voluntary Applications for Wage Adjustments by Private Employers" shall obtain, and the word "employer" wherever used therein shall, for the purpose of this Addendum, include "employers' association or other similar organization."

IV DISPOSITION OF APPLICATIONS FOR APPROVAL OF WAGE INCREASES IN WHICH THE APPLICATION INDICATES THAT NO PRICE RELIEF WILL BE SOUGHT IF APPROVAL IS GRANTED

1. The Regional Director shall rule upon the application subject to the rights of review hereinafter set forth, and subject to his right to refer any case for decision with his recommendation, to a tripartite panel in the region or to the National War Labor Board, if he believes that the case is sufficiently important from a stabilization point of view, or presents sufficiently serious and doubtful questions of interpretation of Board policy, to justify such action. In any case, whether the ruling be made by the Regional Director or by a panel, the Board shall have power, as set forth more fully hereinafter, to reopen the matter on its own initiative and to set aside any ruling.

2. If the Regional Director approves an application his ruling shall be final, subject to the Board's ultimate power of review just referred to.

3. If a panel to whom the Regional Director has referred an application approves it, the ruling shall be final, subject to the Board's ultimate power of review just referred to.

4. If the Regional Director disapproves the application (or approves a lesser increase than that requested) the applicant, or any applicant if there be more than one, may within ten days after the date of the issuance of the ruling file with the Regional Director a petition for a review. The Regional Director shall refer the petition to a tripartite panel.

5. Any ruling by the panel upon review, approving the application, shall be final, subject to the Board's ultimate power of review referred to above.

6. If a panel, in ruling upon an application which the Regional Director has referred to it for decision, or which the panel has received for review upon petition, disapproves the application (or approves a lesser increase than that requested), the ruling shall be final, subject (a) to the Board's ultimate power to review rulings on its own initiative, as set forth above, and (b) to the right of any member of the panel to refer the ruling to the Board for review if he believes the case of sufficient importance to justify action by the Board.

7. Copies of all rulings made by Regional Directors and by panels shall be promptly transmitted to the Executive Secretary of the National War Labor Board for analysis by a review division, whose duty it will be to lay before the Board, for such action as the Board may care to take, all rulings which involve serious questions of policy or which may affect price ceilings as provided below.

8. Any ruling by a Regional Director or by a panel shall be deemed to be the act of the Board unless and until reversed by the Board; and any such reversal shall take effect only from the date of its issuance, Provided, however, That if a ruling denying an application for permission to make a wage adjustment is over-ruled, the final ruling shall incorporate as the effective date of the increase that which was specified in the application as the effective date.

V. DISPOSITION OF APPLICATIONS FOR APPROVAL OF WAGE INCREASES IN WHICH THE APPLICATION STATES THAT HE INTENDS TO MAKE THE PROPOSED WAGE INCREASE IF IT IS APPROVED, THE BASIS OF AN APPLICATION TO THE OFFICE OF PRICE ADMINISTRATION FOR AN ADJUSTMENT OF HIS MAXIMUM PRICES OR FOR AN AMENDMENT OF THE REGULATIONS ESTABLISHING THOSE PRICES

1. The procedure shall be the same as in the cases described under (IV) above, except that

(a) The employer, at the time of the filing of the application for approval of a wage increase, or (if the application was not signed by him) at the time of filing his statement that he intends to seek price relief if the wage increase is approved, shall state fully, upon a form approved by the National War Labor Board, the relationship between the proposed wage increase and the employer's price situation, and what the effect would be on the employer's business if wages were increased without price relief. A copy of said form shall be sent with the application to the Office of Price Administration. Copies of any forms which the Office of Price Administration may require the employer to fill out, and which have been supplied for that purpose by said Office to the Wage and Hour Division offices, shall also be sent with a copy of the application to the Office of Price Administration.

(b) Copies of all rulings of Regional Directors, panels or the Board, approving or disapproving such applications shall be sent to the Office of Price Administration as well as to the applicant or applicants.

(c) If the application for a wage increase is approved, the ruling shall state that it will become effective only on final approval by the Board and, when required by the provisions of Executive Order No. 9250, by the Economic Stabilization Director.

Section 81.979a is amended as follows:

Section 81.979e is added as follows:

§ 81.979e National War Labor Board Decentralization Plan. On January 6, 1943, the National War Labor Board issued its decentralization plan consisting of six major points which are set forth in the succeeding paragraphs of this section.

(a) Reconstitution of the present Regional Advisory Councils as Regional War Labor Boards.

Reconstitution of the present Regional Advisory Councils as Regional War Labor Boards. Each Council will be designated as a Regional War Labor Board and will be reconstituted as follows:

(1) Each of the four industry and the four labor representatives will have an alternate member to be appointed by the National War Labor Board.

(2) The present Regional Director will become a public member of the Board and its Chairman. The authority now vested in him to rule on applications for voluntary wage and salary adjustments will be assigned to a Regional Wage Stabilization Director appointed by the National War Labor Board. It will be the duty of the Chairman, among other things, to supervise the work of the Wage Stabilization Director and to keep the Board, the staff, and the Board's panels informed of the policies and rulings of the National War Labor Board.

(3) At least one of the public members, in addition to the Chairman, will be full-time-salaried members of the Board. If there are not sufficient public members of the present Council who are in a position to accept the full-time positions which the National War Labor Board will designate, the National War Labor Board will appoint additional public members as needed. The National War Labor Board will then designate these four of the public members who will be the regular members of the Regional Board; the remainder will be alternates. One of the regular members will be appointed Vice Chairman.

(4) The staff of each Board, in addition to the wage Stabilization Director, will consist of a Director of the Disputes Division, and such other assistants as the National War Labor Board may approve.

(5) The National War Labor Board, after considering the recommendations of the Regional War Labor Board, will appoint a number of tripartite panels in appropriate places throughout the region to serve in dispute cases as hereinafter described.

(6) A quorum of the Regional War Labor Board will be six members in equal tripartite composition.

(b) Procedure in dispute cases not involving wages.

Procedure in dispute cases not involving wages. (a) A dispute in a particular region, when collective bargaining has failed, will as heretofore be assigned by the Department of Labor to one of its conciliators. This dispute will remain in conciliation until it is settled, or certified to the National War Labor Board under the provisions of Executive Order 9017. Upon its certification the Regional War Labor Board will be notified and the case will be considered by a new case committee consisting of the Chairman or Vice-Chairman, the Director of the Disputes Division, and one of the industry and one of the labor members. If the committee does not consider that the case is ready for a hearing, it may refer the case back to the parties for further negotiation, or to the conciliator for further information. If the case is deemed ready for a hearing, the committee will appoint a tripartite panel to hear the case, unless the parties agree to have the matter heard by a single person, in which case the committee will appoint one of the public panel members, or a member of the Board's staff, to hear the case. Wherever the term "panel" is hereafter used, it will be deemed to include a single hearing officer in the cases just mentioned.

(b) The new case committee, in determining what action to take, will consult with the Department of Labor's conciliator in charge of the case, and notify him of the action taken. In order to facilitate the maximum cooperation between the conciliation service and the Regional Board, the Department of Labor has informed the National War Labor Board of its willingness to designate in each region a Liaison Commissioner of Conciliation for that region, whose duty it will be to keep in constant touch with developments in the field and with the Board's Director of Disputes Division. Wherever practical the Liaison Commissioner will have his office in the same building as the Board.

(c) When the Department of Labor's conciliator in charge of the case is notified that the case has been set for hearing, he will use his best efforts to obtain from the parties, and it will be the duty of the parties to submit to him, a written statement of such of the facts as they can agree upon, together with such supplementary statements, briefs and exhibits as they believe necessary to explain and support their respective contentions. The conciliator will submit these documents to the panel in order that the panel members may familiarize themselves with the case as fully as possible before the hearing, and thereby shorten and expedite the hearing.

(d) The hearing will be informal, and, save in exceptional cases and upon the instructions of the Regional War Labor Board, no stenographic record of the hearing will be kept. Upon the conclusion of the hearing, if a settlement is not effected, the panel will report its recommendations to the Regional War Labor Board, together with the written statements, briefs and exhibits of the parties. Copies of the report will be furnished to the parties. If the panel's report is unanimous, the Regional War Labor Board will not, save in exceptional cases, hear argument upon the report, but will proceed to decide the matter. If the report is not unanimous, the Regional War Labor Board may in its discretion hear argument upon the report before reaching a decision.

(e) Any Regional War Labor Board may certify to the National War Labor Board any case or any question in any case upon which it desires the Board's decision; but the National War Labor Board may in its discretion reject such certification and require the Regional Board to decide the case or the particular question, with or without a subsequent review by the National War Labor Board.

(c) Procedure in dispute cases involving wages or salaries.

Procedure in dispute cases involving wages or salaries. The procedure will be the same as in other dispute cases, except as follows:

(a) If an agreement between the parties calling for a wage or salary adjustment is brought about, the conciliator assigned to the case or the panel chairman as the case may be, will file the agreement directly with the Regional Wage Stabilization Director (instead of with the Wage and Hour Office), together with a complete application Form 10, which he will assist the parties in preparing. Conciliators through the Liaison Commissioner of Conciliation and panels will be at liberty in all cases, to consult the Regional Wage Stabilization Director, in advance of any settlement, regarding the application to the particular situation of the Board's wage stabilization policy.

(b) If an agreement to refer the wage question to arbitration is brought about, and the arbitrator's award provides for a wage or salary adjustment, the award, together with a completed application Form 10, will be filed directly with the Regional Wage Stabilization Director. Wherever practical, the conciliator assigned to the case or the panel chairman as the case may be, will assist in preparing and seeing to the filing of the application form. Arbitrators will be at liberty in all cases to consult the Regional Wage Stabilization Director, in advance of any settlement, regarding the application to the particular situation of the Board's wage stabilization policy.

(c) After either of the above steps has been taken the procedure will be the same as in voluntary wage and salary adjustment cases.

(d) Procedure in voluntary wage and salary adjustment cases.

Procedure in voluntary wage and salary adjustment cases. (a) Applications for approval of proposed voluntary wage adjustments (other than those resulting from settlements effected through conciliation, as described under III above) will be filed as at present with the appropriate Wage and Hour Division office for transmission to the Regional Wage-Stabilization Director.

(b) In all cases in which the Regional Wage Stabilization Director is not authorized to make a ruling the Regional War Labor Board will be authorized to make the ruling, as agent for the National War Labor Board.

(c) A petition for review of a ruling by a Regional Wage Stabilization Director (denying in whole or in part a proposed adjustment) may be filed with the Regional War Labor Board within ten days after the issuance of the ruling. In such cases the burden will be on the petitioner to show in his petition that the ruling was erroneous and that it would work substantial hardship on him.

(e) Authority of the Regional War Labor Boards.

Authority of the Regional War Labor Boards. Each Regional War Labor Board will have authority to issue directive orders in dispute cases and rulings, in voluntary wage and salary adjustment cases, as agent of the National War Labor Board and within the framework of its policies. These orders and rulings will be final, except that:

(1) The National War Labor Board may, by an order of review, on its own motion assume jurisdiction over any dispute case at any stage of the proceedings either before or after the final order of a Regional War Labor Board;

(2) Any party will have the right, within ten days after the issuance of a directive order by a Regional War Labor Board, to petition the National War Labor Board for a review. In such cases the burden will be on the petitioner to satisfy the Board in his petition (a) that a novel question is involved of sufficient importance to warrant national action, or (b) that the procedure adopted has been unfair to the petitioner and has resulted in substantial hardship; or (c) that the decision has exceeded the Board's jurisdiction or is manifestly in conflict with established Board policy. The filing of such a petition will operate to stay the Regional Board's order until the petition is disposed of.

(3) Copies of all directive orders calling for wage or salary adjustments, and of all rulings approving proposed adjustments, will be filed with the National War Labor Board, together with the Regional War Labor Board's opinion, if any, before the order or ruling is formally issued or announced to the parties. Each such order or ruling will take effect and may be formally issued and announced to the parties, upon the expiration of ten days after the date of filing (subject thereafter to the National War Labor Board's ultimate power of non-retroactive review on its own motion), unless (a) the order or ruling is earlier approved by the National War Labor Board, or (b) within the ten-day period the National War Labor Board sets the case down for review, in which event the order or ruling will be stayed until the case is finally disposed of.

(f) Summary of relations between the Regional Wage Stabilization Directors, the Regional War Labor Board, and the National War Labor Board.

Summary of relations between the Regional Wage Stabilization Directors, the Regional War Labor Board, and the National War Labor Board. (a) The Regional Wage Stabilization Director will not deal with disputes; he will concentrate exclusively on the administration of the National War Labor Board's wage stabilization program, working under the general supervision of the Chairman of the Regional War Labor Board.

(b) The Regional War Labor Board, as already indicated, will deal with disputes, including wage disputes, and will also make wage rulings in cases appealed from the Regional Wage Stabilization Director or in which the latter is not authorized to act.

(c) The functions of the National War Labor Board will then be as follows:

1. To exercise ultimate reviewing authority, and a general superintendence over the Regional machinery.

2. To hear appeals from Regional War Labor Board orders in cases where petitions for review are granted by the National War Labor Board.

3. To issue general policy directives.

4. To take jurisdiction of cases of general importance whenever it may seem in the public interest to do so.

5. To support the Regional War Labor Boards in maintaining the national no-strike agreement and in obtaining compliance with their directives orders.

Section 81.980*l* is amended as follows:

General Order No. 12–A. General Order No. 12, adopted November 12, 1942, is hereby revoked as of December 29, 1942, and in its stead there are adopted the procedures set forth in the Joint Statement of the National War Labor Board and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, dated December 26, 1942, and attached hereto and made a part hereof.

JOINT STATEMENT OF THE NATIONAL WAR LABOR BOARD AND THE COMMISSIONER OF INTERNAL REVENUE

PROCEDURE FOR WAGE AND SALARY ADJUSTMENTS BY STATE, COUNTY AND MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENTS AND AGENCIES THEREOF

DECEMBER 26, 1942

On November 12, 1942, The National War Labor Board and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, pursuant to the Regulations of the Economic Stabilization Director, established a procedure whereby adjustments in salaries or wages of state, county, or municipal employees would be submitted to the Board, or the Commissioner, as the case might be, for approval. It was provided that each such adjustment would be deemed approved upon certification by the particular state or local agency that the adjustment was necessary "to correct maladjustment, or to correct inequalities or gross inequities as contemplated by Executive Order No. 9250." It was further provided that if a proposed adjustment would raise wages or salaries above the prevailing level of compensation for similar services in the area or community, application for approval should be filed with the Board or the Commissioner, as the case might be.

Since the announcement of the foregoing procedure was made, a multitude of certificates of wage or salary adjustments have been received from state and local agencies. In the course of a detailed examination of the facts set forth in these certificates, neither the Board nor the Commissioner has had occasion to question any adjustments made by any of the state or local agencies. In the light of this experience, which indicates that statutory budgetary controls are operating to keep salary and wage movements of state and local agencies within very narrow bounds, the Board and the Commissioner have determined to make the following changes in procedure effective forthwith:

1. In all cases where an adjustment in wages or salaries by a State, county or municipal agency is necessary to correct maladjustments, inequalities or gross inequities as contemplated by Executive Order No. 9250, and would not raise salaries or wages above the prevailing level of compensation for similar services in the area or community, the adjustments will be deemed approved without the necessity of filing certificates for the information of the Board or Commissioner.

2. In all other cases, the state or local agency is requested to take the matter up with the Joint Committee on Salaries and Wages, Department of Labor Building, Washington, D. C. This Committee, with the approval of the Economic Stabilization Director, has been established by the Board and the Commissioner, and has been authorized to advise state and local agencies in these cases whether or not the particular adjustments are in accordance with the national stabilization policy. While the Committee in the performance of its functions will not attempt to exercise any legal sanctions, Congress, in the Act of October 2, 1942, clearly intended that all employers and all employees would be covered by the national stabilization policy, and since millions of public employees are engaged in the same kind of work as private employees, the duty of public employers to conform to that policy is as plain as that of private employers. The way in which governmental agencies have been cooperating with the Board and the Commissioner to date indicates their desire to discharge that duty to the same extent as it required of non-governmental employers.

On November 25, 1942, the National War Labor Board determined that General Order No. 12 applies to employees of the District of Columbia.

The list of Government-owned, privately-operated facilities in § 81.980n is separated into two lists as follows:

§81.980n General Order No. 14. * * *

(b) Government-owned, privately-operated facilities. The following Government-owned, privately-operated facilities are embraced within the delegation to the War Department Agency:

Government-owned, privately-operated Ordnance Facilities:

Alabama Ordnance Works # 1 and 2, Sylacauga, Alabama.

* * * * * *

West Creek Ordnance Plant, Milan, Tennessee.

Government-owned, privately-operated Army Air Forces Facilities:

Government Plant No. 1, Martin, Omaha, Nebraska.

* * * * * *

Modification Center No. 12, Northwest Airlines, St. Paul, Minnesota.

* * * * * *

Section 81.980z is added as follows:

§ 81.980z General Order No. 26.

(a) Adjustments in the wages or salaries of employees engaged in rendering hospital services and employed by a non-profit organization which maintains and operates a hospital will be deemed approved without submission to the Board, providing that such adjustments do not raise the wages or salaries beyond the prevailing level of compensation for similar services in the area or community.

(b) Monthly reports of such adjustments shall be submitted by each such organization to the National War Labor Board's Division of Review and Analysis, together with such information and data as the said Division or the Board may from time to time require.

(c) Such adjustments shall be subject to the National War Labor Board's ultimate right of review on its own initiative, but any modification or reversal thereof will not be retroactive.

(d) Adjustments which would have the effect of raising the wages or salaries above the prevailing level of compensation for similar services in the area must be submitted for approval by the Board in the usual manner.

Section 81.980aa is added as follows:

§ 81.980aa General Order No. 27.

(a) The National War Labor Board, in accordance with the further provisions of this order, hereby delegates to the Administrator of the National Housing Agency, to be exercised on his behalf by the Commissioner of the Federal Public Housing Authority (hereafter referred to as the Housing Wage Agency), the power to approve or disapprove all applications for adjustments of wages and salaries (insofar as approval thereof has been made a function of the National War Labor Board) of employees whose wages and salaries are not fixed by statute that are employed within the continental United States and Alaska by

(1) Federal Public Housing Authority

(2) Defense Homes Corporation, and

(3) Property managers of Defense Homes Corporation projects.

(b) In the performance of its duties hereunder the Housing Wage Agency shall comply with Executive Order 9250, dated October 3, 1942, and all regulations heretofore or hereafter issued thereunder, and with the declaration of wage policy of the National War Labor Board, dated November 6, 1942. The Housing Wage Agency, without making an initial ruling thereon may refer to the National War Labor Board, for decision by the Board, any application which in its opinion presents doubtful or disputed questions of sufficient seriousness and import to warrant direct action by the Board.

(c) The Housing Wage Agency shall transmit to the Review and Research Division of the National War Labor Board copies of its rulings, and rules of procedure, if any, as they are issued, and such additional data and reports as said Division or the Board may from time to time deem necessary.

(d) Any ruling by the Housing Wage Agency hereunder shall be deemed the act of the National War Labor Board and shall be final, subject to the National War Labor Board's right to review rulings on its own motion and to reverse or modify the same. Any such reversal or modification shall not be retroactive and shall allow the Commissioner of the Federal Public Housing Authority a period of two weeks for compliance.

§§ 81.981 to 81.981c are renumbered §§ 81.982 to 81.982c and new §§ 81.981 to 81.981e, inclusive, are added.

West Coast Lumber Commission—(September 17, 1942). In order to effectuate a final determination of the issues in the above-entitled cases (17 enumerated cases) and other pending and future labor disputes in the lumber industry in the Western states, the National War Labor Board, under the provisions of paragraph 3 of the Executive Order of January 12, 1942, hereby directs:

1. That there shall be created immediately a National War Labor Board West Lumber Commission which shall take jurisdiction over, hear and determine the above-entitled cases and all other pending and future labor disputes which might interrupt production of lumber and lumber products in Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and California.

2. That the Commission shall consist of five (5) members who shall be appointed as paid officials of the National War Labor Board. Of the persons so appointed, one shall represent the public and act as chairman of the Commission, two shall represent labor and two shall represent industry, but the representatives of labor and industry shall not be selected from within the lumber industry covered by this Order.

The National War Labor Board, at any time, may appoint alternates for the representatives of labor and industry. If the Commission is unable to reach a unanimous decision on any question, the Chairman shall decide the issue.

3. That in view of the vital importance of the lumber industry to the production of those things essential to the successful prosecution of the war, the Commission shall have the power to promulgate such rules and regulations, issue such orders and take such actions relating to the issues before it as may be necessary to effectuate a stabilization of labor conditions in the lumber industry of the area designated in paragraph 1 above, secure industrial harmony in said area and assure maximum production of lumber and lumber products.

The Commission shall have the power to determine whether, within the terms of this Order, it may properly assume jurisdiction over any dispute.

4. That the determinations and orders of the Commission shall be final and binding upon all parties coming before the Commission except and until the National War Labor Board, in any given case, decides to review the Commission's determination of that case.

A review by the National War Labor Board of any action, finding or order of the Commission shall not be considered a right of parties coming before the Commission but such review shall be made only in those cases where the Board decides that the Commission's order should be reviewed and if necessary modified or set aside.

(a) On October 6, 1942, the National War Labor Board appointed the following persons as paid members of the West Coast Lumber Commission:

Chairman—Ben H. Kizer

For industry—E B. McNaughton and Dean Ballard

For labor—Jame Landye and William Geurts

(b) On October 6, 1942, the National War Labor Board announced that the West Coast Lumber Commission will have jurisdiction over the lumber and lumber products industry in Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and California.

(c) By Directive Order of October 15, 1942, the National War Labor Board deleted the second sentence of the second paragraph of subdivision 2 of the Order of September 17, 1942, and substituted therefor the following:

The policies, decisions and Directive Orders of the Commission shall be determined by a majority vote of the Commission.

(d) By Directive Order of January 5, 1943, the National War Labor Board supplemented its Order of September 17, 1942, creating the West Coast Lumber Commission (§ 81.98a), as amended by its order of October 15, 1942 (paragraph (c) of this section) by the addition of the following paragraph:

5. That the Commission shall have the power to receive and determine applications for voluntary wage increases in the lumber industry pursuant to Executive Order 9250 of October 3, 1942, subject to the rules and regulations established by the Board under said Order, except that the Commission may give approval to all applications which request authority to adjust wages, including adjustment of piece rates, to conform with the wages determined by the Commission in cases involving wage disputes in the same community.

Non-Ferrous Metals Commission (December 3, 1942). By virtue of the authority vested in it under Executive Orders #9017 and #9250, and in order to effectuate its resolution adopted October 23, 1942, establishing a Non-Ferrous Metals Commission, the National War Labor Board hereby orders that:

1. The Non-Ferrous Metals Commission shall have jurisdiction over and shall hear and determine labor disputes and requests for wage and salary adjustments affecting the stabilization of the mining, milling, smelting and refining of non-ferrous metals, referred to it by the Board or referred to it, under conditions to be established by the Commission, by the Regional Directors of the 9th, 10th and Alaskan regions of the Board.

The jurisdiction of the commission shall not extend to those enterprises which supply materials and equipment to the above-named industries.

2. The Commission shall consist of a chairman and vice-chairman representing the public, two representatives of industry, and two representatives of labor. The National War Labor Board may, at any time, appoint alternates for the representatives of labor and industry.

3. In the determination of matters within its jurisdiction the Commission shall be governed by the provisions of Executive Orders No. 9017 and No. 9250; and it shall, subject to the approval of the National War Labor Board, have power to promulgate rules and regulations appropriate for the performance of its duties.

4. The determinations and orders of the Commission shall be final and binding upon the parties, subject only to review by the National War Labor Board on its own motion. Any ruling by the Commission shall be deemed to be the act of the National War Labor Board unless and until reversed or modified by the Board; and any such reversal or modification shall take effect only from the date of its issuance. Provided, however, That if a ruling denying an application for permission to make wage adjustments is overruled, the final ruling shall incorporate as the effective date of the increase that date which was specified in the application as the effective date.

5. In any case where the employer at the time of the filing of the application for approval of a wage increase or at the time of referral of the case to the Commission indicates that he intends to seek price relief if a wage increase is approved, he shall state fully upon a form approved by the National War Labor Board the relation between the proposed wage increase and the employer's price situation, and what the effect would be on the employer's business if wages were increased without price relief. A copy of said form shall be sent to the Office of Price Administration.

Copies of all rulings of the Commission in cases in which an application for price increase is involved shall be sent to the Office of Price Administration, as well as to the parties.

If application for a wage increase in such a case is approved, the ruling shall state that it will become effective only on final approval by the National War Labor Board, and, when required by the Provisions of Executive Order No. 9250, by the Economic Stabilization Director.

6. The Commission shall, so far as practicable, utilize the information, data and staff services of the National War Labor Board and of other Federal Departments and agencies. The employment by the Commission of additional personnel, facilities or services shall be subject to the approval of the National War Labor Board.

(a) On November 29, 1942, the National War Labor Board appointed the following members of the Non-Ferrous Metals Commission:

For the public—Charles A. Graham, Chairman and John Gorsuch, Vice Chairman.

For labor—James F. O'Brien and A. E. Stevenson.

For industry—Henry M. Hartman and S. M. Thompson.

Executive secretary—James M. Burns.

(b) By Directive Order the National War Labor Board amended the Order of December 3, 1942, quoted above, by deleting the second paragraph of subdivision 5 and substituting therefor the following:

Copies of all rulings of the Commission in cases in which an application for price increase is involved shall be sent to the National War Labor Board for transmittal to the Office of Price Administration.

Detroit Area Tool & Die Commission—(December 14, 1942). (1) There shall be created immediately a National War Labor Board Detroit Area Tool and Die Commission which shall take jurisdiction over, hear, and determine all pending and future disputes, requests for interpretations, petitions for voluntary wage increases or adjustments in minima rates, and any other matters within the jurisdiction of the National War Labor Board concerning the tool and die industry in the area hereinabove specified.

(2) The Commission shall consist of a permanent Chairman appointed by the National War Labor Board and industry and labor representatives, serving on an ad hoc basis, chosen by the Chairman of the Commission from a panel of names approved by the National War Labor Board. In cases involving no disputes or conflicts of interests the Chairman may act alone. In selecting panels, the Chairman shall take into account the conflicting interests involved in the matter to be considered.

(3) The Commission shall have the power to determine whether, within the terms of this Order, it may properly assume jurisdiction over any dispute. All cases involving wage disputes within the terms of this Order may be referred by the parties directly to the Commission without prior recourse to the United States Conciliation Service. All petitions for approval of voluntary wage increases or adjustment of minima rates for tool and die workers within the area hereinabove specified shall be referred in the first instance to the Commission: Provided, however, That the Commission shall in all such cases inform the Regional Director for the Fifth Region as to the action taken by it and shall send him copies of all wage agreements approved.

(4) The determinations of the Commission shall be final and binding upon all parties coming before the Commission except and until the National War Labor Board, in any given case, having decided to review the Commission's determination of that case, reverses or modifies the determination.

(5) A review by the National War Labor Board of any action, finding, or order of the Commission shall not be considered a right of parties coming before the Commission but will be granted only in the discretion of the National War Labor Board for good cause shown.

(a) Jurisdiction. The area covered by the Tool and Die Commission Order shall include the counties of Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, Monroe, Washtenaw and Genesee in the State of Michigan and is subject to extension upon further order of the National War Labor Board. Tool and die workers in all jobbing and manufacturing plants in such area are covered by the Commission's jurisdiction. Manufacturing plants are defined to include those employing tool and die workers for the manufacture, repair and maintenance of tools and dies used primarily in their own manufacturing processes. The Order, however, does not include production workers working outside the tool and die rooms under job classifications similar to the tool and die classifications, nor does it extend to companies supplying materials or equipment to the non-ferrous mining industry.

(b) Chairman. On December 14, 1942, the National War Labor Board designated Benjamin Aaron as the Chairman of the Detroit Area Tool and Die Commission.

§ 81.981d Trucking Commission—(December 16, 1942).

Trucking Commission—(December 16, 1942). By virtue of the authority vested in it under Executive Orders 9017 and 9250 and in order to effectuate its resolution adopted November 3, 1942, establishing a Trucking Commission, the National War Labor Board hereby orders that:

1. The Trucking Commission shall have jurisdiction over and shall hear and determine labor disputes and requests for wage and salary adjustments affecting the stabilization of the Trucking Industry or that part of an industry which is Trucking referred to it by the Board.

2. The Commission shall consist of three (3) members who shall be appointed as paid officials of the National War Labor Board. Of the persons so appointed, one shall represent the public and act as Chairman of the Commission, one shall represent labor and one shall represent industry. The Board may at any time appoint alternates for the members of the commission.

3. In the determination of matters within its jurisdiction the Commission shall be governed by the provisions of Executive Orders 9017 and 9250 and by the National War Labor Board's statement of wage policy of November 6, 1942, and any other General Order or policy heretofore or hereafter announced thereunder; and it shall, subject to the approval of the National War Labor Board, have power to promulgate rules and regulations appropriate for the performance of its duties.

4. The determinations and orders of the Commission shall be final and binding upon the parties, subject only to review by the National War Labor Board on its own motion. Any rulings by the Commission shall be deemed to be the act of the National War Labor Board unless and until reversed or modified by the Board; and any such reversal or modification shall take effect only from the date of its issuance: Provided, however, That if a ruling denying an application for permission to make wage adjustments is overruled, the final ruling shall incorporate as the effective date of the increase that date which was specified in the application as the effective date.

5. In any case where the employer at the time of the filing of the application for approval of a wage increase or at the time of referral of the case to the Commission indicates that he intends to seek price relief if a wage increase is approved, he shall state fully upon a form approved by the National War Labor Board the relations between the proposed wage increase and the employer's price situation, and what the effect would be on the employer's business if wages were increased without price relief. A copy of said form shall be sent to the Office of Price Administration.

Copies of all rulings of the Commission in cases in which an application for price increase is involved shall be sent to the Office of Price Administration as well as to the parties.

If application for a wage increase in such cases is approved the ruling shall state that it will become effective only on final approval by the National War Labor Board, and when required by the provisions of Executive Order No. 9250, by the Economic Stabilization Director.

6. The Commission shall, so far as practicable utilize the information, data and staff services of the National War Labor Board and of other Federal Departments and agencies. The employment by the Commission of additional personnel, facilities or services shall be subject to the approval of the National War Labor Board.

(a) On December 16, 1942, the National War Labor Board appointed the following persons as paid members of the Trucking Commission:

For the public—Professor Howard Meyerhoff, Chairman.

For industry—Landis O'Brien.

For labor—Frank Tobin.

§ 81.981e Shipbuilding Commission—(January 15, 1943).

Shipbuilding Commission—(January 15, 1943). By virtue of the authority vested in it by Executive Order Nos. 9017 and 9250 and in order to effectuate the purposes thereof the National War Labor Board hereby orders the following disposition of matters within its jurisdiction in the field of shipbuilding. Shipbuilding under this order, whether or not carried on subject to shipbuilding stabilization zone standards, is the construction, conversion, outfitting, and repair of floating marine structures, including floating drydocks, within the continental limits of the United States and Alaska, exclusive of establishments owned and directly operated by the United States, provided the activity is carried on in the water, in drydocks, in basins, on ways for launching, or on the premises of a shipyard or boatyard.

PART I—SHIPBUILDING STABILIZATION COMMITTEE

A. Title III, Section 3 of Executive Order No. 9250 of October 3, 1942, provides: "The National War Labor Board shall permit * * * the Shipbuilding Stabilization Committee * * * to continue to perform its functions * * * except insofar as any of them is inconsistent with the terms of this order." Pursuant thereto, the Shipbuilding Stabilization Committee shall continue to perform the functions ascribed to it by general Administrative Order No. 2–57 of the chairman of the War Production Board and by the Shipbuilding Stabilization Zone Standards Agreements as amended May 16, 1942.

B. No new wage rate fixed by Zone Standards Agreement shall become effective until approved by the National War Labor Board:

PART II—

SHIPBUILDING COMMISSION

A. The National War Labor Board hereby creates the Shipbuilding Commission.

B. The Commission shall consist of seven members; a chairman, two members representing management and two members representing labor (and such alternates as may be appropriate) appointed and paid by the Board; one member (and such alternates as may be appropriate) appointed by the Secretary of the Navy; and one member (and such alternates as may be appropriate) appointed by the Maritime Commission.

C. The chairman of the Commission and the members appointed by the Secretary of the Navy and the Maritime Commission shall be deemed to represent the public.

D. The Commission shall rule on all applications for approval of voluntary adjustments of wages, salaries, and other reimbursable costs and on all disputes of whatever nature, using procedures similar to those of the National War Labor Board.

E. The Commission shall apply zone standards to yards that have agreed to them and in applying them shall be bound by the Shipbuilding Stabilization Committee's interpretations.

F. The Commission shall be governed by Executive Order Nos. 9017 and 9250 and all regulations heretofore or hereafter issued thereunder, and by the National War Labor Board's statement of wage policy of November 6, 1942. Subject to the approval of the National War Labor Board, it may make its own regulations and rules of procedure.

G. Every ruling of the Commission shall be final, subject only to review by the National War Labor Board on its own motion. Every ruling of the Commission shall be deemed the act of the National War Labor Board unless and until reversed or modified; and any such reversal or modification shall take effect only from the date of its issuance. Provided, however, That if a ruling on wage or salary rates and other reimbursable costs is modified or overruled, the final ruling may be retroactive.

Sections 81.983, 81.983a, 81.983b, and 81.983c are added as follows:

§ 81.983 Joint statement of the National War Labor Board and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. Occasionally the National War Labor Board and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue issue joint statements with respect to important matters in order that a single uniform policy may be established throughout the country. Such joint statements of the National War Labor Board and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue will be set forth in the succeeding sections which are designated § 81.983 followed by a letter of the alphabet.

§ 81.983a Statement of November 12, 1942. On November 12, 1942, the National War Labor Board and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue issued a joint statement setting forth the procedure for wage and salary adjustments by State Governments and subdivisions and agencies thereof. Since this procedure is pertinent to section 4001.13 of the Regulations of the Economic Stabilization Director, the text of this statement has been set forth in § 81.976.

§ 81.983b Statement of December 26, 1942. On December 26, 1942, the National War Labor Board and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue issued a joint statement changing the procedure provided for in the statement of November 12, 1942. This joint statement took the form of General Order No. 12–A and the text thereof may be found in § 81.980*l*.

§ 81.983c Joint statement of January 23, 1943, by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue and the National War Labor Board regarding the victory tax.

Joint statement of January 23, 1943, by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue and the National War Labor Board regarding the victory tax. Since the adoption by the Congress of the 5% Victory Tax two questions of importance to employers and employees have been asked of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue and the National War Labor Board. One question relates to whether under the Anti-Inflation Act, employers may pay the 5% Victory Tax for their employees without deducting and withholding it from the employees' pay, and without the approval of the Commissioner or the Board. The other question relates to whether or not it was intended that the tax should be withheld on that portion of a wage or salary increase awarded or approved by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue or the War Labor Board in 1943 which is made applicable retroactively to work performed in 1942.

To avoid the necessity of individual employers and employees making separate requests for rulings on these questions and in order that a single uniform policy shall exist throughout the nation on these important matters, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue and the National War Labor Board have jointly determined to make the following announcement:

(1) The payment by an employer of the 5% Victory Tax on behalf of his employees without deducting it from the employees' pay is a wage or salary increase requiring the prior approval of the Board or the Commissioner pursuant to Executive Order No. 9250 and the Regulations of the Director of Economic Stabilization.

(2) On January 23, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue issued a ruling interpreting the Revenue Act so that where the National War Labor Board or the Commissioner of Internal Revenue awards or approves an increase in wages or salaries retroactive to 1942, the tax need not be withheld on that portion of the increase which is applicable to work performed in 1942.

(3) Whether the 5% tax will ultimately be collected on such retroactive pay is a matter to which the Congress may give its attention during the current session.

Forty-eight Hour Workweek

Section 81.985 is added as follows:

§ 81.985 The following is the full text of an Executive Order issued under date of February 9, 1943:

EXECUTIVE ORDER 9301

Establishing a minimum wartime workweek of forty-eight hours.

By virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes, as President of the United States, and in order to meet the manpower requirements of our armed forces and our expanding war production program by a fuller utilization of our available manpower, it is hereby ordered:

1. For the duration of the war, no plant, factory or other place of employment shall be deemed to be making the most effective utilization of its manpower if the minimum workweek therein is less than 48 hours per week.

2. All departments and agencies of the Federal government shall require their contractors to comply with the minimum workweek prescribed in this order and with policies, directives and regulations prescribed hereunder, and shall promptly take such action as may be necessary for that purpose.

3. The chairman of the War Manpower Commission shall determine all questions of interpretation and application arising under this order and shall formulate and issue such policies, directives and regulations as he determines to be necessary to carry out this order and to effectuate its purposes. The chairman of the War Manpower Commission is authorized to establish a minimum workweek greater or less than that established in section 1 of this order or take other action with respect to any case or type of case in which he determines that such different minimum workweek or other action would more effectively contribute to the war effort and promote the purposes of this order.

4. All departments and agencies of the Federal Government shall comply with such policies, directives, and regulations as the chairman of the War Manpower Commission shall prescribe pursuant to this order, and shall so utilize their facilities, services and personnel and take such action under authority vested in them by law as the chairman determines to be necessary to effectuate the purposes of this order and promote compliance with its provisions.

5. Nothing in this order shall be construed as superseding or in conflict with any Federal, State or local law limiting hours of work or with the provisions of any individual or collective bargaining agreement with respect to rates of pay for hours worked in excess of the agreed or customary workweek, nor shall this order be construed as suspending or modifying any provision of the Fair Labor Standards Act (Act of June 25, 1938; 52 Stat. 1060; 29 U.S.C. 201 et seq.) or any other Federal, State or local law relating to the payment of wages or overtime.

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT

THE WHITE HOUSE,

Miscellaneous Purchase Instructions

In § 81.1112 the following changes are made: Paragraphs (g), (i), and (j) are amended. Paragraph (k) is redesignated paragraph (l) and amended and a new paragraph (k) is added. Paragraphs (l), (m), (n), (o), and (p) are redesignated (n), (o), (p), (r), and (s), respectively, paragraphs (o) and (r) being amended. New paragraphs (m), (q), and (t) are added.

§ 81.1112 Adjustment of royalties for use of inventions. * * *

(g) Authority of Secretary of War to delegate powers and issue regulations under Act. The Secretary of War is authorized in his discretion and under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, to delegate any powers conferred by the Act to such qualified and responsible officers, boards, agents or persons as he may designate or appoint. He is also authorized to issue such rules and regulations and to require such information as may be necessary and proper to carry out the provisions of the Act. In accordance with the provisions of the Act, rules and regulations have been prescribed and delegations of authority have been issued, the terms of which are set forth in the succeeding paragraphs.

* * * * *

(i) Further delegations. The authority referred to in clauses (1) and (2) of paragraph (h) of this section has been further delegated to the following:

(1) All Division Engineers of the Corps of Engineers, and

(2) Director of Research and Development Division, Signal Corps.

The Secretary of War or the Under Secretary of War upon request will make further delegations. In the event the chief of any supply service desires that the authority referred to in clauses (1) and (2) of paragraph (h) be delegated to other officers, such chief shall forward to the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply, a memorandum specifying the office to whom such delegation should be made and the extent of such delegation. The title of the position held and not the name of the individual officer should be specified. The powers, duties and authorities referred to in paragraph (h) shall not be redelegated by the chiefs of the supply services under the authority to redelegate conferred in § 81.107 (i).

(j) Giving of notice. The notice referred to in this and the succeeding paragraphs is the written notice, specified in Section 1 of the Act, of the fact that the rates and amounts of royalties are believed to be unreasonable or excessive. Such notice shall not be given to the licensor and licensee until (1) there has been obtained from the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply, such information, if any, as his records contain as to the service of a notice, or the consideration which has or is being given to the service of a notice, by any supply service or by any governmental agency with respect to the same invention; and

(2) (i) the licensor has been advised that the issuance of a notice under the Act is contemplated and in the opinion of the authority contemplating the issuance of a notice, an opportunity voluntarily to effect a prompt and satisfactory adjustment of the royalties has been afforded and such adjustment cannot be effected, or

(ii) a recommendation has been made that no such advice as to the issuance of a notice be given to the licensor and such recommendation has been approved by the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply.

(k) Procedure in the event more than one supply service is concerned. In the event more than one supply service is concerned with the rates or amounts of royalties, any such supply service may exercise, subject to the direction of the Under Secretary, as to such royalties the authority referred to in subparagraph (1) of paragraph (h) under all contracts or subcontracts with, or purchases by or for, the War Department. Where more than one supply service is concerned with the rates or amounts of royalties, the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply, shall be advised of such fact and thereupon directions shall be issued by him as to how, and by whom, the authority referred to in subparagraphs (2), (3) and (4) of paragraph (h) shall be exercised for the War Department.

(l) Appropriate action to be taken by each supply service. Subject to the foregoing, the chief of each supply service shall cause such action to be taken as may be appropriate in order that the purpose of the Act to prevent the inclusion in the prices paid by the War Department of unreasonable or excessive royalties may be achieved. Such action shall be taken pursuant to such instructions as may be issued by the chief of the supply service concerned.

(m) Information to be obtained from and furnished to the Purchases Division. When it appears to any supply service that the issuance of a notice as referred to in clause (2) (i) of paragraph (j) of this section is contemplated, it shall (1) obtain from the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply, the information referred to in clause (1) of paragraph (j), and

(2) file, in triplicate, with the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply, a memorandum giving the names and addresses of the licensor and licensee and such other pertinent information as is set out in the form contained in paragraph (k) as may be reasonably practical. If the proceedings referred to in clause (2) (i) of paragraph (j) have resulted in a satisfactory adjustment of royalties, without the service of a notice, a report, in triplicate, with respect thereto shall be filed by the supply service with the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply.

(n) Factors to be considered * * *

(o) Form of notice. The following form of notice is approved for use subject to such deviations as may be appropriate in any given case:

Pursuant to the Act of October 31, 1942 (Public Law 768, 77th Congress, 2nd Session), notice is hereby given that the royalties now being paid directly or indirectly by the United States under contracts or subcontracts with or purchases by or for the War Department (including, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing language, contract No. ----) are believed to be unreasonable or excessive.

It is understood that these payments are made by virtue of an agreement between ---------- as licensee and ---------- as licensor. This notice becomes effective upon receipt hereof or five days after the mailing hereof, viz., --------, 194--, whichever date is the earlier.

Under the Act the licensee or the licensor, if he so requests within ten days from and after the effective date of this notice, may within thirty days from the date of such request present in writing or in person any facts or circumstances which may, in his opinion, have a bearing upon the rates or amounts of royalty, if any, to be determined, fixed and specified, all as provided in said Act.

Within a reasonable time after the effective date of this notice an order will be made fixing and specifying the rates or amounts of royalty, if any, which are determined to be fair and just taking into account the conditions of wartime production. Such order will authorize the payment of such rates or amounts of royalty by the licensee to the licensor.

The Act provides that the licensee shall not after the effective date of this notice pay to the licensor, nor charge directly or indirectly to the United States a royalty, if any, in excess of that which may be specified in the order to be hereafter made. Until the making of such order no royalties should be paid on account of the manufacture, use, sale or other disposition for the United States.

The foregoing notice shall be mailed to the last known address of the licensor and the licensee.

Article 6 of the contract form in § 81.1320 is amended as follows:

§ 81.1320 W.D. Contract Form No. 20. * * *

ART. 6. On the unliquidated balance of the advance payments outstanding, the Contractor agrees to pay interest at the rate of two and one-half percent (2½%) per annum. Such interest shall be computed at the end of each calendar month on the average daily balance of the principal of the unliquidated advance payments outstanding. In determining such balance, charges on account of the advance payments to the Contractor hereunder shall be made as of the dates of the checks therefor; credits arising from deductions from payments to the Contractor under the principal contract or principal contracts shall be made, upon the issue of the check for such payment, as of the dates of shipment as indicated on the Contractor's invoice and/or Government Receiving Report, and credits arising from cash repayments to the Government by the Contractor shall be made as of the dates the checks therefor are received by the disbursing officer. As soon as such monthly computations shall have been made, the interest so determined shall be deducted from the payments otherwise due the Contractor under this contract, Provided, however, That in no event shall deductions on account of interest exceed five percent (5%) of the gross payment due the Contractor prior to any deduction under this Article or Article 5 or any other provisions of this contract. In the event the accrued interest exceeds such five percent, the excess of such interest shall be carried forward and deducted from subsequent payments. The interest shall not be compounded, and shall, subject to the provisions of Article 4 hereof, cease to accrue upon the termination of the contract for other than the fault of the Contractor, or upon the date found by the Contracting Officer to be the date upon which the Contractor completed his performance under the contract.

In § 81.1321 Article 9 of the contract form is redesignated Article 10 and a new Article 9 is added as follows:

§ 81.1321 W.D. Contract Form No. 21. * * *

ART. 9. Any assignment of moneys due or to become due under this contract shall be subordinate to the rights or claims of the Government arising under this contract or any amendment thereto by virtue of any advance payments authorized herein or otherwise: Provided, That, if at any time any claim arising under this contract is assigned or purportedly assigned in any manner inconsistent with the said rights of the Government, the _____ or his duly authorized representative shall have the right to suspend further advance payments without notice.

ART. 10. Except as hereby amended, all the terms and conditions of the contract affected shall remain unmodified and * * *

In § 81.1324 Article 8 of the contract form is redesignated Article 9 and a new Article 8 is added as follows:

ART. 8. Any assignment of moneys due or to become due under this contract shall be subordinate to the rights or claims of the Government arising under this contract or any amendment thereto by virtue of any advance payments authorized herein or otherwise: Provided, That, if at any time any claim arising under this contract is assigned or purportedly assigned in any manner inconsistent with the said rights of the Government, the _____ or his duly authorized representative shall have the right to suspend further advance payments without notice.

ART. 9. Except as hereby amended, all the terms and conditions of the Contractor affected shall remain unmodified and * * *

PART 83—DISPOSITION OF SURPLUS AND UNSERVICEABLE PROPERTY

Disposition of Property—General

Section 83.702 is amended as follows:

§ 83.702 Real property. This Procurement Regulation No. 7 does not relate to the disposition of real property which is governed by AR 100–63. The term property as hereinafter used in this Procurement Regulation No. 7 means all property other than real property.

Disposition of Serviceable Property Not Declared Surplus

In § 83.707 paragraph (c) is amended and paragraphs (d) and (e) are added as follows:

§ 83.707 Disposition under contracts or agreements executed under First War Powers Act. * * *

(c) Other sales and leases. In addition to the contracts of sale and agreements of lease specifically authorized by paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, the chiefs of the supply services are authorized by negotiation to enter into any other agreements for the disposition of property (whether by sale, lease or otherwise, and with or without options to purchase) authorized by the First War Powers Act and Executive Order No. 9001 provided that the approval of the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply, is first obtained.

(d) "Covenant Against Contingent Fees" clause. All contracts and agreements authorized by the foregoing provisions of this section will contain a "Disputes Clause" (§ 81.326), an "Officials Not to Benefit" Clause (§ 81.322) and a "Covenant Against Contingent Fees." The latter clause will read as follows:

The purchaser warrants that he has not employed any person to solicit or secure this contract upon any agreement for a commission, percentage, brokerage, or contingent fee. Breach of this warranty shall give the Government the right to annul the contract. This warranty shall not apply to commissions payable by contractors upon contracts of sale secured or made through bona fide commercial or selling agencies retained by the purchaser for the purpose of securing business.

(e) Disposition by contractors. If a contract or agreement to sell or lease Government-owned property is authorized under this section and such property is in the custody of a contractor, directions may be given to the contractor to enter into such a contract or agreement in the name of and on behalf of the Government as contemplated by the standard contract clause contained in § 81.360. No such directions shall be given unless it is understood that the contractor will insert in such contract or agreement the standard clauses required by paragraph (d) of this section.

TITLE 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration

[Docket No. FDC–21]

PART 15—WHEAT FLOUR AND RELATED PRODUCTS; DEFINITIONS AND STANDARDS OF IDENTITY

EFFECTIVE DATE OF INGREDIENT RIBOFLAVIN

In the matter of a definition and standard of identity for each of the following foods: Enriched flour, enriched bromated flour, enriched self-rising flour and enriched farina. Order further postponing effective date of requirement of the ingredient riboflavin.

The Acting Federal Security Administrator, by an order dated May 26, 1941, to become effective January 1, 1942, which was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER for May 27, 1941, made public his action promulgating regulations fixing and establishing definitions and standards of identity for the enriched foods named in the caption hereof. (21 CFR §§ 15.010, 15.030, 15.060, and 15.140; 6 F.R. 2574–2582).

Each of said regulations requires that the food for which a definition and standard of identity is established thereby contain, among other ingredients, in each pound thereof not less than 1.2 milligrams of riboflavin.

The requirement that riboflavin be an ingredient of such enriched foods was postponed to July 1, 1942, and again to April 20, 1943, when it appeared that the supply of riboflavin, in forms suitable for addition to such foods, would not be sufficient to meet demands therefor prior to those dates. (6 F.R. 6175, 7 F.R. 3055)

In this issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER a hearing is announced for the purpose of receiving testimony upon the basis of which a determination can be reached as to whether amendments should be made to the definitions and standards of identity for such enriched foods.[1]

It is ordered, That the effective date of the requirements that each pound of enriched flour, enriched bromated flour, enriched self-rising flour, and enriched farina contain not less than 1.2 milligrams of riboflavin be further postponed until such effective date as is announced in the final order issued after such hearing.

PART 322—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 2

NOTICE CORRECTING ERROR

Notice correcting error in reproductions of supplement to order in the matter of the petitions of District No. 2 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 2.

It appears that the reproduction of a schedule designated as Supplement R-I, § 322.7 (Alphabetical list of code members) attached to and made a part of an order in the above-entitled matter on December 15, 1942, 7 F.R. 11054, erroneously show the coals produced by The Buckeye Coal Co. at the London Mine, Mine Index No. 3033, as having an "O" classification in Size Group 5, whereas the original of said Supplement R shows said coals as having a "G" classification in Size Group 5.

Notice is hereby given that "G" is the proper classification rather than "O" in said reproductions.

Chapter IX—War Production Board

Subchapter B—Director General for Operations

AUTHORITY: Regulations in this subchapter issued under P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Revocation of Suspension Order S-204]

LOMBARD IRON WORKS

The Lombard Iron Works, Augusta, Georgia, has appealed from the provisions of Suspension Order No. S-204, issued January 16, 1943. This order, subjecting the company to the continuous control and supervision of the War Production Board for three months, was issued because of the lack of responsibility on the part of the management and the consequent failure of the company to comply with the applicable regulations governing the distribution of raw materials. In its appeal the Lombard Iron Works has shown that these conditions have now been rectified.

In view of the foregoing facts, § 1010.204, Suspension Order S-204, issued January 16, 1943, is hereby revoked, effective immediately.

Issued this 17th day of March 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 1238—MEN'S AND BOYS' APPAREL FOR MASCULINE LOUNGING WEAR AND CERTAIN OTHER GARMENTS

[Limitation Order L-130 as Amended March 18, 1943]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of wool, silk; rayon, cotton, linen and other materials for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1238.1 General Limitation Order L-130—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Boys'" means sizes 2, 4, 6, 8, 10, 12, 14, 16, 18 and 20.

(2) "Men's" means sizes small, medium, large and extra large.

(3) "Wool cloth" means any cloth containing any percentage of new wool, reprocessed wool or reused wool.

(4) "Masculine lounging wear" means men's and boys' robes, bathrobes and beachcoats.

(5) "Put into process" means the first cutting of cloth in the manufacture of any lounging wear for sale, resale, or on commission, including but not being limited to, cutting by the following: manufacturers to the trade, tailors, and home dressmakers.

(6) Measurements—Particular measurements set forth in this order shall refer to finished measurements after all manufacturing operations have been completed and the garment is ready for shipment, as follows:

(i) All measurements for length of robes, bathrobes and beachcoats for all sizes and ranges are to be made from nape of neck to bottom of finished garment. No garment shall exceed its maximum length at any point in its circumference.

(7) "Sweep" means maximum circumference of the garment.

(8) Unless otherwise expressly defined, all trade terms shall have their usual trade meaning.

(b) Provisions with respect to finished garments, manufacture and sale of articles of masculine lounging wear. Except as provided in paragraph (c), no person shall put into process or cause to be put into process by others for his account any cloth for the manufacture of, or sell, or deliver any masculine lounging wear:

(1) [Revoked January 20, 1943.]

(2) With another garment or article at a unit price.

(3) With more than one pocket.

(4) With a cuff, including any type of simulated cuff.

(c) General exceptions. The prohibitions and restrictions of this order shall not apply to lounging wear:

(1) When manufactured or sold for use as:

(i) Infants' and toddlers' size ranges 1 to 3;

(ii) Lounging wear for persons who, because of unusual height, abnormal size, or physical deformities, requires measurements exceeding maximum measurements of Schedule A, paragraph (b) (5) for proportionate length of sweep: Provided, however, That the prohibitions of paragraphs (b) (2), (3) and (4) shall nevertheless apply to such lounging wear;

(iii) Historical costumes for theatrical productions; provided, however, that no masculine lounging wear manufactured or sold pursuant to this subparagraph shall be used for any purposes other than those for which it was so manufactured or sold, unless altered to conform to the provisions of this order.

(2) When manufactured for or sold to the Army of the United States, the United States Navy or the United States Maritime Commission.

(3) When manufactured in foreign countries and imported and received in customs in the United States prior to October 1, 1942.

(4) If put into process prior to August 29, 1942.

(d) Appeal. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a degree of unemployment which would be unreasonably disproportionate compared with the amount of cloth conserved, or that compliance with this order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from non-defense to defense work, may appeal to the War Production Board by letter or telegram, Reference: L-130, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reason he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(e) Certificate. No person who has heretofore or shall after August 29, 1942 put into process or cause to be put into process by others for his account any masculine lounging wear, shall after August 29, 1942 sell such lounging wear without furnishing to his purchaser, other than an ultimate consumer, a certification, and no such purchaser shall accept delivery of such lounging wear without a certification signed by an individual duly authorized to sign for such person, in substantially the following form:

The undersigned hereby certifies to his purchaser and the War Production Board that the masculine lounging wear covered by his invoice No. dated has been manufactured or sold in accordance with the curtailments and exceptions of General Limitation Order No. L-130.

(f) Reports and records. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as may be required by said Board from time to time. The certificate required under paragraph (e) shall be retained by the vendee for a period of one year after receipt.

(g) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, willfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 18th day of March 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

Chapter XI—Office of Price Administration

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[SR 14[1] to GMPR,[2] Amendment 134]

FLUID MILK AND CREAM

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Supplementary Regulation 14 to the General Maximum Price Regulation is amended in the following respects:

1. Inferior subdivision (a) of subdivision (i) of § 1499.73 (a) (1) is amended to read as follows:

§ 1499.73 Modification of maximum prices established by § 1499.2 of General Maximum Price Regulation for certain commodities, services, and transactions. (a) The maximum prices established by § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation for the commodities, services, and transactions listed below are modified as hereinafter provided:

(1) Fluid milk and cream—(i) Maximum prices for fluid milk sold at retail in specified localities. The maximum price of fluid milk sold and delivered at retail, in the localities set forth below, shall be the seller's maximum price as determined under § 1499.2, General Provisions, of the General Maximum Price Regulation, or the applicable adjusted maximum price specified in the schedule set forth below, whichever is higher: Provided, That where the adjusted maximum price is expressed as "plus" a specified amount, the amount specified is to be added to the seller's maximum price as determined under said § 1499.2.

(a) New York Metropolitan area.[4]

Boroughs of Manhattan, Bronx, Brooklyn and Queens

(1) Out-of-store sales and home-deliveries [except retail sales, by hotels, restaurants, and other eating establishments for consumption on the premises].[5]

Special or premium milk and buttermilk [including, but not limited to, Certified, Guernsey, skim milk, and chocolate milk] other than homogenized, Vitamin D, and homogenized-Vitamin D. The seller shall adjust his maximum retail price, as determined under the foregoing table, by the amount of his absolute differential in March 1942 between the price for standard fluid milk and the special or premium milk or buttermilk sold in the same type and size of container: Provided, however, That for sales in paper containers, the retailer may in any event charge 1¢ per quart more than his adjusted maximum price for the same special or premium milk or buttermilk sold in bottles.

(2) Retail sales by hotels, restaurants, and other eating establishments for consumption on the premises. For sales of standard, special or premium milk or buttermilk by hotels, restaurants, or other eating establishments for consumption on the premises, the seller may add to his established maximum price for such sales, as determined under § 1499.2, General Provisions, of the General Maximum Price Regulation, 1¢ for pints, ½ pints, or ⅓ quarts in either glass or paper containers.

(3) Other retail sales. For retail sales other than out-of-store sales, home-deliveries, sales by hotels, restaurants, and other eating establishments for consumption on the premises, and sales to institutions and Government agencies, the seller may add to his maximum retail price to such purchasers, as determined under Section 1499.2, General Provisions, of the General Maximum Price Regulation, an amount proportionate to the increase since March 1942 in his retail home-delivered or out-of-store ceiling price for the same milk in the same type and size of container resulting from the specific maximum prices listed in the foregoing table, subject to applicable customary discounts and allowances.

Exception: The seller may add ½¢ per quart to the foregoing listed specific maximum prices for the sale and delivery of less than 12 quarts of fluid milk on any one day.

Special or premium milk and buttermilk [including, but not limited to, Certified, Guernsey, skim milk, and chocolate milk] other than homogenized, Vitamin D, and homogenized-Vitamin D. The seller shall adjust his maximum wholesale price for sales, as determined under the foregoing table, by the amount of his absolute differential in March 1942 between the price for standard fluid milk and the special or premium milk or buttermilk sold in the same type and size of container, subject to applicable customary discounts and allowances: Provided, however, That for sales in paper containers, the seller may in any event charge 1¢ per quart more than his adjusted maximum price for the same special or premium milk or buttermilk sold in bottles.

⅓ quart container sizes. The seller shall adjust his maximum wholesale price for ⅓ quart container sizes sold to hotels, restaurants, and other eating establishments, as determined under § 1499.2, General Provisions, of the General Maximum Price Regulation, by an amount proportionate to the increase in his ceiling price for the same type of milk in quart container sizes as a result of the specific maximum prices listed in the foregoing table.

(A) Sales at wholesale to combination store-eating establishments [including, but not limited to, delicatessens, milk bars, and soda fountains]. As to places of business combining the functions of retail store-outlets with those of an eating establishment selling fluid milk for consumption on the premises, the foregoing maximum wholesale prices for pints, ½ pints, and ⅓ quarts shall also apply to their purchases. As to wholesale sales of quart container sizes to such combination store-eating establishments, the maximum price shall be the ceiling price for sales to stores, and the maximum wholesale price for quarts sold to hotels and restaurants shall not be applicable to them.

(B) Sales of milk with dispenser apparatus. Where a dispenser apparatus is furnished the buyer as a part of the transaction for the purchase of milk, the seller may add ¾¢ per quart to the specific maximum price for bulk milk listed in the foregoing table.

(3) Sales to institutions [whether wholesale or retail].

[MPR 137,[1] Amendment 28]

PETROLEUM PRODUCTS SOLD AT RETAIL

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation No. 137 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1340.91 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Eastern Seaboard. In the Eastern Seaboard and within the corporate limits of Bristol, Tennessee, the maximum price of gasoline sold at service stations, determined under § 1340.91 (a) (1) and (2) may be increased by not more than 0.4 of a cent per gallon. In the Eastern Seaboard the maximum price determined under § 1340.91 (a) (1) and (2) of kerosene, No. 1 fuel oil and range oil at retail establishments may be increased by not more than 1.4 cents per gallon and of diesel fuel sold at retail establishments by not more than 1.1 cents per gallon.

2. Section 1340.91 (i) is amended to read as follows:

(i) In the Metropolitan Boston, Massachusetts area comprising the following towns and cities: Arlington, Belmont, Boston, Braintree, Brookline, Cambridge, Canton, Chelsea, Cohassett, Dedham, Dover, Everett, Hingham, Lexington, Lynn, Malden, Medford, Melrose, Milton, Nahant, Needham, Newton, Quincy, Reading (but not North Reading), Revere, Saugus, Somerville, Stoneham, Swampscott, Wakefield, Waltham, Watertown, Wellesley, Weston, Westwood, Weymouth, Winchester, Winthrop and Woburn, the maximum price for sellers at retail establishments of kerosene, No. 1 fuel oil and range oil shall be 12.3 cents a gallon.

3. Section 1340.91 (k) is amended to read as follows:

(k) Within the corporate limits of New York City, New York, the maximum prices for sellers at retail establishments of kerosene, No. 1 fuel oil and range oil, also known as stove oil, shall be 14.0 cents per gallon.

4. Section 1340.91 (p) is amended to read as follows:

(p) In the Bridgeport, Connecticut, area, comprising the townships and cities of Bridgeport, Easton, Fairfield, Monroe, Stratford, Trumbull, Weston and Westport, the maximum price for sellers at retail establishments of kerosene, No. 1 fuel oil and range oil shall be 12.5 cents per gallon.

5. Section 1340.91 (q) is amended to read as follows:

(q) In the New Haven, Connecticut, area, comprising the townships and cities of Bethany, Branford, East Haven, Hamden, Milford, North Branford, North Haven, New Haven, Orange, West Haven and Woodbridge, the maximum price for sellers at retail establishments of kerosene, No. 1 fuel oil and range oil shall be 12.5 cents per gallon.

6. Section 1340.91 (r) is amended to read as follows:

(r) In the Hartford, Connecticut, area, comprising the townships and cities of Bloomfield, East Hartford, Glastonbury, Hartford, Newington, Wethersfield, Windsor, Windsor Locks, East Windsor, South Windsor and West Hartford, the maximum price for sellers at retail establishments of kerosene, No. 1 fuel oil and range oil shall be 12.5 cents per gallon.

7. Section 1340.91 (s) is amended to read as follows:

(s) In the Danbury, Connecticut, area, comprising the following townships and cities in the State of Connecticut: Bethel, Bridgewater, Brookfield, Danbury, Redding, Ridgefield, New Fairfield, New Milford, Newtown and Sherman; and the following townships and cities in the State of New York: Brewster, Patterson, and Pawling, the maximum price for sellers at retail establishments of kerosene, No. 1 fuel oil and range oil shall be 13.0 cents per gallon.

8. Section 1340.91 (t) is amended to read as follows:

(t) (1) Baltimore, Maryland. Within the corporate limits of the City of Baltimore, Maryland, the maximum price for sellers at retail establishments of kerosene, No. 1 fuel oil and range oil shall be 13.0 cents per gallon.

(2) Washington, D. C. Within the Washington, D. C., tank wagon area the maximum prices for sellers at retail establishments of kerosene, No. 1 fuel oil and range oil shall be 14.5 cents per gallon.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

[Rev. MPR 148, Amendment 2]

DRESSED HOGS AND WHOLESALE PORK CUTS

Correction

The following changes should be made in Table (g) appearing on page 2925 of the issue for Wednesday, March 10, 1943. In items 5 and 6 the abbreviation "F. S. G. C." should read "F. S. C. C." In item 12 the word "Hot" should read "Not". In item 15 the heading should read "Rib backs:".

PART 1426—WOOD PRESERVATION AND PRIMARY FOREST PRODUCTS

[Correction to MPR 324]

NORTHERN WHITE CEDAR FENCE POSTS

In the price table in § 1426.203, the unit price under the column heading "Each" for the 3'' round, 8' long post, is corrected from $.017 to $.205.

In § 1426.204 (c), the words "33⅓% of the sum of (1) and (2)" are corrected to read "33⅓% of the sum of (a) and (b)".

This correction shall become effective March 23, 1943.

PART 1340—FUEL

[MPR 112[1] as Amended March 18, 1943]

PENNSYLVANIA ANTHRACITE

Section 1340.200 (a) (1) is amended by Amendment 12, so that Maximum Price Regulation No. 112 shall read as follows:

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the prices of anthracite are threatening to rise to an extent and in a manner inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of anthracite prevailing between October 1 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of said Act. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been prepared and is issued simultaneously herewith.*

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator, and in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1,[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 112 is hereby issued.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1340.191 to 1340.200, inclusive, issued under the authority contained in Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

§ 1340.191 Maximum prices for anthracite. On and after April 1, 1942, regardless of the terms of any contract of sale or purchase, or other commitment, no person who is a producer or a distributor shall sell or deliver anthracite and no person shall buy or receive anthracite from a producer or distributor, in the course of trade or business, at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in Appendix A hereof, incorporated herein as § 1340.200; and no person shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 7 (7 F.R. 5176) provides that the prohibition contained in any price regulation against buying or receiving any commodity or service at a price higher than the maximum price permitted by such regulation shall not apply to any war procurement agency, or government whose defense is vital to the defense of the United States.]

§ 1340.192 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those set forth in Appendix A (§ 1340.200) may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1340.193 Conditional agreements. (a) Except as set forth in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, no agreement shall be entered into permitting the adjustment of the selling prices of anthracite to prices which may be higher than the maximum prices provided by § 1340.200 in the event that this Maximum Price Regulation No. 112 is amended or is determined by a court to be invalid or upon any other contingency.

(b) Nothing contained in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 112 shall be deemed to prohibit the making of an agreement specifying that the price shall be the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery or that, if any changes are subsequently effected in the maximum prices, the stipulated price, as to deliveries made on and after the date of the change, shall be adjusted accordingly; but in no event shall any contract permit the retroactive adjustment of the selling prices of anthracite to prices higher than the maximum prices in effect at the time of the delivery thereof (unless an exception is granted by the Price Administrator, as provided in paragraph (c) of this section.)

(c) If a petition for amendment (or for adjustment or for exception) has been duly filed, and such petition requires extensive consideration, and the Administrator determines that such an exception would be in the public interest pending such consideration, the Administrator may grant an exception from the provisions of this section permitting the making of contracts adjustable upon the granting of the petition for amendment (or for adjustment or for exception.) Requests for such an exception may be included in the aforesaid petition for amendment (or for adjustment or for exception.)

[§ 1340.193 as amended by Amendment 1, 7 F.R. 2739]

§ 1340.194 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 112 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of or relating to anthracite, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or by the making of excessive charges for trucking or otherwise.

§ 1340.195 Records and reports. (a) Every producer and distributor making a sale of anthracite and every person making a purchase of anthracite from a producer or distributor on and after April 1, 1942 shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for a period of not less than one year complete and accurate records of each such sale or purchase showing the date thereof; the name and address of the buyer and of the person making the sale; the size, brand or trade name and quantity of the anthracite sold or purchased, together with the name of the mine at which it originated; the method of transportation employed in the delivery thereof; and the price received or paid therefor.

(b) Not later than May 1, 1942, every producer and distributor of anthracite shall file with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C. a statement setting forth: (1) the rate of interest, if any, charged on delinquent accounts or on any note, trade acceptance or other evidence of indebtedness accepted in payment of an account during the period October 1–15, 1941, inclusive; (2) the charges, if any, made for any special services during the period October 1–15, 1941, inclusive, together with a description of the special service rendered; and (3) the cash discounts on all sales and quantity discounts, or rebates, f. o. b. trucks at mines or preparation plants operated as an adjunct to a mine or mines, in effect during the period October 1–15, 1941, inclusive.

[Paragraph (b) as amended by Amendment 11, 8 F.R. 2022]

(c) Persons affected by Maximum Price Regulation No. 112, shall submit such other reports to the Office of Price Administration and keep such other records as it may from time to time require.

(d) [Revoked by Amendment 10, 8 F.R. 444]

§ 1340.196 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 112 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damages, provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 112 or any price schedule, regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest field or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1340.197 Applications for adjustment and petitions for amendment. (a) (1) The Administrator may by order grant an adjustment of the maximum prices to any producer who shows to the satisfaction of the Administrator that (i) the sale of its mine's entire production at the maximum prices would not return a realization equal to its representative cost of production; (ii) such costs of production are of a continuing nature; and (iii) the anthracite produced at the mine has in the past sold at premium prices or is of such quality that there is now a reasonable opportunity for securing premium prices.

(2) The Office of Price Administration may require in connection with any such application, filed under the provisions of this paragraph, full data on costs, profits, price history and other relevant factors. Applications for adjustment pursuant to this paragraph shall be filed in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(3) Any adjustments granted under this paragraph shall not exceed the amount necessary to permit the producer to obtain a realization on the sale of its mine's entire production approximately equal to the mine's representative cost of production.

(b) Persons seeking any modification of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 112 may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration.

[§ 1340.197 as amended by Amendment 11, 8 F.R. 2022]

[NOTE: Procedural Regulation No. 6 (7 F.R. 5087, 5665) provides for the filing of applications for adjustment of maximum prices for commodities or services under Government contracts or subcontracts. Supplementary Order No. 9 (7 F.R. 5444, 9323) makes the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 6 applicable to all price regulations, with the exception of those on scrap, waste, and salvage materials.]

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 28 (7 F.R. 9619) provides for the filing of applications for adjustment or petitions for amendment based on a pending wage or salary increase requiring the approval of the National War Labor Board.]

§ 1340.198 Definitions. (a) When used in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 112 the term:

(1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(2) "Producer" means a person engaged in the business of mining and/or preparing anthracite and any person acting as an agent of a producer in the sale of anthracite.

(3) "Distributor" means a person who purchases anthracite f. o. b. transportation facilities at a mine or preparation plant for resale, and resells the same in not less than cargo or railroad carload lots, without physically handling such anthracite, and any person acting as an agent of a distributor in the sale of anthracite.

(4) "Anthracite" means all coal produced in the Lehigh, Schuylkill and Wyoming regions in the State of Pennsylvania.

(5) "Ground storage facility" means a storage facility not operated as an adjunct of a mine or preparation plant, which is customarily used by a producer or distributor for storage of anthracite in transit from a mine or adjunct preparation plant to a purchaser.

[Paragraph (5) added by Amendment 9, 7 F.R. 10554]

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall apply to other terms used herein.

§ 1340.199 Effective date. This Maximum Price Regulation No. 112 (§§ 1340.191 to 1340.200, inclusive) shall become effective April 1, 1942.

The prices set forth in subparagraphs (2), (3), and (4) of this paragraph shall be the maximum prices for this anthracite for so long as the present quality and preparation standards are maintained; otherwise, the maximum prices shall be those established by subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

[Paragraph (a) as amended by Amendment 10, 8 F.R. 444]

(b) [Revoked by Amendment 3, 7 F.R. 2868]

(c) Cash discounts, credit terms and special services. (1) There shall be deducted from the maximum prices established in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section the cash discounts on all sales and quantity discounts, or rebates, f. o. b. trucks at mines or preparation plants operated as an adjunct to a mine or mines, in effect during the period October 1–15, 1941, inclusive.

[Paragraph (c) (1) as amended by Amendment 11, 8 F.R. 2022]

(2) The rate of interest on overdue accounts or on a note, trade acceptance or other form of indebtedness accepted in payment of an account shall not exceed the rate charged by the seller on similar transactions during the period of October 1–15, 1941, inclusive.

(3) (i) The charges made for any special service, including (specifically but not exclusively) calcium chloride treatment, specially prepared sizes, split cars (containing more than one size), box car loading, truck loading from pockets at the mine, bags and bagging, and the making of local or retail deliveries from the mine or adjunct preparation plant, shall not exceed the charges made for the same service during the period October 1–October 15, 1941, inclusive; but any producer whose special service charge for bags and bagging of anthracite at the mine or adjunct preparation plant during the period October 1–October 15, 1941, inclusive, was less than $2.30 per net ton, may charge for this special service an amount not in excess of $2.30 per net ton.

[Paragraph (3) (i) as amended by Amendment 10, 8 F.R. 444]

(ii) For the coal prepared at the Salem Hill breaker at Palo Alto, Schuylkill County, Pennsylvania by Haddock Mining Company, Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania and marketed under the trade name "Salem Hill Brooder Coal," there may be added a charge of 25 cents per net ton over and above the maximum prices otherwise provided in this § 1340.200:

Provided, That upon inspection by the producer each shipment of such coal is found to meet the following specifications: it shall be sized through a 1⅝" and over a ⅛" test mesh with maximum oversize of two percent and undersize of three percent; float and sink test shall not exceed five percent sink on a 1.7 gravity; and:

Provided, further, That a record of inspection of each shipment of this coal shall be kept by the producer for a period of not less than one year for examination by the Office of Price Administration.

[Paragraph (ii) as amended by Amendment 5, 7 F.R. 4294]

(iii) Where anthracite coal is delivered from a mine or preparation plant in any transportation facilities owned or subject to the control of the producer or a distributor, or subsidiary or affiliate of the producer or distributor, or in any transportation facilities hired by the producer or a distributor, there may be added to the applicable maximum prices established herein a sum not in excess of the actual transportation costs incurred, determined in a reasonable manner, but in no event to exceed the lowest common carrier rate for a haul between the same points.

(iv) There may be added to the maximum prices established herein an amount not in excess of the tax imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 when incurred by a producer or distributor of anthracite: Provided, That the tax so incurred shall be stated separately from the price paid by the purchaser.

[Paragraphs (iii) and (iv) added by Amendment 8, 7 F.R. 10529]

(d) Premium-penalty contracts. (1) Barley (±3 buckwheat) may be sold or delivered at a base price not to exceed the maximum price established therefor by paragraph (a) (1) of this section plus a premium or minus a penalty (as the percentage by weight of ash content varies above or below a specified basic percentage by weight of ash content) to any person who, during the period October 1–15, 1941, had in effect an agreement providing for the purchase of such anthracite on such terms:

Provided, That, any premium-penalty agreement executed pursuant to this paragraph (d) shall be subject to the conditions of the following subparagraphs (2) and (3):

[Proviso amended by Amendment 10, 8 F.R. 444]

(2) No agreement executed pursuant to this paragraph (d) shall:

(i) Decrease the size of the bottom screen used in sizing under that required in a premium-penalty agreement which the same purchaser had in effect during the period October 1–15, 1941.

(ii) Increase the maximum percentage of allowable undersize beyond the percentage which was specified in a premium-penalty agreement which the same purchaser had in effect during the period October 1–15, 1941.

(iii) Increase the per net ton return to the seller (on coal of the same ash content) beyond that provided in a premium-penalty agreement which the same purchaser had in effect during the period October 1–15, 1941, except that an increase in return due solely to the fact that the specified base price is equal to the maximum price established by paragraph (a) (1) hereof for barley (#3 buckwheat) may be paid and received.

(3) (i) Any purchaser who enters into a premium-penalty agreement pursuant to this paragraph (d) shall, within 15 days thereafter, file with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., a certified copy of all premium-penalty agreements to which he was a party during the period October 1–15, 1941.

(ii) No purchaser who enters into a premium-penalty agreement pursuant to this paragraph (d) shall relax the method of sampling and analysis (to determine the ash content of anthracite received pursuant to such agreement) from that which he employed in connection with anthracite received under a premium-penalty agreement which he had in effect during the period October 1–15, 1941.

(iii) [Revoked by Amendment 10, 8 F.R. 444]

(4) Contracts in effect January 9, 1943 which provide for sales of sizes smaller than barley (#3 buckwheat) on conditions similar to those set forth in the preceding subparagraphs of this paragraph (d) may be carried out at a base price not in excess of $1.80 per net ton.

[Paragraph (4) as amended by Amendment 10, 8 F.R. 444]

[Paragraph (d) added by Amendment 6, 7 F.R. 4539]

PART 1390—MACHINERY AND TRANSPORTATION EQUIPMENT

[MPR 136, as Amended, Amendment 71]

MACHINES AND PARTS, AND MACHINERY SERVICES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1390.8 is amended as set forth below:

§ 1390.8 Maximum prices: sales by the manufacturer of machines or parts manufactured in new or converted plants. If the manufacturer is unable to determine the maximum price for any machine or part pursuant to the provisions of § 1390.7 because such machine or part is manufactured in a new or converted plant or for any other reason:

(a) Price-determining method. The manufacturer shall establish a price-determining method and rates for use therein (labor rates, machine hour rates, overhead rates, and profit rates, etc.) for the determination of the maximum price for such machine or part, conforming so far as possible to the provisions of § 1390.7. The overhead rate so established shall be a reasonable rate in the light of the operations to be performed, and shall, so far as possible, be based on costs for items of overhead in effect on October 1, 1941. In the case of a newly constructed plant, however, the manufacturer may use as a base date for all purposes the date upon which price quotations were first made or upon which production was started in the plant, whichever is earlier, and shall use the labor rates for each classification of labor prevailing on that date in the locality of the plant, determined in accordance with § 1390.7 (b).

(b) Reports. The manufacturer shall file a report with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., containing (1) the proposed price-determining method and rates used in establishing maximum prices as provided in paragraph (a); (2) a description of the items for which the maximum price is to be computed under such price-determining method; (3) a representative sample of prices computed in accordance with the proposed price-determining method; (4) an explanation of the circumstances necessitating pricing under this section; (5) relevant data bearing on the price-determining method and rates to be used, including evidence that such method and rates were determined as provided in paragraph (a); (6) a statement of whether or not quantity production has been achieved or is anticipated; (7) a brief description of the newly constructed or converted plant; and (8) any other data which the Office of Price Administration may in writing require.

(c) Maximum prices. (1) Prices computed in accordance with the proposed method reported under paragraph (b) may be quoted or charged for thirty days prior to filing such report and may be quoted or charged thereafter until the Office of Price Administration disapproves such price in writing or requires a new filing under paragraph (b). If the Office of Price Administration approves the proposed price-determining method and the prices of the machines or parts whose maximum prices are to be computed in accordance therewith, or fails to disapprove them within thirty days after receiving such report, the maximum prices for such machines or parts shall be determined in accordance with the proposed price-determining method until a new price-determining method is proposed and reported either upon the initiative of the manufacturer or as required by the Office of Price Administration.

(2) Within thirty days after receiving such report, the Office of Price Administration may in writing disapprove the proposed price-determining method and the prices resulting from its use, and upon such disapproval the manufacturer shall file a revised price-determining method in accordance with the suggestions and directions contained in such disapproval, and the provisions of this section shall apply in all respects to such revised method. In disapproving any proposed price-determining method, the Office of Price Administration may require the manufacturer to adjust all contracts made at prices determined pursuant to such method and may require that refunds be made as to all deliveries made at prices determined pursuant to such method. Such disapproval and requirement of refunds shall, upon request of the manufacturer, be embodied in an order.

(d) Not later than six months after last filing a price-determining method which was not disapproved by the Office of Price Administration, the manufacturer shall file a report with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., containing (1) a comparison of his actual direct and indirect costs for the period under review, with the estimates on which the price-determining method being used was based and (2) so far as available, for each of the representative items for which prices were previously filed, the current price being charged, and a comparison of the actual direct and indirect costs with the estimate on which the price previously filed was based.

(e) Any manufacturer may at any time file, and the Office of Price Administration may at any time require the filing of a new or revised price-determining method in accordance with the provisions of this section, together with a representative sample of prices determined in accordance with such method.

This amendment shall become effective March 24, 1943.

PART 1404—RATIONING OF FOOTWEAR

[Ration Order 17,[1] Amendment 5]

SHOES

A rationale accompanying this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order 17 is amended in the following respects:

1. The following sentence is added to section 1.5 (b):

However, an applicant applying for safety shoes required to protect his health or safety because of the conditions under which he works, may be found to have "need" for them even though a member of his family has a War Ration Shoe Stamp which the applicant could use.

2. Section 2.11 (a) (2) (viii) is amended to read as follows:

(viii) Shoes (sandals), other than imported huaraches, with a heel height of $1\frac{1}{8}$ inches or less with an open back;

3. Section 2.11 (a) (2) (ix) is added to read as follows:

(ix) Shoes which have rubber or leather in the sole only as hinges, tabs, heel inserts or other non-skid or soundproofing features covering not more than 25 percent of the area of the bottom of the sole. (Any material may be used in other parts of the shoe.)

4. The definition of "safety shoes" is added in section 3.13 to read as follows:

"Safety shoes" means protective occupational shoes incorporating one or more of the following safety features: (1) steel toe box, (2) electrical conductivity, (3) electrical resistance, (4) nonsparking, (5) molders' (Congress type) protection.

This amendment shall become effective March 24, 1943.

PART 1405—FERRO-ALLOYS

[MPR 258,[1] Amendment 1]

CHROME ORES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

A new § 1405.104a is added as set forth below:

§ 1405.104a Sales or deliveries of domestic chrome ores to dealers. Neither the provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 258, other than § 1405.108, nor the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall apply to the sale or delivery of domestic chrome ores to a dealer who buys for resale. As here used "domestic chrome ore" means any chrome ore mined within the continental United States.

This amendment shall become effective March 24, 1943.

PART 1407—RATIONING OF FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[Restriction Order 1,[1] Amendment 16]

MEAT RESTRICTION

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Subparagraph (2) of paragraph (a) of § 1407.912 is amended; subparagraph (2) of paragraph (c) of § 1407.912a is amended; a new sentence is added at the end of paragraph (a) of § 1407.913; as set forth below:

§ 1407.912 Exempt purchasers. (a) * * *

(2) Any person, to the extent that controlled meat is delivered to him for export to any foreign country or any territory or possession of the United States other than the District of Columbia or for consumption in aircraft while in flight to foreign countries or to territories or possessions of the United States other than the District of Columbia.

* * * * * *

§ 1407.912a Deliveries permitted without charge against quotas. * * *

(c) * * *

(2) If the exempt purchaser is a person designated in § 1407.912 (a) (2) there shall be attached to such certification a copy of the bill of lading under which the controlled meat, canned meat or sausage has been exported, or a Shipper's Export Declaration bearing the notation of an authorized customs official to the effect that the quantity of controlled meat, canned meat or sausage therein stated has been exported or loaded in aircraft for consumption while in flight to foreign countries or to territories or possessions of the United States other than the District of Columbia. In the case of aircraft, a statement to the same effect by the Army, Navy, Marine Corps or Coast Guard officer in charge of the field from which the aircraft departs may be substituted for either of the above requirements.

* * * * * *

§ 1407.913 Conversion weight factors. (a) * * * Provided, however, That if the average live purchase weight of swine slaughtered during Quota Period 2 or any subsequent quota period is within 30 pounds of the average live purchase weight of swine slaughtered during the corresponding base period, the same conversion factor shall be used in computing the conversion weight of swine slaughtered during such quota period as was required to be used during the corresponding base period.

TITLE 36—PARKS AND FORESTS

Chapter II—Forest Service

[Regulations E–1 to E–15]

PART 251—LAND USES

RIGHTS-OF-WAY FOR ELECTRIC POWER TRANSMISSION LINES

Regulations for granting easements for rights-of-way for electric power transmission lines upon and across national forest and other land administered by the Forest Service.

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by the Act of June 4, 1897 (30 Stat. 35, 16 U.S.C. 551); the Act of February 1, 1905 (33 Stat. 628, 16 U.S.C. 472), and the Act of March 4, 1911 (36 Stat. 1253, 16 U.S.C. 523), I, Grover B. Hill, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, do make and publish the following regulations for granting easements for rights-of-way for electric power transmission lines upon and across national forest and other land under Forest Service administration, hereby revoking all previous regulations issued specifically for said purpose:

Sec.
251.50 Definitions.
251.51 By whom granted.
251.52 General conditions.
251.53 Acceptance required.
251.54 Consideration of application.
251.55 Contents and filing of application.
251.56 Extension of construction period.
251.57 Annual charges.
251.58 Transfer of easement.
251.59 Deviations during construction.
251.60 Forfeiture or annulment of easement.
251.61 Abandonment with approval of Secretary.
251.62 Remedies upon breach by grantee.
251.63 Removal of transmission line upon forfeiture, annulment or abandonment.
251.64 Modification of easement.

AUTHORITY: §§ 251.50–251.64, inclusive, issued under authority of 30 Stat. 35, 16 U.S.C. 551; 33 Stat. 628, 16 U.S.C. 472, and 36 Stat. 1253, 16 U.S.C. 523.

§ 251.50 Definitions. For the purposes of these regulations the following words and terms shall be construed respectively to mean:

(a) "Act" means the Act of March 4, 1911 (36 Stat. 1253, 16 U. S. C. 523).

(b) "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

(c) "Forest Service" means the Forest Service, a bureau of the Department of Agriculture.

(d) "Regional Forester" means the Regional Forester of the Forest Service region within which the transmission line is located.

(e) "Transmission line" means the poles, towers, wires, insulators and all other structures, equipment, appliances and other facilities erected or to be erected when:

(1) The transmitted energy is generated from other than water power;

(2) The transmission line classifies as a non-primary line under the provisions of the Federal Power Act (41 Stat. 1063, as amended; 16 U. S. C. 791 et seq.) because it does not transmit power from a water power plant or appurtenant works to a point of junction with the distribution system or with the interconnected primary transmission system.*

(f) "Easement" means a right-of-way for a period not exceeding fifty (50) years and of width not exceeding twenty (20) feet on each side of the center line of the transmission line and poles or towers granted for the purposes of constructing, operating and maintaining a transmission line over, across and upon national forest or other land under the jurisdiction of the Secretary and which under delegated authority are directly administered by the Forest Service.

(g) "Applicant" means a citizen, association of citizens or corporation of the United States making application for an easement under provisions of the Act and the regulations thereunder.

(h) "Grantee" means an applicant to whom an easement is granted. [Reg. E–1]

§ 251.51 By whom granted. An easement shall be granted by the Secretary and any modification of an easement shall be approved by the Secretary. [Reg. E–2]

§ 251.52 General conditions. The Secretary, within the limitations prescribed by the Act, shall decide the width of the right-of-way and the tenure of the easement, and shall decide the conditions to be incorporated in the easement for the protection of the public interests and for the administration, protection, development and utilization of the national forest and other land under his jurisdiction. [Reg. E–3]

§ 251.53 Acceptance required. The easement shall be conditioned upon the acceptance thereof by the grantee and shall not become effective unless, within sixty (60) days of the date of the easement, acceptance of the easement by the grantee shall have been evidenced in writing. If not so accepted within that period or such extension as may be approved by the Secretary, the application will be rejected. [Reg. E–4]

§ 251.54 Consideration of application. Consideration of an application for an easement shall be conditioned upon the filing with the Regional Forester of the application properly certified in the prescribed form and containing all the required material and data. Priority of consideration of applications shall be initiated in the order of filing of complete applications as determined by the Regional Forester. [Reg. E–5]

§ 251.55 Contents and filing of application. An application for an easement shall be filed with the Regional Forester and shall consist of the following, to be furnished in quadruplicate except as otherwise provided:

(a) Form E–100 (Application for easement under the Act of March 4, 1911), completely filled out and certified.

(b) Location map, conforming to the following:

(1) Size. The size shall be convenient and shall be 8″ x 10½″, 10½″ x 16″, 18″ x 21″, 21″ x 26″, 21″ x 34″, 24″ x 36″, or 28″ x 40″.

(2) Title. The title shall show the name of the transmission line, the date of application on Form E–100 and the name of the engineer preparing the map.

(3) Scale. The scale shall be convenient, but in no case shall an inch on the map represent more than 2,000 feet. Scale shall be adequate for a clear showing of all required map detail.

(4) Line location. Map and field notes shall show reference lines from the nearest corner of the public land survey (if within 2 miles) to the termini of the transmission line when within a National Forest or other area administered by the Forest Service and to the points of entering and leaving the national forest or such other area if it crosses the same. When any terminus or an intersection with the national forest or other area boundary is upon land not covered by the public land survey, or when the nearest established corner of the public land survey is more than two miles distant, the tie may be made with a permanent mark on a natural object or a permanent monument which can be readily found and recognized. The relationship may be shown by the traverse or the straight line distance and bearing may be computed. The field notes shall give an accurate description of the natural object or monument.

When the transmission line crosses land covered by the public land survey, the map and field notes shall also show the intersection of the survey line with the section lines of the public land survey. Such intersections shall be referenced by course and distance to the nearest existing corner along the section lines intersected if such corner is within one-half mile. If no corner of the public land survey exists or can be found within a half mile of the survey line, this fact may be noted on the map and in the field notes and the reference omitted. Also, under such conditions the field notes shall show the location of the center line of the transmission line by the bearing and distance of each course. Similar survey data for the location of the center line will be required in other cases unless this requirement is specifically waived by the Regional Forester.

For areas within the boundaries of a National Forest or other area administered by the Forest Service, the map shall also show all lines of public land subdivisions by official survey, the protractions on unsurveyed public land of section and township lines and the status as to ownership of lands, designating separately lands patented and lands of the United States reserved, unreserved, entered or otherwise embraced in an unperfected claim under the public land laws.

(5) Certificate of applicant. A certificate in the following form shall be lettered or typed on the tracing of the location map and shall be completed and signed:

This map is a part of the application for an easement made by the undersigned this ---------- day of ----------, 19--.

Name of Applicant.
By ---

(c) Field notes, duly certified and showing the courses and distances of the survey and the required ties to corners, permanent marks on natural objects or permanent monuments except when such courses, distances and ties are completely and clearly shown on the location map. The paper size shall be 8″ x 10½″ or 8½″ x 11″.

(d) Diagrammatic map, when deemed necessary by the Regional Forester for a determination of whether an easement may be granted or a license under the Federal Power Act, supra, is required. Such maps shall show the relationship of connected generating plants and lines, need not be drawn to scale, shall be at least 8″ x 10½″ in size and shall show:

(1) Position of the transmission line in the system and the functions it performs as part of the power system.

(2) Source of power and whether the transmission line connects directly with a hydro-electric plant, a steam plant, another line or a substation.

(3) Capacity of the transmission line and relation of its capacity to that of the generating plant or line to which it connects.

(4) Relation of voltage and phase of the transmission line to that of the line from which energy is received.

(5) Contemplated use of energy delivered.

(e) General description and specifications for transmission line and contemplated use or market for power, covering voltage, phase and capacity of the transmission line; number, size and material of wires; height, material and ordinary spacing of poles or towers; National or other design and erection specifications to be followed; power plant or plants at which transmitted energy is generated; whether the energy is generated by water or other source of power; and where, in what amount and for what purposes the transmitted energy is expected to be utilized. The paper size shall be 8″ x 10½″ or 8½″ x 11″.

(f) Showing as to status of applicant—(1) For an individual. One sworn statement that the applicant is a citizen of the United States.

(2) For an association of individuals. One sworn statement of each member that he is a citizen of the United States, together with a certified copy of the articles of association except when a certified copy is already on file in the office of the Regional Forester or when a copy has been filed with and accepted by the Federal Power Commission. If there be no articles of association, that fact must be stated over the signature of each member together with a sworn statement by at least one member that those signing the statement are all of the members of the association.

(3) For a private corporation. (i) One copy of the charter or articles of incorporation duly certified by its secretary under the seal of the corporation or by the Secretary of State in which it was incorporated, except when a duly certified copy is already on file in the office of the Regional Forester or when a duly certified copy has been filed with and accepted by the Federal Power Commission.

(ii) When the easement applied for is located in a State other than that in which the applicant was incorporated, one certificate by the proper officer of the State in which the easement is located that the applicant has complied with the laws of such State governing foreign corporations to the extent required to entitle the applicant to operate in such State, except when satisfactory evidence of such compliance is already on file in the office of the Regional Forester or with the Federal Power Commission.

(4) For a public corporation. One copy of the law under which it was organized. [Reg. E–6]

§ 251.56 Extension of construction period. An extension of the period specified in the easement for beginning and completing construction may be granted by the Secretary. Such an extension will be granted only after a showing is made by the grantee to the satisfaction of the Secretary that compliance with the periods specified in the easement has been prevented by difficulties that could not reasonably have been foreseen or by other special and peculiar causes beyond the control of the grantee. [Reg. E–7]

§ 251.57 Annual charges. Unless otherwise provided in the easement, the grantee shall pay annually, in advance, such reasonable charges as may be specified by the Secretary. Deposit of the charges for a full year shall be made prior to the grant of the easement. [Reg. E–8]

§ 251.58 Transfer of easement. Transfer of the easement to any citizen, association of citizens or corporation of the United States shall be conditioned upon:

(a) The transferor and the transferee filing with the Regional Forester an application in quadruplicate on Form E–104 subscribed to jointly by the transferor and transferee, and certified copies of instrument of conveyance, judgment, will, contract or sale whereby title to the property is conveyed;

(b) Acceptance by the transferee of the conditions in the easement and such additional conditions as the Secretary may prescribe;

(c) Written evidence of the Secretary's approval of the transfer. [Reg. E–9]

§ 251.59 Deviations during construction. Material deviations during construction from the location shown in the application shall not be made except with the prior approval of the Secretary and such deviation will not be allowed if it will interfere with the occupancy and use under existing permits, easements or licenses of lands administered by the Forest Service. If after the completion of construction there are any deviations in location from that shown upon the original map or approved amendments thereof, a supplemental map prepared in the manner prescribed for original maps of location shall be filed with the Regional Forester within six (6) months after completion of construction. Application for approval of any material deviation during construction and other changes in the location shown upon the application maps shall be filed with the Regional Forester in quadruplicate on Form E–103 and in accordance with the specific conditions in the easement. [Reg. E–10]

§ 251.60 Forfeiture or annulment of easement. The Secretary may declare an easement forfeited or annulled for nonuse for a period of two (2) years or for abandonment. Such action shall not be taken until the grantee has been given not less than thirty (30) days' written notice of the contemplated action. [Reg. E–11]

§ 251.61 Abandonment with approval of Secretary. An easement may be abandoned or surrendered with the approval of the Secretary upon fulfillment by the grantee of such obligations under the easement as the Secretary may prescribe, and if the transmission line authorized by the easement has been constructed in whole or in part, then upon such conditions with respect to the disposition of the transmission line as may be prescribed by the Secretary. [Reg. E–12]

§ 251.62 Remedies upon breach by grantee. Upon breach by the grantee of any of the terms or conditions set forth in these regulations or in the easement, the United States may enforce appropriate remedy therefor by injunction, action for damages or otherwise. If any such breach shall be continued or repeated after thirty (30) days' written notice thereof, given in behalf of the United States to the grantee, the easement granted, together with all rights thereunder and all charges and other moneys paid thereon, may be forfeited to the United States by a suit for that purpose in any court of competent jurisdiction. [Reg. E–13]

§ 251.63 Removal of transmission line upon forfeiture, annulment or abandonment. The transmission line shall be removed from the easement or otherwise disposed of as prescribed by the Secretary within twelve (12) months after the declaration by the Secretary of the forfeiture or annulment of the easement or the approval by the Secretary of the abandonment or surrender thereof. If the transmission line is not so removed or disposed of it and every part thereof shall be and become the property of the United States. [Reg. E–14]

§ 251.64 Modification of easement. An application for modification of an easement shall be filed with the Regional Forester in quadruplicate on Form E–103 and the grantee shall furnish such data and information as may be requested by the Regional Forester. Approval of a modification shall be conditioned upon the acceptance in writing by the grantee of all the terms and conditions thereof. [Reg. E–15]

Issued this 16th day of March 1943.

HOLMES–DARST COAL CORP.

ORDER OF THE DIRECTOR

In the matter of the application of Holmes-Darst Coal Corporation for permission to receive sales agents' commissions and distributors' discounts on coal sold to certain retail yards in which it is financially or otherwise interested.

Upon the basis of the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law set forth in the Opinion of the Director, filed simultaneously herewith, wherein it appears that application was made by petitioner, Holmes-Darst Coal Corporation, a registered distributor (Registration No. 4454), for permission to accept or retain distributors' discounts or sales agents' commissions on coal purchased for resale or sold by petitioner to Wm. M. Coady Coal Company, Horne Coal Company, North State Fuel Company, J. F. Phillips Coal Company, Claude M. Trawick Coal Company, Wright Coal Company and Yadkin Fuel Company and C. L. Bolton Coal Co., Inc.,

It is hereby ordered and determined, That the acceptance or retention of distributors' discounts or sales agents' commissions on coal sold by petitioner, Holmes-Darst Coal Corporation to the Wm. M. Coady Coal Company, Horne Coal Company, North State Fuel Company, J. F. Phillips Coal Company, Claude M. Trawick Coal Company, Wright Coal Company, and Yadkin Fuel Company is not prohibited by § 317.10 (Miscellaneous provisions—(c) Effect of control by retail purchaser) of the Rules and Regulations for the Registration of Distributors, § 318.2 (j) (Sales Agents) of the Marketing Rules and Regulations, and by the provisions of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 and the Rules and Regulations thereunder, and that the relief prayed for herein should in this respect be granted.

It is further ordered and determined, That the acceptance or retention of distributors' discounts or sales agents' commissions on coal sold by petitioner, Holmes-Darst Coal Corporation to C. L. Bolton Coal Co., Inc., is prohibited by § 317.10 (c) of the Rules and Regulations for the Registration of Distributors, § 318.2 (j) of the Marketing Rules and Regulations, and by the provisions of the Act and the Rules and Regulations thereunder, and that the relief prayed for herein should in this respect be denied.

DISTRICT BOARD 2

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING AND ORDER DENYING REQUEST FOR TEMPORARY RELIEF

In the matter of the petition of District Board No. 2 for the establishment of an additional price exception in the schedule of effective minimum prices for District No. 2 for all shipments except truck.

A petition, pursuant to the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party;

It is ordered, That a hearing in the above-entitled matter under the applicable provisions of said Act and the rules of the Division be held on April 13, 1943, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, Washington, D. C. On such day the Chief of the Records Section will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Charles O. Fowler, or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officers so designated to preside at such hearing are hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, take evidence, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in this proceeding and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to this proceeding may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division for proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which the relief in the original petition is supported or opposed or on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before April 7, 1943.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and any orders entered therein, may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petition, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petition, petitions of intervention or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of this petition.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the original petition filed in the above-entitled matter by District Board No. 2 requesting the establishment of an additional Price Exception in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 2 For All Shipments Except Truck to read substantially as follows:

In order to expedite the production and distribution of bituminous coal during the period of the present National emergency, any Code Member who is now making rail shipments of coal may, until further order of the Director, make such shipments from any loading point located within reasonable proximity to the loading point or points presently established for his mine or mines: Provided, Such additional loading facilities are located on the same railroad or railroads and are within the same original freight rate zone or zones which are included within the boundaries of the freight origin group number or numbers presently assigned by the Division to such mine or mines or within another freight origin group taking the same adjustments; and Provided, further, That the Code Member desiring to make such shipments from such additional loading point or points shall have notified in writing the Division and the District Board of the intention to use such additional facility or facilities, describing their location and stating the necessity for such use.

It is further ordered, That the request for temporary relief be, and the same hereby is, denied without prejudice to the renewal of such request for temporary relief, upon further showing or upon the basis of the record to be made at the hearing to be held herein.

Dated: March 16, 1943.

DISTRICT BOARD 6

ORDER GRANTING TEMPORARY RELIEF

In the matter of the petition of District Board No. 6 requesting the establishment of a temporary change in shipping point for the coals of the Rivercoal, Inc. Mine, Mine Index No. 29 of Rivercoal, Inc.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment of a temporary change in the shipping point from Moundsville, West Virginia on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad to South Wheeling (Wheeling), West Virginia on the Pennsylvania Railroad, for the coals of Rivercoal, Inc., Mine Index No. 29 of Rivercoal, Inc.; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 6 For All Shipments Except Truck is supplemented to include a change in shipping point from Moundsville, West Virginia on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad to South Wheeling (Wheeling), West Virginia on the Pennsylvania Railroad for the coals of Rivercoal Inc. Mine, Mine Index No. 29 of Rivercoal, Inc.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to the Rules Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall terminate sixty (60) days from the date of this Order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

Dated: March 16, 1943.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION.

[Supplemental Order 98-A to Commission Order 98]

RATES FOR GOVERNMENT COMMUNICATIONS BY TELEGRAPH

DAY LETTER LONGRAMS

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 16th day of March 1943;

The Commission having under consideration paragraph 4 of its Order No. 98,[1] in connection with the new message telegraph classification known as Day Letter/Longrams, established February 1, 1943, and paragraph 12 of its Order No. 98, in connection with the amendment of section 5266 of the Revised Statutes, as amended (U.S.C., 1940 Edition, Title 47, section 3), effected by section 6 of Public Law 4, 78th Congress, 1st Session, approved March 6, 1943;

It is ordered: (1) That, until and including the 30th day of June 1943, each Day Letter/Longram between the several departments of the Government and their officers relating exclusively to the public business shall be sent at a charge not exceeding 80 percentum of the charge applicable to a like commercial Day Letter/Longram between the same points in the United States, or 60 percentum of the charge for such message computed at the following rates, whichever shall produce the lower charge for the particular message: for the first 50 words or less, one and one-half times the 10-word Day Message (Telegram) rate between the same points, and for each additional 10 words or less, one-fifth of the initial 50-word rate: Provided, however, That the charge for a serial Longram shall not exceed 80 percentum of the charge applicable to a like commercial serial Longram; that a Day Letter/Longram shall be charged for as a Day Letter/Longram as above provided or as a Day Message, according to which of these classifications shall produce the lower charge for the particular message; that when the first section of a serial Longram is not followed by another on the same day, it shall be charged for as a Day Letter/Longram as above provided, or as a Day Message, according to which of these two classifications shall produce the lower charge for the particular message; that when more than one section of a serial Longram is filed on the same day the sections shall be charged for at serial Longram rates, or at Serial rates, or each section of the serial Longram shall be charged for as a Day Letter/Longram as above provided, or as a Day Message, according to which of these four classifications shall produce the lowest total charge: And provided further, That the minimum charge for Day Letter/Longrams shall be 45 cents and for serial Longrams 60 cents, unless either of these amounts shall be greater than the minimum for a corresponding commercial message, in which event the provisions set forth in paragraph 5 of Order No. 98 shall apply.

2. That on and after March 6, 1943, the words "telegraph communications between the several departments of the Government and their officers and agents", wherever they appear in Order No. 98, shall be construed to mean "telegraph communications between the several departments of the Government and their officers, relating exclusively to the public business"; and paragraph numbered 12 of Order No. 98 shall be disregarded and have no effect.

3. That this supplemental order shall be effective immediately.

By the Commission.

DEFINITIONS AND STANDARDS OF ENRICHED FLOURS, ETC.

NOTICE OF HEARING

In the matter of amended definitions and standards of identity for enriched flour, enriched bromated flour, enriched self-rising flour, and enriched farina; and in the matter of a definition and standard of identity for enriched bread and enriched rolls or enriched buns.

Notice is herby given that the Administrator of the Federal Security Agency, in accordance with the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, secs. 401 and 701, 21 U.S.C. secs. 341 and 371 (Supp. V, 1939), will hold a public hearing commencing at 10 o'clock on the morning of April 19, 1943, in Room 1409, South Building, Independence Avenue between 12th and 14th Streets, SW., Washington, D. C. for the purpose of receiving evidence upon the basis of which regulations may be promulgated amending the definitions and standards of identity for enriched flour, enriched bromated flour, enriched self-rising flour, and enriched farina (6 F.R. 2579-82); and for the purpose of receiving additional evidence relating to the use of certain vitamins and minerals in enriched bread and enriched rolls or buns, for which definitions and standards of identity were suggested in 6 F.R. 2772.

The specific suggestions to be considered at the hearing are set forth below. It is not to be inferred from the fact that these suggestions are made that they represent the views of the Federal Security Agency or that evidence concerning them will be adduced by the Agency. Interested persons are notified that the hearing is a fact-finding proceeding and that such suggestions are subject to adoption, rejection, amendment, or modification, in whole or in part, as the evidence of record may require. No evidence will be received which is not relevant and material to the use of the vitamins and minerals named in such suggestions.

Alanson W. Willcox is hereby designated as Presiding Officer to conduct the hearing in the place of the Administrator, with full authority to administer oaths and affirmations and to do all other things appropriate to the conduct of the hearing.

The hearing will be conducted in accordance with the rules of practice provided for such hearings as published in 21 Code of Federal Regulations, §§ 2.701 to 2.715 (Supp. 1939).

In lieu of personal appearance, interested persons may proffer affidavits by delivering them to the Presiding Officer at Room 2242, South Building, Independence Avenue between 12th and 14th Streets SW., Washington, D. C., not later than 10 o'clock in the morning of the day of the opening of the hearing. Such affidavits must be submitted in quintuplicate and, if relevant and material, may be received and made a part of the record at the hearing, but the Administrator will consider the lack of opportunity for cross-examination in determining the weight to be given to statements in the affidavits. Every interested person will be permited to examine the affidavits proffered and to file with the Presiding Officer during the hearing affidavits counter to relevant and material statements of fact and opinion in such original affidavits.

Suggestions relating to the definitions and standards of identity for enriched flour, enriched bromated flour, and enriched self-rising flour. It is suggested that such definitions and standards be amended:

(1) By changing the minimum and maximum limits for vitamin B_1, niacin, and iron to the following:

	Milligrams per pound of the food
	Minimum	Maximum
Vitamin B_1	2.0	2.4
Niacin	16.0	32.0
Iron	13.0	26.0

(2) By changing the maximum limit for riboflavin to 2.4 milligrams per pound of the food.

Suggestions relating to enriched bread and enriched rolls or buns. It is suggested that definitions and standards of identity be prescribed for enriched bread and enriched rolls or enriched buns, which provide for the use of vitamin B_1, niacin, riboflavin, iron, calcium, and vitamin D, and that the minimum and maximum limits for such vitamins and minerals be as follows:

	Minimum	Maximum
Vitamin B_1	1.1	2.2 mgs. per lb. of the food.
Niacin	10.0	20.0 mgs. per lb. of the food.
Riboflavin	0.7	1.4 mgs. per lb. of the food.
Iron	8.0	16.0 mgs. per lb. of the food.
Calcium	300	600 mgs. per lb. of the food.
Vitamin D	150	600 U. S. P. units per lb. of food.

Additional suggestions to be considered. Testimony will also be received with respect to the suggestions embodied in the following questions:

(1) Shall calcium be designated as a required ingredient instead of an optional ingredient in the definitions and standards of identity for enriched flour, enriched bromated flour, and enriched self-rising flour, and shall its maximum limit be changed to 1,000 milligrams per pound of the food?

(2) Shall the minimum limits be changed in the definition and standard of identity for enriched farina, and shall maximum limits be provided, for vitamin B_1, niacin, riboflavin, iron, calcium, and vitamin D as follows:

	Minimum	Maximum
Vitamin B_1	2.0	4.0 mgs. per lb. of food.
Niacin	16.0	32.0 mgs. per lb. of food.
Riboflavin	1.2	2.4 mgs. per lb. of food.
Iron	13.0	26.0 mgs. per lb. of food.
Calcium	3,000	6,000 mgs. per lb. of food.
Vitamin D	3,200	6,400 U. S. P. units per lb. of food.

(3) Shall calcium and vitamin D be designated as required ingredients instead of optional ingredients in the definition and standard of identity for enriched farina?

(4) Shall calcium be designated as a required ingredient in definitions and standards of identity for enriched bread and enriched rolls or enriched buns?

OFFICE OF DEFENSE TRANSPORTATION.

[Special Order ODT B-38]

PENNSYLVANIA GREYHOUND LINES, INC., AND THE LAKE SHORE COACH CO.

COORDINATED OPERATION BETWEEN TOLEDO AND NORWALK, OHIO

Upon consideration of the application for authority to coordinate motor vehicle service in the transportation of passengers, filed with the Office of Defense Transportation by Pennsylvania Greyhound Lines, Inc. and The Lake Shore Coach Company, pursuant to § 501.49 of General Order ODT 11, as amended (7 F.R. 4389, 11099), and in order to assure maximum utilization of the facilities, services, and equipment of common carriers of passengers by motor vehicle, and to conserve and providently utilize vital equipment, material and supplies, the attainment of which purposes is essential to the successful prosecution of the war, It is hereby ordered, That:

1. Pennsylvania Greyhound Lines, Inc., Cleveland, Ohio, and The Lake Shore Coach Company, Sandusky, Ohio, (hereinafter called "carriers"), respectively, in the transportation of passengers on the routes served by them between Norwalk, Ohio, and Toledo, Ohio, as common carriers by motor vehicle, shall:

(a) Adjust and establish schedules to eliminate duplication of times of departure of the respective carriers and provide reasonable frequency of service throughout the day;

(b) Wherever practicable eliminate duplicate depot facilities and commission ticket agencies and, in lieu thereof, utilize joint depot facilities and joint commission ticket agencies. Contracts, agreements and arrangements for any such joint facilities and agencies shall not extend beyond the effective period of this order. At such depot facilities and commisison ticket agencies used jointly by the carriers, service, travel information and ticket sales shall be impartial, without preference or discrimination for or against either of such carriers.

2. Pennsylvania Greyhound Lines, Inc. shall provide passenger service for any intrastate passengers moving between Toledo, Ohio, and Norwalk, Ohio, and to, from or between all intermediate points, who hold tickets for transportation issued by The Lake Shore Coach Company.

3. The carriers forthwith shall file with the Interstate Commerce Commission in respect of transportation in interstate or foreign commerce, and with each appropriate State regulatory body in respect of transportation in intrastate commerce, and publish in accordance with law, and continue in effect until further order, tariffs or appropriate supplements to filed tariffs, setting forth any changes in the fares, charges, operations, rules, regulations and practices of each carrier which may be necessary to accord with the provisions of this order; and forthwith shall apply to said Commission and each such regulatory body for special permission for such tariffs or supplements to become effective on one day's notice.

4. Communications concerning this order should be addressed to the Division of Local Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, Washington, D. C., and should refer to "Special Order ODT B-38".

This order shall become effective March 27, 1943, and shall remain in full force and effect until the termination of the present war shall have been duly proclaimed, or until such earlier time as the Office of Defense Transportation by further order may designate.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 13th day of March 1943.

[Special Order ODT B-39]

NORTHERN PACIFIC TRANSPORT CO. AND BURLINGTON TRANSPORTATION CO.

COORDINATED OPERATION BETWEEN BILLINGS, MONTANA, AND WYOMING-MONTANA STATE LINE

Upon consideration of the application for authority to coordinate motor vehicle service in the transportation of passengers filed with the Office of Defense Transportation by Northern Pacific Transport Company, Billings, Montana, and Burlington Transportation Company, Chicago, Illinois, pursuant to § 501.49 of General Order ODT 11, as amended (7 F.R. 4389, 11099), and in order to assure maximum utilization of the facilities, services, and equipment of common carriers of passengers by motor vehicle, and to conserve and providently utilize vital equipment, material and supplies, the attainment of which purposes is essential to the successful prosecution of the war, it is hereby ordered, That:

1. Northern Pacific Transport Company, Billings, Montana, and Burlington Transportation Company, Chicago, Illinois, (hereinafter called "carriers"), respectively, in the transportation of passengers on the routes served by them between Billings, Montana, and the Wyoming-Montana State Line, via Bridger, Montana, over U. S. Highway No. 310, as common carriers by motor vehicle, shall:

(a) Adjust and establish schedules to eliminate duplication of times of departure of the respective carriers and provide reasonable frequency of service throughout the day;

(b) Wherever practicable eliminate duplicate depot facilities and commission ticket agencies and, in lieu thereof, utilize joint depot facilities and joint commission ticket agencies. Contracts, agreements, and arrangements for any such joint facilities and agencies shall not extend beyond the effective period of this order. At such depot facilities and commission ticket agencies used jointly by the carriers, service, travel information, and ticket sales shall be impartial, without preference or discrimination for or against either of such carriers.

2. Subject to obtaining authorization from the Board of Railroad Commissioners of the State of Montana, the Burlington Transportation Company shall provide passenger service for intrastate passengers moving between Billings, Montana, and the Wyoming-Montana State Line via Bridger, Montana, over U. S. Highway No. 310, and to, from, or between all intermediate points, providing passengers traveling only between Billings, Montana, and Bridger, Montana, and to, from, or between all points intermediate thereto, hold tickets issued by the Northern Pacific Transport Company.

3. The carriers forthwith shall file with the Interstate Commerce Commission in respect of transportation in interstate or foreign commerce, and with the Board of Railroad Commissioners of the State of Montana, in respect of transportation in intrastate commerce, and publish in accordance with law, and continue in effect until further order, tariffs or appropriate supplements to filed tariffs, setting forth any changes in the fares, charges, operations, rules, regulations and practices of each carrier which may be necessary to accord with the provisions of this order; and forthwith shall apply to said Commission and each such regulatory body for special permission for such tariffs or supplements to become effective on one day's notice.

4. Communications concerning this order should be addressed to the Division of Local Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, Washington, D. C., and should refer to "Special Order ODT B-39".

This order shall become effective March 27, 1943, and shall remain in full force and effect until the termination of the present war shall have been duly proclaimed or until such earlier time as the Office of Defense Transportation by further order may designate.

Issued at Washington, D. C. this 13th day of March 1943.

PRIVATE CARRIERS OF PROPERTY BY MOTOR VEHICLE

JOINT ACTION PLAN OF MILK DISTRIBUTORS IN ALBANY MILK MARKETING AREA OF NEW YORK

Pursuant to a provision of a general order issued by the Office of Defense Transportation for the purpose, among others, of conserving and providently utilizing motor vehicles and vital equipment, materials and supplies, (General Order ODT 6, as amended, superseded in part by General Order ODT 17, as amended (7 F.R. 3008, 3532, 4184; 7 F.R. 5678, 7694)), the private carriers named in the Appendix hereof have filed with the Office of Defense Transportation for approval a joint action plan relating to the transportation and delivery by motor vehicle of milk in the Albany Milk Marketing Area, New York.

The participants have agreed that all retail delivery and distribution of milk in such Area shall be on an every-other-day basis, and that not more than one call every two days shall be made at the premises of any retail customer except as permitted by paragraph (a) of § 501.32 of General Order ODT 6, as amended (now governed by General Order ODT 17, as amended). Those distributors operating retail routes agree not to make any deliveries, except wholesale deliveries, from such routes prior to 7 o'clock A. M. during any calendar day. The parties further agree, in order to shorten routes and reduce mileage of motor vehicles, that customers, routes or portions of routes, may be exchanged.

It appearing that the proposed joint action plan is in conformity with General Order ODT 17, as amended, and that the effectuation thereof will accomplish substantial conservation and efficient utilization of motor trucks and vital materials and supplies, the attainment of which purposes is essential to the successful prosecution of the war, I have approved the plan and recommend that the Chairman of the War Production Board find and certify under Section 12 of Public Law No. 603, 77th Congress (56 Stat. 357), that the doing of any act or thing, or the omission to do any act or thing, by any person in compliance with said joint action plan, is requisite to the prosecution of the war.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 16th day of March 1943.

JOSEPH B. EASTMAN,
Director, Office of Defense Transportation.

[File No. 59-59]

AMERICAN STATES UTILITIES CORP., ET AL

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 16th day of March, A. D. 1943.

In the matter of American States Utilities Corporation, Edison Sault Electric Company, Southern California Water Company, Grimes Pass Power Company, respondents.

The Commission having examined the corporate structure of American States Utilities Corporation, a registered holding company, and the corporate structure of its subsidiary companies; namely, Edison Sault Electric Company, Southern California Water Company, and Grimes Pass Power Company, the relationships among such companies, the character of the interests thereof and the properties owned and controlled thereby, and having examined the files and records of the Commission relating thereto, and such examination having disclosed data establishing or tending to establish the following:

(1) American States Utilities Corporation is a registered holding company under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, organized under the laws of Maryland, maintaining its principal place of business at 10 Light Street, Baltimore, Maryland.

(2) American States Utilities Corporation has three subsidiaries; namely, Edison Sault Electric Company, Grimes Pass Power Company, and Southern California Water Company, and American States Utilities Corporation owns 100% of the outstanding common stock of each of such subsidiaries. In addition, American States owns 3,800 shares of the common stock of Central Electric and Telephone Company, which is less than 5% of the outstanding voting securities of said company.

(3) The corporate and consolidated capitalization, including surplus per books, of American States Utilities Corporation, as of December 31, 1942, was as follows:

	Consolidated		Corporate
	Amount	Percent	Amount	Percent
Funded Debt:
Southern California Water Company Bonds and Notes	$4,000,000	46.01	----------	----
Edison Sault Electric Company Bonds and Notes	1,070,000	10.70	----------	----

Total Capitalization	$9,998,002	100.00	$3,986,537	----

(4) Edison Sault Electric Company is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Michigan, to which State its operations are confined. It owns and operates facilities used for the generation, transmission, and distribution of electric energy for sale in the upper peninsula of Michigan and on Mackinac Island, Michigan, and is an electric utility company as defined by section 2 (a) (3) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935. Edison Sault Electric Company also furnishes water and sewerage service to a portion of the area served by it with electric energy.

(5) Grimes Pass Power Company is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Idaho, to which State its operations are confined. It owns and operates facilities used for the generation, transmission, and distribution of electric energy for sale within the towns of Grimes Pass, Idaho City, Centerville, Peaceville, and Quartzville, all located in Boise County, Idaho.

(6) Southern California Water Company is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of California, to which State its operations are confined. The principal business of Southern California Water Company is that of supplying water to consumers in and about the City of Los Angeles, California. This company owns and operates facilities used for the distribution of electric energy for sale and distributes and sells such electric energy in one community, namely, Big Bear Lake, California. It is also engaged in the ice business. As of December 31, 1942, the revenue derived from the electric business represented approximately 4% of this company's gross revenue.

(7) The electric utility assets of none of said three subsidiary companies of American States Utilities Corporation are physically interconnected with the electric utility assets of either of the other two such subsidiary companies or capable of such physical interconnection. The electric utility assets of the three subsidiary companies cannot be economically operated as a single interconnected and coordinated system confined in its operations to a single area or region, nor can the electric utility assets of any two of such subsidiary companies of American States Utilities Corporation be so operated.

(8) No part of the utility assets of any of the subsidiary companies of American States Utilities Corporation is located in the same state in which any part of the utility assets of either of the two other such subsidiary companies is located, or in an adjoining state.

(9) The holding company system constituted by American States Utilities Corporation and its subsidiary companies is not limited in its operation to a single integrated public utility system, and to such other businesses as are reasonably incidental, or economically necessary or appropriate to the operations of such integrated public utility system, and systems additional thereto control of which may be retained by American States Utilities Corporation under section 11 (b) (1) of the act;

(10 The corporate structure or continued existence of American States Utilities Corporation unduly or unnecessarily complicates the structure of the American States Utilities Corporation holding company system.

It further appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate and in the public interest that notice be given and a hearing be held for the purpose of determining what action, if any, should be ordered by the Commission under sections 11 (b) (1) and 11 (b) (2) of said act;

It further appearing to the Commission that said proceedings under sections 11 (b) (1) and 11 (b) (2) of said Act involve common questions of law and fact and should be consolidated and heard together;

It is ordered, That proceedings be instituted pursuant to sections 11 (b) (1) and 11 (b) (2) against American States Utilities Corporation, Southern California Water Company, Edison Sault Electric Company, and Grimes Pass Power Company and that said companies be made respondents herein.

It is further ordered, That said proceedings under sections 11 (b) (1) and 11 (b) (2) be and the same hereby are consolidated.

It is further ordered, That American States Utilities Corporation, Southern California Water Company, Edison Sault Electric Company, and Grimes Pass Power Company, respondents herein, shall file with this Commission, on or before March 26, 1943, an answer or answers admitting, denying, or otherwise explaining their respective positions with respect to the allegations set forth in paragraphs numbered 1 to 10, inclusive, of this notice and order.

It is further ordered, That hearings on the proceedings under sections 11 (b) (1) and 11 (b) (2) herein instituted be held on March 31, 1943 at 10:00 a. m., E. W. T., at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in such room as may be designated on that day by the hearing-room clerk in Room 318.

It is further ordered, That without limiting the scope of the issues presented by the proceedings herein instituted by the Commission, particular attention will be directed at the hearing to the following matters and questions but not necessarily in the order listed:

(1) Whether the allegations set forth in paragraphs numbered 1 to 10, inclusive, in this notice and order are true and accurate; and

(2) Whether the electric utility assets of Edison Sault Electric Company and of Grimes Pass Power Company constitute a single integrated public utility system or a single integrated public utility system and system additional thereto, control of which may be retained by American States under section 11 (b) (1) of the Act;

(3) Whether the businesses conducted by Southern California Water Company and the investment in Central Electric and Telephone Company are reasonably incidental or economically necessary or appropriate to the operations of the electric utility properties of Edison Sault Electric Company and Grimes Pass Power Company;

(4) Whether the continued existence of American States Utilities Corporation in the holding-company system of which it is a part unduly or unnecessarily complicates the structure of that holding-company system, and, if so, what action shall be required to be taken pursuant to section 11 (b) (2) of the Act with respect thereto;

(5) Whether the Commission should enter an order pursuant to section 11 (b) (2) requiring that American States Utilities Corporation liquidate and dissolve.

It is further ordered, That William W. Swift or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearing on such matters. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be and is hereby reserved to separate, whether for hearing, in whole or in part, or for disposition, in whole or in part, any of the issues or questions hereinbefore set forth or which may arise in these proceedings, or to consolidate these proceedings or any portion thereof with any proceedings which may be instituted subsequently under any other provisions of said Act with respect to American States Utilities Corporation and its subsidiary companies, and to take such other action as may appear conducive to an orderly, prompt and economic disposition of the matters involved.

It is further ordered, that notice of said hearing is hereby given to American States Utilities Corporation and its subsidiary companies, namely, Southern California Water Company, Edison Sault Electric Company and Grimes Pass Power Company, and to their respective security holders, all States, municipalities and political subdivisions of States within which are located any of the physical assets of said companies, or under the laws of which any of said companies are incorporated, all State commissions, State securities commissions, and all agencies, authorities or instrumentalities of one or more States, municipalities or other political subdivisions having jurisdiction over such companies or over any of the business, affairs or operations of any of them; that the Secretary of the Commission shall serve notice of the hearing aforesaid by mailing a copy of this order by registered mail to such companies, the Federal Power Commission, and the Public Service Commission of Idaho, the Michigan Public Service Commission and the Railroad Commission of the State of California, not less than fifteen days prior to the date hereinbefore fixed as the date for filing of answers; that such notice shall be given further by a general release of the Commission, distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935; and that further notice be given to all persons by publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER not less than fifteen days prior to the date hereinbefore fixed as the date of hearing; and

It is further ordered, That any person proposing to intervene or to be heard in these proceedings shall file with the Secretary of the Commission on or before March 26, 1943 his request or application therefor as provided by Rule XVII of the Rules of Practice of the Commission.

By the Commission.

INTERNATIONAL HYDRO ELECTRIC SYSTEM, ET AL.

ORDER ELIMINATING SUBSIDIARY HOLDING COMPANIES

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 17th day of March 1943.

In the matter of International Hydro Electric System, New England Power Association, Massachusetts Power and Light Associates, North Boston Lighting Properties, The Rhode Island Public Service Company, Massachusetts Utilities Associates Common Voting Trust, Massachusetts Utilities Associates, respondents.

Order requiring the elimination of subsidiary holding companies in New England Power Association holding company system.

The Commission having on June 17, 1940 issued its Notice of and Order for Hearing pursuant to section 11 (b) (2) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 with respect to International Hydro-Electric System, a registered holding company, for the purpose of effecting compliance by International Hydro Electric System with the provisions of section 11 (b) (2) of the Act; prior to any evidence having been taken with respect to the issues raised in said order, the Commission having on October 21, 1940 issued its first Supplemental Notice of and Order for Hearing enlarging the scope of the hearing previously called for and naming Joseph B. Ely, C. Brooks Stevens and Henry G. Wells, as Trustees under a Trust Agreement dated January 31, 1939, a registered holding company, as additional parties respondent for the purpose of effecting compliance by said Trustees with the provisions of section 11 (b) (2) of the Act; evidence having then been taken with respect to the issues raised in the first Supplemental Notice of and Order for Hearing and said issues having been separately disposed of by an order of the Commission dated January 17, 1941 wherein it was ordered that said Trustees cease to be a holding company with respect to International Hydro-Electric System and its subsidiaries and that they surrender to International Hydro-Electric System the 2,500,000 shares of common stock and 1,000,000 shares of Class B stock of International Hydro-Electric System held by them for a consideration not to exceed one dollar ($1) (Holding Company Act Release No. 2494); and

The Commission having on February 8, 1941, issued its Second Supplemental Notice of and Order for Hearing enlarging the scope of the hearing previously called for and naming as additional parties respondent certain of the subsidiary holding companies of International Hydro-Electric System, namely New England Power Association, Massachusetts Power and Light Associates, North Boston Lighting Properties, The Rhode Island Public Service Company, Massachusetts Utilities Associates Common Voting Trust and Massachusetts Utilities Associates, for the purpose of effecting compliance by said subsidiary holding companies with the provisions of section 11 (b) (2) of the Act; and the Commission having by an order dated February 27, 1941 consolidated a proceeding involving a plan for the liquidation of North Boston Lighting Properties filed by Massachusetts Power and Light Associates and North Boston Lighting Properties pursuant to section 11 (e) of said Act (bearing File No. 54-19) with the proceedings herein; and

The Commission having on July 1, 1941 issued its order reconvening hearings herein and specifying that certain matters relating to certain of the Respondents be taken up and considered for disposition and determination prior to other matters relating to such Respondents and to other Respondents; and

The Commission having on April 14, 1942 issued its order reconvening hearings herein and specifying that the issues relating to International Hydro-Electric System be taken up for consideration and determination; the record with respect to the issues specified in said order of April 14, 1942, having been considered by the Commission and separately disposed of by an order of the Commission dated July 21, 1942 wherein International Hydro-Electric System was directed to liquidate and dissolve and to proceed with due diligence to submit to this Commission a plan of its liquidation and dissolution (Holding Company Act Release No. 3679); and

Hearings have been held with respect to the matters specified in said order of July 1, 1941 and counsel for the Respondents and for the Public Utilities Division of the Commission having stipulated that the record may be closed with respect to such specified matters, and that the Commission may proceed to enter its findings, opinion and order with respect to such specified matters; and

Counsel for the Respondents having waived any right to a trial examiner's report or to submit proposed findings of fact, oral argument or briefs with respect to such specified matters; and

The Commission having examined the record herein with respect to the aforesaid specified matters and having this day made and filed its findings and opinion thereon, finding inter alia that the action hereinafter directed to be taken is necessary to ensure that the continued existence of Massachusetts Power and Light Associates, North Boston Lighting Properties, Massachusetts Utilities Associates Common Voting Trust, Massachusetts Utilities Associates and The Rhode Island Public Service Company, and each of them, as holding companies in the New England Power Association holding company system, shall not unduly or unnecessarily complicate the structure, or unfairly or inequitably distribute voting power among the security holders, of the holding company system of New England Power Association, and that the corporate structure of Massachusetts Utilities Associates shall not unduly or unnecessarily complicate the structure, or unfairly or inequitably distribute voting power among security holders, of the Massachusetts Utilities Associates holding company system and of the New England Power Association holding company system, and that the corporate structure of Massachusetts Power and Light Associates shall not unduly or unnecessarily complicate the structure, or unfairly or inequitably distribute voting power among the security holders of the Massachusetts Power and Light Associates holding company system and of the New England Power Association holding company system;

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to section 11 (b) (2) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, that:

1. New England Power Association and Massachusetts Power and Light Associates shall take, or cause to be taken, such action as may be necessary to eliminate Massachusetts Power and Light Associates as a holding company in the New England Power Association holding company system;

2. New England Power Association, Massachusetts Power and Light Associates and North Boston Lighting Properties shall take, or cause to be taken, such action as may be necessary to eliminate North Boston Lighting Properties as a holding company in the New England Power Association holding company system;

3. New England Power Association and Massachusetts Utilities Associates Common Voting Trust shall take, or cause to be taken, such action as may be necessary for Massachusetts Utilities Associates Common Voting Trust to be liquidated and dissolved;

4. New England Power Association, Massachusetts Utilities Associates Common Voting Trust and Massachusetts Utilities Associates shall take, or cause to be taken, such action as may be necessary to eliminate Massachusetts Utilities Associates as a holding company in the New England Power Association holding company system; and

5. New England Power Association and The Rhode Island Public Service Company shall take, or cause to be taken, such action as may be necessary to eliminate The Rhode Island Public Service Company as a holding company in the New England Power Association holding company system; and

It is further ordered, That said New England Power Association, Massachusetts Power and Light Associates, North Boston Lighting Properties, Massachusetts Utilities Associates Common Voting Trust, Massachusetts Utilities Associates and The Rhode Island Public Service Company shall proceed with due diligence to submit to this Commission a plan or plans to effect prompt compliance with the foregoing orders pursuant to section 11 (b) (2) of said Act and shall take such further steps as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate this order; and

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be, and the same hereby is, reserved for the purpose of considering any and all plans for compliance with the action hereinbefore ordered, for the purpose of entering such further orders as may be necessary or appropriate to ensure that the action hereinbefore ordered is accomplished in a manner consistent with the public interest and with the provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and for the purpose of entering such further orders as may be necessary or appropriate with respect to any of the remaining issues in this proceeding.

By the Commission.

THE RAILWAY AND BUS ASSOCIATES

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 16th day of March 1943.

Notice is hereby given that a declaration has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, by The Railway and Bus Associates, an indirect subsidiary of Denis J. Driscoll and Willard L. Thorp, Trustees of Associated Gas and Electric Corporation, a registered holding company; and

All interested persons are referred to the said declaration which is on file in the office of the said Commission for a statement of the transaction therein proposed which is summarized below:

The Railway and Bus Associates propose to sell to Syracuse Transit Corporation, an affiliate, $211,300 principal amount of Syracuse Transit Corporation Thirty-Year Noncumulative Income Notes, due September 1, 1969, at 80 flat, the total consideration amounting to $169,040.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to such matters;

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter under the applicable provisions of said Act and the Rules of the Commission thereunder be held on March 29, 1943, at 10 a. m., E. W. T., at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On such date the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will advise as to the room in which such hearing will be held;

It is further ordered, That Paul Littlefield, or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose, shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice;

It is further ordered, That any other person desiring to be heard in connection with these proceedings or proposing to intervene herein shall file with the Secretary of the Commission, on or before March 27, 1943, his request or application therefor as provided by Rule XVII of the Rules of Practice of the Commission;

It is further ordered, That, without limiting the scope of the issues presented by said declaration, particular attention will be directed at such hearing to the following matters:

1. Whether the consideration to be received from the sale of the Syracuse Transit Corporation securities is fair and reasonable;

2. The propriety of the proposed accounting treatment of the transaction on the books of the declarant;

3. Whether it is necessary or appropriate to impose terms or conditions in the public interest or for the protection of investors;

4. Whether the proposed sale complies with all the provisions and requirements of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and all rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, and is not detrimental to the public interest or the interest of investors or consumers.

By the Commission.

PUGET SOUND POWER & LIGHT COMPANY AND ENGINEERS PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY

ORDER APPROVING PLAN

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 16th day of March 1943.

An application and amendments thereto having been filed by Engineers Public Service Company, a registered holding company, for approval of an amended plan filed herein under section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 for the purpose of fairly and equitably distributing voting power among the security holders of Puget Sound Power & Light Company, a subsidiary of Engineers Public Service Company, and Puget Sound Power & Light Company having joined in the application, the plan, and amendments thereto, for the purpose of submitting itself to the jurisdiction of the Commission;

The said plan providing among other things for the following transactions:

1. The issuance of ¼ share of additional Prior Preference stock and a special cash dividend of $2.50 in extinguishment of dividend arrearages on each share of outstanding Prior Preference stock.

2. The issuance of new common stock, $50 par value, in the ratio of 96.97% of such new common stock to the holders of outstanding Preferred stock and 3.03% to the holders of outstanding common stock, so that:

a. in place of and in exchange for each share of outstanding Preferred stock and all dividend arrearages thereon, there will be given 1⅗ shares of new common stock

b. in place of and in exchange for each 100 shares of outstanding common stock, there will be given 1 share of new common stock

3. The plan is predicated upon certain savings contemplated to arise from refinancing the company's debt through the issuance and sale, at competitive bidding, of $52,000,000 principal amount of new first mortgage bonds, due 1972, at an interest rate estimated to be 3½%, and $6,500,000 principal amount of 3⅛% promissory notes maturing serially 1943 to 1948, by private sale to certain banks;

Hearings having been duly held after appropriate notice and the Commission having made its findings herein;

On the basis of said findings and pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, It is hereby ordered, That said plan as amended be and it hereby is approved, subject, however, to the following terms, conditions and reservations of jurisdiction:

1. That this order shall be deemed null, rescinded and of no effect in the event that the aforementioned refinancing shall not have been consummated within sixty (60) days of the date of this order.

2. That jurisdiction be and it hereby is reserved to the Commission to reconsider said plan after the terms and conditions of the refinancing have been determined as a result of competitive bidding or in the light of any change in circumstances, and to enter such further orders as it deems advisable amending, modifying or revoking the instant order.

3. That jurisdiction be and it hereby is reserved to the Commission to approve, disapprove, modify or allocate by further order or orders all fees and expenses incurred or to be incurred in connection with said plan, the transactions incident thereto, and the consummation thereof.

4. That jurisdiction be and it hereby is reserved to the Commission to enter such supplemental orders, as the circumstances may permit, conforming to and setting forth the recitals specified in sections 373 (a) and 1808 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended.

By the Commission, Commissioner Healy dissenting.

WAR MANPOWER COMMISSION.

[General Order 7]

INTERIM PROCEDURE FOR REQUESTING DEFERMENT OF GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Chairman of the War Manpower Commission by Executive Orders Nos. 9139 and 9300 (7 F.R. 2919, 8 F.R. 2911), It is hereby ordered:

1. Pending the designation of the Review Committee on Deferment of Government Employees as provided in Part II, paragraph 1 of Executive Order No. 9309, I hereby designate and appoint a Temporary Review Committee on Deferment of Government Employees, as follows: Robert M. Barnett, Chairman; Bernard C. Gavit; and Colonel Edward A. Fitzpatrick.

Until the designation of the Review Committee provided for in Part II, paragraph 1, the Temporary Review Committee is charged with the responsibilities imposed upon, and shall exercise the powers granted to, the Review Committee under Executive Order No. 9309.

II. The head of each agency which is subject to the provisions of Executive Order No. 9309 shall immediately designate a Committee on Deferment of Government Employees as provided in Part II, paragraphs 2 and 3 of Executive Order No. 9309, and notify the Chairman of the Temporary Review Committee of the personnel of the Agency Committee.

III. Pending the issuance by the Chairman of the War Manpower Commission of regulations concerning the submission and approval of a designation of "Key Positions," the Agency Committees may request deferments as provided in Part IV, and deal with the release of employees for voluntary entrance into the armed forces as provided in Part V, and request occupational reclassification as provided in Part VI of Executive Order No. 9309, in conformity to the policies, standards and criteria prescribed by the Executive Order. In acting under Parts IV and V the Agency Committee should use the key list established and used under War Manpower Commission Directive No. XI, unless such list is, as to the employee involved, obsolete or clearly in conflict with the general purpose and policy of Executive Order No. 9309. Immediately upon requesting the deferment of any employee pursuant to this paragraph, the Agency Committee concerned shall transmit to the Temporary Review Committee a copy of any such request together with any supporting material submitted to the local Selective Service Board.

PAUL V. MCNUTT,
Chairman.

PART 1406—DEHYDRATED FRUIT, VEGETABLES, AND SOUPS

DEHYDRATED VEGETABLES REQUIRED TO BE SET ASIDE

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by Executive Order 9280, dated December 5, 1942, and to assure an adequate supply and efficient distribution of dehydrated vegetables to meet war and essential civilian needs, It is hereby ordered, As follows:

§ 1406.1 Dehydrated vegetables—(a) Definitions. When used in the order, unless otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof:

(1) The term "dehydrated vegetables" means Irish potatoes, sweet potatoes, cabbage, carrots, beets, onions, and rutabagas (and such other vegetables as the Director may from time to time designate) that have been dried by artificially produced heat under controlled conditions of humidity, temperature, and air flow or that have been dried under reduced pressure ("vacuum") where the factors of humidity and air flow are not controlled.

(2) The term "processor" means any person engaged in the business of dehydrating vegetables.

(3) The term "government agency" or "government agencies" means and includes the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, War Shipping Administration, United States Maritime Commission, or any agency of the United States purchasing supplies for the foregoing, for the American National Red Cross, or any other agency specified by the Director, or for delivery to or for the account of the government of any country pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(4) The term "Director" means the Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, or any employee of the United States Department of Agriculture designated by such Director.

(5) The term "person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other business entity.

(b) Restrictions on processors. (1) Without regard to existing contracts, every processor shall set aside for the requirements of government agencies 100 percent of the dehydrated vegetables produced by him and all stocks of dehydrated vegetables in his possession or under his control. All such dehydrated vegetables so set aside shall, unless and until released, be held for sale and delivery only to government agencies. Quantities of dehydrated vegetables set aside may be released at any time by notice to that effect from the Director.

(2) Without regard to existing contracts, every processor shall process, pack, label, and case dehydrated vegetables produced by him according to such directions as may from time to time be issued by the Director.

(3) The restrictions of paragraphs (b) (1) and (b) (2) hereof shall not apply to contracts now existing or hereafter made between processors and government agencies. In the event of any conflict between the specifications of a contract entered into between a processor and a government agency and directions issued under paragraph (b) (2) hereof, the contract specifications shall prevail for the quantities of dehydrated vegetables specified in the contract.

(c) Records and reports. Every person subject to this order shall maintain such records for at least two years (or for such other periods of time as the Director may designate), and shall execute and file such reports upon such forms and submit such information as the Director may from time to time request or direct, and within such times as he may prescribe, subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget, pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(d) Audits and inspections. Every person subject to this order shall, upon request, permit inspections by the Director, at all reasonable times, of his stock of dehydrated vegetables and premises used in his business, and all of his books, records, and accounts shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by the Director.

(e) Petition for relief from hardship. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may petition in writing (in triplicate) for relief to the Director, setting forth all pertinent facts and the nature of relief sought. The Director may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate and such action shall be final.

(f) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this order or wilfully conceals a material fact concerning a matter within the jurisdiction of any Department or agency of the United States may be prohibited from receiving or making further deliveries of any material subject to allocation and such further action may be taken against him as the Director deems appropriate, including recommendations for prosecution under section 35a of the Criminal Code (18 U. S. C. 1940 ed. 80), under paragraph 5 of Section 301 of Title III of the Second War Powers Act, and under any and all other applicable laws.

(g) Communications to the Department of Agriculture. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. Ref: FD-30.

(h) Effective date. This order shall be effective on March 21, 1943, as of 12:01 a. m., e. w. t.

§ 3.6 (t) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Qualities or properties of product or service; § 3.6 (x) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Results. In connection with offer, etc., of respondent's "Electro Magnetic Nerve Vitalizer" or "Electro Magnetic Vibrator", or other similar device or apparatus, and among other things, as in order set forth, disseminating, etc., any advertisements by means of the United States mails, or in commerce, or by any means, to induce, etc., directly or indirectly, purchase in commerce, etc., of respondent's said device, which advertisements represent, directly or through inference, that respondent's device (1) has any therapeutic value in the treatment of any disease or condition of the human body; (2) will assist nature in rebuilding new cells or tissue, reactivate the glands, or improve internal secretions; (3) has any therapeutic value in the treatment of paralysis, arthritis, neuralgia, apoplexy, hysteria, insanity, locomotor ataxia, St. Vitus dance, rheumatism, hardening of the arteries, infantile paralysis, or other specified ailments and conditions; or (4) has any value in eliminating the causes of disease or that its use will maintain health in normal persons or restore health in sick persons; prohibited. (Sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended by sec. 3, 52 Stat. 112; 15 U.S.C., sec. 45b) [Cease and desist order, Charlotte Brandenburg, Docket 4614, March 13, 1943]

3.6 (t) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Qualities or properties of product or service: § 3.6 (x) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Results. In connection with offer, etc., of respondent's "Electro Magnetic Nerve Vitalizer" or "Electro Magnetic Vibrator," or other similar device or apparatus, and among other things, as in order set forth, disseminating, etc., any advertisements by means of the United States mails, or in commerce, or by any means, to induce, etc., directly or indirectly, purchase in commerce, etc., of respondent's said device, which advertisements represent, directly or through inference,

a. That respondent's device has any therapeutic value in the treatment of any disease or condition of the human body.

b. That the use of respondent's device will feed or revive the entire system or beneficially affect the nerve centers.

c. That the use of respondent's device will relax or stimulate the nerves or have any beneficial effect upon any part of the nervous system.

d. That the use of respondent's device has any effect upon any condition of the blood or that it will promote or increase circulation, equalize the distribution of blood, or improve its quality.

e. That the use of respondent's device has any beneficial effect in soothing or regulating the stomach, aiding digestion, or stimulating the flow of digestive juices or that it will improve the assimilation or elimination of food or relieve or correct constipation.

f. That the use of respondent's device has any therapeutic value or beneficial effect upon congested conditions or that it will relieve pain, soreness, or inflammation.

g. That respondent's device will assist nature in rebuilding new cells or tissue, reactivate the glands, or improve internal secretions.

h. That respondent's device has any therapeutic value in the treatment of paralysis, arthritis, neuralgia, apoplexy, hysteria, insanity, locomotor ataxia, St. Vitus dance, rheumatism, sore spots, contracted muscles, insomnia, hardening of the arteries, prostate gland trouble, lumbago, catarrh, head colds, influenza, writer's cramp, infantile paralysis, or deterioration of the tissues.

i. That the use of respondent's device will defer hardening of the arteries, reduce blood pressure, deter apoplexy, aid in restoring normal productive power, assist the bowels and kidneys to function properly, stimulate the action of the liver, strengthen or stimulate heart action, tear down diseased tissue, or have any value in the treatment of any disease or condition of the bladder.

j. That respondent's device has any value in eliminating the causes of disease or that its use will maintain health in normal persons or restore health in sick persons.

2. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated any advertisement by any means for the purpose of inducing or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase in commerce as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, of respondent's device which advertisement contains any of the representations prohibited in paragraph 1 hereof and the respective subdivisions thereof.

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon her of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which she has complied with this order.

By the Commission.

SALLY'S FURS, INC.

§ 3.6 (a) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Business status, advantages or connections of advertiser—Stock. In connection with offer, etc., in commerce, of respondent's fur garments, and among other things, as in order set forth, representing, directly or by implication, that respondent's stock of furs has a market value of $500,000, unless such stock does in fact have such value; or making any other exaggerated claims or statements concerning the value or magnitude of respondent's stock of merchandise; prohibited. (Sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended by sec. 3, 52 Stat. 112; 15 U.S.C., sec. 45b) [Cease and desist order, Sally's Furs, Inc., Docket 4705, March 15, 1943].

§ 3.6 (j 10) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—History of product or offering: § 3.6 (m 10) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Manufacture or preparation: § 3.6 (t) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Qualities or properties of product or service. In connection with offer, etc., in commerce, of respondent's fur garments, and among other things, as in order set forth, advertising, describing, offering for sale, or selling fur garments as "Hollywood Styled", unless such garments are in fact styled or designed in Hollywood, California, or are copies of models of coats styled or designed in Hollywood, California; prohibited. (Sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended by sec. 3, 52 Stat. 112; 15 U.S.C., sec. 45b) [Cease and desist order, Sally's Furs, Inc., Docket 4705, March 15, 1943].

§ 3.6 (a) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Business status, advantages or connections of advertiser—Producer status of dealer or seller—Manufacturer. In connection with offer, etc., in commerce, of respondent's fur garments, and among other things, as in order set forth, representing, through the use of the phrase "Created in our own factory", or through the use of any other phrase of similar import, or in any other manner, that respondent is the manufacturer of its fur garments, unless and until respondent does in fact own, operate or control the factory wherein such garments are made; prohibited. (Sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended by sec. 3, 52 Stat. 112; 15 U.S.C., sec. 45b) [Cease and desist order, Sally's Furs, Inc., Docket 4705, March 15, 1943].

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 15th day of March, A. D. 1943.

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission and a stipulation as to the facts entered into by and between counsel for the Commission and counsel for the respondent, which provides among other things, that without further evidence or other intervening procedure, the Commission may issue and serve upon respondent herein, Sally's Furs, Inc., a corporation, findings as to the facts and conclusion based thereon and an order disposing of the proceeding, and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that said respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act;

It is ordered That the respondent, Sally's Furs, Inc., a corporation, its officers, representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of its fur garments in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Representing, directly or by implication, that respondent's stock of furs has a market value of $500,000, unless such stock does in fact have such value; or making any other exaggerated claims or statements concerning the value or magnitude of respondent's stock of merchandise.

2. Advertising, describing, offering for sale, or selling fur garments as "Hollywood Styled," unless such garments are in fact styled or designed in Hollywood, California, or are copies of models of coats styled or designed in Hollywood, California.

3. Representing, through the use of the phrase "Created in our own factory," or through the use of any other phrase of similar import, or in any other manner, that respondent is the manufacturer of its fur garments, unless and until respondent does in fact own, operate or control the factory wherein such garments are made.

It is further ordered That the respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with this order.

By direction of the Commission.

CASTLE COMPANY, INC.

§ 3.6 (a) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Business status, advantages or connections of advertiser—Producer status of dealer or seller—Manufacturer: § 3.6 (n) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Nature—Product. In connection with offer, etc., in commerce, of respondent's jewelry, (1) using the word "Birthstone" or "Garnet" or any other word which is indicative of a precious stone, to designate or describe any substance which is not in fact a precious stone; or (2) using the word "Manufacturers", or any other word of similar import, to designate or describe respondent's business; or otherwise representing, directly or by implication, that respondent manufactures the articles sold by it; prohibited. (Sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended by sec. 3, 52 Stat. 112; 15 U.S.C., sec. 45b) [Cease and desist order, Castle Company, Inc., Docket 4785, March 15, 1943]

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 15th day of March, A. D. 1943.

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission, the answer of respondent, testimony and other evidence in support of and in opposition to the allegations of the complaint taken before a trial examiner of the Commission theretofore duly designated by it, report of the trial examiner upon the evidence and the exceptions to such report, and briefs in support of and in opposition to the complaint (oral argument not having been requested); and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that the respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act:

It is ordered, That the respondent, Castle Company, Inc., a corporation, and its officers, agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of respondent's jewelry in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Using the word "Birthstone" or "Garnet" or any other word which is indicative of a precious stone, to designate or describe any substance which is not in fact a precious stone.

2. Using the word "Manufacturers," or any other word of similar import, to designate or describe respondent's business; or otherwise representing, directly or by implication, that respondent manufactures the articles sold by it.

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with this order.

By the Commission.

TITLE 30—MINERAL RESOURCES

Chapter III—Bituminous Coal Division

[Docket No. A-1852]

PART 322—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 2

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF, ETC.

Memorandum opinion and order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 2 for the reestablishment of a shipping point for the coals of the Alice Mine, Mine Index No. 670, of Solar Fuel Company, a code member in District No. 2.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, was duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting that Clairton, Pennsylvania, on The Pittsburgh & West Virginia Railway be reestablished as a loading point for the coals produced by Solar Fuel Company, a code member, at its Alice Mine, Mine Index No. 670, located in District No. 2, and that such reestablishment be made retroactively effective to September 11, 1942.

It appears from the original petition that Clairton, Pennsylvania, on The Pittsburgh & West Virginia Railway, which had been previously established as a shipping point for the coals produced at the said Alice Mine, Mine Index No. 670, had been inadvertently deleted as a shipping point in the order issued in Docket No. A-1616 on September 12, 1942. (7 F.R. 7427). It also appears from the original petition, that the coals produced at the Alice Mine are virtually needed for war purposes, and that such coal must be permitted to ship from Clairton, Pennsylvania, via The Pittsburgh & West Virginia Railway in order to take care of present commitments which require such origination. It also appears that coals from the Alice Mine have always moved from this shipping point over this railroad.

It further appears that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth, and that such relief should be made retroactively effective to September 12, 1942; that no petitions of intervention have been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter, and that the following action is necessary to effectuate the purposes of the Act.

Therefore, It is ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: § 322.7 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R-I, and § 322.9 (Special prices—(c) Railroad fuel) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R-II, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That said temporary relief be, and the same hereby is, made retroactively effective to September 12, 1942, the date preceding that on which the said order in Docket No. A-1616 was issued.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

Dated: March 4, 1943.

PART 322—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 2

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF, ETC.

Order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 2 for changes in shipping points for the coals of certain mines in District No. 2.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting changes in the Freight Origin Group Numbers and the shipping points for the coals of certain mines in District No. 2; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, § 322.7 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R, which supplement is hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof; and commencing forthwith, the said shipping points, appearing in the aforesaid Supplement R for mines mentioned therein are effective in place of the shipping points heretofore established for these mines.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

Dated: March 4, 1943.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-254]

PHILADELPHIA WARWICK CO.

The Philadelphia Warwick Company is a corporation engaged in the business of operating the Warwick Hotel in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Subsequent to December 5, 1942, the Philadelphia Warwick Company began construction and ordered, purchased and withdrew from inventory, materials to begin construction on the remodeling of a cocktail lounge known as the "Savoy Room", in the Warwick Hotel without authorization from the Director General for Operations. The estimated cost of construction of this project exceeded $1,000.00 and the remodeling constituted a violation of Conservation Order L-41. At the time this remodeling was undertaken, the Philadelphia Warwick Company was familiar with the provisions of Conservation Order L-41. The Company elected to proceed with the project adopting an unreasonable and unjustifiable interpretation of the order.

Since this construction was begun in violation of Conservation Order L-41, it cannot be allowed to continue. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.254 Suspension Order S-254. (a) Neither the Philadelphia Warwick Company, nor any other person shall order, purchase, accept delivery of, withdraw from inventory, or in any manner secure or use material or construction plant in order to continue or complete construction of the remodeling of the cocktail lounge, known as the "Savoy Room" in the Hotel Warwick, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve the Philadelphia Warwick Company from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director General for Operations, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on March 20, 1943.

Issued this 18th day of March 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 1152—METAL WINDOWS

[Limitation Order L-77, as Amended March 19, 1943]

Section 1152.1 General Limitation Order L-77 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 1152.1 General Limitation Order L-77—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Metal window" means any metal sash, metal casement or other metal framework of any type produced for installation in an opening, constructed in the side of a building primarily to admit light, and any component part of such a metal sash, metal casement or metal framework.

(2) "Manufacture" means to manufacture, fabricate or assemble a metal window.

(3) "Put in process" means the first change by a manufacturer in the form of material from that form in which it is received by him.

(b) Restrictions. On and after the 3d day of April 1943, notwithstanding any contract, agreement, or preference rating, no person shall manufacture any metal window except:

(1) To fill an order from the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, or the War Shipping Administration when such metal window is required by specifications (including performance specifications) applicable to such order; or

(2) To fill an order bearing a preference rating of AA-3 or better; or

(3) A metal storm window provided the material for such metal storm window was put in process prior to the 3d day of April 1943.

Nothing in this order shall supersede the directive for wartime construction, dated May 20, 1942 issued by the Chairman of the War Production Board, the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy, or the "List of Prohibited Items for Construction Work" dated June 29, 1942, issued by the Army and Navy Munitions Board as amended from time to time.

(c) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(d) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(e) Reports. Each manufacturer to whom this order applies shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time request.

(f) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further delivery of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(g) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of the order shall be filed on Form PD-500 with the Field Office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant or branch of the appellant to which the appeal relates.

(h) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the regulations of the War Production Board as amended from time to time.

(i) Routing of correspondence. Reports to be filed and other communications concerning this order shall be addressed to the War Production Board, Building Materials Division, Washington, D. C. Ref.: L-77.

Issued this 19th day of March 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 3157—CONTROLLED SHIPMENTS

[General Transportation Order T-1 as Amended March 19, 1943[1]]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of transportation facilities and of certain materials for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3157.1 General Transportation Order T-1—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Controlled shipment" means shipment, including reconsignment, of any material on List 1 or 2 annexed hereto, where the shipment is to be made at the time, in the manner and for the distance specified opposite such material in such list.

(2) "Originate" means to load for shipment or to tender or offer to a carrier for shipment.

(3) "Tank car" means any railway tank car having one or more steel tanks from which materials are customarily loaded and unloaded while the tank is on the car.

(4) "Tank truck" means any vehicle designed for highway travel having one or more steel tanks from which materials are customarily loaded and unloaded while the tank is on the truck.

(b) List 1 materials. (1) No person shall originate a controlled shipment of any List 1 material, except as specifically authorized or directed by the Director General for Operations

(2) Any person seeking authorization to originate a controlled shipment of any List 1 material may make application on Form PD-782, or, in emergency, by telegram, containing substantially the information called for by such form.

[1] The effect of this amendment is to amend certain paragraphs in List 1 relating to caustic soda.

(c) List 2 materials.—(1) Each person shall report on Form PD–782 on or before the 20th day of each calendar month all shipments of List 2 materials which he then intends to originate during the succeeding calendar month.

(2) Each person shall report on Form PD–782 on or before the 10th day prior to origination any controlled shipment of List 2 materials which he then intends to originate and has not previously reported.

(3) Any person may originate a controlled shipment of List 2 materials reported pursuant to paragraph (c) (1) or (2), unless otherwise specifically directed by the Director General for Operations.

(4) No person shall originate a controlled shipment of any List 2 material which has not been reported pursuant to paragraph (c) (1) or (2), except as specifically directed or authorized by the Director General for Operations. Applications for such authorization may be made by telegram containing substantially the information called for by Form PD–782.

(d) List 3 materials. This order does not restrict shipments of List 3 materials, except to the extent that such shipments are controlled shipments of List 1 or List 2 materials.

(e) Other materials. On and after March 1, 1943, no person shall originate a shipment by tank car of any material unless:

(1) Specified on List 1, List 2 or List 3; or

(2) Consigned to or for the account of the United States Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration, or corresponding Canadian agencies specified in Priorities Regulation No. 14; or unless the material shipped is procured pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941 (Lend-Lease Act), provided that at the time each such shipment is originated the material is in the form in which it is eventually to be delivered to a foreign country or its representative; or

(3) Specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations upon application by such person on Form PD 782, or, in emergency, upon application by telegram containing substantially the information called for by Form PD–782.

(f) Carriers. The provisions of this order shall not apply to any carrier acting in the capacity of a carrier as distinguished from a carrier acting in the capacity of a shipper.

(g) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected hereby are subject to all applicable provisions of War Production Board priorities regulations, as amended from time to time.

(2) Applicability of other orders. Nothing contained in this order shall be construed to limit the requirements of any other War Production Board order now or hereafter issued.

(3) Territorial limitations. This order shall apply only to shipments originating or reconsigned in the forty-eight States and the District of Columbia.

(4) Appeals. Any appeal from denials of applications or from directions pursuant to this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular action appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(5) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact, or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(6) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref.: T–1 (specified commodity).

Issued this 19th day of March 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

LISTS ATTACHED TO GENERAL TRANSPORTATION ORDER T–1

LIST 1 (ZONED SHIPMENTS)

[NOTE: Item 2—Caustic soda and the paragraphs relating to the second and sixth caustic zones were amended March 19, 1943.]

1. Molasses: Shipments of 200 miles or more in tank cars or tank trucks, originating on or after March 1, 1943, of blackstrap, invert, edible or hydrol molasses, except shipments of such molasses for the manufacture of yeast or citric acid. The term molasses shall be construed to include the residuum of such molasses

2. Caustic soda: Shipments in tank cars or tank trucks, originating on or after May 1, 1943, from any point in any one of the following zones to a point in any other such zone:

Tenth caustic soda zone: The States of Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, and that part of Georgia not included in Zone 8 above.

Eleventh caustic soda zone: The city of Nashville, Tennessee; the States of Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Missouri and Kansas; except the cities of St. Louis and Kansas City

Twelfth caustic soda zone: The States of Montana, Idaho, Wyoming, Utah, Colorado, Arizona, New Mexico, and those counties in the State of Nevada east of and including the counties of Elko, Lander and Nye Thirteenth caustic soda zone. The States of Washington, Oregon and California and those counties in the State of Nevada not included in Zone 12 above.

LIST 2 (REPORTED SHIPMENTS)

1. Acetone: Shipments of any distance in tank cars, or of more than 200 miles in tank trucks, originating on or after March 1 1943.

2 Butyl acetate: Shipments of any distance in tank cars, or of more than 200 miles in tank trucks, originating on or after March 1, 1943.

3. Corn syrup (glucose): Shipments of any distance in tank cars, or of more than 200 miles in tank trucks, originating on or after March 1, 1943

4 Ethyl acetate: Shipments of any distance in tank cars, or of more than 200 miles in tank trucks, originating on or after March 1, 1943

5 Ethyl alcohol (including denatured ethyl alcohol): Shipments of any distance in tank cars, or of more than 250 miles in tank trucks, originating on or after March 1, 1943, except shipments of ethyl alcohol (including denatured ethyl alcohol) owned or shipped by Defense Supplies Corporation, or shipments of specially denatured ATU Formula No 18.

6. Molasses: Shipments of any distance in tank cars, or of more than 200 miles in tank trucks originating on or after March 1, 1943, of beet molasses shipped for any purpose, or of blackstrap, invert, edible or hydrol molasses shipped for the manufacture of yeast or citric acid. The term molasses shall be construed to include the residuum of such molasses.

LIST 3 (OTHER SHIPMENTS)

1. On and after March 1, 1943, no shipments in tank cars other than of the following materials:

Acetaldehyde
Acetic acid, glacial or liquid
Acetic anhydride
[1] Acetone
Acids Acrylonitrile
[1] Alcohols
Aluminum chloride
Aluminum sulfate
Ammoniacal liquor or aqua ammonia
Ammonium nitrate liquor
Ammonia sulphide
Ammonium thiocyanate liquor
Amyl acetate
Amyl chloride
Anhydrous ammonia
Aniline oils
Anti-freezing compounds
Arsenic (arsenious acid)
Arsenic trioxide
[1] Asphalt
[1] Aviation gasoline (of Octane No. 87, 91, and 100) and its component parts, such as:
Alkylate
Aromatic fractions for aviation
Aviation base stocks
Butylene
Codimer
Isobutane
Isobutylene
Iso octane
Isopentane (pentane)
Hydrocodimer
Babassu oil
Benzol (benzene)
Brake fluid
Butadiene
[2] Butanes
[2] Butenes
[1] Butyl acetate
Butyl aldehyde
Butyraldehyde
Butylamines
Calcium chloride, liquid
Calcium hypochlorite (chlorinated lime)
Carbon dioxide, liquefied
Carbon bisulfide (carbon disulfide)
Carbon tetrachloride
Castor oil
Caustic potash (potassium hydroxide)
[1] Caustic soda (sodium hydroxide)
Chemicals, other, shipped as "chemicals NOIBN"
Chestnut tanning extract (tannic acid)
Chlorine, liquid
Chlorobenzol (Monochlorobenzol)
Chlorosulphuric acid
Coal tar pitch
Coconut oil (copra)
Core compound, foundry
Corn oil
[1] Corn syrup (glucose)
Cottonseed oil
Creosote oil
Creosote-tar solution
Cresylic acid (cresol)
Crude tar oil
Crude napthalene
Crude tar acid
[2] Cumene (isopropylbenzene or isopropylbenzine)
Diacetone
Dibutyl, diethyl, or dimethyl phthalate
Dichlorodifluoromethane
Dichloromonofluoromethane
Dichlorotetrafluoroethane
Diethyl sulphate
Diethylene glycol
Dimethylaniline
Dinitrochlorobenzol
Dioctyl phthalate
Diphenyl
Diphenylamine
Dye-intermediates
Ester gums
Ether (ethyl, dichloroethyl, or isopropyl)
[1] Ethyl acetate
Ethyl chloride
Ethylamines
Ethylene bromide or dibromide
Ethylene chlorohydrin
Ethylene dichloride
Ethylene glycol
Ethylene oxide
Ethyl methyl ketone (methyl ethyl ketone)
Ethyl hexyl alcohol
Fatty acid
Fatty acid esters
Fertilizer ammoniating solution
Fish or sea animal oil
Formaldehyde, liquid
Formamide
Formic acid
Furfural
Gas drip oil, including crude
Grease (inedible animal)
Glycerine
Hexa methylene diammonium adipate solution
Hydrochloric acid (muriatic)
Hydrofluoric acid
Hydrofluosilicic acid
Hydrogen dioxide or peroxide
[1] Hydrol (corn sugar final molasses)
Ink, printing
Iron chloride (ferric)
Isobutyl acetate
Isopropyl acetate
Lactic acid
Lacquer solvents
Lard
Lard oil
Latex
[2] Lead tetraethyl
Lignin liquor
Lime, chlorinated
Lime and sulfur solution
Lime sludge or slurry
Linseed oil
Liquefied petroleum gases
Magnesium chloride
Methanol
Methyl acetate
Methyl acetone
Methyl chloride
Methyl formate
Methyl isobutyl ketone
[1] Molasses (beet blackstrap, edible, and molasses residuum)
Monofluorotrichloromethane
Milk
Naphtha
Naphtha solvent
Naphthalene, including crude
Neutral oil
Nitrating acid or mixed acid
Nitric acid
Nitrobenzol
Nitrocellulose solution
Nitrogen fertilizer solution (including crude)
Nylon salt solution
Oil foots or sediment
Oiticica oil
Oleic acid (red oil)
Orthodichlorobenzol
Oxygen, liquid
Oxidizing salt solution
Oil tar
Oil tar oil
Paint oil compounded
Paint, lacquer, varnish, gum, resin, or pyroxylin plasticizers or solvents
Paint, lacquer, or varnish, increasing, reducing, removing or thinning compounds
Paints, stains, varnishes or lacquers
Palm oil
Paraffin wax, chlorinated
Paraldehyde
Peanut oil
Pentane
Perchloric acid
Perchloroethylene
[2] Petroleum
[2] Petroleum products (not otherwise listed)
Phenol (carbolic acid)
Phosphoric acid
Phosphorous
Phosphorus oxychloride
Phosphorous trichloride
Pickles
Pilargonic acid
Pinene
Pine oils
Pitch, pine tar
Pitch, rosin Plasticizers
Pork fat, rendered
Powder, smokeless, in water
Potassium silicates
Preservatives, wood
[2] Propanes
Propionic acid
Proprietary anti-freeze preparations
Propylene dichloride
Propylene glycol
Pulp mill Liquid
Pyridine
Pyroxylin solution
Pyroxylin waterproofing liquid
Pyroligneous acid
Rapeseed oil
Resin Resins, synthetic Road tar
Rosin oil
Rosin size
Rubber solvent
Sludge acid
Soap stock
Sodium aluminate
Sodium bichromate
Sodium bisulphite
Sodium chromate solution
Sodium hydrosulfide liquid (sodium sulphydrate)
Sodium, metallic
Sodium nitrate
Sodium nitrite
Sodium hypochlorite
Sodium phenolates
Sodium silicates
Sodium sulfate
Sodium sulfide, liquid
Sodium sulfite
Soyabean oil
Stearine
Styrene
Sulfur dioxide, anhydrous
Sulfuric acid
Sulphate, black liquor skimmings
Sunflower oil
Tall oil
Tallow
Tar acid, coal
Tar acid, oil
Tar, coal
Tar, pine
Tar, wood (hardwood tar)
Tetrachloroethane
Toluol (Toluene)
Trichlorobenzol
Trichloroethylene
Tricresyl phosphate
Tung oil (chinawood oil)
Turpentine, including crude
Turpentine, oil (spirits of turpentine: turps)
Unfinished alcohol
Unfinished grain spirits (suitable only for redistribution)
Vinegar
Vinyl acetate
Waste waterproofing liquid

[1] Controlled as List 1 or List 2 materials to the extent defined in List 1 or List 2.
[2] Subject to such orders as may be issued by the Petroleum Administrator for War.

Water not including mineral, flavored or phosphated
Water gas tar
Xylol (xylene)
Zinc chloride, liquid
Zinc sulfate, liquid

INTERPRETATION

(a) Paragraph (e) (2) does not afford any exemption from the provisions of paragraphs (b) and (c) with respect to controlled shipments of any material on List 1 or List 2.

(b) Any distance or mileage which is specified in said order or on any List annexed thereto, shall, with respect to shipments by tank car, be measured over the shortest available published rail tariff route, whether or not the particular shipment is billed or transported over such route. (Issued Feb. 9, 1943.)

PART 3175—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN

[CMP Regulation 5A]

MAINTENANCE, REPAIR AND OPERATING SUPPLIES FOR GOVERNMENTAL AGENCIES AND INSTITUTIONS

§ 3175.5a CMP Regulation 5A—(a) Purpose and scope. (1) The purpose of this regulation is to provide for governmental agencies and for institutions a uniform procedure for obtaining maintenance, repair and operating supplies, both in the case of controlled materials obtained by use of allotment symbols under the Controlled Materials Plan and in the case of materials or products obtained by preference ratings. Any agency or institution affected by this regulation requiring maintenance, repair and operating supplies, in any form, in such quantities as are available from warehouses or distributors under CMP Regulation No. 4 or at retail without preference ratings or allotments, may obtain the same without using the procedure provided in this regulation, but subject to all applicable limitations in War Production Board regulations and orders.

(2) The provisions of this regulation shall not apply to any governmental agency or to any institution to the extent that it is engaged in the following services or industries: gas, light, power, water or central heating, or to communications (in so far only as communications are provided for in Order P-130 and P-132).

(b) Definitions. The following definitions shall apply for the purpose of this regulation.

(1) "Governmental agency" means any governmental agency in the United States, its territories or possessions, federal, state, county, municipal or local except claimant agencies as defined in CMP Regulation No. 1 and except any agency specifically excluded from this regulation by order of the War Production Board.

(2) "Institution" means any institution within the United States, its territories or possessions, public or private, including but not limited to, schools, colleges, libraries, hospitals, welfare establishments and churches.

(3) "Maintenance" means the minimum upkeep necessary to continue a facility in sound working condition, and "repair" means the restoration of a facility to sound working condition when the same has been rendered unsafe or unfit for service by wear and tear, damage, failure of parts or the like: Provided, That neither maintenance nor repair shall include the improvement of any plant, facility or equipment, by replacing material which is still usable, with material of a better kind, quality or design, except as provided in paragraph (b) (5) of this regulation.

(4) "Operating supplies" means any material or product which (i) is essential for conducting any activity or rendering any service by any governmental agency or by any institution and (ii) is consumed in the course of conducting such activity or rendering such service and (iii) does not constitute capital equipment. Materials included in any finished product produced by a governmental agency or an institution which are normally chargeable to operating expense may also be treated as operating supplies.

(5) In addition, there may be included as maintenance, repair and operating supplies, minor items of productive capital equipment and minor capital additions or replacements not exceeding $100 (excluding cost of labor): Provided, That no capital equipment, addition or replacement aggregating more than $100 in cost shall be subdivided for the purpose of coming within this definition: And provided further, That the acquisition and use of materials for construction shall be subject to the provisions of Conservation Order L-41, as amended from time to time.

(6) No item specified in List A attached shall be included as maintenance, repair or operating supplies, even if it would otherwise come within the foregoing definitions.

(7) Production material required by a governmental agency or an institution for physical incorporation in products manufactured by it, which products it sells for use as maintenance, repair or operating supplies, may be obtained as provided in CMP Regulation No. 1 and and in CMP Regulation No. 3, and such production materials shall not be deemed maintenance, repair or operating supplies, as to such agency or institution.

(c) Controlled materials. (1) Subject to the quantity restrictions contained in paragraph (f) of this regulation, any governmental agency or any institution engaged in any activity or rendering any service listed in Schedule I or Schedule II attached to this regulation, requiring delivery after March 31, 1943, of any controlled material (as defined in CMP Regulation No. 1) except aluminum, for maintenance, repair or operating supplies in the conduct of such activity or service, may obtain the same by placing on or accompanying its delivery order with substantially the following certificate (or the optional standard certificate provided in CMP Regulation No. 7) signed manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7:

CMP allotment symbol MRO 5A—The undersigned certifies, subject to the criminal penalties for misrepresentation contained in section 35 (A) of the United States Criminal Code, that the controlled materials covered by this order are required for essential maintenance, repair or operating supplies, to be used for a purpose listed in Schedule I or Schedule II of CMP Regulation No. 5A and that delivery thereof will not result in a violation of the quantity restrictions contained in paragraph (f) of said regulation.

An order bearing such certificate shall be deemed an authorized controlled material order and shall have the same status as an order bearing an allotment number under all applicable CMP regulations unless otherwise expressly provided.

(2) Any governmental agency or any institution engaged in any activity, or rendering any service listed in Schedule I or II, requiring aluminum in any of the forms or shapes constituting a controlled material, for essential maintenance, repair or operating supplies, where the use of other materials for the purpose is impracticable, may obtain the same from a controlled materials producer or from an approved aluminum warehouse, in amounts of not to exceed 100 pounds from all sources during any one calendar quarter: Provided, That any order placed pursuant to this paragraph (c) (2) shall be endorsed with or accompanied by substantially the following certificate (or the optional standard certificate provided in CMP Regulation No. 7) signed manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7:

The undersigned certifies, subject to the criminal penalties for misrepresentation contained in section 35 (A) of the United States Criminal Code, that the materials covered by this order are required for essential maintenance, repair or operating supplies to be used for a purpose listed in Schedule I or Schedule II of CMP Regulation No. 5A; that the use of other materials for such purpose is impracticable; and that the amount of aluminum covered by this order, together with all other amounts received by, or on order for delivery to the undersigned, from all sources, for such purpose during the same quarter, will not exceed 100 pounds.

Any producer or warehouse receiving an order bearing such certificate shall be entitled to rely thereon and may fill the order, unless he knows or has reason to believe the certificate to be false.

(d) Preference ratings for maintenance, repair and operating supplies. (1) Subject to the quantity restrictions contained in paragraph (f) of this regulation, and subject to the restrictions of paragraphs (a) (2) and (g) of this regulation, orders by any governmental agency or institution calling for delivery after March 31, 1943, of maintenance, repair or operating supplies other than controlled materials (regardless of whether such supplies be Class A products, Class B products, or other products or materials) are hereby assigned preference ratings as follows:

(i) AA-1 for maintenance or repair of facilities required for any activity or service listed in Schedule I or for necessary operating supplies for such activity or service;

(ii) AA-2X for maintenance or repair of facilities required for any activity or service listed in Schedule II or for necessary operating supplies for such activity or service;

(iii) A-10 for necessary maintenance or repair facilities required for any activity or service not listed in Schedule I or Schedule II or for necessary operating supplies for any such purpose.

(iv) For maintenance, repair and operating supplies for any building devoted primarily to any service or activity listed in Schedule I or Schedule II, the rating assigned to that service is hereby assigned.

(2) Any agency or any institution which maintains a central stores system where it is impracticable to charge purchases for inventory against a particular service or activity, may establish a scale of percentages for each rating, for each class of items, based upon withdrawals from the central stores system during the calendar year 1942 (or its fiscal year ending nearest to December 31, 1942) by the various agencies and institutions (and departments thereof) and may apply the appropriate percentage of each rating to its purchases for the central stores system.

(3) A preference rating assigned under this paragraph (d) shall be applied only by use of the following certification (or the optional standard certificate provided in CMP Regulation No. 7) in lieu of the endorsement specified in Priorities Regulation No. 3, signed manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7:

Preference rating _____ (specify rating): MRO 5A. The undersigned certifies, subject to the criminal penalties for misrepresentation contained in section 35 (A) of the United States Criminal Code, that the items covered by this order are required for essential maintenance, repair or operating supplies; that this order is rated and placed in compliance with CMP Regulation No. 5A and that the delivery requested will not result in a violation of the quantity restrictions contained in paragraph (f) of said regulation.

A delivery order bearing the above certification shall have the status of a delivery order bearing a preference rating with an allotment symbol as provided in CMP Regulation No. 3.

(e) Departments engaged in several activities. If any governmental agency or any institution, or any department or unit thereof, is engaged in several activities which are not assigned the same preference rating and if it is impracticable to apportion maintenance, repair and operating supplies between such activities, the principal activity alone shall be considered for the purpose of determining whether controlled materials may be obtained under paragraph (c) of this regulation, and also for determining which preference ratings may be applied under paragraph (d).

(f) Quantity restrictions. (1) No governmental agency and no institution shall use the allotment symbol or preference ratings assigned by this regulation to obtain any item of maintenance, repair or operating supplies during any calendar quarter in an aggregate amount exceeding thirty per cent of its aggregate expenditures for items of maintenance, repair and operating supplies of the same class during the calendar year 1942 (or its fiscal year ending nearest to December 31, 1942) except that any governmental agency or any institution engaged in an activity which normally requires a greater amount of maintenance, repair or operating supplies during certain seasons than others, may use such allotment symbol or preference rating to obtain, during any calendar quarter up to but not in excess of, its aggregate expenditures for maintenance, repair and operating supplies for items of the same class during the corresponding quarter of 1942 (or such fiscal year). In neither case, however, shall any governmental agency or any institution use such allotment symbol or preference ratings to obtain maintenance, repair and operating supplies during the twelve months ending March 31, 1944, in an amount exceeding its aggregate expenditures for items of maintenance, repair and operating supplies of the same class used by it during the calendar year 1942 (or such fiscal year). As an illustration of the meaning of the term "items of the same class" purchases of sand and gravel during 1942 may not be taken into account in computing authorized purchasers of builders hardware in 1943.

(2) A governmental agency or institution which has several departments, branches or units which maintain separate records of maintenance, repair and operating supplies, shall treat each of them separately for purposes of complying with the provisions of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (f).

(3) In the case of any building or facility operated by any governmental agency or any institution which was not in operation during the base period specified in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (f), the governmental agency or institution operating the same may take as a base its expenditures for maintenance, repair and operating supplies during the first quarter of 1943, or during the portion thereof when the building or facility was in operation, reasonably adjusted for seasonal, or other variable factors: Provided, That it first notifies the War Production Board in writing of the base which it is taking, the reasons therefor, and the nature of any adjustments made. In the case of a building or facility starting operations after February 28, 1943, maintenance, repair and operating supplies may be acquired pursuant to this regulation in the minimum amounts necessary for operation, without other restrictions, up to $500 per quarter. If more than this amount is required, application should be made in writing to the War Production Board for a specific quota. In any case where the base provided in subparagraph (1) or by this subparagraph (3) is deemed too low for necessary operations, application may be made in writing for modification thereof.

(4) The restrictions contained in this paragraph (f) shall apply in addition to any quantitative restrictions contained in any order in the "P" series, unless the particular P order expressly provides that the restrictions of this regulation shall be inapplicable. The restrictions contained in subparagraphs (1), (2) and (3) of this paragraph (f) shall not apply to any controlled material or other product or material for which a rating is assigned on Form PD-408, as provided in paragraph (g) of this regulation.

(5) The War Production Board may, by further regulations or orders, require specified persons or classes of persons, to file applications or reports regarding their requirements of maintenance, repair and operating supplies and may prescribe specific quantitative limits for the same either larger or smaller than the limits provided in this paragraph (f).

(g) Restrictions on use of ratings by agencies and institutions using Form PD-408. No governmental agency or institution and no branch, department or unit thereof, to which a rating for maintenance, repair and operating supplies is or may be assigned on Form PD-408, shall, during the calendar quarter for which such rating is assigned, use any rating assigned by this regulation to obtain maintenance, repair and operating supplies. Any such agency or institution which is assigned a preference rating on Form PD-408 for controlled materials (other than aluminum) for maintenance, repair and operating supplies, may place authorized controlled material orders for the amount so rated, if, but only if, the same are required for essential maintenance, repair and operating supplies in connection with any activity or service listed in Schedule I or Schedule II attached to this regulation. Such orders shall be placed in the manner provided in paragraph (c) (1) of this regulation including the use of the certificate and symbol therein specified. Any governmental agency or any institution which is assigned a preference rating on Form PD-408 for aluminum for maintenance, repair and operating supplies may obtain the same pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (c) (2) of this regulation subject to the quantity restrictions contained in said paragraph, if, but only if, the same is required for essential maintenance, repair and operating supplies, to be used for a purpose listed in Schedule I or Schedule II of this regulation, by using the certificate specified in paragraph (c) (2) of this regulation. Any governmental agency of any institution which is assigned a preference rating on Form PD-408 for any material or product other than controlled materials, for maintenance, repair and operating supplies may, in applying such rating for the purchase of maintenance, repair and operating supplies, use the optional standard certificate provided in CMP Regulation No. 7 with the symbol MRO 5A, and a delivery order bearing such certificate and symbol shall have the status of a delivery order bearing a preference rating with an allotment symbol as provided in CMP Regulation No. 3. Any such agency or institution may, at its option, use the certificate specified in Priorities Regulation No. 3 without the symbol. The quantity restrictions prescribed in paragraph (f) of this regulation shall not apply to any controlled material or to any other material or product for which a rating is assigned on Form PD-408 for maintenance, repair and operating supplies.

Chapter XI—Office of Price

(b) This Order No. 19 shall cover only

3. Section 1351.1002 (d) is added to

(h) Penalties for misrepresentation or diversion. (1) The placing of any order bearing a certification or symbol as provided by this regulation shall constitute a representation, subject to the criminal penalties of section 35 (A) of the United States Criminal Code (18 U. S. C. 80), that the person placing the order is entitled, under the terms of this regulation to the use of the symbol or preference rating indicated thereon.

(2) No person shall use for any purpose other than essential maintenance, repair or operations, any supplies obtained pursuant to this regulation, or use any supplies obtained under a preference rating assigned by this regulation for a purpose to which a lower rating, or no rating, is assigned. Any such use shall constitute a crime punishable by fine or imprisonment or both. Physical segregation of inventories is not required, provided the restrictions applicable to any specific lot of material or product are observed with respect to an equivalent amount of the same material or product.

(i) Inventory restrictions. Nothing in this regulation shall be deemed to authorize any governmental agency or any institution to receive any delivery of maintenance, repair or operating supplies if acceptance thereof would increase its inventory above a practicable working minimum as provided in Section 944.14 of Priorities Regulation No. 1, or would exceed the inventory limitations prescribed for such person by CMP Regulation No. 2 or by any other applicable regulation or order of the War Production Board.

(j) Additional assistance in individual cases. Any governmental agency or any institution requiring maintenance, repair or operating supplies which it is unable to obtain pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this regulation, may apply to the War Production Board for additional assistance on such form as may be appropriate, having regard to the material required and the service or activity involved. If no particular form is specified by applicable orders or regulations of the War Production Board, such application may be made on Form PD–1A or, in the case of a PRP unit, on Form PD–25F. Such application shall be filed with the Governmental Division of the War Production Board, Washington, D. C.

(k) Effect on other orders and procedures. (1) The preference ratings assigned by this regulation shall supersede the preference ratings assigned by all orders in the "P" series for maintenance, repair and operating supplies with respect to materials or products to be delivered after March 31, 1943, except as may be otherwise provided by amendments of such orders specifically providing to the contrary.

(2) Subject to paragraph (k) (1) of this regulation, all of the terms, provisions and restrictions contained in all orders in the "P" series, including definitions, requirements for making applications and filing reports and other restrictions, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (f) (3) of this regulation shall, subject to the inventory restrictions of CMP Regulation No. 2, remain in full force and effect until modified or revoked.

(3) In addition, each governmental agency or institution which, in accordance with existing priorities procedures not covered by "P" orders, is required to file applications or reports with respect to its requirements for, or use of, maintenance, repair or operating supplies, or is limited in the amount of such supplies, which it is permitted to acquire or use, shall continue to comply with such procedures until the same are modified or revoked.

(4) Nothing in this regulation shall be construed to relieve any governmental agency or institution from complying with any applicable priorities regulation or order of the War Production Board (including orders in the "E", "L" and "M" series) or with any order of any other competent authority.

(l) Reclassification of activities. Any governmental agency or any institution which is of the opinion that any activity in which it is engaged should be assigned a rating different from that assigned by this regulation, may apply to have such activity reclassified, by filing a letter in triplicate with the Governmental Division, setting forth the relevant facts and the reasons why applicant considers that such request should be granted.

(m) Records and reports. Each governmental agency and institution acquiring maintenance, repair or operating supplies pursuant to this regulation, shall keep and preserve for a period of not less than two years, accurate and complete records of all such supplies so acquired, and used, which shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board and shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports as may from time to time be required by said Board.

(n) Communications. All communications concerning this regulation should be addressed to: Governmental Division, War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref: CMP Regulation No. 5A.

Issued this 19th day of March 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

LIST A

The following items are excluded from maintenance, repair and operating supplies as defined in paragraphs (b) (3), (b) (4) and (b) (5) of CMP Regulation No. 5A regardless of whether they would otherwise come within such definitions.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Order 19 Under § 1499.29 of GMPR]

JACK NELSON MANUFACTURING COMPANY

Order No. 19 under § 1499.29 of General Maximum Price Regulation—Docket No. VIII–G 1305.12–28.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1499.419 Authorization of a maximum price for two-part cement laundry trays for Jack Nelson Manufacturing Company. (a) Jack Nelson Manufacturing Company of Seattle, Washington, may sell and deliver to Crane Company, Consolidated Supply Company, Peerless-Pacific Company and Marshall Wells Company, all of Portland, Oregon, two-part cement laundry trays at not more than $5.65 each, f. o. b. point of manufacture.

(b) This Order No. 19 shall cover only the sales of two-part cement laundry trays to the companies set forth in paragraph (a) above, which are in turn sold under contract to the War Department, the Navy Department, and the Maritime Commission.

(c) If the contracts between Jack Nelson Manufacturing Company and the four companies set forth in paragraph (a) above have been negotiated at a price higher than that established by this Order No. 19, such price shall be adjusted downward to the established price. If any payments have been made under any such contracts at a price higher than that established by this Order No. 19, refund of the excess must be made to each company respectively.

(d) This Order No. 19 (§ 1499.419) is hereby incorporated as a section of Supplementary Regulation No. 4, which contains modifications of maximum prices established by § 1499.2.

(e) All prayers of the application not granted herein are denied.

(f) This Order No. 19 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(g) This Order No. 19 (§ 1499.419) shall become effective March 19, 1943.

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[MPR 271,[1] Amendment 5]

CERTAIN PERISHABLE FOOD COMMODITIES, SALES EXCEPT AT RETAIL

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation 271 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1351.1001 (a) (1) is amended to read as follows:

(1) All white potatoes, whether used for human consumption or as seed potatoes.

2. Section 1351.1001 (c) (3) is added to read as follows:

(3) Appendix C sets forth maximum prices for seed potatoes which were previously exempt from this regulation. Under its terms no seed potatoes heretofore or hereafter bought or sold as seed potatoes may be sold except as seed potatoes for planting. To insure compliance with this provision, various conditions are established which sellers and buyers are required to meet before sales of such seed potatoes may be made.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

[1] 7 F.R. 9179, 10715; 8 F.R. 233, 1748, 1981.

3. Section 1351.1003 (d) is added to read as follows:

(d) All intermediate sellers as defined in this section, who sell seed potatoes shall compute their prices under Appendix C.

4. Section 1351.1008 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1351.1008 Evasion. The price limitations which are set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 271 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with any offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of, or relating to any of the commodities listed in any Appendix hereof, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity, or by way of commission, service, transportation, or any other charge or discount, premium, or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise; or by avoiding or offering to avoid the sale or use of seed potatoes as seed potatoes or by requiring any seller or buyer, as the case may be, to aid in avoiding the conditions of sale concerning seed potatoes set forth in Appendix C, or otherwise.

5. Section 1351.1011 (c) is added to read as follows:

(c) In addition to the above records sellers shall keep all correspondence in connection with any sale of seed potatoes together with a copy of every invoice or other written evidence of purchase or sale and.

On or before April 1, 1943, prepare and maintain for examination by any person during ordinary business hours a statement showing his maximum prices for every kind of certified seed potatoes which he sold during the period February 15, 1943, to March 1, 1943, and his customary allowances, discounts and other price differentials. Whenever such seller offers any other kind of certified seed potatoes for sale he shall add to such statement his maximum price for such seed potatoes.

6. Section 1351.1014 (a) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) "Country shipper" means any person, including a farmer, who grades, sacks, or loads perishable food commodities on board common or contract carriers and who makes sales and deliveries to any other person whether for his own account or for the joint account of himself and another. If any farmer sells a perishable food commodity at the farm, directly to any commercial, industrial or institutional user, the maximum price for such sale shall be the maximum price listed in Appendix A or Appendix C, as the case may be, for a country shipper.

7. Section 1351.1019 is added to read as follows:

§ 1351.1019 Appendix C: Seed potatoes—(a) Scope of Appendix C. Maximum prices for the sale of seed potatoes in bulk by farmers and in sacks of 50 pounds or more by country shippers (which is defined to include farmers acting as country shippers or selling direct to commercial, industrial or institutional users) and intermediate sellers are established in this Appendix C. The foregoing provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 271 shall also apply to such sales of seed potatoes, except as otherwise provided in this Appendix C.

(b) Prohibitions on sale of seed potatoes. No seed potatoes heretofore or hereafter bought or sold as seed potatoes shall be used or resold except as seed potatoes for planting.

(c) Sales of certified seed potatoes by country shippers. (1) The maximum price that any country shipper may charge for the sale or delivery of any certified seed potatoes, domestic or imported, shall be the highest price charged by such seller for the same variety, grade and size of seed potatoes to a purchaser of the same class during the period February 15, 1943, to March 1, 1943, inclusive.

(2) If a country shipper made no such sale or delivery, his maximum prices for the sale or delivery of any certified seed potatoes, domestic or imported, shall be the highest price charged by his most closely competitive seller for the same variety, grade and size of certified seed potatoes to a purchaser of the same class during the period February 15, 1943, to March 1, 1943, inclusive.

(3) If a country shipper cannot figure his price under the above provisions (1) and (2), his maximum price for the sale or delivery of certified seed potatoes shall be figured by taking his maximum price for the most similar quality certified seed potatoes which he sold or delivered during the period February 15, 1943, to March 1, 1943, inclusive, and adding or subtracting the premium or discount normal to his business or, if none, normal to the trade, for the certified seed potatoes in question.

(4) If he made no such sale or delivery under (3), the country shipper's maximum price shall be figured by taking his most closely competitive sellers maximum price for the most similar quality certified seed potatoes which such competitor sold or delivered during the period February 15, 1943, to March 1, 1943, inclusive, and adding or subtracting the premium or discount normal to his business, or if none, normal to the trade, for the seed potatoes in question.

(d) Sales of selected seed potatoes by country shippers. The maximum price that any country shipper may charge for selected seed potatoes, domestic or imported, shall be 75 cents per cwt. over the maximum price established for the country shipper in Appendix A for the same variety, grade and size of white potatoes sold for human consumption.

(e) Sales of certified and selected seed potatoes by intermediate sellers. The maximum price that any intermediate seller may charge for certified or selected seed potatoes, domestic or imported, which he has now on hand, or hereafter purchases, shall be established in the same manner as provided for the sale of white potatoes for human consumption by § 1351.1003 and Appendix B above, except that the period of time which shall be considered in determining the "largest single purchase" shall be thirty days, or if no such purchase was made during such thirty days the term "largest single purchase" shall refer to the most recent purchase made by the intermediate seller.

In addition, an intermediate seller's "net cost" of seed potatoes whether heretofore or hereafter bought shall not exceed the maximum delivered price to him in his purchase of the seed potatoes in question from the country shipper (or if he purchases from any other person the maximum delivered price to him as if he had bought the seed potatoes in question direct from the country shipper) under the terms of this Appendix C. "Net cost" shall otherwise have the same meaning as provided for in § 1351.1003 above.

(f) Conditions of sale. No sale of seed potatoes shall be made unless the following conditions are met.

(1) Sales in sacks and bulk. The seed potatoes shall have been packed in sacks of 50 pounds or over when sold by a country shipper or intermediate seller except that sales may be made in bulk by a farmer selling direct to a commercial, industrial or institutional user.

(2) Buyer's statement. The buyer shall furnish the seller with a statement in writing that such seed potatoes are being purchased "only for use or for resale as seed for planting and not for human consumption, for processing, or any other purpose." The buyer is required to furnish the seller with such a written statement prior to sale.

(3) Seller's tag. When seed potatoes are sold in sacks or other containers there shall be attached to the sack, or other container, prior to shipment from the farm or the country shipping point, a label or tag stating that such potatoes are "seed potatoes not to be used or sold for human consumption" and marked with an identifying lot number plus the name and address of the seller who attached such label or tag at the farm or country shipping point.

If a seller, on March 19, 1943, owns seed potatoes packed in a sack, or other container which has been labeled or tagged as seed potatoes at the country shipping point (as previously provided for by § 1351.1001), but which does not bear an identifying lot number or the name and address of the farmer or country shipper who attached such label at the country shipping point, he must add to the tag or label an identifying lot number, his own name and address and the words "seed potatoes not to be used or sold for human consumption."

When seed potatoes are sold in bulk by a farmer direct to a commercial, industrial or institutional user, he shall state upon an invoice or other written evidence of sale an identifying lot number and his name and address.

(4) Seller's statement on invoice. The seller shall furnish the buyer with an invoice or other written evidence of the sale which, in addition to the customary facts stated by the seller, shall include the following statement:

As required by Maximum Price Regulation No. 271, I have agreed to sell and you have agreed to buy these seed potatoes only for use or for resale as seed for planting and not for human consumption or any other purpose. I have also received from you a statement in writing to that effect.

The identifying lot number with which these seed potatoes have been labeled or tagged is _____ and the name and address of the seller who attached such label or tag is _____.

The type, variety, grade and size of these seed potatoes are _____.

My selling price, which does not exceed my maximum price, is _____.

(5) Report. The seller shall mail after each sale or delivery of seed potatoes a copy of his invoice or other written evidence of the sale, within 24 hours after the day of sale or shipment, to the nearest district or state office of the Office of Price Administration.

(g) Addition, alteration or removal of tag or label prohibited. No person shall attach any tag or label to a sack, bag or other container of potatoes stating that such potatoes are seed potatoes, except at the farm or country shipping point as expressly required above.

No person shall alter or modify any tag or label attached to a sack, bag or other container of seed potatoes, except as expressly required above.

No person, except a planter, shall remove or detach any tag or label attached as above provided to a sack, or other container of seed potatoes.

(h) Definitions. "Certified white seed potatoes" means white potatoes inspected and certified by a state agency as seed for planting.

"Selected white seed potatoes" means white potatoes selected by the farmer or country shipper as specially qualified for use as seed for planting and duly invoiced, tagged or labeled as seed potatoes at the farm or country shipping point as required above.

"Seed potatoes" means either certified or selected white seed potatoes.

This amendment shall become effective March 19, 1943.

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[MPR 332,[1] Amendment]

ALFALFA HAY; STATES OF CALIFORNIA, OREGON, WASHINGTON, ARIZONA, NEVADA, UTAH AND IDAHO

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with The Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation 322 is amended in the following respects:

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

[1] 8 F.R. 2024.

1. Section 1351.1950 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1351.1950 Prohibition against sales of alfalfa hay in the area subject to this regulation above maximum prices. On and after the effective date of this regulation regardless of any contract or other obligation, no person subject to this regulation shall sell or deliver alfalfa hay and no person subject to this regulation in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive such alfalfa hay at a price higher than the maximum prices permitted by this regulation and no person subject to this regulation shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the foregoing; Provided, That the provisions of this regulation shall not apply to sales or deliveries of alfalfa hay otherwise covered by this regulation if prior to the effective date of this regulation such alfalfa hay has been sold to a buyer and has been received by a carrier other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller for shipment to such buyer. But any resales of such last mentioned alfalfa hay which is so in transit at the effective date of this regulation shall be subject to this regulation.

2. Section 1351.1952 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1351.1952 Territory and transactions subject to this regulation. The provisions of this regulation shall apply only to the states of California, Nevada, Oregon, Arizona, Washington, Idaho and Utah. It shall govern the sale and delivery of all alfalfa hay produced in said region as well as the sale and delivery of all alfalfa hay produced elsewhere which is sold to any person located in said region.

3. Section 1351.1953 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1351.1953 Maximum prices for sales by a producer. (a) "Producer" means a person who grows or raises alfalfa hay.

(b) The maximum price for the sale or delivery of alfalfa hay by a producer shall be $20.00 per ton, loose on the farm, collected and situated ready to load on vehicles for transportation from the farm, except that where there is furnished a complete certificate designating the grade (or if impractical to procure, then a partial inspection certificate designating the grade shall govern unless and until a complete certificate is issued) which complete certificate or partial inspection certificate shall be signed by a hay inspector duly licensed as a federal or federal state inspector and duly authorized to issue such certificates, the maximum prices for the grades so designated shall be as follows:

	Grade No. 1	Grade No. 2	Grade No. 3
Alfalfa hay	$22.50	$20.00	$17.00
Alfalfa green or leafy hay		21.50	19.00
Alfalfa extra leafy hay	25.50	22.00	20.00

(c) The maximum delivered price for the sale or delivery of alfalfa hay by a producer shall be the maximum price above set forth plus transportation charges actually incurred by the seller from seller's farm to buyer's receiving point.

4. Section 1351.1954 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1351.1954 Maximum prices for sales by a country shipper except for purchases in California. (a) "Country shipper" means a person who buys alfalfa hay from a producer other than a producer located in California for resale to a dealer or retailer.

(b) The maximum price for the sale or delivery of alfalfa hay by a country shipper shall be $2.00 per ton (maximum mark up) over his cost which shall not exceed the maximum price thereon to him of the producer from whom the alfalfa hay in question was purchased plus transportation charges actually incurred by such country shipper in selling to a dealer or retailer.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, country shippers customarily doing business as above described may trade in alfalfa hay among themselves: Provided, That no more than a total of the $2.00 maximum mark up above permitted is charged a dealer or retailer for his purchase from any country shipper of any particular lot of alfalfa hay irrespective of the number of such country shippers who may have handled the alfalfa hay in question.

5. Section 1351.1955 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1351.1955 Maximum prices for sales by a dealer. (a) "Dealer" means a person who buys alfalfa hay from a producer or country shipper for resale to a retailer or to a feeder or ultimate consumer except by sale of a type specified in § 1351.1956 hereof.

(b) The maximum price for the sale or delivery of alfalfa hay by a dealer shall be $1.50 per ton (maximum mark up) over his cost which shall not exceed the maximum price thereon to him of the producer or country shipper, as the case may be, from whom the alfalfa hay in question was purchased plus transportation charges actually incurred by such dealer in so selling to a retailer or to a feeder or ultimate consumer.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, dealers customarily doing business as above described may trade in alfalfa hay among themselves; Provided, That no more than a total of the $1.50 mark up above permitted is charged in any such sale to a retailer or a feeder or ultimate consumer for the purchase from any dealer of any particular lot of alfalfa hay irrespective of the number of such dealers who may have handled the alfalfa hay in question.

6. Section 1351.1956 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1351.1956 Maximum prices for sales by a retailer. (a) "Retailer" means a person who buys alfalfa hay for the purpose of sale to a feeder or ultimate consumer in the manner specified below.

(b) The maximum prices for the sale or delivery of alfalfa hay by a retailer shall be one of the following mark ups over his cost which shall not exceed the maximum price thereon to him of the producer, country shipper or dealer from whom the alfalfa hay in question was purchased plus transportation charges actually incurred by such retailer in so selling to a feeder or ultimate consumer;

(1) Where the retailer has unloaded and stored the alfalfa hay in question in his established place of business which must consist of a permanent structure or building such as a feed store or structural warehouse;

(i) $5.00 per ton maximum mark up if sold in quantities of two tons or less.

(ii) $4.50 per ton maximum mark up if sold in quantities of more than two tons and not over three tons.

(iii) $3.50 per ton maximum mark up if sold in quantities of more than three tons and not more than five tons.

(iv) $3.00 per ton maximum mark up if sold in quantities of more than five tons but not over seven tons.

(2) Where the retailer sells from off a railroad car $3.00 per ton maximum mark up if sold in quantities of less than railroad car lots.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, retailers customarily doing business as above described may trade in alfalfa hay among themselves: Provided, That no more than a total of the maximum mark up above permitted for the sale of a particular quantity of alfalfa hay is charged a feeder or ultimate consumer for the purchase from any retailer of such quantity, irrespective of the number of such retailers who may have handled the alfalfa hay in question.

7. Section 1351.1958 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1351.1958 Maximum prices for sales of alfalfa hay imported from a foreign country. (a) The maximum price for the first sale and delivery of alfalfa hay imported from a foreign country within the area subject to this regulation after the importation shall be the total of:

(1) The seller's cost not exceeding the maximum price of a producer as above specified, plus

(2) The maximum mark up as above specified for the class of persons to which the seller belongs, plus

(3) Transportation charges actually incurred by the seller from the port of entry of the alfalfa hay in question to the buyer's receiving point.

(b) The maximum price for all subsequent sales and deliveries of such alfalfa hay shall be the maximum mark up as above specified for a like sale or delivery by a like class of seller over the seller's cost not exceeding the maximum price which he could lawfully have paid for the quantity and quality purchased and to the person from whom he purchased plus transportation charges actually incurred by such seller.

8. Section 1351.1959 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1351.1959 Maximum prices for sales in bales. Where alfalfa hay is sold in bales the cost of baling not exceeding $4.00 per ton if and as incurred by the seller may be added to the appropriate maximum price above set forth.

9. Section 1351.1962 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1351.1962 Definitions. (a) As used in this regulation alfalfa hay and grades of alfalfa hay refer to alfalfa hay and grades of alfalfa hay as established in the Handbook of Official Hay Standards issued by the Department of Agriculture.

(b) As used in the regulation the phrase "transportation charges actually incurred" means:

(1) Where the carrier is not owned or controlled by the seller, the amount paid such carrier (including the 3 per cent tax provided for in section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942) not exceeding any applicable common or contract carrier rate for a like service or any applicable maximum price for such service.

(2) Where the carrier is owned or controlled by the seller, the reasonable value of the transportation in question not exceeding, if any, the common or contract carrier rate or the maximum price for a like service if performed by a person other than the seller.

Save as loading or unloading charges may be customarily included in such transportation charges no additional charges may be made for such services.

10. The title of this regulation is amended to read as set forth above.

This amendment shall become effective March 18, 1943.

(Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871)

PART 1407—RATIONING OF FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[Ration Order 12,[1] as Amended March 18, 1943]

COFFEE RATIONING REGULATIONS

A new item is added to § 1407.1091 by Amendment 24, so that Ration Order 12 shall read as follows:

Preamble. Interruptions in ocean communications and the use of available shipping space to carry materials important to the prosecution of the war have resulted in a recent sharp decline in coffee imports. The supply of coffee in the United States, which depends virtually in its entirety upon ocean-going transportation, has, therefore, suffered to such an extent that it is insufficient to satisfy normal demands. In addition, the tremendous purchases and consumption of coffee by the armed forces has depleted the coffee supply that would normally be available for civilian consumption.

Coffee has become an important drink to practically the entire adult population of this country. It is important, therefore, to take steps to insure the orderly distribution of coffee so that each person may obtain his share of the coffee available for distribution. The War Production Board has accordingly directed the Office of Price Administration to ration coffee. Ration Order No. 12 is issued pursuant to that directive.

Because the supply of coffee is inadequate to provide the entire population with coffee in amounts sufficient to satisfy normal demands and because the youngest members of the community are those who would suffer least from being deprived of coffee, no coffee ration is being provided for children fourteen years old and younger. No one will be allowed to obtain coffee with the coffee stamps contained in such children's war ration books.

In order to allow retailers and wholesalers of coffee to build up their stocks of roasted coffee, coffee cannot be sold to consumers during the period from November 22, 1942, to November 28, 1942, inclusive. Certain stamps contained in War Ration Book One will be designated as coffee stamps and will enable consumers to acquire their coffee rations. Consumers will not, however, be allowed to buy green coffee even with coffee stamps.

In order to assure that dealers will have available sufficient coffee to satisfy consumers' rations, provisions are made for allowing retailers and wholesalers working inventories which they will be able to replenish through use of the same coffee stamps.

Roasters and persons dealing in green coffee will be able to buy green coffee without the use of coffee stamps or certificates. Roasters, however, must have on hand stamps or certificates equal in weight value to the coffee roasted and sold by them.

Institutions will receive bimonthly allotment certificates at their local war price and rationing boards.

To provide information necessary to the proper administration and enforcement of this rationing program, all members of the trade are required to take an initial inventory, to keep certain records, and to make certain reports.

Accordingly, pursuant to the authority vested in the Administrator by Executive Order No. 9125, issued by the President on April 7, 1942, and Directive No. 1 and Supplementary Directive No. 1-R of the War Production Board, issued on January 24 and November 20, 1942, respectively, It is hereby ordered, That:

SCOPE OF RATION ORDER NO. 12

§ 1407.951 Territorial limitation. Ration Order No. 12 shall apply within the 48 States of the United States and within the District of Columbia.

DEFINITIONS

§ 1407.952 Definitions. When used in Ration Order No. 12 the term:

(a) "Acquire" means to accept a transfer or otherwise obtain possession of, title to, or any interest in coffee.

(b) "Beverage," unless otherwise indicated by the context, means the drink commonly known as "coffee."

(c) "Board" means a war price and rationing board or, if the context so indicates, the specific war price and rationing board having jurisdiction over specific persons or establishments.

(d) "Certificate" means a coffee purchase certificate. A coffee purchase certificate shall consist of O.P.A. Form R-306 with the word "sugar" stricken wherever it appears thereon, with the words "coffee in the amount of" inserted on the line in such form provided for insertion of amount, and with the words "Rationing Order No. 3 (Sugar)" stricken from the following line.

(e) "Coffee" means green or roasted coffee, packaged or unpackaged, bean or ground, and includes any substitute or substance, including but not limited to chicory, cereal, peas, or beans when mixed, blended, or compounded with coffee. When modified by the word "green" or "roasted," the term "coffee" shall denote only the kind of coffee indicated. "Coffee" does not include soluble or liquid extract coffee or similar products processed or manufactured in whole or in part from coffee but does include coffee from which all or part of the caffeine has been removed.

(f) "Coffee stamps" means stamps numbered 19 to 28, inclusive.

[Paragraph (f) as amended by Amendment 13, 8 F.R. 1741, effective 2-12-43]

(g) "Compounder" means a person, other than a consumer, institutional user, or industrial user, who mixes or blends coffee with any substitute or substance including but not limited to chicory, cereal, peas, or beans for the purpose of transfer.

[Paragraph (g) as amended by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2677, effective 3-1-43]

(h) "Consumer" means any individual acquiring or seeking to acquire coffee for personal use, who has obtained a war ration book pursuant to Rationing Order No. 3 or Ration Order No. 12, and whose age, as entered in said war ration book, is 14 years or over.

[Paragraph (h) as amended by Amendment 18, 8 F.R. 2154, effective 2-20-43]

(i) "Establishment" means the business or operation subject to Ration Order No. 12, conducted at or from a particular location. Each shipping point from which one or more car, wagon, or other house-to-house routes originate shall be deemed a separate establishment.

(j) "Family unit" means a group of two or more individuals, consisting of all persons customarily living together in the same household (including persons temporarily absent therefrom) who are related by blood, marriage, or adoption.

(k) "Industrial establishment" means an establishment which uses coffee in the production, manufacture, or processing of soluble coffee or any product other than coffee or in the preparation of food or beverages not served by it or its owner to individuals. It does not include an establishment which only blends, mixes or compounds coffee with substitutes or substances including but not limited to chicory, cereal, beans, or peas. A person owning an industrial establishment is, with respect to the ownership and operation of such establishment, an industrial user. With respect to coffee used by him in the preparation of beverages which he does not serve to individuals, an industrial user is sometimes designated in Ration Order No. 12 a Class A industrial user. With respect to other uses of coffee by him, an industrial user is sometimes designated in Ration Order No. 12 a Class B industrial user.

(l) "Institutional establishment," "institutional user establishment," and "institutional user" have the respective meanings given to such terms by General Ration Order 5.'

[Paragraphs (k) and (l) as amended by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2677, effective 3-1-43.]

(m) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association, or business trust, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, and any State or any political subdivision or agency thereof, and any other government or agency thereof.

(n) "Purchase warrant" means a statement prepared and signed by a retailer or wholesaler for the purpose of acquiring roasted coffee and certifying to the authority of the retailer or wholesaler to acquire, under Ration Order No. 12, roasted coffee in the amount stated thereon.

(o) "Ration period" means the period designated by the Office of Price Administration during which a coffee stamp shall be valid for use by a consumer.

(p) "Registering unit" means the institutional establishment or group of institutional establishments, as defined prior to March 1, 1943, selected by the owner thereof to be treated as a single unit for the purposes of Ration Order No. 12 and which was so registered by him.

[Paragraph (p) as amended by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2677, effective 3-1-43.]

(q) "Retail establishment" means an establishment engaged in a business involving the transfer of roasted coffee which makes at least 50 per cent of its transfers of all merchandise to consumers. A person owning one or more retail establishments is, with respect to the ownership and operation thereof, a retailer.

(r) "Roaster" means a person who roasts green coffee owned by him or has green coffee supplied by him roasted for his account on a fee or similar basis by some other person. Whenever in Ration Order No. 12 reference is made to green coffee roasted by a person it shall include green coffee supplied by such person but roasted for his account on a fee or similar basis by some other person and shall not be included by such other person as green coffee roasted by him.

(s) "Stamp" means a war ration stamp originally contained in a war ration book.

(t) "State Director" means the person holding the Office of State Director in a District or State office, or the Office of District Manager in a district office, who has been designated by the Regional Administrator to decide, pursuant to Procedural Regulation No. 9,[1] appeals from the decisions of local war price and rationing boards located in the area over which such office has jurisdiction.

[Paragraph (t) added by Amendment 11, 8 F.R. 1366, effective 2-4-43. Former paragraphs (t) through (w) redesignated (u) through (x).]

(u) "Transfer" means sell, lease, lend, trade, give, ship, deliver, or transfer, in any way, the ownership or possession of coffee or any interest therein from one establishment or person to another establishment or person. It includes diverting to consumer use coffee held for sale or transfer whether or not a change in ownership or possession results.

(v) "War ration book" means War Ration Book One (O.P.A. Form R-302).

(w) "Weight value" means the amount of coffee authorized to be transferred by a coffee stamp, certificate, purchase warrant, or check.

[Paragraph (w) as amended by Amendment 12, 8 F.R. 1286, effective 1-27-43.]

(x) "Wholesale establishment" means an establishment engaged in a business involving the transfer of roasted coffee which makes over 50 per cent of its transfers of all merchandise to other establishments or to persons other than consumers. A person owning one or more wholesale establishments is, with respect to the ownership and operation thereof, a wholesaler.

(y) "Account" means a coffee ration bank account carried by a bank, in which the bank keeps a record of deposits of coffee stamps, certificates and checks and of transfers of coffee ration credits.

(z) "Bank" means a bank or bank branch which participates in ration banking by opening an account in accordance with General Ration Order No. 3.

(aa) "Check" means a coffee ration check, in the form prescribed by the Office of Price Administration drawn by a depositor against his account and made payable to the account of a named person.

(bb) "Depositor" means a person who has a ration bank account. A person shall be deemed a separate depositor with respect to each of his accounts.

(cc) "District Office" means the District Office of the Office of Price Administration having jurisdiction over the area in which the bank carrying the account for a depositor is located, or, if there is no such District Office, the State Office of the Office of Price Administration having jurisdiction over that area.

(dd) "Evidences" means coffee stamps, certificates and checks.

(ee) "Issue" when used with respect to a check, means the delivery of a completed check to the person to whose account the check is made payable.

(ff) "Ration credits" means the credits in an account reflecting the deposit of coffee stamps, certificates, or checks.

[Paragraphs (y) through (ff) added by Amendment 12, 8 F.R. 1286, effective 1-27-43.]

JURISDICTION

§ 1407.953 Jurisdiction of boards. For the purposes of Ration Order No. 12 each board shall have jurisdiction over each consumer and each institutional user establishment registered with it, and over each retailer, wholesaler, institutional user, and industrial user whose principal business office is located within the area assigned to the board.

[§ 1407.953 as amended by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2677, effective 3-1-43.]

RESTRICTION OF TRANSFERS

§ 1407.954 Restriction of transfers. Notwithstanding the terms of any contract, agreement, or commitment, regardless of when made, no person shall on or after November 22, 1942, transfer or acquire coffee except in accordance with Ration Order No. 12.

§ 1407.955 Transfers to consumers between November 22 and 28, 1942, prohibited. From November 22, 1942, to November 28, 1942, inclusive, no person shall transfer coffee to a consumer.

§ 1407.956 Transfer of roasted coffee must be accompanied by surrender or issuance of evidences. Except as otherwise provided in Ration Order No. 12, a transfer of roasted coffee shall be made only upon the surrender or issuance of appropriate evidences authorizing such transfer.

[§ 1407.956 as amended by Amendment 12, 8 F.R. 1286, effective 1-27-43.]

§ 1407.957 Transfer of coffee prohibited to individuals less than 14 years old. No person shall transfer coffee against or acquire coffee with a coffee stamp in or from the war ration book of an individual whose age, as entered in said war ration book, is less than 14 years.

[§ 1407.957 as amended by Amendment 18, 8 F.R. 2154, effective 2-20-43.]

§ 1407.958 Restriction on transfer of green coffee. Except as otherwise provided in Ration Order No. 12, no person shall, on or after November 22, 1942, transfer green coffee to any other person unless such other person is a roaster or is and was prior to November 22, 1942, engaged in a business or operation involving dealing in green coffee.

§ 1407.959 Transfer of green coffee to consumers prohibited. Notwithstanding anything contained in Ration Order No. 12, no person shall on or after November 22, 1942, transfer green coffee to a consumer.

[§ 1407.960 revoked by Amendment 21, 8 F.R. 2782, effective 3-10-43.]

§ 1407.961 Restriction on transfers or acquisitions in excess of War Production Board suspension orders. No person against whom the War Production Board has issued or issues any suspension or similar order limiting the amount of coffee such person may acquire or transfer shall, on or after November 22, 1942, acquire or transfer any coffee in excess of the amount permitted by such order.

CONSUMERS

§ 1407.970 Individuals not possessing war ration books. (a) Any individual who registered as a consumer pursuant to Rationing Order No. 3 and who either (1) did not obtain a war ration book by virtue of the provisions of Rationing Order No. 3 or (2) surrendered his war ration book thereafter to the board pursuant to §§ 1407.71, 1407.73, or 1407.74 of Rationing Order No. 3, may, upon applying therefor to the board receive a war ration book containing stamps Nos. 17 to 28, inclusive, together with any other stamps to which such individual may be entitled pursuant to Rationing Order No. 3: Provided, however, That coffee stamps for any ration periods which have expired shall be detached from the war ration book issued to any such individual whose age, as entered in said war ration book, is 14 years or more.

[Paragraph (a) as amended by Amendment 19, 8 F.R. 2154, effective 2-22-43.]

(b) Any individual 14 years old or older who has not registered and applied for a war ration book in accordance with Rationing Order No. 3 and who is entitled to register pursuant to § 1407.68 of Rationing Order No. 3 may register pursuant thereto and apply for a war ration book. The board shall issue a war ration book to such an individual containing stamps Nos. 17 to 28, inclusive, together with any other stamps to which he may be entitled pursuant to Rationing Order No. 3: Provided, That coffee stamps for any ration periods which have expired shall be detached from such war ration book.

[Paragraph (b) as amended by Amendment 18, 8 F.R. 2154, effective 2-20-43.]

(c) Any individual whose war ration book does not contain stamps other than stamps Nos. 17 to 28, and who under the provisions of Rationing Order No. 3 subsequently becomes entitled to any stamps numbered 16 or less may exchange his war ration book at the board for a new war ration book. Before issuing the new war ration book, the board shall detach all stamps required to be detached by Rationing Order No. 3, the coffee stamps corresponding to any coffee stamp which had been removed from the surrendered war ration book, and the coffee stamps for ration periods which have expired: Provided, however, That such coffee stamps shall not be detached from the war ration book issued to any individual whose age as entered therein is less than 14 years.

[Paragraph (c) as amended by Amendment 19, 8 F.R. 2154, effective 2-22-43.]

§ 1407.972 Consumers handicapped by transportation difficulties. A consumer to whom a war ration book has been issued and who, because of transportation difficulties, finds it a hardship to acquire roasted coffee at the times specified in § 1407.1091, may apply to the board for a certificate having a weight value not in excess of five pounds. The application shall be made to the board by the consumer personally, by an authorized agent, or by any other person authorized by Rationing Order No. 3 to register for him. The board, in its discretion, may grant the application in whole or in part. Before issuing a certificate in such a case, the board shall detach from the war ration book of the consumer coffee stamps having a weight value equal to the amount for which the certificate is issued.

§ 1407.973 Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard personnel on furlough. A member of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard who is on furlough for at least seven days, may apply to a board for a certificate for one pound of coffee. Not more than one such certificate may be issued to the same person in any ration period. When issuing such a certificate, the board shall enter on the leave papers its designation, a statement that it has issued a certificate, and the date of issuance.

[§ 1407.974 revoked by Amendment 23, 8 F.R. 2721, effective 3-2-43.]

§ 1407.975 Restriction on use of coffee stamps. (a) A consumer, not a member of a family unit, who on November 28, 1942, owns or possesses more than one pound of coffee shall retain in his possession one coffee stamp for each pound of coffee he owns or possesses in excess of one pound. The consumer shall surrender such coffee stamps to the board when so ordered by the Office of Price Administration.

[Paragraph (a) as amended by Amendment 1, 7 F.R. 10380, effective 12-16-42.]

(b) If, on November 28, 1942, a family unit or any member thereof owns or possesses a quantity of coffee in excess of one pound of coffee per member of the family unit, whose age, as entered on his war ration book, is 14 years or more, coffee stamps equal in weight value to such excess shall be retained by such members. Such coffee stamps shall be surrendered to the board when so ordered by the Office of Price Administration.

[Paragraph (b) as amended by Amendment 1, and Amendment 18, 8 F.R. 2154, effective 2-20-43.]

RETAILERS AND WHOLESALERS

§ 1407.980 Allowable inventory of coffee. Every retailer and wholesaler is permitted a working inventory of coffee which shall be known as his allowable inventory.

§ 1407.981 Allowable inventory of certain single-establishment, non-roasting retailers. (a) The allowable inventory of a person owning one retail establishment only, not engaged in roasting coffee, which commenced operations on or before September 1, 1942, and which transferred during September 1942 less than 2,000 pounds of roasted coffee, shall be one pound of roasted coffee for each ten dollars, or fraction thereof, of gross sales of all meats, groceries, fruits, vegetables, and similar products made from such establishment during September 1942. The gross sales of a person owning one retail establishment only, not engaged in roasting coffee, which commenced operations after September 1, 1942, shall be computed by multiplying by 26 its average daily gross sales of meats, groceries, fruits, vegetables, and similar products between September 2 and November 22, 1942, and the allowable inventory of such person shall be one pound of roasted coffee for each ten dollars, or fraction thereof, of gross sales so computed. If such establishment is one of two or more departments located within one building and holding themselves out to the public as a single operation, such gross sales may include the sales made by all such departments regardless of their ownership.

(b) For the purposes of this section, average daily gross sales shall be determined by dividing the total gross sales made from the establishment by the number of days on which said establishment was open for business during the period for which the average daily gross sales are being determined.

§ 1407.982 Allowable inventory of retailers not included in § 1407.981 and wholesalers. (a) The allowable inventory of a person owning a single retail establishment not referred to in § 1407.981 or two or more retail establishments or one or more wholesale establishments, all of which commenced operations on or before September 1, 1942, shall be an amount equal to the sum of (1) the amount of roasted coffee, acquired by such owner as roasted coffee, and transferred during September 1942 by such owner to another person; and (2) three times the amount of roasted coffee roasted by said owner, transferred during September 1942 to another person.

(b) The allowable inventory of a person owning a single retail establishment not referred to in § 1407.981 or two or more retail establishments or one or more wholesale establishments, none of which was in operation on or before September 1, 1942, shall be computed by determining for each such establishment the sum of (1) the average daily quantity of roasted coffee, acquired by the owner of such establishment as roasted coffee, and transferred by such establishment, during the period between September 2 and November 22, 1942, to any person other than the owner of the establishment, and (2) three times the average daily quantity of roasted coffee, roasted by the owner of the establishment, transferred by such establishment, during the period between September 2 and November 22, 1942, to any person other than the owner of the establishment; by adding such sums for all the establishments owned by said person; and by multiplying the figure thus obtained by 26. For the purposes of this section, average daily quantities shall be determined by dividing the amount of roasted coffee transferred by an establishment during the period between September 2 and November 22, 1942, by the number of days on which said establishment was open for business during said period.

(c) A person owning two or more retail establishments or two or more wholesale establishments, some, but not all, of which commenced operations on or before September 1, 1942, shall compute his allowable inventory by treating, for the purpose of this Section only, those establishments which commenced operation on or before September 1, 1942, as if they were owned by one person and all other establishments as if they were owned by another person and by adding the two results thus obtained.

(d) A person owning retail and wholesale establishments shall compute his allowable inventory by treating, for the purposes of paragraphs (a), (b), and (c)

[1] 8 F.R. 2195, 2348, 2597, 2598, 2666, 2667.
[2] 7 F.R. 8796; 8 F.R. 856.

of this section, all his retail establishments as if they were owned by one person and all his wholesale establishments as if they were owned by another person and by adding the two results thus obtained.

§ 1407.983 Compounded coffee in allowable inventory computation. In computing, for the purposes of §§ 1407.981 and 1407.982, the amount of roasted coffee transferred, the weight of any substitutes or substances, including but not limited to chicory, cereal, peas, or beans, compounded, mixed, or blended with such coffee by the transferor shall be deducted from the weight of such roasted coffee.

§ 1407.984 Initial inventory. (a) The initial inventory of a retailer or wholesaler shall include all green and roasted coffee located within the continental United States (the 48 States of the United States and the District of Columbia) to which, at midnight, November 21, 1942, he has title or holds documents of title. He shall be deemed to have title to coffee: (1) in transit or stored for delivery to him and out of the possession of the vendor prior to November 22, 1942; (2) held by him on consignment or on any similar basis; (3) mortgaged, pledged, or otherwise used by him as security in a credit transaction; or (4) in the possession of his vendor if such coffee has been paid for and physically segregated and earmarked by the vendor for delivery to him.

(b) In computing his initial inventory, the retailer or wholesaler shall deduct from the weight of the coffee included in such inventory the weight of any substitutes or substances, including but not limited to chicory, cereal, peas, or beans, blended, compounded, or mixed by said retailer or wholesaler with said coffee.

§ 1407.985 Excess inventory. The amount of coffee by which the initial inventory of a retailer or wholesaler exceeds the allowable inventory, shall be known as the "excess inventory". A retailer or wholesaler who has an excess inventory of coffee shall, before he may acquire any coffee upon the surrender of coffee stamps or certificates, surrender to the board for cancellation coffee stamps or certificates in weight value equal to the amount of his excess inventory: Provided, however, That such retailer or wholesaler may, before surrendering such coffee stamps or certificates to the board for cancellation, acquire roasted coffee through the issuance of purchase warrants pursuant to §§ 1407.986 to 1407.988, inclusive. In no event shall a retailer or wholesaler acquire any coffee after January 31, 1943, unless he has surrendered to the board for cancellation coffee stamps or certificates in weight value equal to the amount of his excess inventory.

§ 1407.986 Issuance of purchase warrants. Between November 22, 1942, and December 5, 1942, inclusive, a retailer or wholesaler may, in order to acquire roasted coffee, issue purchase warrants in an aggregate weight value not in excess of any amount by which his allowable inventory exceeds his initial inventory of coffee.

§ 1407.987 Form of purchase warrants. Purchase warrants shall be in the following form:

Purchase warrant issued to----------
Name of Supplier

I hereby certify to the Office of Price Administration that I am authorized, pursuant to the provisions of Ration Order No. 12 (Coffee Rationing Regulations) to acquire ---------- pounds of coffee

---
Corporation or firm name

By ---

Address

Date: ----------, 1942.

§ 1407.988 Transfers upon purchase warrants. (a) Any retailer or wholesaler who, on or before December 12, 1942, receives a purchase warrant from any person authorized to issue such purchase warrant is authorized to transfer roasted coffee to such person in an amount equal to the weight value of the purchase warrant.

(b) A person receiving purchase warrants and transferring roasted coffee pursuant thereto may himself on or before December 12, 1942, in addition to purchase warrants issued by him pursuant to § 1407.986, issue purchase warrants having a weight value equal to the amount of roasted coffee transferred by him pursuant to purchase warrants received by him, for the purpose of obtaining from his suppliers roasted coffee to replace the roasted coffee thus transferred by him.

(c) After January 25, 1943, no person shall transfer roasted coffee on the authority of a purchase warrant.

[Paragraph (c) as amended by Amendment 3, 7 F.R. 11072, effective 12-28-42]

(d) Every person receiving purchase warrants shall maintain a file thereof at his principal business office for delivery to the Office of Price Administration upon demand therefor. Such file shall be maintained in alphabetical order according to the names of the persons from whom the purchase warrants were received.

§ 1407.988a Certificates to be issued for roasted coffee not acquired with purchase warrants. (a) Any retailer or wholesaler may, upon applying therefor to the board in February 1943, receive from the board a certificate or certificates in weight value equal to the sum of (1) and (2):

(1) The weight value of the purchase warrants which he was authorized to issue pursuant to Ration Order No. 12 minus the amount of all roasted coffee acquired by him on the authority of such purchase warrants;

(2) The weight of roasted coffee transferred by him after December 12, 1942, and prior to January 26, 1943, against purchase warrants received by him pursuant to Ration Order No. 12 from other retailers or wholesalers.

(b) Before the board shall grant any such application, it shall receive from the applicant a certificate in the following form, duly signed by the applicant:

I hereby certify to the Office of Price Administration that: (1) pursuant to the provisions of Ration Order No. 12 I was authorized to issue purchase warrants in weight value aggregating ------ pounds; (2) on the authority of all purchase warrants issued by me I acquired ------ pounds of roasted coffee; and (3) after December 12, 1942, and prior to January 26, 1943, I transferred ------ pounds of roasted coffee against purchase warrants received by me.

(c) The weight value of a certificate authorized to be issued to any wholesaler pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section shall be reduced by the weight value of any certificate received by such wholesaler pursuant to a petition for inventory adjustment filed by him.

(d) Any retailer or wholesaler who, after receiving a certificate pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, receives delivery of roasted coffee against purchase warrants previously issued by him shall, on or before March 15, 1943, surrender to the board for cancellation coffee stamps or certificates in weight value equal to the amount of roasted coffee so received by him.

[§ 1407.988a added by Amendment 9, 8 F.R. 1316, effective 2-1-43]

§ 1407.989 Replenishment of allowable inventory. Except as otherwise provided in Ration Order No. 12, on and after November 22, 1942, the allowable inventory of a retailer or wholesaler may be replenished with roasted coffee only upon the surrender by such person of coffee stamps or certificates.

§ 1407.990 Compounders of coffee; reports. (a) On and after November 22, 1942, no person, other than a consumer or institutional or Class A industrial user, shall blend, compound, or mix coffee with substitutes or substances, including but not limited to chicory, cereal, peas, or beans, unless he shall first notify The Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., of his intention to engage in such practice.

[Paragraph (a) as amended by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2677, effective 3-1-43]

(b) Every compounder shall maintain records showing the amounts of substitutes or substances, including but not limited to chicory, cereal, peas, or beans, blended, compounded, or mixed by him with coffee transferred by him during each month and, beginning in January 1943, shall, between the first and fifth days of each month, surrender to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., coffee stamps or certificates in weight value equal to the weight of the substitutes or other substances blended, compounded, or mixed by him with the coffee transferred by him during the preceding month. Such person shall, at the same time, report on O. P. A. Form R-1206 (1) the amount of substitutes and substances, including but not limited to chicory, cereal, peas, or beans, blended, compounded, or mixed by him with coffee transferred during the preceding month; (2) the total weight of such coffee (including the weight of the substitutes and substances referred to in (1)) transferred during the preceding month; and (3) such other information as is called for by said form. Such report shall be prepared in triplicate. The original and duplicate thereof shall be filed with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., and the triplicate copy shall be retained by the person making the report at his principal business office. The report made in January 1943 shall include the required information for the period from November 22 to December 31, 1942.

[Paragraph (b) as amended by Amendment 6, 8 F.R. 621, effective 1-21-43]

§ 1407.991 Transfer of coffee to certain exempt persons. (a) Any person who requires roasted coffee for the purpose of transfer to any person specified in § 1407.991a (a) or paragraph (c) (1) or (c) (2) of this section pursuant to a written contract with such person, may apply in writing to the board for certificates authorizing the acquisition of the quantity of roasted coffee so required. Such application shall include or be accompanied by a statement of the date of contract, the number or other designation of the contract, and the quantity of roasted coffee required in order to perform the contract. Such roasted coffee shall be used only for the purpose of performing the contract. A person who receives a certificate or certificates pursuant to this paragraph in order to fulfill a contract with any person specified in § 1407.991a (a) shall, within ten days of the delivery by him to the person with whom such contract is made of roasted coffee in an amount equal to the weight value of the certificates received, surrender or issue evidences to the board in weight value equal to the weight value of the certificates so received.

(b) Any retailer or wholesaler who on or after November 22, 1942, transfers roasted coffee to any of the persons (other than any agency specified in § 1407.991a (a)) and for the purposes specified in paragraph (c) of this section, without receiving coffee stamps or certificates therefor, may, if he has not obtained a certificate with respect thereto pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, apply in writing to the board for certificates authorizing the acquisition of an equivalent amount of roasted coffee.

(c) The persons and purposes included within the provisions of this section are the following:

(1) Any agency of the United States or foreign government, other than any agency specified in § 1407.991a (a), for export to any foreign country.

(2) Veterans' Administration.

(3) Any person, other than any agency specified in § 1407.991a (a), for transfer to any territory or possession of the United States other than the District of Columbia.

(4) Any person, other than any agency specified in § 1407.991a (a), operating an ocean-going vessel engaged in the transportation of cargo or passengers in foreign, coastwise, or intercoastal trade, as ships' stores for consumption aboard such vessel.

[Paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) as amended by Amendment 23, 8 F.R. 2721, effective 3-2-43]

(d) Application for a certificate pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section shall include or be accompanied by:

(1) In the case of a transfer to a person specified in paragraph (c) (1) or (c) (2) of this section, a certification signed by such person or his authorized agent or employee setting forth the name and address of the person, the name and address of the transferor, the date of transfer, and the quantity of roasted coffee transferred.

(2) In the case of a transfer to a person specified in paragraph (c) (3) of this section, a copy of the bill of lading under which the roasted coffee was shipped or a shipper's export declaration bearing a notation of an authorized customs official to the effect that to the best of his knowledge and belief the amount of roasted coffee therein stated has been exported by such person.

(3) In the case of a transfer to a person specified in paragraph (c) (4) of this section, a statement signed by the Collector of Customs or his deputy, authorizing the owner of the vessel or his agent to take delivery of roasted coffee as ships' stores in an amount equal to that for which application is being made.

[Paragraph (3) as amended by Amendment 1, 7 F.R. 10380, effective 12-16-42]

(e) The certifications and statements which are referred to in paragraph (d) of this section may be in any convenient form and do not require verification or acknowledgment.

§ 1407.991a Ration banking by exempt agencies. (a) The Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, War Shipping Administration, United States Maritime Commission, Office of Lend-Lease Administration, Food Distribution Administration, Ships' Service Departments Afloat, and Army Exchange Service (to the extent that it acquires roasted coffee for export to a foreign country or for transfer to any territory or possession of the United States other than the District of Columbia) are exempt agencies for the purpose of General Ration Order 3B and are referred to as exempt agencies in Ration Order No. 12. Nothing in Ration Order No. 12 restricts the amount of coffee which exempt agencies may acquire.

(b) Each exempt agency is authorized to open one or more exempt accounts, of the type described in General Ration Order 3B,[3] and, except as otherwise provided in Ration Order No. 12, no exempt agency shall acquire roasted coffee except upon the issuance by it of a ration check equal in weight value to the weight of the roasted coffee transferred to it: Provided, however, That roasted coffee may be transferred between or within exempt agencies without the issuance of a check.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of § 1407.1021 (a), an exempt agency shall issue an appropriate check to the person who transfers roasted coffee to it at the time such roasted coffee is delivered to it or as soon as practicable thereafter.

(d) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in Ration Order No. 12, if for any reason a check cannot be used when an exempt agency acquires roasted coffee, an emergency acknowledgment issued by the exempt agency shall authorize the transfer of roasted coffee to it. An emergency acknowledgment may be in any form, but shall be signed by an authorized officer or employee of the exempt agency, shall specify his official title or rank, and shall state (1) the name of the agency, (2) the name and address of the activity within the agency for which such roasted coffee is acquired, (3) the name and address of the activity to which the emergency acknowledgment must be sent for replacement by a ration check, (4) the amount of roasted coffee acquired, and (5) the date of its acquisition. An emergency acknowledgment shall not authorize the transfer of roasted coffee to the person to whom it is issued, nor shall it be valid for deposit. A person to whom an emergency acknowledgment is issued shall send it to the activity of the exempt agency designated thereon, and a ration check for the amount of roasted coffee transferred shall be issued to him in exchange for the emergency acknowledgment.

[§ 1407.991a added by Amendment 23, 8 F.R. 2721, effective 3-2-43]

§ 1407.992 Ration banking by retailers and wholesalers. (a) Each retailer who owns:

(1) More than one retail establishment;

(2) A single retail establishment whose gross sales of all meats, groceries, fruits, vegetables, and similar products made from such establishment during December 1942 were $5,000 or more; or

(3) A retail establishment at which green coffee is roasted, shall open at least one account for all such establishments and each wholesaler shall open at least one account for all his wholesale establishments.

(b) Any other retailer may open an account for his establishment.

(c) Any retailer or wholesaler described in paragraph (a) of this section may, at his option, open a separate account for each establishment or for any group of retail or group of wholesale establishments described in such paragraph.

(d) Each account shall be carried in the name of the retailer or wholesaler who shall designate the establishment or establishments for which the account is opened. All accounts shall be opened

[3] 8 F.R. 2665.

in accordance with General Ration Order No. 3A.[1]

(e) A retailer may transfer ration credits from one of his retail accounts to another of his retail accounts, and a wholesaler from one of his wholesale accounts to another of his wholesale accounts by the issuance of a check without the transfer of coffee.

[§ 1407.992 added by Amendment 12, 8 F.R. 1286, effective 1-27-43]

[Paragraph (f) revoked by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2677, effective 3-1-43]

INSTITUTIONAL AND INDUSTRIAL USERS

§ 1407.995 Dissolution of registering units and registration of Class A industrial users. (a) Every registering unit registered under Ration Order No. 12 is dissolved as of March 1, 1943.

(b) Every Class A industrial user who, prior to March 1, 1943, had registered establishments owned by him as one or more institutional registering units under Ration Order No. 12, shall, between March 1 and March 10, 1943, inclusive, file with the board having jurisdiction over the area in which his principal business office is located a statement specifying (1) the aggregate initial inventories of such establishments as required to be reported by him at the time he registered such establishments; (2) the aggregate allotments to which such establishments were entitled as registering units under Ration Order No. 12; (3) the aggregate allowable inventories, if any, of such establishments; (4) that part of the aggregate roasted coffee bases of such establishments which resulted from the use by such establishments of roasted coffee in the preparation of beverages not served by him to individuals; and (5) a list of all establishments in which he uses roasted coffee in the preparation of beverages not served by him to individuals, together with the addresses of such establishments and designation of the boards at which such establishments were registered pursuant to Ration Order No. 12. The filing of such a statement shall constitute his registration as a Class A industrial user.

[Paragraphs (a) and (b) as amended by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2677, effective 3-1-43. Paragraphs (c) through (f) revoked.]

[§ 1470.996 revoked by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2677, effective 3-1-43]

§ 1407.997 Allowable inventory of coffee for institutional or Class A industrial users. (a) Any institutional or Class A industrial user who roasts green coffee used by him in the preparation of food or beverages is permitted a working inventory of coffee which shall be known as his allowable inventory.

(b) The allowable inventory of such an institutional or Class A industrial user shall be equal to three times the amount of roasted coffee roasted by him and used by him in the preparation of food or beverages in September 1942. In computing the allowable inventory there shall be deducted from the weight of the coffee included in such inventory, the weight of any substitutes or substances, including but not limited to chicory, cereal, beans, or peas, compounded, blended, or mixed by him with said coffee.

[§ 1407.997 as amended by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2677, effective 3-1-43]

§ 1407.998 Roasted coffee base of Class A industrial user. (a) The roasted coffee base of a Class A industrial user owning establishments registered by him pursuant to Ration Order No. 12 as one or more institutional registering units shall be equal to that part of the aggregate roasted coffee bases of such establishments resulting from the use by such establishments of roasted coffee in the preparation of beverages not served by him to individuals.

(b) A person desiring to become a Class A industrial user may petition the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., for assignment to him of a roasted coffee base. The petition shall state the name and address of such person, the location or proposed location and description of the establishments owned by him at which he intends to use roasted coffee as a Class A industrial user, the petitioner's inventory of coffee on the date of his application, the estimated average monthly use the petitioner will make of roasted coffee as a Class A industrial user, whether or not the petitioner roasts green coffee, and any other information the petitioner deems pertinent. The Office of Price Administration may, before acting on any such petition, require the petitioner to furnish any additional information it deems pertinent. Upon assignment of a base to such a person he may receive allotments pursuant to § 1407.999: Provided, however, That upon assignment of a base to such a Class A industrial user prior to April 30, 1943, he shall receive an allotment in an amount equal to 80 per cent of such base, reduced by an amount which bears the same proportion to the allotment as the number of days which have elapsed since March 1, 1943, bears to 61.

[Paragraphs (a) and (b) as amended by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2677, effective 3-1-43. Paragraphs (c) through (e) revoked.]

§ 1407.999 Allotment. (a) A Class A industrial user who has established a roasted coffee base shall receive, as provided in Ration Order No. 12, an amount of roasted coffee which is known as an allotment.

(b) The amount of the allotment for each period shall be the applicable percentage specified in § 1407.1092, of the roasted coffee base of such Class A industrial user.

[§ 1407.999 as amended by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2677, effective 3-1-43]

§ 1407.1000 Application for allotment certificates. (a) Application to the Board for allotment certificates shall be made by a Class A industrial user, as provided in this section, for consecutive two-month periods, the first of which shall commence on May 1, 1943: Provided, however, That where the industrial establishments owned by such industrial user were, prior to March 1, 1943, registered as institutional registering units pursuant to Ration Order No. 12, such industrial user may apply for and receive an allotment certificate for the period from March 1 to April 30, 1943, inclusive, in the same manner as and to the same extent that he was authorized, by the applicable regulations in effect prior to March 1, 1943, to apply for and receive it. Application shall be made not later than the 5th day of the first month of the period for which the application is being made and not earlier than the 15th day of the month preceding the period. The board, in its discretion, may permit an application to be made at any time after the time specified herein but in such case the board shall reduce the allotment by an amount which bears the same proportion to the allotment as the number of days which have elapsed from the start of the period bears to the total number of days in the period.

(b) A Class A industrial user who is not an institutional user and who does not roast green coffee in connection with his Class A industrial use, and whose initial inventory is greater than the aggregate of the allotments received by him or by registering units owned by him pursuant to Ration Order No. 12, shall not apply for an allotment certificate as a Class A industrial user for any period until such initial inventory has been reduced, by the crediting of all such prior allotments, below the amount of his allotment for such period.

(c) A Class A industrial user, who is not also an institutional user, and who roasts green coffee for a Class A industrial use by him, whose initial inventory is greater than his allowable inventory plus the aggregate of the allotments received by him or by registering units owned by him pursuant to Ration Order No. 12, shall not apply for an allotment certificate as a Class A industrial user for any period until such initial inventory has been reduced, by the crediting of all such prior allotments, below the amount of his allowable inventory plus his allotment for such period.

(d) A Class A industrial user, not also an institutional user, who is assigned a roasted coffee base pursuant to § 1407.998 (b) shall not apply for an allotment certificate as a Class A industrial user for any period until the inventory reported by him in his application pursuant to said section has been reduced, by the crediting of prior allotments, below the amount of his allotment for such period.

[Paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) as amended, paragraph (d) added by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2677, effective 3-1-43]

§ 1407.1001 Amount for which allotment certificate is to be issued. (a) Upon proper written application therefor a certificate shall be issued to a Class A industrial user in a weight value equivalent to his allotment except as provided in paragraphs (b), (c), or (d) of this section and subject to any adjustments required by Ration Order No. 12.

(b) The amount of the allotment certificate issued for the allotment period from May 1 to June 30, 1943, inclusive, to a Class A industrial user who does not roast green coffee in connection with his Class A industrial use, shall be the allotment for such period minus that portion of his initial inventory, as reported by him pursuant to § 1407.995, which has not already been charged against prior allotments received by such Class A industrial user pursuant to Ration Order No. 12, as reported by him pursuant to § 1407.995: Provided, however, That where such portion of his initial inventory exceeds his allotment for said period the first certificate issued to such Class A industrial user shall be of a weight value equal to the difference between his initial inventory and the aggregate of his allotments including the allotment for the period for which the certificate is issued.

(c) The amount of the allotment certificate issued for the allotment period from May 1 to June 30, 1943, inclusive, to a Class A industrial user who roasts green coffee in connection with his Class A industrial use shall be the allotment for such period, minus the amount, if any, by which any portion of his initial inventory, as reported by him pursuant to § 1407.995, which has not already been charged against prior allotments received by such Class A industrial user pursuant to Ration Order No. 12, exceeds his allowable inventory: Provided, however, That where such portion of his initial inventory exceeds his allowable inventory plus such allotment, the first certificate issued to such Class A industrial user shall be of a weight value equal to the difference between his initial inventory and the amount of his allowable inventory plus the aggregate of his allotments including the allotment for the period for which the certificate is issued.

[Paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) as amended by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2677, effective 3-1-43]

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this section, a Class A industrial user who is also an institutional user shall not have any part of his initial inventory charged against his allotments as a Class A industrial user. (Any amount remaining to be charged against allotments of registering units owned by him will be included in his opening inventory as an institutional user under General Ration Order 5.)

(e) The amount of the allotment certificate issued for the period from March 1 to April 30, 1943, inclusive, to a Class A industrial user who is also an institutional user, and who has been assigned a roasted coffee base pursuant to § 1407.998 (b), shall be the allotment for such period which he is entitled to receive pursuant to § 1407.998 (b).

(f) A Class A industrial user, who is not also an institutional user, and who is assigned a roasted coffee base pursuant to § 1407.998 (b) shall report to the board the amount of the inventory specified by him on his petition pursuant to said section. The amount of the allotment certificate issued for the period from March 1 to April 30, 1943, inclusive, to such a Class A industrial user shall be the allotment for such period (which he is entitled to receive pursuant to § 1407.998 (b)) minus the amount of roasted coffee reported by him to the board as his inventory pursuant to this paragraph: Provided, however, That when such inventory exceeds such allotment, the first certificate issued to such Class A industrial user shall be of a weight value equal to the difference between such inventory and the aggregate of his allotments including the allotment for the period for which the certificate is issued.

[Paragraphs (d), (e), (f) added by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2677, effective 3-1-43]

§ 1407.1002 Adjustments. (a) In the computation of allotments and the issuance of certificates, corrections shall be made for any previous errors or mistakes in allotments or in the issuance of certificates.

(b) Any institutional or Class A industrial user who acquires roasted coffee without the surrender of evidences, shall, within five days of such acquisition, report to the State Director (1) the amount of roasted coffee so acquired, (2) the name and address of the person from whom such roasted coffee was acquired, and (3) the way in which and the date when such roasted coffee was acquired. Such institutional or Class A industrial user may use such roasted coffee only upon the issuance or surrender by him of appropriate evidences to the State Director.

[Paragraph (b) as amended by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2677, effective 3-1-43]

§ 1407.1003 Restriction on use. (a) No Class A industrial user shall, in any allotment period, use more coffee for any purpose for which allotment certificates may be obtained by him, than the amount of his Class A industrial user allotment for said period plus the unused portion of any prior allotments received pursuant to Ration Order No. 12, by him or by registering units owned by him, to the extent that such allotments were based upon the usage by him or by such registering units of roasted coffee in the preparation of beverages not served by him to individuals: Provided, however, That a Class A industrial user may use any part of a Class A industrial user allotment at any time after a certificate for such allotment has been issued to him.

(b) No Class A industrial user shall use roasted coffee allotted to him as a Class A industrial user, or allotted, pursuant to Ration Order No. 12, to him or to registering units owned by him, to the extent that such allotments were based upon the usage by him or by such registering units of roasted coffee in the preparation of beverages not served by him to individuals, for any purpose other than the preparation by him of beverages which will not be served by him to individuals.

[§ 1407.1003 as amended by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2677, effective 3-1-43]

[§§ 1407.1004 and 1407.1005 revoked by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2677, effective 3-1-43]

§ 1407.1006 Late registration. A Class A industrial user eligible to register pursuant to § 1407.995 between March 1 and March 10, 1943, inclusive, but who has not done so, may register thereafter at the office of the board. Such Class A industrial user shall not be issued any certificates for any allotment periods or partial periods that may have elapsed.

[§ 1407.1006 as amended by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2677, effective 3-1-43]

[§§ 1407.1007 and 1407.1008 revoked by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2677, effective 3-1-43]

§ 1407.1009 Ration banking by industrial users and institutional user roasters. (a) Notwithstanding anything contained in Ration Order No. 12 or any other ration order of the Office of Price Administration, each institutional and each Class A industrial user who roasts green coffee in connection with his operations as an institutional or Class A industrial user shall open at least one account for the institutional or industrial establishments at which green coffee is roasted by him.

(b) Any other industrial user may open an account for his establishment.

(c) A Class A industrial user may, at his option, open a separate account for each Class A industrial user establishment or for any group of Class A industrial user establishments owned by him, but if he opens an account for one of his Class A industrial user establishments he shall open an account or accounts for all such establishments owned by him.

(d) A Class B industrial user may, at his option, open a separate account for each Class B industrial user establishment or for any group of Class B industrial user establishments owned by him, but if he opens an account for one of his Class B industrial user establishments he shall open an account or accounts for all such establishments owned by him.

(e) Each account shall be carried in the name of the institutional or industrial user who shall designate the establishment or establishments for which such account is opened. All accounts shall be opened in accordance with General Ration Order No. 3A, and, in the case of an institutional user, in accordance with General Ration Order 5.

(g) A certificate received by a Class A industrial user as an allotment for the period from March 1 to April 30, 1943, inclusive, for a registering unit owned by him or received by him for such use prior to March 1, 1943, may not be deposited by him in any account other than a Class A industrial user account opened by him.

[§ 1407.1009 added by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2677, effective 3-1-43]

[1] 8 F.R. 1130, 1449, 1963.

§ 1407.1015 Restrictions on use of coffee. No industrial user shall roast any green coffee in connection with or for use in connection with the production, manufacture, or processing of any products, other than of beverages or of products to be transferred to any persons specified in § 1407.991 or § 1407.991a (a), without petitioning the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., for permission to do so and obtaining such permission. The petition shall state the name and address of the petitioner; the purposes for which he intends to use the coffee he seeks permission to roast; the amount of roasted coffee so used by him in each month of 1941, and, if he was not in business during the entire year of 1941, the amount of roasted coffee so used by him in each month of 1942; the amount of green coffee the petitioner seeks permission to roast; his inventory of coffee on the date of his application; the amount of the allotment or allotments, if any, which he is entitled to receive as an institutional user, pursuant to General Ration Order 5, or as a Class A industrial user, pursuant to Ration Order No. 12; and any other facts deemed pertinent by such industrial user. The Office of Price Administration may, before acting on any such petition, require the petitioner to furnish any additional information it deems pertinent.

[§ 1407.1015 as amended by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2677, effective 3–1–43, and Amendment 23, 8 F.R. 2721, effective 3–2–43]

§ 1407.1016 Inventory. (a) In reporting his inventory, the industrial user shall include all coffee located within the continental United States (the 48 States of the United States and the District of Columbia) to which said industrial user has title or holds documents of title. Said industrial user shall be deemed to have title to coffee: (1) in transit or stored for delivery to him and out of the possession of the vendor; (2) mortgaged, pledged, or otherwise used by the industrial user as security in a credit transaction; and (3) in the possession of the vendor of the industrial user if such coffee has been paid for and physically segregated and earmarked by the vendor for delivery to said industrial user.

§ 1407.1017 Class B industrial users—non-roasters. A Class B industrial user who does not roast green coffee in the production, manufacture, or processing of products, may petition the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., for allotments of roasted coffee. The petition shall state the name and address of the petitioner; the purposes for which roasted coffee is used or is desired to be used by him; the amount of roasted coffee so used by him in each month of 1941, and, if he was not in business during the entire year of 1941, the amount of roasted coffee so used by him in each month of 1942; the amount of allotments being sought; the amount of the allotment or allotments, if any, which he is entitled to receive as an institutional user, pursuant to General Ration Order 5, or as a Class A industrial user, pursuant to Ration Order No. 12; and any other facts deemed pertinent by such Class B industrial user. The Office of Price Administration may, before acting on any such petition, require the petitioner to furnish any additional information it deems pertinent.

[§ 1407.1017 as amended by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2677, effective 3–1–43]

§ 1407.1018 Restriction on transfer of soluble and liquid extract coffee. No industrial user shall transfer any soluble or liquid extract coffee to any person, other than any person specified in § 1407.991 or § 1407.991 a (a) without petitioning the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., for permission to do so and obtaining such permission. The petition shall state the name and address of the petitioner; the amount of soluble or liquid extract coffee he seeks to transfer; the person to whom he seeks to transfer such soluble or liquid extract coffee; the amount of soluble or liquid extract coffee so transferred by him in each month of 1941, and, if he was not in business during the entire year of 1941, the amount of soluble or liquid extract coffee so transferred by him in each month of 1942; his inventory of soluble and liquid extract coffee on the date of his application; and any other facts deemed pertinent by such industrial user. The Office of Price Administration may, before acting on any such petition, require the petitioner to furnish any additional information it deems pertinent.

[§ 1407.1018 as amended by Amendment 23, 8 F.R. 2721, effective 3–2–43]

CERTIFICATES AND COFFEE STAMPS

§ 1407.1020 Nature and validity of certificates and coffee stamps. (a) A certificate may be transferred by the person to whom it is issued only for the purpose of authorizing such person to acquire the amount of roasted coffee authorized by the certificate. A coffee stamp may be transferred by a consumer to a retailer or wholesaler only for the purpose of authorizing the consumer to whom the coffee stamp was issued to acquire one pound of roasted coffee. A coffee stamp is valid in the hands of a consumer only if attached to a properly issued war ration book.

(b) Each coffee stamp authorizes the transfer of one pound of roasted coffee to a consumer only during the ration period assigned to that coffee stamp in § 1407.1091. A coffee stamp received in accordance with Ration Order No. 12, by a retailer, who is not and is not required to be a depositor, and against which such retailer has transferred roasted coffee, authorizes such retailer to acquire roasted coffee therewith from another retailer or wholesaler, if such stamp is surrendered to such other retailer or wholesaler within 10 days of the close of the ration period assigned to such coffee stamp. Coffee stamps surrendered to a depositor shall be valid for deposit in his account for a period of 20 days after the close of the ration period assigned to such coffee stamp, and, except as provided in paragraph (f) of § 1407.1032, he may issue checks at any time against credits created by the deposit of a stamp: Provided, however, That notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Ration Order No. 12, on or before February 15, 1943, coffee stamp No. 27 and, on or before March 15, 1943, coffee stamp No. 28, may be deposited, or may be surrendered in order to authorize the transfer of roasted coffee to a retailer who is not and is not required to be a depositor.

[Paragraph (b) as amended by Amendment 12, 8 F.R. 1286, effective 1–27–43 and Amendment 20, 8 F.R. 2346, effective 2–22–43]

(c) Coffee stamps in or from the war ration book of an individual whose age, as entered in said war ration book, is less than 14 years, are invalid for the acquisition of coffee. Such coffee stamps shall not be detached from the war ration book.

[Paragraph (c) as amended by Amendment 18, 8 F.R. 2154, effective 2–20–43]

(d) A certificate authorizes the person to whom it is issued, if he is not and is not required to be a depositor, to acquire roasted coffee therewith within 60 days of the date of issuance of the certificate. A certificate surrendered by endorsement to a retailer who is not and is not required to be a depositor, authorizes the transfer of roasted coffee to such retailer within 60 days of the date of issuance of the certificate. A certificate issued or surrendered to a depositor shall be valid for deposit in the account of such depositor only within 60 days of the date of issuance of the certificate. A certificate issued before January 27, 1943, which is surrendered by endorsement to another person, authorizes the transfer of roasted coffee, and may be deposited within 60 days after the date of issuance of such certificate or within 30 days after the date contained in the endorsement to such person, whichever is later. A depositor may, except as provided in paragraph (f) of § 1407.1032, issue checks at any time against credits created by the deposit of a certificate. Certificates which, on or prior to January 27, 1943, cease to authorize the transfer of roasted coffee, shall not be valid for deposit.

[Paragraph (d) as amended by Amendment 12, 8 F.R. 1286, effective 1–27–43]

(e) A person receiving coffee stamps or certificates from a retailer, wholesaler, or institutional or industrial user may, if requested by the person surrendering the coffee stamps or certificates, transfer to such person a quantity of roasted coffee equal to the weight value of the coffee stamps and certificates so received, plus an additional quantity of roasted coffee equal to either: (1) an amount, not in excess of ten percent of the weight value of the coffee stamps or certificates so received, required to make a total quantity equal to a carload or (2) an amount not in excess of 23 pounds, required to permit a transfer in shipping packages customarily used by the transferor. The person acquiring roasted coffee in a quantity greater than the weight value of the coffee stamps and certificates surrendered by him shall be charged with such excess and shall surrender to the transferor coffee stamps or certificates in weight value equal to such excess within 15 days after such acquisition.

[Paragraph (e) as amended by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2677, effective 3–1–43]

§ 1407.1021 Surrender of certificates and coffee stamps. (a) Certificates or coffee stamps must be surrendered by the person acquiring roasted coffee to the person transferring roasted coffee at or before the time of such transfer. Before a certificate is surrendered, the proper endorsement thereon shall be completed by the holder of the certificate.

(b) A coffee stamp shall not be detached from a war ration book except by the consumer or the person acting on his behalf in the presence of the person making delivery of the roasted coffee.

§ 1407.1022 Mail orders and similar transactions. When a consumer wishes to acquire roasted coffee by mail-order or similar transaction, he shall forward his war ration book or certificate to the seller with his order. Before transferring the roasted coffee to the consumer, the seller shall, where the consumer has forwarded his war ration book to the seller, detach therefrom the appropriate coffee stamp. Such seller shall return the consumer's war ration book to him promptly.

§ 1407.1023 War ration stamp cards. (a) A person to whom coffee stamps are surrendered by a consumer shall affix the coffee stamps to a war ration stamp card (OPA Form R–304) or to a similar card. Only coffee stamps bearing the same number may be affixed to a card. Not all the spaces on a card need be filled. Subject to paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, the card may be surrendered by a depositor to a bank for deposit, or by a retailer who is not and is not required to be a depositor to another retailer or wholesaler for the purpose of acquiring an amount of roasted coffee equivalent to the aggregate weight value of the coffee stamps affixed thereto.

(b) When a retailer who is not and is not required to be a depositor surrenders a card for the purpose of authorizing a transfer of roasted coffee to him, the name and address of such retailer and the name and address of the retailer or wholesaler to whom the card is being surrendered shall be written on the face or back of the card by the retailer surrendering the card. Before a card may be surrendered for the purpose of deposit, the person surrendering the card shall, if he affixed the stamps to the card, endorse it by writing his name and address on its face, or shall, if he received the card with stamps affixed, endorse it by writing his name on its back.

(c) Coffee stamps affixed to a card shall have no greater period of validity and no greater value than coffee stamps not so affixed.

[Paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) as amended by Amendment 12, 8 F.R. 1286, effective 1–27–43. Paragraph (d) revoked.]

§ 1407.1024 Sale, gift, loan, or judicial seizure of coffee stamps or certificates prohibited. The transfer, sale, gift, loan, or assignment of a coffee stamp or certificate is prohibited and no coffee stamp or certificate or any interest therein may be so acquired or seized by distraint, execution, levy, attachment, or other judicial process or acquired through devise, bequest, or inheritance except that such transfer, sale, gift, loan, assignment, seizure, and acquisition is permitted when coffee stamps or certificates are transferred as part of the assets of an establishment transferred as provided in § 1407.1054, and when otherwise expressly permitted in Ration Order No. 12: Provided, however, That a person to whom a war ration book or certificate has been issued may institute and prosecute any proceeding for the purpose of recovering possession of said war ration book or certificate from any person wrongfully in possession thereof.

§ 1407.1025 Destroyed, mutilated, or stolen coffee stamps or certificates. (a) A certificate that is torn or mutilated is valid only if more than one-half thereof remains legible and only if such remaining portion clearly evidences the date of the certificate, its weight value, and the name of the person to whom the certificate was issued. A coffee stamp that has been torn or mutilated is valid for use by a consumer only if more than one-half of such coffee stamp remains undetached in the war ration book.

(b) If a certificate or coffee stamp, held by a retailer or wholesaler or by an institutional or industrial user is lost, destroyed, or stolen, or becomes invalid because of mutilation, the person entitled to such certificate or coffee stamp may apply to the board for a new certificate in weight value equal to that of the lost, stolen, destroyed, or mutilated certificate or coffee stamp. Upon the presentation of satisfactory proof, the board shall grant the application.

[§ 1407.1026 revoked by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2677, effective 3–1–43]

§ 1407.1027 Transfers not to be made upon invalid coffee stamps, certificates, or purchase warrants. (a) No person shall transfer roasted coffee if the coffee stamp, certificate, or purchase warrant tendered therefor is mutilated or illegible.

(b) No person shall transfer roasted coffee if he knows or has reason to believe that the certificate or purchase warrant tendered therefor was not acquired or issued in accordance with Ration Order No. 12 or that the coffee stamp tendered therefor was not acquired or issued in accordance with Rationing Order No. 3 or Ration Order No. 12. In the event of a refusal to transfer roasted coffee against a coffee stamp, certificate, or purchase warrant the person refusing to make the transfer shall promptly notify the issuing board of such refusal and his reasons therefor.

§ 1407.1028 Notification to the Office of Price Administration of legal proceedings. Every person holding a certificate, coffee stamp, or purchase warrant shall notify the District Office of the Office of Price Administration immediately upon the commencement of any legal action or proceeding involving such certificate, coffee stamp, or purchase warrant.

§ 1407.1029 Authorization of transfer against coffee stamps, certificates, or purchase warrants is authorization of acquisition, and vice versa. Where in Ration Order No. 12 the transfer of roasted coffee is authorized on the surrender of coffee stamps, certificates, or purchase warrants the acquisition of such roasted coffee, as part of the same transaction, on the surrender of coffee stamps, certificates, or purchase warrants shall also be deemed to be authorized, and vice versa.

§ 1407.1030 Prohibition of transfer except against coffee stamps, certificates, or purchase warrants is prohibition of acquisition, and vice versa. Where in Ration Order No. 12 the transfer of roasted coffee is prohibited except on the surrender of coffee stamps, certificates, or purchase warrants the acquisition of such roasted coffee, as part of the same transaction, except on the surrender of coffee stamps, certificates, or purchase warrants shall also be deemed to be prohibited, and vice versa.

§ 1407.1031 Prohibited acts with respect to coffee stamps and certificates. (a) No person shall use or have in his possession any coffee stamp, certificate, or purchase warrant, whether issued as a ration or not, except the person, or the agent of the person, to whom such coffee stamp, certificate, or purchase warrant was issued or by whom it was acquired in accordance with the provisions of Ration Order No. 12.

(b) No person shall counterfeit or forge a coffee stamp, war ration book, purchase warrant, or certificate.

(c) No person shall transfer, acquire, possess, or use any forged, altered, or counterfeited coffee stamp, war ration book, purchase warrant, or certificate.

(d) No person shall transfer, surrender or assign and no person shall acquire, or receive an assignment of, any coffee stamp, war ration book, purchase warrant, or certificate, except in accordance with the provisions of Ration Order No. 12 or any other ration order of the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1407.1032 Use of checks by depositors and non-depositors. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Ration Order No. 12:

(a) No depositor and, on and after February 8, 1943, no person required to be a depositor, shall, except in accordance with General Ration Order No. 3A, surrender evidences which are valid for deposit.

(b) Whenever Ration Order No. 12 requires or authorizes the surrender of coffee stamps or certificates to a person, other than a bank for deposit, and such stamps or certificates are valid for deposit, a depositor shall not surrender such stamps or certificates, but shall instead, under the same circumstances and with the same effect, issue to such person a check, valid for deposit, in weight value equal to such stamps or certificates.

(c) Whenever Ration Order No. 12 authorizes the transfer of roasted coffee upon the surrender of coffee stamps or certificates, such transfer may be made to a depositor only upon receipt, by the person making the transfer, of a check, valid for deposit, issued to him by the depositor and equal in weight value to such coffee stamps or certificates.

(d) A person to whom a check is issued who is not and is not required to be a depositor must endorse the check and surrender it to the board. He will receive in exchange a certificate of the same weight value minus the weight value of any stamps or certificates which he is required to surrender to the board for cancellation.

(e) A depositor who has received coffee stamps, certificates, or checks from a retailer, wholesaler, institutional user, or industrial user may issue to him a check in weight value equal to the roasted coffee which he has not transferred against such coffee stamps, certificates, or checks, but which he is then authorized to transfer to such retailer, wholesaler, institutional user, or industrial user against such coffee stamps, certificates, or checks.

[Paragraph (e) as amended by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2677, effective 3-1-43]

(f) A depositor who has received coffee stamps, certificates, or checks as authorization for the transfer of roasted coffee by him may not, except as provided in paragraph (e) of this section, issue a check against any part of the credit created by their deposit except to the extent that he has transferred roasted coffee against them.

(g) Whenever Ration Order No. 12 refers to the transfer or acquisition of roasted coffee (including the replenishment of inventory), upon or without the receipt or surrender of coffee stamps or certificates, the issuance of checks shall be deemed to be included in such reference, unless the context shall otherwise require.

[§ 1407.1032 added by Amendment 12, 8 F.R. 1286, effective 1-27-43]

TRANSFER AND ACQUISITION OF GREEN COFFEE

§ 1407.1040 Initial inventory. (a) Every person, other than the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard and Commodity Credit Corporation, who transfers or acquires green coffee shall take an inventory of his green coffee as of 12 o'clock midnight, November 21, 1942: Provided, however, That this section shall not apply to persons who roast green coffee.

(b) Such inventory shall include all green coffee located within the continental United States (the 48 States of the United States and the District of Columbia) to which such person has title or holds documents of title. He shall be deemed to have title to green coffee: (1) in transit or stored for delivery to him and out of the possession of the vendor prior to November 22, 1942; (2) held by him on consignment or on any similar basis; (3) mortgaged, pledged, or otherwise used by him as security in a credit transaction; or (4) in the possession of his vendor if such green coffee has been paid for and physically segregated or earmarked by the vendor for delivery to him.

(c) Such person shall include a statement of said inventory of green coffee in the first report filed by him pursuant to § 1407.1071.

§ 1407.1041 Transfer and acquisition of green coffee. (a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Ration Order No. 12, no person shall acquire, except by import or pursuant to §§ 1407.1053, 1407.1054 1407.1056, 1407.1058 or 1407.1060, green coffee if as the result of such acquisition his existing inventory would exceed 50 percent of his allowable inventory of coffee. If green coffee is acquired by any person by import or pursuant to §§ 1407.1053, 1407.1054, 1401 1056, 1407 1058, or 1407.1060, in an amount which, together with the coffee in his existing inventory, exceeds 50 percent of his allowable inventory of coffee, such person if he does not make an immediate sale of coffee in an amount equivalent to such excess shall, within 24 hours after acquiring such green coffee, offer, through established coffee dealers and brokers an equivalent amount of coffee for sale in conformity with Ration Order No. 12. If, prior to the acceptance of such offer, such person becomes entitled, as a result of reduction of his existing inventory, to acquire green coffee, coffee in an amount equivalent to the amount which he is so entitled to acquire may be withdrawn from the amount of coffee offered for sale pursuant to this section.

(b) Any person making an offer for sale in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section shall, at the same time, forward a report to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., stating (1) the amount so offered for sale; (2) whether the coffee offered for sale is from his existing inventory; (3) a description of the coffee offered for sale; (4) the location of the coffee offered for sale; and (5) the names and addresses of the brokers or dealers through whom the offer is being made. In the event of the sale or the withdrawal from offer for sale, pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, of any such coffee, such person shall forward a report of such sale or withdrawal, within 24 hours thereafter, to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., stating, in the case of a sale, the name and address of the purchaser, the date of sale, and the amount sold, and, in the case of such withdrawal, the amount withdrawn from the offer for sale.

[§ 1407.1041 as amended by Amendment 15, 8 F.R. 2026, effective 2-12-43]

§ 1407.1042 Disposition of purchase warrants, certain certificates, and ration credits by roasters. (a) Every retailer or wholesaler who roasts green coffee shall retain in his possession, until further order by the Office of Price Administration, all certificates which, on or prior to January 27, 1943, cease to authorize the acquisition of roasted coffee, and purchase warrants surrendered to him, for coffee roasted by him and transferred by him. In February 1943 each such retailer and wholesaler shall forward to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., together with the report required to be made by him by § 1407.1071 (b), (1) a statement specifying the number of pounds of roasted coffee roasted by him that he has transferred against the certificates and purchase warrants so retained by him, and (2) a check in a weight value which, when added to the weight value of the certificates and purchase warrants retained by him pursuant to this section, shall be equal to 84 per cent of the weight of the green coffee roasted by him and transferred by him between November 22, 1942, and January 31, 1943, inclusive. In every month subsequent to February 1943 each such retailer and wholesaler shall forward to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., together with the report required to be made by him by § 1407.1071 (b), a check equal in weight value to 84 per cent of the weight of the green coffee roasted by him and transferred by him during the month for which such report is made.

[Paragraph (a) as amended by Amendment 12, 8 F.R. 1286, effective 1-27-43]

(b) Every institutional or Class A industrial user who roasts green coffee shall retain in his possession, until further order by the Office of Price Administration, all certificates which, on or prior to March 1, 1943, cease to authorize the acquisition of roasted coffee. In April 1943 each such institutional and Class A industrial user shall forward to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., together with the report required to be made by him by § 1407.1071 (b), (1) a statement specifying the weight value of the certificates retained by him pursuant to this paragraph, and (2) a check in a weight value which, when added to the weight value of the certificates retained by him pursuant to this paragraph, shall be equal to 84 percent of the weight of the green coffee roasted by him between November 22, 1942, and March 31, 1943, inclusive. In every month subsequent to April 1943 each such institutional and Class A industrial user shall forward to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., together with the report required to be made by him by § 1407.1071 (b), a check equal in weight value to 84 percent of the weight of the green coffee roasted by him during the month for which such report is made.

[Paragraph (b) as amended by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2677, effective 3-1-43]

(c) When the ration credits in the account of a person are insufficient to permit him to issue a check in the weight value required by this section, such person shall instead issue to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a check in weight value equal to the then balance of ration credits in his account less the weight value of all checks then outstanding against his account, and accompany such check with a reconciliation statement stating the reasons why the ration credits in his account are insufficient.

[Paragraph (c) added by Amendment 12, 8 F.R. 1286, effective 1-27-43]

(d) If a person issues a check to the Office of Price Administration pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section, he shall, within three months thereafter, issue to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a check equal in weight value to the difference in weight value between the check he was required to issue pursuant to paragraph (a) or (b) of this section, and the check he actually issued: Provided, however, That no such additional check need be issued on account of any deficiency in the weight value of a check due to the surrender or issuance of evidences to the board pursuant to § 1407.985, or to the fact that an institutional or Class A industrial user was not issued certificates for the amount by which his initial inventory exceeded his allowable inventory.

[Paragraph (d) added by Amendment 12, 8 F.R. 1286, effective 1-27-43 and amended by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2677, effective 3-1-43]

TRANSFERS PERMITTED WITHOUT THE SURRENDER OF COFFEE STAMPS, CERTIFICATES, OR PURCHASE WARRANTS AND IRRESPECTIVE OF RESTRICTIONS ON THE ACQUISITION OF GREEN COFFEE

§ 1407.1045 Transfer of green coffee. When the transfer of green coffee is permitted by Ration Order No. 12, such transfer may be made without the surrender of coffee stamps, certificates, or purchase warrants.

§ 1407.1046 Loans and gifts of roasted coffee. (a) Loans of roasted coffee owned for personal use which are repaid in kind in equal quantity may be made between consumers without the surrender of coffee stamps or certificates.

(b) Gifts of roasted coffee may be made by a consumer to a charitable or religious organization without the surrender of coffee stamps or certificates.

§ 1407.1047 Coffee included in initial inventory. Any coffee included in the initial inventory of a person, or which has been included, or was required to be included, in the opening inventory of an institutional user establishment pursuant to General Ration Order 5, may be transferred to said person or establishment without the surrender of evidences or purchase warrants and irrespective of any restriction on the acquisition of green coffee imposed by Ration Order No. 12.

[§ 1407.1047 as amended by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2677, effective 3-1-43]

§ 1407.1048 Exchanges. (a) Of roasted coffee. Roasted coffee may be exchanged for other roasted coffee without the surrender of stamps or certificates: Provided, That the weights of the roasted coffee exchanged must be equal.

(b) Of green coffee. Green coffee may be exchanged for other green coffee irrespective of any restriction on the acquisition of green coffee imposed by Ration Order No. 12: Provided, That the weights of the green coffee exchanged must be equal.

(c) Time limit. Deliveries or shipments of coffee involved in an exchange made pursuant to this section must be made on the same day.

§ 1407.1049 Transfers to certain persons. Any person may transfer without the surrender of coffee stamps or certificates and irrespective of any restriction on the transfer or acquisition of coffee imposed by Ration Order No. 12, coffee to any of the persons enumerated in § 1407.991 (c), subject, however, to the provisions of § 1407.991. The Veterans' Administration and agencies specified in § 1407.991a (a) may acquire green coffee irrespective of any restriction on the transfer or acquisition of green coffee imposed by Ration Order No. 12.

[§ 1407.1049 as amended by Amendment 23, 8 F.R. 2721, effective 3-2-43]

§ 1407.1050 Transfers between establishments owned by same person. Any person may transfer coffee, without the surrender of evidences, between establishments owned by him except between institutional establishments which are registered separately pursuant to General Ration Order 5.

[§ 1407.1050 as amended by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2677, effective 3-1-43]

§ 1407.1051 Green coffee transferred for roasting. Any person may transfer, irrespective of any restriction on the acquisition of green coffee imposed by Ration Order No. 12, green coffee owned by him to another person for roasting and may accept the return of such coffee after it is roasted, without surrendering coffee stamps or certificates.

§ 1407.1052 Transfer of coffee for carriage. (a) Coffee delivered before November 22, 1942, to a carrier may be delivered by the carrier to the person to whom the coffee was consigned or may be redelivered to the consignor without the surrender of certificates or coffee stamps by anyone in connection therewith and irrespective of any restriction on the acquisition of green coffee imposed by Ration Order No. 12.

(b) On or after November 22, 1942, coffee may be received by a carrier for carriage without the surrender of certificates or coffee stamps by the carrier and irrespective of any restriction on the acquisition of green coffee imposed by Ration Order No. 12. Coffee so received may thereafter be delivered, without the receipt of certificates or coffee stamps by such carrier and irrespective of any restriction on the acquisition of green coffee imposed by Ration Order No. 12, only to (1) the person from whom it was received; (2) the person to whom it was consigned; (3) the person to whom the bill of lading or similar instrument, if any, issued in connection with such carriage, has been duly transferred; or (4) connecting carriers for the purpose of such delivery.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to relieve any person who delivers roasted coffee to a carrier from the obligation to receive evidences from the consignee or other person to whom a transfer is made as a result of such delivery or from any other obligation imposed by Ration Order No. 12.

[Paragraph (c) as amended by Amendment 12, 8 F.R. 1286, effective 1-27-43]

§ 1407.1053 Transfer of coffee for storage. (a) Coffee delivered before November 22, 1942, to a public or other warehouse, not an establishment within the meaning of Ration Order No. 12, may at any time, without the surrender of certificates or coffee stamps and irrespective of any restriction on the acquisition of green coffee imposed by Ration Order No. 12, be redelivered to the person who delivered it to such warehouse, or delivered to the person to whom the warehouse receipt or other similar instrument, if any, issued in connection with such storage, has been duly transferred.

(b) On or after November 22, 1942, any public warehouse may, without surrendering certificates or coffee stamps and irrespective of any restriction on the acquisition of green coffee imposed by Ration Order No. 12, receive coffee for storage and deliver such coffee to the person from whom it received such coffee or to the person to whom the warehouse receipt or other similar instrument, if any, issued in connection with such storage, has been duly transferred.

[Paragraph (b) as amended by Amendment 1, 7 F.R. 10380, effective 12-16-42]

(c) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to relieve any person who delivers roasted coffee for storage from the obligation to receive evidences from any person other than the warehouseman to whom such roasted coffee is transferred or from any other obligation imposed by Ration Order No. 12.

[Paragraph (c) as amended by Amendment 12, F.R. 1286, effective 1-27-43]

§ 1407.1054 Voluntary or involuntary transfer of establishment. (a) Coffee may be acquired by any person without the surrender of coffee stamps or certificates and irrespective of any restriction on the acquisition of green coffee imposed by Ration Order No. 12 where, as a consequence of reoganization, liquidation, merger, foreclosure, execution, assignment for the benefit of creditors, bankruptcy, death, devise, bequest, inheritance, or other voluntary or involuntary transfer or sale of an establishment, all or substantially all the assets of such establishment, including good-will, are transferred to such person.

(b) Any person acquiring roasted coffee pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section shall, with respect thereto, be subject to all obligations of the former owner of the establishment to transfer roasted coffee in exchange for certificates, coffee stamps, or purchase warrants surrendered to such former owner prior to such acquisition and against which the transfer of roasted coffee had not been completed at the time of such acquisition and be entitled to receive certificates, coffee stamps, or purchase warrants equivalent in weight value to any amount by which the quantity of roasted coffee transferred by such former owner to any person prior to such acquisition exceeds in weight value the certificates, coffee stamps, and purchase warrants surrendered by such person. The person acquiring roasted coffee pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section may continue the operation of the establishment, and, if he does so, shall be subject to all the provisions of Ration Order No. 12 applicable thereto. If a person acquiring roasted coffee pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section does not continue the operation of the establishment, such roasted coffee may be transferred by him pursuant to the provisions of § 1407.1061.

§ 1407.1055 Liquidation of establishments. (a) The person in charge of the liquidation of a retail, wholesale, or institutional establishment, which is the sole establishment owned by the owner thereof, and the person in charge of the liquidation of retail or wholesale establishments, which are all the establishments owned by the owner thereof, or institutional establishments, which are all the establishments in a registering unit, shall promptly after the commencement of the liquidation (1) acquire all roasted coffee for which coffee stamps, certificates, or purchase warrants had been surrendered by said owner; (2) transfer all roasted coffee for which coffee stamps, certificates, or purchase warrants had been surrendered to said owner; (3) acquire all coffee stamps, certificates, or purchase warrants to which said owner is entitled by reason of the transfer by him of roasted coffee; and (4) surrender coffee stamps, certificates, or purchase warrants for which roasted coffee has been transferred to said owner. At the completion of the liquidation the person in charge thereof shall surrender to the board for cancellation all certificates, coffee stamps, and purchase warrants held by the establishment or establishments and shall account for any difference between the coffee stamps, certificates, and purchase warrants so surrendered and the allowable inventory of such owner, or, if a registering unit is being liquidated, all certificates on hand or, if such registering unit roasts coffee, all coffee stamps or certificates required to be retained thereby pursuant to Ration Order No. 12. If at the completion of the liquidation the person in charge thereof is unable to surrender, acquire, or transfer coffee stamps, certificates, purchase warrants, or roasted coffee as required by this section, he shall file with the board a complete statement of all the facts and circumstances in connection therewith.

(b) In the event of the liquidation of an institutional establishment, the allotment made thereafter to the registering unit of which said institutional establishment was a part shall be reduced by the amount applicable to such institutional establishment.

(c) Any person who has surrendered certificates, coffee stamps, or purchase warrants to an establishment and who does not, prior to the liquidation of such establishment or within one month after the commencement of such liquidation, receive from the person in charge of such liquidation, pursuant to paragraph (a) (2) of this section, all the roasted coffee for which certificates, coffee stamps, or purchase warrants have been surrendered by such person to the establishment being liquidated may apply to the board for a certificate authorizing the acquisition of the quantity of roasted coffee he has so failed to receive. Before the board may grant any such application, the applicant shall prove, to the satisfaction of the board, the surrender by him of certificates, coffee stamps, or purchase warrants and his failure to receive roasted coffee therefor as claimed.

§ 1407.1055a Limitation on application of §§ 1407.1054 and 1407.1055. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in §§ 1407.1054 and 1407.1055, the provisions of those sections shall not apply to institutional establishments.

[§ 1407.1055a added by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2677, effective 3-1-43]

§ 1407.1056 Disposal of damaged coffee and undamaged coffee mingled therewith, or coffee in a package, bag, or other container damaged while in transit by common carrier. (a) Coffee which is damaged and undamaged coffee mingled therewith, or coffee which is in a package, bag, or other container damaged while in transit by a common carrier, may be transferred by any person in possession thereof without the surrender of coffee stamps or certificates and irrespective of any restriction on the acquisition of green coffee imposed by Ration Order No. 12 to (1) any person who has insured such coffee against loss or damage and is duly authorized by law to engage in the insurance business; (2) common or contract carriers in connection with the exercise of the right of subrogation or by virtue of the payment by them of a claim for damage to such coffee or container; and (3) persons engaged principally and primarily in the business of adjusting losses or selling or reconditioning and selling damaged commodities, who take possession of or receive such commodities on the occurrence or imminence of casualties or in connection with the adjustment of losses resulting from casualties.

(b) A person described in paragraph (a) (1), (2), or (3) of this section, acquiring coffee pursuant to said paragraph (a), shall report such fact in writing to the board having jurisdiction over the area in which its principal business office is located. The report shall also state the disposition proposed to be made of such coffee.

(c) Following such report, undamaged coffee which has been mingled with, but which can be and is separated from damaged coffee, or coffee which is in a package, bag, or other container damaged while in transit by common carrier, may be disposed of by such person, but only, if the coffee is green coffee, to a person who is a roaster or who is and was prior to November 22, 1942, a green coffee dealer, or, if the coffee is roasted coffee, as follows:

(1) It may be transferred, without the receipt of coffee stamps or certificates, in the manner provided in §§ 1407.1052, 1407.1053, or 1407.1060.

(2) It may be transferred upon receipt of coffee stamps or certificates as prescribed in Ration Order No. 12 and the coffee stamps or certificates thus received shall be surrendered to the board for cancellation within five days of receipt.

(3) An institutional or Class A industrial user may use such roasted coffee subject to the provisions of § 1407.1002 (b).

[Paragraph (3) as amended by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2677, effective 3-1-43]

§ 1407.1057 Replacement of damaged, destroyed, lost or stolen coffee or coffee in a package, bag, or other container damaged while in transit. (a) A person, other than a consumer, whose damaged roasted coffee and undamaged roasted coffee mingled therewith is transferred pursuant to § 1407.1056 (a), or whose roasted coffee is destroyed, lost, or stolen may obtain certificates in weight value equal to the original weight of such roasted coffee. A person, other than a consumer, whose roasted coffee, in a package, bag, or other container damaged while in transit by common carrier, is transferred pursuant to § 1407.1056 (a) may obtain certificates in weight value equal to the amount of roasted coffee in such package, bag, or other container before it was damaged. A person, other than a consumer, whose roasted coffee, although in a package, bag, or other container damaged while in transit by common carrier, was not transferred pursuant to § 1407.1056 (a), or was in a package, bag, or other container damaged in any other manner may obtain certificates in weight value equal to the amount of roasted coffee lost from the package, bag, or other container because of such damage.

(b) Written application shall be made by such a person to the board stating facts which establish compliance with the requirements of paragraph (a) of this section and including such other information as the board may require.

§ 1407.1058 Recovery of lost or stolen coffee. (a) Coffee which has been lost or stolen may be recovered without the surrender of coffee stamps or certificates and irrespective of any restriction on the acquisition of green coffee imposed by Ration Order No. 12 by the person rightfully in possession of such coffee when it was lost or stolen or by a person who has insured such coffee against loss or theft and is duly authorized by law to engage in the insurance business or by a common or contract carrier in connection with the exercise of the right of subrogation or by virtue of the payment by it of a claim for such loss or theft. Such recovery may be made directly or through a Government agency or other person authorized to secure such recovery.

(b) A person recovering lost or stolen roasted coffee for which he has obtained a certificate pursuant to § 1407.1057 shall report such fact in writing to the board. The report shall also state the amount of such roasted coffee and the disposition proposed to be made of it. Such roasted coffee may thereafter be disposed of by such person but only in the manner provided by § 1407.1056 (c) (1), (2), and (3).

(c) An insurer or carrier recovering lost or stolen coffee shall report such fact in writing to the board having jurisdiction over the area in which its principal office is located. The report shall also state the amount of such coffee and the disposition proposed to be made of it. Such coffee may thereafter be disposed of by such person but only in the manner provided by paragraphs (c) (1), (2), and (3) of § 1407.1056.

§ 1407.1059 Surrendering certificates to the board for cancellation. Where roasted coffee which had been transferred pursuant to §§ 1407.1049 or 1407.1060 is returned to the person from whom it was acquired and such person has obtained from the board certificates authorizing the acquisition of roasted coffee to replace such roasted coffee, such person shall surrender to the board for cancellation certificates or coffee stamps in weight value equal to the weight of the roasted coffee so returned.

§ 1407.1060 Acquisition of coffee by judicial process, by operation of law and for security and similar purposes; enforcement—(a) Acquisition by judicial process, by operation of law, and by the exercise of statutory rights or powers. Coffee may be acquired by, or a lien created thereon in favor of, the following persons and in the following cases without the surrender of coffee stamps or certificates and irrespective of any restriction on the acquisition of green coffee imposed by Ration Order No. 12: (1) any person pursuant to judicial process or an order issued by a court of competent jurisdiction or by operation of law; (2) a State or political subdivision or agency thereof or by the United States or any agency thereof in the enforcement or exercise against such coffee of statutory rights or powers.

(b) Creation of security interests and liens. Coffee may be acquired for security purposes by, or a lien created thereon for security purposes in favor of, the following persons and in the following cases without the surrender of coffee stamps or certificates and irrespective of any restriction on the acquisition of green coffee imposed by Ration Order No 12: (1) a State or political subdivision or agency thereof or the United States or any agency thereof or any person duly licensed to engage in the business of making loans upon collateral and regulated in conducting such business by a State or the United States; (2) any person where the security interest arises or is transferred with respect to all or substantially all the coffee of an establishment.

(c) Assignments prohibited. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to permit any person to acquire, without coffee stamps or certificates or irrespective of any restriction on the acquisition of green coffee imposed by Ration Order No. 12, an interest in coffee in connection with or as a consequence of an assignment of less than the entire debt secured by such coffee.

(d) Release or return. Except as otherwise provided in Ration Order No. 12, coffee or any interest therein or lien thereon acquired pursuant to paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section may be returned to the person from whom it was acquired or released without the surrender of coffee stamps or certificates and irrespective of any restriction on the acquisition of green coffee imposed by Ration Order No. 12 or such coffee may be used or transferred pursuant to the provisions of § 1407.1061.

(e) Enforcement of security. Any person who has acquired coffee or in whose favor a lien thereon has been created under the authority of this section, or who holds a lien on or security interest in coffee created prior to November 22, 1942, may enforce such security, lien, or other interest in the manner provided by applicable State or Federal laws. Transfers necessary for the enforcement thereof may be made to such person, without the surrender of coffee stamps or certificates and irrespective of any restriction on the acquisition of green coffee imposed by Ration Order No. 12, or to other persons, with respect to roasted coffee, upon receipt of appropriate coffee stamps or certificates (except as otherwise provided in Ration Order No. 12) to be disposed of as provided in § 1407.1061, or, with respect to green coffee, to persons authorized to acquire such coffee by Ration Order No. 12. Roasted coffee acquired by such person hereunder may not be used by such person and may not be transferred except pursuant to § 1407.1061.

§ 1407.1061 Disposal of roasted coffee acquired without coffee stamps or certificates. Any person who acquires roasted coffee without the surrender of coffee stamps or certificates, pursuant to § 1407.1060, may thereafter, if an institutional or Class A industrial user, use such roasted coffee subject to the provisions of § 1407.1002 (b) or may transfer such roasted coffee only upon surrender to him of appropriate coffee stamps or certificates, except as otherwise expressly permitted by Ration Order No. 12. Such coffee stamps or certificates shall, within five days after each such transfer, be surrendered for cancellation to the State Director of the State in which such person resides or in which his principal business office is located.

[§ 1407.1061 as amended by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2677, effective 3-1-43]

§ 1407.1062 Obtaining certificates to replace roasted coffee acquired pursuant to § 1407.1060. When roasted coffee of a person who does not roast such coffee, has been acquired by another person without the surrender of coffee stamps or certificates, pursuant to § 1407.1060, the person from whom such roasted coffee has been acquired may apply to the board for a certificate in weight value equal to the weight of the roasted coffee acquired from him. Before the board may grant any such application, the applicant shall prove to the satisfaction of the board that the roasted coffee was acquired from him under the conditions described in § 1407.1060 and has not been returned to him.

PETITIONS FOR ADJUSTMENT; NEW BUSINESS

§ 1407.1065 Petitions for adjustment of base, allotment, inventory, or allowable inventory. (a) Any person may petition the board in writing for an adjustment of his base, allotment, inventory, or allowable inventory. Such petition shall state the name and address of the petitioner, the adjustment sought by him, the grounds on which the adjustment is sought, and any other facts deemed pertinent by such person. The board may request such additional information as it may deem pertinent and shall, within ten days after the receipt of the petition, send it, together with all relevant and material evidence and information received by the board, to the district office (or where there is none, to the State Director), or take such other action as the Office of Price Administration may direct.

(b) The district office (or the State Director) shall forward the petition, together with all other material concerning the petition received from the board, to the Regional Administrator, or take such other action as the Office of Price Administration may direct. The Regional Administrator shall forward the petition, together with all other material concerning the petition received from the State Director to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., for appropriate action, or take such other action as the Office of Price Administration may direct. The petitioner may be requested to furnish further information and to appear personally.

[Paragraphs (a) and (b) as amended by Amendment 8, 8 F.R. 978, effective 1-19-43]

(c) No institutional user may petition for adjustment of his roasted coffee base or allotment pursuant to this section.

[Paragraph (c) added by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2677, effective 3-1-43]

§ 1407.1066 New establishments—(a) Retail establishments. (1) Any person desiring to obtain coffee for a retail establishment owned by him which commenced or will commence operations on or after November 22, 1942, may petition the board having jurisdiction over the area in which such person's principal business office is located for assignment to such person for such establishment of an allowable inventory.

(2) The board shall assign to the owner of such establishment an allowable inventory of coffee, not to exceed one pound of coffee for every ten dollars of the estimated gross sales, of all meats, groceries, fruits, vegetables, and similar products, to be made by said establishment in the first month of its operations, and shall issue to such owner a certificate or certificates in a weight value equal to such allowable inventory.

(3) Within ten days after the completion of its first two full months of operations the establishment shall report to the board its average monthly gross sales of all meats, groceries, fruits, vegetables, and similar products. If such report shows that the allowable inventory assigned by the board with respect to such establishment pursuant to paragraph (a) (1) of this section is greater than one pound of coffee for every ten dollars of such average monthly gross sales, the board shall reduce the allowable inventory to such amount and the establishment shall surrender to the board for cancellation coffee stamps or certificates in weight value equal to the amount of such reduction. If such report shows that the allowable inventory assigned to such establishment by the board pursuant to paragraph (a) (1) of this section is less than one pound for every ten dollars of such average monthly gross sales, the board shall increase the allowable inventory to such amount by issuing additional certificates to the establishment.

(b) Wholesale establishments. Any person desiring to obtain coffee for a wholesale establishment owned by him which commenced or will commence operations on or after November 22, 1942, may petition the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., for assignment to him for such establishment of an allowable inventory. The petition shall state the name and address of the owner, the location or proposed location of the establishment, the value or estimated value of all meats, groceries, fruits, vegetables, and similar products on hand or to be acquired by such establishment, whether the establishment will roast coffee, the estimated transfers (in pounds) by the establishment during the first month of its operations of roasted coffee to be acquired by the establishment as roasted, and the estimated transfers (in pounds) by the establishment during the first month of its operations of roasted coffee roasted by the establishment.

REPORTS AND RECORDS

§ 1407.1068 In general. All persons who transfer or acquire coffee shall maintain such records and make such reports as Ration Order No. 12 requires and as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require. Unless otherwise indicated in Ration Order No. 12, such records shall be maintained for a period of not less than two years and shall be available during such period for inspection by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1407.1069 By retailers and wholesalers. (a) Every retailer and wholesaler shall maintain records of (1) all roasted and green coffee acquired by him on or after November 22, 1942, the names and addresses of the persons from whom such coffee was acquired, and the date and amount of each acquisition thereof; (2) the names and addresses of all persons, except consumers, to whom green and roasted coffee was transferred and the date and amount of each transfer; (3) the names and addresses of all persons to whom purchase warrants were surrendered and the date and amount of each purchase warrant so surrendered; (4) the names and addresses of all persons from whom purchase warrants were received and the date and amount of each purchase warrant so received; and (5) the amounts of his initial and allowable inventories of coffee. Each retailer and wholesaler shall also preserve all existing sales and other records upon which the computations of his initial and allowable inventories are based.

(b) Every retailer or wholesaler who roasts green coffee shall, on or before December 31, 1942, report, on O. P. A. Form R–1203, the following: (1) the information contained in his records maintained pursuant to paragraphs (a) (3) and (a) (5) of this section; (2) the computations of his initial and allowable inventories; and (3) such other information as is called for by said form. Such form shall be prepared in triplicate. The original thereof shall be filed with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C.; the duplicate copy with the Board; and the triplicate copy shall be retained by the person making the report at his principal business office.

(c) Every retaller and wholesaler who does not roast green coffee shall, on or before December 31, 1942, report to the Board, on O P. A. Form R–1202, the following: (1) the information contained in his records maintained pursuant to paragraphs (a) (3) and (a) (5) of this section; (2) the computations of his initial and allowable inventories; and (3) such other information as is called for by said form.

[Paragraph (b) as amended, paragraph (c) added by Amendment 5, 8 F.R. 167, effective 1–8–43]

§ 1407.1070 By institutional and industrial users. Every institutional user and every industrial user shall maintain a record showing by months, the amounts of green and roasted coffee acquired by him and the names and addresses of the persons from whom such coffee was acquired, the amount of green coffee roasted by him, and, in the case of a Class B industrial user, the amount of coffee used by him in products transferred by him.

[§ 1407.1070 as amended by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2677, effective 3–1–43]

§ 1407.1071 By persons transferring or acquiring green coffee. (a) Every person, not a retailer or a wholesaler, who transfers or acquires green coffee shall keep a record of the dates and amounts of such transfers and acquisitions and of the names and addresses of the persons to whom green coffee was transferred and from whom green coffee was acquired by him.

(b) Every person, other than the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard, and Commodity Credit Corporation, who transfers or acquires green coffee shall monthly, beginning in January 1943, prepare a report in triplicate, showing, with respect to the previous month, (1) the names and addresses of the persons to whom green coffee was transferred and from whom green coffee was acquired, together with the dates and amounts of such transfers and acquisitions, and (2) his inventory of green and roasted coffee as of the first day of the month in which the report is prepared.

[Paragraph (b) as amended by Amendment 16, 8 F.R. 2032, effective 2–19–43]

(c) The report referred to in paragraph (b) of this section shall be prepared on O. P. A. Form R–1205 and shall contain, in addition to the information required by paragraph (b) of this section, such other information as is called for by such form. The original and duplicate of each such report shall be sent to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., not later than the tenth day of each month; the triplicate copy shall be retained by the person reporting: Provided, however, That the report for the month of December 1942, which shall include the required information for the period from November 22 to December 31, 1942, inclusive, need not be sent to the Office of Price Administration prior to January 30, 1943.

[Paragraph (c) as amended by Amendment 6, 8 F.R. 621, effective 1–21–43]

§ 1407.1072 Miscellaneous records. Any person required to make a report pursuant to §§ 1407.1056 or 1407.1058 shall preserve at his principal business office records of all coffee acquired or transferred by him pursuant to those sections, the persons by or to whom such transfers were made and the amounts thereof, the weight value of all coffee stamps, certificates, and checks received by him for such transfers, the serial numbers of such certificates, and the amount of roasted coffee transferred against such coffee stamps, certificates, and checks.

[§ 1407.1072 as amended by Amendment 12, 8 F.R. 1286 effective 1–27–43]

§ 1407.1073 Disclosure of information. (a) Information and documents obtained under Ration Order No. 12 will not be disclosed, in response to subpoena or otherwise, to any person other than the person furnishing such information or documents unless the Administrator or an officer or employee of the Office of Price Administration designated by the Administrator (1) determines that the requested disclosure is not contrary to any provision of law and (2) consents to such disclosure.

MISCELLANEOUS

§ 1407.1075 Administration. Ration Order No. 12 shall be administered by the Office of Price Administration, its Regional Administrators, State Directors, war price and rationing boards, and such other administrative personnel as it may designate.

§ 1407.1076 Powers and duties. The persons appointed to administer Ration Order No. 12 or to assist therein shall have such powers and duties as are herein described and as the Office of Price Administration has assigned and may from time to time assign.

§ 1407.1077 Imports of roasted coffee. (a) Roasted coffee may be brought to a place subject to Ration Order No. 12 from a place not subject to Ration Order No. 12, if it is delivered to the Collector of Customs at the point of entry into the United States. Such roasted coffee may be delivered to the Collector of Customs without the receipt of coffee stamps or certificates.

(b) The Collector of Customs may transfer roasted coffee thus received by him to any person importing such roasted coffee upon the receipt of coffee stamps or certificates in weight value equal to the weight of the roasted coffee transferred. When coffee stamps are surrendered to the Collector of Customs by a consumer importing the roasted coffee, the Collector of Customs shall detach from the war ration book of such consumer one coffee stamp for each pound of roasted coffee imported, in the following order: 27, 28, 25, 26, 23, 24, 21, 22, 19, 20. Coffee stamps or certificates so received by the Collector of Customs shall be delivered, at least once each calendar month, to the State Director of the State in which such point of entry is located.

[Paragraph (b) as amended by Amendment 13, 8 F.R. 1741, effective 2–12–43]

(c) Except as otherwise permitted in Ration Order No. 12, no person shall bring roasted coffee into a place subject to Ration Order No. 12 from a place not subject to Ration Order No. 12 or receive roasted coffee from the Collector of Customs.

§ 1407.1078 Weight computation formulae.—(a) Basis of computations. In applying for and issuing certificates, issuing purchase warrants, and computing initial and allowable inventories, coffee bases, and allotments, all weights of coffee shall be stated in terms of roasted coffee.

(b) Conversion.—(1) Green coffee into terms of roasted coffee. Whenever it is necessary, for the purpose of Ration Order No. 12, to compute the weight of green coffee in terms of weight of roasted coffee, such computation shall be made by multiplying the weight of the green coffee by .84.

(2) Roasted coffee into terms of green coffee. Whenever it is necessary, for the purpose of Ration Order No. 12, to compute the weight of roasted coffee in terms of weight of green coffee, such computation shall be made by multiplying the weight of the roasted coffee by 1.19.

§ 1407.1079 Appeals. (a) Any person directly affected by the action of a board, State Director, or Regional Administrator taken with reference to any application, petition, or other matter before such board, State Director, or Regional Administrator under Ration Order No. 12 may appeal from such action in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 9.

(b) This section shall not apply to any action taken with respect to petitions made pursuant to §§ 1407.1065 or 1407.1066, except action taken with respect to such a petition by the board, State Director, or Regional Administrator in cases where the board or official taking the action has been authorized by the Office of Price Administration to grant or deny such petition.

§ 1407.1080 Persons authorized to sign reports, forms, purchase warrants. Registration forms, petitions, applications, reports, purchase warrants, and any other documents required by Ration Order No. 12 to be signed by retailers, wholesalers, or industrial or institutional users may be signed by an owner, a partner (if the owner is a partnership), an officer (if the owner is a corporation, association, or similar organization), a manager of the owner, or any authorized agent of the owner.

§ 1407.1081 Communications. All petitions and reports required by Ration Order No. 12 to be made to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., and all other communications concerning Ration Order No. 12 sent to the Washington, D. C., office of the Office of Price Administration shall be addressed to: Office of Price Administration, Att: Food Rationing Division, Washington, D. C.

§ 1407.1082 Duties, rights, obligations of establishments and registering units. When the provisions of Ration Order No. 12 impose or confer duties, rights, or obligations upon an establishment or registering unit, such duties, rights, and obligations shall be considered as being conferred or imposed upon the person owning such establishment or registering unit with respect thereto.

§ 1407.1083 Additional prohibitions. (a) No person shall, except in accordance with Ration Order No. 12 or other ration order of the Office of Price Administration, deface, mutilate, alter, or destroy any coffee stamp, war ration book, purchase warrant, certificate, or any other document or record provided for in Ration Order No. 12.

(b) No person shall transfer, acquire, possess, or use coffee except in accordance with the provisions of Ration Order No. 12.

(c) No person shall or shall cause another person to offer, solicit, attempt, or agree to do any act in violation of Ration Order No. 12.

[Paragraph (c) as amended by Amendment 2, 7 F.R. 11071, effective 1–2–43]

(d) No person shall, in any application, petition, inventory, certificate, report, or other statement or record made pursuant to or required by the provisions of Ration Order No. 12, make any untrue statement of any fact, or omit to state any fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading.

§ 1407.1084 Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard Post Exchanges, Commissaries, and Ships' Service Stores.—(a) Ration banking. Army Exchanges, Post Exchanges of the Marine Corps, and Ships' Service Departments Ashore of the Navy and Coast Guard, and other similar activities designated by the respective exempt agencies, which transfer roasted coffee, shall open ration bank accounts but may not open exempt accounts of the type described in General Ration Order 3B. Ration credits necessary for the acquisition of roasted coffee by such Army Exchanges, Post Exchanges, Ships' Service Departments Ashore, and similar activities will be created as a result of arrangements between the Office of Price Administration and the Army Exchange Service of the United States War Department and the Bureau of Naval Personnel of the Navy Department, the Marine Corps, and the Coast Guard. Ration credits may be transferred, by the issuance of checks and without the transfer of coffee, between accounts maintained for Army Exchanges, between accounts maintained for Post Exchanges, between accounts maintained for Ships' Service Departments Ashore of the Navy, and between accounts maintained for Ships' Service Departments Ashore of the Coast Guard. (Establishing ration credits for use by Army Exchanges, Post Exchanges, and Ships' Service Departments Ashore for the acquisition of roasted coffee for institutional use is covered by General Ration Order 5.)

(b) Acquiring and transferring roasted coffee. Army Exchanges, Post Exchanges, Ships' Service Departments Ashore, Sales Commissaries, and Commissary Stores, and any other activity of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard and the Food Distribution Administration may transfer roasted coffee and shall, with respect to such transfers, be governed by the provisions of Ration Order No. 12 governing transfers of roasted coffee by retailers and wholesalers. Such Army Exchanges, Post Exchanges, Ships' Service Departments Ashore, Sales Commissaries, or any other activity of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard, or the Food Distribution Administration may acquire roasted coffee for such purpose only upon the issuance by it of appropriate ration checks: Provided, however, That during the month of March 1943, Army Exchanges, Post Exchanges, Ships' Service Departments Ashore and similar designated activities may, if ration checks are unavailable, issue emergency acknowledgments, as described in § 1407.991a (d). The person to whom such emergency acknowledgment is issued shall not use it to acquire coffee, but shall exchange it for a ration check at the activity designated thereon. Coffee stamps and certificates surrendered to Army Exchanges, Post Exchanges, Ships' Service Departments Ashore, Sales Commissaries, or any other activity of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard or to the Food Distribution Administration shall be deposited in the accounts maintained for them and, except as provided in § 1407.1032 (f), the ration credits created by such deposit may then be used to acquire roasted coffee.

[§ 1407.1084 as amended by Amendment 23, 8 F.R. 2721, effective 3-2-43]

§ 1407.1084a Issuance of certificates to investigatory agencies. (a) Any investigatory or enforcement agency of a state or local government which requires transfers of roasted coffee for the performance of its functions shall, upon request therefor, receive from the board located in the area in which the agency is situated, certificates in the amounts desired.

(b) Any investigatory or enforcement agency of the United States which requires transfers of roasted coffee for the performance of its functions shall, upon request therefor, receive from the Director of the Food Rationing Division of the Office of Price Administration or from such other person as may be designated by him, certificates in the amounts desired.

(c) Roasted coffee acquired by any investigatory or enforcement agency pursuant to this section, may be transferred by it to any federal, state, or local institution, which shall acknowledge receipt of such roasted coffee and the amount thereof to the board which issued the certificate or, if the certificate was issued by the Director of the Food Rationing Division of the Office of Price Administration or a person designated by him, to said Director.

[§ 1407.1084a added by Amendment 1, 8 F.R. 10380, effective 12-16-42]

ENFORCEMENT

§ 1407.1085 Removal of coffee stamps from war ration books of persons under 14 years old. (a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Ration Order No. 12, where the age shown on any War Ration Book One is under 14 years, all coffee stamps shall be removed therefrom at the time War Ration Book Two is issued. For every coffee stamp missing from such a War Ration Book One, one coffee stamp shall be removed from the War Ration Book One of the parent, guardian, or other adult person in whose household the minor lives and in whose custody his War Ration Book One has been kept. However, the board may waive this requirement if it finds that the coffee stamps are missing because they were removed prior to issuance of the war ration book or were removed by misunderstanding or by accident at any other time, and that they were not used to acquire coffee. The board shall destroy all coffee stamps it detaches from war ration books pursuant to this paragraph.

[Paragraph (a) as amended by Amendment 18, 8 F.R. 2154, effective 2-20-43]

(b) Any action taken by the board pursuant to this section shall be in addition to any penalties provided by law for violation of Ration Order No. 12.

§ 1407.1086 Criminal prosecutions. (a) Any person who wilfully performs any act prohibited, or wilfully fails to perform any act required by any provision of Ration Order No. 12, may upon conviction be fined not more than $10,000.00, or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both, and shall be subject to such other penalties as may be prescribed by law.

(b) Any person who knowingly falsifies an application, or any other record, report, purchase warrant, or certificate made pursuant to or required by the terms of Ration Order No. 12, or who otherwise knowingly furnishes false information concerning a material fact within the jurisdiction of the Office of Price Administration to any board, or any other agent, employee, or officer of the Office of Price Administration, or who attempts by the use of a trick, scheme, or device to conceal or cover up such a material fact within the jurisdiction of the Office of Price Administration, may upon conviction be fined not more than $10,000.00, or imprisoned for not more than ten years, or both, and shall be subject to such other penalties as may be prescribed by law. Any person who conspires with another person to perform any of the foregoing acts may upon conviction be fined not more than $10,000.00, or imprisoned for not more than two years, or both, and shall be subject to such other penalties as may be prescribed by law.

§ 1407.1087 Suspension orders. Any person who violates Ration Order No. 12 may, by administrative suspension order, be prohibited from acquiring, transferring, or using any coffee or other rationed product for such period as in the judgment of the Administrator, or such person as he may designate for such purpose, is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national security.

[§ 1407.1087 as amended by Amendment 2, 7 F.R. 11071, effective 1-2-43]

§ 1407.1088 Report of violations. Any person may report a violation of Ration Order No. 12 to a war price and rationing board, a State Director, a Regional Administrator of the Office of Price Administration, or to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C.

§ 1407.1089 Saving clause. No provision of any amendment to Ration Order No. 12 (unless such amendment otherwise expressly provides) effecting the dissolution of registering units, resulting in the amendment or cancellation of registrations, placing persons or establishments once subject to Ration Order No. 12 under another order, or removing limitations or restrictions theretofore imposed by Ration Order No. 12 from persons, establishments, or registering units shall be deemed to (1) excuse the failure to discharge or perform any duty or obligation or (2) condone any acts or omissions to act, by any person, establishment, or registering unit, prior to the effective date of such amendment.

[§ 1407.1089 added by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2677, effective 3-1-43]

EFFECTIVE DATE

§ 1407.1090 Effective date of Ration Order No. 12. Ration Order No. 12 (§§ 1407.951 to 1407.1092, inclusive) shall become effective 12:00 p. m., November 21, 1942. [Issued November 20, 1942.]

PART 1407—RATIONING OF FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[Restriction Order 3,[1] Amendment 2]

CANNED MEAT AND CANNED FISH

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

In Restriction Order 3, section 2 (a) is amended; section 3 (b) is amended; a new paragraph (c) is added to section 3; section 7 (a) is amended to read as set forth below:

SEC. 2 Transfers of canned meat and canned fish to exempt persons and agencies are permitted. (a) Any person or government agency is an exempt person or exempt agency with respect to canned meat or canned fish obtained by or for it for export to, and consumption or use in any foreign country or any territory or possession of the United States other than the District of Columbia or for use as ships' stores for consumption aboard an ocean-going vessel engaged in the transportation of cargo or passengers in foreign, coastwise or intercoastal trade. The other exempt agencies for the purposes of this Order are the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, Coast and Geodetic Survey, War Shipping Administration, Maritime Commission, Panama Canal, Civil Aeronautics Authority, National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, Office of Scientific Research and Development, Food Distribution Administration and Office of Lend-Lease Administration.

* * * * *

SEC. 3 Transfers of canned meat and canned fish to wholesalers are permitted. * * *

(b) Any person may transfer canned fish to a wholesaler. Wholesalers may acquire canned fish.

(c) Any person may transfer canned meat to a wholesaler provided that no person shall transfer to wholesalers more than 50%, by weight, of all canned meat produced or acquired by him since, and held by him in inventory at the close of business on, February 17, 1943. Any wholesaler may acquire canned meat unless he knows or has reason to believe that the transfer is in violation of this paragraph

SEC. 7 Certain wholesalers must report their inventories of canned meat and canned fish held on February 17, 1943. (a) Certain persons were required to file with the Bureau of the Census, Washington, D. C., before February 12, 1943, a report showing, for January 1943, their stocks and receipts of canned and preserved foods. (These reports were to be made on OPA Forms CF-1 and CF-2.) Wholesalers who complied with this requirement need not file the inventory report required by this section.

§ 1407.5005 Personnel. (a) Restriction Order 4 shall be administered by the Office of Price Administration for Puerto Rico through local war price and rationing boards in Puerto Rico and such other administrative personnel as it may designate.

§ 1407.5006 Transfers of commodities restricted. (a) Notwithstanding the terms of any contract, agreement or commitment, regardless of when made, no retailer shall transfer to consumers, nor shall any institutional user or industrial user of a commodity use, during any quota period, more of a food commodity than the quota of such establishment for such period as determined by Restriction Order 4.

(b) The following commodities, as defined in § 1407.5002 are subject to the provisions of Restriction Order 4: (1) Shortening, (2) lard, (3) rice.

§ 1407.5007 Quotas and allotments. (a) The duration of each quota period and the quotas and allotments of consumers and establishments eligible to receive a commodity shall be determined by the Director in accordance with the available supplies of such commodity.

(b) The local war price and rationing board having jurisdiction over the area in which a retailer, industrial user or institutional user is established, shall issue a purchase certificate on OPA Form No. PRF–3 revised, authorizing such retailer, industrial or institutional user to acquire prior to the expiration date set forth in such certificate a specific quantity of a specified commodity, such quantity to be calculated in the manner set forth in §§ 1407.5009 and 1407.5010 of this order.

(c) No person shall transfer a commodity to other than a consumer except in exchange for valid purchase certificate except as provided in § 1407.5008.

(d) An importer shall deliver all purchase certificates (OPA Form PRF–3 revised) in his possession within five days after receipt thereof to the Office of Price Administration, San Juan, Puerto Rico.

§ 1407.5008 Security transfers. (a) The Insular Government or any agency thereof, the United States or any agency thereof, or any person duly licensed to engage in the business of making loans upon collateral and regulated in conducting such business by the Insular Government or the United States may, without certificate, acquire a commodity for security purposes and may, without certificate, transfer such security to the debtor upon release or extinguishment of the debt so secured. Any person may, without certificate, acquire a lien created by operation of law on a commodity and may satisfy or release such lien. Such security interests or liens may be enforced in the manner provided by applicable Insular or Federal laws, and subject to the provisions of Restriction Order 4, transfers necessary to such enforcement may be made. Any such person receiving a Purchase Certificate (OPA Form PRF–3 Revised) shall deliver the same within five days after receipt thereof together with a complete report of the transaction involved to the Office of Price Administration, San Juan, Puerto Rico.

§ 1407.5009 Quotas and allotments established. (a) Quota periods:

(1) From March 8, 1943, to March 21, 1943.
(2) From March 22, 1943, to April 4, 1943.
(3) From April 5, 1943, to April 18, 1943.
(4) From April 19, 1943, to May 2, 1943.

(b) A consumer may not accept a transfer of, and no person shall knowingly transfer to a consumer more than the following quantity of the following commodities during a quota period:

(1) Lard—½ pound during a quota period.
(2) Rice—2 pounds during a calendar week of any quota period.
(3) Shortening—none.

(c) At the commencement of each quota period each retailer shall be entitled to receive from the board having jurisdiction, purchase certificates (OPA Form PRF–3 revised) authorizing transfers of:

(1) One sack of rice containing 100 pounds (disregarding fractions less than one-half sack and converting fractions of one-half or over to full sacks) for each twenty dollars ($20.00) of the dollar value of rice reported by each such establishment as having been sold at retail during the month of November 1941 on OPA Form PRF–1, reduced by that number of 100 pound units of rice (disregarding fractions less than one-half and converting fractions of one-half or over to full sacks) in each such establishment's possession for sale at retail at the commencement of such quota period.

(2) One and three-fourths ($1\frac{3}{4}$) pounds of lard for each one dollar ($1.00) of the dollar value of lard reported by each such establishment as having been sold at retail during the month of November 1941 on OPA Form PRF–1, reduced by that number of pounds of lard in each such establishment's possession for sale at retail at the commencement of such quota period.

(d) At the commencement of each quota period, each institutional and industrial user shall be entitled to receive from the board having jurisdiction, purchase certificates (OPA Form PRF–3 revised) authorizing transfers of

(1) One sack of rice containing 100 pounds (disregarding fractions less than one-half sack and converting fractions of one-half or over to full sacks) for each twenty dollars ($20.00) of the dollar value of rice reported as used by each such establishment for the month of November 1941 on OPA Form PRF– reduced by that number of 100 pound units of rice (disregarding fractions less than one-half, and converting fractions of one-half or over to full sacks) in each such establishment's possession at the commencement of such quota period.

(2) One and three-fourths ($1\frac{3}{4}$) pounds of lard for each one dollar ($1.00) of the dollar value of lard reported as used by each such establishment for the month of November 1941 on OPA Form PRF–1, reduced by that number of pounds of lard in each such establishment's possession at the commencement of such quota period except that a baker shall be entitled to receive no lard.

(e) Each baker shall be entitled to receive from the board having jurisdiction, purchase certificates (OPA Form PRF–3 revised) authorizing transfers of three and one-half ($3\frac{1}{2}$) pounds of shortening for each one dollar ($1.00) of the dollar value of that portion of lard which was reported as used by such baker for the month of November 1941 on OPA Form PRF–1, reduced by that number of pounds of all shortening in each such baker's possession at the commencement of such quota period.

§ 1407.5010 Application for adjustment. (a) Any person who considers that an adjustment or exception should be made in his case to adjust quotas or promote greater efficiency and dispatch in the war effort may apply in writing to the Director setting forth the pertinent facts, the reason why he considers that an adjustment or exception should be made and the precise nature of the adjustment or exception desired.

(b) In case of emergency, application may be made by the most convenient means of communication and a written application may be filed at such time thereafter as the Director may direct.

(c) Upon receipt of such application, the Director may take such action as he shall deem necessary or appropriate.

(d) An establishment, not heretofore subject to Restriction Order 2, or a retailer who did not sell, or an industrial or institutional user which did not purchase, a commodity in November 1941 may apply to the board having jurisdiction, for assignment of a quota or allotment. The board shall examine all pertinent facts, shall assign a temporary quota or allotment within any then established quota or allotment and shall, within three days thereafter, render a complete report to the Director. The Director may, based on the facts presented, direct the board to amend the assigned quota or allotment. The establishment may apply for an adjustment at any time after the assignment of the temporary quota in accordance with paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section.

§ 1407.5011 Prohibited acts. (a) No person shall transfer or offer to transfer, to any person, and no person shall accept or offer to accept a transfer from any person, or use, any commodity as controlled by Restriction Order 4 with knowledge or reason to believe that such delivery or use is or will be in violation of Restriction Order No. 4.

(b) No person shall, or shall cause another person to alter or falsify any certificate or statement, or to falsify, conceal or fail to disclose any fact, statement or information in any application, registration, report or other statement required to be made, kept, furnished or disclosed by Restriction Order 4.

(c) No person shall offer, solicit, attempt or agree to do any act in violation of any provisions of Restriction Order 4.

§ 1407.5012 Discrimination. (a) On and after the date of the issuance of Restriction Order 4, no person shall discriminate in the transfer of a commodity to any person lawfully entitled to acquire a commodity hereunder. Any refusal on the part of an importer or a wholesaler to transfer a commodity to a wholesaler or a retailer to whom such importer or wholesaler has made a transfer on or after May 1, 1942, shall be prima facie evidence of a discrimination, Provided, That, nothing herein shall be construed to require a transfer of a commodity which would result in a violation of any statute enacted nor a transfer to any wholesaler or retailer of an amount of a commodity in excess of that permitted by any regulation or order of any department or agency of the United States.

§ 1407.5013 Transfers to consumers. No person shall knowingly transfer to a consumer and a consumer shall not accept a transfer of more of a commodity than the allotment established for the quota period. A consumer may act as the agent of a family or other unit in the purchase of a quantity of a commodity not to exceed the allotment for all members of such unit who customarily eat a majority of their meals as members of such unit.

§ 1407.5014 Criminal prosecutions. (a) Any person who knowingly falsifies an application, certification, registration form or any other record, report, or document made pursuant to or required by the terms of Restriction Order 4 or who otherwise knowingly furnishes false information to any agent, employee, or officer of the Office of Price Administration for Puerto Rico or falsifies or conceals or covers up by any tricks, scheme, or device a material fact, or makes or causes to be made any false or fraudulent statement or representation, in any matter within the jurisdiction of the Office of Price Administration for Puerto Rico, may upon conviction be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned for not than ten years, or both, and shall be subject to such other penalties or action as may be prescribed by law. Any person who conspires with another person to perform any of the foregoing acts or to violate any provision of Restriction Order 4 may upon conviction be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than two years, or both, and shall be subject to such other penalties or actions as may be prescribed by law.

(b) Any person who willfully performs any act prohibited, or willfully fails to perform any act required, by any provision of Restriction Order No. 4 may upon conviction be fined not more than $10,000 and imprisoned for not more than one year, or both, and shall be subject to such other penalties or actions as may be prescribed by all applicable statutes.

§ 1407.5015 Suspension Orders. Any person who violates Restriction Order 4 may, by administrative suspension orders, be prohibited from receiving any transfers or deliveries of, or selling or using or otherwise disposing of, any controlled commodity or other rationed product. Such suspension order shall be issued for such period as in the judgment of the Director is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

§ 1407.5016 Communications. All registration statements and reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning Restriction Order 4 shall be addressed to: Office of Price Administration, San Juan, Puerto Rico.

§ 1407.5017 Effective date. (a) Restriction Order 4 (§§ 1407.5002 to 1407.5017) shall become effective March 8, 1943.

(b) Restriction Order 4 (§§ 1407.5002 to 1407.5017) supersedes Restriction Order 2 (§§ 1407.3001 to 1407.3014). Provided, however, That any violations which occurred or rights or liabilities which have arisen prior to the effective date of Rice Restriction Order 4 shall be governed by the orders, regulations and amendments thereto, in effect at the time such violations occurred or such rights or liabilities arose.

Issued this 8th day of March 1943.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[SR 14[1] to GMPR,[2] Amendment 135]

VULCANIZED VEGETABLE OIL

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Paragraph (a) (59) of § 1499.73 is amended to read as set forth below:

§ 1499.73 Modifications of maximum prices established by § 1499.2 of General Maximum Price Regulation for certain commodities, services and transactions. (a) The maximum prices established by § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation for the commodities, services, and transactions listed below are modified as hereinafter provided:

* * * * *

(59) Vulcanized vegetable oil.—(i) Maximum prices for types of vulcanized vegetable oil delivered or offered for delivery during March, 1942.—(a) Molded vulcanized vegetable oil. The maximum price for a sale by a manufacturer of a kind of molded vulcanized vegetable oil (other than truss pads) of a kind which is the same as a kind which was delivered or offered for delivery in March, 1942, by the manufacturer shall be the highest price charged for it by the manufacturer during March, 1942, (as defined in paragraph (a) (59) (iii) of this supplementary regulation).

(b) Unmolded vulcanized vegetable oil. The maximum price for a sale by a manufacturer of a grade of unmolded vulcanized vegetable oil which is the same as a grade which was delivered or offered for delivery in March, 1942, by the manufacturer shall be the highest price charged for it by the manufacturer during March, 1942, (as defined in paragraph (a) (59) (iii) of this supplementary regulation) adjusted by adding a certain percentage, named below, of the amount by which the replacement cost to the manufacturer, at July 25, 1942, maximum prices, for the vegetable oil used to produce the product being priced is greater than the inventory cost during March, 1942, of the same quantity of vegetable oil. For the purposes of this paragraph (a) (59) (i) (b) and paragraph (a) (59) (ii) (d) of this supplementary regulation the "July 25, 1942, maximum price" for a particular vegetable oil means the maximum price for that oil when purchased in the quantity normally purchased by the manufacturer. The inventory cost during March, 1942, shall be determined by multiplying the quantity of the kind of vegetable oil used to produce the product being priced by the average cost of that oil charged to production during March, 1942, or, if it was not charged to production during that month, by the average cost at which it was in the manufacturer's inventory on March 1, 1942. The following named manufacturers shall use the specified percentages in calculating the amount of the adjustment to be made: Stamford Rubber Supply Company, 70%; Carter Bell Manufacturing Company, 80%; all other manufacturers, 100%.

(c) Transportation costs. No seller shall require any purchaser, and no purchaser shall be permitted to pay a larger proportion of transportation costs incurred in the delivery of a type of vulcanized vegetable oil delivered by the seller during March, 1942, than the seller required purchasers of the same class to pay during that month on deliveries of the same type.

(ii) Maximum prices for types of vulcanized vegetable oil not delivered or offered for delivery during March, 1942. The maximum f. o. b. price for the sale by a manufacturer of a grade of unmolded vulcanized vegetable oil which is not the same as a grade which was delivered or offered for delivery by the manufacturer during March, 1942, shall be the sum total of direct labor costs, direct materials costs, gross margin, and an adjustment, determined in accordance with inferior subdivisions (a), (b), (c), (d) of this subdivision (ii). The maximum f. o. b. price for a sale by a manufacturer of a kind of molded vulcanized vegetable oil (other than truss pads) which is not the same as a kind which was delivered or offered for delivery by the manufacturer during March, 1942, shall be the sum total of the same components with the exception that it shall not contain an adjustment. The maximum delivered price for a type of vulcanized vegetable oil (other than truss pads) not delivered or offered for delivery during March, 1942, shall be the maximum f. o. b. price plus the cost of transportation to the place of delivery.

(a) Computation of direct labor costs. Direct labor costs shall be determined by finding the average cost per pound of direct labor employed during the first quarter of 1942 in producing the type (unmolded white, unmolded brown, or molded) of vulcanized vegetable oil which includes the particular grade being priced, and multiplying that figure by the number of pounds being priced.

(b) Computation of direct materials costs. Direct materials costs shall be determined by multiplying the quantity of each material used in the manufacture of the vulcanized vegetable oil being priced by materials prices determined as follows:

The price of any material used in the manufacture of the vulcanized vegetable oil being priced shall be the first applicable among the following:

(1) The average cost at which the material was charged into production during March, 1942;

(2) The average cost at which it was in the manufacturer's inventory on March 1, 1942;

(3) The highest price charged during March, 1942, (as defined in paragraph (a) (59) (iii) of this supplementary regulation) by the manufacturer's supplier. The manufacturer's supplier shall be (A) his March, 1942, supplier of the material, or (B) lacking a March, 1942, supplier of the material, his most recent supplier of the material. If neither of these exists, it shall be his potential supplier.

(4) The first price at which the manufacturer's supplier offered to sell the material to a purchaser of the same class as the manufacturer after March 31, 1942. However, if the first applicable of those prices is higher than the maximum price established by the Office of Price Administration for the sale of the material to the manufacturer by his supplier, that maximum price shall be used as the price of the material.

(c) Computation of gross margin. The gross margin shall be determined as follows:

(1) Determine the total sales value for the first quarter of 1942 of each grade of the particular type (unmolded white, unmolded brown, or molded) of vulcanized vegetable oil which includes the grade being priced, at its March, 1942, highest price, by multiplying the quantity of each grade of that type produced during that quarter by the highest f. o. b. price for which the grade was sold during March, 1942, or, if it was not sold during that month, by the highest f. o. b. price for which it was offered for sale during March, 1942. Add the resulting figures to determine the total sales value for the quarter at March, 1942, highest prices, for the particular type of vulcanized vegetable oil.

(2) Subtract from that figure the total direct labor and materials costs for the particular type to determine the gross margin. Direct labor costs for this purpose shall be computed by multiplying the average direct labor costs per pound of the particular type of vulcanized vegetable oil, produced during the first quarter of 1942, by the total quantity of that type produced during that period. Direct materials costs shall be computed by multiplying the quantity of each material used in the manufacture of the particular type by the average cost at which the material was charged into production during March, 1942, or, if it was not charged into production in that month, by the average cost at which it was in the manufacturer's inventory on March 1, 1942.

(3) Divide the figure resulting from subtracting direct costs from total sales value by the total direct costs figure to determine the gross margin percentage of direct costs. That percentage shall be applied to the direct costs of the grade being priced (computed in accordance with paragraphs (a) (59) (ii) (a) and (b) of this supplementary regulation) to determine the gross margin for that grade.

(d) Adjustment. The sum total of direct labor costs, direct materials costs, and gross margin for a grade of unmolded white or unmolded brown vulcanized vegetable oil, computed as required by this paragraph (a) (59) (ii), shall be adjusted by adding the percentage, designated for the particular manufacturer in paragraph (a) (59) (i) (b) of this supplementary regulation, of the amount by which the replacement cost to the manufacturer, at July 25, 1942, maximum prices for the vegetable oil used to produce the product being priced is greater than the inventory cost during March, 1942 of the same quantity of vegetable oil. The inventory cost during March, 1942, shall be determined by multiplying the quantity of the kind of vegetable oil required to produce the product being priced by the average cost of that oil charged to production during March, 1942, or, if it was not charged to production during that month, by the average cost at which it was in the manufacturer's inventory in March, 1942. No adjustment shall be made in the case of molded vulcanized vegetable oil.

(iii) Definitions. For the purposes of this paragraph (a) (59):

"Brown vulcanized vegetable oil" means vulcanized vegetable oil produced by hot vulcanization.

"Highest price charged during March 1942" means:

(a) The highest price which the seller charged to a purchaser of the same class for delivery of the commodity during March, 1942;

(b) If the seller made no such delivery during March, 1942, such seller's highest offering price to a purchaser of the same class for delivery during that month;

(c) If the seller made no such delivery and had no such offering price to a purchaser of the same class, the highest price charged by the seller during March, 1942, to a purchaser of a different class, adusted to reflect the seller's customary differential between the two classes of purchasers.

"Manufacturer" when referring to molded vulcanized vegetable oil means a person who makes the molded product from vulcanized vegetable oil manufactured by him.

"Molded vulcanized vegetable oil" means a vulcanized vegetable oil in which the vulcanization reaction takes place substantially in molds which give shape utility to the production.

"Type of vulcanized vegetable oil" means one of the three classifications of that product, namely, unmolded white, unmolded brown and molded.

"Vulcanized vegetable oil" means the solid reaction product of unsaturated fatty oils and vulcanizing agents.

"White vulcanized vegetable oil" means vulcanized vegetable oil produced by cold vulcanization.

(iv) Geographical applicability. This paragraph (a) (59) applies only to the forty-eight states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

This amendment shall become effective March 24, 1943.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Amendment 1 to Order 110 Under § 1499.3 (b) of GMPR]

40-FATHOM FISH, INC.

An opinion accompanying this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Section 1499.974 (a) is amended and paragraphs (e), (f), (g), (h) and (i) are added to read as set forth below.

§ 1499.974 Approval of maximum prices for sales of frozen Jack and Jill Cat Food by 40-Fathom Fish, Inc. (a) 40-Fathom Fish, Inc. of Boston, Massachusetts may sell and deliver and any person may buy and receive from 40-Fathom Fish, Inc. frozen Jack and Jill Cat Food packed twenty-four one pound cartons to a shipping case at a price not exceeding $2.05 per shipping case, delivered.

* * * * *

(e) This maximum price is only authorized for frozen Jack and Jill Cat Food when made according to the formula used by 40-Fathom Fish, Inc. in connection with his application for this order.

(f) A seller at wholesale is permitted to charge in a sale to a retailer, kennel or pet shop, of frozen Jack and Jill Cat Food a price not to exceed $2.56, delivered, per shipping case of twenty-four one pound cartons.

(g) A seller at retail is permitted to charge in a sale of frozen Jack and Jill Cat Food, a price not to exceed 14 cents per one pound carton.

(h) Records. Every person making a purchase or sale of frozen Jack and Jill Cat Food in the course of business, except a seller at retail, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration, so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, complete and accurate records of each such purchase and sale including (1) the date thereof, (2) the name and address of the purchaser, (3) the price charged and (4) the amount sold. Sellers at retail are not required to keep records of sales at retail but shall keep all invoices and notices received with the purchase of each shipping unit.

(i) Notice. On and after the effective date of this order and on or before the time of the first delivery of frozen Jack and Jill Cat Food to any wholesaler or retailer 40-Fathom Fish, Inc. or any other seller shall supply the buyer with a written statement and also include or attach to each shipping unit said cat food a copy of the statement which shall read as follows:

The Office of Price Administration has authorized ceiling prices for Frozen Jack and Jill Cat Food as made by 40-Fathom Fish, Inc. You are authorized to establish your ceiling price as follows:

In a sale at wholesale your ceiling is $2.56, delivered, per shipping case of twenty-four one pound cartons.

In a sale at retail your ceiling price is 14 cents per one pound carton.

This amendment shall become effective March 19, 1943.

SUBPART A—CARGO INSURANCE

§ 305.1 Introductory. War Shipping Administration is prepared to provide marine insurance against loss or damage by the risks of war on shipments of cargo in the water-borne commerce of the United States and its territories and possessions which is in the interest of the war effort or the domestic economy of the United States as determined by the Administrator.

Such cargo war risk insurance is underwritten both on a facultative policy basis and an open policy basis in accordance with the respective policy conditions and regulations herein set forth.

Applicable rate schedules are published in bulletin form by the War Shipping Administration and are available on request by properly interested parties. Any rate set forth in a rate schedule is subject to change by the War Shipping Administration at any time without notice.

FACULTATIVE WAR RISK CARGO INSURANCE

§ 305.2 Submission of risks. Whenever the applicant for cargo war risk insurance desires to bind war risk insurance on a shipment of cargo, and there is published an applicable rate, the applicant must provide War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance, at Room 4089, Commerce Building, Washington, D. C., by means of a letter or a telegram with a proper order to bind such insurance which must set forth:

(a) The name of the assured.
(b) The amount of insurance.
(c) The commodity and the quantity thereof.
(d) The voyage involved.
(e) That Standard Optional Endorsement No. I is to be provided, if such additional coverage is desired.
(f) That Loss Clause II, as set forth in § 305.11, is to be provided, if such clause is to be made applicable.
(g) The name of the vessel or the steamship line, if known, and the date of shipment, if the applicant is submitting the request to bind war risk insurance by letter; but if the applicant is submitting the order to bind war risk insurance by telegram, neither the name of the vessel nor the name of the steamship line nor the anticipated date of sailing, if known, should be mentioned. Mentioning such information in a telegram may result in a denial of insurance to the applicant. Any envelope transmitting a letter containing such information should be marked "confidential."

§ 305.3 Binding of risk. After receipt of a proper order to bind cargo war risk insurance, the War Shipping Administration will reply by telegram.

(a) If such an order has been submitted by telegram and is acceptable to the War Shipping Administration, the effective date of binding will be determined as follows:

(1) If War Shipping Administration has been instructed to bind insurance and to use the applicant's special guarantee premium account (§ 305.7) then if such an account is in good standing with a balance sufficient in amount to cover in full all unpaid premium liabilities including the premium on the risk submitted, the binding will be made effective subject to the policy warranties at the time of the day the telegraphic request to bind insurance is received by War Shipping Administration, provided the time of the day of the sending of the request telegram is not later than 4:00 P. M., Local War Time.

(2) If War Shipping Administration has been instructed to bind insurance and to use the applicant's special guarantee premium account (§ 305.7) then if such account is in good standing with a balance sufficient in amount to cover in full all unpaid premium liabilities including the premium on the risk submitted, but the time of the day of the sending of the telegram is later than 4:00 P. M., Local War Time, and the telegram is received by War Shipping Administration at Washington prior to 9:00 A. M., Eastern War Time of the following business day, the binding will be made effective subject to the policy warranties at 9:00 A. M., Eastern War Time of the day following the day of the sending of the request telegram; and if the request telegram is not received by War Shipping Administration at Washington until after 9:00 A. M., Eastern War Time of the day following the day of the sending thereof the binding will be made effective subject to the policy warranties at the time when the telegram is received.

(3) If the War Shipping Administration has been instructed to bind insurance, but a special guarantee premium account is not maintained by the applicant or, if maintained, is not in good standing, the binding will be made effective subject to the policy warranties at the time of the typing of the Administration's reply telegram or letter; but this binding shall be subject to the condition subsequent that if the payment of premium is not received in accordance with the provisions of § 305.5 hereof by the War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance or one of its specified representatives appointed to receive premiums, prior to 3:00 P. M., Local War Time, of the second business day following the day of the sending of the Administration's reply telegram or letter then the binding shall automatically become canceled and ineffective from inception.

(b) If such an order has been submitted by letter and is acceptable to the War Shipping Administration the effective date of the binding will be determined as follows:

(1) If War Shipping Administration has been instructed to bind insurance and to use the applicant's special guarantee premium account (§ 305.7) then if such an account is in good standing with a balance sufficient in amount to cover in full all unpaid premium liabilities including the premium on the risk submitted, the binding will be made effective subject to the policy warranties at the time that the letter is received by the Division of Wartime Insurance.

(2) If War Shipping Administration has been instructed to bind insurance but a special guarantee premium account is not maintained by the applicant or, if maintained, is not in good standing, the binding will be made effective subject to the policy warranties at the time of the typing of the Administration's reply telegram or letter; but this binding shall be subject to the condition subsequent that if payment of premium is not received in accordance with the provisions of § 305.5 hereof by the War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance, or one of the specified representatives appointed to receive premiums, prior to 3:00 P. M., Local War Time, of the second business day following the day of the sending of the Administration's reply telegram or letter, then the binding shall automatically become canceled and ineffective from inception.

(c) A confirmation copy of any telegram sent by the War Shipping Administration will always be mailed by the War Shipping Administration to the party to whom the original telegram has been sent and this confirmation copy will set forth the day and hour it was typed.

§ 305.4 Quotation of rate. Whenever an applicant for cargo war risk insurance desires to bind war risk insurance on a shipment of cargo for which there is no applicable rate in a rate schedule published by the War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance, a quotation of an applicable rate may be obtained by submitting to War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance, at Room 4089, Commerce Building, Washington, D. C., by means of a letter or a telegram a request for a quotation which must specify the commodity and the voyage involved, and that Standard Optional Endorsement No. I is to be provided if such additional coverage is desired.

(a) The War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance, will consider the request for quotation and will make an appropriate reply by telegram. If a definite rate is quoted, such a rate will be recorded by the War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance, on such a basis that it will become a permanent part of its records.

(b) Whenever an applicant for cargo war risk insurance receives a definite rate quotation and desires to bind insurance at the quoted rate, an order to bind insurance in accordance with the procedure set forth in § 305.2 should be submitted within two business days following the day of the sending of the Administration's telegram containing the quotation or the quotation will expire.

§ 305.5 Procedure established for payment of premium. Whenever an applicant for insurance desires to make a payment of premium (other than to the designated representative of the War Shipping Administration in San Juan, Puerto Rico, (§ 305.6)) the procedure herein specified should be followed:

(a) There must be presented by letter or delivery to the War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance, at Room 4897, Commerce Building, Washington, D. C., or to any one of the district agents, managers, and/or representatives of the War Shipping Administration listed in § 305.18 an original and two copies of a properly prepared premium receipt on the form specified in § 305.15 together with a certified check, cashier's check or money order payable to the order of the War Shipping Administration in an amount equal to the amount of the premium set forth in the receipt. Each of the said premium receipts will be stamped and signed to acknowledge receipt of the amount of premium corresponding to the amount of payment, and the original and one copy of the premium receipt will be returned.

NOTE: When any payment of premium is made by mail the enclosure of a self-addressed, properly stamped return envelope will be appreciated, and will facilitate the expeditious return of the original and one copy of the signed premium receipt.

§ 305.6 Payment of premium in San Juan, Puerto Rico. Whenever an applicant for insurance desires to make a payment of premium to the designated representative of the War Shipping Administration in San Juan, Puerto Rico, the procedure herein specified should be followed:

(a) There must be presented by letter or delivery to the designated representative in San Juan, Puerto Rico listed in § 305.18 an original and three copies of a properly prepared premium receipt on a form specified in § 305.15, together with a certified check, cashier's check or money order payable to the order of the War Shipping Administration in an amount equal to the amount of the premium set forth in the receipt. Each of the said premium receipts will be stamped and signed to acknowledge receipt of the amount of premium corresponding to the amount of payment and the original and one copy of the premium receipt will be returned.

(b) At the time of making payment of premium there must be exhibited to the designated representative the Administration's reply cable in order that it can be determined then that payment of premium is being timely made.

NOTE: When any payment of premium is made by mail the enclosure of a self-addressed, properly stamped return envelope will be appreciated and will facilitate the expeditious return of the original and one copy of the signed premium receipt.

§ 305.7 Special guarantee premium account. In order to avoid the possibility of lapse in coverage by reason of the inability of an applicant for insurance to pay premium as promptly as required by the provisions of § 305.3, any ship owner, shipper, insurance broker, or other interested party may establish a special guarantee premium account with the War Shipping Administration.

(a) Such an account may be established by mailing or delivering to the War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance, at Room 4897, Commerce Building, Washington, D. C., a cashier's check or certified check payable to the order of the War Shipping Administration in an amount not less than $1,000 and by requesting that such sum be used by the War Shipping Administration for the creation of a special guarantee premium account. The War Shipping Administration will use any check so received to establish a special guarantee premium account. The identity of each account will be maintained by a serial number assigned thereto at the time of the creation of the special guarantee premium account, and the War Shipping Administration will inform the party establishing the same of such serial number. The War Shipping Administration will permit maintenance of this account subject to the option of the War Shipping Administration to discontinue altogether at any time on thirty days notice any or all such special guarantee premium account arrangements and subject to the option of the War Shipping Administration to discontinue any special guarantee premium account where any depositor has made continued attempts to incorrectly use the same. So long as the outstanding premium liabilities at any one time against such special guarantee premium account do not exceed the amount thereof, a special guarantee premium account will be considered in good standing.

§ 305.8 Manner of using a special guarantee premium account. War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance, requires observance of the following regulations by the party in whose name the special guarantee premium account is established:

(a) Whenever any insurance risk has been bound by the War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance, for an assured using a special guarantee premium account, a certified check or cashier's check or money order payable to the order of the War Shipping Administration for the correct amount of premium applicable to a particular binding without any claimed set off or other deductions must be received by the War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance, at Room 4897, Commerce Building, Washington, D. C., or by any one of the district agents, managers and/or representatives of the War Shipping Administration listed in § 305.18 within seven days after the effective time of binding of a particular risk. Such check or money order must bear the serial number assigned to the special guarantee premium account and the applicable binder number; and if the check or money order is in payment of several bindings, it must bear the several binder numbers and be accompanied by a tally slip showing the payment according to the binder numbers.

(b) The War Shipping Administration has the right at any time to withhold, deduct, and use all or any part of the special guarantee premium account to pay for the correct amount of the unpaid premium properly guaranteed by any special guarantee premium account.

(c) The person in whose name the special guarantee premium account is established may not credit a return premium against a special guarantee premium account. A return of premium must be applied for in accordance with the provision of § 305.12.

(d) Failure to comply with the provisions of this (§ 305.8) may result in a finding by the War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance, that the special guarantee premium account is being incorrectly used and in its cancellation.

(e) Whenever War Shipping Administration has been directed to use any special guarantee premium account by any statement contained in a letter or telegram purporting to come from the party in whose name the special guarantee premium account is established, such a letter or telegram shall be conclusive authorization by the party in whose name the special guarantee premium account is established for its use by the War Shipping Administration.

§ 305.9 Issuance of a facultative policy. In order to procure the issuance of a facultative policy, the applicant for insurance must mail a properly prepared binder on the form set forth in § 305.16 immediately after the binder number has been assigned and the signed premium receipts obtained to War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance, at Room 4089, Commerce Building, Washington, D. C.

The applicant for insurance may attach the signed copy of the premium receipt to the binder in order to facilitate the prompt issuance of the facultative policy.

On receipt of the binder (§ 305.16) properly prepared and after payment of the premium War Shipping Administration will prepare, in accordance with the terms of the said binder, and forward in due course, its policy of insurance, provided its instructions have been properly fulfilled; otherwise, instructions by letter will be mailed to the party requesting the insurance.

In order to enable the rendering of prompt and efficient service and in the interests of conservation of paper, the War Shipping Administration reserves the right to decline to issue more than one policy with respect to export shipments for any one shipper or any one agent representing one or more shippers to any one destination on any one vessel.

§ 305.10 Rulings in respect to policy warranties. (a) After the effective binding of war risk insurance on a shipment of cargo, in any instance where an assured believes that it will be impossible to comply with the warranty requiring the goods to be shipped and in transit within thirty days from the effective date of binding, such an assured may apply to the War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance, to modify the warranty. If War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance, is satisfied that an extension of time within which the goods are warranted to be shipped and in transit should be granted it will do so with or without an additional premium.

(b) In respect to the terms and conditions of Clause 9 of the facultative policy which reads "9. If the ordinary course of the transit of the goods is interrupted or terminated by the shipper, consignee, or assured or other party acting on their behalf, this insurance shall forthwith terminate unless otherwise specially agreed by the War Shipping Administration.", War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance, specifically agrees that interruption or termination of the transit by the transportation company or other third party acting on behalf of the assured because of the fact that sufficient tonnage is not available for transportation of the goods from the intended port of shipment shall not terminate this insurance on shipments made in good faith from an original point of shipment in the United States with the bona fide intention of prompt shipment from the United States port.

§ 305.11 Clauses appearing in certain facultative war risk insurance policies. (a) Any cargo war risk insurance covering a shipment of cargo made from any port or place in the World to the United States or to one of the territories and possessions of the United States (which territories and possessions are hereby defined as Alaska, Hawaiian Islands, Virgin Islands, Panama Canal Zone, Puerto Rico, including Vieques Island, American Samoa, Midway Island and Palmyra Island) or covering a shipment of cargo made between ports and places in the United States or between ports and places in any one of the territories and possessions of the United States will be subject to the following clause:

OMNIBUS CLAUSE (1) This policy of insurance covers for account of the Assured and other parties having or acquiring an insurable interest in the insured goods.

(2) Warranted by all Assureds under this insurance that, to the best of their knowledge and belief no person, corporation, partnership or association whose name appears in any Proclaimed List of Blocked Nationals issued by or under authority of the Government of the United States of America or of the government of any nation party signatory of the "United Nations Pact" promulgated on or about January 2, 1942, has any ownership, title or interest in or to the goods insured. The term "Assured" as used in the foregoing warranty shall include all persons claiming under this policy, but no information received by any Assured after the goods have been shipped and insured hereunder, and after he has acquired his title to or interest therein, shall be set up against such Assured as a breach of the above Warranty

(3) Warranted that the Assured in whose name this policy is issued is: If an individual, either a citizen of the United States or a resident within the United States or one of the territories and possessions of the United States; if a partnership or a corporation, that it is organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the United States, a State of the United States, one of the territories and possessions of the United States or a political subdivision thereof; or if a foreign corporation, that it has an office or place of business within the United States or one of the territories and possessions of the United States and that shipments covered hereunder are for the account of said office.

(4) If any person filing a claim under this policy is not a person specified in Clause 3, claim must be filed and required affidavit executed on behalf of said claimant by the Assured named herein unless this requirement is waived or modified by the War Shipping Administration.

(5) Shipments of goods shipped by, to, or at the direction of the Assured and sold by the Assured prior to loading on board the overseas vessel (a) on terms requiring the Assured to provide War Risk Insurance to the port of discharge, or (b) with respect to which written or cabled instructions to provide War Risk Insurance to the port of discharge have been received by the Assured from the purchaser prior to loading on board the overseas vessel, (except goods shipped for the account and at the risk of a branch, subsidiary or affiliate of the Assured), shall in the event of loss be subject to the requirement that the claimant must file an affidavit (unless otherwise permitted by War Shipping Administration) to the effect that the amount claimed does not exceed the actual bona fide sales price less all discounts, plus marine insurance and transportation costs actually incurred with respect to the venture plus the war risk premium payable hereunder if such items are not included in the sales price.

(6) All other shipments of goods shall be subject to either Loss Clause I or Loss Clause II. Unless Loss Clause II is requested at the time of binding, Loss Clause I shall become automatically applicable.

Loss Clause I. (a) In the event of loss the claimant shall be required to file an affidavit to the effect that the amount claimed does not exceed fair market value at place and approximate time of attachment of risk, plus marine insurance and transportation costs incurred with respect to the insured venture, plus war risk insurance premiums payable hereunder. With respect to goods, the fair market value of which at place and approximate time of attachment of risk cannot be readily or satisfactorily determined by established or recognized market quotations, but the goods have been sold to or purchased by the Assured in a bona fide sale between independent parties within the thirty day period prior to attachment of risk, the sale or purchase price shall be deemed prima facie evidence of such fair market value.

(b) In cases where it is impossible to determine the fair market value at place and approximate time of attachment of risk as aforesaid, such affidavit shall be to the effect that the amount claimed does not exceed fair market value at port of arrival on date of attachment of risk.

(c) The affidavit required pursuant to the foregoing paragraphs (a) and (b) shall be subject to the provisions of section 35 (a) of the Criminal Code

Loss Clause II. In the event of loss the Assured named herein shall be required to file an affidavit to the effect that the amount claimed does not exceed the actual bona fide pecuniary loss to the said Assured, exclusive of any allowance for anticipated or accrued profit arising out of the insured venture. Such affidavit shall be subject to the provisions of section 35 (a) of the Criminal Code.

(7) In the event that claim is filed by the Assured named herein on behalf of any other party at interest a further affidavit is also required to the effect that the amount collectible does not exceed the amount which would have been collectible by the Assured named herein if at the time of loss the Assured named herein had full interest in the insured goods. In the event that this policy is issued to an agent for account of a principal named herein, both the agent and the named principal shall be deemed to be included in the term the "Assured named herein" for the purposes of this Loss Clause II.

(b) Whenever the above "Omnibus Clause" is not applicable Clause 10 of the facultative policy reading as follows shall apply:

10. In event of loss the valuation of the goods insured hereunder shall not exceed the invoice cost, or if there be no invoice, the value of the goods at time and place of shipment, plus transportation and insurance charges actually incurred with respect to the shipment plus ten (10) percent.

§ 305.12 Special rules. The following special rules are applicable to the underwriting of facultative cargo war risk insurance:

(a) If a facultative cargo war risk insurance is bound with the War Shipping Administration, the parties at interest may nevertheless place increased value or additional insurance in commercial or other markets in excess of the amount of insurance provided by the War Shipping Administration. Such insurance, if placed, shall not be participating with the War Shipping Administration coverage and shall be without benefit of salvage or right of contribution.

(b) When a facultative war risk insurance is bound, it is not subject to cancellation by the assured unless the goods are not shipped within thirty days following the effective date of binding, and unless the policies are returned for cancellation. Where goods are short-shipped any reduction in amount of insurance will be computed by applying to the original amount of insurance the proportion which the quantity of merchandise short-shipped (i. e. bales, barrels, tons, and other designations of quantity) bears to the total quantity of merchandise originally declared for insurance. Where more than one class of merchandise is insured under one policy (e. g. fuel oil and gasoline) the reduced amount of insurance will be computed separately on each item. Where the amount of insurance is reduced as aforesaid the Administration will give consideration to requests for proportionate returns of premium. All such requests must be submitted in quadruplicate on standard form set forth in Sec. 305.19. No return of premium of less than $100.00 will be allowed unless amounting to 10% or more of the original premium.

(c) All cargo war risk insurances provided by the Division of Wartime Insurance of the War Shipping Administration will be subject to a minimum premium of $10.00 per policy.

(d) The War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance, reserves the right to decline to quote or bind on any risks submitted and to defer quoting or binding on any risks where prompt shipment is not anticipated. The War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance, also reserves the right to decline to quote on or bind insurance on shipments of cargo that could be covered by an open cargo war risk policy provided by the War Shipping Administration unless it can be demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Administration that the risk is not one of a series of similar risks forming part of a continual flow of business for the interested party.

(e) Any telegram or cable dealing with the binding of cargo war risk insurance sent later than 4 P. M. (Local War Time) by an applicant for insurance, shall be considered the next day's business by War Shipping Administration

(f) No risks will be negotiated by telephone excepting in cases of emergency where the delay involved in telegraphic communication might delay the sailing of the vessel.

§ 305.13 Insurance on currency in custody of master of vessel. The War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance, is prepared to insure currency in the custody of the master of the vessel by its facultative cargo war risk insurance policy. Where the destination of a vessel is not known to the owner at the time the insurance is bound, arrangements will be made for providing such insurance at a deposit premium subject to readjustment when all circumstances are known.

(a) Any such insurance will be subject to the following warranty:

Warranted that a qualified officer of the overseas vessel has receipted for the currency by acknowledging deposit of the same in the safe or strong room of the vessel.

§ 305.14 Insurance on collect freight. War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance is prepared to insure "collect freight" by its facultative cargo war risk insurance policy.

(a) The interest insured will be described as "collect freight".

(b) All such policies shall contain one of the following alternative clauses:

(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, this insurance shall be payable only in the event of the total or constructive total loss of the vessel to which the collect freight pertains,

or

(2) In the event of loss, the War Shipping Administration shall not be liable for a greater percentage of the amount insured than would be recoverable under its standard form of cargo war risk policy covering the cargo to which the insured freight applies.

(c) All such policies shall contain both of the following clauses:

(1) Insurance shall not attach hereunder until sailing of vessel from port of loading of cargo to which the insured freight applies, and

(2) Warranted that insurance shall not attach hereunder with respect to shipments from any port from which the vessel has sailed prior to binding of this insurance.

(d) In the event that following attachment of risk, it is demonstrated to the satisfaction of the War Shipping Administration that the total amount of collect freight at risk with respect to the insured venture is less than the amount insured, a pro rata return of premium will be made provided all facts have been presented to the War Shipping Administration as soon as known to the assured.

§ 305.21 Rider to be attached to every facultative policy. Every facultative cargo war risk insurance policy shall be endorsed with the following clauses:

12. Any shipment of cargo excluded from coverage by application of the warranty of Clause "11" will automatically attach hereunder as of the time of the arrival of the vessel and interest insured at the next intermediate port in good safety warranted the premium has been paid in accordance with rules and regulations.

13. The Administrator or his representative duly authorized under administrative orders may waive strict compliance with any warranty or condition of this insurance to the extent that he may determine that it imposes a hardship on any claimant in good faith hereunder which would not be imposed in connection with a policy issued in accordance with commercial practice in the marine insurance business, and to the extent that he may determine such waiver is not contrary to the purposes of the statute under which this policy is issued. In any determination as aforesaid the decision of the Administrator or his duly authorized representative shall be conclusive upon all parties thereto.

14. No premium will in any case be returned to the Assured except in the event of an error made in the application of a rate or in the computation of a premium, or except in the event the insured goods are not shipped or are short-shipped; notwithstanding the foregoing, whenever goods have been overinsured by reason of an error or otherwise, and such fact is discovered and the material facts and circumstances are presented immediately after discovery of the overinsurance and prior to the time when the overseas vessel reaches the destination port in safety, to the War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance, then the Division of Wartime Insurance will give consideration to an application for a return premium and if in its sole discretion the Division of Wartime Insurance is satisfied that the Assured acted in good faith and that the instance is one in which in commercial practice a return premium would be made, it will grant the appropriate return premium.

(For marks, numbers, and special conditions)

1. This insurance is only against the risks of capture, seizure, destruction, or damage by men of war, piracy, takings at sea, arrests, restraints and detainments, and other warlike operations and acts of kings, princes, and peoples in prosecution of hostilities or in the application of sanctions under international agreements whether before or after declaration of war and whether by a belligerent or otherwise, including factions engaged in civil war, revolution, rebellion or insurrection or civil strife arising therefrom, and including the risks of aerial bombardment, floating or stationary mines, and stray or derelict torpedoes; but excluding claims for delay, deterioration and or loss of market, and warranted not to abandon (on any ground other than physical damage to ship or cargo) until after condemnation of the property insured. Also warranted not to abandon in case of blockade, and free from any claims for loss or expense in consequence of blockade or of any attempt to evade blockade; but in the event of blockade, to be at liberty to proceed to an open port and there end the voyage.

2. Warranted free from any claim based upon loss of, or frustration of, the insured voyage or adventure caused by arrests, restraints or detainments.

3. This insurance does not cover any loss or damage caused by or resulting from any of the following causes:

(a) Commandeering, preemption, requisition, or nationalization by the government (de facto or otherwise) of the country to or from which the goods are insured.

(b) Seizure or destruction under quarantine or customs regulations.

(c) Capture, seizure, arrest, restraint, detainment, or condemnation by the Government of the United States of America, or of any State, territory, or possession thereof, or by any government which is or may become party signatory of the "United Nations Pact" and the goods hereby insured shall be discharged at such port, then, if the goods be not the subject of proceedings of the nature set forth in clause 3 (a), such port or place of discharge shall be deemed a port or place of transshipment within the meaning of clause (4) (c) of this Policy.

4. This insurance shall not attach to the interest hereby insured or to any part thereof:

(a) Prior to being on board an overseas vessel (for the purpose of this clause 4 an overseas vessel shall be deemed to mean a vessel carrying the interest from one port or place to another where such voyage involves a sea passage by that vessel);

(b) after being discharged overside from an overseas vessel at the final port of discharge,

or

after expiry of fifteen days counting from midnight of the day on which the overseas vessel is safely anchored or moored at the final port of discharge, whichever shall first occur;

(c) at a port or place of transshipment to another overseas vessel after the expiry of fifteen days (counting from midnight of the day on which the overseas vessel entering with the interest is safely anchored or moored) until the interest is on board the oncarrying overseas vessel. In the event of the exercise of any liberty granted to the Shipowner or Charterer under the contract of affreightment whereby such contract is terminated at a port or place other than the destination named therein such port or place shall be deemed the final port of discharge for the purpose of this clause 4.

5. Subject to the terms of clause 4 above and to any conditions or warranties which may be endorsed hereon, it is agreed that this insurance shall not be vitiated by deviation, overcarriage, change of voyage, or by any error or unintentional omission in the description of interest, vessel or voyage, provided the same be communicated to the War Shipping Administration as soon as known to the Assured and an additional premium paid if required.

6. And in case of any loss or misfortune, it shall be lawful and necessary to and for the Assured, his or their factors, servants and assigns, to sue, labor, and travel for, in and about the defense, safeguard and recovery of the said goods and merchandises, or any part thereof without prejudice to this insurance; nor shall the acts of the Assured or Assurers, in recovering, saving, and preserving the property insured, in case of disaster, be considered a waiver or an acceptance of an abandonment; and to the charges whereof, the said Assurers will contribute according to the rate and quantity of the sum hereby insured.

7. General Average and salvage charges (resulting from a peril hereby insured against) payable according to Foreign Statement or York-Antwerp Rules if in accordance with the contract of affreightment.

8. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Policy, it is understood and agreed:

(a) That no claim for freight, storage, or other expense due to the requisition or commandeering of the title or use of any vessel by or with the consent of the country whose flag she flies shall be payable under this insurance, and if as a result of such requisition or commandeering the insured cargo is discharged at a port or place other than the port or place of destination, the port or place of discharge shall be deemed a port or place of transshipment within the meaning of clause 4 (c) of this Policy.

(b) That if any vessel shall be ordered into or detained in any port by the United States Government or by any government which is or may become party signatory of the "United Nations Pact" and the goods hereby insured shall be discharged at such port, then, if the goods be not the subject of proceedings of the nature set forth in clause 3 (a), such port or place of discharge shall be deemed a port or place of transshipment within the meaning of clause (4) (c) of this Policy.

9. If the ordinary course of transit of the goods hereby insured is interrupted or terminated by the shipper, consignee, or assured or any party acting on their behalf, this insurance shall forthwith terminate unless otherwise specially agreed by the War Shipping Administration.

10. In event of loss the valuation of the goods insured hereunder shall not exceed the invoice cost, or if there be no invoice the value of the goods at time and place of shipment, plus transportation and insurance charges actually incurred with respect to the shipment, plus ten (10) percent.

11. Warranted that the goods insured hereunder have not become waterborne on overseas vessel prior to the date of this insurance, or if waterborne are in good safety in port at day and hour of attachment of risk.

In the event of loss which may give rise to a claim under this Policy, prompt notice should be given to the War Shipping Administration at 99 John Street, New York City.

In witness whereof the War Shipping Administration has caused this Policy to be signed by the Administrator at Washington, D. C., but this Policy shall not be valid unless countersigned by or on behalf of the Director of Wartime Insurance. Countersigned this ---------- day of ----------, 194--.

OPEN POLICY CARGO WAR RISK INSURANCE

§ 305.100 General. War Shipping Administration is prepared to provide an open cargo war risk insurance policy covering imports to the United States and to the territories and possessions of the United States, and covering shipments of cargo made between ports and places in the United States and ports and places in its territories and possessions, and between ports and places in the United States, and between ports and places in any one of the territories and possessions of the United States. Such open policy will be subject to the standard war risk open cargo policy form of the War Shipping Administration hereinafter referred to as the Warshipopencargo Policy, and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER as a part hereof. All such policies will be issued on behalf of the War Shipping Administration by underwriting agents appointed by the Administration for this purpose. Underwriting agents will in all instances be insurance companies licensed to do a marine insurance business in a state of the United States.

§ 305.101 Limitation of persons to whom a Warshipopencargo Policy may be issued. A Warshipopencargo Policy may be issued to an individual who is either a citizen of the United States, or a resident within the United States or one of the territories and possessions of the United States; or to a partnership or corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the United States, a state of the United States, one of the territories and possessions of the United States or a political subdivision thereof; or to a foreign corporation if such corporation has an office or place of business within the United States or one of the territories and possessions of the United States but only with respect to shipments occurring for the account of such an office.

§ 305.102 Application for issuance of a Warshipopencargo Policy. Application for a Warshipopencargo Policy is made by filing Form No. 1 (§ 305.150) properly filled out, with an underwriting agent of the War Shipping Administration. The application for a Warshipopencargo Policy must contain the applicant's address and must specify the basis of valuation to be incorporated in the Warshipopencargo Policy. Any basis of valuation may be specified by the assured which defines the value on the basis of facts which were existent prior to shipment, and which are readily ascertainable by either party subsequent to safe arrival or loss.

§ 305.103 Requirement of premium collateral. Any application for the issuance of a Warshipopencargo Policy is ineffective unless a collateral deposit fund is established and maintained or a surety bond procured and maintained, in accordance with the regulations in § 305.105 and § 305.106 respectively.

§ 305.104 Issuance of Warshipopencargo Policy. The underwriting agent must issue the Warshipopencargo Policy within fifteen (15) days after the accomplishment by the applicant of the requirements set forth in § 305.102 and § 305.103 unless the time for issuance is extended by the Director of Wartime Insurance in writing. The underwriting agent must not make any Warshipopencargo Policy effective with respect to shipments attaching on a date earlier than the date when the application was accomplished, but must make it effective on the date of the accomplishment of the application or any date thereafter as directed by the applicant.

§ 305.105 Collateral deposit. An assured electing to use a cash collateral deposit as the method of complying with § 305.103 is required to act in accordance with the regulations prescribed herein, and to comply with the requirements of Clause 13 of Part II (§ 305.118) of Warshipopencargo Policy at all times.

(a) An applicant desiring to establish a collateral deposit fund must deposit with an underwriting agent of the War Shipping Administration by whom the policy is to be issued, a certified check or cashier's check payable to the order of the Treasurer of the United States in an amount not less that $1,000, together with a letter of transmittal Form No. 2 (§ 305.151) executed by the assured. Such a deposit when received will be held by War Shipping Administration under a serial number assigned thereto.

(b) In the event any assured fails to pay any premium due under any Warshipopencargo Policy issued by or on behalf of the War Shipping Administration as the same becomes due and payable, it will cause a default to arise, and such default will result in the automatic cancellation of the policy in accordance with the terms of Clause 12 of Part II (§ 305.118), and will enable War Shipping Administration to deduct all due amounts from such assured's collateral deposit fund, unless the assured complies within the prescribed time with the provisions of said Clause 12.

(c) Changes for amounts not less than $500 and by multiples of $500, in the amount of the assured's collateral deposit fund may be effected by the assured at any time. The effect of any action taken by an assured shall be the sole responsibility of the assured, and shall in no manner relieve the assured of the responsibility imposed by Clause 13 of Part II (§ 305.118) of the Warshipopencargo Policy.

(d) Increase in the amount of the collateral deposit fund will become effective upon the date of the receipt by the underwriting agent (meaning thereby the particular underwriting agent of the War Shipping Administration by whom the policy was issued to the assured) of a valid certified check or cashier's check payable to the order of the Treasurer of the United States accompanied by the transmittal Form No. 2 (§ 305.151) executed by the assured.

(e) Decrease in the amount of the collateral deposit fund will become effective, except as to shipments which at the time of the application for decrease have then attached under the Warshipopencargo Policy and on which premium has not been paid in full, upon the date of the receipt (as acknowledged) by the specified underwriting agent of Form No. 10 (§ 305.159) executed by the assured. Where Form No. 10 (§ 305.159) properly filled out is receipted for by an underwriting agent, the effect is such that with respect to all shipments which have not then attached, the assured admits for all purposes except the actual repayment of that part of the collateral deposit fund that actual repayment has been made.

Unless an assured has substituted a surety bond in an amount at least equal to the collateral deposit fund before receipt by the specified underwriting agent of Form No. 10 (§ 305.159), (or unless, with respect to a policy issued to an assured which is a department or agency of the United States or acting on behalf of such a department or agency, War Shipping Administration has waived in writing the requirement for the maintenance of a collateral deposit fund), an assured will not become entitled to reimbursement by the War Shipping Administration of the collateral deposit fund until a closing report is filed and premium has been paid in full with respect to all shipments which had attached at the time of the receipt by the underwriting agent of the application for decrease and an affidavit executed in duplicate as prescribed on Form No. 7 (§ 305.156) has been filed with the underwriting agent.

No decrease, other than for complete withdrawal of the collateral deposit, will be accepted which would bring the amount of deposit lower than the required minimum deposit of $1,000.

(f) Whenever an assured becomes entitled to a refund of the collateral deposit in whole or in part, by reason of the cancellation of the Warshipopencargo Policy (or, by reason of the waiver by War Shipping Administration of the requirement of maintaining the collateral deposit fund on a Warshipopencargo Policy issued to an assured which is a department or agency of the United States or acting on behalf of such a department or agency) or, by reason of the substitution of a surety bond in place and stead of the collateral deposit fund, as hereinbefore provided, War Shipping Administration will, upon completion of the foregoing requirements, cause payment to be made by the Treasury of the United States to the party in whose name the collateral deposit was established.

(g) The foregoing language shall not be construed as a requirement that an assured who hereafter originally makes a collateral deposit must begin the deposit with a sum of money in an equal multiple of $500, or who has already established a deposit, must change the sum of money on deposit to an equal multiple of $500.

§ 305.106 Surety bond. An assured electing to use a surety bond as the method of complying with § 305.103 is required to act in accordance with the regulations prescribed herein and to comply with the requirements of Clause 13, Part II (§ 305.118) of Warshipopencargo Policy at all times.

(a) An applicant desiring to furnish a surety bond must present to, and file with, the underwriting agent of the War Shipping Administration through whom the policy is issued a surety bond executed by the assured as principal and by the surety, the bond to be in the form prescribed by the War Shipping Administration (§ 305.163 or § 305.164). Such bond must be for an amount not less amount of the surety bond lower than

(a) Upon the filing with the specified bond must be for an amount not less than $1,000.

(b) The sufficiency of the surety executing the bond shall be subject to approval by the War Shipping Administration. The underwriting agent may accept on behalf of the War Shipping Administration a surety bond executed by a surety named on the United States Treasury Department's approved list of sureties whose bonds are acceptable to the United States Treasury Department to secure obligations due the United States, provided the bond is within the maximum amount for which the surety is so authorized to write bonds as shown by the said approved list.

If the proposed surety is not on said approved list, the underwriting agent, before accepting the surety bond, shall first secure the specific written approval of the Assistant Deputy Administrator for Fiscal Affairs, War Shipping Administration, or his properly authorized designee.

(c) In the event any assured fails to pay any premium due under any Warshipopencargo Policy issued by or on behalf of the War Shipping Administration as the same becomes due and payable, it will cause a default to arise, and such default will result in the automatic cancellation of the policy in accordance with the terms of Clause 12 of Part II (§ 305.118) and all due amounts will become a liability collectible under said bond and from the assured, unless the assured complies within the prescribed time with all the provisions of said Clause 12.

(d) The forms of bond shall be as set forth in §§ 305.163 and 305.164 and no variation therefrom shall be permitted except with the express written approval of the Director of Wartime Insurance, War Shipping Administration.

(e) Changes in amount not less than $500 and by multiples of $500 of an assured's surety bond may be effected by the assured at any time. The effect of any action taken by an assured shall be the sole responsibility of the assured and shall in no manner relieve the assured of the responsibility imposed by Clause 13 of Part II (§ 305.118) of the Warshipopencargo Policy.

(f) Increases in the amount of a surety bond will become effective upon the date of the receipt by the specified underwriting agent of a valid rider to the Surety Bond Form No. 4 (§ 305.153) countersigned by the surety company, accompanied by transmittal Form No. 3 (§ 305.152) executed by the assured.

(g) Decrease in the amount of the surety bond will become effective, except as to shipments which at the time of the receipt by the underwriting agent of the application for decrease have then attached under the Warshipopencargo Policy and on which premium has not been paid in full, upon the date of the receipt by the specified underwriting agent of a valid rider to the Surety Bond Form No. 4 (§ 305.153) countersigned by the surety company, accompanied by transmittal Form No. 3 (§ 305.152) executed by the assured.

No decrease, except for cancellation, will be accepted which would bring the amount of the surety bond lower than the required minimum amount of $1,000.

(h) Whenever an assured becomes entitled to cancellation of a surety bond by reason of the cancellation of the Warshipopencargo Policy, (or, with respect to a policy issued to an Assured which is a department or agency of the United States or acting on behalf of such a department or agency, by reason of the waiver by War Shipping Administration of the requirement of maintaining a surety bond) or, by reason of the substitution of a collateral deposit fund of at least equal amount in place and stead of the surety bond, War Shipping Administration will cause a release to be executed; and hereby authorizes its underwriting agents to execute the release as set forth in Form No. 6 (§ 305.155). Such a release must not be effective sooner than, and shall be of even date with, (1) the effective date of the cancellation of the policy when the cancellation of the surety bond is for that reason, or (2) the date of a written directive of War Shipping Administration waiving the requirement of the surety bond when the cancellation is for that reason, or (3) the time when the collateral deposit fund has been established when the cancellation of the surety bond is for that reason.

(i) The foregoing language shall not be construed as a requirement that an assured who hereafter originally files a surety bond must procure a surety bond in an amount which is an equal multiple of $500, or who has already filed a surety bond, must change the amount of the surety bond to an equal multiple of $500.

(j) Whenever any assured has established a cash collateral deposit and desires to increase the amount of security by procuring and maintaining a surety bond in addition to the amount of that cash collateral deposit, the assured must procure from the surety company at the time when the bond is procured, unless otherwise agreed by War Shipping Administration, an agreement in writing signed by the surety company to the effect that the surety company considers its bond to be in addition to the amount of security provided by the cash collateral deposit for so long as the cash collateral deposit is maintained. The agreement must further provide, that if all or any part of that cash collateral deposit is thereafter withdrawn, the said surety bond, subject to the limitation of the principal amount thereof, will automatically replace the amount withdrawn from that cash collateral deposit to the extent of any one or more withdrawals and will become full security to War Shipping Administration to the extent of any one or more withdrawals from that cash collateral deposit. The increase of collateral shall become effective when both such a surety bond and such an agreement are filed with the underwriting agent.

§ 305.107. Cancellation of Warshipopencargo Policy. To effect the cancellation of a Warshipopencargo Policy, the assured shall be guided by the following regulations:

(a) Upon the filing with the specified underwriting agent of an application for cancellation of a Warshipopencargo Policy on Form No. 5 (§ 305.154) executed by the assured, together with the original Warshipopencargo Policy, cancellation of the assured's Warshipopencargo Policy will be effected with respect to all risks which have not attached prior to the effective date of cancellation (which, unless otherwise mutually agreed, must be a date not sooner than fifteen days following receipt by the specified underwriting agent of the application for cancellation). Such cancellation shall not affect the obligation of the assured to file closing reports with respect to all risks which attached prior to the effective date of cancellation and to pay all unpaid premium. Within four months of the effective date of cancellation, unless otherwise agreed by War Shipping Administration in writing, the assured must file a closing report in duplicate of all shipments covered by the Warshipopencargo Policy for which closing reports have not been previously filed.

The assured shall be required to mark this closing report "Final Closing Report on Cancellation of Policy", and file an affidavit on Form No. 9 (§ 305.158) executed by the assured in duplicate. Thereafter when all unpaid premium has been paid, the assured becomes entitled to a refund of the collateral deposit, or cancellation of the surety bond in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this General Order No. 6 (§§ 305.105 and 305.106).

(b) Whenever the assured has lost or mislaid the original policy and is unable to produce the same in order to effect the cancellation thereof, the assured shall be required to execute a letter of indemnity and such other documents as may be required by the War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance.

§ 305.108 Declaration of shipments of cargo under Warshipopencargo Policy. Not later than the twenty-fifth day of each month, the assured must make a closing report to the underwriting agent of all shipments as prescribed in Clause 11 of Part II of Warshipopencargo Policy and must pay premium in accordance with the terms thereof.

(a) Closing reports must be in duplicate and upon standard form set forth in § 305.162, and must be supported by the execution of the prescribed affidavit form No. 11 (§ 305.160), which affidavit must be attached to the closing report or embodied in the closing report form.

(b) In the event that the assured has no shipments for any preceding calendar month to report during any given month, the standard form of closing report must nonetheless be filed as prescribed herein and either or both of the following statements depending upon their applicability to the assured must be noted thereon:

1. It is certified that no inward shipment coming within the scope of this policy arrived at destination during the preceding calendar month, and that during the preceding calendar month no knowledge has come to the assured of an inward shipment covered under the terms of the policy which will not arrive by reason of loss, frustration or other similar cause.

2. It is certified that no outward shipment coming within the scope of this policy was made during the preceding calendar month.

(c) For the purpose of declaring shipments of cargo insured by a Warshipopencargo Policy, each such shipment must be classified as either an inward or an outward shipment.

Classification shall be determined by reference to the geographical location of the assured under a Warshipopencargo Policy with respect to the movement of the shipment. For the purpose of determining the geographical location of the assured the address stated in the application for the Warshipopencargo policy shall be deemed the assured's geographical location.

Thus, if an assured has stated in his application that his address is in Hawaii, and the assured's Warshipopencargo Policy covers shipments (1) of manufactured goods from the United States to Hawaii and (2) of pineapple from Hawaii to the United States, the geographical situation of the assured in relation to the movement of said shipments would be such that (1) would be classified inward and (2) would be classified outward

(d) Each closing report of shipments must keep distinct the classification of outward or inward by reporting all outward shipments on one report and all inward shipments on another report, and in an instance where a single insured voyage presents a combination of an inward and outward shipment, the assured must declare the entire voyage on the inward shipment form, as the same will be deemed an inward shipment for the purposes of reporting. When an assured has neither an inward nor an outward shipment to report, one closing report may be filed in duplicate which shall include both affidavits called for by the provisions of § 305.108 (b).

(e) Whenever a sea passage is made with respect to cargo covered under a Warshipopencargo Policy by a barge or sailing vessel the assured shall be required to note that fact upon the closing report, unless otherwise agreed.

(f) An assured reporting for one calendar month must not include therein a report of a shipment due to be reported in the report for the next succeeding calendar month. Thus, the report of January closing shipments filed in February should not include February closings.

(g) Whenever any assured files a closing report and thereafter discovers that one or more additional shipments were properly required to have been included in said report, then, even though the assured has executed either the affidavit on Form No. 9 (§ 305.158) or Form No. 11 (§ 305.160) in connection with such a closing report the assured must nevertheless amend such a closing report by filing a supplemental closing report supported by the appropriate affidavit. A statement in writing signed by the assured must accompany such a supplemental closing report, and the reasons for the omission of such shipments from the original closing report must be set forth in this statement. In the event that by means of such a statement it is demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Administrator that the failure to file a completed closing report was either inadvertent or unintentional or arose by reason of causes beyond the control of the assured, then the automatic termination of the policy by reason of a breach of the warranty embodied in Clause 11 of Part II of the Warshipopencargo Policy form (§ 305.118) shall be avoided pursuant to the provisions of Clause 15 of Part II of the Warshipopencargo Policy form (§ 305.118).

§ 305.109 Payment of premium and fees. Any closing report called for by the terms of Clause 11 of Part II of the Warshipopencargo Policy form (§ 305.118) required to be filed in the manner specified in § 305.108 on which premium is required to be paid, obligates an assured to submit with the closing report a certified check or cashier's check for the full amount of the premium, computed on the basis provided for in the policy.

Any fee required to be paid by the provisions of Clauses 11 or 13 of Part II of the Warshipopencargo Policy form (§ 305.118) or by any other provision of or regulation in respect to the Warshipopencargo Policy form obligates an assured to submit a separate certified check or cashier's check for the amount thereof to the underwriting agent as provided in said clauses or regulations.

Any such check must be made payable to the order of the Treasurer of the United States.

A separate certified check or cashier's check must accompany each inward closing report or set of such inward closing reports in payment of premium due thereunder; a separate certified check or cashier's check must accompany each outward closing report or set of such outward closing reports in payment of premium due thereunder; and a separate certified check or cashier's check must be drawn to pay the amount of any fee required to be paid.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, with respect to any payment, which by the terms of the Warshipopencargo Policy or regulation in relation thereto, has been hitherto acceptable in the form of a money order, War Shipping Administration will continue to accept payment through the medium of a money order on any payment made prior to April 1, 1943.

§ 305.110 Return premium. No premium will in any case be returned to the assured with respect to a shipment of goods which attached under a Warshipopencargo Policy except in the event of a declaration of value at variance with the provisions of the valuation clause, or except in the event of an error made in the application of a rate or in the computation of a premium, or except in the event the insured goods are short-shipped.

Any claim for return premium must be filed on the standard return premium form (§ 305.161). Such form must be filed in duplicate with the specified underwriting agent who will transmit the same to the War Shipping Administration for payment.

§ 305.111. Payment in event of loss under Warshipopencargo Policy. All claims for losses recoverable under the terms of a Warshipopencargo Policy issued by the War Shipping Administration should be filed by the assured with the underwriting agent by whom the policy was issued. Such claims should be supported by the customary documents required in connection with war risk insurance claims, together with whatever appropriate affidavits are required by the loss provisions of the Warshipopencargo Policy, and such further data as may now or hereafter be required by the War Shipping Administration.

§ 305.112 Filing of affidavit in connection with the requirement of Clause 13, Part II. Whenever the assured inadvertently fails to maintain a collateral deposit fund or a surety bond in an amount sufficient so that at all times such amount is in excess of the unpaid premium then or thereafter payable with respect to any or all risks which have attached under the terms of the policy and Clause 13 of Part II of the Warshipopencargo Policy form becomes operative the assured must act in accordance with the provisions of said clause in order to continue the uninterrupted coverage of the policy.

(a) The assured must file an affidavit in the form set forth in § 305.166 executed in duplicate with the underwriting agent within the time specified in Clause 13 of Part II of the Warshipopencargo Policy form unless the time for filing such an affidavit is extended by permission of the War Shipping Administration.

(b) If the space provided in the form affidavit for an explanation of the circumstances by which the assured first had knowledge that the collateral became exceeded is not sufficient, then the assured should attach to the affidavit a detailed statement including the same by reference in the affidavit prior to the execution thereof.

§ 305.113 Additional insurance. Where war risk insurance on cargo is placed with the War Shipping Administration under a Warshipopencargo Policy, the parties at interest may place increased value or additional insurance in commercial or other markets beyond the amount of insurance provided in the War Shipping Administration policy. Such insurance, if placed, need not be participating with the War Shipping Administration coverage, and shall be without benefit of salvage or right of contribution.

§ 305.118 Warshipopencargo Policy form. The following is the form of the Warshipopencargo Policy.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

WAR SHIPPING ADMINISTRATION

WARSHIPOPENCARGO POLICY

Part I

This policy shall consist of this Part I and Part II published in the FEDERAL REGISTER under date of March 20, 1943, as part of General Order No. 6 of the War Shipping Administration. Part II shall be deemed incorporated herein and made a part of this contract, and this contract shall be subject to the terms and conditions of both parts. This policy may be amended by endorsement attached hereto and executed on behalf of the Administrator of the War Shipping Administration by a duly authorized Underwriting Agent pursuant to prior written or telegraphic instructions from the War Shipping Administration or by publication of an amendment to the Warshipopencargo Policy form in the FEDERAL REGISTER. In the latter event such amendment shall become effective upon the date of the publication of the amendment in the FEDERAL REGISTER or upon such date as may be specified therein: Provided, however, That no amendment which is restrictive in effect upon an Assured shall become effective prior to 48 hours after the date of such publication and no such restrictive amendment shall affect any shipments which shall have attached hereunder prior to the effective date of such an amendment. In the event that the Assured is unwilling to accept any amendment to this policy, he shall have the option of terminating this policy as of the effective date of such amendment upon written or telegraphic notice to the Administrator, War Shipping Administration prior to such effective date.

Effective as to shipments

a. Under Ocean Bills of Lading dated on and after ----------, or

b. If Ocean Bills of Lading not issued, under equivalent shipping documents dated on or after said date, or

c. If no Ocean Bills of Lading or equivalent shipping documents are issued or the same are undated, laden on overseas vessel on and after said date, and in consideration of the establishment and maintenance of a collateral deposit fund or the procuring and maintenance of a surety bond in accordance with Clause 13 of Part II of this policy, and of premiums computed and paid as provided in Clause 11, Part II of this policy, War Shipping Administration by this policy of insurance hereby insures against War Risks as specified in Part II with respect to all imports to the Continental United States (excluding Alaska) and such other shipments coming within the scope of this policy by endorsement hereto (except as to such shipments as may be specifically excluded from this policy by special agreement noted hereon by endorsement and except as to such goods which the Assured may purchase upon terms requiring the seller to place War Risk Insurance thereon):

(1) Shipped or consigned to, or by, the Assured and for his account and risk,

(2) Shipped or consigned to or by other parties for the account and at the risk of the Assured.

(3) Shipped by, to, or at the direction of the Assured and sold by him prior to loading on board overseas vessel (a) on terms requiring the Assured to provide war risk insurance to the port of discharge, or (b) with respect to which written or cabled instructions to provide war risk insurance to the port of discharge have been received by the Assured from the purchaser prior to loading of the goods on board the overseas vessel.

Shipments included herein by this paragraph (3) shall be subject to the condition that in the event of loss of goods sold by the Assured prior to loading on board the overseas vessel and shipped for the account and at the risk of third parties other than a branch, subsidiary or affiliate of the Assured, the named Assured shall be required to file in lieu of the affidavit required by Clauses (a) (b) (c) below or by Standard Optional Endorsement No. XII if endorsed hereon, an affidavit to the effect that the amount claimed does not exceed the actual bona fide sales price less all discounts, plus marine insurance and transportation costs actually incurred with respect to the venture plus the war risk premium payable hereunde: if such items are not included in the sales price. Claim shall be filed by the named Assured unless otherwise permitted by the War Shipping Administration for good cause shown.

(4) Shipped by, to, or at the direction of th Assured and sold by the Assured subsequent to the attachment of risk hereunder on terms requiring the Assured to provide war risk insurance to the port of discharge, subject to the condition that in the event of loss the amount collectible shall not exceed the amount which would have been collectible by the Assured if the Assured at the time of loss had retained full interest in the insured goods.

For the purpose of this insurance, goods insured hereunder shall be valued at--------

Except as hereinbefore provided:

(a) In the event of loss the Assured shall be required to file an affidavit to the effect that the amount claimed does not exceed fair market value at place and approximate time of attachment of risk, plus marine insurance and transportation costs incurred with respect to the insured voyage, plus war risk insurance premiums payable hereunder. With respect to goods, the fair market value of which at place and approximate time of attachment of risk cannot be readily or satisfactorily determined by established or recognized market quotations, but the goods have been sold to or purchased by the Assured in a bona fide sale between independent parties within the thirty day period prior to attachment of risk, the sale or purchase price shall be deemed prima facie evidence of such fair market value.

(b) In cases where it is impossible to determine the fair market value at place and approximate time of attachment of risk as aforesaid, such affidavit shall be to the effect that the amount claimed does not exceed fair market value at port of arrival on date of attachment of risk.

(c) The affidavit required pursuant to the foregoing paragraphs (a) and (b) shall be subject to the provisions of Section 35 (a) of the Criminal Code.

This policy may be canceled at any time upon 15 days written or telegraphic notice to or by the Assured or 15 days subsequent to the publication of a notice of cancellation in the FEDERAL REGISTER or at such other date as may be mutually agreed: Provided, however, That no such cancellation shall terminate this policy with respect to any shipments which have become at risk under the terms hereof prior to the effective date of such notice.

In the event of loss which may give rise to claim under this policy, prompt notice should be given to the Underwriting Agent of the War Shipping Administration by whom this policy is countersigned.

Any loss payable hereunder shall be payable in funds current in the United States, to the order of ----------

---

30 days after all proofs of loss and proofs of interest have been filed with the War Shipping Administration.

This policy is subject to all rules and regulations pertaining hereto which may now or hereafter from time to time be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

In witness whereof the War Shipping Administration has caused this policy to be signed by the Administrator at Washington, D. C. but this policy shall not be valid unless countersigned by a duly authorized Underwriting Agent of the War Shipping Administration.

WAR SHIPPING ADMINISTRATION

WARSHIPOPENCARGO FORM—FORM OF POLICY

Part II

1. This insurance is only against the risks of capture, seizure, destruction or damage by men of war, piracy, takings at sea, arrests, restraints and detainments, and other warlike operations and acts of kings, princes, and peoples in prosecution of hostilities or in the application of sanctions under international agreements, whether before or after declaration of war and whether by a belligerent or otherwise, including factions engaged in civil war, revolution, rebellion or insurrection, or civil strife arising therefrom, and including the risks of aerial bombardment, floating or stationary mines, and stray or derelict torpedoes; but excluding claims for delay, deterioration and/or loss of market, and warranted not to abandon (on any ground other than physical damage to ship or cargo) until after condemnation of the property insured. Also warranted not to abandon in case of blockade, and free from any claims for loss or expense in consequence of blockade or of any attempt to evade blockade; but in the event of blockade, to be at liberty to proceed to an open port and there end the voyage.

2. Warranted free from any claim based upon loss of, or frustration of, the insured voyage or adventure caused by arrests, restraints or detainments.

3. This insurance does not cover any loss or damage caused by or resulting from any of the following causes:

(a) Commandeering, preemption, requisition, or nationalization by the government (de facto or otherwise) of the country to or from which the goods are insured.

(b) Seizure or destruction under quarantine or customs regulations.

(c) Capture, seizure, arrest, restraint, detainment, or condemnation by the Government of the United States of America, or of any State, territory, or possession thereof, or by any government which is or may become party signatory of the "United Nations Pact" promulgated on or about January 2, 1942.

4. This insurance shall not attach to the interest hereby insured or to any part thereof:

(a) Prior to being on board an overseas vessel (for the purpose of this clause 4 an overseas vessel shall be deemed to mean a vessel carrying the interest from one port or place to another where such voyage involves a sea passage by that vessel);

(b) after being discharged overside from an overseas vessel at the final port of discharge,

or

[1] The Underwriting Agent does not, by countersigning and issuing this policy or otherwise, warrant its own authority, or the authority of the War Shipping Administration, to issue this Policy, but acts solely under the power conveyed by the Standard Form of Certificate of Designation issued by the War Shipping Administration.

after expiry of fifteen days counting from midnight of the day on which the overseas vessel is safely anchored or moored at the final port of discharge, whichever shall first occur;

(c) at a port or place of transshipment to another overseas vessel after the expiry of fifteen days (counting from midnight of the day on which the overseas vessel entering with the interest is safely anchored or moored) until the interest is on board the oncarrying overseas vessel.

In the event of the exercise of any liberty granted to the Shipowner or Charterer under the contract of affreightment whereby such contract is terminated at a port or place other than the destination named therein such port or place shall be deemed the final port of discharge for the purpose of this clause 4.

5. Subject to the terms of clause 4 above and to any conditions or warranties which may be endorsed hereon, it is agreed that this insurance shall not be vitiated by deviation, overcarriage, change of voyage, or by any error or unintentional omission in the description of interest, vessel or voyage, provided the same be communicated to the War Shipping Administration as soon as known to the Assured and an additional premium paid if required.

6 And in case of any loss or misfortune, it shall be lawful and necessary to and for the Assured, his or their factors, servants and assigns, to sue, labor, and travel for, in and about the defense, safeguard, and recovery of the said goods and merchandises, or any part thereof without prejudice to this insurance; nor shall the acts of the Assured or Assurers, in recovering, saving, and preserving the property insured, in case of disaster, be considered a waiver or an acceptance of an abandonment; and to the charges whereof, the said Assurers will contribute according to the rate and quantity of the sum hereby insured.

7. General Average and salvage charges (resulting from a peril hereby insured against) payable according to Foreign Statement or York-Antwerp Rules if in accordance with the contract of affreightment.

8. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this policy, it is understood and agreed:

(a) That no claim for freight, storage, or other expense due to the requisition or commandeering of the title or use of any vessel by or with the consent of the country whose flag she flies shall be payable under this insurance and if as a result of such requisition or commandeering the insured cargo is discharged at a port or place other than the port or place of destination, the port or place of discharge shall be deemed a port or place of transshipment within the meaning of clause 4 (c) of this Policy.

(b) That if any vessel shall be ordered into or detained in any port by the United States Government or by any government which is or may become party signatory of the "United Nations Pact" and the goods hereby insured shall be discharged at such port, then, if the goods be not the subject of proceedings of the nature set forth in clause 3 (a), such port or place of discharge shall be deemed a port or place of transshipment within the meaning of clause 4 (c) of this Policy.

9. If the ordinary course of transit of the goods hereby insured is interrupted or terminated by the shipper, consignee, or assured or any party acting on their behalf, this insurance shall forthwith terminate unless otherwise specially agreed by the War Shipping Administration.

10. This insurance shall include loss, damage or destruction of the property insured caused by saboteurs or other enemy agents.

11. It is warranted that not later than the 25th day of each calendar month, the Assured will file with the Underwriting Agent closing reports in the manner and form required by such regulations as may be promulgated by the War Shipping Administration from time to time of all shipments coming within the scope of this policy.

(1) As to inward shipments as defined in General Order No. 6, such reports must include

(a) All shipments which have arrived at port of destination during the preceding calendar month, and

(b) All shipments with respect to which inability to so arrive by reason of loss, frustration or other similar cause has come to the knowledge of the Assured during the preceding calendar month, and

(2) As to outward shipments as defined in General Order No. 6, which attached under the policy during the preceding calendar month.

And will pay premium thereon at the rate prescribed by the War Shipping Administration and in effect:

(a) On date of Ocean Bill of Lading, or

(b) If Ocean Bill of Lading not issued, on date of equivalent shipping document, or

(c) If no Ocean Bill of Lading or equivalent shipping document issued, or if same are undated, on date goods are laden on overseas vessel.

12. It is understood and agreed that whenever any closing report is not filed as prescribed by Clause 11 hereof, the effect is such that a breach of the Policy terms and conditions has been made by the Assured, and the Policy automatically ceases to insure any shipments which would otherwise have attached after the expiration of fifteen (15) days following the due date of the closing report, unless within the said 15 day period, the closing report as required by Clause 11 hereof is filed with the Underwriting Agent, and a reinstatement fee of Twenty-five ($25) Dollars is paid by cashier's check or certified check payable to the order of the Treasurer of the United States together with the amount of premium due, if any.

13. It is warranted that the Assured will at all times maintain with the War Shipping Administration a Collateral Deposit Fund or that in lieu of such Collateral Deposit Fund a Surety Bond in the form prescribed by the War Shipping Administration will be filed with the Underwriting Agent and maintained in full force and effect for the purpose of securing payment of premium hereunder. In the event that the Assured inadvertently fails to maintain such a Collateral Deposit Fund or such a Surety Bond in an amount sufficient so that at all times such amount is in excess of the unpaid premium then or thereafter payable with respect to any or all risks which have attached under the terms of the policy, it shall be a condition of this insurance that within seven days from the time such insufficiency comes to the knowledge of the Assured, additional collateral or an increase in Surety Bond will be provided by the Assured in an amount not less than double the amount of such insufficiency and for a sum which shall be an even multiple of Five Hundred ($500) Dollars, and in addition a certified check or cashier's check payable to the Treasurer of the United States, in the amount of One Hundred ($100) Dollars will be paid to the Underwriting Agent as a fee for the continuation of this Policy. In all such cases the Assured shall file with the Underwriting Agent an affidavit in form prescribed by the Administration setting forth the facts with respect to such insufficiency. Failure to comply with the provisions of this Article shall result in the voidance of this policy as of the date upon which the Collateral Deposit Fund or Surety Bond became insufficient, but such voidance shall not relieve the Assured of liability to pay premium on all shipments made prior to the termination of said seven day period.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, if the Administrator or his duly authorized representative shall determine that the failure of the Assured to maintain a sufficient Collateral Fund or Surety Bond was wilful rather than inadvertent, said policy shall be void from the date said Collateral Fund or Surety Bond was first insufficient to secure the premiums on risks which would otherwise have attached hereunder.

14. The Assured warrants and agrees that it will regularly keep books, records and accounts in such manner and form that all information available to the Assured as to the amounts at risk and the amounts of losses incurred and premiums due can be readily ascertained therefrom by the War Shipping Administration. The Assured, as often as may be reasonably required shall exhibit such books, records and accounts to any person designated by the War Shipping Administration, and submit to examinations under oath by any person named by the War Shipping Administration, and subscribe the same.

15. This insurance shall not be invalidated by any error, or omission in the filing of Closing Reports which is demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Administrator to have been inadvertent or unintentional, or by any failure to report which is demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Administrator to have arisen from causes beyond control of the Assured. The Administrator, or his representative duly authorized under Administrative Orders, may waive strict compliance with any warranty or condition of this insurance to the extent that he may determine that it imposes a hardship on any claimant in good faith hereunder which would not be imposed in connection with a policy issued in accordance with commercial practice in the marine insurance business, and to the extent that he may determine that such waiver is not contrary to the purposes of the Statute under which this Policy is issued. In any determination as aforesaid the decision of the Administrator, or his duly authorized representative, shall be conclusive upon all parties thereto.

16. This policy does not cover shipments of specie, currency, securities, valuable documents, jewelry, precious stones, gold and silver and other precious metals, nor any articles transported by means of ordinary mail or air-mail or registered mail or parcel post; nor any of such other commodities as may be incorporated now or hereafter in the list of "Excluded Commodities" (Sec. 305.119) of the rules and regulations of the War Shipping Administration Division of Wartime Insurance.

17. No shipment of cargo coming within the scope of this policy shall attach hereunder subsequent to the sailing of the carrying vessel from the original port of loading with respect to such cargo. Notwithstanding the foregoing provision, an Assured may specially declare to his Underwriting Agent any shipment excluded from coverage by the preceding sentence, in which event insurance shall attach hereunder, if vessel and interest insured is safe in port on date of such declaration, or shall attach upon the safe arrival of vessel and interest insured at first port thereafter, warranted no known or reported loss of or damage to said vessel and interest insured at time of attachment.

18. Where and as used in this policy, the word "imports" means property which, at the time of the attachment of the risk, is (a) intended for use, consumption, manufacturing or other processing, or sale, within the Continental United States (excluding Alaska), or (b) intended for inclusion within a common stock of goods, wares, or merchandise, located within the Continental United States (excluding Alaska), for sale or resale or any possession or territory thereof, as defined in General Order No. 6 or any supple-

§ 305.128 Standard Optional Endorsement No. IX. The following is the out of such common stock in the foreign or domestic commerce of the United States, or (c) consigned to the Continental United States (excluding Alaska) for account of the United States or any department or agency thereof, including corporations wholly owned by the United States. Such property shall not cease to be considered imported in the event of a bona fide change in the intention on the part of the Assured or other person having control of the goods, made subsequent to the attachment of the risk and without prior agreement, understanding, or arrangement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, goods, which at the time of attachment of the risk were intended to be transshipped or re-exported otherwise than to a place within the Continental United States (excluding Alaska), shall not be considered imports for the purposes of said policy, unless such re-export is to a port or place shipments to which are covered by the terms of an endorsement to this policy.

19. Warranted by all Assureds under this insurance that, to the best of their knowledge and belief, no person, corporation, partnership or association whose name appears in any Proclaimed List of Blocked Nationals issued by or under authority of the Government of the United States of America or of the Government of any nation party signatory of the "United Nations Pact" promulgated on or about January 2, 1942 has any ownership, title or interest in or to the goods insured. The term "Assured" as used in the foregoing Warranty shall include all persons claiming under this Warshipopencargo Policy, but no information received by any Assured after the goods have been shipped and insured hereunder, and after he has acquired his title to or interest therein, shall be set up against such Assured as a breach of the above Warranty.

20. Warranted by the Assured that the Assured in whose name this policy is issued is: if an individual, either a citizen of the United States or a resident within the United States or one of the territories and possessions of the United States; if a partnership or a corporation, that it is organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the United States, a State of the United States, one of the territories and possessions of the United States or a political subdivision thereof; or if a foreign corporation, that it has an office or place of business within the United States or one of the territories and possessions of the United States and that shipments covered hereunder are for the account of said office.

§ 305.119 Excluded commodities. In addition to the described commodities listed in Clause 16 of Part II of the Warshipopencargo Policy excluded from any coverage of the Warshipopencargo Policy, War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance, hereby promulgates an additional list of commodities excluded entirely or in part from coverage of the Warshipopencargo Policy.

(a) The following commodities are excluded entirely from any coverage of any Warshipopencargo Policy issued on or before April 1, 1943:

(1) Dressed and undressed furs and (2) art works and antiques, as defined in the United States Department of Commerce "Statistical Classification of Imports" in the sections of Code Classification, numbered respectively (1) 0700.0–0738.8, and (2) 9610.0–9670.3.

(b) The following commodities are excluded in part and to the extent stated herein from coverage of any Warshipopencargo Policy issued on or before April 1, 1943:

(1) Soap and toilet preparations and (2) metal articles as defined in the United States Department of Commerce "Statistical Classification of Imports" in the sections of Code Classification, numbered respectively (1) 8711.0–8731.2 and (2) 6835.0–6905.0 are excluded from any coverage hereunder, except with respect to shipments made from the continental United States (excluding Alaska) to the territories and possessions of the United States including Alaska.

(c) With respect to Warshipopencargo Policies issued prior to April 1, 1943, underwriting agents are authorized to include commodities excluded by paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section with respect to shipments:

a. Under Ocean Bills of Lading dated on and after the date of the publication of this General Order No. 6 in the FEDERAL REGISTER, or

b. If Ocean Bills of Lading not issued, under equivalent shipping documents dated on or after said date, or

c. If no Ocean Bills of Lading or equivalent shipping documents are issued or the same are undated, laden on overseas vessel on and after said date.

§ 305.120 Definition of territories and possessions. Whenever reference is made to the territories and possessions of the United States in General Order No. 6 or any supplement thereto or any policy of insurance issued pursuant to the provisions thereof, said territories and possessions shall be deemed to include only Alaska, Hawaiian Islands, Virgin Islands, Panama Canal Zone, Puerto Rico including Vieques Island, American Samoa, Midway Island and Palmyra Island.

§ 305.121 Modification of the requirements of the Loss Clause (a) (b) (c) of Part I of the Warshipopencargo Policy. Whenever in the judgment of the War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance, the provisions of Part I of the Warshipopencargo Policy form designated (a) (b) (c) requiring the filing of a specified affidavit in the event of loss, work an inequity with respect to any commodity by reason of any subsidy payable by the Government of the United States or any department, agency, or corporate instrumentality thereof, consideration will be given to an appropriate modification of said provisions by endorsement and in a proper instance a corrective endorsement to the policy will be permitted.

§ 305.125 Standard Optional Endorsement No. I. The following is the amended form of Standard Optional Endorsement No. 1:

In consideration of such additional rate as may be prescribed from time to time by the War Shipping Administration, it is understood and agreed that Clause 4 (c) of Part II of this policy is deleted.

It is further understood and agreed that, if owing to circumstances beyond the control of the Assured, the merchandise insured hereunder is landed at an intermediate port other than the intended port of discharge, this insurance shall continue in force within the confines of said port subject to all of its terms until the Assured has had a reasonable opportunity to forward the goods to their intended destination, or substituted destination, or to dispose of said goods at port of landing. If prior to the termination of this insurance, said goods are forwarded by overseas vessel to their original intended port of discharge or to a substituted destination as aforesaid this policy shall continue to cover, subject to its terms, to such original intended port of discharge or to such substituted destination without further additional premium. This insurance shall also continue in force as aforesaid if the merchandise insured hereunder subsequent to attachment of this insurance is discharged at the port of loading but only provided that at the time of such discharge title to and interest in the goods is vested in a citizen of the United States, a domestic corporation or partnership, or the Assured in whose name this policy is issued, and such insurance at port of loading shall terminate if at any time during the continuance of such insurance as aforesaid title to and interest in the goods shall no longer be vested in a citizen of the United States, a domestic corporation or partnership, or the Assured in whose name this policy is issued.

All other terms and conditions remaining unchanged.

Application for Standard Optional Endorsement No. I must be made to the underwriting agent who may issue such endorsement without prior approval of the War Shipping Administration. When a policy has been endorsed with Standard Optional Endorsement No. I additional premium must be paid on shipments within its scope even though events prove the clause was not operative.

This endorsement, as amended herein, is deemed included in any policy to which Standard Optional Endorsement No. 1 has heretofore been attached.

With respect to all shipments of goods coming within the scope of the Warshipopencargo Policy an assured may elect to have his policy endorsed with Standard Optional Endorsement No. I applicable:

(a) On all shipments coming within the scope of the Warshipopencargo policy

(b) On all shipments of a specified commodity coming within the scope of the Warshipopencargo policy

(c) On all shipments moving between ports and or places of a specifically defined geographical location.

§ 305.126 Standard Optional Endorsement No. IV. The following is the amended form of Standard Optional Endorsement No. IV:

It is understood and agreed that this policy is to cover with respect to all shipments otherwise coming within the scope of this policy but shipped to or consigned to the Assured, or shipped by the Assured, and for the account and risk of _____ hereinafter referred to as the principal. The Assured warrants that he is a duly authorized agent of said principal for the purposes of the insured transaction. The Assured warrants that closing reports as provided for by the terms of this policy and by the terms of General Order No. 6 of the War Shipping Administration and supplements thereto will be filed by him with respect to all shipments insured hereunder, and subject to all the conditions and regulations of the War Shipping Administration relating to such reports. In the event of loss, any sums payable under the terms of this policy shall be paid to the order of said principal.

In event of loss, the Agent shall be required to file the affidavit called for by the terms of this policy, but if the principal is domiciled in the United States of America, or any possession or territory thereof, as defined in General Order No. 6 or any supplement thereto, or maintains regular office or place of business therein, said principal shall be required to file a similar affidavit. In the event of loss the amount collectible hereunder shall not exceed the amount which would have been collectible by the principal if he were named as the Assured hereunder.

All other terms and conditions remaining unchanged.

Application for Standard Optional Endorsement No. IV must be made to the underwriting agent who may issue such endorsement without prior approval of the War Shipping Administration.

This endorsement as herein set forth is deemed included in any policy to which it has heretofore been attached.

§ 305.127 Standard Optional Endorsement No. VIII. The following is the amended form of Standard Optional Endorsement No VIII:

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in either Part I or Part II of the Warshipopencargo Policy form (Sec. 305.118) or any endorsement attached to this policy of prior date to this endorsement, it is understood and agreed that this policy covers only such of the following classes of shipments as are indicated by the insertion of the word "yes" in the blank indicated opposite to such class of shipments:

( ) 1. Imports to the Continental United States excluding Alaska.

( ) 2. Exports from the Continental United States excluding Alaska to the territories and possessions of the United States, including the Panama Canal Zone and Alaska.

( ) 3. Shipments between ports in the Continental United States excluding Alaska.

( ) 4. Shipments between ports in any one territory or possession of the United States, including the Panama Canal Zone and Alaska.

( ) 5. Shipments to the territories and possessions of the United States including the Panama Canal Zone and Alaska (excepting shipments from the Continental United States excluding Alaska)

Notwithstanding the foregoing this policy shall not cover any specific classes of shipments that may be specifically excluded from coverage hereunder by special agreement incorporated in this policy by endorsement.

All other terms and conditions remaining unchanged.

Application for Standard Optional Endorsement No. VIII must be made to the underwriting agent who may issue such endorsement without prior approval of the War Shipping Administration.

Whenever any class of shipments specified in Standard Optional Endorsement No. VIII is to be covered the word "yes" should be inserted in the appropriate space and whenever any class of shipments specified in Standard Optional Endorsement No. VIII is not to be covered the word "no" should be inserted in the appropriate space.

This endorsement as herein set forth is deemed included in any policy to which it has heretofore been attached and is deemed to include the insertion of the word "yes" or "no" in the blank indicated opposite to such class of shipments as was indicated in the Endorsement existing prior to the amendment herein.

§ 305.128 Standard Optional Endorsement No. IX. The following is the amended form of Standard Optional Endorsement No. IX:

In consideration of such special rate as may be named from time to time by the War Shipping Administration, it is hereby understood and agreed that notwithstanding the terms of Clause 18 of Part II of Warshipopencargo Policy form, this policy is extended to cover shipments of goods which would be covered under the terms of this policy but for said Clause 18 which at the time of the attachment of the risk or subsequent thereto are intended for re-export to United States Army foreign bases. The Assured warrants that closing reports for all such shipments will be made on separate closing reports from any other shipments covered by this policy.

All other terms and conditions remaining unchanged.

Application for Standard Optional Endorsement No. IX must be made to the underwriting agent who may issue such endorsement without prior approval of the War Shipping Administration. The rates named by the War Shipping Administration for shipments coming within the scope of this endorsement will be at levels deemed compensatory by War Shipping Administration.

The endorsement as amended herein is deemed included in any policy to which it has heretofore been attached.

§ 305.129 Standard Optional Enforcement No. X and Standard Optional Endorsement No. XI. (a) The following is the amended form of Standard Optional Endorsement No. X:

In consideration of such additional rate as may be prescribed from time to time by War Shipping Administration, notwithstanding the terms of Part I and of Clause 18 of Part II of the Warshipopencargo Policy form, it is hereby understood and agreed that this policy covers only shipments to United States ports of _____ which would be covered under the terms of this policy but for said Clause 18 but which are thereby excluded from coverage by reason of the fact that at the time of attachment of risk the goods are intended for re-export to Canada; this coverage shall continue notwithstanding the fact that subsequent to attachment of risk the destination of the carrying vessel is changed to a port in Canada for the direct discharge of the goods.

All other terms and conditions remaining unchanged.

(b) The following in the amended form of Standard Optional Endorsement No. XI.

In consideration of such additional rate as may be prescribed from time to time by the War Shipping Administration, notwithstanding the terms of Part I and of Clause 18 of Part II of Warshipopencargo Policy form, it is hereby understood and agreed that this policy is extended to cover shipments to United States ports of _____ which would be covered under the terms of this policy but for said Clause 18 but which are thereby excluded from coverage by reason of the fact that at the time of attachment of risk or subsequent thereto the goods are intended for re-export to Canada; this coverage shall continue notwithstanding the fact that subsequent to attachment of risk the destination of the carrying vessel is changed to a port in Canada for the direct discharge of the goods. The Assured warrants that closing reports of all such shipments will be made on separate closing reports from any other shipments covered by this policy.

All other terms and conditions remaining unchanged.

Standard Optional Endorsement No. X and Standard Optional Endorsement No. XI will not be issued until an applicat on filed with the underwriting agent has been approved by the War Shipping Administration. Neither of these endorsements will be granted merely because a saving in war risk premium would accrue to an assured, and it is necessary that any cargo covered by either of these endorsements must be of a high priority nature. These rates named by the War Shipping Administration for shipments coming within the scope of these endorsements will be at levels deemed compensatory by the War Shipping Administration. Either of these endorsements as amended herein is deemed included in any policy to which either of them has heretofore been properly attached.

§305.130 Standard Optional Endorsement No. XII. The following is the amended form of Standard Optional Endorsement No. XII:

This endorsement shall not apply to goods sold by the Assured prior to loading on board the overseas vessel and shipped for the account and at the risk of third parties other than a branch, subsidiary or affiliate of the Assured. With respect to all other goods coming within the scope of the policy, except as may otherwise be provided below, shipped:

(a) Under Ocean Bills of Lading dated on or after _____, or

(b) If Ocean Bills of Lading not issued, under equivalent shipping documents dated on or after said date, or

(c) If no Ocean Bills of Lading or equivalent shipping documents are issued or the same are undated, laden on overseas vessel on and after said date, the loss provisions of Part I hereof set forth in Paragraphs (a) (b) (c) of the Warshipopencargo Policy limiting the amount collectible in the event of loss are hereby deleted and the following substituted therefor: "In the event of loss the Assured shall be required to file an affidavit to the effect that the amount claimed does not exceed the actual bona fide pecuniary loss to the Assured, exclusive of any allowance for anticipated or accrued profit arising out of the insured venture. Such affidavit shall be subject to the provisions of Section 35 (a) of the Criminal Code."

(Insert any authorized exceptions)

All other terms and conditions remaining unchanged.

Application for Standard Optional Endorsement No. XII must be made to the underwriting agent who may issue the endorsement without prior approval of the War Shipping Administration. With respect to all shipment of goods coming within the scope of the Warshipopencargo Policy (except goods sold by the assured prior to loading on board the overseas vessel and shipped for the account and at the risk of third parties other than branch, subsidiary or affiliate of the assured) an assured may elect to have his policy endorsed with Standard Optional Endorsement No. XII applicable (a) on all such shipments, or (b) on all outward shipments, or (c) on all inward shipments, also on named commodities: Provided, however, That when the assured has elected certain named commodities he may not change to a different basis on those commodities except on ninety (90) days notice to the War Shipping Administration through the underwriting agent.

The endorsement as herein set forth is deemed included in any policy to which it has heretofore been attached.

§ 305.131 Standard Optional Endorsement No. XIV. The following is the form of Standard Optional Endorsement No. XIV:

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, shipments of_____ _____ to the Continental United States (excluding Alaska) are hereby covered subject to all the terms and conditions of this policy not in conflict herewith. It is warranted by the Assured that War Shipping Administration shall not be liable for more than two hundred and fifty thousand ($250,000) dollars in any event by loss or damage in respect to shipments by any one vessel under the terms of this Endorsement. It is further warranted by the Assured that no shipment will attach hereunder until a qualified officer of the overseas vessel has receipted for the goods covered by this endorsement by acknowledging deposit of the same in the safe or strong room of the carrying vessel.

All other terms and conditions remaining unchanged.

Application for Standard Optional Endorsement No. XIV must be submitted to an underwriting agent for transmission to War Shipping Administration for approval of the issuance of the said endorsement. This endorsement is designed to provide coverage for shipments of diamonds used for industrial purposes, or rubies, or sapphires, natural or synthetic, used for instruments or watch jewels, imported to the continental United States (excluding Alaska).

The endorsement as herein set forth is deemed included in any policy to which it has heretofore been properly attached.

§ 305.132 Standard Optional Endorsement No. XV. The following is the form of Standard Optional Endorsement No. XV:

With respect to shipments otherwise coming within the scope of this policy but failing to attach hereunder by reason of the goods being shipped or consigned prior to the date set forth in Clauses a, b, and c of Part I of this policy, it is specially understood and agreed that this insurance shall nonetheless attach provided that the goods have not arrived at port of final destination on or before the date of this endorsement and that as of the date of this endorsement, there is no known or reported loss of such shipments by reason of perils insured by this policy. For the purpose of this endorsement the words "known or reported loss" shall be deemed to include any loss known or reported to either the Assured or the War Shipping Administration. This endorsement shall not, however, apply to any goods which would not have been covered under the terms of Warshipopencargo Policy No. _____ had said policy remained in full force and effect. In consideration of the coverage provided by this endorsement, it is agreed that the rates applicable to such shipments shall be 50% in excess of the standard rates of the War Shipping Administration applicable to similar shipments.

All other terms and conditions remaining unchanged.

Where prior to January 30, 1943 a Warshipopencargo Policy has been terminated by reason of the breach of the warranty embodied in Clause 13 of Part II of the Warshipopencargo Policy as it existed prior to January 30, 1943, and a new policy has been or is issued in replacement of said terminated policy, Standard Optional Endorsement No. XV may be attached to said replacement policy by the underwriting agent without prior approval of the War Shipping Administration. Such endorsement must incorporate the policy number of said terminated policy. The application for the endorsement must be made at the time of application for the issuance of the replacement Warshipopencargo Policy or not later than March 4, 1943, whichever may last occur.

(a) Whenever a Warshipopencargo Policy has been endorsed with Standard Optional Endorsement No. XV, additional premium must be paid on shipments included in the replacement policy and which are subject to the terms and conditions of the said endorsement.

(b) This endorsement as herein set forth is deemed included in any policy to which it has heretofore been attached.

§ 305.133 Manner of endorsement. (a) Every endorsement for attachment to a Warshipopencargo Policy issued subsequent to the issuance of such Warshipopencargo Policy should be preceded by the following language whenever similar language is not a part of the endorsement unless otherwise specified:

This endorsement is effective with respect to shipments—

a. Under ocean Bills of Lading dated on or after_____, or,

b. If ocean Bills of Lading not issued, under equivalent shipping documents dated on and after said date, or

c. If no ocean Bills of Lading or equivalent shipping documents are issued or the same are undated, laden on overseas vessel on and after said date.

(b) No endorsement should be made retroactive unless by special authorization of the War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance.

§ 305.177 Standard form of underwriting agency agreement.

UNDERWRITING AGENCY AGREEMENT

This Agreement made and entered into this ------ day of ----------, 194-, by and between the Administrator of the War Shipping Administration, acting for and on behalf of the United States of America (hereinafter called the "Administrator") and ----------, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of ----------, and admitted to do the business of marine insurance in one or more of the States of the United States, having an office for the transaction of business at ---------- (hereinafter called the "Underwriting Agent"),

Witnesseth:

Whereas under and pursuant to the President's Executive Order 9054 of February 7, 1942, and Public Law 523 of the Seventy-seventh Congress, the Administrator is authorized under certain circumstances to provide marine insurance and reinsurance against loss or damage by the risks of war, and to exercise this power through such officials or agencies and in such manner as he may determine; and

Whereas the Administrator has determined to exercise certain of these powers for the insurance of cargo through certain private insurance corporations, including the Underwriting Agent, upon the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth;

Now, therefore, in consideration of the premises and of the mutual covenants and agreements, and upon the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. The Administrator hereby authorizes the Underwriting Agent, as Agent, and not as an independent contractor, to perform the functions hereinafter provided for, subject to the terms and conditions hereinafter specified, and in accordance with the Memoranda of Instructions which may be issued hereunder by the Administrator from time to time.

2. The Underwriting Agent agrees to utilize its offices and facilities to make available to the public the insurance of cargoes against war risks furnished by the Administrator. The Underwriting Agent may act through its Home Office, branch offices or agencies in the United States, its territories or possessions, which are authorized to write marine insurance on behalf of the Underwriting Agent.

The duties of the Underwriting Agent shall be as follows:

(a) The Underwriting Agent shall issue policies covering the class or classes of property and subject to the rates and conditions named by the Administrator. The insurer under such policies shall be the Administrator, and the policy shall be executed or countersigned by the Underwriting Agent.

(b) The Underwriting Agent shall keep a full and complete record of all such policies, and shall also record any premium, collateral deposit fund, or surety bonds required by the terms of such policy, so that a record may be available at all times to the Administrator, both as to all policies issued and as to all Collateral deposit funds or surety bonds provided by the assured in connection with such policies.

(c) The Underwriting Agent shall receive customary Provisional Reports from policyholders, and subject to such regulations as may be adopted by the Administrator, shall take the necessary steps to follow up the same.

(d) The Underwriting Agent shall accept monthly Closing Reports from each policyholder for transmission to a clearing organization which shall be appointed or created by the Administrator for this and other purposes. The Underwriting Agent shall also receive certified checks drawn to the Treasurer of the United States for the premiums involved, if the premiums have not been previously paid, which checks shall be deposited by the Underwriting Agent in the Federal Reserve Bank nearest to its office, or in such other bank as may be authorized by the Administrator to receive such deposits. The Underwriting Agent is to receive from the bank in which the deposits are made receipts therefor in such number as may be prescribed in general instructions to the Agent and handle the receipts so received in accordance with such general instructions.

(e) The Underwriting Agent shall prepare a monthly summary of all such Closing Reports on a standard form to be approved by the Administrator and transmit the same, together with supporting Closing Reports and receipts for deposits made as above provided, to the clearing organization.

(f) The Underwriting Agent shall receive from holders of policies issued by such Underwriting Agent any claims for return premiums in a standard form to be prescribed by the Administrator and shall certify thereon, if such is the fact, that the amounts with respect to which such return is claimed were previously included in closing reports submitted to the Administrator and that based upon the statements included in such application by the Assured the return premium applied for is payable in accordance with the regulations of the Administration. Such applications and certifications shall be transmitted promptly to the clearing organization.

(g) The Underwriting Agent shall receive reports of losses, prepare adjustments and vouchers, and other data, required by the Administrator, and submit the same with its recommendation as to whether claims are in order for settlement to the Administrator through the clearing organization.

(h) The Underwriting Agent will cooperate with other Underwriting Agents acting in a similar capacity to establish and maintain, through the American Institute of Marine Underwriters or otherwise, an advisory underwriting committee to deal with specific underwriting problems, subject to regulations of the Administrator, and such other advisory committees as may seem necessary to safeguard the interest of the Administrator, including a loss committee to act as a recipient for information as to losses, and to pass upon any recommendations made by the Underwriting Agent as to losses in excess of an amount to be fixed by the Administrator.

3. The Underwriting Agent shall receive for its services such amount as the Administrator may from time to time determine to be fair and reasonable compensation. Such compensation shall be determined by the Administrator at such sums as reasonably approximate expenses of Underwriting Agents generally under this form of agreement without contemplation of profit. In addition to such fair and reasonable compensation the Underwriting Agent shall receive reimbursement for out of pocket expenditures reasonably incurred, meaning payments to persons not regularly employed by the Underwriting Agent, but excluding payments to attorneys unless such employment has been authorized by the Administrator, provided however that all such expenditures shall be subject to the review of the Administrator and further provided that such expenditures shall not include any fee or other consideration paid to an insurance broker or other person acting in a similar intermediary capacity.

A statement of the compensation due to the Underwriting Agent (including reimbursement for out of pocket expenses as herein provided) shall be submitted by the Underwriting Agent to the Administrator monthly or at such other intervals as the Administrator may direct, with an appropriate voucher, and the amount of such compensation, if approved, shall be promptly paid to the Underwriting Agent.

4. In the discharge of the duties and obligations arising under this agreement, the Underwriting Agent shall conform to a standard of performance and accuracy reasonably to be expected of an insurance company in the administration of its own business, and consistent with the highest degree of good faith. It is agreed, however, that as the Underwriting Agent is acting without expectation of profit, it shall not be responsible for errors or omissions of agents and employees in whose selection and supervision it has exercised reasonable care, (other than willful misconduct on the part of the principal officers of said Underwriting Agents) excepting that the Underwriting Agent assumes full and complete responsibility for the disposition of any funds received by it or its employees or agents under and pursuant to this agreement. The exercise of reasonable care in the selection of agents by the Underwriting Agent shall be deemed to include a determination by the Underwriting Agent that the agent so selected is experienced in the transaction of such phases of the marine insurance business as may be delegated to such agent by the Underwriting Agent. It is understood that the Underwriting Agent is or may be engaged in writing war risk insurance on hulls and cargoes for its own account, and it is agreed that it may write such insurance notwithstanding its operations on behalf of the Administrator.

5 All books, records and accounts covering the operations and activities under this agreement shall be kept separate from those relating to other business of the Underwriting Agent, in accordance with regulations made from time to time by the Administrator, and shall at all times be subject to inspection by the Administrator.

6 It is recognized that in the conduct of its operations and activities hereunder the Underwriting Agent shall act only as agent for the Administrator, who shall be the principal in connection with all such operations and activities. The Underwriting Agent shall have no authority other than as provided in this Agreement and in Memoranda of Instructions issued hereunder, and any unauthorized acts of said Underwriting Agent shall be null and void, and of no effect. It is agreed that the Administrator will issue to the Underwriting Agent a Certificate of Designation authorizing the Underwriting Agent to execute and issue war risk cargo policies of insurance in the name of the United States of America and to perform the other duties and functions provided for herein. It is further agreed, in view of the fact that the statutory power of the Administrator to write insurance is conditioned on the existence of certain facts of which the Underwriting Agent may have no knowledge or means of knowledge, that the Underwriting Agent may insert in all policies above its signature, a statement that it acts solely under the said Certificate of Designation and makes no warranty, either express or implied, of its own authority or the authority of the Administrator to sign or issue the said documents.

7. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 3 hereof, in the event that the Underwriting Agent, after giving notice to the Administrator, shall be compelled to pay to any state, territory, or possession of the United States, or political subdivision thereof any tax or fee or interest or penalty relating thereto claimed to be due by reason of the business transacted pursuant to this agreement and which would not have been payable except for the operation of the Underwriting Agent hereunder, the Underwriting Agent shall be reimbursed by the Administrator therefor, and for any special expenses necessarily incurred in connection therewith. Moreover, if the Administrator shall reject any claim for loss under any policy of insurance issued pursuant to this agreement and if legal proceedings be instituted against the Underwriting Agent with respect to such claim, or if the Underwriting Agent shall be obligated to defend any legal suit or proceeding on account of its action in rejecting any application or failing to issue any policy or in canceling any policy, or in denying the payment of any return premium, the Administrator shall, upon due notice at his expense, defend such proceeding and if in any such proceeding the Underwriting Agent be compelled to make payment, the Administrator shall reimburse the Underwriting Agent for the amount thereof, provided always the action of the Underwriting Agent complained of shall have been consistent with the standard of performance required hereunder. In any of the foregoing cases, the Underwriting Agent shall render to the Administrator such reasonable cooperation and assistance as the Administrator may require.

8 This agreement shall take effect as of the date of its execution by the Administrator and continue in force until terminated. It may be terminated, as of midnight on the last day of any calendar month by either party giving at least fifteen (15) days prior written notice to the other party by registered mail. Such termination shall not affect the obligation of the parties hereunder with respect to any insurance written or expenses incurred prior thereto.

9. Any act or thing herein required or permitted to be done hereunder by the Administrator may be done by such other official or officials of the War Shipping Administration as the Administrator may designate.

10. (a) The Underwriting Agent warrants that it has not employed any person to solicit or secure this agreement upon any agreement for a commission, percentage, brokerage, or contingent fee. Breach of this warranty shall give the United States the right to annul this agreement, or, in its discretion, to deduct from any amount payable hereunder the amount of such commission, percentage, brokerage, or contingent fee.

(b) In any act performed under this agreement the Underwriting Agent shall not discriminate against any citizen of the United States of America on the ground of race, creed, color or national origin.

11. No person elected or appointed a member of or delegate to Congress or a Resident Commissioner, directly or indirectly, himself or by any other person in trust for him, or for his use or benefit, or on his account shall hold or enjoy this agreement in whole or in part, except as provided in Section 206, Title 18, U.S.C. The Underwriting Agent shall not employ any member of Congress, either with or without compensation, as an attorney, agent, officer or director.

In witness whereof the parties hereto have duly executed this Agreement in triplicate as of the day and year first above written.

---------- L. S.

SUBPART B—HULL INSURANCE

§ 305.250 Introductory. War Shipping Administration is prepared to provide marine insurance against loss or damage to vessels caused by the risks of war in accordance with the terms of its hull war risk insurance policy hereinafter set forth in § 305.275. No such hull war risk insurance policy will be issued to any applicant for such insurance unless the vessel to be insured is either a United States flag vessel, or a vessel engaged in a voyage which brings or is intended to bring the vessel at least once in each round trip to a port in the continental United States, or in special circumstances to a port in the territories and possessions of the United States, or is engaged in a trade which is in the interest of the war effort or domestic economy of the United States as determined by the Administrator.

A hull war risk insurance rate schedule applicable to insurances of vessels confined to certain areas and trades is published in bulletin form by the War Shipping Administration and is available on request by properly interested parties; other rates for hull war risk insurances are available only by means of a request for quotation of an applicable rate submitted to War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance.

§ 305.251 Application. Whenever an applicant for hull war risk insurance desires to obtain a quotation or to bind such insurance the applicant must provide War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance at Room 4089 Commerce Building, Washington, D. C., with a statement in writing containing the following information:

(a) The name of the owner of the vessel, the name of the assured, the name of the vessel, and the flag thereof;

(b) The amount of insurance requested and the total value of the vessel for war risk insurance purposes;

(c) The trade of the vessel if such insurance is requested on a time basis; the voyage which will be involved if such insurance is requested on a trip basis;

(d) The exact sailing date of the vessel must not be given but it must be stated that the vessel is expected to sail within fifteen days.

(e) The deadweight tonnage based upon Old International Summer Scale (not emergency), and the speed in knots of the vessel.

(f) Any renewal of an unexpired time insurance is required to be submitted in the same manner as the original risk. The application for the renewal insurance must be submitted within ten days prior to the expiration of the original insurance unless otherwise agreed.

NOTE: Any request for a quotation or a binding made by telegraph must not contain any steamer name or any anticipated date of sailing. Such information to the extent required by the foregoing regulations should be forwarded by an Air-Mail letter and the envelope containing the letter should be marked "confidential".

§ 305.252 Payment of premium and binding insurance. The procedure set forth in §§ 305.3, 305.5, 305.6, 305.7, 305.8

and 305.15 hereof is deemed applicable for the guidance of assureds in placing this type of insurance and paying the premium therefor unless otherwise agreed.

§ 305.253 Warranties regulating the binding of hull war risk insurance. Any hull war risk insurance bound by the Division of Wartime Insurance will be subject to the current rules, regulations, conditions and policy forms prescribed by the Administration.

(a) Any hull war risk insurance will be subject to the "British Ship Warrant and United States of America Ship Warrant Warranty (1943)", whenever the same is applicable.

(b) Unless otherwise specifically agreed, all insurances shall be subject to the following warranty:

Warranted vessel safe in port at time of attachment of this insurance: Provided however, That any vessel excluded from coverage by application of this warranty will automatically attach hereunder as of the time of arrival of the vessel at the next port in good safety, warranted premium paid in accordance with rules and regulations and further warranted the insured value of the vessel reduced by amount of any loss or damage sustained between date of application and date of attachment of this insurance.

(1) This warranty does not apply to a renewal of time insurance, nor to insurance of vessels confined to continental United States inland waters.

§ 305.254 Valuation of vessels. Unless otherwise agreed vessels and equipment shall be valued by the War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance for hull war risk insurance purposes in accordance with one of the following applicable methods:

(a) Ocean going vessels shall be valued in accordance with the provisions of General Orders Nos. 9 and 10 and supplements thereto, if any.

(b) Inland vessels, at the option of the assured, shall be valued:

(1) For the total insured value in the years 1938–1939 including hull and disbursements for marine insurance purposes; or,

(2) On a basis of construction cost less depreciation of 5% per year; but in the event that substantial improvements have been made to the vessel after the years 1938–1939, War Shipping Administration will give consideration to increasing the valuation of the vessel on the basis of the assured's request and statement of the improvements made; or,

(3) In cases where the vessel and equipment were uninsured during the years 1938–1939 and in cases where a valuation of a vessel on the basis of construction cost less depreciation of 5% a year produces an insured value unsatisfactory to an applicant the Administration will consider appraisals of the vessel and equipment made by an independent surveyor in order to agree upon an insured value of the vessel and equipment.

§ 305.255 Length of time for which hull war risk insurance will be granted. Hull war risk insurance on vessels may be obtained on a time or trip basis. Unless otherwise agreed, hull war risk insurance in respect to ocean-going vessels will be granted either on a oneway or round trip voyage basis and in certain instances such insurance can be written for a period of time not longer than one calendar month unless otherwise specified; with respect to vessels confined to inland waters such insurance will be written for a period of time not longer than three calendar months unless otherwise specified.

(a) For computing periods of time the calendar month will be used.

(b) Any hull war risk insurance placed on a voyage basis is subject to the requirement that the vessel sail within fifteen (15) days of acceptance of the risk by War Shipping Administration, unless an extension is granted by War Shipping Administration and an additional premium paid, if required, or unless otherwise stipulated by the War Shipping Administration at time of quotation.

§ 305.266 War risk insurance on hull "premiums reducing". War Shipping Administration is prepared to provide marine insurance against loss or damage by the risks of war on hull "premiums reducing" for the total unearned amount of marine hull premium and or marine hull disbursement premium and or marine hull protection and indemnity premium for a period of not exceeding three months on American flag vessels and foreign registered vessels which have been time chartered to the War Shipping Administration.

(a) This insurance may be obtained by making application to the War Shipping Administration in the manner provided for the placing of hull war risk insurance, and by submitting a statement containing the following particulars:

(1) The name of the owner of the vessel, the assured in whose name the insurance is desired, the name of the vessel, and the flag thereof;

(2) A statement showing the attachment and expiration dates of the marine insurance policies, the total amount of annual marine insurance cash premium on those policies, the total amount of annual marine insurance cash premium less the total amount of marine insurance cash premium for the expired portion of the marine insurance policies figured on a pro rata daily basis to a date on which the assured desires the binder to attach, and the total amount of insurance desired.

(3) The trading limits of the vessel.

§ 305.267 Warranties applicable to war risk insurance on hull "premiums reducing". The binding of any war risk insurance on hull premium shall be subject to both of the following warranties:

1. Warranted vessel safe in port at time of attachment, or if at sea, then to attach automatically when vessel and/or vessels reach first safe port. Further warranted this insurance covers, only premiums reducing and only against risks of war in accordance with the policy.

2. In the event of loss, the amount collectible shall be only the actual unearned premium applicable to the Marine Hull,[1] Marine Hull Disbursement,[1] Marine Protection and Indemnity,[1] policies covering the insured vessel, computed on a pro rata basis from date of attachment of said policies.

§ 305.275 Standard form of hull war risk insurance policy. The following is the standard form of hull war risk insurance policy:

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

WAR SHIPPING ADMINISTRATION

Expiration date, ------- No. H. ---------- Insured value, $------ Date ----------
Amount insured, $------ Premium, $------

By this policy of insurance does, in accordance with applicable provisions of law and subject to all limitations thereof, make insurance and cause to be insured, lost or not lost:

For account of---------- ---------- but subject to the provisions of this Policy with respect to change of ownership. Loss, if any, payable to----------
---------- or order.
In the sum of----------dollars, at and from the-----day of----------19-- to the----------day of----------19-- beginning and ending with----------time
On the steamer called the----------
(or by whatsoever name or names the said Vessel is or shall be called).

Provided, however, should the Vessel at the expiration of this Policy be at sea, or in distress, or at a port of refuge or of call, she shall, provided previous notice be given to the Underwriters, be held covered at a pro rata monthly premium to her port of destination. Warranted as follows:----------

---

The said Vessel, for so much as concerns the Assured, by agreement between the Assured and Underwriters in this Policy, is and shall be valued at as follows: Hull, tackle, apparel, passenger fittings, equipment, stores, ordnance, munitions, boats, and other furniture---- $----
Boilers, machinery, refrigerating machinery and insulation, and everything connected therewith ---------- $-------- $----
Donkey boilers, winches, cranes, windlass, steering gear, and electric light apparatus shall be deemed to be a part of the hull and not of the machinery.

The Underwriters to be paid in consideration of this insurance the premium of $--------, being at the rate of ------ percent

In the event of nonpayment of premium 30 days after attachment this Policy may be canceled by the Underwriters upon 5 days written notice being given the Assured.

To return and arrival:
- ----- cents percent net for each uncommenced month if it be mutually agreed to cancel this Policy.
- As follows for each consecutive 30 days the Vessel may be laid up in port, viz:
- ----- cents percent net under repair or outside the United States;
- ----- cents percent net in the United States with cargo on board and not under repair;
- ----- cents percent net in the United States not under repair, and with no cargo on board excepting while actually loading or discharging.

Provided always: (a) that in no case shall a return be allowed when the within-named Vessel is lying in a roadstead or in exposed and unprotected waters.

(b) that in the event of a return for special trade, or any other reason, being recoverable, the above rates of return of premium shall be reduced accordingly.

In the event of the vessel being laid up in port for a period of 30 consecutive days a part only of which attaches to this Policy, it is hereby agreed that the laying up period, in which either the commencing or ending date of this Policy falls, shall be deemed to run from the first day on which the Vessel is laid up and that on this basis Underwriters shall pay such proportion of the return due in respect of a full period of 30 days as the number of days attaching thereto bear to thirty.

Unless physically deleted by the Underwriters, the following warranty shall be paramount and shall supersede and nullify any contrary provision of the Policy:

F. C. & S. Clause: Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Policy, this insurance is warranted free from any claim for loss, damage, or expense caused by or resulting from capture, seizure, arrest, restraint, or detainment, or the consequences thereof or of any attempt thereat, or any taking, of the Vessel, by requisition or otherwise, whether in time of peace or war and whether lawful or otherwise; also from all consequences of hostilities or warlike operations (whether there be a declaration of war or not), piracy, civil war, revolution, rebellion, or insurrection, or civil strife arising therefrom.

If war risks are hereafter insured by endorsement on the Policy, such endorsement shall supersede the above warranty only to the extent that their terms are inconsistent and only while such war risk endorsement remains in force.

This Policy is made and accepted subject to the foregoing stipulations and conditions and to the printed conditions on the following pages which are hereby specially referred to and made a part of this Policy, it being understood and agreed in the case of any conflict or inconsistency the foregoing shall prevail over those which follow.

In witness whereof, the War Shipping Administration has caused this Policy to be signed by the Administrator, but it shall not be valid unless countersigned by or on behalf of the Director of Wartime Insurance.

Countersigned at Washington, D. C. this ------ day of ----------19--

(Sgd.) E. S. LAND, Administrator.

Director of Wartime Insurance.

New Ownership. Should the Vessel be sold or transferred to other ownership or chartered on a bareboat basis or requisitioned on that basis, then, unless the Underwriters agree thereto in writing, this Policy shall thereupon become canceled from date of such sale, transfer, charter, or requisition: Provided however, That in the case of an involuntary transfer by requisition or otherwise, without the prior execution of any written agreement by the Assured, such cancelation shall take place 15 days after such transfer; and provided further that if the Vessel has cargo on board and has already sailed from her loading port, or is at sea in ballast, such cancelation shall be suspended until arrival at final port of discharge if with cargo or at port of destination if in ballast. This insurance shall not inure to the benefit of any such charterer or transferee of the Vessel, and if a loss payable hereunder should occur during such period of 15 days the Underwriters shall be subrogated to all the rights of the Assured against the transferee, by reason of such transfer, in respect to all or part of such loss as is recoverable from the transferee and in the proportion which the respective amounts insured bear to the insured value. A prorata daily return of net premium shall be made. The foregoing provisions with respect to cancelation in the event of sale, transfer, charter, or requisition shall apply even in the case of insurance "For account of whom it may concern."

Beginning the adventure. Upon the said vessel, as above, and so shall continue and endure during the period aforesaid, as employment may offer, in port and at sea, in docks and graving docks, and on ways, gridirons, and pontoons, at all times, in all places, and on all occasions, services, and trades whatsoever and wheresoever, under steam, motor power, or sail; with leave to sail or navigate with or without pilots, to go on trial trips and to assist and tow vessels or craft in distress, but if without the approval of Assurers the Vessel be towed, except as is customary or when in need of assistance, or undertakes towage or salvage services under a prearranged contract made by Owners and/or Charterers, the Assured shall pay an additional premium if required by the Assurers, but no such premium shall be required for customary towage by the Vessel in connection with loading and discharging. With liberty to discharge, exchange and take on board goods, specie, passengers, and stores, wherever the Vessel may call at or proceed to, and with liberty to carry goods, live cattle, etc., on deck or otherwise. Including all risks of docking, undocking, changing docks, or moving in harbor and going on or off gridiron or graving dock as often as may be done during the currency of this Policy.

Notice of accident and survey. In the event of accident whereby loss or damage may result in a claim under this Policy, notice shall be given in writing to the Assurers, where practicable, prior to survey, so that they may appoint their own surveyor if they so desire. The Assurers shall be entitled to decide the port to which a damaged Vessel shall proceed for docking or repairing (the actual additional expense of the voyage arising from compliance with Assurers' requirements being refunded to the Assured) and Assurers shall also have a right of veto in connection with the place of repair or repairing firm proposed and whenever the extent of the damage is ascertainable the majority (in amount) of the Assurers may take or may require to be taken tenders for the repair of such damage.

In cases where a tender is accepted with the approval of Assurers, an allowance shall be made at the rate of 30 percent per annum on the insured value for each day or part thereof from the time of the completion of the survey until the acceptance of the tender, provided that it be accepted without delay after receipt of Assurers' approval.

No allowance shall be made for any time during which the Vessel is loading or discharging cargo or bunkering or taking in fuel.

Due credit shall be given against the allowance as above for any amount recovered—

(a) in respect of fuel and stores and wages and maintenance of the Master Officers and Crew, or any member thereof allowed in General or Particular Average;

(b) from third parties in respect of damages for detention and/or loss of profit and/or running expenses; for the period covered by the tender allowance or any part thereof.

In the event of failure to comply with the conditions of this clause 15 percent shall be deducted from the amount of the ascertained claim.

Disbursements warranty. Warranted that the amount insured for account of the Assured and/or their managers on Disbursements, Commissions, and/or similar interests, "policy proof of interest" or "full interest admitted" or on excess or increased value of Hull or Machinery, however described, shall not, except as indicated below, exceed 10 percent of the insured valuation of the Vessel, but the Assured may in addition thereto effect, "policy proof of interest" or "full interest admitted" insurance on any of the following interests:

(a) Premiums. Any amount not in excess of actual premiums for 12 months on all interests of whatsoever nature insured (including estimated premium on any Protection and Indemnity Insurance), but in all cases reducing monthly by a proportionate amount of the whole, and

(b) Freight and or Chartered Freight and or Anticipated Freight and or Earnings and or Hire or Profits on Time Charter and or Charter for series of voyages for any amount not exceeding in the aggregate 15 percent of the insured valuation of the Vessel; and if the actual amount at risk on any or all of such interests shall exceed such 15 percent of the insured valuation of the Vessel, the Assured and or their managers may, without prejudice to this warranty, insure whilst at risk the excess of such interests reducing as earned, and

(c) Risks excluded by the "F. C. & S. Clause," and

(d) Loss or damage in consequence of strikes, lockouts, political or labor disturbances, civil commotions, riots, martial law, military, or usurped power or malicious act.

Provided always that a breach of this warranty shall not afford the Assurers any defense to a claim by mortgagees or other third parties who may have accepted this Policy without notice of such breach of warranty nor shall it restrict the right of the Assured and or their managers to insure in addition General Average and or Salvage Disbursements whilst at risk.

Breach of warranty. Held covered in case of any breach of waranty as to cargo, trade, locality, or date of sailing, provided notice be given and any additional premium required be agreed immediately after receipt of advices of breach or proposed breach by Owners.

Adventures and perils. Touching the Adventures and Perils which the Assurers are content to bear and take upon themselves, they are of the Seas, Men-of-War, Fire, Enemies, Pirates, Rovers, Thieves, Jettisons, Letters of Mart and Counter-Mart, Surprisals, Takings at Sea, Arrests, Restraints, and Detainments of all Kings, Princes, and Peoples, of what nation, condition, or quality soever, Barratry of the Master and Mariners and of all other like Perils, Losses, and Misfortunes that have or shall come to the Hurt, Detriment, or Damage of the said Ship, etc., or any part thereof; excepting, however, such of the foregoing perils as may be excluded by provisions elsewhere in the Policy or by endorsement.

Sue and labor. And in case of any Loss or Misfortune, it shall be Lawful for the Assured, their Factors, Servants, and Assigns, to sue, labor, and travel for, in, and about the Defense, Safeguard, and Recovery of the said Vessel, etc., or any part thereof, without prejudice to this insurance, to the Charges whereof the Assurers will contribute their proportion as provided below. And it is expressly declared and agreed that no acts of the Assurers or Assured in recovering, saving, or preserving the property insured shall be considered as a waiver or acceptance of abandonment.

Latent defect and negligence. This Insurance also specially to cover (subject to the Average Warranty) loss of or damage to hull or machinery directly caused by the following: Accidents in loading, discharging or handling cargo, or in bunkering or in taking in fuel; Explosions on shipboard or elsewhere; Bursting of boilers, breakage of shafts or any latent defect in the machinery or hull (excluding, however, the cost and expense of repairing or renewing the defective part); Contact with Aircraft; Negligence of Master, Charterers, Mariners, Engineers, or Pilots; provided such loss or damage has not resulted from want of due diligence by the Owners of the Vessel, or any of them, or by the Managers. Masters, Mates, Engineers, Pilots, or Crew not to be considered as part owners within the meaning of this clause should they hold shares in the vessel.

[1] Whichever words are inapplicable shall be deleted.

Sister-ship salvage. And it is further agreed that in the event of salvage, towage or other assistance being rendered to the Vessel hereby insured by any vessel belonging in part or in whole to the same Owners or Charterers, the value of such services (without regard to the common ownership or control of the Vessels) shall be ascertained by arbitration in the manner below provided for under the Collision Clause, and the amount so awarded so far as applicable to the interest hereby insured shall constitute a charge under this Policy.

General average. General Average, Salvage, and Special Charges payable as provided in the contract of affreightment, or failing such provision or there be no contract of affreightment, payable in accordance with the Law and Usages of the Port of New York. Provided always, That when an adjustment according to the laws and usages of the port of destination is properly demanded by the owners of the cargo, General Average shall be paid in accordance with same.

G A and S liability. When the contributory value of the Vessel is greater than the valuation herein, the liability of the Assurers for General Average contribution (except in respect to amount made good to the Vessel) or Salvage shall not exceed that proportion of the total contribution due from the Vessel that the amount insured hereunder bears to the contributory value; and if because of damage for which the Assurers are liable as Particular Average the value of the Vessel has been reduced for the purpose of contribution, the amount of the Particular Average claim under this policy shall be deducted from the amount insured hereunder and the Assurers shall be liable only for the proportion which such net amount bears to the contributory value.

S., S C and S. and L. Liability. In the event of expenditure for Salvage, Salvage Charges, or under the Sue and Labor Clause, this Policy shall only be liable for its share of such proportion of the amount chargeable to the property hereby insured as the insured value, less loss and or damage, if any, for which the Assurers are liable, bears to the value of the saived property. Provided, That where there are no proceeds or there are expenses in excess of the proceeds, the expenses, or the excess of the expenses, as the case may be, shall be apportioned upon the basis of the sound value of the property at the time of the accident and this policy without any deduction for less and or damage shall bear its pro rata share of such expenses or excess of expenses accordingly.

Average warranty. Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, this Policy is warranted free from Particular Average under 3 percent, or unless amounting to $4,850; but nevertheless when the Vessel shall have been stranded, sunk, on fire, or in collision with any other Ship or Vessel, the Assurers shall pay the damage occasioned thereby, and the expense of sighting the bottom after stranding shall be paid, if reasonably incurred, even if no damage be found.

Grounding in the Panama Canal, Suez Canal, or in the Manchester Ship Canal or its connections, or in the River Mersey above Rock Ferry Slip, or in the River Plate (above a line drawn from the North Basin, Buenos Aires, to the mouth of the San Pedro River) or its tributaries, or in the Danube or Demerara Rivers, or on the Yenikale Bar, shall not be deemed to be a stranding.

Average payable on each valuation separately or on the whole, without deduction of thirds, new for old, whether the Average be Particular or General.

No claim shall in any case be allowed in respect of scraping or painting the Vessel's bottom.

Voyage. The Warranty and conditions as to Average under 3 percent to be applicable to each voyage as if separately insured, and a voyage shall be deemed to commence at one of the following periods to be selected by the Assured when making up the claim, viz.: at any time at which the Vessel (1) begins to load cargo or (2) sails in ballast to a loading port. Such voyage shall be deemed to continue during the ensuing period until either she has made one outward and one homeward passage (including an intermediate ballast passage, if made) or has carried and discharged two cargoes, whichever may first happen, and further, in either case, until she begins to load a subsequent cargo or sails in ballast for a loading port. When the Vessel sails in ballast to effect damage repair such sailing shall not be deemed to be a sailing for a loading port although she loads at the repairing port. In calculating the 3 percent above referred to, Particular Average occurring outside the period covered by this Policy may be added to Particular Average occurring within such period provided it occur upon the same voyage (as above defined), but only that portion of the claim arising within such period shall be recoverable hereon. The commencement of a voyage shall not be so fixed as to overlap another voyage on which claim is made on this or the preceding policy.

Constructive total loss. No recovery for a Constructive Total Loss shall be had hereunder unless the expense of recovering and repairing the Vessel shall exceed the insured value.

In ascertaining whether the Vessel is a Constructive Total Loss, the insured value shall be taken as the repaired value, and nothing in respect of the damaged or breakup value of the Vessel or wreck shall be taken into account.

In the event of Total or Constructive Total Loss, no claim to be made by the Assurers for freight, whether notice of abandonment has been given or not.

Unrepaired damage. In no case shall the Assurers be liable for unrepaired damage in addition to a subsequent Total Loss sustained during the term covered by this Policy.

Full collision. And it is further agreed that if the Vessel hereby insured shall come into collision with any other ship or vessel and the Owners or Charterers in consequence thereof or the Surety for either or both of them in consequence of their undertaking shall become liable to pay and shall pay by way of damages to any other person or persons any sum or sums in respect of such collision, the Assurers will pay the Owners or Charterers such proportion of such sum or sums so paid as the Assurers' subscription hereto bears to the value of the Vessel hereby insured, provided always that their liability in respect of any one such collision shall not exceed their proportionate part of the value of the Vessel hereby insured. And in cases where the liability of the Vessel has been contested, or proceedings have been taken to limit liability, with the consent in writing of a majority (in amount) of the Underwriters on the hull and of machinery, the Assurers will also pay a like proportion of the costs which the Owners or Charterers shall thereby incur, or be compelled to pay; but when both Vessels are to blame, then, unless the liability of the Owners or Charterers of one or both of such vessels becomes limited by law, claims under the Collision Clause shall be settled on the principle of Cross-Liabilities as if the Owners or Charterers of each Vessel had been compelled to pay to the Owners or Charterers of the other of such Vessels such one-half or other proportion of the Latter's damages as may have been properly allowed in ascertaining the balance or sum payable by or to the Owners or Charterers in consequence of such collision.

Sister ship collision. And it is further agreed that the principles involved in this clause shall apply to the case where both Vessels are the property, in part or in whole, of the same Owners or Charterers, all questions of responsibility and amount of liability as between the two Vessels being left to the decision of a single Arbitrator, if the parties can agree upon a single Arbitrator, or failing such agreement to the decision of Arbitrators, one to be appointed by the Managing Owners or Charterers of both Vessels, and one to be appointed by the majority (in amount) of Hull Underwriters interested: the two Arbitrators chosen to choose a third Arbitrator before entering upon the reference, and the decision of such single, or of any two of such three Arbitrators, appointed as above, to be final and binding: Provided always, That this clause shall in no case extend to any sum which the Owners or Charterers may become liable to pay or shall pay for removal of obstructions under statutory powers for injury to harbors, wharves, piers, stages and similar structures, consequent on such collision or in respect of the cargo or engagements of the Insured Vessel, or for loss of life, or personal injury: And provided also, That in the event of any claim being made by the Charterers under this clause they shall not be entitled to recover in respect of any liability to which the Owners of the Vessel, if interested in this policy at the time of the Collision in question, would not be subject nor to a greater extent than the Shipowners would be entitled in such event to recover.

BRITISH SHIP WARRANT AND UNITED STATES OF AMERICA SHIP WARRANT WARRANTY (1943)

Endorsement to be attached to and made part of Policy No. ----------

Warranted that, if the insured vessel is not an excepted vessel and is of other than British (excluding Eire), Belgian, Dutch, Fighting French, Greek Norwegian, Polish Russian, Swedish or United States of America flag, the Owner(s) throughout the full period named in this policy in the case of any vessel of 50 gross register tons or over hereby insured is in possession of a British Ship Warrant.

It is further warranted that, if the insured vessel is not an excepted vessel and is

1. under the United States of America flag or owned by a citizen or citizens of or by a corporation registered in the United States or

2. trading to or from ports in the United States of America (including the Philippine Islands and other United States of America territories and possessions), then, so long as the vessel remains under such flag or so owned or so trading, the Owner(s) or bare-boat, time or other charterer(s) of any vessel of 50 gross register tons or over hereby insured is in possession of a United States of America Ship Warrant.

Provided, That this Further Warranty shall not apply in respect of any vessel whilst employed exclusively as a tugboat, towboat, salvage vessel, pilot vessel, fishing vessel or cable-ship.

Provided also, That neither the Foregoing Warranty nor the Further Warranty shall apply if the insured vessel is—

(1) trading exclusively—

(a) on rivers or inland waters;

(b) between ports of the continental United States of America; or

(c) between ports in a territory or possession of the United States of America;

(2) customarily employed within the limits of a port of—

(a) North, South or Central America; or

(b) any territory or possession of the United States of America;

(3) a dredger.

In the Foregoing Warranty and Further Warranty the expression "excepted vessel" means a vessel which is—

(a) chartered to or requisitioned by the British Minister of War Transport or by the Government of any part of the British Commonwealth of Nations (excluding Eire);

(b) owned by or registered in the name of His Britannic Majesty;

(c) chartered to a national of the British Commonwealth of Nations (excluding Eire);

(d) certified by the British Minister of War Transport to be a vessel in respect of which His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom is under an obligation assumed before the 26th January, 1942 towards any other Government or agency thereof or any national shipowners' Committee to make British facilities, including insurance, available;

(e) owned by the United States of America;

(f) owned by a citizen or citizens of or by a corporation registered in the United States of America and certified by the War Shipping Administration of the United States of America to be entitled to the benefits with respect to insurance of a Ship Warrant holder;

(g) chartered to the War Shipping Administration of the United States of America;

(h) requisitioned by or under the laws of the United States of America.

Effect of breach of warranty: Any breach of the Foregoing Warranty or Further Warranty shall automatically avoid this policy from the date of breach unless the British Minister of War Transport with respect to breaches of the Foregoing Warranty or the War Shipping Administration of the United States of America with respect to breaches of the Further Warranty certifies whether before or after any such breach that such breach is excused.

Where more than one vessel is insured under this policy the singular shall include the plural: Provided, That a breach of the Foregoing Warranty or Further Warranty in respect of one vessel insured hereunder shall not avoid this policy in respect of any other vessels insured hereunder in respect of which no breach has been committed.

WAR RISK CLAUSES

Endorsement to be attached to and be made a part of Policy No. ------

It is agreed that this insurance covers only those risks which would be covered by the attached policy (including the Collision Clause) in the absence of the F. C. & S. warranty contained therein but which are excluded by that warranty.

This insurance is also subject, however, to the following warranties and additional clauses:

The Adventures and Perils Clauses shall be construed as including the risks of piracy, civil war, revolution, rebellion or insurrection, or civil strife arising therefrom, floating and/or stationary mines and/or torpedoes whether derelict or not, and or military or naval aircraft and/or other engines of war including missiles from the land, and warlike operations and the enforcement of sanctions by members of the League of Nations, whether before or after declaration of war and whether by a belligerent or otherwise; but excluding arrest, restraint, or detainment under customs or quarantine regulations, and similar arrests, restraints, or detainments not arising from actual or impending hostilities or sanctions.

If the vessels be insured under marine policies which include the risks of pirates, claims arising from piracy shall nevertheless be paid under this policy and the underwriters hereof shall have no right to contribution from the underwriters of such marine policies it being understood that as between the two sets of policies losses due to piracy are payable under marine policies only to the extent that such losses are not collectible under the war risk policies.

The Franchise warranty in the attached policy is waived and average shall be payable irrespective of percentage and without deduction of new for old. The provisions of the attached policy with respect to constructive total loss shall apply only to claims arising from physical damage to the insured vessel.

Warranted free of any claim for delay or demurrage and warranted not to abandon in case of capture, seizure, or detention, until after condemnation of the property insured. Also warranted not to abandon in case of blockade and free from any claims for loss or expense in consequence of blockade or of any attempt to evade blockade, but in the event of blockade to be at liberty to proceed to an open port and there end the voyage.

Warranted free of any claim based upon loss of or frustration of the insured voyage or adventure caused by arrests, restraints, or detainments, of kings, princes, or peoples.

Warranted free from any claim arising from capture, seizure, arrests, restraints, detainment, condemnation, preemption, or confiscation by the Government of the United States of America or any State or political subdivision thereof or any government which is or may become party signatory of the "United Nations Pact," promulgated on or about January 2, 1942.

Warranted:

(A) No War Risk Insurance in excess of the value as shown hereon whether for hull, machinery, disbursements, or other similar interests however described, exists or will be placed during the currency of this insurance.

(B) Vessel herein described shall sail within 15 days from the expected date of sailing as set forth in this policy, unless this period is extended by the War Shipping Administration.

(C) Any additional premium required by the terms of the policy shall be paid on demand.

(D) No cancellation except by mutual consent.

It is understood and agreed that this policy shall pay its proportion (namely, the proportion which the amount hereby insured bears to the valuation stated herein) of any General Average or salvage charges due from the vessel, notwithstanding the vessel's contribution thereto may have been based on a contributory value in excess of the valuation stated herein; and this policy shall pay the same proportion of any sue and labor expenses chargeable to the property hereby insured: Provided, nevertheless, That the amount payable in respect of any such charges or all combined, in respect of any one disaster, shall in no event exceed the amount hereby insured.

"The Breach of Warranty" clause in the printed policy is deleted and the following clause substituted therefor:

"Held covered in the event of any breach of warranty as to date of sailing, or deviation, or change of voyage, or other variation of the voyage, provided prompt notice be given these Insurers when such facts are known to the Assured and/or their Managers and an additional premium paid if required."

This insurance also covers damage to or destruction of the property insured directly caused by strikers, locked out workmen, or persons taking part in labor disturbances or riots or civil commotions including damage caused by persons acting maliciously, but this paragraph shall not be construed to include or cover any loss, damage, or expense caused by or resulting from (a) civil war, revolution, rebellion, or insurrection, or civil strife arising therefrom, or (b) delay, detention, or loss of use.

This insurance is subject to the provisions of the Ship Warrant Warranty attached.

SUBPART C—CREW INSURANCE

§ 305.300 General. War Shipping Administration is prepared to provide war risk life and accident insurance covering masters, officers, and crews of vessels, war risk crew effects insurance on the personal effects of such persons, and war risk crew wages insurance on the wages of such persons in accordance with the applicable decisions of the Maritime War Emergency Board in cases where its rulings are effective and otherwise as agreed, any of such insurances being provided on the form of policy or policies of insurance consistent with said decisions of the Maritime War Emergency Board; and is also prepared to provide "individual" war risk life insurance covering masters, officers and crews of vessels, such insurance being provided on the form of policy set forth in § 305.315; but no such insurances will be granted unless the vessel on which such persons are employed is either a United States flag vessel, or a vessel engaged in a voyage which brings or is intended to bring the vessel at least once in each round trip to a port in the continental United States, or in special circumstances to a port in the territories and possessions of the United States, or is a vessel engaged in a trade which is in the interests of the war effort or the domestic economy of the United States as determined by the Administrator.

Rates for crew insurances are available by means of a request for an applicable rate submitted to the War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance.

§ 305.301 Application. Whenever an applicant for crew war risk insurances (other than "individual" war risk life insurance) desires to obtain a quotation or to bind such insurance the applicant must provide the War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance, at Room 4089, Commerce Building Washington, D. C., with a statement in writing containing the following information:

(a) The name of the vessel on which the master, officers and crew are employed.

(b) The flag of the vessel.

(c) The name of the owners of the vessel.

(d) The time for which the insurance is to be written and the trade and the voyage of the vessel.

(e) The exact sailing date of the vessel must not be given but it must be stated that the vessel is expected to sail within fifteen days.

(f) Whenever war risk crew life and accident insurance is applied for, the total number of persons, including master, officers and crew, and the total amount of insurance.

(g) Whenever war risk crew effects insurance is applied for, the total sum of money for which the personal effects of the master, officers and crew is to be insured.

(h) Whenever war risk crew wages insurance is applied for, the total sum of the annual payroll and the total amount of war risk crew wages insurance desired to cover the owners' liability for wages and emergency wages during repatriation or detention.

NOTE: Any request for a quotation or a binding made by telegraph must not contain any steamer name or any anticipated date of sailing. Such information to the extent required by the foregoing regulations should be forwarded by Air-Mail letter; the envelope containing the letter should be marked "confidential".

§ 305.302 Payment of premium and binding insurance. The procedure set forth in §§ 305.3, 305.5, 305.6, 305.7, 305.8 and 305.15 hereof is deemed applicable for the guidance of assureds in placing this type of insurance and paying the premium therefor unless otherwise specified at the time of binding.

§ 305.303 Rules applicable to crew war risk insurances. (a) The length of time for which the type of crew war risk insurance specified in § 305.300 (except "individual" war risk life insurance) will be written, is for a period of time not longer than one month or for a round-trip voyage.

(b) Subject to the limits of insurance requested by the assured in each case, war risk insurance on crew interests will be in accordance with the decisions of the Maritime War Emergency Board in effect at the time of binding of the risks, if applicable.

§ 305.304 Crew individual war risk life insurance. Masters, officers and members of the crew of United States flag vessels may obtain amounts of war risk life insurance covering against only the loss of life, unless otherwise agreed.

(a) Such insurance will be written for any amount not less than $1,000 and for any multiple of $1,000 not exceeding $15,000 per any one individual.

(b) Such insurance will be written for a period of time not shorter than one month and not longer than six months, at the option of the assured.

(1) For computing the period of time, the calendar month will be used.

§ 305.305 Application for crew individual war risk life insurance. Masters, officers and members of the crew desiring "individual" war risk life insurance in excess of the protection provided by an employer should make application therefor through the steamship line by which they are employed and the War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance, on application on their behalf from the steamship line, will bind individual war risk life insurance.

(a) The application should be made by using the form of application set forth in § 305.307 properly filled out.

(1) If the application is made through the steamship line the applicant should fill out an original and one copy of the binder set forth in § 305.307 and should date and sign the original and one copy of the binder in the presence of a person who is authorized by paragraph 8 of the binder to witness the signature. The applicant should attach to the original binder a cashier's check or certified check or money order for the full amount of the premium as required by paragraph 9 of the binder. Thereafter, the person who has witnessed the signature of the assured should mail the original binder together with the check or money order to War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance, Room 4089, Commerce Building, Washington, D. C., as specified in paragraph 8 of the binder, and the copy thereof should be mailed to War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance, 99 John Street, New York City.

(2) If application through the steamship line is not practicable, the assured should fill out the original and one copy of the binder, have both properly witnessed, and mail the original together with the cashier's check or certified check or money order for the full amount of the premium to the War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance, Room 4089, Commerce Building, Washington, D. C., and mail the copy to War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance, 99 John Street, New York City.

(3) In cases of necessity where the lack of time prevents a seaman from obtaining a certified check or cashier's check or money order, War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance, will accept a seaman's check which has been endorsed by the steamship line.

NOTE: Crew "individual" war risk life insurance does not include injury, disability, illness and covers only loss of life, unless otherwise agreed.

§ 305.306 Renewal of individual war risk life insurance. Whenever the assured is at sea during the fifteen (15) day period prior to the expiration date of an "individual" war risk life insurance policy, an extension thereof may be arranged on his behalf by either the agent or operator of the vessel or by the beneficiary of the policy by the payment of additional premium to War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance, Washington, D. C., by cashier's check, certified check, or money order, prior to the expiration of said fifteen (15) day period.

§ 305.307 Form of application. The following form of application may be typewritten, printed or mimeographed.

SUBPART D—WAR RISK LIFE INSURANCE FOR FISHERMEN ON AMERICAN OWNED VESSELS

§ 305.400 General. War Shipping Administration is prepared to provide war risk life insurance for fishermen on American owned vessels.

§ 305.401 Application. Application for war risk life insurance for fishermen should be made by letter or telegram sent to War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance, at Room 4089 Commerce Building, Washington, D. C.

(a) The application should be made by either a fishermen's association, or a fishermen's union, or a vessel Owner's association, or other similar organization, or vessel owner, or in an instance where an individual fisherman is for reasons satisfactory to the War Shipping Administration precluded from obtaining such insurance unless such fisherman makes an individual application, then the individual fisherman may apply.

§ 305.402 Amount limit of insurance. Any one individual must be insured for an amount at least equal to one thousand ($1,000) dollars or equal multiples thereof, and for not more than five thousand ($5,000) dollars.

§ 305.403 Time limit of insurance. The period of time for which any one or more individuals may receive coverage provided by such insurance must be not shorter than one month and not longer than four months.

(a) For computing periods of time the calendar month will be used.

§ 305.404 Conditions of the insurance. War Shipping Administration requires the payment of the entire premium prior to the attachment of any risk. It also requires the individuals specified as insured to be safe in port before the policy can be made effective, except that on a renewal of an existing policy effected not later than the termination of the existing policy the requirement of the specified individuals being in safe port does not apply, so long as there are no additional specified individuals in the renewal policy.

§ 305.405 Classification for rate purposes. For rating purposes classification shall be determined by operations scope, as either inshore or offshore:

(a) Inshore fisheries shall be deemed to include all operations confined to territorial waters of the continental United States (excluding Alaska) and all operations where the normal absence of the boat from a port in the continental United States (excluding Alaska) is not in excess of five (5) days.

(b) Offshore operations shall include all other operations based upon the continental United States (including Alaska) and the territories and possessions of the United States.

§ 305.406 Placing of insurance and payment of premium. The procedure set forth in §§ 305.3, 305.5, 305.6, 305.7, 305.8 and 305.15 hereof is deemed applicable for the guidance of assureds in placing this type of insurance and paying the premium therefor.

§ 305.407 Types of policy. Policies of insurance will be issued either to groups of individuals, group policy basis on the form set forth in § 305.409 or to vessel owners covering all personnel aboard the named vessels, blanket form of policy as set forth in § 305.410.

(a) When insurance is required on group policy basis the names of the insured individual fishermen are required to appear in the addendum attached to the policy.

(1) Two copies of the addendum must be prepared by the applicant for the insurance, and one copy thereof must be attached to the certified check or cashier's check or money order tendered in payment of premium, and the other copy thereof must be filed with the War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance.

(b) There must be set forth in the addendum:

1. The fisherman's name.
2. The fisherman's address.
3. The name of the vessel.
4. The type of fishing operation (i. e. inshore or offshore) or a statement of the limits of the fishing operations.
5. The time for which the insurance is to be written.
6. The amount of the insurance.
7. The amount of premium.
8. The name of the designated beneficiary.
9. The address of the designated beneficiary.

(c) When insurance is required on a blanket form of policy, the applicant should state:

1. Name of the assured.
2. Name of vessel.
3. The type of fishing operation (i. e. inshore or offshore) or a statement of the limits of the fishing operations.
4. The time for which the insurance is to be written.
5. The amount of insurance.

(d) Each fisherman insured under the blanket form of policy should prepare a statement prior to sailing, designating the beneficiary and should file the statement with the owner or officer of the vessel, or the duly authorized officer or agent thereof.

(1) The owner or officer of the vessel or duly authorized officer or agent thereof is required to make an accurate crew list which must be kept on shore and which must be witnessed by a person not on the same voyage. It is contemplated under this insurance that prior to departure from shore there will have been filed with the United States Coast Guard for the purposes of information only a crew list stating the names of the fishermen on board the vessel and a brief description of each individual.

(2) The blanket form of policy will contain a warranty to the effect that the assured shall maintain war risk insurance on fishermen's lives for the maximum number of men on board the vessel during the currency of the policy.

§ 305.408 Form of addendum. The following is the form of addendum required to be attached to fishermen's life war risk insurance policy issued on group policy basis.

§ 305.409. Form of life and dismemberment fishermen policy (individual).

Life & Dismemberment
Fishermen Policy # ----------

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

The War Shipping Administration by this policy of insurance hereby insures ----------
----
for account of the fishermen listed in addenda to this policy, for losses incurred during fishing operations of the American owned vessels listed in said addenda within the period of time set forth in said addenda.

I. Against loss of life and bodily injury to said fishermen directly caused by or directly consequent upon the capture of or attack upon said fishermen or said vessels by an enemy of the United Nations, or directly caused by countermeasures taken by the United Nations against such enemy or enemies. The term United Nations shall be deemed to include any Nation signatory to the United Nations Pact executed on or about January 2, 1942.

II. In the event of death or injury covered by the terms of this policy each fisherman shall be covered in the amount set forth opposite his name in the addenda attached hereto and the War Shipping Administration will pay an amount to be determined by applying the percentage shown below to said amount:

Loss of:
Life	100%
Both hands	100%
Both arms	100%
Both feet	100%
Both legs	100%
Both eyes	100%
Hand	50%
Arm	65%
Foot	50%
Leg	65%
Eye	45%
Total destruction of hearing	50%

The indemnities referred to above are payable, provided loss results directly and exclusively from bodily injuries: Provided, however, That such loss shall have occurred within 90 days of the date of accident except when such loss is preceded by a period of total disability commenced, or by previous loss hereunder sustained, within such 90-day period. Loss shall mean, with regard to hands and feet, arms and legs, dismemberment by severance at or above wrist or ankle, knee or elbow joints, or the complete and irrecoverable loss of function; with regard to eyes, complete and irrecoverable loss of sight; with regard to hearing, total and irrecoverable loss of hearing in both ears.

For accidental bodily injury not described in the foregoing schedule which, within 90 days from date of accident from a cause hereinbefore set forth, results in total disability and which necessarily and continuously prevents the person injured from performing any and every kind of duty pertaining to such person's occupation, the War Shipping Administration will pay compensation in monthly installments at the rate of 2% of the principal sum, beginning with the date of return to a port within the Continental United States, during such time thereafter as the total disability persists or until such time as the total of compensation, so paid, shall amount to the principal sum provided for the injured person in the attached addenda. This insurance, however, does not cover illness or disease of any kind (except pyogenic infections which shall occur through an accidental cut or wound) nor any disability due to or arising from mental and/or nervous disorders. Nothing herein shall be construed to cover claims by any member of the vessel's personnel arising from his own willful misconduct

III. All payments for bodily injury, provided by this policy, will be made to the injured fisherman. All payments for death provided for in this policy will be paid to the beneficiary listed in the addenda attached hereto; in the event that no beneficiary is named in the attached addenda, but the fisherman shall have within the Continental United States or its territories one or more persons of a degree of relationship hereinafter set forth, such payment shall be made to such person or persons as follows:

(a) If the fisherman shall be survived by a widow or widower (no child of the deceased surviving), 100 per cent;

(b) If the fisherman be survived by a widow or widower and one or more of his or her children, 50 percent to the widow or widower, and the other 50 percent to the surviving child or to the surviving children in equal shares;

(c) If the fisherman shall be survived by one or more children (no widow or widower surviving), the death benefits shall be payable to his children in equal shares;

(d) If there be no widow or widower and child surviving the fisherman but he is survived by one or both parents, then to such parent, or to such parents in equal shares;

(e) Otherwise, to the estate of the fisherman.

The terms "widow", "widower", "child", and "parent" shall have the meaning respectively ascribed to them by Section 902 of the U. S. Longshoremen & Harbor Workers' Compensation Act (Public 803—69th Congress).

IV. In the event of loss and claim, prompt notice shall be given to the United States Employees' Compensation Commission at one of the addresses listed below. Said Commission shall have the right and an opportunity to require, after return to a port within Continental United States, a physical examination of any fisherman who makes a claim hereunder. No claim hereunder shall be valid unless made by the payee as described in the foregoing section within two years after the date of accident, excluding from such two-year period any time while under internment.

V. In the event of the loss of a vessel listed in the attached addenda, without any conclusive evidence as to the cause of loss, a referee shall be appointed by the United States Employees' Compensation Commission who shall determine whether such loss shall be deemed to have been caused by a peril insured under the terms of this policy. In making such determination, said referee may consider any available evidence as to weather conditions or enemy action in the area involved and any other facts or circumstances deemed by him to be pertinent. The determination of the Referee shall be final and conclusive with respect to all rights hereunder and shall not be subject to judicial or other review except that the United States Employees' Compensation Commission may, in the event that the Referee has been guilty of gross error or misconduct, annul said determination and refer the matter to another referee similarly appointed.

VI. The War Shipping Administration shall pay claims hereunder within 15 days after certification by the United States Employees' Compensation Commission that such claims are payable under the terms of the policy

In Witness Whereof the War Shipping Administration has caused this policy to be signed by its Administrator at Washington, D. C., but this policy shall not be valid unless countersigned by the Director of Wartime Insurance of the War Shipping Administration and unless addenda hereto are countersigned by said Director of Wartime Insurance.

With regard to eyes, complete and irrecoverable loss of sight. With regard to hearing, total and irrecoverable loss of hearing in both ears.

For accidental bodily injury not described in the foregoing schedule which, within 90 days from date of accident from a cause hereinbefore set forth, results in total disability and which necessarily and continuously prevents the person injured from performing any and every kind of duty pertaining to such person's occupation, the War Shipping Administration will pay compensation in monthly installments at the rate of 2% of the principal sum, beginning with the date of return to a port within the Continental United States, during such time thereafter as the total disability persists or until such time as the total of compensation, so paid, shall amount to the principal sum provided for the injured person in the attached addenda. This insurance, however, does not cover illness or disease of any kind (except pyogenic infections which shall occur through an accidental cut or wound) nor any disability due to or arising from mental and/or nervous disorders. Nothing herein shall be construed to cover claims by any member of the vessel's personnel arising from his own willful misconduct.

III. All payments for bodily injury, provided by this policy, will be made to the injured fisherman. All payments for death provided for in this policy will be paid to the beneficiary designated by the master, officer or member of the crew prior to sailing and filed with the owner or operator of the vessel or the duly authorized officer or agent thereof and witnessed, by a person not on the same voyage which shall be conclusive evidence of such designation, and payment to such named beneficiary shall thereby entirely discharge Assurers' liability with respect to such loss. In the event that no beneficiary is filed as aforesaid, but the fisherman shall have within the Continental United States or its territories one or more persons of a degree of relationship hereinafter set forth, such payment shall be made to such person or persons as follows:

(a) If the fisherman shall be survived by a widow or widower (no child of the deceased surviving), 100 per cent;

(b) If the fisherman be survived by a widow or widower and one or more of his or her children, 50 per cent to the widow or widower, and the other 50 per cent to the surviving child or to the surviving children in equal shares;

(c) If the fisherman shall be survived by one or more children (no widow or widower surviving), the death benefits shall be payable to his children in equal shares;

(d) If there be no widow or widower and child surviving the fisherman but he is survived by one or both parents, then to such parent, or to such parents in equal shares;

(e) Otherwise, to the estate of the fisherman.

The terms "widow", "widower", "child", and "parent" shall have the meaning respectively ascribed to them by Section 902 of the U. S. Longshoremen & Harbor Workers' Compensation Act (Public 803—69th Congress).

IV. It is further warranted the assured shall maintain insurance for the maximum number of men aboard. In the event insurance is not carried on the maximum number of men in the event of loss, War Shipping Administration will pay only in the proportion that the number of men insured by the policy bears to the total number of men at risk at time of loss.

V. If a person covered by this policy be covered by this Assurer under a policy or policies for a voyage immediately prior and/or subsequent to the voyage hereunder insured, only one of all of such policies (including this policy) shall be deemed to be in force at any one time, notwithstanding any provision in any or all of such policies to a contrary effect.

VI. In the event of loss and claim, prompt notice shall be given to the United States Employees' Compensation Commission at one of the addresses listed below. Said Commission shall have the right and an opportunity to require, after return to a port within Continental United States, a physical examination of any fisherman who makes a claim hereunder. No claim hereunder shall be valid unless made by the payee as described in the foregoing section within two years after the date of accident, excluding from such two-year period any time while under internment.

VII. In the event of loss of a vessel listed in the attached addenda, without any conclusive evidence as to the cause of loss, a referee shall be appointed by the United States Employees' Compensation Commission who shall determine whether such loss shall be deemed to have been caused by a peril insured under the terms of this policy. In making such determination, said referee may consider any available evidence.

VIII. The War Shipping Administration shall pay claims hereunder within 15 days after certification by the United States Employees' Compensation Commission that such claims are payable under the terms of the policy.

In Witness Whereof the War Shipping Administration has caused this policy to be signed by its Administrator at Washington, D. C., but this policy shall not be valid unless countersigned by the Director of Wartime Insurance of the War Shipping Administration and unless addenda hereto are countersigned by said Director of Wartime Insurance.

SUBPART E—WAR RISK OPEN FREIGHT POLICY

§ 305.600 Introductory. By General Order No. 16 and supplements thereto a uniform bill of lading designated as "War Shiplading 7/1/42" is provided for use in connection with cargoes shipped by a vessel, the operation of which is within the control of the Administrator of the War Shipping Administration. By Clause 27 of said uniform bill of lading the carrier is required to insure freight for the account of shipowner, carrier and consignee.

War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance is prepared to provide marine insurance against loss or damage by the risks of war covering the freight and/or advances which are required to be insured by the carrier in accordance with the provisions of General Order No. 16 ("War Shiplading 7/1/42") Clause 27, by an open war risk and/or advances insurance policy, hereinafter designated Warshipopenfreight Policy.

§ 305.601 Application. Vessel operators desiring to obtain a Warshipopenfreight Policy should negotiate directly with the War Shipping Administration, Division of Wartime Insurance, Room 4089, Commerce Building, Washington, D. C.

§ 305.602 Warshipopenfreight Policy. The following is the form of the Warshipopenfreight Policy:

Warshipopenfreight inbound form

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

WAR SHIPPING ADMINISTRATION

Form of Policy

In consideration of premiums computed and paid as provided in Clause 12 of this policy. War Shipping Administration by this policy of insurance hereby insures _____ for account of carrier, shipper and consignee against war risks as specified herein with respect to all freights and/or advances and/or charges incurred in respect to freight inbound to ports within the continental limits of the United States excluding Alaska which are required to be insured in accordance with the provisions of General Order No. 16, (Warshiplading, July 1, 1942), Clause 27.

a. Under Ocean Bills of Lading dated on or after _____, or

b. If Ocean Bills of Lading not issued, under equivalent shipping documents dated on or after said date, or

c. If no Ocean Bills of Lading or equivalent documents are issued or the same are undated, laden on overseas vessel on and after said date.

For the purpose of this insurance, freight and/or advances insured hereunder shall be valued at:

1. Freight at actual amount at risk as per Bills of Lading and/or Contracts of Affreightment.

2. Advances and/or charges at the aggregate amount thereof made or for which liability is assumed.

The insurance is not to be prejudiced by any clause in the Contract of Affreightment providing that Freight and/or advances, neither of which have in fact been prepaid, are earned, ship or goods lost or not lost, or clauses of similar import.

In the event of loss, whether total or partial, freight earned or not earned, the War Shipping Administration shall be liable for the same percentage of the amount insured which would be recoverable under its standard form of cargo war risk policy if the cargo to which the insured freight and/or advances and/or charges apply, were covered thereunder.

It is further agreed in the event of loss the claimant shall be required to file an affidavit to the effect the amount claimed does not exceed the actual amount of freight at risk during the insured voyage plus advances and/or charges actually incurred with respect to the insured freight. Such affidavit shall be subject to the provisions of Section 35 (A) of the Criminal Code.

Freight and/or advances in respect to each bill of lading to be considered as if separately insured.

This policy may be amended by endorsement attached hereto and executed on behalf of the Administrator of the War Shipping Administration (by the Director of Wartime Insurance).

This insurance may be cancelled by either party upon fifteen days' written or telegraphic notice to the other party but such cancellation shall not affect the interest insured if the cargo to which it is applicable has been loaded on the overseas vessel prior to the effective date of such notice. Shipments which have not been so loaded but for which, prior to the effective date of such notice, bills of lading on dock receipts have been issued, shall nevertheless be covered in accordance with the conditions of this policy at rate to be agreed.

1. This insurance is only against the risks of capture, seizure, destruction, or damage by men of war, piracy, takings at sea, arrest, restraint and detainments, and other warlike operations and acts of kings, princes, and peoples in prosecution of hostilities or in the application of sanctions under international agreements, whether before or after declaration of war and whether by a belligerent or otherwise, including factions engaged in civil war, revolution, rebellion or insurrection, or civil strife arising therefrom, and including the risks of aerial bombardment, floating or stationary mines, and stray or derelict torpedoes; but excluding claims for delay, deterioration and/or loss of market, and warranted not to abandon (on any ground other than physical damage to ship or cargo) until after condemnation of the property insured. Also warranted not to abandon in case of blockade, and free from any claims for loss or expense in consequence of blockade or of any attempt to evade blockade; but in the event of blockade, to be at liberty to proceed to an open port and there end the voyage.

2. Warranted free from any claim based upon loss of, or frustration of, the insured voyage or adventure caused by arrests, restraints or detainments.

3. This insurance does not cover any loss or damage caused by or resulting from any of the following causes:

(a) Commandeering, preemption, requisition, or nationalization by the government (de facto or otherwise) of the country to or from which the interest insured is insured.

(b) Seizure or destruction under quarantine or customs regulations.

(c) Capture, seizure, arrest, restraint, detainment, or condemnation by the Government of the United States of America, or of any State, territory, or possession thereof, or by any government which is or may become party signatory of the "United Nations Pact" promulgated on or about January 2, 1942.

4. This insurance shall not attach to the interest hereby insured or to any part thereof:

(a) Prior to being on board an overseas vessel (for the purpose of this clause 4 an overseas vessel shall be deemed to mean a vessel carrying the interest from one port or place to another where such voyage involves a sea passage by that vessel);

(b) after being discharged overside from an overseas vessel at the final port of discharge, or after expiry of fifteen days counting from midnight of the day on which the overseas vessel is safely anchored or moored at the final port of discharge, whichever shall first occur;

(c) at a port or place of transshipment to another overseas vessel after the expiry of fifteen days (counting from midnight of the day on which the overseas vessel entering with the interest is safely anchored or moored) until the interest is on board the oncarrying overseas vessel. In the event of the exercise of any liberty granted to the Shipowner or Charterer under the contract of affreightment whereby such contract is terminated at a port or place other than the destination named therein such port or place shall be deemed the final port of discharge for the purpose of this clause 4.

5. Subject to the terms of clause 4 above and to any conditions or warranties which may be endorsed hereon, it is agreed that this insurance shall not be vitiated by deviation, overcarriage, change of voyage, or by any error or unintentional omission in the description of interest, vessel or voyage, provided the same be communicated to the War Shipping Administration as soon as known to the Assured and an additional premium paid if required.

6. And in case of any loss or misfortune, it shall be lawful and necessary to and for the Assured, his or their factors, servants and assigns, to sue, labor and travel for, in and about the defense, safeguard, and recovery of the said goods and merchandises, or any part thereof without prejudice to this insurance; nor shall the acts of the Assured or Assurers, in recovering, saving, and preserving the property insured, in case of disaster, be considered a waiver or an acceptance of an abandonment; and to the charges whereof, the said Assurers will contribute according to the rate and quantity of the sum hereby insured.

7 General Average and salvage charges (resulting from a peril hereby insured against) payable according to Foreign Statement or York-Antwerp Rules if in accordance with the contract of affreightment

8. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Policy, it is understood and agreed:

(a) That no claim for freight, storage, or other expense due to the requisition or commandeering of the title or use of any vessel by or with the consent of the country whose flag she flies shall be payable under this insurance, and if as a result of such requisition or commandeering the cargo to which the insured interest is applicable is discharged at a port or place other than the port or place of destination, the port or place of discharge shall be deemed a port or place of transshipment within the meaning of clause 4 (c) of this policy.

(b) That if any vessel shall be ordered into or detained in any port by the United States Government or by any government which is or may become party signatory of the "United Nations Pact" and the goods to which the insured interest is applicable shall be discharged at such port, then, if the goods be not the subject of proceedings of the nature set forth in clause 3 (a), such port or place of discharge shall be deemed a port or place of transshipment within the meaning of clause 4 (c) of this Policy.

9. If the ordinary course of transit of the goods to which the insured interest is applicable is interrupted or terminated by the shipper, consignee, or assured or any party acting on their behalf, this insurance shall forthwith terminate unless otherwise specially agreed by the War Shipping Administration.

10. This insurance shall include loss, damage or destruction of the property insured caused by saboteurs or other enemy agents.

11. It is a condition of this insurance that with respect to all risks coming within the scope of this Policy, the Assured shall file provisional reports with the Director of Wartime Insurance in the manner and form required by such regulations as may be promulgated by the War Shipping Administration from time to time.

12. Not later than the 25th day of each month the Assured shall file with the Director of Wartime Insurance, closing reports in the manner and form required by such regulations as may be promulgated by the War Shipping Administration from time to time of all freights coming within the scope of this policy but this insurance shall not be invalidated by any error or omission which is demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Administrator to have been inadvertent or unintentional.

(1) For which the applicable steamers have arrived at port of destination in the Continental United States during the preceding month, and

(2) With respect to which inability to so arrive is by reason of loss, frustration, or other similar cause, comes to the knowledge of the Assured during the preceding month.

And will pay premium thereon at the applicable cargo rate prescribed by the War Shipping Administration and in effect:

(a) On date of Ocean Bill of Lading, or

(b) If Ocean Bill of Lading not issued, on date of equivalent shipping document, or

(c) If no Ocean Bill of Lading or equivalent shipping document issued, or if same are undated, on date goods are laden on overseas vessel.

Any loss payable hereunder shall be payable in funds current in the United States, to the order of _____ 30 days after full proofs of loss and proofs of interest have been filed with the War Shipping Administration.

In witness whereof the War Shipping Administration has caused this policy to be signed by the Administrator at Washington, D. C. but this policy shall not be valid unless countersigned by or on behalf of the Director of Wartime Insurance.

§ 305.610 Applicability of commercial practice. With respect to all transactions of a type coming within the scope of this general order or any supplements thereto the War Shipping Administration is authorized by statute to exercise its powers, perform its duties and functions, and make its expenditures, in accordance with commercial practice in the marine insurance business. The exercise of this authority shall be at the sole discretion of the Administrator or his duly authorized representative, and any determination of the Administrator or said representative in this respect shall be conclusive and binding upon all parties.

§ 305.611 Amendments. Amendments to rules and to the standard forms may be made from time to time in the form of supplements to this general order. Such supplements unless otherwise specified, shall become effective 48 hours after the date of publication of such supplement in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

§ 305.615 Other insurances. War Shipping Administration is authorized to provide marine insurance and re-insurance against loss or damage by the risks of war and re-insurance against loss or damage by marine risks subject to the provisions of the Merchant Marine Act of 1936 as amended. Any applications for insurance or re-insurance so authorized but not specifically provided for by the foregoing provisions of this general order should be submitted by mail or telegram to the Division of Wartime Insurance of War Shipping Administration. Such applications should specify full and complete details of the transaction to be insured or re-insured to the extent that the details so given are not inconsistent with security regulations.

AUTHORITY: §§ 501.300 to 501.311, inclusive, issued under E.O. 8989, 9156, 9294; 6 F.R. 6725, 7 F.R. 3349, 8 F.R. 221.

§ 501.300. Definitions. As used in this order (§§ 501.300–501.311), or in any order, direction, permit, regulation, or approval issued hereunder, the term:

(a) "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, joint stock company, business trust, or other organized group of persons, or any trustee, receiver, assignee, or personal representative, and includes any department or agency of the United States, any State, the District of Columbia, or any other political, governmental or legal entity;

(b) "Federal department" means any department or agency of the Government of the United States and includes any corporation organized and controlled by the United States;

(c) "Contractor" means any person (except a common carrier) who holds, or is a party, as a subcontractor or otherwise, to a contract with a Federal department, and who in connection with the performance of such contract provides, furnishes, or arranges for the transportation of passengers in local passenger transportation equipment;

(d) "Local passenger transportation equipment" includes buses, street railway cars, trolley coaches, trucks converted for passenger transportation, ferry boats, and other vehicles and vessels, principally used or held for use to carry 9 or more persons (including the operator) in public or private carrier service, but does not include combat equipment of the military and naval forces;

(e) "Common carrier" means any person who holds himself out to the general public to engage in the transportation of passengers by local passenger transportation equipment for compensation;

(f) "Special operation necessary for the prosecution of the war" means any operation involving the transportation of passengers in local passenger transportation equipment requisite in the prosecution of the war, which is conducted for a period of time not exceeding in the aggregate thirty (30) days, or which is for the purpose of supplying an occasional extraordinary demand for such transportation.

§ 501.301 Applicability. The provisions of this order shall be applicable within the continental United States and the territories and possessions of the United States.

§ 501.302 Inventory of equipment. (a) Each Federal department shall file with the Office of Defense Transportation an inventory of all local passenger transportation equipment which, on the effective date of this order (1) was owned by the United States and assigned to or in the possession of such Federal department, or (2) was owned by any person other than the United States and the right to the possession or control of which for any period in excess of 30 days was vested in such Federal department by virtue of any lease, contract, or other arrangement.

(b) Each contractor shall file with the Office of Defense Transportation an inventory of all local passenger transportation equipment, other than equipment held solely for any such contractor, which, on the effective date of this order, (1) was owned by such contractor, or (2) was owned by any person other than such contractor or the United States and the right to the possession or control of which for any period in excess of 30 days was vested in such contractor by virtue of any lease, contract, or other arrangement.

(c) Such inventory with respect to local passenger transportation equipment located in the continental United States shall be filed with the Office of Defense Transportation on or before May 15, 1943, and with respect to local passenger transportation equipment located in the territories and possessions of the United States shall be filed on or before June 15, 1943.

(d) Each inventory of local passenger transportation equipment filed with the Office of Defense Transportation, pursuant to the provisions of this § 501.302, shall contain the following information with respect to each rubber-tired vehicle included therein: (1) the name and address of the owner, (2) the name and address of any person to whom leased or chartered, (3) make of chassis, (4) make of body, (5) year of manufacture, (6) seating capacity, (7) place, places or area at or in which customarily used or held for use, (8) whether or not serviceable, (9) if not serviceable, repairs needed, and (10) such other information as will clearly indicate whether such unit of equipment was constructed as an integral body and chassis, a bus body mounted on a conventional truck chassis or a trailer or semi-trailer, or has been converted or rebuilt from another type of equipment.

(e) Each inventory of local passenger transportation equipment filed with the Office of Defense Transportation, pursuant to the provisions of this § 501.302, shall contain the following information with respect to each street railway car, ferry boat, vessel, or other vehicle which is not rubber-tired, included therein: (1) the name and address of the owner, (2) the name and address of any person to whom leased or chartered, (3) place, places or area at or in which customarily used or held for use, (4) whether or not serviceable, (5) if not serviceable, repairs needed, (6) the passenger capacity and tonnage if a ferry boat or vessel, and (7) such other information as will identify each unit as a street railway car, ferry boat, vessel or other vehicle, and be descriptive thereof.

§ 501.303 Approval required. No Federal department or contractor shall hereafter complete arrangements for the purchase, lease, requisition, or use of local passenger transportation equipment without giving prior notice thereof to the Office of Defense Transportation as required by Executive Order 9294 and unless such purchase, lease, requisition or use shall have been first reviewed and approved by the Office of Defense Transportation.

§ 501.304 Application for approval. Application for approval by the Office of Defense Transportation of the purchase, lease, requisition, or use of any local passenger transportation equipment by any Federal department or contractor shall be made at the time such Federal department or contractor gives the notice to the Office of Defense Transportation that is required by the provisions of Executive Order 9294, and shall contain such information as the Office of Defense Transportation shall require.

§ 501.305 Recommendation to War Production Board. Any person desiring a recommendation by the Office of Defense Transportation to the War Production Board in connection with the purchase or delivery of any local passenger transportation equipment shall make application therefor to the Office of Defense Transportation and furnish such information in connection with and in support of such application as the Office of Defense Transportation shall require. Any recommendation made by the Office of Defense Transportation to the War Production Board with respect to the purchase or delivery of any such local passenger transportation equipment will be made subject to the condition that the applicant, if the application shall be granted, will comply with such terms and conditions with respect to the use of such equipment as may from time to time be prescribed by the Office of Defense Transportation.

§ 501.306 Determination pursuant to the provisions of the Act of December 1, 1942 (Public Law 779, 77th Congress.) A determination by the Office of Defense Transportation, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of December 1, 1942, (Public Law 779, 77th Congress), will be made only when specifically requested by the Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Navy, or the Chairman of the United States Maritime Commission, or the duly authorized representative of any thereof. Each such request shall be in writing and be accompanied by such information as the Office of Defense Transportation shall require. A statement shall be incorporated in each such request to the effect that, in the judgment of the official making such request, existing private and other facilities are not and cannot be rendered adequate by other means to perform the transportation service that is to be performed by the equipment to be purchased, leased, or chartered, and that such purchase, lease, or charter will result in the most efficient method of supplying transportation to the personnel concerned.

§ 501.307 Physical transfer of equipment. (a) Unless authorized by the Office of Defense Transportation or unless necessary as the result of an emergency arising from an accident, public calamity, or military necessity:

(1) No person shall use or operate any local passenger transportation equipment with respect to the purchase and delivery of which the Office of Defense Transportation has made a recommendation to the War Production Board, or permit the use or operation of any such local passenger transportation equipment of which any such person is the owner or operator, except (a) for the purpose, over the route or routes, in the area, and in the particular service set forth in the application made to the Office of Defense Transportation for the recommendation to the War Production Board with respect to the purchase and delivery of such equipment, and (b) for such other purposes, over such other route or routes, in such other areas, and in such other services, as may be specifically authorized by the Office of Defense Transportation; and

(2) No person shall use or operate any local passenger transportation equipment with respect to the purchase and delivery of which the Office of Defense Transportation has not made a recommendation to the War Production Board, or permit the use or operation of any such local passenger transportation equipment of which any such person is the owner or operator, for such period of time or in such service as will require:

(i) The removal for more than 3 consecutive days of such local passenger transportation equipment from the service or services of any common carrier or group of common carriers under a common control or common management, (a) owning or operating such equipment on the date of this order, or (b) using such equipment by approval from the Office of Defense Transportation; or

(ii) The removal of such local passenger transportation equipment, when used and operated by a person not a common carrier, from the service of supplying transportation to and from the particular points, places, plants, camps, schools, and locations to and from which such local passenger transportation equipment (a) was so used and operated, or held for use and operation, on the date of this order, or (b) is used with the approval of the Office of Defense Transportation.

(b) A report of each such use or operation necessary as a result of an emergency and not previously authorized by the Office of Defense Transportation shall be mailed to the Office of Defense Transportation, Washington, D. C., within 7 days after such use or operation is commenced.

(c) Application for authority to use or operate local passenger transportation equipment in a manner prohibited by this § 501.307 shall be made in writing to the Office of Defense Transportation, and shall contain such information as the Office of Defense Transportation shall require.

§ 501.308 Special or general permits. The provisions of this order shall be subject to any special or general permit issued by the Office of Defense Transportation to meet specific needs or exceptional circumstances.

§ 501.309 Exemptions. The provisions of § 501.303 of this order which requires notice to and approval by the Office of Defense Transportation prior to the completion of arrangements for the use of local passenger transportation equipment shall not apply to the use of such equipment (1) for the movement of military and naval personnel on maneuvers or on trips made under official military or naval orders, or (2) on other special operations necessary for the prosecution of the war.

§ 501.310 Federal Reports Act of 1942. This order has been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942. Specific recording or reporting requirements subsequently prescribed will be subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

§ 501.311 Communications. Communications concerning this order should be addressed to the Division of Local Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, Washington, D. C., and should refer to "General Order ODT 35".

This order shall become effective March 17, 1943.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 17th day of March 1943.

A & B COAL CO.

ORDER REVOKING CODE MEMBERSHIP

In the matter of J. A. Allred and W. B. Brown, individually and as copartners, doing business under the name and style of A & B Coal Company, Code Members.

Upon the basis of the findings of fact and conclusions of law set forth in an opinion of the Director filed simultaneously herewith, wherein it appears that J. A. Allred and W. B. Brown, individually and as copartners, doing business under the name and style of A & B Coal Company, code members in District No. 8, operating the A & B Mine (Mine Index No. 2649) located in Overton County, Tennessee, willfully violated section 4 II (e) of the Act, the corresponding section of the Code, and the schedule of effective minimum prices for District No. 8 for truck shipments by selling to various persons between October 1, 1940 and September 25, 1941, both dates inclusive, 3,560.25 tons of 1¼" x 2¾" nut coal at prices ranging from $1.00 to $1.52 per net ton f. o. b. their mine and 203.25 tons of 1¼" x 0 slack coal at prices ranging from 50 cents to 81 cents per net ton f. o. b. the mine, whereas the applicable minimum prices were, respectively, $1.85 and $1.35 per net ton f. o. b. the mine;

It is ordered, That effective fifteen (15) days from the date hereof, the code membership of J. A. Allred and W. B. Brown, individually and as copartners, doing business under the name and style of A & B Coal Company, in District No. 8, be and it hereby is cancelled and revoked; and

It is further ordered, That prior to reinstatement to code membership, code members shall pay to the United States a tax in the amount of $2,675.73, as provided by section 5 (c) of the Act.

Dated: March 17, 1943.

DISTRICT BOARD 13

MEMORANDUM OPINION, ETC.

In the matter of the petition of District Board No. 13 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 13, Docket No. A-1827; in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 13 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the Size Group 10 coals of the New River Mine for rail shipment, Docket No. A-1827, Part II.

Memorandum opinion and order severing Docket No. A-1827, Part II from Docket No. A-1827, and granting temporary relief and notice of and order for hearing.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 13, including the Size Group 10 coals produced for rail shipment at the New River Mine (Mine Index No. 21) of Brookside-Pratt Mining Company; and

It appearing that no final determination should be made at this time with respect to the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals in Size Group 10 produced for rail shipment at the New River Mine (Mine Index No. 21) of Brookside-Pratt Mining Company, as requested in the original petition heretofore filed in this matter for the reason that insufficient facts are available upon which to establish a price classification and minimum price for Size Group 10 coals produced for rail shipment by this mine, and for the further reason that no price classification and minimum price has been established for Size Group 10 coals produced by any mine in Group No. 42;

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the portion of Docket No. A-1827 relating to the coals of the New River Mine (Mine Index No. 21) of Brookside-Pratt Mining Company be, and the same hereby is, severed from the said docket and designated as Docket No. A-1827, Part II.

It is further ordered, That pending further order, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, the schedule of effective minimum prices for District No. 13 for all shipments except truck is supplemented to include the price classifications and minimum prices set forth in the schedule marked Temporary Supplement R, annexed hereto and made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That a hearing in Docket No. A-1827, Part II under the applicable provisions of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 and the rules of the Division be held on March 22, 1943, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, Washington, D. C. On such day the Chief of the Records Section in the Office of the Division will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That W. A. Cuff, or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officers so designated to preside at such hearing are hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, take evidence, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in this proceeding and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to this proceeding may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division for proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which the relief in the original petition is supported or opposed or on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before March 17, 1943.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and any orders entered therein, may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petition, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petition, petitions of intervention or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of this petition.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the petition of District Board No. 13 to establish for the coals in Size Group 10 for rail shipment, produced at the New River Mine (Mine Index No. 21) of Brookside-Pratt Mining Company, in Group No. 42, price classifications and minimum prices similar to those effective for the coals in such size produced at the Empire Mine (Mine Index No. 22) of the DeBardeleben Coal Corporation in Group No. 11.

Dated: March 11, 1943.

MARITIME WAR EMERGENCY BOARD.

STATEMENT OF PRINCIPLES

1. In so far as areas, war bonuses, and insurance are concerned, it is regarded as desirable and necessary that a uniform basis for each item covering the entire nation and the entire industry be reached.

2. Without waiving the right to strike, maritime labor gives the Government firm assurance that the exercise of this right will be absolutely withheld for the period of the war; on a voluntary basis therefore this is a guarantee on the part of labor that there will be no strikes during the period of the war. Representatives of employers in the maritime industry also guarantee there will be no lockouts for the period of the war.

3. The utilization of collective bargaining will in no instance be impaired or restricted by reason of any action taken at this conference. It is understood and agreed that all rights guaranteed to labor and industry with respect to collective bargaining will be retained and all agreements and obligations arising as a result of collective bargaining agreements will in no way be violated. During the period of the war there shall be no limitation or curtailment of the productive or service capacities of either employer or employee.

4. To provide machinery for the settlement of disputes without interruption of service or stoppage of work during the period of the war and to insure the application of the maximum war effort and coordination of all war activities coming within the purview of the maritime industry, the Maritime War Emergency Board with the powers and purposes set forth in Exhibit A, attached hereto, will be created.

EXHIBIT A

PROPOSED BOARD TO EXPEDITE AND COORDINATE THE WAR EFFORTS OF EMPLOYERS AND LABOR IN THE MARITIME INDUSTRY

DECEMBER 18, 1941.

The unions representing the personnel of the vessels of the American Merchant Marine and the operators of those vessels having pledged themselves to cooperate wholeheartedly in the all-out war effort of the Government and to take no action during the war emergency which shall cause any interruption of the service of such vessels, it is of the utmost importance that appropriate means shall be established in order to coordinate the war efforts of employees and employers in the American Merchant Marine and to insure that all questions which may arise between them and which, if not promptly and amicably settled might lead to interruptions in such service, shall be promptly and amicably settled.

It is confidently expected that most of such questions can and will be settled through the normal procedure of collective bargaining between such unions and the steamship operators.

Under present war conditions, however, neither the unions nor the steamship operators will at all times be in position to obtain adequate information with regard to the extent of war risks in order to enable them to bargain intelligently with regard to questions relating to war risk compensation and insurance of the personnel of such vessels.

In order to afford a procedure for settling questions relating to war risk compensation and insurance which will at the same time insure that the consideration thereof shall be based upon adequate and accurate information and that such questions shall be settled in such manner as shall most certainly assist in the prosecution of the war, it is proposed that there shall be established a board to be known as the Maritime War Emergency Board (hereinafter sometimes called the Board), or by some other suitable name, and to be composed and have the powers and duties hereinafter set forth.

The Board shall consist of three members to be named by the President of the United States with the understanding that one member shall be selected from the U. S. Department of Labor and one from the U. S. Maritime Commission.

Whenever any difference shall arise between any steamship operator and any union representing its employees with regard to any question relating to war risk compensation or war risk insurance of personnel of the vessels of such steamship operator and such question shall not be settled through the ordinary procedure of collective bargaining between such steamship operator and its employees, such question shall be referred to the Board by such steamship operator or such union by giving written notice to the Board and to the other party of the intention of the party giving such notice to refer such question to the Board. Such notice shall specify the question to be referred to the Board.

Upon receiving such notice the Board shall as promptly as shall be practicable afford to each party a reasonable opportunity to present evidence and argument in support of the position of such party and the Board shall thereupon render its decision in writing with regard to such question and serve a copy thereof upon each party.

The decision of the Board upon any such question which shall be referred to it as hereinbefore set forth shall be final and binding upon all parties to the difference out of which such question arose.

The Board shall appoint advisory committees of representatives of the steamship operators and of such unions of equal representation for the purpose of consulting with and advising the Board in respect of any other matters looking toward improvement and coordination of the war effort of the United States in the Merchant Marine field.

[DECISION 1 A]

LIFE AND DISABILITY WAR RISK INSURANCE

The Maritime War Emergency Board today announces this Decision with respect to Crew War Risk Life and Disability Insurance.

Article I—Life and Disability Insurance Coverage

Crew members of all merchant vessels documented under the laws of the United States and covered by the Statement of Principles pursuant to which the Board was established, shall be furnished war risk life insurance and disability (including dismemberment and loss of function) protection in the respects and to the extent provided in the form of insurance policy attached hereto. The obligation to furnish such insurance protection shall be deemed fulfilled by the procurement of an insurance policy in the form mentioned above from the War Shipping Administration. If such insurance protection is procured from another source, the obligation to furnish such insurance protection shall not be deemed fulfilled if and to the extent that benefits that are lawfully payable under and pursuant to the terms of the insurance policy aforementioned are not paid. This Decision does not apply to alien crew members who do not reside in the continental United States and who are employed aboard any such merchant vessel engaged in a shuttle service or voyage between foreign ports, except to the extent and with such modifications as may be agreed upon and set forth in their contract of employment.

If the Board, by reason of important changes or developments in war conditions which affect the hazards and risks undertaken by the crew members of the aforementioned merchant vessels, determines that the form and terms of the aforesaid policy should be amended or modified, or if the Board determines that any of the present terms of the aforesaid form of policy are productive of serious injustices or hardship, it may by Decision require that additional or different insurance protection be afforded to crew members of all such merchant vessels and prescribe appropriate amendments or modifications of the form of policy attached hereto accordingly, all in such manner and to such extent as the Board considers advisable. If the Board further determines that such action is necessary and proper in order to avoid unjust discrimination in those cases which have theretofore arisen, it may require, with and upon the concurrence of the Administrator of the War Shipping Administration, that any such additional or different insurance protection and any such amendment or modification of the form of the aforesaid policy be made applicable to such cases, irrespective of whether benefits in such cases have or have not been claimed or paid under and pursuant to the terms of such policy then in effect, all in such manner and to such extent as the Board considers advisable.

Article II—Effective Date

This Decision and the form of insurance policy attached hereto, known as the Second Seamen's War Risk Policy, shall be effective as to all voyages the Articles for which were opened on or after 12:01 A. M. of March 15, 1943. (In those cases in which Articles were not used, the date of the commencement of the voyage shall govern). Benefits as to all Masters, Officers and Crew Members of vessels the Articles for which were opened before 12:01 A. M. of March 15, 1943, (in those cases in which Articles were not used, the date of the commencement of the voyage shall govern) and who are disabled as a result of a peril insured against by the Second Seamen's War Risk Policy occurring after 12:01 A. M. of March 15, 1943, shall be governed by and payable in accordance with the Second Seamen's War Risk Policy. Life insurance with respect to such personnel shall, however, be governed by and payable in accordance with the terms of the policy covering such personnel on the date on which Articles were opened, (or the date of the commencement of the voyage, if Articles were not used): Provided, however, That any beneficiary or person who

(1) Either is entitled to the benefits of such a policy because of the loss of life of the insured as a result of a peril occurring on or after 12:01 A. M. of March 15, 1943, or

(2) Would have been entitled to such benefits if the peril occurring on or after 12:01 A. M. of March 15, 1943, although not a peril insured against under such policy, does constitute a peril covered by the Second Seamen's War Risk Policy, may receive payments of life insurance benefits in accordance with the provisions of the Second Seamen's War Risk Policy on the condition that such beneficiary or person validly releases and relinquishes all of his rights under such prior policy.

Article III—Certificate of Presumptive Death

If the Board is satisfied, on the basis of proof presented, that a crew member is dead, it may issue a Certificate of Presumptive Death of such crew member, upon the request of the owner or charterer of the vessel on which such crew member was employed or was being repatriated.

Article IV—Repeal

Decision No. 1 and all Supplements, Amendments, Clarifications and Memoranda pertaining thereto previously issued by the Maritime War Emergency Board are repealed as of the effective date of this Decision, except in connection with disability claims where such disability arose from a peril occurring prior to 12:01 A. M. of March 15, 1943, and those loss of life claims which by the terms of this Decision are to continue to be governed and controlled by the form of insurance policy attached to Decision No. 1.

MARITIME WAR EMERGENCY BOARD,
EDWARD MACAULEY, Chairman.
JOHN R. STEELMAN,
FRANK P. GRAHAM.

JANUARY 28, 1943.

PREVIOUS BENEFICIARY DESIGNATIONS

The Board requests all owners, operators and seamen's representatives to stress to all interested parties the fact that all acts taken in connection with Decision No. 1 and Supplements thereto, particularly designation of beneficiaries, are of no effect with respect to the Second Seamen's War Risk Policy as to voyages the Articles for which were opened on or after 12:01 A. M., of March 15, 1943, (in those cases in which Articles were not used, the date of the commencement of the voyage shall govern). If seamen desire to designate a beneficiary under the Second Seamen's War Risk Policy as to such voyages, designations must be made in accordance with the terms of that policy; a beneficiary designated under the policy set forth in Decision No. 1 does not automatically continue as beneficiary under the Second Seamen's War Risk Policy.

STIPULATIONS AND CONDITIONS

ARTICLE 1. Persons insured. The persons insured by this Policy are the Master, Officers and Crew of the vessel described on the face of this Policy. Except as to merchant seamen, membership in the vessel's gun crew shall not of itself constitute an individual a member of the crew of the vessel, as that phrase is used herein. Any person or persons insured under any other or similar policy, including the Second Seamen's War Risk Policy, obtained or issued in compliance with the decisions of the Maritime War Emergency Board (issued by the United States Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration or otherwise), insuring against loss of life or disability (including dismemberment and loss of function) or loss of or damage to personal effects or detention, including the occurrence of other situation hereinafter provided) shall not to the extent of such prior coverage, be entitled to coverage under this Policy while such other insurance is in force and effect.

ART. 2. Additional insurance. In the event that any person is employed as a Master or Officer or Member of the Crew of said vessel after the commencement of the voyage, the amount of the premium shall be increased proportionately: Provided, however, That the failure to pay such additional premium shall not affect the additional coverage.

ART. 3. Risks and perils. The insurance is for loss of life, disability (including dismemberment and loss of function), loss of or damage to personal effects, and detention (including the occurrence of other situations hereinafter provided) of the insured, directly and proximately caused by risks of war and warlike operations, including capture, seizure, destruction by men-of-war, sabotage, piracy, takings at sea, arrests, restraints and detainments, acts of kings, princes and peoples in the prosecution of hostilities or in the application of sanctions under international agreements, whether before or after declaration of war and whether by a belligerent or otherwise, including factions engaged in civil war, revolution, rebellion or insurrection, scuttling to prevent capture, aerial bombardment, or, attempts at, or measures taken in defense of, all of the foregoing acts floating or stationary mines, torpedoes, whether derelict or not, collision caused by failure in compliance with wartime regulations, of said vessel or any vessel with which she is in collision, to show the usual full peacetime navigation or anchorage lights, stranding caused by the absence of lights, buoys, or similar peacetime aids to navigation consequent upon wartime regulations, stranding caused by the failure of said vessel to employ a pilot in waters where a pilot would ordinarily be employed in peacetime, but in which the employment of a pilot is dispensed with in compliance with military, naval or other governmental orders, or with a view to avoiding imminent enemy attack (for the purposes of the foregoing, the failure to show lights, the absence of lights, buoys, etc., and the failure to employ a pilot shall be presumed to be the cause of the collision or stranding unless the contrary be proved, and stranding shall include sinking consequent upon stranding or contact with any part of the land), collision with another vessel in the same convoy or collision with any military or naval vessel, that is to say, a vessel manned by and under the control of military or naval personnel and designed to be employed primarily in armed combat service, stranding, collision or contact with any external substance (including ice, but excluding water), as a result of deliberately placing the vessel in jeopardy, in compliance with military, naval or other governmental orders in order to avoid imminent enemy attack, or as an act or measure of war taken in the actual process of embarking or disembarking troops or loading or unloading material of war.

The fact that a vessel, or any vessel with which such vessel is in collision, is carrying troops or military or other supplies, or is proceeding to or from a war base, or is manned or operated by military or naval personnel, shall not alone be sufficient to include in this policy any claim which is not included by the foregoing terms of this article.

ART. 4. Period of Coverage. The period of coverage for each person covered hereunder is

From the time such person signs the Articles or enters into a contract of employment for the voyage of the aforesaid vessel, or if already on Articles for a series of voyages or period of time, from the inception of the aforesaid voyage (i. e., when the vessel is ready to begin the loading of cargo for the aforesaid voyage or to sail in ballast) or, if employed subsequent to the commencement of the voyage, from the time of such employment

Until such person shall be returned to a place within the continental United States, excluding Alaska, including any period of capture or internment,

Unless sooner terminated by desertion, discharge, accepting employment on another vessel for a purpose other than to be repatriated, or the refusal without good cause to return to the continental United States, excluding Alaska, from any place outside thereof, in any of which events the coverage under this Policy shall be at an end. (The term "discharge", as used in this paragraph, does not include instances in which the insured leaves the vessel for medical or hospital treatment or for other causes deemed good and sufficient in the opinion of the Administrator).

ART. 5. Extension of period of coverage. If the insured returns to the continental United States, excluding Alaska, on a vessel which touches or stays at a place or placea within the continental United States, excluding Alaska, other than the place of termination of the voyage and the vessel thence proceeds to such place of termination, the period of coverage in respect to each person covered hereunder who continues to be on board such vessel is extended to the termination of the voyage.

ART. 6. Payment for loss of life. The amount of the payment for loss of life shall be the Principal Sum stated on the face of this Policy subject, however, to any deductions or additions hereinafter contained.

Payment for loss of life shall be made in a lump sum except that when

(a) in the opinion of the Administrator conclusive proof of death is not present, or

(b) the insured at the time of designating a beneficiary or beneficiaries requests on the form provided therefor that the amount payable for the loss of his life be paid in installments, or

(c) the beneficiary or beneficiaries request in writing that the payment for loss of life be made in installments, payment for loss of life may, in the discretion of the Administrator, be made in monthly installments not exceeding twenty-four, in which event no interest is to be added or paid. By requesting payment in installments, the insured and the beneficiary or beneficiaries agree on behalf of themselves, their heirs, executors and administrators to be bound by the provisions of paragraph B, Article 7 hereof, as well as all other provisions contained herein. The beneficiary or beneficiaries may at any time upon written request obtain a lump sum payment of the entire amount yet unpaid if payment is being made in installments pursuant to the written request of the beneficiary or beneficiaries. If payment has been commenced in installments and the Principal Sum is not yet exhausted, the Administrator, in his sole discretion and at any time may direct that payment of the balance of the Principal Sum be paid in a lump sum or in installments of different or varying amounts: Provided, however, That all of the Principal Sum be paid within twenty-four months from the time that the first payment is made.

If any payments are made under Article 12 hereof, the total amount of such payments shall be deducted from the amount of the Principal Sum payable under this Policy for loss of life.

If the personal effects of an insured are lost or damaged under circumstances where payment would be due under the terms hereof to said person for such loss or damage and said person either before or after such loss or damage dies, his death being proximately caused by the risks and perils insured against herein, the amount which would have been payable for the loss of or damage to such personal effects had he survived shall be added to the Principal Sum hereof and shall be payable to the beneficiary of the insurance for loss of life.

ART. 7. Beneficiaries of insurance for loss of life.

A. The insurance shall be payable only to a lawful widow or widower, child (the latter term including a posthumous child, a child legally adopted by the insured, and, if designated, a child in relation to whom the insured stood in loco parentis, and a step-child or acknowledged illegitimate child), parent (including a step-parent, parent by adoption and, if designated, a person who stood in the place of a parent to the insured), brother or sister (including, if designated, step-brothers or step-sisters, half-brothers and half-sisters, and brothers and sisters by adoption), grandparents, grandchildren, and, if designated, nephews, nieces, aunts or uncles, of the insured.

(1) The insured shall have the right to designate the beneficiary or beneficiaries of the insurance, but only within the classes above provided, and shall, in the manner hereinafter described, at all times have the right to change the beneficiary or beneficiaries of such insurance without the consent of such beneficiary or beneficiaries, but only within the above classes. A person or persons so designated shall be known as the primary beneficiary or beneficiaries.

(2) The insured shall have the right also to designate any other person or persons, but only within the above classes, to whom the insurance shall be paid if the beneficiary of beneficiaries designated shall die before the insurance or any portion thereof shall be paid. A person or persons so designated shall be known as the contingent beneficiary or beneficiaries.

(3) If the insured fails to designate a beneficiary or if the beneficiary or beneficiaries, whether primary or contingent, die before the insurance or any portion thereof shall be paid, the insurance will, subject to the provisions of paragraph B hereof, be paid to the beneficiary or beneficiaries within the following classes and in the order named:

(a) If the insured shall be survived by a lawful widow or widower but without any child of him or her surviving, 100 percent to such widow or widower.

(b) If the insured shall be survived by a lawful widow or widower and a child or children of him or her surviving, 50 percent to the widow or widower and 50 percent to the child or children in equal shares.

(c) If the insured shall have no lawful widow or widower of him or her surviving but shall have a child or children of him or her surviving, 100 percent to the child or children in equal shares.

(d) If there shall be no lawful widow or widower or children of the insured of him or her surviving, 100 percent to the parent or parents of the insured in equal shares.

(e) If there shall be no lawful widow or widower, child or parent of him or her surviving, 100 percent to the brothers, sisters, grandparents and grandchildren of the insured in equal shares.

The persons in these classes shall be known as the schedule beneficiaries. As used in this subdivision (3), the term "child" includes a posthumous child and a child legally adopted by the insured, and the term "parent" includes a step-parent and a parent by adoption.

B. The right of any beneficiary to payment of the insurance, or any unpaid installment thereof, shall be conditioned upon his or her being alive to receive payment. No person shall have a vested right to any such insurance or any installment of any such insurance. No insurance shall be paid to the heir or heirs or executors or administrators of the insured or of any beneficiary.

Any insurance or any installment thereof not paid to a primary beneficiary because of his or her death shall be paid to the schedule beneficiary or beneficiaries first or next entitled to priority, as hereinabove provided, unless a contingent beneficiary has been designated, in which event payment shall be made to the contingent beneficiary. Any such insurance or any installment thereof not paid to a contingent beneficiary because of his or her death shall be paid to the schedule beneficiary or beneficiaries first or next entitled to priority as hereinabove provided. It, however, the insured has designated more than one primary beneficiary or more than one contingent beneficiary and if such a primary beneficiary or contingent beneficiary dies before the insurance or an installment thereof, to which he or she may otherwise be entitled, is paid, such insurance or installment thereof shall be paid to the surviving primary or contingent beneficiary, as the case may be.

Any payments of insurance made to a person represented by the insured to be within the permitted classes of beneficiaries shall be deemed to have been properly made and to satisfy fully the obligation of the United States under this insurance policy.

ART. 8. A Designation and changes of beneficiary. The designation of a beneficiary or the change in a designation of beneficiary shall be in writing upon a form or forms and in a manner prescribed by the Administrator, signed by the insured, witnessed either by the Shipping Commissioner or a licensed officer of the vessel, and shall contain the name, address and relationship of the beneficiary to the insured. No designation of a beneficiary and no change of a beneficiary shall be valid unless the instrument containing the designation or change is received by the Administrator at his field office, 99 John Street, New York, N. Y., Provided, however, That the instrument when received shall be considered as valid as of the time of its execution. Whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Administrator that unusual circumstances existed preventing or substantially preventing the designation or change of beneficiary in the manner or form hereinabove set forth and that the interests of justice would be served, he may waive or disregard the failure to comply with such manner and form and recognize as valid an act intended as a designation or a change of beneficiary. The recognition as valid by the Administrator of such an act shall be conclusive and binding upon all persons and payment or payments pursuant thereto shall be a pro tanto discharge of the obligation of the United States under this Policy.

B. Continuing designation. As to any individual insured under the Second Seamen's War Risk Policy form as amended or changed from time to time, the beneficiary or beneficiaries first designated by such insured to receive the proceeds of the insurance provided by such form shall (subject to the limitations of paragraph B, Article 7 hereof), if properly designated, continue to be the beneficiary or beneficiaries of any subsequent insurance provided by such form without further designation unless and until such initial designation is effectively revoked or changed. In the event of an effective revocation unaccompanied by a new designation, the insurance proceeds shall be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of paragraph A, subdivision (3), Article 7, hereof. In the event of an effective change of beneficiary or beneficiaries, the new beneficiary or beneficiaries so designated shall for all purposes, including the purposes of this paragraph, be considered as the initial designee or designees, and such designation shall continue to be effective as to all insurance provided by this form of Policy until revoked or changed. Subsequent revocations and changes shall for all purposes be treated as would be the preceding revocations or changes, if any.

ART. 9. Claims. No claim for insurance for loss of life shall be recognized unless presented in writing to the Insurer. Any payment or payments of the insurance or the installments thereof made prior to the presentation of claim shall be conclusively deemed to have been properly made under this Policy and in complete discharge of the obligation of the United States under this Policy to the extent thereof.

ART. 10. Time for payment of insurance for loss of life. Unless extended by the provisions hereinafter contained, payment of the insurance for loss of life shall be made within ninety days after the death of the insured is established in a manner satisfactory to the Administrator or the Maritime War Emergency Board, but payment may be made prior to the expiration of such ninety days at the discretion of the Administrator. The time for payment may be extended without penalty or interest for that period of time consumed by the Administrator in establishing the identity or the location of the beneficiary or beneficiaries, and should any conflicting claims for payment be presented to the Administrator, payment of the insurance may be withheld and the time for payment thereof extended without any penalty or obligation to pay interest until such claims are duly adjudicated or otherwise withdrawn, settled or compromised to the satisfaction of the Administrator.

ART. 11. Proof of death. The time and facts of death of any insured shall be established in a manner satisfactory to the Administrator; and his determination of the time and facts of death shall be binding and conclusive against all persons for all purposes of this Policy. If, however, payment of a part of the insurance for loss of life has been made and it appears that the insured is alive, payment of the balance of the insurance for loss of life shall not be made, but the payments of insurance in whole or in part theretofore made shall not be recovered, except where such payments were induced by wilful misrepresentation or fraud either by the beneficiary or any other person. The part so paid shall, however, be a discharge to the extent thereof of any other obligation under this Policy, including the obligation to pay benefits under Article 17 hereof, to the insured or any other person.

ART. 12. Disability and dismemberment.

A. Disability. "Disability" as that term is used in this Policy means incapacity because of injury proximately caused by the risks insured against herein which necessarily and continuously prevents the insured from performing any and every kind of duty pertaining to his occupation at the time of injury.

(1) If an insured suffers disability he shall be paid benefits at the rate of $100 a month, beginning with his return to the continental United States, excluding Alaska, until the Administrator determines that the disability has ceased or until a total of $5,000 is paid, whichever first occurs.

(2) If the Administrator determines at any time during the period such monthly benefits are payable that the insured has received maximum medical treatment for such disability and that such disability is, therefore, permanent in quality (loss of both hands, or both arms, or both feet, or both legs, or both eyes, or combination of any two thereof, will be conclusively presumed by the Administrator to constitute a disability permanent in quality), he shall notify the insured of such facts and the insured shall have the option of

(a) continuing to receive such monthly benefits at the rate of $100 a month until the aggregate of all the monthly benefits paid to him both before and after such determination total $5,000, or

(b) receiving in a lump payment the sum of $5,000, less the total of the monthly benefits paid to him prior to such determination.

(3) In the event the insured elects after such determination to accept payments for such disability under subdivision (2) (a) hereof and if when the total of $5,000 has been paid him as therein provided, the insured claims in writing, and establishes to the satisfaction of the Administrator, that because of the same injury he is incapable of performing, for remuneration or profit, any work or engaging in any business or occupation, then he shall be paid further benefits at the rate of $100 a month until the Administrator determines such incapacity has ceased or until a total of $2,500 is paid, whichever first occurs.

B. Dismemberment, including loss of function. If the Administrator determines that the insured, as a proximate result of the risks insured against herein, has suffered a dismemberment or loss of function of the type set forth below, not, however, amounting to disability which the Administrator determines to be permanent in quality, the Insurer will pay to the insured additional benefits measured by the following percentages of the Principal Sum. Such benefits shall be in addition to the benefits paid under subdivision (1), paragraph A hereof, but the aggregate of such benefits for disability, dismemberment, and loss of function shall not exceed the Principal Sum.

(1) Member lost:	Percentum
(a) Arm	65
(b) Leg	65
(c) Hand	50
(d) Foot	40
(e) Eye	35
(f) Thumb	15
(g) First finger	10
(h) Great toe	9
(i) Second finger	5
(j) Third finger	5
(k) Toe other than great toe	2½
(l) Fourth finger	2½

(m) Loss of hearing: for complete loss of hearing of one ear, 12½%; for the complete loss of hearing of both ears, 50%.

(n) Phalanges: for loss of more than one phalange of a digit, the same as the loss of the entire digit; for loss of the first phalange one-half the loss of the entire digit.

(o) Amputated arm or leg: for an arm or leg, if amputated at or above the elbow or the knee, the same as for the loss of the arm or leg; if amputated between the elbow and the wrist or the knee and the ankle, the same as for the loss of a hand or foot.

(p) Binocular vision or per centum of vision: for loss of binocular vision or for eighty per centum or more of the vision of an eye shall be the same as for loss of the eye.

(q) Two or more digits: for loss or loss of use of two or more digits, or one or more phalanges of two or more digits, or a hand or foot, may be proportioned to the loss of use of the hand or foot occasioned thereby but shall not exceed the payment for loss of a hand or foot.

(r) Total loss of use: for permanent total loss of use of a member shall be the same as for loss of the member.

(s) Partial loss or loss of use: payment for permanent partial loss or loss of use of a member may be for proportionate loss of the member or loss of use of the member.

(t) Disfigurement: proper and equitable payment for serious facial or head disfigurement, not to exceed 50%.

(u) Total or partial loss or loss of use of more than one member or parts of members. In any case in which there shall be a loss or loss of use of more than one member or parts of more than one member set forth in subdivision (a) to (t) both inclusive, hereof, but not amounting to permanent total disability, payment shall be made for the loss or loss of use of each such member or part thereof, however, not exceeding the Principal Sum, and except that where the injury affects only two or more digits of the same hand or foot, subdivision (q) hereof shall apply.

(2) The amount determined by the Administrator to be due the insured for dismemberment or loss of function shall

(a) if $750 or less, be paid the insured in a lump sum as soon as practicable.

(b) if more than $750 be paid, at the option of the insured, in a lump sum or in monthly installments of $100 beginning with the month next succeeding the last monthly payment made for disability pursuant to the provisions of subdivision (1), paragraph A hereof, or as soon thereafter as is practicable. The insured shall notify the Administrator in writing of the desired method of payment immediately upon receipt of the Administrator's determination that the insured is entitled to payment for dismemberment or loss of function under this paragraph. Should the Administrator not receive such written notice within thirty days, it shall be conclusively presumed that the insured desires payment in a lump sum and the Insurer will act accordingly.

(3) If the insured elects under subdivision (2) (b) hereof to accept payment for dismemberment or loss of function in monthly installments, the number of installments due shall be increased in number by 10%, but in no event shall the increase be less than one installment of $100.

C. Injury increasing disability. The Administrator in determining if disability, dismemberment or loss of function exists, or if found to exist, the quality thereof, will not take previous disabilities, dismemberments or losses of function into account. If, however, such previous condition was insured under the Second Seamen's War Risk Policy, the insured shall receive with respect to the two claims an aggregate sum not less than he would have been entitled to under either subdivision (2) and (3) of paragraph A or paragraph B hereof, had the injuries causing both disabilities been received at the same time.

D. Disability shall not include incapacity directly resulting from bodily or mental infirmity or disease of any kind. Nor shall benefits be paid for dismemberment or loss of function directly resulting from bodily or mental infirmity or disease of any kind.

E. If the insured elects after a determination by the Administrator that he is entitled to benefits under either subdivision (2) paragraph A or paragraph B hereof to accept payments for such disability, dismemberment, or loss of function, as the case may be, in installments, and if the insured dies from a cause not insured against herein before he has received the last installment, the remainder which he would have received under such subdivision had he survived shall be paid to the person or persons who would have received his life insurance hereunder, subject, however, to all the conditions, stipulations, and provisions contained in this Policy governing the disposition and payment of the insurance for loss of life.

The right of the insured to payment of the benefits provided for herein shall be conditioned upon his or her being alive to receive payment, and benefits shall not be paid to the heirs, executors, or administrators of the insured, or of any other person.

ART. 13. Physical examination. The Insurer shall have the right to require an examination of the person of the insured when and so often as it may reasonably require and also the right and opportunity in case of death to make an autopsy where it is not forbidden by law.

ART. 14. Personal effects defined. The term "personal effects" includes personal property reasonably necessary or required for use on board the vessel as well as those articles ordinarily or customarily carried on board for the personal use, wear, comfort, or convenience of the insured, either while on board, while in a foreign port, or upon his return to the home port. Articles of apparel, whether used for ornamentation or otherwise, and articles used in the performance of duties on board, are also included. Articles carried for the purpose of business foreign to the actual duties of the insured, or for resale, are excluded.

ART. 15. Amount of payment for loss of, or damage to, personal effects.

A. In the event of total loss of, or damage (equivalent to total loss) to the personal effects of any insured, reimbursement for such total loss or damage shall be as follows:

(a) Licensed Officer, $500.

(b) Unlicensed Crew Member, $300.

(c) U. S. Merchant Marine Cadet or Cadet Officer, $300.

If an insured shall establish the loss of a sextant which he carried aboard the vessel, he shall be paid $100 extra. If the insured shall establish the loss of binoculars, tools or similar professional equipment which he carried aboard the vessel, he shall be paid $50 extra. A total loss shall be determined without reference to apparel actually worn by the crew member at the time of the loss or damage.

B. In the event of a partial loss of or damage to the personal effects of an insured, he shall be reimbursed for the actual value of such effects lost or damaged to the extent of such loss or damage, but in no event shall the payment for such effects lost or damaged exceed the amounts set forth in paragraph A of this Article 15 for which total loss or damage is payable.

ART. 16. Death of an insured prior to payment for loss of or damage to personal effects. Payment for loss of or damage to personal effects shall be conditioned upon the insured being alive to receive payment, and shall not be payable to his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns.

ART. 17. Detention and repatriation benefits.

A. If it is established to the satisfaction of the Administrator, who, for this purpose, may rely on any official information furnished him by any department or agency of the United States Government, that the insured's vessel has been destroyed or abandoned as a result of a risk or peril insured against herein and that the insured has survived such an event and is not detained (in the sense that that term is used in paragraph B, Article 17 hereof), monthly benefits shall be paid as hereinafter provided in this paragraph A. Such monthly benefits shall be equal to the monthly basic wage of the insured (including special emergency wage), as shown by the applicable Shipping Articles at the time he signed on or, if not on Articles, by his contract of employment for the voyage at the time such contract was first made. Such monthly benefits shall be paid from the date of such destruction or abandonment of the vessel, which, for the purposes hereof, shall be the date recognized by the Administrator when the obligation to pay wages under the applicable Shipping Articles or contract of employment terminated, or which is otherwise fixed by the Administrator as the date of such destruction or abandonment, and shall continue until the insured arrives at a continental port of the United States.

Such monthly benefits shall be paid to the person or persons, if living, to whom the insured's wages are allotted under the applicable Shipping Articles. Such allottee or allottees shall receive that portion of the monthly benefits which is equal in amount to the insured's monthly wage which has been allotted, provided such latter amount does not exceed the amount of the monthly benefits. If no such allotment has been made, or if the person to whom the insured has allotted his wages is dead or dies, or if an allotment has been made and the allottee is living but the amount of monthly benefits exceeds the amount which can be paid to such allottee, the benefits or the remainder thereof shall be held by the Administrator for the benefit of the insured until his return to the continental United States, excluding Alaska, with the right to the Administrator, however, to pay such benefits or the remainder thereof in whole or in part to any person or persons named in subdivision (3), paragraph A, Article 7 of these Stipulations and Conditions, including the allottee or allottees aforementioned, and such payment when made shall be conclusively presumed to have been made for the account of the insured.

B. If it is established to the satisfaction of the Administrator, who, for this purpose may rely on any official information furnished him by any department or agency of the United States Government, that the insured is detained, either by capture by an enemy of the United States or by internment, but not otherwise, monthly benefits shall be in the same amount or amounts and shall be held or paid in the same manner and for or to the same person or persons as set forth in paragraph A, Article 17 hereof. Such monthly benefits shall be paid during such period of detention but for no longer than two years beginning with the date that the insured suffered such detention as determined by the Administrator.

C. If, in the opinion of the Administrator, it is uncertain

(1) Whether the insured survived or died as a proximate result of the occurrence of a risk or peril insured against, or

(2) Whether the insured survived or died as a proximate result of the occurrence of an event which may be a risk or peril insured against, but as to which, in the opinion of the Administrator, there is also uncertainty, or

(3) Whether the insured's vessel has been destroyed or abandoned as a proximate result of a risk or peril insured against, although it is certain, in the opinion of the Administrator, that the insured is alive, or

(4) Whether the insured is detained (in the sense that that term is used in paragraph B, Article 17 hereof), although it is certain, in the opinion of the Administrator, that the insured is alive, monthly benefits shall be paid as hereinafter provided in this paragraph C. Such monthly benefits shall be in the same amount or amounts and shall be held or paid in the same manner and for or to the same person or persons as set forth in paragraph A, Article 17 hereof. Such monthly benefits shall be paid from the date, as fixed by the Administrator, the insured, if alive, was probably separated from his vessel under any of the respective situations set forth above and shall continue until

(a) The Administrator determines that the insured is entitled to benefits as provided in paragraph A, Article 17 hereof, in which event monthly benefits shall thereafter be paid as provided in paragraph A, Article 17 hereof, or

(b) The Administrator determines that the insured is entitled to benefits as provided under paragraph B, Article 17 hereof, in which event monthly benefits shall thereafter be paid as provided in paragraph B, Article 17 hereof, or

(c) The death of the insured is established in a manner satisfactory to the Administrator, or

(d) The issuance by the Maritime War Emergency Board of certificate of presumptive death of the insured, or

(e) Three months shall have elapsed, in which event benefits shall cease: Provided, however, That if the Administrator determines that at any time after such benefits have ceased the insured is entitled to benefits or has been entitled to benefits as provided in either paragraph A or paragraph B, Article 17 hereof, monthly benefits shall thereafter be paid as provided in paragraph A or paragraph B, Article 17 hereof, as the case may be, with proper adjustment for the period that the insured was entitled to be paid such benefits prior to the Administrator's determination thereof and following the expiration of such three months period, whichever first occurs.

D. If, after the expiration of the two year period mentioned in paragraph B, Article 17 hereof, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Administrator that the insured is still being detained, the Maritime War Emergency Board, with the concurrence of the Administrator, may determine that further detention benefits shall be paid for an additional period or periods of time and in amounts which the Maritime War Emergency Board, with the concurrence of the Administrator, deems just and proper.

E. If, while the insured is being paid benefits under either paragraph A or B or C or D, Article 17 hereof, the Administrator determines that the insured was not, or is no longer, entitled to benefits under the provisions of such paragraph, then the payment of such benefits shall cease: Provided, That if the Administrator determines the insured is entitled to benefits under the provisions of any other of such paragraphs, the insured shall thereafter be entitled to benefits under the provisions of such paragraph.

F. In no event shall benefits be paid under paragraphs, A, B, C or D, Article 17 hereof, beyond three months after the termination of the present war shall have been proclaimed by the President or beyond the time that the insured shall either refuse without good cause to return to the continental United States, excluding Alaska, or accept employment on another vessel for a purpose other than to be repatriated.

G. In no event shall the insured upon his return to the continental United States, excluding Alaska, be entitled to receive, under paragraph A or B or C, Article 17 hereof, benefits exceeding a sum equal to twelve months' basic wage (including special emergency wage). In determining this limitation upon the amount which the insured, upon his return to the continental United States, is entitled to receive under paragraphs A, B or C of Article 17 hereof, benefits paid to his allottees or to the persons named in subdivision (3), paragraph A, Article 7 hereof, shall not be considered.

H. The right of the insured to be paid benefits or to have benefits paid on his account, under paragraphs A, B, C or D, Article 17 hereof, shall be conditioned upon the insured actually being alive during the period such benefits accrued or were paid. Such benefits under no circumstances shall be paid or considered payable to the heirs, executors or administrators of the insured or of any allottee or schedule beneficiary of the insured: Provided, however, That benefits paid to the allottees or schedule beneficiaries before the fact of death becomes known to the Administrator shall not be recovered.

ART. 18. Payment constituting a discharge. A payment by the Administrator to the person or persons determined by him to be entitled to all or any of the proceeds of this Policy shall constitute a pro tanto discharge of the obligations under this Policy of the United States of America, the War Shipping Administration, and the Administrator.

ART. 19. Non-assignability. Neither this Policy nor any part thereof nor any insurance, benefits or allowances payable hereunder shall be assignable.

ART. 20. Amount permitted to be paid agents or attorneys. Except in the event of legal proceedings arising under or in connection with this Policy, payment to any attorney, agent or any other person acting for or on behalf of an insured, beneficiary or recipient, by such insured or any beneficiary or recipient, for such assistance as may be required in the preparation of the claim, shall not exceed $25.00 in any one case, except that the Administrator may approve an additional amount in those cases in which he feels the nature of the services rendered warrant it. At any time during the pendency of any litigation arising under or in connection with this Policy or whenever a judgment or a decree shall be rendered in an action or proceeding arising under or in connection with this Policy for the payment of any insurance, benefits or allowances under this Policy, the court in which such action or proceeding is pending or in which a judgment or decree has been rendered may and is requested to allow such fees for the attorney or attorneys of the person or persons who are parties to such action or proceeding or who have obtained a judgment or a decree, as it may determine to be just compensation for the services rendered. Before the payment of any insurance, benefits or allowances hereunder, or any judgment or decree, as aforesaid, the Administrator may require proof to be submitted to him in the form of an affidavit, or in any other manner which to him seems fit, by the insured, the beneficiary, the recipient, or holder of any judgment or decree or his attorney, agent, or any other person acting for or on their behalf, or any or all of them, that the payment previously or thereafter to be made to such attorney, agent or other person does not exceed the sum herein specified or allowed by the court, as the case may be.

ART. 21. Notice of loss and claim. Notice of disability (including dismemberment and loss of function), and claim for payment therefor under this Policy shall be given to the Administrator within ninety days after the happening of the event causing the disability (including dismemberment and loss of function), or ninety days after the insured returns to the continental United States, excluding Alaska. Notice of loss of, or damage to, personal effects and claim for payment therefor under this Policy shall be given to the Administrator within ninety days after the happening of the event causing the loss, or ninety days after the insured returns to the continental United States, excluding Alaska.

ART. 22. Limitation of suit. No action or suit upon this Policy shall be valid unless commenced within two years from the time the insurance, benefits or allowances conferred by this Policy are payable, except that

(a) an action or suit by the insured may be commenced at any time within two years after he returns to the United States or the termination of the present war shall have been proclaimed by the President, whichever first occurs, and

(b) the time during which a person, other than the insured, is in enemy occupied territory shall be excluded from the two-year period as aforesaid.

ART. 23. Deviation and change of voyage. This insurance shall not be affected by a deviation or change of voyage of the vessel, except that the Administrator may require the payment of an additional premium.

ART. 24. "Administrator" defined. Wherever the term "Administrator" is used in this Policy that term shall include the person who is the Administrator of the War Shipping Administration at the time of the issuance of this Policy and his successor or successors in office, and such other person or persons employed by the Administrator, the War Shipping Administration, or the United States of America, in the War Shipping Administration to whom the Administrator may delegate duties or powers for the administration of the insurance. Wherever there is mention in this Policy of a decision, determination or exercise of discretion by the Administrator, such terms shall include a decision, determination or exercise of discretion of a person or persons to whom the Administrator may delegate such power or powers and shall not be taken to mean that the personal act of the Administrator is required.

ART. 25. Multiple claims against the United States.

A. It is the intent of the Insurer in the issuance of this Policy to avoid providing or paying any benefit or sum of money for any loss, event or occurrence to the extent that legal liability to pay for the same loss, event or occurrence otherwise exists on the part of the United States of America, the War Shipping Administration, the Administrator, the owner of a vessel under time or bareboat charter to the War Shipping Administration, the operator of a vessel owned by the War Shipping Administration or under time or bareboat charter to it, or the agent of the War Shipping Administration in the operation of such a vessel, and this Policy shall be construed to give effect to such intent. By the Acceptance of the insurance protection afforded by this Policy, by the designation of any beneficiary thereunder or by otherwise acting pursuant to the terms of this Policy, the insured, in behalf of himself, his personal and legal representatives, administrators, executors, heirs at law, next of kin, dependents and beneficiaries, acknowledges such intent and agrees to the conditions and provisions of this Policy, including specifically those contained in this Article 25. Similarly, any beneficiary or person to whom any benefit or sum of money is paid under the provisions of this Policy does, by making claim therefor or by the acceptance thereof, acknowledge such intent and agrees to the conditions and provisions of this Policy, including specifically the conditions and provisions of this Article 25.

B. If any final judgment or award is obtained by any person against the United States of America, the War Shipping Administration, the Administrator, the owner of a vessel under time or bareboat charter to the War Shipping Administration, the operator of a vessel owned by the War Shipping Administration or under time or bareboat charter to it, or the agent of the War shipping Administration in the operation of such a vessel by reason of the loss of life, disability (including dismemberment and loss of function), loss of or damage to personal effects, or detention (including the occurrence of other situations hereinbefore provided) of the insured but based on a claim or cause of action other than one under this Policy, and if such respective loss of life, disability (including dismemberment and loss of function), loss of or damage to personal effects, or detention (including the occurrence of other situations hereinbefore provided) of such insured, either separately or combined, also constitutes or forms the basis of a claim payable under this Policy, the amount which otherwise would have been payable hereunder because of such claim shall be reduced by an amount equal to the amount of such final judgment or award, unless such person, in a form and manner satisfactory to the Administrator, effectively and validly releases or discharges the United States of America, the War Shipping Administration, the Administrator the owner of a vessel under time or bareboat charter to the War Shipping Administration, the Administrator, the operator of a vessel owned by the War Shipping Administration or under time or bareboat charter to it, or the agent of the War Shipping Administration in the operation of such a vessel from their respective obligations under such final judgment or award to the extent of the amount of such claim payable under this Policy.

C. The payment and acceptance of any benefit or sum of money under this Policy shall constitute a waiver, release, acceptance, discharge and satisfaction, to the extent of such payment, of any and all claims, causes of actions, judgments or awards against the United States of America, the War Shipping Administration, the Administrator, the owner of a vessel under time or bareboat charter to the War Shipping Administration, the operator of a vessel owned by the War Shipping Administration or under time or bareboat charter to it, or the agent of the War Shipping Administration in the operation of such a vessel other than under this Policy but arising out of the respective loss of life, disability (including dismemberment and loss of function), loss of or damage to personal effects, or detention (including the occurrence of other situations hereinbefore provided) for which such benefit or sum of money was paid and accepted under this Policy.

D. This Article 25 shall not apply to claims for wages, maintenance and cure where the right to such items arises under the general maritime law of the United States and not under this Policy, but this Article 25 shall apply to claims for wages to the extent that the insured, his aliottee or any other person who is entitled to receive or has received benefits or sums of money under Article 17 hereof, and to claims for maintenance to the extent and for the period that the insured is entitled to receive or has received benefits or sums of money under paragraph A of Article 12 hereof.

ART. 26. Amendments and modifications. If the Maritime War Emergency Board determines that the Second Seamen's War Risk Policy should be amended and modified to provide for increased hazards and risks undertaken by the Masters, Officers and Crews of vessels of the American Merchant Marine arising from important changes or developments in war conditions, or if the Maritime War Emergency Board determines that the Second Seamen's War Risk Policy should be amended and modified to correct injustices or cases of hardship arising under and by virtue of its present terms, the Administrator agrees and reserves the right to amend or modify the Second Seamen's War Risk Policy, including this particular Policy, in such manner and in such respects as prescribed by the Maritime War Emergency Board. If the Maritime War Emergency Board further determines, with the concurrence of the Administrator, that it is necessary and proper to make such amendments or modifications retroactive in effect in order to avoid serious inequalities the Administrator agrees and reserves the right to make any such amendment or modification applicable to any and all cases or claims arising under the Second Seamen's War Risk Policy, including this particular Policy, irrespective of whether benefits have or have not been claimed or paid thereunder, in such manner and in such respects as prescribed by the Maritime War Emergency Board, with the concurrence of the Administrator.

[Decision 2 A]

BONUS

The Maritime War Emergency Board today announces this Decision with respect to Bonus.

Article I—Voyage Bonus, Area Bonus and Port Attack Bonus Required

Voyage bonus, area bonus, and port attack bonus shall be paid under this Decision to licensed and unlicensed personnel employed on United States flag vessels of the American Merchant Marine.

Article II—Voyage Bonus Classifications

Classification I—(High Bonus)—100%. A. Trans-Atlantic voyages (and extensions thereof), other than voyages or parts of voyages in Classifications II and III, whether to Europe, Africa, Asia, or elsewhere, outward and homeward.

B. Trans-Pacific voyages (and extensions thereof), other than voyages or parts of voyages in Classifications II and III, whether to Asia, Australia, Africa or elsewhere, outward and homeward; specifically including voyages from Pacific ports of North America to ports in Alaska if the vessel proceeds to Alaska directly across the Pacific rather than by a route which parallels the Coast outside of the Inland Passage as defined in Classification III, Paragraph A.

C. Voyages, other than voyages or parts of voyages in Paragraph B of this Classification or in Classifications II and III, between Pacific ports in the United States, Canada and Alaska, while west of 136° west longitude.

D. Voyages, other than voyages or parts of voyages in Classifications II and III, between ports in Iceland, Greenland, North America, South America, the West Indies and Central America.

E. Voyages, other than voyages or parts of voyages in Classifications II or III, in the Gulf of Mexico.

Classification II—(Low Bonus)—40%. A. Voyages or portions of voyages, other than voyages or parts of voyages in Classifications I and III, between Pacific ports in the United States, Canada and Alaska, while east of 136° west longitude.

B. Voyages or portions of voyages, other than voyages or parts of voyages in Classification III, between Pacific ports in North America (excluding Alaska), South America and Central America. For the purpose of this Classification, the Pacific entrance to the Panama Canal, the Pacific entrance to the Strait of Magellan, and the crossing of a line drawn due south from Cape Horn shall be considered Pacific "ports".

Classification III—(No Bonus). A. Voyages in the inland passage to Alaska consisting of the following waters:

i. Waters to the eastward of a line drawn from Cape Flattery, Washington, to Pachena Point Lighthouse, Vancouver Island, and all waters to the northward and eastward of Vancouver Island.

ii. Waters to the eastward of a line drawn from Cape Scott, Vancouver Island, to Cape St. James, Queen Charlotte Islands, including the waters of Queen Charlotte Islands (Hecate Strait).

iii. Waters to the eastward of a line drawn from Cape Know, Queen Charlotte Islands, to Cape Muzon, Dall Island (Dixon Entrance).

iv. Waters to the eastward of a coastal line drawn from Cape Muzon to Cape Bartolome and thence to Cape Ommaney, and Cape Edgecumb at the entrance to Sitka Sound.

v. Waters to the eastward of a coastal line drawn from Cape Edgecumb to Cape Spencer, the entrance to Cross Sound.

B. Voyages between ports not south of New York nor north of Boston are included within this Classification when vessels proceed via Long Island Sound and do not proceed east of 70° west longitude.

C. Any portion of any voyage east of a line drawn in the Straits of Juan de Fuca from Cape Flattery, Washington to Pachena Point, Vancouver Island.

D. Any portion of any voyage while in the St. Lawrence River west of Father Point.

E. Any portion of any voyage while transiting the Panama Canal.

F. Any portion of any voyage while in the Strait of Magellan. The boundaries of the Strait of Magellan are as follows:

(a) Atlantic boundary line: A line running in a southerly and easterly direction from Direction Hill (Cerro Direccion) on the northern shore of the First Narrows, to Anegada Point located on the southern shore of the First Narrows;

(b) Pacific boundary line: A line running in a northerly and easterly direction from Felix Bay Light Tower located on an island in Felix Bay off the southwesterly shore of Sea Reach (Paso Del Mar), to the Fairway Island Light Pyramid located on the west side of the largest Fairway Island.

G. Voyages wholly within the Great Lakes; and voyages, or portions thereof, on inland waters, harbors, rivers, sounds, bays and gulfs of the United States as defined in "Rules & Regulations, series No. 16, Bureau of Marine Inspection & Navigation, Department of Commerce, Pilot Rules for certain inland waters of the Atlantic and Pacific Coasts and the Coast of the Gulf of Mexico" dated May 28, 1940.

H. Voyages or portions thereof while in ports or other inland waters of the Western Hemisphere, either as specifically defined in this Classification or as may be defined from time to time by the Maritime War Emergency Board. The Western Hemisphere for the purposes of this paragraph H shall include the Hawaiian Islands and Bermuda but shall exclude:

(1) Iceland

(2) Greenland

(3) Alaska (west of 136° west longitude) and the Aleutian Islands

(4) The Caribbean Sea and West Indies (which is defined to exclude the Continental United States, but to include the East Coast of Central and South America north of 4° north latitude, and also to include all of the islands in the area bounded on the south by 4° north latitude on the east by 59° west longitude, on the north by 28° north latitude and on the west by the east coasts of North, Central and South America).

Article III—Amount of Voyage Bonus

Voyage bonus shall be based on transit of areas of risk and computed as follows:

A. Voyage bonus shall be computed on basic and special emergency wages, excluding overtime, penalty time and all other extra compensation.

B. Voyage bonus equal to 100% of wages shall be paid for voyages in Classification I, but not in any case less than $100 per month or a proportionate sum for a part thereof.

C. Voyage bonus equal to 40% of wages shall be paid for voyages or portions of voyages in Classification II, but not in any case less than $40 per month or a proportionate sum for a part thereof.

D. No voyage bonus shall be paid for voyages or portions of voyages in Classification III.

Article IV—Time When Voyage Bonus Payments Start and Stop

A. Voyage bonus payments shall become effective at midnight prior to the day during which the vessel departs from waters included in Classification III and enters the high seas.

B. Voyage bonus payments shall cease at midnight of the day during which the vessel departs from the high seas and enters waters included in Classification III.

C. Changes in voyage bonus rates between Classifications I and II during a voyage or part of a voyage while on the high seas are effective as of the completed hour, local mean time, of the day of the crossing of the line demarking the new Classification.

D. Voyage bonus payments on vessels on a coastwise voyage, or on the coastwise portion of a foreign voyage, putting into a port within the continental limits of the United States for purposes of safety from enemy action, pursuant to the orders and directions from the Navy Department, or the consequences of war, and not for the purposes of loading or discharging cargo, or otherwise performing the vessel's business, shall cease as of the completed hour, local mean time, when the vessel enters the protective limits of the harbor or the inland waters of continental United States from the high seas, and shall commence as of the completed hour, local mean time, when the vessel departs from the protective limits of the harbor or the inland waters of continental United States and enters the high seas.

Article V—Area and Port Attack Bonus

A. Area bonus. In addition to voyage bonus payable under Articles II, III and IV, area bonus at the rate of $5.00 per day shall be payable to each crew member while in the service of his vessel within any of the following areas:

(1) Murmansk Area—that part of the Atlantic and Arctic Oceans east of Greenwich Meridian and west of 60 east longitude and north of 60° north latitude.

(2) Mediterranean Area—the Mediterranean Sea east of a line from Cape Spartel to Cape Trafalgar, including the Adriatic and Aegean Seas.

(3) South Seas Area—the area bounded on the north by 20° north latitude, on the east by 170° east longitude, on the south by 20° south latitude and on the west by 120° east longitude.

B. Such area bonus shall commence at midnight preceding the day of entering any of the above areas and shall cease at midnight of the day when a vessel departs from any such area.

C. Port attack bonus. In addition to voyage and area bonus, one port bonus of $125 shall be payable to each crew member for each port or anchorage, whether within or without any of the areas specified in Paragraph A above, which experiences enemy attack during the presence of his vessel in such port or at such anchorage.

Article VI—Periods During Which Voyage, Area, and Port Bonus Payable

A. During ordinary course of voyage. Bonus is payable to a crew member of the vessel on which he is employed during the course of his employment aboard such vessel.

B. When bonus payable after separation from vessel and during repatriation. (1) If a crew member is separated from his vessel as the result of a peril described in Article 3 of the form of insurance policy attached to Decision 1 A, bonus continues payable to such crew member until midnight of the day on which he reaches a port.

(2) If a crew member is repatriated to the United States after separation from his vessel as a result of either:

(a) a peril referred to in paragraph (1) above,

(b) illness or injury incurred in the service of his vessel and not occasioned by his wilful misconduct, bonus shall be payable to such crew member during his repatriation from midnight of the day prior to which the vessel or other conveyance on which he is being repatriated departs until midnight of the day of arrival of such vessel or other conveyance at a continental United States port.

C. When bonus not payable after separation from vessel. (1) Bonus shall not be payable while a crew member is on land.

(2) Bonus shall not be payable during the period that a crew member is detained either by capture by an enemy of the United States or by internment.

(3) Bonus shall not be payable to a crew member:

(a) after voluntary termination of his employment aboard his vessel for a reason other than one set forth in Paragraph B (2),

(b) after desertion or discharge from his employment aboard his vessel,

(c) after a crew member accepts employment on another vessel for a purpose other than to be repatriated,

(d) after a crew member refuses without good cause to be repatriated to the United States.

D. No double bonus. If a crew member signs on the vessel on which he is being repatriated, either as a crew member or workaway on such repatriating vessel, he shall not be entitled to bonus from such vessel in addition to bonus payable under Paragraph B of this Article VI.

E. Death of a crew member. Bonus shall not be payable for any period after death of a crew member.

Article VII—Effective Date

This Decision shall be effective on and after 12:01 A. M. of March 15, 1943. The provisions of this Decision shall not be retroactive.

Article VIII—Repeal

Decision No. 7, Revised, and all Amendments thereto and Clarifications thereof, previously issued by the Maritime War Emergency Board are repealed as of the effective date of this Decision, except as to any voyage, area and port bonus payable for any period prior to 12:01 A. M. of March 15, 1943. Any such voyage, area and port bonus shall continue to be payable under Decision No. 7, Revised.

[Decision 3 A]

PERSONAL EFFECTS WAR RISK INSURANCE

The Maritime War Emergency Board today announces this decision with respect to loss of or damage to personal effects.

Article I—Personal Effects Insurance Coverage

Crew members of all merchant vessels documented under the laws of the United States and covered by the Statement of Principles pursuant to which the Board was established shall be furnished war risk insurance protection with respect to their personal effects in the manner and to the extent provided in the form of insurance policy attached to Decision 1 A, such policy being known as the Second Seamen's War Risk Policy. The obligation to furnish such insurance protection shall be deemed fulfilled by the procurement of an insurance policy in the form mentioned above from the War Shipping Administration. If such insurance protection is procured from another source, the obligation to furnish such insurance protection shall not be deemed fulfilled if and to the extent that benefits that are lawfully payable under and pursuant to the terms of the insurance policy aforementioned are not paid. This Decision does not apply to alien crew members who do not reside in the continental United States and who are employed aboard any such merchant vessel engaged in a shuttle service or voyage between foreign ports, except to the extent and with such modifications as may be agreed upon and set forth in their contract of employment.

If the Board, by reason of important changes or developments in war conditions which affect the hazards and risks undertaken by the crew members of the aforementioned merchant vessels, determines that the form and terms of the aforesaid policy should be amended or modified, or if the Board determines that any of the present terms of the aforesaid form of policy are productive of serious injustices or hardship, it may by decision require that additional or different insurance protection be afforded to crew members of all such merchant vessels and prescribe appropriate amendments or modifications of the form of policy attached to Decision 1 A accordingly, all in such manner and to such extent as the Board considers advisable. If the Board further determines that such action is necessary and proper in order to avoid unjust discrimination in those cases which have theretofore arisen, it may require, with and upon the concurrence of the Administrator of the War Shipping Administration, that any such additional or different insurance protection and any such amendment or modification of the form of the aforesaid policy be made applicable to such cases, irrespective of whether benefits in such cases have or have not been claimed or paid under and pursuant to the terms of such policy then in effect, all in such manner and to such extent as the Board considers advisable.

Article II—Effective Date

This decision and the form of insurance policy attached to Decision 1 A shall, in so far as such policy relates to insurance for loss of or damage to personal effects, be effective on and after 12:01 A. M. of March 15, 1943.

Article III—Repeal

Decisions 3 and 8 and all supplements, amendments, clarifications and memoranda pertaining thereto previously issued by the Maritime War Emergency Board are repealed as of the effective date of this decision, except in connection with loss of or damage to personal effects arising from a peril occurring prior to 12:01 A. M. of March 15, 1943. Such losses and reimbursement therefor shall continue to be governed and controlled by Decisions 3 and 8.

[Decision 4 A]

CERTAIN OFF-SHORE SMALL CRAFT OPERATIONS, ETC.

The Maritime War Emergency Board today announces this Decision 4 A with respect to certain off-shore emergency operation of tugs and similar small craft, and with respect to vessels operating solely in the Hawaiian Islands trade.

Article I—Operations Covered

This Decision 4 A applies to:

1. United States flag tugs and similar small craft employed on the high seas in rescuing, wrecking or salvage work under instructions given or confirmed by the War Shipping Administration.

2. United States flag vessels of the American Merchant Marine operating solely in trade in the Hawaiian Islands.

Article II—Crew War Risk Life and Disability Insurance

Every Master, Officer or crew member employed aboard a vessel covered by this Decision shall be insured against loss of life and disability (including dismemberment and loss of function) in the amounts and under the terms and conditions specified in Decision 1 A.

Article III—Bonus

Every Master, Officer or crew member employed aboard a vessel covered by this Decision shall be paid war risk bonus in the amounts and under the terms and conditions set forth in Decision 2 A: Provided, however, That on all tugs and similar craft covered by this Decision bonus payments shall become effective at the midnight or noon next preceding the hour on which the vessel proceeds on its employment, and shall terminate on the noon or midnight next succeeding the hour when the vessel is moored upon completion of its assignment; and that on all vessels in the Hawaiian Islands trade covered by this Decision bonus payments shall become effective at the noon or midnight next preceding the hour when the vessel departs from inland waters and enters the high seas, and shall terminate at the noon or midnight next succeeding the hour when the vessel departs from the high seas and enters inland waters. Bonuses, therefore, shall in no case be calculated upon a period of less than one-half day (12 hours).

Article IV—Loss of Personal Effects

Every Master, Officer or crew member employed aboard a vessel covered by this Decision shall be insured against loss of personal effects under the terms and conditions specified in Decision 3 A: Provided, however, That the amount of such insurance shall be $200: And provided further, That if any Master, Officer or crew member shall establish that he carried on board his vessel professional equipment such as sextants, binoculars, tools and similar articles, and shall satisfactorily establish that such equipment is lost he shall be entitled to reimbursement for the value thereof but not in excess of an additional $200.

Article V—Applicability of Decisions of the Board

All Decisions of the Maritime War Emergency Board, as Supplemented or Amended, shall be given effect for the purpose of further carrying out the provisions of these Decisions except in so far as said Decisions, Supplements or Amendments are inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

Article VI—Effective Date

This Decision shall take effect as of 12:01 A. M., March 15, 1943.

[Decision 5 A]

DETENTION AND REPATRIATION BENEFITS INSURANCE

The Maritime War Emergency Board today announces this Decision with respect to Detention and Repatriation Benefits insurance.

Article I.—Detention and Repatriation Benefits Insurance Coverage

Crew members of all merchant vessels documented under the laws of the United States and covered by the Statement of Principles pursuant to which the Board was established, shall be furnished war risk insurance protection with respect to detention and repatriation (including similar cases) in the manner and to the extent provided in the form of insurance policy attached to Decision 1 A, such policy being known as the Second Seamen's War Risk Policy. The obligation to furnish such insurance protection shall be deemed fulfilled by the procurement of an insurance policy in the form mentioned above from the War Shipping Administration. If such insurance protection is procured from another source, the obligation to furnish such insurance protection shall not be deemed fulfilled if and to the extent that benefits that are lawfully payable under and pursuant to the terms of the insurance policy aforementioned are not paid. This Decision does not apply to alien crew members who do not reside in the continental United States and who are employed aboard any such merchant vessel engaged in a shuttle service or voyage between foreign ports, except to the extent and with such modifications as may be agreed upon and set forth in their contract of employment.

If the Board, by reason of important changes or developments in war conditions which affect the hazards and risks undertaken by the crew members of the afore mentioned merchant vessels, determines that the form and terms of the aforesaid policy should be amended or modified, or if the Board determines that any of the present terms of the aforesaid form of policy are productive of serious injustices or hardship, it may by Decision require that additional or different insurance protection be afforded to crew members of all such merchant vessels and prescribe appropriate amendments or modifications of the form of policy attached to Decision 1 A accordingly, all in such manner and to such extent as the Board considers advisable. If the Board further determines that such action is necessary and proper in order to avoid unjust discrimination in those cases which have theretofore arisen, it may require, with and upon the concurrence of the Administrator of the War Shipping Administration, that any such additional or different insurance protection and any such amendment or modification of the form of the aforesaid policy be made applicable to such cases irrespective of whether benefits in such cases have or have not been claimed or paid under and pursuant to the terms of such policy then in effect, all in such manner and to such extent as the Board considers advisable.

Article II—Effective Date

This Decision and the form of insurance policy attached to Decision 1 A, shall, in so far as such policy relates to detention, repatriation and similar cases, be effective on and after 12:01 a. m. of March 15, 1943, and benefits therefor as to all masters, officers and crew members who are detained or have met with any of the situations described in Article 17 of the Second Seamen's War Risk Policy as a result of a peril which is insured against by the Second Seamen's War Risk Policy, shall be governed by and payable in accordance with the Second Seamen's War Risk Policy if such detention or peril occurred on or after 12:01 a. m. of March 15, 1943. If the detention or peril occurred before 12:01 a. m. of March 15, 1943, detention, repatriation and other benefits as the case may be, shall be governed by and payable in accordance with the terms of Decision No. 5, Revised.

Article III—Repeal

Decision No. 5, Revised and all Amendments, Clarifications, Memoranda and Procedural Bulletins pertaining thereto previously issued by the Maritime War Emergency Board are repealed as of the effective date of this Decision, except in connection with detention, repatriation and other benefits payable under Decision No. 5, Revised arising from a peril occurring prior to 12:01 a. m. of March 15, 1943.

effect on October 1, 1941 plus an amount equal to 14½% of such net price.

Transportation for the purpose, among others, of conserving and providently utilizing motor vehicles and vital equipment, materials and supplies, (General Order ODT 6, as amended,[1] superseded in part by General Order ODT 17, as amended[1]), the private carriers named in the Appendix hereof have filed with the Office of Defense Transportation for approval a joint action plan relating to the transportation and delivery by motor vehicle of milk in the Auburn Milk Marketing Area, New York.

The participants have agreed that all retail delivery service in such Area shall be on an every-other-day basis, and that only one stop during any calendar day will be made at the premises of any customer served by such retail delivery service, except as provided by § 501.32 of General Order ODT 6, now superseded in part by General Order ODT 17, as amended. The distributors further agree that no retail delivery shall be made from a truck prior to 7:30 o'clock A. M. during any calendar day. Those distributors operating wholesale routes agree to trade "outlying customers" in order to reduce the mileage operated by their trucks, and to suspend delivery service to such customers when they can obtain adequate supplies of milk from other sources.

It appearing that the proposed joint action plan is in conformity with General Order ODT 17, as amended, and that the effectuation thereof will accomplish substantial conservation and efficient utilization of motor trucks and vital materials and supplies, the attainment of which purposes is essential to the successful prosecution of the war, I have approved the plan and recommend that the Chairman of the War Production Board find and certify under section 12 of Public Law No. 603, 77th Congress (56 Stat. 357), that the doing of any act or thing, or the omission to do any act or thing, by any person in compliance with said joint action plan, is requisite to the prosecution of the war.

COMMON CARRIERS OF PROPERTY BY MOTOR VEHICLE

JOINT ACTION PLAN IN OLD GREENWICH, CONNECTICUT

Pursuant to a provision of a general order issued by the Office of Defense Transportation for the purpose, among others, of conserving and providently utilizing motor vehicles and vital equipment, materials, and supplies (General Order ODT 6, as amended[1]), Thomas Heffernan and 18 others, members of The Greenwich Independent Refuse Collectors Association, Inc., Old Greenwich, Connecticut, have filed with the Office of Defense Transportation for approval a joint action plan relating to the transportation by motor vehicle of garbage and trash in Old Greenwich, Connecticut.

The participants in the plan are now engaged in the transportation of garbage and trash in Old Greenwich, Connecticut, as common carriers by motor vehicle; and in the parallel services performed there is considerable waste. On some streets, four or five houses are now being served by as many as three trucks; streets with from eight to 25 houses are being served by from five to eight trucks; and in certain private areas 50 houses are being served by five or six trucks. In each of these cases, the parallel services will be eliminated and one truck will do the work. The plan is to be effectuated by the even exchange of customers, on a revenue basis, by the carriers participating in the plan.

It is stipulated that the plan will involve no increase in the rates charged for the collection of garbage and trash; that there will be no curtailment of service under the proposed plan; and that the persons served will at all times have opportunity to choose another carrier who is not a participant in the plan.

It appearing that the proposed joint action plan is in conformity with General Order ODT 6, as amended, and that the effectuation thereof will accomplish substantial conservation and efficient utilization of motor trucks and vital materials and supplies, the attainment of which purposes is essential to the successful prosecution of the war, I have approved the plan and recommend that the Chairman of the War Production Board find and certify under section 12 of Public Law No. 603, 77th Congress (56 Stat. 357), that the doing of any act or thing, or the omission to do any act or thing, by any person in compliance with said joint action plan, is requisite to the prosecution of the war.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 16th day of March, 1943.

Director, Office of Defense Transportation.

OFFICE OF PRICE ADMINISTRATION

[Order 6 Under MPR 74]

WILBUR-ELLIS CO.

APPROVAL OF MAXIMUM PRICES

Order No. 6 under § 1363.62 (a) (5) (ii) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 74, as Amended—Animal Product Feedingstuffs.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and pursuant to the provisions of § 1363.62 (a) (5) (ii) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 74, as amended, It is ordered:

(a) Approval of maximum prices for sales of meat scraps by Wilbur-Ellis Company with guaranteed minimum protein contents of 70, 75 and 80 per cent. Wilbur-Ellis Company, San Francisco, California, may sell and any person may buy and receive from Wilbur-Ellis Company, meat scraps in bulk of the following analyses at the prices indicated below:

Guaranteed minimum protein content	Maximum price per ton f. o. b. conveyance at production plant of Wilbur-Ellis Co. located in Zone 1
70 per cent	$78.20
75 per cent	83.25
80 per cent	88.30

(b) Price adjustments where actual analysis differs from guaranteed minimum protein content. In any sale made pursuant to the provisions of this order if the actual analysis differs from the guaranteed minimum percentage of protein permitted by this order, then:

(1) If above the guaranteed minimum percentage of protein, no increase in maximum prices is permitted.

(2) If one per cent or less below the guaranteed minimum percentage of protein, deduct $1.50 per ton from the selling price.

(3) If more than one per cent below the guaranteed minimum percentage of protein deduct from the selling price, $1.50 per ton for the first per cent and $3.00 per ton for each additional per cent or fraction thereof.

(c) Notification of maximum prices. Wilbur-Ellis Company shall provide the following notice of the maximum price established by this Order with the first delivery to each buyer of meat scraps having a guaranteed minimum protein content of 70, 75 or 80 per cent.

The Office of Price Administration has permitted us to sell meat scraps with guaranteed minimum protein contents of (insert the appropriate percentage established by this Order) at a maximum price of (insert the appropriate price established by this Order) per ton, f. o. b. our production plant, which is in line with the maximum prices established for the product by Maximum Price Regulation No. 74, as amended. The Office of Price Administration has not permitted you or any other seller to raise maximum prices for sales of these meat scraps.

(d) All prayers and requests contained in the application of Wilbur-Ellis Company which have not been granted herein are denied.

(e) This Order No. 6 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(f) This Order No. 6 shall become effective March 19, 1943.

PRODUCERS CO-OPERATIVE PACKING CO.

APPROVAL OF MAXIMUM PRICE

Order No. 11 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 185—Canned Fruits and Canned Berries.

Approval of maximum price for Producers Co-Operative Packing Company, Salem, Oregon.

The applicant, Producers Co-Operative Packing Company, has filed an application for specific authorization of a maximum price for canned No. 2 Standard Gooseberries, pursuant to § 1341.102 (e) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 185.

Due consideration has been given to the information submitted by the applicant with respect to the packing of gooseberries in the size and grade in question.

For the reasons set forth in the opinion which accompanies this order and under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, It is hereby ordered, That:

(a) The applicant, Producers Co-Operative Packing Company, may sell, offer to sell or deliver and any person may buy, offer to buy or receive from the applicant, No. 2 Standard Gooseberries at a price no higher than the maximum price of $1.63 per dozen cans, f. o. b. factory.

(b) This Order No. 11 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(c) The applicant shall not change its customary allowances, discounts or price differentials, including price differentials between different classes of purchasers, unless such change results in a lower price.

(d) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in § 1341.110 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 185 and section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, shall be applicable to the terms used herein.

(e) This order shall become effective March 19, 1943.

Issued this 18th day of March 1943.

[Food Directive 6]

PART 1400—DELEGATIONS OF AUTHORITY

DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY WITH RESPECT TO RATIONING OF FATS AND OILS, AND CHEESE

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by Executive Order 9280, dated December 5, 1942, and in order to enable the Office of Price Administration to undertake, administer, and enforce rationing programs with respect to fats and oils, and cheese: It is hereby ordered, As follows:

§ 1400.6 Food Directive 6; control over fats and oils, and cheese. (a) In order to permit the efficient rationing of fats and oils, and cheese; fats and oils, and cheese are hereby declared to be rationed food for the purposes of Food Directive No. 3 (8 F.R. 2005). The Office of Price Administration is authorized to exercise all the powers delegated to it by Food Directive No. 3, subject to the terms and conditions thereof, with respect to all fats and oils, and cheese.

(b) As used in this directive:

(1) The term "fats and oils" means all glycerides of the higher fatty acids, liquid or solid, and includes, without limitation, all animal, marine animal, vegetable fats and oils, and butter.

(2) The term "cheese" means the edible product made from the milk, cream, or whey of cows or other animals by any process of coagulation followed by a partial separation of the coagulum or curd from the liquid or whey and with or without further treatment, or by a mechanical process of forming a liquid or plastic emulsion or mixture of milk or any part of milk with added milk solids, whether accompanied by a process of coagulation and separation of the coagulum or not, and with or without further treatment. The term includes any edible product containing 30 percent or more (by weight) of cheese as used herein.

(c) This Food Directive No. 6 shall become effective March 20, 1943.

(E.O. 9280, 7 F.R. 10179)

Issued this 20th day of March 1943.

[Food Directive 7]

PART 1400—DELEGATIONS OF AUTHORITY

DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY WITH RESPECT TO RATIONING OF MEATS

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 9280, dated December 5, 1942, and in order to enable the Office of Price Administration to undertake, administer, and enforce rationing programs with respect to meats, It is hereby ordered, As follows:

§ 1400.7 Food Directive 7; control over meats. (a) In order to permit the efficient rationing of meats, meats are hereby declared to be rationed food for the purposes of Food Directive No. 3 (8 F.R. 2005). The Office of Price Administration is authorized to exercise all the powers delegated to it by Food Directive No. 3, subject to the terms and conditions thereof, with respect to all meats.

(b) This directive supersedes the delegation of authority to the Office of Price Administration made by War Production Board Directive No. 1, issued by the Chairman of the War Production Board on January 24, 1942 (7 F.R. 562), and by Supplementary Directive 1–M, issued September 12, 1943 (7 F.R. 7234), to the extent that such Directive and Supplementary Directive confer authority with respect to control over meats: Provided, however, That all action heretofore taken by the Office of Price Administration under such directive and supplementary directive (including, without limitation, regulations or orders heretofore issued) relating to control over meats is in all respects hereby ratified and confirmed, and the authority delegated by such directive and supplementary directive shall continue to remain in full force and effect with respect to all such action for all purposes, including the purpose of allowing or sustaining any suit, action, prosecution, or administrative or other proceeding heretofore or hereafter commenced with respect to any violation heretofore committed or right or liability heretofore incurred under or pursuant to the terms thereof.

(c) As used in this directive, the term "meats" means and includes the carcass or any edible part of the carcass of cattle, calves, sheep, lamb, or swine, and including edible offal, bones and skins, and any other edible product containing more than 20 percent, by weight, of any of those items.

(d) The provisions of this Food Directive No. 7 shall become effective March 20, 1943, except that the provisions of paragraph (b) hereof shall become effective April 1, 1943.

(E.O. 9280, 7 F.R. 10179)

Issued this 20th day of March 1943.

PART 1460—FATS AND OILS

RESTRICTIONS ON USE, PROCESSING, CONSUMPTION, AND DELIVERY OF OITICICA OIL

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 9280, dated December 5, 1942, and to assure an adequate supply and efficient distribution of oiticica oil to meet war and essential civilian needs, It is hereby ordered, As follows:

§ 1460.6 Delivery, use and distribution of oiticica oil; restricted.—(a) Definitions. When used in this order, unless otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof:

(1) The term "oiticica oil" means that oil obtained from the oiticica nut, commonly known as oiticica oil and includes cacahuananche oil from the cacahuananche nut, and laceta oil from the laceta nut and other similar types of oil obtained from other oil bearing nuts or seeds, whether crude (solid) or refined (liquefied), but not including any quick bodying (QB) oil.

(2) The term "person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other business entity.

(3) The term "producer" means any person engaged in the production of oiticica oil and includes any person who has oiticica oil produced for him pursuant to toll agreement.

(4) The term "distributor" means any person who has purchased or purchases oiticica oil for purposes of resale.

(5) The term "Director" means the Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, or any employee of the United States Department of Agriculture designated by such Director.

(b) Restrictions on delivery, use, and processing. (1) No person shall accept delivery of, use, or process oiticica oil except as specifically authorized or directed by the Director.

(2) Authorizations or directions with respect to deliveries, use, and processing in each calendar month will, so far as practicable, be issued by the Director prior to the commencement of such month, but the Director may at any time at his discretion, and notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (c) and (d) hereof, issue directions with respect to deliveries to be made or accepted or with respect to the use or uses which may or more not be made of oiticica oil to be delivered or then on hand. He may also at any time issue directions to producers with respect to the grade of oiticica oil which they may manufacture.

(3) Each person specifically authorized to accept delivery of oiticica oil shall use such oil for the purposes authorized and only for such purposes, except as otherwise specifically directed by the Director.

(4) Oiticica oil allocated for inventories shall not be used or processed except as specifically directed by the Director. Oiticica oil allocated: (i) To fill a specified order, or (ii) To be used for a specified end use during a specified month, shall revert to inventories where and to the extent that the oil so allocated is not used for the specific order or the specific end use.

(c) Exceptions to requirements for specific authorization. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (b) (1) hereof, specific authorizations by the Director shall not be required for:

(1) Acceptance of delivery, use, or processing by any person in any one calendar month of 40 pounds or less of oiticica oil in the aggregate.

(2) Refining or liquefying any quantity of oiticica oil by any person but not to manufacture any quick-bodying or other processed oil, without regard to quantity.

(3) Delivery of oiticica oil by any producer or distributor to any person who shall have filed with him an authorization signed by the Director authorizing such person to accept delivery of oiticica oil in the quantity and in the period in which delivery is made.

(d) Exceptions for small orders. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (b) (1) hereof, specific authorization by the Director shall not be required for deliveries set forth in this paragraph (d), but no producer shall make deliveries described in this paragraph without a specific authorization of the Director to make deliveries of a specific maximum quantity under this paragraph each month. Deliveries of quantities in excess of this maximum may not be made without further authorization of the Director. The application for authorization to make such delivery shall specify the maximum quantity requested for each type of delivery. The provisions of this paragraph apply to the delivery of oiticica oil by any producer or distributor to any person who shall have filed with him a certificate in substantially the following form:

The undersigned purchaser hereby certifies to the United States Department of Agriculture Food Distribution Administration and to his supplier that the oiticica oil hereby ordered for delivery in ---------- 1943, does not, taken with all other oiticica oil delivered or to be delivered in such month, exceed 40 lbs., the amount which he is entitled to receive under paragraph (c) (1) of Food Distribution Order No. 31.

Name of Purchaser

By--- Authorized Official

Title

Date

Such certificate shall be signed by an authorized official of the purchaser. The receipt of such certificate shall not authorize the delivery of oiticica oil by a producer or distributor where he knows or has reason to believe the same to be false, but in the absence of such knowledge or belief, he may reply on the certificate.

(e) Applications for delivery, use, or processing. (1) Each person requiring authorization to accept delivery of, use, or process oiticica oil during any calendar month, beginning with April 1943 (including a person seeking authorization to accept the delivery of oiticica oil for resale), shall file application therefor on or before the 15th day of the month preceding the month for which authorization for delivery, use, or processing is requested. Application for acceptance of delivery, use, or processing in April 1943 shall be filed as many days as possible in advance of the requested delivery, use, or processing. In any case, such application shall be made on War Production Board Form PD–600, or such other form or forms as may be prescribed by the Director. Forms may be obtained at local field offices of the War Production Board or Regional Offices of the Food Distribution Administration, United States Department of Agriculture. Five copies shall be prepared, of which four shall be forwarded to the Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., Ref: FD–31, the fifth to be retained for applicant's files. For the purposes of this order, if War Production Board Form PD–600 is used, it shall be completed in the manner prescribed therein, subject to the following special instructions:

(i) In the heading, under the name of chemical, specify "oiticica oil"; under WPB Order No. specify "FD–31"; under unit of measure specify "pounds, dry weight"; in the heading of Table I insert in the blank the month and year for which authorization for acceptance of delivery, use, or processing is sought.

(ii) In the space under "supplier with whom this order is placed", state name of usual supplier and list his shipping point. If application is for authority to use, consume, or process oil from own inventory, leave these spaces blank.

(iii) In Columns 1 and 11, indicate grade in terms of the following: crude (solid) or refined (liquefied). If same grade of oil is required for more than one "primary product", or for the same "primary product" for more than one ultimate use, include quantity of grade applicable to each "primary product" or ultimate use.

(iv) In columns 3, 20, and 22, specify your primary product in terms of the following: protective coating, core oil, electrical insulation, synthetic resins, food container linings, others (specify).

(v) In Column 4 specify ultimate use of product (as for example "airplane engine castings" as opposed to "core oil", and "bomb linings" as opposed to "protective coatings" or "synthetic resins", each of which may be made of the primary product called for in Columns 3, 20, and 22); and also specify in each case whether your customer is Army Navy, or other Government agency, Lend-Lease, or commercial customer, and give Government specification number, if any. If the application is for oiticica oil for resale or for inventory (as oiticica oil), leave Column 4 blank.

In each case where the application for authorization to use or process oiticica oil is granted, one copy signed by the Director shall be returned to the applicant; and where the application is also for authorization to accept delivery, a second copy, also signed by the Director, shall be sent to the applicant so that applicant may furnish same to the supplier selected by him.

(2) Each producer of oiticica oil shall file War Production Board Form PD–601, or such other form or forms as may be prescribed by the Director, on or before the 15th of each month, beginning with April 1943. Forms may be obtained at local field offices of the War Production Board or Regional Offices of Food Distribution Administration, United States Department of Agriculture. Four copies shall be prepared of which three shall be forwarded to the Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., Ref: FD–31, the fourth to be retained in applicant's file. For the purposes of this order, if War Production Board Form PD–601 is used, it shall be completed in the manner prescribed therein, subject to the following special instructions:

(i) In the heading, under the name of chemical, specify "oiticica oil"; under WPB Order No. specify "FD–31"; under unit of measure specify "pounds", "dry weight"; in the heading "This schedule is for deliveries to be made during the month of ----------, 194--", strike out the words "to be", and insert in the blank the month preceding the month in which form is filed and also indicate year;

(ii) Insert in Column 1 the words "total small order deliveries last month" and in Column 4 specify the total quantity of oiticica oil delivered by applicant in such last month pursuant to paragraphs (c) (1) and (d) hereof. In other respects Table I may, at the applicant's discretion, be left blank;

(iii) In Column 8 specify grades produced in terms of grades included in paragraph (e) (1) (iii) hereof;

(iv) In Column 9 show actual production during preceding month;

(v) In Column 10 show actual deliveries during preceding month;

(vi) In Column 11 show stocks as of first of preceding month;

(vii) In Column 12 show stocks as of first of current month;

(viii) Leave blank Columns 13–16, inclusive;

(ix) In addition to the foregoing, each producer who is a crusher of oiticica nuts, cacahauananche nuts, laceta nuts, and other nuts or seeds of similar types, shall strike out the heading of Columns 15 and 16 and insert in these Columns and in the margin; (a) Quantity of nuts received during preceding month; (b) Quantity of nuts crushed during preceding month; and (c) Quantity of nuts on hand at end of preceding month.

(3) The Director may issue other and further directions with respect to preparing and filing forms.

(f) Records and reports. Every person subject to this order shall maintain such records for at least two years (or for such other periods of time as the Director may designate), and shall execute and file such reports upon such forms and submit such information as the Director may from time to time request or direct, and within such times as he may prescribe.

(g) Bureau of the Budget approval. The reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942. Subsequent specific record-keeping or reporting requirements by the Director will be subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(h) Notification of customers. Each supplier shall notify his regular customers as soon as possible of the requirements of this order, but failure to receive such notice shall not excuse any person from complying with the terms hereof.

(i) Existing contracts. The restrictions of this order concerning delivery, acceptance, use, processing, and consumption of oiticica oil shall be observed without regard to existing contracts or any rights accrued or payments made thereunder.

(j) Intra-company deliveries. The prohibitions and restrictions of this order with respect to deliveries of oiticica oil shall apply not only to deliveries to other persons, including affiliates and subsidiaries, but also deliveries from one branch, division, or section of a single enterprise to another branch, division, or section of the same or any other enterprise under common ownership or control.

(k) Audits and inspections. Every person subject to this order shall, upon request, permit inspections, at all reasonable times, of his stocks of oiticica oil and premises used in his business, and all of his books, records, and accounts shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by the Director.

(l) Petition for relief from hardship. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may petition in writing (in triplicate) for relief to the Director, setting forth all pertinent facts and the nature of relief sought. The Director may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate and such action shall be final.

(m) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this order or wilfully conceals a material fact concerning a matter within the jurisdiction of any Department or agency of the United States may be prohibited from receiving or making further deliveries of any material subject to allocation and such further action may be taken against him as the Director deems appropriate, including recommendations for prosecution under section 35a of the Criminal Code (18 U. S. C. 1940 ed. 80), under paragraph 5 of section 301 of Title III of the Second War Powers Act, and under any and all other applicable laws.

(n) Communications to the Department of Agriculture. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., Ref: FD–31.

(o) General Preference Order M–238 superseded. This order supersedes in all respects General Preference Order M–238 (7 F.R. 7940) of the War Production Board, except that as to violations of said order or rights accrued, liabilities incurred, or appeals taken under said order prior to the effective date hereof, said General Preference Order shall be deemed in full force and effect for the purpose of sustaining any proper suit, action, or other proceeding with respect to any such violation, right, or liability. Any appeal pending under said General Preference Order shall be considered under subparagraph (1) hereof.

(p) Territorial extent. This order applies to all persons in the United States, its Territories and Possessions, and the District of Columbia.

(q) Effective date. This order shall be effective on March 24, 1943, as of 12:01 a. m., e. w. t.

(E.O. 9280, 7 F.R. 10179)

Issued this 19th day of March 1943.

PART 1460—FATS AND OILS

RESTRICTIONS ON THE USE AND DISTRIBUTION OF CASTOR OIL

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 9280, dated December 5, 1942, and to assure an adequate supply and efficient distribution of castor oil to meet war and essential civilian needs, it is hereby ordered, As follows:

§ 1460.4 Use and distribution of castor oil—(a) Definitions. When used in this order, unless otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof:

(1) The term "castor oil" means that oil obtained from the castor bean, commonly known as castor oil, whether crude, raw, filtered, refined, blown, dehydrated, or otherwise processed, excluding, however, sulfonated castor oil.

(2) The term "person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other business entity.

(3) The term "producer" means any person engaged in the production of castor oil and includes any person who has castor oil produced for him pursuant to toll agreement.

(4) The term "distributor" means any person who has purchased or purchases castor oil for purposes of resale.

(5) The term "Director" means the Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, or any employee of the United States Department of Agriculture designated by such Director.

(b) Restrictions on delivery, use, processing, and blending. (1) No person shall deliver, accept delivery of, use, process, or blend castor oil, except as specifically authorized or directed by the Director.

(2) Authorizations or directions with respect to deliveries, use, processing, and blending in each calendar month will, so far as practicable, be issued by the Director prior to the commencement of such month, but the Director may, at any time in his discretion, and notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (c) and (d) hereof, issue directions with respect to deliveries to be made or accepted, or with respect to the use or uses which may or may not be made of castor oil to be delivered or then on hand. He may also at any time issue directions to the producer with respect to the grade of castor oil which he may manufacture.

(3) Each person specifically authorized to accept delivery of castor oil shall use such oil for the purpose authorized, and only for such purpose, except as otherwise specifically directed.

(4) Castor oil allocated for inventories shall not be used, processed, or blended except as specifically directed by the Director. Castor oil allocated: (i) To fill a specified order, or (ii) To be used for a specified end use during a specified month, shall revert to inventories where and to the extent that the oil so allocated is not used for the specific order or the specific end use.

(c) Exceptions to requirement for specific authorization. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (b) (1) hereof, specific authorization of the Director shall not be required for:

(1) Acceptance of delivery, use, processing, or blending by any person in any one calendar month of 40 lbs., or less, of castor oil in the aggregate;

(2) Pressing, bleaching, or alkali refining of castor oil by any person, without regard to quantity;

(3) The delivery of castor oil by any producer or distributor to any person who shall have filed with him an authorization signed by the Director authorizing such person to accept delivery of castor oil in the quantity and in the period in which delivery is made; or

(4) The use of castor oil, as such, for medicinal purposes or acceptance of delivery by a person for use, or resale for use, as castor oil for such purposes. This paragraph (c) (4) has no reference to the use of castor oil in the manufacture or preparation of any medicinal or pharmaceutical product, nor to the delivery to or acceptance of delivery by, any person for such use. In each of such cases, specific authorization of the Director shall be necessary under paragraph (b) (1) hereof.

(d) Exception for small orders and medicinal use. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (b) (1) hereof, specific authorization of the Director shall not be required for deliveries set forth in paragraphs (d) (1) and (d) (2) hereof, but no producer shall make deliveries set forth in paragraphs (d) (1) and (d) (2) without a specific authorization of the Director to make deliveries of a specific maximum quantity under each of said paragraphs each month. Deliveries of quantities in excess of this maximum may not be made without further authorization of the Director. The application for authorization to make such deliveries shall specify the maximum quantity requested for each type of delivery. These provisions apply to the following deliveries:

(1) The delivery of castor oil by any producer or distributor to any person who shall have filed with him a certificate in substantially the following form:

The undersigned purchaser hereby certifies to the United States Department of Agriculture, Food Distribution Administration, and to his supplier that the castor oil hereby ordered for delivery in _____, 1943, does not, taken with all other castor oil delivered or to be delivered in such month, exceed 40 lbs., the amount which he is entitled to receive under paragraph (c) (1) of Food Distribution Order No. 32.

Name of Purchaser

By _____ _____ Authorized Official Title

Date

Such certificate shall be signed by an authorized official of the purchaser. The receipt of such certificate shall not authorize the delivery of castor oil by a producer or distributor where he knows or has reason to believe the same to be false, but in the absence of such knowledge or reason for belief, he may rely on the certificate;

(2) The delivery of castor oil by any producer or distributor to any person for use or resale for use as castor oil for medicinal purposes. This paragraph (d) (2) has no reference to the use of castor oil in the manufacture or preparation of any medicinal or pharmaceutical product, nor to the delivery to, or acceptance of delivery by, any person for such use. In each of such cases, specific authorization of the Director shall be necessary under paragraph (b) (1) hereof.

(e) Applications for delivery, use, processing, or blending. (1) Each person requiring authorization to accept delivery of, use, process, or blend castor oil during any calendar month, beginning with April 1943 (including a person seeking authorization to accept delivery of castor oil for resale) shall file application therefor on or before the 15th day of the month preceding the month for which authorization for delivery, use, processing or blending is requested. Application for acceptance of delivery, use, processing, or blending in April 1943, shall be filed as many days as possible in advance of the requested delivery, use, processing, or blending. In any case, such application shall be made on War Production Board Form PD–600, or such other form or forms as may be prescribed by the Director. Forms may be obtained at local field offices of the War Production Board or the Regional Offices of the Food Distribution Administration, United States Department of Agriculture. Five copies shall be prepared, of which four shall be forwarded to Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., Ref: FD–32, the fifth to be retained for applicant's files. For the purposes of this order, if War Production Board Form PD–600 is used, it shall be completed in the manner prescribed therein, subject to the following special instructions:

(i) In the heading, under name of chemical, specify "Castor oil"; under WPB Order No., specify "FD–32"; under unit of measure, specify pounds, dry weight; under "Name of your company" specify name and mailing address; and specify the month and year for which authorization for acceptance of delivery, use, processing, or blending is sought.

(ii) In space under "Supplier with whom this order is placed" state name of usual supplier, and list his shipping point. If the application is for authority to use, process, or blend oil from own inventory, leave these spaces blank.

(iii) In Columns 1, 11, and 19, indicate grade in terms of the following: crude, raw, filtered, refined, blown, dehydrated, or otherwise processed. If otherwise processed, identify product. If same grade of oil is required for more than one "primary product" or for the same "primary product" for more than one ultimate use, include quantity of grade applicable to each "primary product" or ultimate use.

(iv) In Columns 3, 20, and 22, specify your primary product in terms of the following:

Synthetic resins
Protective coatings
Synthetic rubber
Rubber factice
Sulfonated oil
Lubricating oil additive
Medicinal and pharmaceutical preparations (identify) Cosmetics
Hydraulic brake fluid
Textile oil (non-sulfonated base)
Real and imitation leathers
Other products (specify)
Resale (as castor oil)
Inventory (as castor oil)

(v) In Column 4, specify ultimate use of product. For example, if the "primary product" called for in Column 3 is "imitation leather", the "ultimate use" of the product might be "airplane seat". Also, specify in each case whether your customer is the Army, Navy, other governmental agency, Lend-Lease, or commercial customer, and give government specification number, if any. If the application is for castor oil for resale or for inventory (as castor oil), leave Column 4 blank.

In each case where the application for authorization to use, process, or blend castor oil is granted, one copy signed by the Director will be returned to the applicant, and where the application is also for authorization to accept delivery, a second copy, also signed by the Director, shall be sent to the applicant so that applicant may furnish same to the supplier selected by him.

(2) Each producer of castor oil shall file War Production Board Form PD–601, or such other form or forms as may be prescribed by the Director on or before the 15th day of each month, beginning with April 1943. Forms may be obtained at local field offices of the War Production Board or the Food Distribution Administration, United States Department of Agriculture. Four copies shall be prepared, of which three shall be forwarded to Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., Ref: FD–32, the fourth to be retained for applicant's file. For the purposes of this order, if War Production Board Form PD–601 is used, it shall be completed in the manner prescribed therein, subject to the following special instructions:

(i) In the heading, under name of chemicals, specify "Castor oil"; under WPB Order No., specify "FD–32"; under name of company, state your name and mailing address; under unit of measure, specify pounds, dry weight; in heading "This schedule is for deliveries to be made during the month of _____, 194__", strike out the words "to be" and in the next blank insert the month preceding the month in which the form is filed, and also indicate year.

(ii) Insert in Column 1 the words, "Total small order deliveries last month", and in Column 4 specify the total quantity of castor oil delivered by applicant in such last month pursuant to paragraphs (c) (1) and (d) (1) hereof. In addition, insert in Column 1 the words "Total deliveries for use or resale as castor oil for medicinal purposes", and in Column 4, specify the total quantity of castor oil delivered by applicant in such last month pursuant to paragraph (d) (2) hereof for use or resale for such purposes. In other respects, Table I may, at applicant's discretion, be left blank.

(iii) In Column 8, specify grades produced, in terms of grade indicated in paragraph (e) (1) (iii) hereof.

(iv) In Column 9 show actual production during preceding month.

(v) In Column 10 show actual deliveries during preceding month.

(vi) In Column 11 show stocks as of first of preceding month.

(vii) In Column 12 show stocks as of first of current month.

(viii) Leave blank columns 13–16, inclusive.

(ix) In addition to the foregoing, each producer who is a crusher of castor seed shall strike out the headings to Columns 15 and 16, and insert in these columns and in margin: (a) Quantity of seed received during preceding month, (b) Quantity of seed crushed during preceding month, and (c) Quantity of seed on hand at the end of preceding month.

(f) Notification of customers. Each supplier shall notify his regular customers as soon as possible of the requirements of this order, but failure to receive such notice shall not excuse any person from complying with the terms hereof.

(g) Existing contracts. The restrictions of this order concerning delivery, acceptance, use, processing, and consumption of castor oil shall be observed without regard to existing contracts or any rights accrued or payments made thereunder.

(h) Intra-company deliveries. The prohibitions and restrictions of this order with respect to deliveries of castor oil shall apply not only to deliveries to other persons, including affiliates and subsidiaries, but also to deliveries from one branch, division, or section of a single enterprise to another branch, division, or section of the same or any other enterprise under common ownership or control.

(i) Records and reports. Every person subject to this order shall maintain such records for at least two years (or for such other periods of time as the Director may designate), and shall execute and file such reports upon such forms and submit such information as the Director may from time to time request or direct, and within such times as he may prescribe.

(j) Bureau of the Budget approval. The reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942. Subsequent specific record-keeping or reporting requirements by the Director will be subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(k) Audits and inspections. Every person subject to this order shall, upon request, permit inspections, at all reasonable times, of his stocks of castor oil and premises used in his business, and all of his books, records, and accounts shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by the Director.

(l) Petition for relief from hardship. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship on him may petition in writing (in triplicate) for relief to the Director, setting forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought. The Director may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate and such action shall be final.

(m) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this order or wilfully conceals a material fact concerning a matter within the jurisdiction of any Department or agency of the United States may be prohibited from receiving or making further deliveries of any material subject to allocation and such further action may be taken against him as the Director deems appropriate, including recommendations for prosecution under section 35a of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 80), under paragraph 5 of section 301 of Title III of the Second War Powers Act, and under any and all other applicable laws.

(n) Communications to the Department of Agriculture. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., Ref: FD–32.

(o) General Preference Order M–235 superseded. This order supersedes in all respects General Preference Order M–235 (7 F.R. 7592) of the War Production Board except that as to violations of said order or rights accrued, liabilities incurred, or appeals taken under said order prior to the effective date hereof said General Preference Order shall be deemed in full force and effect for the purpose of sustaining any proper suit, action, or other proceeding with respect to any such violation, right, or liability. Any appeal pending under said General Preference Order shall be considered under paragraph (k) hereof.

(p) Territorial extent. This order applies to all persons in the United States, its territories and possessions, and the District of Columbia.

(q) Effective date. This order shall be effective on March 24, 1943, as of 12:01 a. m., e. w. t.

(E.O. 9280, 7 F.R. 10179)

PART 1460—FATS AND OILS

REQUIRED RECOVERY OF GLYCERINE

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 9280, dated December 5, 1942, and to assure an adequate supply and efficient distribution of glycerine to meet war and essential civilian needs, It is hereby ordered, As follows:

§ 1460.2 Glycerine recovery—(a) Definitions. When used in this order, unless otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof:

(1) The term "fats and oils" means all of the raw, crude, and refined fats and fatty oils and greases.

(2) The term "neutral fats or oils content" means that saponifiable portion of fats or oils at point of saponification or hydrolysis obtained by subtracting from the total weight of such fats and oils the sum of the following: free fatty acids, moisture, insoluble impurities, and unsaponifiables. Free fatty acids, moisture, insoluble impurities, and unsaponifiables shall be determined by the official methods of the American Oil Chemists Society.

(3) The term "fair average quality crude glycerine" means soap lye crude glycerine and saponification crude glycerine meeting the following specifications:

Soap lye crude glycerine:
Glycerol content—not less than 80%
Ash—not more than 10%
Organic Residue—not more than 2%
Saponification crude glycerine:
Glycerol content—not less than 88%
Ash—not more than 2%
Organic Residue—not more than 1.5%

Glycerol content, ash, and organic residue shall be determined by the official methods of the American Oil Chemists Society.

(4) The term "person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other business entity.

(5) The term "Director" means the Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, or any employee of the United States Department of Agriculture designated by such Director.

(b) Required recovery of crude glycerine. (1) Except as provided in paragraph (d) hereof, no person shall saponify or hydrolyze any fat or oil in any process in which glycerine is produced unless:

(i) Where glycerine is produced by the saponification of the fats and oils (soap making), the average amount of glycerol (both free and combined) remaining in the finished product, not considering glycerine produced from commercial fatty acids or vegetable oil foots, shall not be more than eight-tenths of one percent (0.8%), calculated on the anhydrous soap basis of that portion of the soap which is derived from fats and oils defined under paragraph (a) (1) hereof, but exclusive of any portion of the soap which may be made from rosin, commercial fatty acids, vegetable oil foots, and tall oil, and

(ii) Not less than 92% of the glycerol content of the spent lyes shall be recovered as crude glycerine (100% glycerol basis). The glycerol content of such spent lyes shall be considered to be the glycerol theoretically contained in the neutral fats or oils content of the stock originally used less the maximum amount of glycerol permitted in the soap.

(iii) Where the glycerine is produced by the hydrolysis of fats or oils (fat splitting), the split shall be not less than 95% complete. Not less than 94% of the glycerol content of the glycerine sweet water resulting from such splitting process shall be recovered as crude glycerine (100% glycerol basis). The glycerol content of such sweet water shall be considered to be the glycerol theoretically contained in the neutral fat or oil content of the stock originally used, less the maximum permitted amount (based on 95% split) of glycerol contained in the split fat or oil.

(c) Required standard of refining crude glycerine. In the refining of fair average quality crude glycerine, not less than 96% of the glycerol content of the crude glycerine shall be recovered as refined glycerine (100% glycerol basis).

(d) Operations not subject to standard of glycerine recovery. The provisions of paragraph (b) hereof shall not be applicable to:

(1) Any person whose consumption of fats and oils or fatty acids in the aggregate does not exceed 10,000 pounds in the calendar month;

(2) Any person whom the Director may specifically authorize to operate, on such person's establishing to the satisfaction of the Director, by letter addressed to: Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., Ref: FD 33, that he is recovering the maximum amount of glycerine that is reasonably possible with the facilities which he has or may reasonably be expected to secure or utilize;

(3) The sulfonation of any fats and oils, alkali or acid refining of fats or oils, manufacture of lubricating greases or processing of food;

(4) The manufacture of the following medicinal soaps U. S. P. XII to fill orders for medicinal use only; sapomollis medicinalis, linimentum saponis mollis, liquor cresolis saponatus; and the manufacture of soft soap, hospital grade, according to United States Army specification No. 4–1027A (February 5, 1941) for delivery to the United States Army.

(5) The manufacture of soap or fatty acids from raw or acidulated domestic vegetable oil foots.

(e) Records and reports. (1) Each refiner of glycerine, regardless of amount, and each person who saponifies or hydrolyzes more than 3,500 pounds of oils, fats, or fatty acids in any calendar or fiscal month in a process in which glycerine could be recovered (not including any operation referred to in paragraph (d) (3) hereof) shall file with the Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., Ref: FD 33, not later than the 20th day of the succeeding month, War Production Board Form PD-712, or such other form or forms as may be prescribed by the Director, properly executed by him. Such form PD-712 shall be filed by each person who saponifies or hydrolyzes more than such 3,500 pounds of oils, fats, and fatty acids in such month, whether or not he is exempted under paragraphs (d) (1), (d) (2), (d) (4), or (d) (5) hereof.

(2) Where a person is both a manufacturer and refiner, he shall file a separate form in each capacity.

(3) Every person subject to this order shall maintain such records for at least two years (or for such other periods of time as the Director may designate), and shall execute and file such other reports upon such forms and submit such information as the Director may from time to time request or direct, and within such times as he may prescribe.

(f) Bureau of the Budget approval. The reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942. Subsequent specific record-keeping or reporting requirements which may be prescribed by the Director will be subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(g) Existing contracts. The restrictions of this order concerning the recovery of glycerine shall be observed without regard to existing contracts or any rights accrued or payments made thereunder.

(h) Effect on other orders. Where different standards of recovery are imposed by this order and any other order or orders, the provisions of the order requiring the highest glycerine recovery shall control.

(i) Petition for relief from hardship. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may petition in writing (in triplicate) for relief to the Director, setting forth all pertinent facts and the nature of relief sought. The Director may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate and such action shall be final.

(j) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provisions of this order or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this order or wilfully conceals a material fact concerning a matter within the jurisdiction of any Department or agency of the United States may be prohibited from receiving or making further deliveries of any material subject to allocation; and such further action may be taken against him as the Director deems appropriate, including recommendations for prosecution under Section 35a of the Criminal Code (18 U. S. C. 1940 ed. 80), under paragraph 5 of Section 301 of Title III of the Second War Powers Act, and under any and all other applicable laws.

(k) Audits and inspections. Every person subject to this order shall, upon request, permit inspections, at all reasonable times, of his stocks of glycerine and premises used in his business, and all of his books, records, and accounts shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by the Director.

(l) Communications to the Department of Agriculture. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., Ref: FD 33.

(m) Conservation Order M-193 superseded. This order supersedes in all respects Conservation Order M-193 (7 F.R. 9128) of the War Production Board, except that as to violations of said order or rights accrued, liabilities incurred, or appeals taken under said order prior to the effective date hereof, said Conservation Order shall be deemed in full force and effect for the purpose of sustaining any proper suit, action, or other proceeding with respect to any such violation, right, or liability. Any appeal pending under said Conservation Order shall be considered under paragraph (i) hereof.

(n) Effective date. This order shall be effective as of the 24th day of March, 1943, at 12:01 a. m., e. w. t.

PART 1460—FATS AND OILS

RESTRICTIONS ON USE, PROCESSING, AND DELIVERY OF GLYCERINE

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 9280, dated December 5, 1942, and to assure an adequate supply and efficient distribution of glycerine to meet war and essential civilian needs, It is hereby ordered, As follows:

§ 1460.3 Glycerine; use, processing, and delivery restricted—(a) Definitions. When used in this order, unless otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof:

(1) The term "glycerine" means any and all concentrations of glycerol, from whatever source derived and whether crude or refined.

(2) The term "producer" means any person engaged in the production of glycerine and includes any person who has glycerine produced for him pursuant to toll agreement and any person who, on splitting any fat or oil, is entitled to the glycerine resulting therefrom. The term does not include any refiner of glycerine.

(3) The term "refiner" means any person engaged in the refining of glycerine.

(4) The term "distributor" means any person who has purchased or purchases glycerine for purposes of resale.

(5) The term "base period" means the calendar year 1940.

(6) The term "person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other business entity.

(7) The term "Director" means the Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, or any employee of the United States Department of Agriculture designated by such Director.

(b) Restrictions on delivery and use. (1) No person shall deliver, accept delivery of, or use glycerine except as specifically authorized and directed by the Director.

(2) Authorizations or directions with respect to deliveries and use in each month will, so far as practicable, be issued by the Director prior to the commencement of such month, but the Director may, at any time at his discretion and notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (c) hereof, issue directions with respect to deliveries to be made or accepted or with respect to the use or uses which may or may not be made of material to be delivered or then on hand. He may also at any time issue directions to a producer or refiner with respect to grades of glycerine to be produced or refined.

(3) Each person who is specifically authorized to accept delivery of glycerine shall use such material for the purpose authorized, and only for such purpose, except as otherwise specifically directed by the Director or as provided in paragraph (b) (4) hereof.

(4) Glycerine allocated for inventory shall not be used except as specifically authorized or directed by the Director. Glycerine allocated to fill a specific order or class of orders shall revert to inventory where and to the extent that such order or class of orders is not, for any reason, filled.

(c) Exceptions to requirement for specific authorization. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (b) (1) hereof, specific authorization of the Director shall not be required for:

(1) Acceptance of delivery, or use, by any person in any calendar month of 50 pounds or less of glycerine in the aggregate. For the purposes of this paragraph (c) (1), the term "person" means usual purchasing unit, whether plant, distributing agency, corporation, or other legal entity.

(2) Use by (but not delivery to) the Army or Navy of the United States, United States Maritime Commission, or War Shipping Administration, without regard to quantity.

(3) Acceptance of delivery, or use, by any person, in any calendar month of not more than 1150 pounds of glycerine in the aggregate (but more than 50 pounds): Provided, however, That the quantity of which delivery may be accepted, or use made, in any calendar month shall be subject to the following additional restrictions:

(i) Where acceptance of delivery, or use, is by a hospital, clinic, research and control laboratory, or other institution whose primary object is the maintenance of public health, and where the glycerine is to be used solely by the organization accepting delivery: no further restriction;

(ii) Where acceptance of delivery is by pharmacists for use in (or use is) the individual compounding of prescriptions of doctors, dentists, or veterinarians; or where acceptance of delivery is for (or use is) the manufacture of sterile solutions, ampoules, basic medicinal chemicals not in compounded form, dental impression compounds, biological preparations, and embalming fluids: no further restriction;

(iii) Where acceptance of delivery is for (or use is) the manufacture of other medicinal or veterinary preparations: a further restriction to one hundred percent of $\frac{1}{12}$ of the quantity of glycerine used in such manufacture in the base period;

(iv) Where acceptance of delivery or use is not within (i), (ii) or (iii) hereof: a further restriction to 70 percent of $\frac{1}{12}$ of the quantity of glycerine used in the base period;

(v) Where the amount of which delivery may be accepted under paragraphs (b) (1) and (c) (3) hereof does not represent a practical shipping unit or multiple thereof, such paragraphs shall not prevent the acceptance of delivery of an amount approximating such permitted quantity: Provided, however, That the difference shall in no event exceed more than one small drum (approximately 550 pounds) and that the person accepting delivery shall in the next succeeding order or orders make appropriate adjustment.

(4) The delivery by any person to any other person who shall have filed with the person making delivery a certificate in substantially the following form:

The undersigned purchaser hereby certifies to the United States Department of Agriculture, Food Distribution Administration, and to his supplier (1) that he is familiar with the terms of Food Distribution Order No. 34; (2) that the ------- pounds of glycerine hereby ordered for delivery in ---------- month
194 .., will not, taking into consideration all other glycerine ordered for delivery in such month, exceed the quantity which he is permitted by said order to receive without a specific authorization of the Director; (3) that his purchase falls within paragraph (c) (1); paragraphs (c) (3), (i), (ii), (iii), (iv) [Strike out inapplicable paragraphs] and (4) that he has not received any specific authorization from the Director to receive or use glycerine during such month.

Name of Purchaser

By----------
Name of authorized official

Title

Date

No. 57——2

Such certificate shall be signed by an authorized official of the purchaser. The receipt of such certificate shall not authorize the delivery of glycerine by a producer or distributor when he knows or has reason to believe the same to be false, but in the absence of such knowledge or belief, he may rely on the certificate. No certificate shall be required where the amount delivered to any person does not exceed one gallon.

(5) The delivery of crude glycerine to, or acceptance of delivery of crude glycerine by, a refiner, for refining or the refining of crude glycerine.

(d) Prohibited use. No person shall use or consume glycerine in the manufacture of any anti-freeze product or preparation.

(e) Applications and reports. (1) Each person requiring authorization to accept delivery of or use glycerine during any calendar month (including a person seeking authorization to accept delivery of glycerine for resale) shall file application therefor on or before the 15th day of the month preceding the month for which authorization for delivery or use is requested. In each case the application shall be made upon War Production Board Form PD-600 or such other form or forms as may be prescribed by the Director. Forms may be obtained at regional offices of the Food Distribution Administration or local field offices of the War Production Board. Five copies shall be prepared, of which four shall be forwarded to the Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., Ref: FD 34, and the fifth retained as a file copy. For the purposes of this order, if War Production Board Form PD-600 is used, it shall be completed in the manner prescribed therein, subject to the following special instructions:

(i) On one of the four copies filed with the Director of Food Distribution, Tables II and III shall be left blank. An applicant seeking authorization to accept delivery or use at two or more plants shall file a separate set of Form PD-600 for each plant, unless authorized by the Director to file a consolidated application.

(ii) In the heading, under the name of chemical, specify "glycerine"; under WPB Order No., specify "FD-34"; under unit of measure, specify "pounds"; in the heading of Table I, insert in the blank the month and year for which authorization for acceptance of delivery or use is sought. Also state in the space under "supplier with whom this order is placed" the name of your usual supplier, and also list his shipping point.

(iii) In Columns 1, 11, and 19, specify grade or grades in terms of the following:

80% soap lye crude.
88% saponification crude.
Yellow distilled.
High-gravity (dynamite).
Chemically pure.
Other (describe).

(iv) In Column 3 specify your primary product in terms of the following, in each case specifying the item number listed below:

1 Drugs and pharmaceuticals.
2 Explosives.
3 Synthetic resins (specify).
4 Ester gums.
5 Rubber products.
6 Gaskets and cork products.
7 Cellulose films (specify).
8 Glassine and grease-proof paper (specify).
9 Printing rollers.
10 Printing supplies (specify).
11 Textile (printing, dyeing and finishing).
12 Leather products.
13 Adhesives (including book binding).
14 Paper other than #8.
15 Beverages, flavoring extracts, candy, and gum (specify).
16 Other edible products (specify).
17 Tobacco.
18 Cosmetics, toilet preparations, dentifrices, and shaving preparations (specify).
19 Chemical manufacture not elsewhere classified (specify).
20 Other class of product (specify).
21 Resale (as glycerine).
22 Inventory (see paragraph (b) (4).

(v) In Column 4, specify ultimate use of product (for example, if the "primary product" called for by Column 3 is "glassine and grease-proof paper," the "ultimate use of product" might be "food wrapping"), and also specify in each case whether your customer is Army, Navy, other government agency, lend-lease, or commercial customer. If a primary product made has more than one ultimate use, indicate approximate percentage applicable to each use. Where the Form PD-600 is an application for glycerine for resale (as glycerine), or for glycerine for inventory, leave Column 4 blank.

(vi) In Column 10, specify your average monthly use of glycerine in 1940 and use in corresponding month in 1940 in each class of use for which authorization to accept delivery (or use) is sought.

(vii) Leave blank Table IV.

(viii) In each case where the application on Form PD-600 for authority to accept delivery of, or use, glycerine is granted, one copy of Form PD-600, signed by the Director, will be returned to the applicant. Where authorization is to accept delivery, a second copy will be sent by the Director to the supplier selected by the Director which will be his authorization to deliver as indicated on such copy.

(2) Each producer, refiner, or distributor who, in any month produces, refines, or delivers more than 1150 pounds of glycerine shall file with the Director on or before the 15th day of the succeeding month one copy of War Production Board Form PD-383A (revised) or such other form or forms as may be prescribed by the Director.

(3) The Director may issue other and further directions to any such person with respect to preparing and filing Forms PD-600 and PD-383A (revised).

(f) Notification of customers. Each supplier shall notify his regular customers, as soon as possible, of the requirements of this order, but failure to receive such notice shall not excuse any person from complying with the terms hereof.

(g) Intra-company deliveries. The prohibitions and restrictions of this order with respect to deliveries of glycerine shall apply not only to deliveries to other persons, including affiliates and subsidiaries, but also deliveries from one branch, division, or section of a single enterprise to another branch, division, or section of the same or any other enterprise under common ownership or control.

(h) Records and reports. Every person subject to this order shall maintain such records for at least two years (or for such other periods of time as the Director may designate), and shall execute and file such reports upon such forms and submit such information as the Director may from time to time request or direct, and within such times as he may prescribe.

(i) Bureau of the Budget Approval. The reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942. Subsequent specific record-keeping or reporting requirements by the Director will be subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(j) Audits and inspections. Every person subject to this order shall, upon request, permit inspections, at all reasonable times, of his stocks of glycerine and premises used in his business, and all of his books, records, and accounts shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by the Director.

(k) Petition for relief from hardship. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship on him may petition in writing (in triplicate) for relief to the Director, setting forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought. The Director may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate, and such action shall be final.

(l) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this order or wilfully conceals a material fact concerning a matter within the jurisdiction of any Department or agency of the United States may be prohibited from receiving or making further deliveries of any material subject to allocation; and such further action may be taken against him as the Director deems appropriate, including recommendations for prosecution under Section 35a of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 80), under paragraph 5 of Section 301 of Title III of the Second War Powers Act, and under any and all other applicable laws.

(m) General Preference Order M–58 superseded. This order supersedes in all respects General Preference Order M–58 of the War Production Board (7 F.R. 10329) except that as to violations of said order or rights accrued, liabilities incurred, or appeals taken under such order prior to the effective date hereof, said General Preference Order shall be deemed in full force and effect for the purpose of sustaining any proper suit, action, or other proceeding with respect to any such violation, right, or liability. Any appeal pending under said General Preference Order shall be considered under paragraph (k) hereof.

(n) Communications to Department of Agriculture. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., Ref: FD 34.

(o) Effective date. This order shall be effective on March 24, 1943, as of 12:01 a. m., e. w. t.

PART 1460—FATS AND OILS

RESTRICTIONS ON THE USE AND DISTRIBUTION OF RAPESEED OIL AND MUSTARD SEED OIL

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 9280, dated December 5, 1942, and to assure an adequate supply and efficient distribution of rapeseed oil and mustard seed oil to meet war and essential civilian needs, It is hereby ordered, As follows:

§ 1460.7 Delivery, use, and distribution of rapeseed oil and mustard seed oil restricted—(a) Definitions. When used in this order, unless otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof:

(1) The term "rapeseed oil" means that oil obtained from rapeseed, commonly known as rapeseed oil (Colza oil), whether crude, raw, filtered, refined, or blown and whether or not denatured.

(2) The term "mustard seed oil" means that oil obtained from mustard seed, commonly known as mustard seed oil, whether crude, raw, filtered, refined, or blown and whether or not denatured.

(3) The term "person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other business entity.

(4) The term "producer" means any person engaged in the production of rapeseed oil or mustard seed oil and includes any person who has rapeseed oil or mustard seed oil produced for him pursuant to toll agreement.

(5) The term "distributor" means any person who has purchased or purchases rapeseed oil or mustard seed oil for purposes of resale.

(6) The term "Director" means the Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, or any employee of the United States Department of Agriculture designated by such Director.

(b) Restrictions on delivery, use, processing, and blending. (1) No person shall deliver, accept delivery of, use, process, or blend rapeseed oil or mustard seed oil, except as specifically authorized or directed by the Director.

(2) Authorizations or directions with respect to deliveries, use, processing, and blending in each calendar month will, so far as practicable, be issued by the Director prior to the commencement of such month; but the Director may, at any time, at his discretion, and notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (c) and (d) hereof, issue directions with respect to deliveries to be made or accepted, or with respect to the use or uses which may or may not be made of rapeseed oil or mustard seed oil to be delivered or then on hand. He may also at any time issue directions to a producer with respect to the grade of rapeseed oil or mustard seed oil which he may manufacture.

(3) Each person specifically authorized to accept delivery of rapeseed oil or mustard seed oil shall use such material for the purpose authorized, and only for such purpose, except as otherwise specifically directed by the Director.

(4) Rapeseed oil or mustard seed oil allocated for inventories shall not be used, processed, or blended except as specifically directed by the Director. Rapese d oil or mustard seed oil allocated:

(i) to fill a specified order, or

(ii) to be used for a specified end use during a specified month, shall revert to inventories where and to the extent that the oil so allocated is not used for the specific order or the specific end use.

(c) Exceptions to requirement for specific authorization. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (b) (1) hereof, specific authorization of the Director shall not be required for:

(1) Acceptance of delivery, use, processing, or blending by any person in any one calendar month of 40 lbs. or less of rapeseed oil and mustard seed oil in the aggregate;

(2) Bleaching or alkali refining by any person of rapeseed oil or mustard seed oil, without regard to quantity; or

(3) Delivery of rapeseed oil or mustard seed oil by any producer or distributor to any person who shall have filed with him an authorization signed by the Director authorizing such person to accept delivery of rapeseed oil or mustard seed oil in the quantity and in the period in which delivery is made.

(d) Exception for small orders. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (b) (1) hereof, specific authorization of the Director shall not be required for deliveries set forth in this paragraph, but no producer shall make deliveries described in this paragraph without specific authorization of the Director to make deliveries of a specific maximum quantity under this paragraph each month. Deliveries of quantities in excess of this maximum may not be made without further authorization of the Director. The application for authorization to make such deliveries shall specify the maximum quantity requested for each type of delivery. These provisions apply to the delivery of rapeseed oil or mustard seed oil by any producer or distributor to any person who shall have filed with him a certificate in substantially the following form:

The undersigned purchaser hereby certifies to the United States Department of Agriculture, Food Distribution Administration and to his supplier that the rapeseed oil or mustard seed oil hereby ordered for delivery in _____, 1943, does not, taken with all other rapeseed oil and mustard seed oil delivered or to be delivered in such month, exceed 40 lbs., the amount which he is entitled to receive under paragraph (c) (1) of Food Distribution Order No. 35.

Name of Purchaser

By _____ Authorized Official

Title

Such certificate shall be signed by an authorized official of the purchaser. The receipt of such certificate shall not authorize the delivery of rapeseed oil or mustard seed oil by a producer or distributor where he knows or has reason to believe the same to be false, but in the absence of such knowledge or reason for belief, he may rely on the certificate.

(e) Applications for delivery, use, processing or blending. (1) Each person requiring authorization to accept delivery of, use, process, or blend rapeseed oil or mustard seed oil during any calendar month, beginning with April 1943 (including : person seeking authorization to accept delivery of rapeseed oil or mustard seed oil for resale), shall file application therefor on or before the 15th day of the month preceding the month for which authorization for delivery, use, processing, or blending is requested. Application for acceptance of delivery, use, processing, or blending in April 1943 shall .be filed as many days as possible in advance of the requested delivery, use, processing, or blending. In any case, such application shall be made on War Production Board Form PD–600, or such other form or forms as may be prescribed by the Director. Forms may be obtained at local field offices of the War Production Board or Regional Offices of the Food Distribution Administration, United States Department of Agriculture. Five copies shall be prepared, of which four shall be forwarded to the Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., Ref.: FD 35, the fifth to be retained for applicant's files. For the purposes of this order, if War Production Board Form PD–600 is used, it shall be completed in the manner prescribed therein, subject to the following special instructions:

(i) In the heading, under name of chemical, specify "Rapeseed Oil", or "Mustard Seed Oil"; under WPB Order No., specify "FD 35"; under unit of measure, specify "Pounds, dry weight"; and, in the heading of Table I, insert in the blank the month and year for which authorization for acceptance of delivery, use, or processing is sought.

(ii) In the space under "Supplier with whom this order is placed" state name of usual supplier, and list his shipping point. If application is for authority to use, consume, or process oil from own inventory, leave these spaces blank.

(iii) In Columns 1, 11, and 19, indicate grade in terms of the following: crude, raw, filtered, refined, blown, or otherwise processed. If otherwise processed, identify product. If same grade of oil is required for more than one "primary product", or for the same "primary product" for more than one ultimate use, include quantity of grade applicable to each "primary product" or ultimate use.

(iv) In Columns 3, 20, and 22, specify your primary products in terms of the following: lubricating oil additive, rubber factice, rubber substitutes, sulfonated oil, plasticizers, protective coatings, others (specify).

(v) In Column 4, specify ultimate use of product (as, for example, "Marine engine lubrication" as opposed to "lubricating oil additive", which may be the primary product called for in Columns 3, 20, and 22) and also specify in each case whether the customer is Army, Navy, or other governmental agency, Lend-Lease, or commercial customers, and give Government specification number, if any. If the application is for Rapeseed Oil or Mustard Seed Oil for resale or for inventory (as Rapeseed Oil or Mustard Seed Oil), leave Column 4 blank. In each case where the application for authorization to use, process, or blend rapeseed oil or mustard seed oil is granted, one copy signed by the Director shall be returned to the applicant, and where the application is also for authorization to accept delivery, a second copy also signed by the Director, shall be sent to the applicant so that applicant may furnish same to the supplier selected by him.

(2) Each producer of rapeseed oil or mustard seed oil shall file War Production Board Form PD–601, or such other form or forms as may be prescribed by the Director, on or before the 15th day of each month, beginning with April 1943. Forms may be obtained at local field offices of the War Production Board or the Food Distribution Administration, United States Department of Agriculture. Four copies shall be prepared, of which three shall be forwarded to the Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., Ref: FD 35, the fourth to be retained for applicant's file. For the purposes of this order, if War Production Board Form PD–601 is used, it shall be completed in the manner prescribed therein, subject to the following special instructions:

(i) In the heading, under name of chemicals, specify "Rapeseed Oil", or "Mustard Seed Oil"; under WPB Order No., specify "FD 35"; under name of company, state name and mailing address; under unit of measure, specify "pounds, dry weight"; in heading "This schedule is for deliveries to be made during the month of _____, 194__", strike out the words "to be" and insert in the next blank the month preceding the month in which form is filed, and also indicate year.

(ii) Insert in Column 1, the words "total small order deliveries last month", and in Column 4 specify the total quantity of rapeseed oil or mustard seed oil delivered by applicant in such last month pursuant to paragraphs (c) (1) and (d) hereof. In other respects, Table I may, at applicant's discretion, be left blank.

(iii) In Column 8, specify grades produced, in terms of grades indicated in paragraph (e) (1) (iii) hereof.

(iv) In Column 9, show actual production during preceding month.

(v) In Column 10, show actual deliveries during preceding month.

(vi) In Column 11, show stocks as of first of preceding month.

(vii) In Column 12, show stocks as of first of current month.

(viii) Leave blank Columns 13–16, inclusive.

(ix) In addition to the foregoing, each producer who is a crusher of rapeseed or mustard seed shall strike out the headings to Columns 15 and 16, and insert in these columns and in margin: (a) Quantity of seed received during preceding month; (b) Quantity of seed crushed during preceding month; and (c) Quantity of seed on hand at the end of preceding month.

(3) The Director may issue other and further directions with respect to preparing and filing forms.

(f) Records and reports. Every person subject to this order shall maintain such records for at least two years (or for such other periods of time as the Director may designate), and shall execute and file such reports upon such forms and submit such information as the Director may from time to time request or direct, and within such time as he may prescribe.

(g) Bureau of the Budget approval. The reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942. Subsequent specific record-keeping or reporting requirements by the Director will be subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(h) Notification of customers. Each supplier shall notify his regular customers as soon as possible of the requirements of this order, but failure to receive such notice shall not excuse any person from complying with the terms hereof.

(i) Existing contracts. The restrictions of this order concerning delivery, acceptance, use, processing, and consumption of rapeseed oil and mustard seed oil shall be observed without regard to existing contracts or any rights accrued or payments made thereunder.

(j) Intra-company deliveries. The prohibitions and restrictions of this order with respect to deliveries of rapeseed oil and mustard seed oil shall apply not only to deliveries to other persons, including affiliates and subsidiaries, but also to deliveries from one branch, division, or section of a single enterprise to another branch, division, or section of the same or any other enterprise under common ownership or control.

(k) Audits and inspections. Every person subject to this order shall, upon request, permit inspections, at all reasonable times, of his stocks of rapeseed oil and mustard seed oil and premises used in his business, and all of his books, records, and accounts shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by the Director.

(l) Petition for relief from hardship. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may petition in writing (in triplicate) for relief to the Director, setting forth all pertinent facts and the nature of relief sought. The Director may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate and such action shall be final.

(m) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this order or wilfully conceals a material fact concerning a matter within the jurisdiction of any Department or agency of the United States may be prohibited from receiving or making further deliveries of any material subject to allocation; and such further action may be taken against him as the Director deems appropriate, including recommendations for prosecution under section 35a of the Criminal Code (18 U. S. C. 1940 ed. 80), under paragraph 5 of section 301 of Title III of the Second War Powers Act, and under any and all other applicable laws.

(n) Communications to Department of Agriculture. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., Ref: FD–35.

(o) General Preference Order M–77 superseded. This order supersedes in all respects General Preference Order M–77 (7 F.R. 7939) of the War Production Board except that as to violations of said order or rights accrued, liabilities incurred, or appeals taken under said order prior to the effective date hereof, said General Preference Order shall be deemed in full force and effect for the purpose of sustaining any proper suit, action or other proceeding with respect to any such violation, right or liability. Any appeal pending under said General Preference Order shall be considered under subparagraph (1) hereof.

(p) Territorial extent. This order applies to all persons in the United States, its Territories and Possessions, and the District of Columbia.

(q) Effective date. This order shall be effective on March 24, 1943, as of 12:01 a. m., e. w. t.

PART 1460—FATS AND OILS

RESTRICTIONS ON USE AND DELIVERY OF CASHEW NUT SHELL LIQUID

Pursuant to authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 9280, dated December 5, 1942, and to assure an adequate supply and efficient distribution of cashew nut shell liquid to meet war and essential civilian needs, It is hereby ordered, As follows:

§ 1460.12 Use and delivery of cashew nut shell liquid restricted—(a) Definitions. When used in this order, unless otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof:

(1) The term "cashew nut shell liquid" means that liquid extracted, whether in this country or abroad, from the shell of the cashew nut and containing approximately 80 percent of phenol with molecular weight of 288 and approximately 20 percent of higher molecular weight phenol.

(2) The term "person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other business entity.

(3) The term "Director" means the Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, or any employee of the United States Department of Agriculture designated by such Director.

(b) Restrictions on use and delivery of cashew nut shell liquid. No person shall use, deliver, or accept delivery of, cashew nut shell liquid except as hereinafter specifically authorized by the Director, upon application on War Production Board Form PD–271, or such other forms as may be prescribed by the Director: Provided, however, That no such specific authorization shall be required with respect to:

(1) The delivery or use of cashew nut shell liquid to fill orders bearing preference ratings issued by the War Production Board of A–2 or better for the following end products:

(i) Molding resins for insulating aviation electrical parts.

(ii) Resin solutions for impregnating electrical coils.

(2) The delivery to and use by any person of cashew nut shell liquid for the manufacture of brake linings or other friction elements pursuant to a specific contract or subcontract for the United States Army, Navy, Coast Guard, or Maritime Commission.

(3) The delivery to and use by any person of cashew nut shell liquid for the manufacture of brake linings or other friction elements for aircraft of any kind.

(4) The use of cashew nut shell liquid by any person in the manufacture of brake linings to fill orders bearing preference ratings issued by the War Production Board of A–2 or better; provided that such cashew nut shell liquid was purchased and received by such person on or before May 14, 1942.

(5) The importation of cashew nut shell liquid into the United States, its territories or possessions, the acceptance of delivery of such cashew nut shell liquid by the consignee thereof, and the delivery by such consignee to any person who purchased or contracted to purchase such cashew nut shell liquid prior to its importation: Provided, however, That nothing contained in this paragraph (b) (5) shall limit the requirements of General Imports Order M–63 of the War Production Board, as now or hereafter amended.

(6) The delivery of cashew nut shell liquid by or to the Commodity Credit Corporation or its authorized agents.

(c) Existing contracts. The restrictions of this order concerning the use and delivery of cashew nut shell liquid shall be observed without regard to existing contracts or any rights accrued or payments made thereunder.

(d) Intra-company deliveries. The prohibitions and restrictions of this order with respect to deliveries of cashew nut shell liquid shall apply not only to deliveries to other persons, including affiliates and subsidiaries, but also deliveries from one branch, division, or section of a single enterprise to another branch, division, or section of the same or any other enterprise under common ownership or control.

(e) Records and reports. Every person subject to this order shall maintain such records for at least two years (or for such period of time as the Director may designate), and shall execute and file such reports upon such forms and submit such information as the Director may from time to time request or direct, and within such times as he may prescribe.

(f) Bureau of the Budget approval. The specific reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942. Further specific record keeping or reporting requirements which may be prescribed by the Director shall be subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(g) Audits and inspections. Every person subject to this order shall, upon request, permit inspections, at all reasonable times, of his stocks of cashew nut shell liquid, of his premises used in his business, and all his books, records, and accounts shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by the Director.

(h) Petition for relief from hardship. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship on him may petition in writing (in triplicate), for relief to the Director, setting forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought. The Director may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate and such action shall be final.

(i) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this order, or wilfully conceals a material fact concerning a matter within the scope of this order may be prohibited from receiving or making further deliveries of any material subject to allocation control; and such further action may be taken against him as the Director deems appropriate, including recommendations for prosecution under section 35a of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 80), under paragraph 5 of section 301, Title III of the Second War Powers Act, and under any and all other applicable laws.

(j) Communications to Director. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., Ref: FD–36.

(k) General Preference Order M–66 superseded. This order supersedes in all respects General Preference Order M–66 (7 F.R. 3572) of the War Production Board, except that as to violations of said order or rights accrued, liabilities incurred, or appeals taken under said order prior to the effective date hereof, said General Preference Order shall be deemed in full force and effect for the purpose of sustaining any proper suit, action, or other proceeding with respect to any such violation, right, or liability. Any appeal pending under said General Preference Order shall be considered under paragraph (h) hereof.

(l) Territorial extent. This order applies to all persons in the United States, its territories and possessions, and the District of Columbia.

(m) Effective date. This order shall be effective on March 24, 1943, as of 12:01 a. m., e. w. t.

PART 1460—FATS AND OILS

RESTRICTIONS ON USE, PROCESSING, AND DELIVERY OF SPERM OIL

Pursuant to authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 9280, dated December 5, 1942, and to assure an adequate supply and efficient distribution of sperm oil to meet war and essential civilian needs, It is hereby ordered, As follows:

§ 1460.8 Use, processing, and delivery of sperm oil restricted—(a) Definitions. When used in this order, unless otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof:

(1) The term "sperm oil" means that oil obtained from the head or body of the sperm whale, alone or combined, including sperm oil which has been winterized, pressed, distilled, deodorized, sulphonated, sulphurized, sulfo-chlorinated, sulphated, blown, or otherwise physically or chemically treated, but excluding crude and refined spermaceti.

(2) The term "person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other business entity.

(3) The term "Director" means the Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, or any employee of the United States Department of Agriculture designated by such Director.

(b) Restrictions on use, processing and delivery of sperm oil. No person shall use, process, deliver, or accept delivery of sperm oil except as specifically authorized by the Director upon application of the user, processor, or deliverce on War Production Board Form PD–481 (or such other form or forms as may be prescribed by the Director), or except as provided in paragraph (c).

(c) Exemptions. Specific authorization of the Director shall not be required with respect to:

(1) The delivery by any one person of 2,000 pounds or less of sperm oil in any one calendar month in lots of not more than 100 pounds to any one person in any one calendar month.

(2) The use, processing, and acceptance of delivery of 100 pounds or less of sperm oil by any one person in any one calendar month.

(3) The delivery of sperm oil by (but not to), the acceptance of delivery by, and the use or processing of sperm oil by the United States Army, Navy, Coast Guard, Maritime Commission, or War Shipping Administration.

(d) Restrictions on use of sperm oil in lubricating oils and greases. (1) No person shall, in the production of lubricating or cutting oils or compounds, use sulphurized sperm oil having a sulphur content of less than ten percent (10%) by weight (including in the weight of such sulphurized sperm oil, the weight of any unsulphurized sperm oil used in conjunction therewith); and

(2) No person shall, in the production of lubricating or cutting oils or compounds, use sperm oil to an extent which will increase the sulphur content of such oil or compound to an amount in excess of that of the same grade of such oil or compound as prepared by the producer thereof, during the thirty day period immediately prior to May 16, 1942.

(e) Existing contracts. The restrictions of this order concerning delivery, acceptance, use, processing, and consumption of sperm oil shall be observed without regard to existing contracts or any rights accrued or payments made thereunder.

(f) Records and reports. (1) Each person who shall bring sperm oil into the United States, or its territories or possessions, shall file a letter with the Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., Ref: FD 37, within ten days after such importation, stating the port of entry, place of storage, ownership, grade and amount of such sperm oil.

(2) Every person subject to this order shall maintain such records for at least two years (or for such other periods of time as the Director may designate), and shall execute and file such reports upon such forms and submit such information as the Director may from time to time request or direct, and within such times as he may prescribe.

(g) Intra-company deliveries. The prohibitions and restrictions of this order with respect to deliveries of sperm oil shall apply not only to deliveries to other persons, including affiliates and subsidiaries, but also deliveries from one branch, division, or section of a single enterprise to another branch, division, or section of the same or any other enterprise under common ownership or control.

(h) Audits and inspections. Every person subject to this order shall, upon request, permit inspections, at all reasonable times, of his stocks of sperm oil and premises used in his business, and all of his books, records, and accounts shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by the Director.

(i) Petition for relief from hardship. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship on him may petition in writing (in triplicate) for relief to the Director, setting forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought. The Director may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate, and such action shall be final.

(j) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this order or wilfully conceals a material fact concerning a matter within the jurisdiction of any Department or agency of the United States may be prohibited from receiving or making further deliveries of any material subject to allocation and such further action may be taken against him as the Director deems appropriate, including recommendations for prosecution under section 35a of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 80), under paragraph 5 of section 301 of Title III of the Second War Powers Act, and under any and all other applicable laws.

(k) Communications to Department of Agriculture. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., Ref: FD 37.

(l) General Preference Order M–40 superseded. This order supersedes in all respects General Preference Order M–40 (7 F.R. 8690) of the War Production Board, except that as to violations of said order or rights accrued, liabilities incurred, or appeals taken under said order prior to the effective date hereof said order shall be deemed in full force and effect for the purpose of sustaining any proper suit, action, or other proceeding with respect to any such violation, right or liability. Any appeal pending under said General Preference Order shall be considered under paragraph (i) hereof.
